Dear Brethren,

Thank you for helping to distribute the Bibles and Greek-English Interlinears. Indeed, many brethren have been ordering copies to share with brethren in other churches of God. We have sent out lots and lots of them over the past month. And we still have plenty more available! Remember, these Bibles are already paid for, making it possible for you to give copies to those who want them and will use them. There is nothing better that we can give to someone than the complete Word of God. You can order them by the box—calfskin, 8 in a box; vinyl, 6 in a box; and Interlinears, 4 in a box. We will continue this program of distributing the Bible without cost until the inventory has been greatly reduced. So keep on ordering and distributing them!

We have been keeping up with many things going on in the world, but the most important thing that we must keep our minds on is this: The plan of God is moving forward, and all the prophecies about the end times are coming to pass. God has revealed these things in the Bible, which even the prophet Daniel could not understand: “And I heard, but I did not understand. Then I said, ‘O my lord, what shall be the end of these things?’ And he said, ‘Go your way, Daniel, for the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end. Many shall be purified, and made white, and refined. But the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand’ ” (Dan. 12:8-10).

This is the condition of the world—but they do not realize it because Satan has blinded their minds (Rev. 12:9). But God has promised that the wise would understand. How is that possible?

God accomplishes this because He reveals His plan to us through His Sabbath and holy days—but only as we keep them. Jesus called God’s plan the “mysteries of the kingdom of God.” The world cannot understand these mysteries—especially the so-called “Christian” world, because they do not truly believe and obey God as they should. Their blindness also results from their insistence on keeping Sunday and pagan holidays. While they may profess some biblical principles, they refuse to keep God’s holy Sabbath and His holy days—which are annual Sabbaths.

On the other hand, this knowledge has been graciously given to true Christians—the few, the scattered, the faithful in Christ. Jesus told His disciples: “Because it has been given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given. For whoever has understanding, to him more shall be given, and he shall have an abundance; but whoever does not have understanding, even what he has shall be taken away from him.

“For this reason I speak to them in parables, because seeing, they see not; and hearing, they hear not; neither do they understand. And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which says, ‘In hearing you shall hear, and in no way understand; and in seeing you shall see, and in no way perceive; for the heart of this people has grown fat [because of sin], and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and should hear with their ears, and should understand with their hearts, and should be converted, and I should heal them.’

“But blessed are your eyes, because they see; and your ears, because they hear. For truly I say to you, many prophets and righteous men have desired to see what you see, and have not seen; and to hear what you hear, and have not heard” (Matt. 13:11-17).

The apostle Paul wrote that God has made known the secret, or mystery, of His plan to those He has called—who have the Holy Spirit of God, and love and obey Him: “Having predestinated us for sonship to Himself through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of His own will, to the praise of the glory of His grace, wherein He has made us objects of His grace in the Beloved Son; in Whom we have redemption through His blood, even the remission of sins, according to the riches of His grace, which He has made to abound toward us in all wisdom and intelligence; HAVING MADE KNOWN TO US THE MYSTERY OF HIS OWN WILL, according to His good pleasure, which He purposed in Himself; that in the divine plan for the fulfilling of the times, He might bring all things together in Christ, both the things in the heavens and the things upon the earth” (Eph. 1:5-10).

Indeed, Jesus did reveal many of the mysteries of the Kingdom of God to His apostles and disciples while He was personally teaching them. And nearly thirty years after His ascension to the right hand of the Father, Jesus revealed even more details to His apostles and prophets, as Paul further wrote to the Ephesians: “For this cause I, Paul, am the prisoner of Christ Jesus for you Gentiles, if indeed you have heard of the ministry of the grace of God that was given to me for you; how He made known to me by revelation the mystery (even as I wrote briefly before, so that when you read this, you will be able to comprehend my understanding in the mystery of Christ), which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men, as it has now been revealed to His holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; that the Gentiles might be joint heirs, and a joint body, and joint partakers of His promise in Christ through the gospel, of which I became a servant according to the gift of the grace of God, which was given to me through the inner working of His power. To me, who am less than the least of all the saints, was this grace given, that I might preach the gospel among the Gentiles—even the unsearchable riches of Christ; and that I might enlighten all as to what is the fellowship of the mystery that has been hidden from the ages in God, Who created all things by Jesus Christ” (Eph. 3:1-9).

All the apostles and prophets of the apostolic New Testament Church were given divine revelations concerning the mysteries of the Kingdom of God. The apostle Peter also writes of this: “Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect strangers scattered in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia; who have been chosen according to the predetermined knowledge of God the Father, by sanctification through the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied to you.

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who, according to His abundant mercy, has begotten us again unto a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead; unto an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and unfading, reserved in heaven for us, who are being safeguarded by the power of God through faith, for salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time. . . . Concerning which salvation the [Old Testament] prophets who prophesied of the grace that would come to you have diligently searched out and intently inquired, searching into what way and what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them was indicating, testifying beforehand of the sufferings of Christ, and these glories that would follow; to whom it was revealed that, not for themselves, but to us they were ministering these things, which now have been announced to you by those who have preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit, sent from heaven—into which things the angels desire to look” (I Pet. 1:1-5, 10-12).

Those who are considered “wise” in the world will never understand because they are of the world and not of God! They reject God and His Word, as Paul writes: “Indeed, the wrath of God is revealed from heaven upon all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men who suppress the truth in unrighteousness; because that which may be known of God is manifest among them, for God has manifested it to them; for the invisible things of Him are perceived from the creation of the world, being understood by the things that were made—both His eternal power and Godhead—so that they are without excuse; because when they knew God, they glorified Him not as God, neither were thankful; but they became vain in their own reasonings, and their foolish hearts were darkened. While professing themselves to be the wise ones, they became fools” (Rom. 1:18-22).

However, God promised that in the time of the end “the wise would understand.” The “wise” in this case are those whom God has called—who also repent, are baptized, and receive the Holy Spirit of God. They are “the wise” because they love and obey God.

True to the promises of Christ, God has through the years revealed to his Church more and more of His plan through His ordained feasts. This is why we produced the 993-page book entitled God’s Plan for Mankind Revealed by His Sabbath and Holy Days, with two accompanying CDs containing 38 sermons. In this book, the feasts of God are explained in great detail from the Scriptures, showing how the plan of God unfolds—past, present, and future. If you do not have this vital book, you may order it at no cost by calling, emailing, or writing the office.

Another key to understanding prophecy is this: What Daniel began as found in the book of Daniel, the apostle John finished in the book of Revelation. Consequently, it is impossible to understand Daniel without Revelation or to understand Revelation without Daniel. They go hand-in-hand. Moreover, one needs to have a good understanding of the rest of the Bible to grasp the overall picture. True to the promises of God, if we rightly divide the Word of Truth—line upon line, precept upon precept, a little here and a little there—we will understand. Not because we are anything of ourselves, but because of the promises of God: “A good understanding have all those who [actually] do His commandments” (Psa. 111:10).

If you do not have our study series on Daniel and Revelation, with the 38 messages and accompanying charts, please request it at no cost. This is a very detailed study of all the major prophecies in Daniel and Revelation. The series is a great companion study to go along with the book God’s Plan for Mankind Revealed by His Sabbath and Holy Days.

The Gospel of the Kingdom of God: The entire plan of God focuses on God establishing the Kingdom of God on earth when Jesus Christ returns. All those in the first resurrection to eternal life will reign with Him during the one-thousand-year rule of the Kingdom of God. We will bring to all mankind the peace and the love of God—the righteous government of God with Christ as King: “And I saw thrones; and they that sat upon them, and judgment was given to them; and I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus, and for the Word of God, and those who did not worship the beast, or his image, and did not receive the mark in their foreheads or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.... This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy is the one who has part in the first resurrection; over these the second death has no power. But they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years” (Rev. 20:4-6).

After being resurrected from the dead, or if still alive at the resurrection, all the saints will be changed. We will, then, be spirit beings—the immortal, eternal sons and daughters of God. We will reign on the earth over the nations: “Worthy are You to take the book, and to open its seals because You were slain, and did redeem us to God by Your own blood, out of every tribe and language and people and nation, and did make us unto our God kings and priests; and we shall reign on the earth.... And to the one who overcomes, and keeps My works unto the end, I will give authority over the nations; and he shall shepherd them with an iron rod, as vessels of pottery are broken in pieces; as I have also received from My Father” (Rev. 5:9-10; 2:26-27).

The Saints are the Hope of the World: Living in the last days, we can see that it is impossible for men to obtain peace and to rule themselves. This is why God has His plan to bring the Kingdom of God to the earth when Jesus returns. Because we are a key part of God’s plan, destined to reign with Christ, we are also the hope of the world. In fact, the world is waiting for us, as Paul writes: “For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are the sons of God. Now you have not received a spirit of bondage again unto fear, but you have received the Spirit of sonship, whereby we call out, ‘Abba, Father.’

“The Spirit itself bears witness conjointly with our own spirit, testifying that we are the children of God. Now if we are children, we are also heirs—truly, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if indeed we suffer together with Him, so that we may also be glorified together [and reign] with Him. For I reckon that the sufferings of the present time *are not worthy to be compared with the glory that shall be revealed in us.

“For the earnest expectation of the creation itself is awaiting the manifestation of the sons of God; because the creation was subjected to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of Him who subjected it in hope, in order that the creation itself might be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the freedom of the glory of the children of God. For we know that all the creation is groaning together and travailing together until now. And not only that, but even we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, also groan within ourselves, awaiting the sonship—the redemption of our bodies” (Rom. 8:14-23).

Brethren, let us keep this ultimate hope of God in our hearts and minds as we keep the holy days and feasts of God—beginning with the Passover in April. We have GREAT HOPE for ourselves, and are part of the HOPE OF THE WORLD under Jesus Christ our Lord! This is why we are to rejoice in the Sabbath, holy days, and feasts of God.

Brethren, we need to draw close to God in heartfelt prayer and in the daily study of God’s Word—so that we can grow in grace and knowledge and always be overcoming. We daily thank God the Father and Jesus Christ for the goodness and mercy shown to us. We thank you personally for your continued love and faithfulness to God and each other. We thank you for your prayers for us and all the brethren, and for your faithfulness in tithes and offerings. We pray that God will continue to bless you and keep watch over you in every way. We continue to pray for you—for your health, your healing, and that God’s love and grace will be upon you in all circumstances.

With love in Christ Jesus,

Fred R. Coulter

Letters and Emails from Website Visitors

Dear Brethren: Thank you for all your materials and videos and the “Live” Sabbath services. The teaching materials have truly blessed me and I already notice changes in my life. I know the Lord knows my heart, and if I keep going I know one day I’ll receive His Holy Spirit—and I will know!

God bless you and all your flock. It’s a small world out there. Recently, I made contact with some old friends of many years and discovered they both were Sabbath keepers. I look forward to a trip to visit them. It’s been a long, arduous journey for us health-wise, including the move here to Texas. It’s been 10 years since my diagnosis and 5 years since my husband’s cancer surgery. We are blessed to be in our 80s, and the Lord willing we’ll survive a trip planned for this year.

I thank you again for all that you do—the work that you and many others do in getting God’s Word out, especially in these times. Please keep us in your prayers, and of course for our nation and for each other. With love in Christ.—JY, Texas

Dear Fred: Thank you for your messages on Transhumanism. It is becoming more clear each day that we are in the end times. I’ve been trying to decide whether to see “Sound of Freedom,” but I don’t know if I could handle it. I pray all the time for little children, even though I don’t have any. It is hard to believe that this is really happening.

So many things you have preached on are coming to fruition. I pray and long for God’s coming kingdom when all this sick corruption and perversion will come to an end! Thank you always for every one of your sermons!—LJ, Missouri

Dear Minister Coulter: Thank you for all the publications you have sent out to me; they have really helped my understanding of the Bible! What a blessing! Thanks again!—GD, Kansas

Dear Friend Fred: Thank you for being dedicated to and faithful to the true words of Christ. Our world abounds in the illusion of knowledge while denying the true source of essential knowledge. Thank you for your years of dedicated service to protecting the accuracy of God’s Word—so that those whom God is calling can have access to His truthful revelation to mankind.

It seems each day now we see some additional scientific report that actually details another part of God’s magnificent creation (Rom. 1:19). Unfortunately, man’s physical achievements are all too often used to obscure the spiritual development that God has underway here on earth. What a remarkable day it will be when God pulls back the curtain of deception and allows all the world to see what He has been doing “behind the scenes.” “O the depth of the riches of both the wisdom and the knowledge of God! How unfathomable are His judgments and unsearchable are His ways!” (Rom. 11:33).

Thank you, Fred, for helping us keep attuned to God’s unfathomable spiritual creation while the world descends further into Satan’s great deception.—RM, Washington

Dear Fred: Thank you again for your love of God (it really comes through!) and your dedication and hard work! I can’t tell you enough about how much we’ve learned about God from you and how much it’s meant to us. Thank you! With love in Christ.—LB & H, New York

Dear Fred: Thank you for the thoughtful preparation of the holy day messages, as well as the weekly Sabbath messages you prepare for the benefit of the small flock that God has called out of this world to be part of His family. To be called to be part of the family of God is nearly beyond comprehension. We certainly see through a glass darkly, at best (I Cor. 13:12).

Thank you for helping us see what a wonderful calling it is! Thank you for the love you exhibit for God the Father, Jesus Christ, and all the brethren through your diligent efforts to provide the resources for us to understand that wonderful calling. Sincerely.—RM, Washington

Hello Mr. Coulter: By learning more about God's Word and His ways, I see that God always appoints people to call the nations to repentance—when God's judgment is upon those nations for departing from Him. God uses war, pestilence, desolation, misery, grief, captivity, etc. This is how it has been with the prophets in the past.

Today, it looks like the whole world is under God's judgement. I see the wars and the terror increase as the peace slowly disappears. I see more and more natural disasters every year. We have many crises—economic, political, educational. Life is becoming more and more difficult every year with increasing inflation. In these awful times, I'm grateful that there are still people like you and the elders of the CBCG who are willing to call for repentance—and who preach the Word of God as it is without changing it or sugarcoating it.

I am waiting for the day when we will see this world replaced by God's Kingdom—with full peace. Thank you and keep up the good work. Best regards.—IV, Central Europe

Dear Fred Coulter: This is the day of the two goats—one representing Christ, and the other Satan. You know God opens understanding of His Word to people, but not always to the same degree for everyone. Also, we know that God has a purpose—though He has not yet revealed it to most of the world. I am humbled and thankful that God has revealed the understanding of His plan for salvation to those He has chosen. In God we trust.—JW

Dear Fred: You have been such a help to me. God has used you for much good in my life. I remember the instructions you gave to me—to help others and to help the ministry. God has blessed you with tremendous love—and I know He loves you. But it's not time to rest yet—we still need you and there is much more to do. Which much love.—BN, California

Dear Sirs: We thank you all for the sermons we are able to listen to. Such a blessing! We were not able to attend the Feast these last three years—so we are most appreciative of your website. It is a lot of work! We pray for you and just want to say thank you.—D

Hello Fred: I was pleased that the package you sent arrived a day earlier than expected—and I wanted to let you know it had arrived. I thank you very much for sending me the Bible, the books, and the discs. I am more excited than a kid in a candy store! The precious time that God is allowing me to have will be spent more and more with Him. Thank you and kind regards.—JG

Dear Fred and brethren: I wanted to send a donation for the book God's Plan for Mankind Revealed By His Sabbath and Holy Days, and for the new one on the Holy Spirit. They are so helpful in my understanding. They are so wonderful! Love.—LC

Dear Mr. Coulter: Thank you for the new booklet on the Holy Spirit. I read it cover to cover as soon as it arrived. I've learned so much from all your transcripts, booklets, etc. And thank you for the insight into what is going on in this present evil world. May you continue in God's blessings. So many need to understand the love of God.—EO, California

Mr. Coulter: Thank you for all that you do for me and the brethren. Thank you for helping us to understand God's Word. I'm so thankful that God sent you to us to preach His Word! We know we are to come out of this world and live according to the Bible—and not according to men.

May God bless and keep you so you can continue to preach the true Word of God. Only God's true Church preaches the truth.—RD, Ohio

Dear Fred: Thank you for all your excellent spiritual food. Please stay healthy and keep taking good care of yourself. Thank you for all you do for us. Love and prayers.—unknown

Dear Fred: We certainly live in interesting times. The present means for worldwide communication have never before existed. Thank you for using so many avenues of communication—audio, online, printed, etc.—to make the truth available to so many (even though it is hidden in plain sight!).

You recently did a three-part series on “The Power of Words.” This series would be most helpful in printed form. I was hoping we could have those three messages transcribed and made available upon request [now available at <https://cbcg.org/sin/sin-nature.html>].

Thank you for all you do in providing an outstanding service to the brethren and to those God is calling to the truth. Thank you, Fred.—R & N, Washington

Dear Mr. Fred: Hello and God bless you and all the brethren out there. You all work and pray so tirelessly for all. Thank you. I personally have benefited from those prayers. I pray for all of us daily. I am blessed to know the Bagers, Leisa Hines, and Tom and Rhonda Fannin. They have been so kind and always there for me. Please send me From A Speck of Dust to a Son of God—Why Were You born?, Isaiah’s Prophecies of the Millennium, Washed in the Water by His Word, and The Holy Spirit—The Power of God. Thank you. God has given you a special gift, and I pray for your health and protection. In God’s love.—K

Dear Fred: We want to send thanks to you and the brethren we were blessed to enjoy the Feast of Tabernacles with! It was very uplifting and scriptural and joyous!

Thank you also for the literature! We listen and read along regularly. We brought two boxes of Bibles and have only six remaining—so far! We even learned that a small group from our Medford congregation kept the Feast in Branson this year. They “sampled” the three congregations and felt that the live messages of yours were the best and most fulfilling! Please greet the brethren there for us; we miss all of you! In Christian love.—MS & MX, Oregon

Dear Fred: Thank you so much, and also those on your staff, for all you have done and are doing for those called by the Father through Jesus Christ! I appreciate how you teach as you give the messages, and add personal life experiences on the subject. With deep appreciation.—W

Hello Fred: My husband, Paul, and I would like to thank you for your messages and for bringing the truth to all who are searching for it. We’ve both been in the church since 1977, when both of our parents were called. We’ve both seen and learned a lot over the years and feel the truth is dwindling away—and that the real meat we are hungering for is getting difficult to find.

We want you to know we appreciate all you are doing for the brethren far and wide. Thank you for sending us your booklet on the Holy Spirit. Could you also send us a copy of God’s Plan for Mankind? Thank you again!—PS, Georgia

Dear Fred and CBCG: My mom and I had a most wonderful feast in Shishewana this year, our first. We met with brethren closer to where we live, and are looking forward to meeting during the year on the weekly Sabbath! Albert Jones kept us well fed spiritually, and some very special sisters kept us well fed physically—so much food! Thank you for the sermons from all the elders God has blessed us with! With love in Jesus.—DS

Hi Fred: Hope you are still doing well. We look forward to receiving the CDs. I really appreciate you and pray that God will watch over you at all times. We need you in preaching the Gospel, and in telling things like they really are! May God bless you and watch over you and keep you in His care! In Christian love.—Mr. & Mrs. JM

Greetings Kimberly: Enclosed is a contribution to Fred’s effort to send out FV Bibles that “need a home.” While many are investing in gold and silver, I’ve decided to invest at least some of my savings in proclaiming the truth. Sincerely.—AA, Texas

Greetings: Hello to the brethren there in California and all around the world. I’m almost finished with the sermons of 2012—next 2013. Tell Mr. Coulter “thank you” for all the sermons he has recorded. Great work.—unknown

Dear Fred: Just a note to thank you for remaining a true and faithful minister of God—a living example of John 13:35. Thank you for always directing us to God and for teaching us to become spiritually strong in the Lord.—GM

Dear Fred: You stated that LCG has claimed that they are the only true Church of God. That is nothing new. A number of churches have made that claim throughout history—including the WCG, the Catholics, and many other religions. They are telling God that He is limited to working through their organization only. My experience in the WCG was very frustrating.

For about 35 years I warmed a seat in services hoping for sermons that would give me understanding of the Bible. I don’t recall a single sermon that actually went through the scriptures line upon line, here a little, there a little. The sermons generally were pharisaical. We were taught to obey the hierarchy, and ministers were only allowed to speak what was approved of by HWA.

I watched “HWA In His Own Words” on YouTube, which you posted on the CBCG site. We brethren were never shown those presentations by HWA to world leaders. And to think that we were sponsoring his trips via our tithes. He claimed that he was a representative of Allah!?

I started attending services 59 years ago when the church was called the Radio Church of God. Yet it is only in the CBCG that I have come to understand the Scriptures. Fred, you are the only minister I am aware of who explores the original Greek meaning of words in the N.T. You are the only minister I am aware of who preaches sermons concerning each of the holy days in their seasons. You offer more biblical literature than any other church of God. There is more biblical material given away via CBCG web sites (which anyone in the world can watch or download) than any other church of God provides. The tithe money is spent on expounding the Bible! It isn’t spent on expensive buildings or high salaries. Thanks to you I know where my offerings are going and I gain more from your teachings than I can monetarily give. Thank you, Fred, for your diligent heart-felt life’s work.

I remember one of the first times I heard you speak. The sermon was about “peace.” I was surprised that there were so many scriptures on the subject. And I’d never heard the Bible expounded like you presented it. Christ told us “they know His voice.” Yes! I felt like God was speaking to me through you. Thank you for conveying to us the actual meaning of the words God originally inspired. Considering the various accusations you’ve received over the years—take heart, you must be doing something right! With sisterly love and appreciation.—BW

Dear Fred: I just received my Holy Bible In Its Original Order. I’m so excited—this is such a great value! It’s like digging in your back yard and finding a great treasure. The difference is that this treasure could lead to my eternal life! And the Audio Edition CD set is great—I can listen while I work. Thank you so very much for all the time and effort you have put into compiling all of these resources. I’m thinking a large crown is waiting for you soon. Thanks again!—SS, Alabama

Dear Fred: I appreciate the convenience of being able to view your sermons online. I found out that you have an Interlinear New Testament from Larry Carmichael at the Winter Family Weekend in Lexington, KY. I introduced Larry to your teachings many years ago and we have become good friends. The Independent Church of God in Lexington often plays your videos, especially for the holy days, and my family members regularly sing for them and other congregations in the area. Our grandchildren also participate now.

In one of your recent letters, you mentioned that you could send a box of 8 Interlinear New Testaments. I would like to request these because we occasionally host Bible studies in our home for both new and longtime brethren and I would like to share this valuable resource with them.

I appreciate your faithfulness to the truth all of these years since our first encounter when you baptized me at age 17 in the Santa Monica congregation, back in 1973. I have seen so many “winds of doctrine” blow through the churches of God, and I continue to recommend your teachings for guidance to my brethren because you are the most studied and reliable teacher and minister that I have known. It is a blessing that you are still alive. Every time you give a new sermon, especially for the holy days, I am amazed at your continued growth in biblical understanding. While other teachers have reached a plateau and stagnated, you have continued to feed the flock and lead them to green pastures. I send you my love.—MH, Kentucky

Fred: I also meant to tell you that by the time the Father had led me to Laurie, I was beaten down. I was alone in the world socially. I had almost no one. I was sick, and I was poisoned from all that I had not yet “disengaged from” that I had been inculcated with by this world. Our process of “disengagement” is a life-long process. But the Father has been beyond gracious, beyond generous. He has let me walk through the “valley of the shadow of death”—and He has rescued me.

When I met her, she was despondent of life. She had no hope. The Father rescued her and allowed me to be part of it. She used a walker and could hardly get out of bed. Over time she began to use a cane. Now she bounces around feely. A miracle of our Fathers graciousness. This experience is beyond comprehension, something only recognized through the Spirit.—JM

Dear Fred: Good afternoon my friend, hopefully you’re having a blessed day! I have a request for two more copies of God’s Plan for Mankind. I’ve been blessed with finding another person seeking the truth. There is no better book published that has more information on God’s eternal truth than that book. I thank you in advance; again, everything you are doing is appreciated. Your brother in Christ.—MG, Pennsylvania
