

GOD'S PLAN FOR MANKIND REVEALED BY HIS SABBATH AND HOLY DAYS

International Society of Bible Collectors:
"AN EXCELLENT TRANSLATION ... HEARTILY RECOMMENDED!"

Still The Most Extraordinary Bible Ever Published!

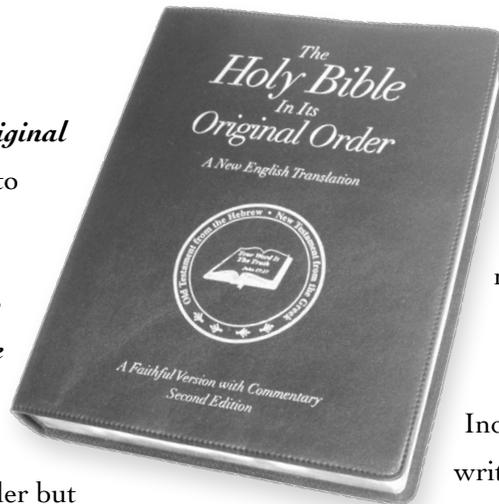

TEN YEARS AFTER it was first published, The Holy Bible In Its Original Order is still the most unique Bible to ever be produced. Here's why...

First, it is the only complete, single-volume Bible ever published in the world that follows the original, God-inspired manuscript order.

Scholars recognize this inspired order but overlook its importance. This Bible gives proof of the original order, tracing how it was altered in the 4th century. Once the original order of the 66 biblical books has been restored, the Seven Divisions of the Bible are also reestablished: The Old Testament contains: 1) The Law; 2) The Prophets; and 3) The Writings. The New Testament contains: 4) The Gospels and Acts; 5) The General Epistles; 6) The Epistles of Paul; and 7) The Book of Revelation. With this restoration, God's purposeful design of the Scriptures begins to unfold, revealing His divine inspiration.

Second, this new translation is easy to understand and reflects the meaning of the original Hebrew and Greek with fidelity and accuracy. It also combines current scholarship with the latest in archeological findings.

Third, The Holy Bible In Its Original Order recaptures the original, inspired teachings of the Scriptures through its translation and numerous commentaries. Over the centuries, doctrinal errors have developed from inaccurate translations and the adherence to religious tradition. Setting aside such traditions, this Bible restores more than the canonical order—it restores the very truth of God!

What's Inside

Included are Commentaries detailing the writing and canonization of the Bible.

Appendices cover topics such as: When was Jesus born? How did Christ fulfill the Law and the Prophets? When was Jesus crucified? When was He resurrected? What does it mean to be "born again"? What are "works of law"? What are the true teachings of the early church? How do we understand Paul's difficult writings? Chronologies show an accurate timeline from creation to the present, and detailed Footnotes explain difficult passages. Includes center column references; word definitions and alternate renderings; artwork of the Temple in Jesus' time; maps; and 280 pages of Commentary.

At 1.5 inches thick, The Holy Bible In Its Original Order features a genuine handcrafted lambskin or calfskin cover with gold stamped lettering, premium paper with gold gilded edges, wide margins for note-taking, and is triple bound for extra long life.

How subtle forces from the world of paganism systematically replaced the biblical seventh-day Sabbath and annual holy days with counterfeit holidays born of the occult!

A must-read for every Christian, Fred Coulter's Occult Holidays or God's Holy Days—Which? explains how pagan, occult holidays became “Christianized” by so-called “early church fathers”—while at the same time the seventh-day Sabbath and holy days of the Bible were disparaged and rejected.

Few understand the true origins of today's widely accepted holidays—Halloween, Christmas, Easter, etc.—and how such days became central to “Christian” practice. Still fewer realize that the biblical holy days God gave to ancient Israel—festivals faithfully observed by the first-century Church—were cast aside over the centuries as obsolete by self-appointed “Christian” authorities.

Now in its expanded second edition, Coulter's 364-page book lays bare the origin of today's popular occult holidays. Using both historical documentation and Scripture, this book proves that God never at any time accepted or blessed such religious holidays—regardless of their “sanctification” by so-called “Christian” leaders or potentates. On the other hand, this book reveals the true biblical holy days and feasts of God, which have deep spiritual meaning and portray God's magnificent plan of salvation for all mankind—past, present, and future.

As Coulter unravels this ancient mystery, he goes on to show how the occult has been used by Satan to lay the foundation for his final, end-time attempt to destroy mankind through a climatic, grand deception.

Both thorough and incisive, Occult Holidays or God's Holy Days—Which? unflinchingly strips away numerous deceptions fostered onto an unsuspecting mankind by Orthodox Christendom. At the same time, Coulter leads the reader to the inescapable conclusion that God cannot be worshiped according to pagan traditions, but in “spirit and truth” only.

A Harmony of the Gospels in Modern English—The Life of Jesus Christ

NOW IN ITS THIRD edition, A Harmony of the Gospels in Modern English—The Life of Jesus Christ provides the Bible student with an easy-to-understand, step-by-step account of the life of Jesus Christ. Throughout its pages, the message and purpose of the real Jesus of Nazareth come to life.

A precise translation of the Gospel accounts is the standout feature of this volume. After completing formal instruction in New Testament Greek, author Fred Coulter continued to study Greek for the next twenty years by undertaking a verse-by-verse study the New Testament using the Byzantine Text. In the course of his study, Coulter was moved to translate the Gospel accounts into clear, easy-to-read English for contemporary readers—resulting in A Harmony of the Gospels in Modern English.

Using the framework of the Hebrew Calendar synchronized with the Julian Calendar, Coulter accurately reconstructs a compelling (and somewhat unorthodox) chronology of Jesus' life and ministry. For example, the author demonstrates—using scriptural and historical evidence—that Jesus was born in the fall of 5 BC, not on December 25 in 1 AD. Moreover, Jesus was crucified on Passover day in the spring of 30 AD, and His body was in the tomb for three days and three nights, a full 72 hours; He was resurrected at the end of the weekly Sabbath, not at sunrise on “Easter Sunday.”

Twelve commentary chapters and four appendices cover these and many other aspects of Jesus' life, teachings, death and resurrection. Chapters include: When Was Jesus Christ Born?, The Four Passover Seasons, The Sermon on the Mount, Jesus' Last Passover and Crucifixion—The Day God Died, Twenty-eight Prophecies Fulfilled on the Crucifixion Day, Jesus' Three Days and Three Nights of Entombment—and much more.

Original artwork illustrating Jerusalem and the Temple in the first century is combined with over 100 photographs to capture the unique flavor of the Holy Land. Numerous charts add important detail to the chronological events of Christ's life and ministry, and maps detailing Jesus' journeys help the reader to “travel with Him.” Complete topical and scriptural indices are included.

At 380 pages, A Harmony of the Gospels in Modern English is the most complete harmony ever published!

Finally, a meaningful alternative to the one-size-fits-all church experience!

Can't remember the last time church left you inspired? Feel like something vital is missing from your church experience? You're not alone. Today, millions of churchgoers are troubled by what they see and hear—ministries plagued by corruption, complacency, and negligence; political infighting; watered-down doctrines. Increasingly, organized “Christianity” is seen as irrelevant and ineffective at dealing with real-world problems. The result: churchgoers are dropping out at an unprecedented rate. Young people in particular are turning away from church in record numbers.

What about you? Are you troubled by the growing problems in “organized religion”? Has your church experience led to positive spiritual growth? Or, do you feel frustrated, neglected and unsatisfied? Perhaps you even feel you've never met the real Jesus? What should you do? Where can you go for answers?

Our one-of-a-kind book—Lord, What Should I Do?—was written especially for those who are seeking genuine spirituality, but are dissatisfied with their past church experiences.

A practical guide for believers determined to find God in a godless society, this book—94 pages in length—points the way for churchgoers looking for alternatives to the one-size-fits-all corporate church experience.

Personal

From the Desk of
Fred R. Coulter

The contemporary world in which we live encourages individual opinions, insisting that everyone's opinion is of equal validity. On the one hand, a person may consider something to be true simply because he or she believes it to be so—even when the facts do not support such a belief. A second person, however, may hold to an opinion exactly opposite the first—likewise accepted as fact because he or she believes it to be true. A dichotomy results in which truth becomes relative. Carrying this process one step further, when a conglomeration of divergent opinions on a subject is accepted as true, because people believe them to be true, we end up with a cacophony of opinions—which is confusion! Everyone believes and does what is right in their own eyes. Consequently, the majority of people today do not believe that there is absolute truth to the exclusion of all other opinions.

When viewing all the religions of the world—including Orthodox Christianity—we see precisely the same thing. We find a panorama of complex opinions and beliefs about God, and a confusing array of speculative schemes of men who are eager to promote their ideas about the purpose of life and the plan of God. Because learned teachers of philosophy and religion use some parts of the Word of God, their theories have a smattering of truth that sounds persuasive. Still others follow the inspiration of demons, unknowingly venerating Satan the devil himself, who appears as an “angel of light.”

The result—billions of people have been deceived and wholly embrace religious falsehoods as foundational truth. Sincerely believing what they have been taught, they have dedicated their lives to false gods and false saviors through their devotion to idols, religious works, vows of poverty, life-long celibacy and virginity—all for the purpose of achieving a greater reward in heaven. Fully convinced that what they have been taught is the direct will of God—and with great sacrifice of worldly gain and even life itself—the obedient and dedicated have traveled the world over preaching their version of the Gospel, as they genuinely try to save others. Ordinary people have resolutely adhered to religious fallacies for fear of death and being forever delivered into the torments of hell. Horrifying many as well is the nightmare of being reincarnated into insects or animals because of an unworthy life. And increasingly, the world today is confronted by Islamic fanatics driven by hatred, who irrationally believe that the road to heaven is through holy jihad.

The Bible tells us: “God is not the author of confusion” (I Cor. 14:33). Therefore, we can conclude that the mainstay of all these religions, philosophies and teachings—conjoined with their opinions about the purpose of life for mankind—cannot be correct!

But where is the truth? Is it possible to find and understand it?

The answer is, Yes! It is found in the Bible—the true Word of God. Isaiah gives us the starting point: “And when they shall say unto you, ‘Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter’—but should not a people [rather] seek unto their God? Should the dead be sought on behalf of the living? To the Law [the Old Testament] and to the testimony [the New Testament]! If they do not speak according to this word, it is because there is no light in them” (Isa. 8:19-20). In other words, if we truly believe God the Father and Jesus Christ and prove that the entire Word of God is true, then we can find the truth—the absolute truth of God. We can then begin to comprehend God's plan for mankind as revealed by His Sabbath and holy days.

The Old and New Testaments combined comprise one complete book—the Word of God—the Holy Bible. To begin with, we need to understand certain fundamental truths about God as revealed in the Old Testament, which is the foundation of truth—the absolute truth of God. Here are a few scriptures that define the true God:

- The Lord God of the Bible is the true God (II Chron. 15:3; Jer. 10:10); the everlasting God (Isa. 40:28); the most high God (Gen. 14:20); the holy God (Psa. 99:9); the God of heaven (Psa. 136:26); and there is none other (Isa. 45:5).
- God is love (Deut. 4:37; 6:4-5; 7:6-9); God is merciful and gracious (Psa. 57:10; 130:8); God is forgiving (Psa. 51:1-4; 86:5; 103:3).
- The Law of God is truth (Psa. 119:142); all His commandments are truth (Psa. 119:151); His word is true from the beginning (Psa. 119:160); the Law of God is perfect (Psa. 19:7); the way of the Lord is perfect (Psa. 18:30).

From the New Testament we learn more of the truth of God:

- It is impossible for God to lie (Heb. 6:18; Titus 1:2); God is love (I John 4:8, 16). God loves the world (John 3:16); God is merciful (Luke 7:46-47; 18:13; I Pet. 1:3); God is forgiving (Luke 23:34; Eph. 1:7; 4:32; Col. 2:14; I John 1:7-10).
- Jesus Christ was God manifested in the flesh (I Tim. 3:16; John 1:1-3, 14); Jesus came to reveal God the Father (Matt. 11:27; John 14:28); Jesus is the Lamb of God, sent to take away the sin of the world (John 1:29, 36; Rev. 13:8); Jesus is Savior (Luke 1:47; 2:11; John 4:42; Eph. 5:23; Phil. 3:20; I Tim. 1:1; 2:3; I John 4:14); Jesus is full of grace and truth (John 1:14); Jesus is the First and the Last, the Beginning and the Ending (Isa. 41:4; Rev. 1:8, 11, 17; 21:6; 22:13).
- The Word of God is truth—Old and New Testaments (John 17:17; Col. 1:5; II Tim. 2:15; I Pet. 1:22); Paul and the apostles completed the Word of God—the commandments of the Lord (I Cor. 14:37; Col. 1:25; II Pet. 1:16-21; Rev. 1:11, 19; 2:1, 8, 12, 18; 3:1, 7, 14; 21:5; 22:18-19).

Once we have an overview of the entire Bible, we can see the unity of the truth contained in both the Old and New Testaments—how they are intricately woven together through Jesus Christ and God the Father, thus forming the complete Word of God to the exclusion of all other so-called “sacred books.”

In fact, the truth is personalized by and in Jesus Christ Himself Who said, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father except through Me” (John 14:6). Also, Jesus emphasizes, “No one can come to Me unless the Father, Who sent Me, draws him” (John 6:44).

While some may consider this to be “spiritual snobbery,” it is not. In the Bible and the Bible alone lies the complete revelation of God's plan.

Because God is love, He does indeed have an awesome plan and purpose for all mankind—a fantastic destiny of eternal life. Yet, because of the sins of man, God has concealed this vital knowledge in the writings of the Bible. But in these last days, through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, God has unveiled the secrets of His plan as contained in His Word—by His Sabbath and holy days. This knowledge is now available to those who truly love and obey God the Father and Jesus Christ.

May God the Father and Jesus Christ bless you with the spirit of understanding, that with confidence in Christ you may comprehend and take hold of the meaning and purpose of your life—“according to the faith of God’s elect and the knowledge of the truth that is according to godliness; in the hope of eternal life, which God Who cannot lie promised before the ages of time” (Titus 1:1-2).

About This Book

Everyone wants to know, What is God doing? What is His purpose, His plan? Does He even have a plan? Is man's struggle through this human existence merely a prelude to spending eternity in heaven? Is heaven even for real? How can we know? How can we know God's true plan for humanity—and know with certainty and confidence?

Make no mistake, God's plan is revealed in His Word—the Old and New Testaments. But very few have understood that plan. Why? The number one reason is tradition. Men have created numerous religious traditions—and today's "Christianity" is full of such traditions—that present a completely different perspective on God's purpose and plan. While these traditions may sound good and right, and while they may even appear to be based on Scripture, they are in fact gross error. And they have led to nothing but confusion!

Thus, the key to understanding God's plan is to completely lay aside all past religious teachings—yes, even "Christian" teachings! You need a fresh start—a new perspective. Man's destiny is far greater than even today's "Christian" has dared to imagine. And the book you hold in your hands—truly a one-of-a-kind book—reveals that awesome destiny using a methodical, step-by-step approach that will make the truth understandable for everyone.

God's Plan for Mankind Revealed by His Sabbath and Holy Days is unique in four major ways. First, it is intended for the advanced, serious-minded Bible student who has a sound, basic knowledge of the Bible, as well as an understanding of God's weekly Sabbath and holy days. This book contains what the apostle Paul calls "strong meat" or "solid food"—as opposed to the "milk of the Word," which is for beginners. "For everyone who is partaking of milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness because he is an infant. But solid food [strong meat] is for those who are fully grown [spiritually mature and grounded in the Word of God through years of study], who through repeated practice have had their senses trained to discern between good and evil" (Heb. 5:13-14).

While this book is generally not for "novices" who have newly come to the faith of Jesus Christ—or for those who are simply curious—it is possible for anyone to understand what is presented here. However, such individuals will need to apply themselves more diligently in order to fully grasp the deeper spiritual meaning of the Scriptures. Consequently, it is strongly recommended that those who are "new in the faith" first read the book Occult Holidays or God's Holy Days—Which? This book details the basic meaning of God's Sabbath and holy days as contrasted with the holidays of the pagan "Christianity" of the orthodox religious establishments of this world. After first reading Occult Holidays or God's Holy Days—Which?, the meatier material contained in God's Plan for Mankind Revealed by His Sabbath and Holy Days will be much easier to comprehend.

Second, this book is a compilation of message transcripts. As such, it is not written in customary book-style composition. Rather, the transcripts are a literal, word-for-word rendering of some of the best in-depth messages by the author about God's Sabbath and holy days. The message transcripts have a more flexible style and cadence in comparison to the more rigid style and structure of formal composition.

Third, it is not designed for passive reading. Rather, this book is to be used for active, in-depth Bible study in combination with the eighty messages that have been recorded on the accompanying set of two CDs (MP3 format). When you listen to the messages and actively study along with the transcripts, you will absorb and retain the information longer because you are using both the sense of sight and sound in a concentrated manner at the same time.

Fourth, the bibliography for this book includes only the Holy Bible. No other sources have been used, with the exception of a few short quotes from historical sources that substantiate a few specific scriptures. As such, this book follows God’s direct charge for ministers to preach and teach the Holy Scriptures—and not the mythological religious traditions of men. Notice Paul’s charge to Timothy: “I charge you, therefore, in the sight of God, even the Lord Jesus Christ, Who is ready to judge the living and the dead at His appearing and His kingdom: Preach the Word! Be urgent in season and out of season; convict, rebuke, encourage, with all patience and doctrine. For there shall come a time when they will not tolerate sound doctrine; but according to their own lusts they shall accumulate to themselves a great number of teachers, having ears itching to hear what satisfies their cravings; but they shall turn away their own ears from the truth; and they shall be turned aside unto myths [the religious traditions of men]” (II Tim. 4:1-4).

Finally, this book lays out the critically important scriptural meaning of God’s weekly Sabbath and annual holy days, which are the major keys to understanding prophecy and that reveal God’s master plan for mankind. This knowledge has been concealed from the majority of people because they refuse to believe God—refuse to hear His Word, to obey His laws and commandments, and do not live their lives by every word of God. Consequently, the established Orthodox Christianity of this world disparages, rejects and refuses to keep God’s Sabbath and holy days.

For those who already have a basic knowledge of the Bible, this book can systematically cement your understanding of the deeper spiritual meaning of God’s Word. The reader is encouraged to start at the beginning and go step-by step through the book to the end, while simultaneously listening to the messages. May God the Father and Jesus Christ bless you with understanding so that you may learn the inspired, deeper spiritual truths of God as you read this book and listen to the messages.

Introduction

Astonishingly, God has not openly revealed His plan even in the pages of the Holy Scriptures—choosing instead to deliberately conceal this vital knowledge. Indeed, the prophets of old—when writing the Old Testament under the inspiration of God—understood few aspects of His plan.

The prophet Daniel, for example, was inspired to write a major prophetic outline of events spanning from the 600s BC to the establishment of the Kingdom of God at Jesus Christ's return. Naturally, Daniel wanted to know what the prophecies meant. But God's final message to Daniel was that it was not for him to know: "And he said, 'Go your way, Daniel: for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end. Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand'" (Dan. 12:9-10).

During His ministry Jesus told the apostles that they would come to understand things that even the prophets had never understood: "[It] has been given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them [the people and religions of the world] it has not been given. For whoever has understanding, to him more shall be given, and he shall have an abundance; but whoever does not have understanding, even what he has shall be taken away from him.... And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which says, 'In hearing you shall hear, and in no way understand; and in seeing you shall see, and in no way perceive, for the heart of this people has grown fat, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed....'

"But blessed are your eyes, because they see; and your ears, because they hear. For truly I say to you, many prophets and righteous men have desired to see what you see, and have not seen; and to hear what you hear, and have not heard" (Matt. 13:11-12, 14-17).

The apostle Peter reaffirms what Jesus said. "Concerning which salvation the prophets who prophesied of the grace that would come to you have diligently searched out and intently inquired, searching into what way and what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them was indicating, testifying beforehand of the sufferings of Christ, and these glories that would follow; to whom it was revealed that, not for themselves, but to us they were ministering these things, which now have been announced to you by those who have preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit, sent from heaven—into which things the angels desire to look" (I Peter 1:10-12).

Jesus Christ provided substantially more knowledge of God's plan—the "Mystery of God"—to the apostles than any of the prophets and writers of the Old Testament. Yet, He did not reveal the fullness of God's plan to all of the apostles. Most of them—with the exception of John, Philip and Andrew—died without a complete knowledge of God's plan. Jesus revealed the final missing pieces of the puzzle to the apostle John, who then wrote the book of Revelation and canonized the entire New Testament, with the help of Philip, Andrew and Mark.

Indeed, the apostles received more knowledge and understanding of God's plan than any of God's servants had up to that time. It was not until the New Testament was completed and canonized, however, that God's entire plan for mankind was recorded. And although the complete Word of God was subsequently preserved and made widely available, the knowledge of God's plan remained, for the most part, hidden—and would continue to be a "mystery" until the time of the end, just as the Lord had told Daniel (Dan. 12:10). As we will see, the next vital step in God’s plan was to raise up His true Church through Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son—God manifested in the flesh.

God Revealed His Plan to His Church—the True Church of God: Jesus Christ personally proclaimed that He would build His Church and that the gates of the grave would not prevail against it (Matt. 16:18)—and that He would always be with His Church even to the end of the age (Matt. 28:20). Jesus Christ Himself established the Church of God on the day of Pentecost in AD 30 (Acts 2). Under the inspiration and power of the Holy Spirit, Jesus Christ used the apostles to preach the true Gospel of salvation and to raise up the many congregations that would comprise the Church of God. The true Church of God is not a building, cathedral, or corporation. Rather, it consists of all the men and women whom God the Father and Jesus Christ have chosen and called out of this world. It is a “little flock” (Luke 12:32) that has been set apart and sanctified by the blood of Jesus Christ and by the Holy Spirit.

In New Testament Greek the word for “church” is ekklesia, which means “the assembly of called-out ones.” Jesus Christ is the living Head of the Church—also called the “body of Christ” (I Cor. 12:27)—for God the Father “has given Him [Jesus Christ] to be head over all things to the church, which is His body” (Eph. 1:22-23). Throughout the New Testament we find that the body of Christ—which is the true Church of God—consists of many churches, or assemblies, of called-out believers. It was through the preaching of the Gospel from the prophetic Scriptures of the Old Testament—the Law, the Prophets, and the Psalms—and later the inspired writings of the apostles that the New Testament churches were raised up. We find the early history of the Church of God in the book of Acts, the epistles of James, Peter and John, and especially in the writings of Paul.

Jesus Christ revealed God’s plan and purpose for mankind to His apostles and New Testament prophets, and they in turn taught the congregations of the Church of God. The apostle Paul, for example, wrote: “For this cause I, Paul, am the prisoner of Christ Jesus for you Gentiles, if indeed you have heard of the ministry of the grace of God that was given to me for you; how He made known to me by revelation the mystery (even as I wrote briefly before, so that when you read this, you will be able to comprehend my understanding in the mystery of Christ), which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men, as it has now been revealed to His holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; that the Gentiles might be joint heirs, and a joint body, and joint partakers of His promise in Christ through the gospel, of which I became a servant according to the gift of the grace of God, which was given to me through the inner working of His power.

“To me, who am less than the least of all the saints, was this grace given, that I might preach the gospel among the Gentiles—even the unsearchable riches of Christ; and that I might enlighten all as to what is the fellowship of the mystery that has been hidden from the ages in God, Who created all things by Jesus Christ; so that the manifold wisdom of God might now be made known through the church to the principalities and the powers in the heavenly places, according to His eternal purpose, which He has wrought in Christ Jesus our Lord, in Whom we have boldness and direct access with confidence through His very own faith” (Eph. 3:1-12).

Paul explains that the purpose of the ministry is to teach the brethren, grounding them firmly into the perfection of Jesus Christ: “And He gave some as apostles, and some prophets, and some evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ; until we all come into the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; so that we no longer be children, tossed and carried about with every wind of doctrine by the sleight of men in cunning craftiness, with a view to the systematizing of the error; but holding the truth in love, may in all things grow up into Him Who is the Head, even Christ from Whom all the body, fitly framed and compacted together by that which every joint supplies, according to its inner working in the measure of each individual part, is making the increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love” (Eph. 4:11-16).

Remember Jesus’ instruction to His disciples: “[It] has been given to you [the true disciples and the true Church of God] to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them [the world with its counterfeit religions] it has not been given” (Matt. 13:11). Thus, the true scriptural knowledge and understanding of God’s plan for mankind—as revealed by His Sabbath and holy days—will not be found in the churches of Orthodox Christianity. God only imparts this knowledge to those who love Him and keep His commandments—including His commanded seventh-day Sabbath and annual holy days. On the other hand, all who reject God’s Sabbath and holy days—and instead observe Sunday and various pagan holidays—are excluded from this vital, revealed knowledge. As Jesus said, in “seeing, they see not; and hearing, they hear not; neither do they understand. And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which says, ‘In hearing you shall hear, and in no way understand; and in seeing you shall see, and in no way perceive; for the heart of this people has grown fat, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed...’ ” (verses 13-15).

Consequently, very little of the knowledge of God’s plan for mankind that you will read in this book and hear from the CD messages will be found in the Orthodox Christianity of this world. It is only found in the Word of God and revealed to those ministers and congregations of the true Church of God who observe the Sabbath and annual holy days. As Jesus said to His disciples, “Blessed are your eyes, because they see; and your ears, because they hear. For truly I say to you, many prophets and righteous men have desired to see what you see, and have not seen; and to hear what you hear, and have not heard” (verses 16-17).

May Jesus’ blessing be upon you as you read and study this book and listen to the messages—so that you may be able to truly understand the biblical truth about God’s plan for mankind as revealed by His Sabbath and holy days.

Prologue

As incredible as it may seem, God has deliberately hidden His plan for mankind from the wise and intelligent of this world—from the leaders in government, religion and education—as well as from philosophers, ancient and modern. In fact, God has blinded men to His true purpose throughout all ages!

Why has He done this? Surely God would want us to have an understanding of His plan, to know why mankind was created, why we are here—would He not? The answer is simple: Beginning with Adam and Eve, all humans have sinned and rebelled against God (Rom. 3:9, 23). Sin is the transgression of the Law (I John 3:4). Rebellion is the refusal to walk and live God’s way. Consequently, the human mind has been spiritually blinded, and God has hidden His plan from mankind.

This sin and rebellion began with Adam and Eve, who had direct personal access to their Creator God in the Garden of Eden. They walked with God and talked with God. They had personal, face-to-face fellowship with Him daily—and especially on the holy Sabbath. After putting Adam in the garden to dress and keep (or guard) it, “God commanded the man saying, ‘You may freely eat of every tree in the garden. But you shall not eat of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil. For in the day you eat of it, in dying you shall surely die’ ” (Gen. 2:16-17).

However, instead of loving and obeying their Creator, Adam and Eve chose to believe the serpent, Satan the devil. He lied to them and assured them that if they ate of the fruit of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, that “in dying you shall not surely die.” (Gen. 3:4)

As a result, true to God’s word, they received in their very being a sinful nature that is enmity against God and His laws—and came under the penalty of death. Likewise, all of their descendants received by inheritance this sinful nature, which is the inner “law of sin and death” (Rom. 8:2). After Cain murdered his brother Abel, sin and rebellion against God multiplied and intensified until the whole civilization of man became so corrupt and wicked that God had to destroy all flesh with the universal flood of Noah’s time, saving only Noah and his family and the animals in the ark.

The apostle Paul describes this rebellion of men and their rejection of God—as well as God’s punishment against them: “Indeed, the wrath of God is revealed from heaven upon all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men who suppress the truth in unrighteousness; because that which may be known of God is manifest among them, for God has manifested it to them; for the invisible things of Him are perceived from the creation of the world, being understood by the things that were made—both His eternal power and Godhead—so that they are without excuse; because when they knew God [before and after the flood], they glorified Him not as God, neither were thankful; but they became vain in their own reasonings, and their foolish hearts were darkened. While professing themselves to be the wise ones, they became fools and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into the likeness of an image of corruptible man, and of birds, and four-footed creatures, and creeping things.

“For this cause, God also abandoned them to uncleanness through the lusts of their hearts, to disgrace their own bodies between themselves, who exchanged the truth of God for the lie [Satan the devil’s lie that he was god]; and they worshiped and served the created thing more than the one Who is Creator, Who is blessed into the ages. Amen” (Rom. 1:18-25).

As a result of mankind’s sin and rebellion, both before and after the flood, God blinded their hearts and minds to His spiritual truths and abandoned them to their own devices and religions. In fact, because of their sin and worship of Satan, God deliberately hid the true knowledge of His plan and purpose for mankind.

Where then did God hide this precious knowledge? Must we go up into the heavens to find it? Or, shall we go to the bottom of the ocean to locate it? Is it written in some long-lost book, or inscribed on golden tablets buried deep in the earth that are yet to be discovered? Where is the knowledge of God's plan for mankind and how do we find it?

The truth is that today the plan of God, also called the mystery of God, is hidden in plain sight—right in front of everyone's eyes. It's in the Bible. Incredibly, however, the vast majority of the billions of people who possess Bibles do not understand God's true plan and purpose as revealed in the Scriptures. Yet, God put it there in plain sight! But people do not recognize the truth—because the truth must be revealed spiritually by God through the proper handling of the Word of God. While some people who read the Bible may know a few details about God's plan, the fullness of that plan has been hidden.

Why is it possible for people to have the Word of God, read it, and yet not comprehend God's plan for mankind?

First, most people do not keep the commandments of God, because they believe God's laws have been "done away": "[All] His commandments are sure. They stand fast for ever and ever, and are done in truth and uprightness.... The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they who do his commandments.... Blessed is the man who fears the LORD, who delights greatly in His commandments" (Psa. 111:7-8, 10; 112:1). Without first keeping the commandments of God, it is impossible for anyone to truly understand the Word of God and truly come to the knowledge of His plan.

Second, the majority of people who have the Bible have closed their eyes to God's Sabbath and holy days—which are also holy Sabbaths—and refuse to keep them. They have instead substituted their own traditions—Sunday-keeping and the holidays of this world. God's message to them is: Repent, obey My voice, and keep My laws, My commandments, My Sabbath and My holy days. As the prophet Isaiah admonished the children of Israel, and the Gentiles as well: "Thus says the LORD, 'Keep you judgment, and do justice: for My salvation is near to come, and My righteousness to be revealed [together with His purpose and plan for mankind]. Blessed is the man who does this, and the son of man who lays hold on it; that keeps the Sabbath from polluting it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil' " (Isa. 56:1-2). And again, "If you turn away your foot from the Sabbath, from doing your pleasure on My holy day; and call the Sabbath a delight, the holy of the LORD, honorable; and shall honor Him, not doing your own ways, nor finding your own pleasure, nor speaking your own words: then shall you delight yourself in the LORD..." (Isa. 58:13-14).

Jesus Himself reminds us that He is Lord of the Sabbath Day (Mark 2:27-28)—not Sunday. Later in the New Testament, in Paul's epistle to the Hebrews, he makes it abundantly clear that Sabbath-keeping is for New Testament Christians: "There remains, therefore, Sabbath-keeping for the people of God [Jews and Gentiles]" (Heb. 4:9).

Third, most do not have the Holy Spirit of God to lead them to understand the spiritual meaning of the Word of God. Jesus said, "It is the Spirit that gives life; the flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you, they are spirit and they are life" (John 6:63). Furthermore, God does not give His Holy Spirit unless one has repented of sin and has been baptized, and is living a life of love and obedience to God (Acts 2:38; 5:32).

Thus, we find that although people may read the Bible, they cannot understand God's plan contained in its pages. To them it is a great, unfathomable mystery!

God's Plan for Mankind is Hidden Throughout the Bible

God's plan actually begins in the book of Genesis, the first book of the Bible. That plan, however, was not fully unveiled until the apostle John wrote the Book of Revelation, the last book of the Bible, in AD 95-98.

Few people realize that the Lord God of the Old Testament was the One Who became Jesus Christ of the New Testament. He was the One Who created Adam and Eve and all things. He was the One Who dealt directly with the godly men of old—Abel, Enoch and Noah. He was the One Who called the patriarchs—Abraham, Isaac and Jacob—and personally dealt with them. He was the One Who called Moses to bring Israel out of their slavery in Egypt. He was the One Who gave them the Law at Mount Sinai.

He was the Word of God Who spoke to the prophets of old, such as Samuel, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel and Daniel and all the other prophets. He inspired the Psalms of David, the Proverbs of Solomon and the other writings of the Old Testament. In every one of these inspired writings, various aspects of God's plan and purpose for mankind are concealed—hence, God's plan is a mystery. Though these great men of God were inspired to write the words of God, they did not fully grasp His plan or timetable for working out that plan. God intentionally did not divulge it to them. Even Daniel—to whom God revealed many prophecies that stretched from his time, in the fifth century BC, to the end of the age and the beginning of the Kingdom of God on earth—did not understand them. After receiving his final vision, he asked the Lord: “And I heard, but I did not understand. Then I said, ‘O my lord, what shall be the end of these things?’ And he said, ‘Go your way, Daniel, for the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end. Many shall be purified, and made white, and refined. But the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand, but the wise [those who love and obey God] shall understand’ ” (Dan. 12:8-10).

The Teachings of Jesus Christ in the New Testament Reveal More of God's Plan—the Mysteries of the Kingdom of God

God's plan for man predates Adam and Eve—predates even the founding of the world. As Paul wrote to Timothy, God's purpose was ordained “in Christ Jesus before the ages of time” (II Tim. 1:9). That plan and purpose ultimately began with God; then came the creation of the heavens and the earth, then the creation of the angels. But eventually one-third of the angels were led by Satan, a fallen archangel, in a rebellion against God—leading to earth-wide destruction and the first Flood; thus, the Spirit of God “hovered” over a flooded earth (Gen. 1:2). A long interlude ensued, perhaps millions of years in duration (science verifies that the earth is millions of years in age). Finally, some 6,000 years ago, the final stage of creation took place—the recreation of the earth's surface in preparation for the creation of man. But as Peter also shows, Jesus' all-important role in God's plan was predetermined and ordained long beforehand—as Jesus was “foreknown before the foundation of the world” (I Pet. 1:20).

It was more than 4,000 years after God created Adam and Eve that He began to more fully reveal His plan for mankind through Jesus Christ, the Son of God the Father. Jesus was God manifested in the flesh, born of the virgin Mary. He came to magnify the Law and make it honorable, as Isaiah prophesied: “The LORD is well pleased for His righteousness' sake; He will magnify the Law, and make it honorable” (Isa. 42:21). In magnifying the Law, Jesus brought the Law to its fullest measure, making clear its spiritual meaning and intent. The Hebrew word for “magnify” is gadal, which means: to advance, boast, exceed; to become, do, give, make greater, increase and magnify. The Hebrew word “honorable” is adar, which means: to expand, to be great or magnificent.

Contrary to what many religious leaders teach, Jesus did not do away with the Law. Beginning with the Sermon on the Mount (Matt. 5-7), Jesus magnified the Law by teaching the spiritual meaning of the Law and the Prophets: “Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I did not come to abolish, but to fulfill [to complete the Word of God]. For truly I say to you, until the heaven and the earth shall pass away, one jot or one tittle shall in no way pass from the Law until everything has been fulfilled” (Matt. 5:17-18). Moreover, He also said, “It is written, ‘Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God’ ” (Matt. 4:4). (To understand how Jesus fulfilled the Law and the Prophets, see A Harmony of the Gospels—the Life of Jesus Christ, Coulter, pp. 73-96.)

Jesus Christ’s first coming fulfilled hundreds of prophecies as recorded in the Law, the Prophets and the Psalms. In addition to magnifying the Law and the Prophets, Jesus revealed a great deal more about the meaning of God’s Sabbath and holy days.

Luke writes this account of Jesus’ teaching on the Sabbath day in Nazareth: “And He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up; and according to His custom, He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day and stood up to read. And there was given Him the book of the prophet Isaiah; and when He had unrolled the scroll, He found the place where it was written, ‘The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me; for this reason, He has anointed Me to preach the gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to heal those who are brokenhearted, to proclaim pardon to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to send forth in deliverance those who have been crushed, to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord’ ” (Luke 4:16-19). In fact, recorded in the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John are the direct teachings of Jesus Christ. Furthermore, the Gospel of Jesus Christ is God’s message of the good news of personal salvation and the coming Kingdom of God, which is also revealed by the Sabbath and holy days.

When Jesus began His three and one-half-year ministry, He preached repentance and forgiveness of sin: “Jesus came into Galilee, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom of God, and saying, ‘The time has been fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has drawn near; repent, and believe in the gospel’ ” (Mark 1:14-15).

Another primary purpose of Jesus coming in the flesh was to reveal God the Father to those whom He would call: “At that time Jesus answered and said, ‘I praise You, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent, and have revealed them to babes. Yes, Father, for it was well pleasing in Your sight to do this. All things were delivered to Me by My Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father; neither does anyone know the Father except the Son, and the one to whom the Son personally chooses to reveal Him’ ” (Matt. 11:25-27). Jesus did not reveal God the Father to the world in general, but only to His called and chosen disciples—those truly converted believers who love Him and keep His commandments (I John 5:2-3).

For this reason Jesus spoke to the people in parables. His disciples, however, did not understand His use of parables and questioned Him: “And He answered and said to them, ‘Because it has been given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given. For whoever has understanding, to him more shall be given, and he shall have an abundance; but whoever does not have understanding, even what he has shall be taken away from him. For this reason I speak to them in parables, because seeing, they see not; and hearing, they hear not; neither do they understand. And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which says, “In hearing you shall hear, and in no way understand; and in seeing you shall see, and in no way perceive; for the heart of this people has grown fat, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and should hear with their ears, and should understand with their hearts, and should be converted, and I should heal them.” But blessed are your eyes, because they see; and your ears, because they hear. For truly I say to you, many prophets and righteous men have desired to see what you see, and have not seen; and to hear what you hear, and have not heard’ ” (Matt. 13:11-17).

The apostle Peter later confirmed Jesus’ words, stating that even the prophets of old—though they had some partial knowledge and even wrote of the coming grace of God—did not understand God’s plan of salvation: “Concerning which salvation the prophets who prophesied of the grace that would come to you have diligently searched out and intently inquired, searching into what way and what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them was indicating, testifying beforehand of the sufferings of Christ, and these glories that would follow; to whom it was revealed that, not for themselves, but to us they were ministering these things, which now have been announced to you by those who have preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit, sent from heaven—into which things the angels desire to look” (I Pet. 1:10-12).

Before Jesus’ death and resurrection, He revealed to His apostles and disciples additional knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of God—the secret plan of God. Then, on the night of Jesus’ last Passover, before His arrest and subsequent crucifixion, Jesus informed them that God the Father would send the power of the Holy Spirit upon them which would give them additional insight and revelation: “But when the Comforter comes, even the Holy Spirit, which the Father will send in My name, that one shall teach you all things, and shall bring to your remembrance everything that I have told you.... [When] that one has come, even the Spirit of the truth, it will lead you into all truth because it shall not speak from itself, but whatever it shall hear, it shall speak. And it shall disclose to you the things to come [in prophecy and more of God’s plan]. That one shall glorify Me because it shall disclose to you the things that it receives from Me” (John 14:26; 16:13-14). Indeed, when they received the Holy Spirit they began to comprehend the spiritual meaning of Jesus’ teachings—just as He had said.

Jesus Revealed More of God’s Plan to the Apostles After He was Raised From the Dead

After God the Father raised Jesus from the dead, Jesus personally appeared to His apostles and disciples and began to explain God’s plan as contained in the Old Testament. In fact, the apostles and disciples themselves did not fully fathom the meaning of the Scriptures until Jesus opened their minds: “And He said to them, ‘These are the words that I spoke to you when I was yet with you, that all the things which were written concerning Me in the Law of Moses and in the Prophets and in the Psalms must be fulfilled.’ Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, and said to them, ‘According as it is written, it was necessary for the Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day. And in His name repentance and remission of sins should be preached to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. For you are witnesses of these things. And behold, I send the promise of My Father upon you; but remain in the city of Jerusalem until you have been clothed with power from on high’ ” (Luke 24:44-49).

With the exception of the apostle John, Paul wrote more about the mystery of God than any other New Testament writer. When Paul wrote to the Corinthians, he made it clear that in order to understand the mystery of God, one must have the Holy Spirit—for that mystery is spiritually revealed. All the human wisdom, philosophies and religions of the world cannot expound God’s plan. Notice: “Rather, we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom that God foreordained before the ages unto our glory which not one of the rulers of this world has known (for if they had known, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory); but according as it is written, ‘The eye has not seen, nor the ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God has prepared for those who love Him.’

“But God has revealed them to us by His Spirit, for the Spirit searches all things—even the deep things of God. For who among men understands the things of man except by the spirit of man which is in him? In the same way also, the things of God no one understands except by the Spirit of God. Now we have not received the spirit of the world, but the Spirit that is of God, so that we might know the things graciously given to us by God; which things we also speak, not in words taught by human wisdom, but in words taught by the Holy Spirit in order to communicate spiritual things by spiritual means. But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God; for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them because they are spiritually discerned” (I Cor. 2:7-14).

When Paul wrote to the Ephesians, he again emphasized that the knowledge of the mystery of God and of Christ must be revealed by God Himself through His Spirit and the Word of God: “For this cause [the preaching of the Gospel] I, Paul, am the prisoner of Christ Jesus for you Gentiles, if indeed you have heard of the ministry of the grace of God that was given to me for you; how He made known to me by revelation the mystery (even as I wrote briefly before, so that when you read this, you will be able to comprehend my understanding in the mystery of Christ [God’s secret plan for mankind], which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men, as it has now been revealed to His holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; that the Gentiles might be joint heirs, and a joint body, and joint partakers of His promise in Christ through the gospel” (Eph. 3:1-6).

In writing to the Colossians, Paul revealed that part of the mystery of Christ is Christ dwelling in every converted believer through the power of the Holy Spirit. He also made it clear that what he was writing to them was to become part of the New Testament, thus completing the Word of God. God has preserved His Word so that those whom He would call in future generations would have the knowledge of this great mystery: “Now, I am rejoicing in my sufferings for you, and I am filling up in my flesh that which is behind of the tribulations of Christ, for the sake of His body, which is the church; of which I became a servant, according to the administration of God that was given to me for you in order to complete the Word of God; even the mystery that has been HIDDEN FROM AGES AND FROM GENERATIONS, but has now been revealed to His saints; to whom God did will to make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory; Whom we preach, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, so that we may present every one perfect in Christ Jesus” (Col. 1:24-28).

In the early AD 60s, God revealed additional knowledge of His plan to His apostles and prophets. In some of the most eloquent and spiritually inspiring words of the Bible, Paul wrote of God’s new fantastic revelation of His purpose for those whom He had called and described their personal participation in that plan: “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly things with Christ; according as He has personally chosen us for Himself before the foundation of the world in order that we might be holy and blameless before Him in love; having predestinated us for sonship to Himself through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of His own will, to the praise of the glory of His grace, wherein He has made us objects of His grace in the Beloved Son.

“In Whom we have redemption through His blood, even the remission of sins, according to the riches of His grace, which He has made to abound toward us in all wisdom and intelligence; having made known to us THE MYSTERY OF HIS OWN WILL, according to His good pleasure, which He purposed in Himself; that in the divine plan for the fulfilling of the times, He might bring all things together in Christ, both the things in the heavens and the things upon the earth; yes, in Him, in Whom we also have obtained an inheritance, having been predestinated according to His purpose, Who is working out all things according to the counsel of His own will; that we might be to the praise of His glory, who first trusted in the Christ; in Whom you also trusted after hearing the Word of the truth, the gospel of your salvation; in Whom also, after believing, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of His glory” (Eph. 1:3-14).

Paul warned the Gentile brethren in Colosse and Laodicea to hold fast to the teachings and knowledge of God’s plan because there were false teachers who were trying to drag them back into the vanities of pagan religious philosophy and angel worship: “Now I want you to understand what great concern I have for you, and for those in Laodicea, and as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, unto the knowledge of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ; in Whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

“Now I say this so that no one may deceive you by persuasive speech. For though I am indeed absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. Therefore, as you have received Christ Jesus the Lord, be walking in Him; being rooted and built up in Him, and being confirmed in the faith, exactly as you were taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving.

“Beware lest anyone takes you captive through philosophy and vain deceit, according to the traditions of men, according to the elements of the world, and not according to Christ. For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily; and you are complete in Him, Who is the Head of all principality and power. In Whom you have also been circumcised with the circumcision not made by hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ; having been buried with Him in baptism, by which you have also been raised with Him through the inner working of God, Who raised Him from the dead.

“For you, who were once dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, He has now made alive with Him, having forgiven all your trespasses. He has blotted out the note of debt against us with the decrees of our sins, which was contrary to us; and He has taken it away, having nailed it to the cross. After stripping the principalities and the powers, He made a public spectacle of them, and has triumphed over them in it [the crucifixion and resurrection]” (Col. 2:1-15).

Paul admonished the Colossian brethren to realize that they were complete in Christ Jesus. They had true forgiveness of sin and true conversion through the baptism of Jesus Christ and the receiving of the Holy Spirit. Although as Gentiles they were not physically circumcised, they did have the spiritual circumcision of the heart in Christ Jesus (also see Rom. 2:28-29). Since they were now living a life of love and obedience to God the Father and Jesus Christ, they were keeping the Sabbath and holy days of God instead of being involved in pagan sun worship and the heathen religious holidays of the past. As a result, false teachers from outside the church at Colosse were trying to deceive them. With persuasive words they tried to convince the brethren to forsake the true way of the Lord and to once again embrace their former beliefs, which they had forsaken.

In verses 13-14, Paul was not abrogating the laws and commandments of God or His Sabbaths and festivals. Rather, he makes it clear to these Gentile Christians that it is absolutely essential that they obey God and keep the Sabbath and holy days of God.

Therefore, he admonished them to not unduly worry about what other people thought, nor let anyone judge or condemn them because they were now obeying God and observing His commanded Sabbaths and festivals: “Therefore, do not allow anyone to judge you in eating or in drinking, or with regard to a festival, or new moon, or the Sabbaths, which are a foreshadow of the things that are coming, but the body of Christ.

“Do not allow anyone to defraud you of the prize by doing his will in self-abasement and the worship of angels, intruding into things that he has not seen, vainly puffed up by his own carnal mind” (verses 16-18).

Upon further examination of his epistles, it is evident that God’s revelations to Paul progressively built a clearer picture of the mystery of God. Thus, we understand why God had blinded the children of Israel—so that the Gentiles might receive salvation as well. While he did not fully understand the timing, Paul also knew that at a future time all Israel would be saved: “For I do not wish you to be ignorant of this mystery, brethren, in order that you may not be wise in your own conceits: that a partial hardening of the heart has happened to Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles be come in; and so all Israel shall be saved, according as it is written: ‘Out of Sion shall come the Deliverer, and He shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob. For this is My covenant, which I will make with them when I have taken away their sins.’ On the one hand, concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes; but on the other hand, concerning the election, they are beloved for the fathers’ sakes; because the gifts and the calling of God are never revoked. For just as you once did not believe God, but have now been shown mercy through their unbelief, in the same way also, they have not believed at this time in order that through the mercy shown to you, they also may have mercy shown to them. For God has given them all over to unbelief in order that He might show mercy to all” (Rom. 11:25-32).

Realizing that in the future God would most certainly save all Israel, he glorified God for the greatness of His plan: “O the depth of the riches of both the wisdom and the knowledge of God! How unfathomable are His judgments and unsearchable are His ways! For who did know the mind of the Lord, or who became His counselor? Or who first gave to Him, and it shall be recompensed to him again? For from Him, and through Him, and unto Him are all things; to Him be the glory into the ages of eternity. Amen” (verses 33-36).

At the end of his epistle to the Romans, Paul again states that in past ages the knowledge of God’s mystery had been kept secret. “Now to Him who has the power to establish you, according to my gospel and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery that in past ages has been kept secret; but now is made manifest, and by the prophetic scriptures [NT], according to the commandment of the eternal God, has been made known to all the nations unto the obedience of faith; to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, be the glory into the ages of eternity. Amen” (Rom. 16:25-27). Again, we see that Paul recognized that God’s revelation was not yet complete.

Later, when Paul writes to the Ephesians, he mentions that he had received additional revelations from Jesus Christ about the mystery of God—that the resurrected saints would form a great spiritual family of God the Father: “If indeed you have heard of the ministry of the grace of God that was given to me for you; how He made known to me by revelation the mystery (even as I wrote briefly before, so that when you read this, you will be able to comprehend my understanding in the mystery of Christ), which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men, as it has now been revealed to His holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; that the Gentiles might be joint heirs, and a joint body, and joint partakers of His promise in Christ through the gospel, of which I became a servant according to the gift of the grace of God, which was given to me through the inner working of His power.

“To me, who am less than the least of all the saints, was this grace given, that I might preach the gospel among the Gentiles—even the unsearchable riches of Christ; and that I might enlighten all as to what is the fellowship of the mystery that has been hidden from the ages in God, Who created all things by Jesus Christ; so that the manifold wisdom of God might now be made known through the church to the principalities and the powers in the heavenly places, according to His eternal purpose, which He has wrought in Christ Jesus our Lord, in Whom we have boldness and direct access with confidence through His very own faith. So then, I beseech you not to faint at my tribulations for you, which are working for your glory.

“For this cause I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of Whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, that He may grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with power by His Spirit in the inner man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; and that being rooted and grounded in love, you may be fully able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and depth and height [of God’s purpose], and to know the love of Christ, which surpasses human knowledge; so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. Now to Him Who is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that is working in us, to Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all generations, even into the ages of eternity. Amen” (Eph. 3:2-21).

The Keys to Understanding the Mysteries of God: Jesus Christ promised that His true, converted, spirit-led disciples would be given the knowledge of the mysteries of the Kingdom of God. Here are the keys to understanding the plan of God for mankind, as revealed by His Sabbath and holy days:

- We must fully understand and absolutely believe that all Scripture is “God-breathed” (II Tim. 3:16) and “that no prophecy of Scripture [OT or NT] originated as anyone’s own private interpretation; because prophecy was not brought at any time by human will, but the holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit” (II Pet. 1:20-21).
- In order to understand the Bible and the meaning of the Sabbath and holy days, we must rightly divide the Word of God—which is given precept upon precept, line upon line, here a little and there a little (II Tim. 2:15; Isa. 28:9-10).
- God reveals His mysteries only to those who have the Spirit of God, truly love Him, keep His commandments and His Sabbath and holy days, and worship God the Father in spirit and truth (Mark 12:28-30; Col. 2:16; Heb. 4:9; John 4:23-24).

A Prayer of Encouragement: When Paul first informed the brethren of Ephesus about the purpose of God the Father and Jesus Christ, he ended with this prayer for them. It is fitting that we also end this Prologue with his prayer. May God answer this prayer for all those who read and study about the mystery of God and of Christ in God’s Plan for Mankind Revealed by His Sabbath and Holy Days: “I do not cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers; that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him. And may the eyes of your mind be enlightened in order that you may comprehend what is the hope of His calling, and what is the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who believe, according to the inner working of His mighty power, which He wrought in Christ, when He raised Him from the dead, and set Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, far above every principality and authority and power and lordship, and every name that is named—not only in this age, but also in the age to come; for He has subordinated all things under His feet, and has given Him to be head over all things to the church, which is His body—the fullness of Him Who fills all things in all” (Eph. 1:16-23).

Thus, the prophecy of Moses is fulfilled through the New Covenant with Jesus Christ and God the Father: “The secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are revealed [in both the Old and New Testaments] belong unto us and to our children for ever [the Church of God, which is spiritual Israel, the children of God] that we may do all the words of this Law [which now includes the entire Bible]” (Deut. 29:29).

Even with all the knowledge that God the Father and Jesus Christ have revealed by the Holy Spirit through the Word of God and His Sabbath and holy days, we also realize that comprehending the absolute reality of God’s spiritual plan for mankind is still like looking through a glass darkly. However, at the first resurrection we will understand the fullness of God’s plan for mankind: “For we know in part, and we prophesy in part; but when that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part shall be set aside. When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I reasoned as a child; but when I became a man, I set aside the things of a child. For now we see through a glass darkly, but then we shall see face to face; now I know in part, but then I shall know exactly as I have been known. And now, these three remain: faith, hope and love; but the greatest of these is love” (I Cor. 13:9-13).

“The secret of the Lord is with them who fear Him; and He will show them His covenant.”
(Psa. 25:14)

“It is the glory of God to conceal a thing; but the honor of kings is to search out a matter.”
(Prov. 25:2)

“Open my eyes to behold wondrous things out of your Law!”
(Psa. 119:18)

“Prove all things;
hold fast to that which is good.”
(I Thess. 5:21)

Fourteen Rules for Bible Study

Please see Appendix A for an expanded version of these rules.

- 1) Begin with passages that are easy to understand, where there is little or no dispute as to the meaning—then move on to more difficult ones.
- 2) Let the Bible interpret and prove the Bible. Don't look for what you want to prove; look for what the Bible actually proves. Do this by looking at all of the passages relevant to the study.
- 3) Understand the context—the verses before and after, the chapters before and after. Does your understanding of a particular verse harmonize with the rest of the Bible?
- 4) Understand the original language, Hebrew or Greek. Never try to establish dogmatic doctrine or teachings by using Strong's Concordance. It can be helpful at times, but it is quite limited.
- 5) Ask, "What does the passage clearly say?"
- 6) Ask, "What does the passage not say?"
- 7) Ask, "To whom was the book written?"
- 8) Ask, "Who wrote it?"
- 9) Ask, "Who said it?"
- 10) Understand the historical time frame and cultural setting of when the book was written.
- 11) Don't bring your personal assumptions and preconceived notions into your understanding or conclusions.
- 12) Base your study on the biblical understanding you already have. What do you know up to this point in time?
- 13) Do not form conclusions based on partial facts or insufficient information, or the opinions and speculations of others.
- 14) Personal opinions or convictions, regardless of how sincere, don't count. Scripture alone must be your standard and guide.

These guidelines represent a thorough and careful approach to study. When undertaking a study of the Bible, we should always use this approach, coupled with prayer, trusting God to lead us with His Holy Spirit. We know that He will fulfill His promise to lead us into all truth—if we are diligently seeking to understand the Word of God.

The Beginning and the Ending

Welcome to God's Plan for Mankind Revealed by His Sabbath and Holy Days. You are about to embark on the most exciting journey of discovery of your life! Through this book you will discover the truth about what God is doing on this earth—how He is doing it and why. Indeed, you will come to understand the very purpose of God for mankind.

We are commanded to keep God's holy days. But why are His holy days so important? The simple, yet profound, answer is this: God's holy days form a roadmap that tells us where we have been and where we are going. Each of God's seven annual high days marks a specific stage of His divine plan. Sometimes a holy day points back at key events that have already occurred, that have moved God's plan along its path. Similarly, other holy days look forward to major prophetic events yet to occur. But note this well: you cannot understand God's plan—what God is actually doing on this earth—without the understanding of His Sabbath and holy days.

This will be an intensive study. If you are not familiar with the Bible, you may need to learn some basic study skills. Please carefully read the following section, Fourteen Rules for Bible Study. It will help you greatly as you go through this in-depth study. And by the way, don't let the size of this book intimidate you! You will find that reading along with a CD is actually quite easy—and helps you to understand and retain what you read.

What you are about to discover is and has been a mystery. Notice what Jesus said: “And His disciples came to Him and asked, ‘Why do You speak to them in parables?’ And He answered and said to them, ‘Because it has been given to you to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven...’ ” (Matt. 13:10-11).

Mystery means secret—God's secret! And that secret is opened only to those individuals God calls (John 6:44)—those who are striving to obey and serve God. But His plan remains a secret to those whose minds are closed because of disobedience. Jesus continues: “But to them it has not been given. For whoever has understanding, to him more shall be given, and he shall have an abundance; but whoever does not have understanding, even what he has shall be taken away from him. For this reason I speak to them in parables, because seeing, they see not; and hearing, they hear not; neither do they understand” (vv. 11-13).

That's what this book does—it gives understanding to those who God calls. God grants understanding. But those who are steeped in this world's ways are actually void of understanding. Because they refuse to give up worldly practices, refuse to get serious about sin, refuse to put Scripture above human tradition—they remain blind. Yes, they have the Bible. They can go to church on Sunday. They can keep the traditional Christian holidays—Easter, Christmas, etc. But they will never understand God's plan. And what little understanding they might have will be taken from them—replaced by more fables and heresies. (If you are new to the biblical Sabbath and holy days, please request Occult Holidays or God's Holy Days—Which? We'll be happy to send you a copy—it goes hand-in-hand with this book.)

So Jesus adds: “And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which says, ‘In hearing you shall hear, and in no way understand; and in seeing you shall see, and in no way perceive; for the heart of this people has grown fat [through sin], and their ears are dull of hearing [because they want to do their own thing], and their eyes they have closed, lest they should see with their eyes, and should hear with their ears, and should understand with their hearts, and should be converted, and I should [spiritually] heal them” (vv. 14-15).

The result is that they are cut off from salvation—for now, as they will have their calling later, in another age.

Isaiah 29 is another prophecy concerning why people don't understand the Bible. Start in verse 9: "Be stunned and amazed! Blind your eyes and be blind! They are drunk [with the wine of the spiritual fornication of Babylon the Great (Rev. 17:2)], but not with wine [not physical wine, but false doctrine]; they stagger, but not with strong drink, for the LORD has poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes; He has covered [the spiritual eyes of] the prophets and your rulers, and the seers. And the vision of all has become to you like the words of a book that is sealed, which they give to one who is learned saying, 'Please read this,' and he says, 'I cannot, for it is sealed.' And the book is delivered to him who is not learned, saying, 'Please read this,' and he says, 'I am not learned' " (vv. 9-12).

The Bible to them is a "sealed book"—or it is like they simply cannot read.

As we continue in Isaiah 29, note this vital key: You must not approach this study as a mere curiosity. You must be absolutely serious in your commitment to God!

Isaiah continues, showing why people cannot understand the Bible: "Because this people draws near Me with their mouth, and with their lips [they] honor Me [they say all the right Christian-sounding things], but their worship of Me is made up of the traditions of men learned by rote, and their fear toward Me is taught by the commandments of men [traditions of men that water down God's standards]; therefore, behold, I will proceed to do again a marvelous work among this people, even a marvelous work and a wonder, for the wisdom of their wise ones shall perish, and the wisdom of their intelligent ones shall vanish" (vv. 13-14).

Verse 15: "Woe to those who go deep to hide their purpose from the LORD! And their works are in the dark, and they say, 'Who sees us? And who knows us?' Surely, you have turned things upside down!"

That's what the pagan "Christianity" of this world has done—turned God's way upside down. The very thing they ought to keep—the Sabbath and holy days—they don't keep. So they don't understand God's plan. And the very things God says you shall not keep—pagan days like Sunday, Easter, Christmas—that's what they keep.

Indeed, they have everything upside down! It's like the clay trying to tell the potter what to do (verse 16). The result: spiritual blindness.

You need to understand something very important: The Bible is the truth of God! Jesus said, "Your Word is the truth." In Psalm 119, David says, "All Your commandments are true. Your Law is true! All your precepts are true from the beginning." You need to understand that unless you are willing to be honest with yourself and honest with the Word of God—and apply yourself to the Bible the way God wants you to—you will never understand. You'll be just like those of Isaiah 29 who say, of the Bible, "It is sealed."

The apostle Paul wrote about the coming world ruler, the beast of Revelation 13, who is going to proclaim himself to be "God on earth." There is also going to be a false prophet who is going to endorse the "beast" as a manifestation of God in the flesh. Paul writes: "Even the one whose coming is according to the inner working of Satan, with all power and signs and lying wonders [if you don't know the Bible, you'll never know what is happening] and with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in those who are perishing because they did not receive the love of the Truth, so that they might be saved" (II Thess. 2:9-10).

So you must love the truth! God is true, and God cannot lie. But most preachers and ministers and theologians have never received a genuine "love of the truth."

Verses 11-12: “And for this cause God will send upon them a powerful deception that will cause them to believe *the lie, so that all may be judged who did not believe the Truth, but who took pleasure in unrighteousness.”

So where do you start? If God has “given to you” (Matt. 13:11) the understanding of His mysteries, then you start by “rightly dividing the Word of truth” (II Tim. 2:15). And you have to move beyond the “milk of the Word.” Notice: “Whom shall He teach knowledge? And whom shall He make to understand doctrine? Those who are weaned from the milk...” (Isa. 28:9). Paul says we need to go beyond mere milk—we need the meat of God’s Word (Heb. 5:12-13). This book is going to be meat—even strong meat. So you will have to apply yourself to understand it.

How do you “rightly divide” Gods Word? Back to Isaiah 28: “For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, there a little” (v. 10). That’s how you “rightly divide” the Bible: compare verse with verse, compare truth to truth. Get all the verses together on any given subject so you can see the whole picture. Only then can you understand.

Everything God wants us to know about Him and His plan is in the Scriptures. But it is spiritually understood. That’s why Jesus said, “But blessed are your eyes, because they see; and your ears, because they hear. For truly I say to you, many prophets and righteous men have desired to see what you see, and have not seen; and to hear what you hear, and have not heard” (Matt. 13:16-17). To be given understanding is a great blessing!

In preparing the apostles for their work, Jesus promised that the Holy Spirit would lead them into all truth. “I have yet many things to tell you, but you are not able to bear them now. However, when that one has come, even the Spirit of the Truth, it will lead you into all Truth...” (John 16:12-13).

The Spirit of God is the power of God, the Spirit of truth from God—who cannot lie, who will not lie. God’s Word is the truth! That’s a promise we can claim! Not because we’re anything, but because God wants His Word revealed—and woe to those who understand His Word but don’t preach it, but teach false ideas of men instead!

Jesus added that the Holy Spirit “shall not speak from itself, but whatever it shall hear, it shall speak. And it shall disclose to you the things to come” (v. 13).

Now let’s see an astounding verse, Psalm 119:18: “Open my eyes so that I may behold wondrous things out of Your Law.” The Hebrew for “open” means reveal. God has to reveal His truth to us!

What is contained in the Law? Where are the Sabbath and holy days listed? In the Law! God’s Sabbaths and holy days are filled with His presence. They are also vehicles He uses to give us understanding as we study God’s Word.

So we need godly wisdom—the wisdom of God, not man. Concerning Christ, Paul writes that “we have redemption through His blood, even the remission of sins, according to the riches of His grace, which He has made to abound toward us in all wisdom and intelligence” (Eph. 1:7-8). God wants us to be wise, intelligent—to educate ourselves biblically—with His Word!

The Bible, coupled with the Holy Spirit, provides a lifelong education program to prepare for eternal life! God wants us to have wisdom and intelligence—to be able to think, to be able to make wise choices, to be able to make righteous judgments.

Notice verse 9: “Having made known to us the mystery...” God’s mystery—His plan for mankind—is revealed through His Sabbath and holy days! Remember, this mystery is the secret of God, which the world cannot know.

God does this “of His own will, according to His good pleasure, which He purposed in Himself; that in the Divine plan for the fulfilling of the times [revealed in the Sabbath and holy days] He might bring all things together in Christ, both the things in the heavens and the things upon the earth; yes, in Him, in Whom we also have obtained an inheritance, having been predestinated according to His purpose, Who is working out all things according to the counsel of His own will” (vv. 9-11).

That’s why this book focuses on: the plan of God, the purpose of God, the love of God, the Law of God, the truth of God, the prophecies of God, and the meaning of the holy days of God. All of this shows what God is doing and how He is working out His great plan.

Paul then says that his earnest prayer is that we might be given of God the “spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him” (v. 17). Thus it is of God that we grow in grace and knowledge, grow in spiritual understanding, and grow overall in the Word of God. Now notice especially what Paul writes next:

“And may the eyes of your mind be enlightened”—That is the spiritual understanding that comes from God because of the working of God’s Holy Spirit in your mind! —“in order that you may comprehend [He wants us to know] what is the hope of His calling, and what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who believe, according to the inner working of His mighty power, which He wrought in Christ, when He raised Him from the dead, and set Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, far above every principality and authority and power and lordship, and every name that is named—not only in this age, but also in the age to come; for He has subordinated all things under His feet, and has given Him to be head over all things to the Church, which is His body—the fullness of Him Who fills all things in all” (vv. 18-23).

Let’s understand something: no man is the head of the Church. Christ is! All teachers, ministers, pastors, evangelists, apostles are on the sidelines to teach the brethren. Jesus is the great Teacher! John 6:45: “It is written in the prophets, ‘And they shall all be taught by God.’ ...” That happens by the power of the Holy Spirit! Jesus is the great Teacher.

So with God’s guidance through the Holy Spirit, this book is designed to help you to understand the Scriptures—to understand the plan of God for mankind. Only at this time in history do we have such an opportunity—where there is peace and the freedom of thought, expression, and assembly. And God expects us to be zealously doing, learning, growing, and overcoming for greatest goal possible: to be spirit beings in the Kingdom of God.

Now let’s see another principle, this one from I Corinthians 2. The church at Corinth was the most carnal of all the churches, filled with sin, filled with a spirit of competition. In effect, Paul had told them, “I wanted to bring you strong meat, but you weren’t able to take it, so I had to give you milk—and you were hardly able to endure that!”

Remember, Paul tells us that now is the time to pursue strong meat rather than milk. That is what this book is designed to do—bring you strong meat. So again, if you find it difficult to follow, take your time and be thorough—and periodically come back to this introduction as you are going through the chapters. I’m calling this introduction The Beginning and the Ending because I want you to come back here again and again—and at the end!

Notice I Corinthians 2: “And my message and my preaching was not in persuasive words of human wisdom; rather, it was in demonstration of the Spirit and of power; so that your faith might not be in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. Now we speak wisdom among the spiritually mature...” (vv. 4-6). The King James says “perfect” instead of mature. But the Greek means mature. We are to become (a process) perfect (KJV) or mature just as God is perfect (Matt. 5:48). This requires a level of understanding.

Paul continues, saying that this wisdom “is not the wisdom of this world”—That is why the Bible is the only source used for this book!—“nor of the rulers [experts and scholars] of this world, who are coming to nothing. Rather, we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery [but it is only a mystery to the world—not to us], even the hidden wisdom that God foreordained before the ages unto our glory” (vv. 6-7).

Think about the knowledge and understanding God has given to us, what God has opened our minds to—how tremendous that is! We are being given knowledge and understanding that has never in the history of man been known! That is amazing!

Verses 8-9: “Which not [even] one of the [secular or religious] rulers of this world has [ever] known; (for if they had known, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory); but according as it is written: ‘The eye has not seen, nor the ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God has prepared for those who love Him.’ ”

What is the love of God? Jesus answers: “This is the love of God, that we keep His commandments; and His commandments are not burdensome” (I John 5:3). He adds: “If you love Me you will keep My commandments” (John 14:15).

Continuing in I Corinthians 2: “But God has revealed them to us [the apostles, now written for us in the Word of God] by His Spirit [which reveals all truth—John 16:13]; for the Spirit searches all things—even the deep things of God” (v. 10).

This book covers some of the deeper things of God. “For who among men understands the things of man except by the spirit of man, which is in him? In the same way also, the things of God no one understands except by the Spirit of God. Now we have not received the spirit of the world, but the Spirit that is of God, so that we might know the things graciously given to us by God” (vv. 11-12).

The “spirit of the world” leads to keeping Sunday, Christmas, Easter, Halloween—occult holidays. But God’s Spirit gives us the true, deeper things of God! Indeed, any understanding we might have is through the grace of God. He wants us to have it! But He is not going to give it to those who are not going to use it. That’s why Jesus said, “Don’t cast your pearls before swine”—because they’ll just trample on it! Don’t give the truth to those who don’t care to live it!

Verse 13: “Which things we also speak, not in words taught by human wisdom, but in words taught by the Holy Spirit in order to communicate spiritual things by spiritual means.”

Combine this with what Jesus said in John 6:63: “It is the Spirit that gives life; the flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you, they are Spirit and they are Life.”

Do you see how “comparing spiritual things with spiritual things” and “rightly dividing the Word of God” and “precept upon precept” all tie together? This is how you understand the Word of God!

But again, it will be given only to those whose eyes are not closed due to unbelief and disobedience! The carnal mind cannot understand these things. Verse 14: “But the natural man [the carnal mind, one who doesn’t have the Spirit of God] does not receive the things of the Spirit of God; for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them because they are spiritually discerned.”

You must have the Spirit of God in you if you are to receive the things of God—because they are spirit and they are life! If you have not yet been baptized and received the Holy Spirit, you can still understand—but not fully. However, as long as you are yielded to God, His Spirit is with you. But to fully receive the spiritual things of God, you must have the Holy Spirit living inside you.

It is my sincere hope that this book will illuminate your understanding of God's divine plan for mankind as revealed through His weekly Sabbath and annual holy days!

The Sabbath

CHAPTER ONE

The Background in Genesis I

Creation Week—Genesis 1

Fred R. Coulter

Let's go to the Gospel of John and read a promise that is given to us here. Let's apply that to today, because we're going to go back and look at some very basic things, beginning in the book of Genesis, and we are going to see that there is an awful lot there.

I remember making the comment sometime ago, 'I wonder what it would have been like to hear a message by the Apostle Paul,' going into the Old Testament to tell us and show this, that and the other thing that is there. Here's a promise that is given that the Holy Spirit will do for us:

John 14:26: "But when the Comforter comes, even the Holy Spirit, which the Father will send in My name, that one shall teach you all things..." That's quite a promise!

- IF we have the Holy Spirit of God, which we do
- IF we're yielding to God and trying to live by every Word of God

Will the Holy Spirit teach us all things? That is what we need to know for salvation! It's not going to teach us all information in the world, obviously. It doesn't mean that.

"...and shall bring to your remembrance everything that I have told you" (v 26). That can't happen to us because we didn't hear the words of Jesus Christ!

Here's another promise concerning the Holy Spirit, John 16:13: "However, when that one has come, even the Spirit of the Truth, it will lead you into all Truth..."

There is this special blessing that comes when we really take God at His Word, study His Word, and add precept upon precept. Here's tremendous promise given to us, IF we follow the Word of God and we do put 'line upon line, here a little there a little,' and put it together correctly, here's a promise:

"...it will lead you into all Truth... [the Greek means: all the Truth] ...because it shall not speak from itself, but whatever it shall hear, it shall speak. And it shall disclose to you the things to come" (v 13)

This is the thing necessary for us to understand concerning how we're going to understand the Truth. I think we're going to understand this even more in relationship to the very beginning parts of the Bible.

Luke 24—here's something else that we add to the knowledge of the Scriptures. I think this is very, very profound; I think it's also most comforting and understanding when Jesus gave this promise here:

Luke 24:44: "And He said to them, 'These are the words that I spoke to you when I was yet with you... [Jesus' promise that the Holy Spirit would bring to remembrance all things that He said] ...that all the things, which were written concerning Me, in the Law of Moses and in the Prophets and in the Psalms must be fulfilled.' Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures" (vs 44-45).

We've seen and we've experienced this from time-to-time a little bit as we're going along step-by-step. I've been working on the publication: The Grace of God in the Bible, and there's one thing I've learned with writing: you have to get in it, and you have to really have your mind concentrating on it and be able to know the things that are there. What I've been doing, I've been writing concerning the Grace of God in the Old Testament. It's brought out some very interesting things and helped me clarify and understand even the first part of the Bible even more. I guess, when we get down to it, we will have to say that you never know anything the way that you really ought to truly know it.

What I did, since we have—thanks to Carl Franklin making copies of it for us—the Interlinear Hebrew-English Old Testament (Genesis-Exodus) by George Ricker Berry. We checked out and, unfortunately, he did not do the whole Bible. He just did Genesis and Exodus. However, I think in there there's quite a bit that we can learn. This is going to help us also understand more about how important the Sabbath is right at a time when people are throwing away the Sabbath. It's almost a dichotomy that is unreal.

Let's take the literal translation of the Hebrew and let's begin in Gen. 1:1. There's something that is going to make it just a little difficult in following along, and that is the English must be read from the right to the left, rather than from the left to the right. With the literal translation in linear form it must be done that way, because Hebrew is read from the right to left.

We're going to see something just little different but profound translations of different words that really mean more to us. We're going to go into other sections of the Bible as we're going along, but let's read the English from the Interlinear. You will also see that the verb in Hebrew is put before the subject.

If the Interlinear is too hard for you to follow along, then you can follow along with your own Bible. The purpose of this is because there are several sections, which are important for us to know and understand.

Genesis 1:1 (Int): "In the beginning [when] created God the heavens and the earth..."

Let's understand something that's important: God had to be *before the beginning! If God were not before the beginning, then God would be the beginning. As you will notice, when we're going through here, there may be some changes in your notes in the margin of your Bible.

There is only one real the beginning in relationship to us, and what the Bible reveals to us. That is the beginning! Some people have put down there a beginning trying to indicate that there was a beginning before the beginning. But you cannot have a beginning before the beginning, otherwise the beginning is not the beginning. You have one beginning and:

- you may have subsequent renewals
- you may have subsequent changes
- you may have subsequent additions

But there is only one the beginning!

The reason it is justified in the minds of some by saying, 'a beginning,' because some people have in mind that there was 'a beginning' before 'the beginning' of the heaven and earth as we know it! However, in this particular case it is not talking about this.

Let's look at some other Scriptures concerning the beginning. John is the one who does this. I'm going to go in a little more detail on this later on when I go through a very thorough word-by-word analysis of the Gospel of John, the first chapter. There are only three places in all of the Scriptures—Old Testament and New Testament—that talks about 'in the beginning.'

In the Gospel of John we find it is not a beginning, but the beginning. This is very important for us to understand concerning the nature of God. I will give a little detail here and, at a later time, I will amplify it even more.

John 1:1 "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God."

The important thing that we need to understand is this: "In the beginning..."—and it can actually read: before the beginning. I don't want to get in too much detail with the Greek.

"...was the Word..." (v 1). Why did He have to be in existence before the beginning? Because He's the Creator!

"...and the Word was with God..." (v 1). This is very important from the point of view of a paper written concerning 'the thinker and the thought.' What they're trying to do is eliminate two beings Who are God and say there's only one Being who is God by saying that the Word was 'the thought' of God. Since He was 'the thought' in 'the thinker' He was with God. But that's not what this means at all, because when we get to the detailed study of it, we will see it is with—and the Greek is 'pros'—which means with or toward face-to-face!

"...and the Word was God" (v 1). So that we understand Who the One is, it was the One Who became Jesus Christ! All of this is, is to counteract and go against all the philosophical doctrines of the nature of God. When we get there it's going to open your mind like you have never understood this before.

I want to get it all prepared and laid out word for word so that you can see it clearly. I'm currently reading a book by John Goodenough, which is called Light by Light. Of course, it says a lot about light here in the John 1. What he's essentially showing is the pagan's concept of the nature of God. Going through that, I can see how (in this and other papers) that they were going absolutely contrary to those religions at that time, which are philosophies that are being resurrected and being dumped upon us today.

Verse 2: "He was in the beginning with God... [which means He had to be there] ...All things came into being through Him, and not even one thing that was created came into being without Him" (vs 2-3).

- no such thing as creation by sub-gods
- no such thing as creation by angels
- no such thing as evolution

All was made by Him!

1-John 1—we want to have it in here; we're talking about something just a little bit different in relationship to it. We're talking about the One Who was from the beginning. That is after everything was created, the One Who became Jesus Christ as the Lord God of the Old Testament continually existed from the time of the creation. He existed before the creation; He existed after the creation. John is giving us a very, very personal account of their relationship with Jesus Christ.

1-John 1:1: "That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our own eyes, that which we observed for ourselves and our own hands handled, concerning the Word of life; (and the life was manifested, and we have seen, and are bearing witness, and are reporting to you the eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested [revealed] to us); that which we have seen and also heard we are reporting to you in order that you also may have fellowship with us; for the fellowship—indeed, our fellowship—is with the Father and with His own Son Jesus Christ" (vs 1-3).

In Heb. 1 we find something that adds to this:

- concerning the beginning
- concerning God
- concerning what He did
- concerning what Christ was

We know that in the beginning was God. We know that the word for God is 'Elohim,' a word that means more than one. So, there was a time when there were the two of 'Elohim' and then there was a time when one of Them became the Father and the other became the Son.

Hebrews 1:1: "God Who spoke to the fathers at different times in the past and in many ways by the prophets, has spoken to us in these last days by His Son, Whom He has appointed heir of all things..." (vs 1-2).

When it says that we're going to be 'co-heirs with Christ,' I don't even think that our mind can grasp the magnitude of what that is going to be! He's the heir of all things.

"...by Whom also He made the worlds; Who, being the brightness of His glory and the exact image of His person..." (v 2-3).

We're dealing with the fact that God is a person as revealed throughout the Scriptures. That is why God wants us to have a personal relationship with Him and with Christ.

"...and upholding all things by the Word of His own power..." (v 3), or by the power of His Word, because when God created, when He spoke it came into existence.

"...when he had by Himself purged our sins, sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high; having been made so much greater than any of the angels, inasmuch as He has inherited a name exceedingly superior to them. For to which of the angels did He ever say, 'You are My Son; this day I have begotten You'?..." (vs 3-5).

That's when the Elohim who became the Father, became the Father. That's when the Elohim who became the Son, became the Son.

Verse 5: "For to which of the angels did He ever say, 'You are My Son; this day I have begotten You'? And again, 'I will be a Father to Him, and He will be a Son to Me'? And again, when He brought the Firstborn into the world, He said, 'Let all the angels of God worship Him'" (vs 5-6).

This is telling us about the person and the power and the work and the activity of Jesus Christ. When we are talking about the beginning it is the beginning—not 'a.' Anything subsequent of the beginning is an addition or renewal or whatever, but it is not a beginning.

Genesis 1:1 (Int): "In the [when] beginning created God the heavens and the earth..." As I mentioned, the verb comes before the subject. God here being 'Elohim' means more than one. That's why He said, "Let Us..." (v 26).

Verse 2: "(and) the earth being a desolation and a waste..."

How did the earth become "...a desolation and a waste..."? When He got done creating the earth He said, 'Behold, it was very good.' Let's see how this came to be. Let's first understand that these two words mean—coming from the Hebrew—'tohu' and 'bohu'—chaos and confusion! Is God the author of confusion? NO!

1-Corinthians 14:33^[transcriber's correction]: "FOR God is not the author of confusion..."

How did it become this way? There was something before human beings, which was on this earth, that's what happened! Let's look at the Scriptures that help us with this, to give us understanding. Let's see what Isaiah tells us concerning God and His creation. You will also note that the King James translation says, "The earth was without form and void" (Gen. 1:2).

Isaiah 45:18: "For thus says the LORD the Creator of the heavens... [we're talking about 'in the beginning God created the heavens and the earth'] ...He Himself is God, Who formed the earth and made it; He has established it. He created it not in vain..."—'tohu'—it's not in vain!

How could it become 'in vain' right at the beginning after God created it, if He didn't make it 'in vain' or in chaos and confusion?

"...but formed it to be inhabited. 'I am the LORD, and there is no other'" (v 18).

Jer. 4—we will see another place where the expression, 'tohu' and 'bohu' is used. This will give us an understanding as to how the earth became that way. This is talking about the punishment coming to Jerusalem and Judah. It's talking about the things that are happening in punishment.

Jeremiah 4:19: "My bowels, my bowels! I writhe in pain. O walls of my heart! My heart is beating wildly within me; I cannot be silent because you have heard, O my soul, the sound of the ram's horn, the alarm of war."

This is going to tell us how the earth became that way, and why the earth is so literally upside down.

Verse 20: "Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is laid waste. Suddenly my tents are laid waste, my curtains in a moment. How long shall I see the banner of war and hear the sound of the ram's horn? 'For My people are foolish; they have not known Me; they are stupid children, and they have no understanding. They are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.' I looked on the earth, and, lo, it was without form, and void..." (vs 20-23)—a condition subsequent to the creation!

In this case, a condition subsequent to what we find of the completed creation (Gen. 1), and this is 'tohu' and 'bohu' or being a desolation and a waste. That's what war does!

Was there war in heaven before the creation of man? That becomes very important. In all the accounts that we have concerning Adam and Eve and the garden and so forth, we have four beings who are noted in the Scriptures besides all the animals in the creation. Who are those four beings?

1. God
2. Adam
3. Eve
4. the serpent: Satan the devil

Revelation 12:9: "And the great dragon was cast out, the ancient serpent who is called the Devil and Satan, who is deceiving the whole world..."

Was Satan already evil by the time he met Adam and Eve? Yes! That means he had to become evil and Satan, before Adam and Eve were created.

- When was that?
- How did that happen?

Ezek. 28 is a very interesting chapter because it talks about:

- the 'prince of Tyre'
- it talks about Tyre
- it talks about the king of Tyre or Tyrus

But we want to focus in on something that is very important because this tells us some very important facts. This is very basic, fundamental. I think it's important that we go through it because there are some people who are denying that Satan is even a being, today, even within the Church of God.

Ezekiel 28:11: "And the Word of the LORD came to me, saying, 'Son of man, lift up a lamentation over the king of Tyre...' (vs 11-12).

Verse 2: "Son of man, say to the prince of Tyre. 'Thus says the Lord GOD, "Because your heart is lifted up, and you have said, 'I am a god, I sit in the seat of God...'""

You can't get any higher than that, can you? No! Why does he address the king of Tyre? Because, in this case, the king of Tyre is the spirit power behind the prince, who says he's God. We're going to see that this is the same spirit power that in the book of Revelation inspires the final Beast Power to say, 'I am God.' All the world is going to worship him and worship the devil!

Notice what it says about this king of Tyre, which has to be the one who became Satan the devil as we will see by what the Scriptures tell us here.

"...and say to him, 'Thus says the Lord GOD, "You seal up the measure of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. You have been in Eden, the Garden of God..."' (v 12-13).

We have the four identified who were in the garden: God, Adam, Eve and the serpent! What happened after Adam and Eve sinned? They were put out of the Garden of Eden, and no one could enter into it!

If he was in Eden, the Garden of God, this could only be talking about the one who became Satan the devil, because no one else went into the Garden of Eden after the sin of Adam and Eve. They were cast out and cherubim were put there with flaming swords to keep the way so they couldn't go back in there.

"...You have been in Eden, the Garden of God..." (v 13)—and then it talks about all of his beauty, all of the tremendous coverings and the stones, which is a sign of regalness, royalty and exalted position!

“...The workmanship of your settings and of your sockets was prepared in you in the day that you were created” (v 13).

We saw that everything was created by Jesus Christ. Nothing came into existence that He did not make! So, we have a created being. Now let's find out a little bit more about him:

Verse 14: “You were the anointed cherub that covers...” We know that over the Ark of the Covenant were two cherubs guarding it! Here we find an additional cherub that has nothing to do with the two cherubs that are over the Ark of the Covenant, nor having anything to do with the two cherubs placed at the gate going into the Garden of Eden.

“...and I set you so; you were upon the Holy mountain of God...” (v 14). The Garden of Eden was not the Holy Mount! This is talking about a time prior to when the earth became desolate and without form or void, or ‘tohu’ and ‘bohu.’

“...you have walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire” (v 14)—showing that he was right there with God! This is talking about the way you could visualize things composed of spirit.

Verse 15: “You were perfect in your ways from the day that you were created, until iniquity was found in you.”

We don't know how long it was, the Bible doesn't tell us. But something happened, and it happened over a period of time.

I was given this little saying, so I entitled it An Old Proverb, and this is true:

You don't go bad in a single day,
You just sort of shuffle along.
Then lighten the load of your moral code
Till you don't know right from wrong.

I thought that was a very nice little proverb!

But it's the same way with Satan the devil, same way with the one who was the ‘covering cherub’—right over the Throne of God. “...until iniquity was found in him...” shows us that there had to be a period of time. There had to be an activity by the angels. Angels do not exist just to pluck on harps. Angels are greater in power and ability than human beings. What kind of civilization did the angels have before they fell? We don't know! But it had to be greater than ours, because they had greater abilities.

Verse 16: “By the multitude of your merchandise...” I don't know what it was that they were doing, but what is it that Satan is inspiring the whole world to do today? To buy, sell, trade and merchandise! Is that what he did with the angels also, and then do it illegally, do it improperly? Could very well be!

“...they have filled your midst with violence, and you have sinned...” (v 16). Sin is the transgression of the laws and commandment of God!

- Do you not suppose that there are commandments for angels that they have to obey?
- If you have righteous angels, are they not obedient angels?
- If you have disobedient angels who have become demons then you have also apply the principle:

- If you don't believe that there are laws and commandments for angels to follow:
- What is that principle? Where there is no Law there is no sin!

So, he could not have sinned unless there was some Law or commandment that he broke.

“...Therefore, I will cast you as profane from the mountain of God, and I will destroy you, O covering cherub, from among the stones of fire. Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you have corrupted your wisdom by reason of your brightness.... [got totally sold on himself] ...I will cast you to the ground; I will lay you before kings, that they may behold you. By the multitude of your iniquities, by the unrighteousness of your trade, you have profaned your sanctuaries...” (vs. 16-18).

There must have been some form of angelic worship with sanctuaries, what we might call assemblies or churches. We have to deduce that from here, because you cannot have a sanctuary unless there is some place that's set aside to be Holy!

Verse 18: “By the multitude of your iniquities, by the unrighteousness of your trade, you have profaned your sanctuaries; therefore I brought forth a fire from your midst; it shall devour you, and I will bring you to ashes upon the earth, before the eyes of all who see you.”

It carries forth right from there to the final, final punishment of Satan the devil. Rev. 12 tells us what occurred, and then we'll go from there to the book of Jude and then to the book of Isaiah.

Let's understand something concerning fallen angels, which are called demons. There's going to be a future war, and that future war is going to result in again, the casting down of Satan the devil to the earth, which is just somewhere in the very near future ahead of us.

Revelation 12:9: “And the great dragon was cast out, the ancient serpent...”

What happened when he was cast out the first time? This is the second casting out; the first one was a ‘fall.’

“...who is called the Devil and Satan, who is deceiving the whole world; he was cast down to the earth, and his angels were cast down with him” (v 9).

Those angels are called in the Gospels: demons or unclean spirits. Now, we’ve seen in the past that sin causes uncleanness: spiritual and physical!

Verse 1: “Then there appeared a great wonder in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun...” This is symbolic of the whole completed work of God with the Bride of Christ. This is depicting the woman: the Bride of Christ.

“...and having the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. And being with child, she cried in travail, and was in pain to deliver. And another sign was seen in heaven: and behold, a great red dragon... [Satan the devil] ...having seven heads and ten horns... [so, we have the powers and principalities] ...and seven crowns on his heads; and his tail swept away a third of the stars of heaven, and cast them to the earth...” (vs 1-4).

When did that happen? This first fall? Let’s see what Jesus said concerning Satan and the demons, because this is also a very revealing Scripture.

Luke 10:17: “Then the seventy returned with joy, saying, ‘Lord, even the demons are subject to us through Your name.’ And He said to them, ‘I beheld Satan fall as lightning from heaven’” (vs 17-18).

Revelation 12:4: “...his tail swept away a third of the stars of heaven...” We know that in Rev. 1, that a star is an angel. So, this is saying—combined together—that when Satan ‘fell as lightning from heaven’ he drew a third of the angels with him!

Let’s confirm that by this Scripture in the little book of Jude, what Jude wrote concerning the angels and see what he says about them.

Jude 6: “And the angels who did not keep their own original domain... [they rebelled against God] ...but deserted their habitation, He is holding in eternal bonds under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.”

We also know that Satan had to fall before man was created, otherwise he would not show up in the Garden of Eden as Satan. So, let’s put this all together and let’s see what happened. Let’s understand that Satan is called the god of this world!

2-Corinthians 4:3: “But if our Gospel is hidden, it is hidden to those who are perishing; in whom the god of this world...” (vs 3-4).

Jesus called him the ‘prince’ of this world or the ‘ruler’ of this world. He’s also called ‘the prince of the power of the air; that spirit that now works within the children of disobedience’ (Eph. 2). The “god of this world!”

Isa. 14—we will put this all together and we will see when Satan was cast down; when the war took place. When there is war, what happens? We saw in Jer. 4, when there’s war there’s desolation and destruction, wasting!

Isaiah 14:12: “How you are fallen from the heavens, O shining star, son of the morning!...”

Isn’t that what Jesus said? That He saw Satan ‘fall from heaven as lightning!’ Lucifer means light-bringer. He was to be the ‘light-bringer’ in God’s plan, but he rebelled.

In all of the secret religions of the philosophies and also in Masonry, they worship Lucifer as the ‘light-bringer!’ Lucifer is declared unequivocally by Albert Pike as ‘God.’ They know what they’re worshipping. That’s why they have to have degrees, to kind of let you in on the secret step-by-step. If they told a new initiate first out what they were doing, they would undoubtedly reject it. You have to be brainwashed and brought along, degree-by-degree. When you get to be the 33rd degree, then they know that they are coming to the stream of light from Lucifer.

“...How you are cut down to the ground, you who weakened the nations! For you have said in your heart, ‘I will ascend into the heavens... [this had to happen before the creation of man] ...I will exalt my throne above the stars of God... [angels, ‘above the angels of God,’ get the advantage] ...I will also sit upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north” (vs 12-13)—which is the Mt. of God where the central Government of God the Father and Jesus Christ is located, wherever that is in the universe! I’m convinced that it’s a whole lot closer to the earth than maybe we have imagined.

Verse 14: “I will ascend above the heights of the clouds...”

- Where are clouds? Clouds are on the earth!
- What do you need to make clouds? You need water!
- Where’s the only place that they truly have found any amount of water where there can be clouds, in as far as our whole solar system is concerned? That's the earth!

They think that on Mars they can detect some things where there used to be water—possible! So, I just throw this in the mix as just a thought, it makes you wonder (speculation): Was there something on Mars before it was desolated in its present condition? Could be! Everyone is anxious to find out what is on Mars. Some people have said that there are some temple-looking buildings or something on Mars, but the United States government is holding back the information on that. I do not know. You can read that in the Enquire or Star, whichever you prefer.

“...I will ascend into the heavens, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God...” (v 13). Could that refer to literal stars? Yes! It could refer to angels; It could refer to both and still have the same meaning.

“...I will also sit upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north. I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the Most High” (vs 13-14). That's an impossibility!

Why? Well, we have a lesson from Paul, 'Shall the thing created—which it was—be greater than the Creator?' No! or 'Shall the thing created say to the Creator, What are you making?' That's what he's doing by this statement: “...I will be like the Most High.”

Verse 15: “Yet, you shall be brought down to the grave, to the sides of the pit.” That's what's going to happen!

What we are dealing with in Gen. 1 is that after God created the heavens and the earth, in the beginning something happened, and the word was can be translated became, or it's state of being became a desolation and a waste (Gen. 1:2). So then, what we are dealing with here, which is true, when we are looking at the earth in this condition, what does God do from that time forward? He renews the surface of the earth, or recreates it.

When Christ returns, is He going to make a new heaven and a new earth? Yes, He is! Because all the stars are, again, be out of whack! The earth is going to be all suffering from the wars and desolation and plagues.

He's going to have to make a new heaven and new earth. How? By renewing the one that is here! It talks about that during the Millennium one of the things we will be doing is helping the people rebuild the waste places, which is the result of war.

Genesis 1:2: “And the earth was without form and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep [abyss]...”

Who is the prince of darkness? Satan the devil! So, we have dual meaning here.

1. The light of God was not shining, because Christ is the Light (John 1)
2. Satan is the prince of darkness

So we have:

- symbolic: the spiritual quality of the absence of light and darkness
- literal darkness: that it was dark, maybe a thick darkness like it was in Egypt during the plagues

“...and darkness was upon the face of the deep, and the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters” (v 2).

What is one way to get rid of radiation? You bury it in water, and you keep it there a long time. We do not know how old the earth literally is. It could be many hundreds of millions of years old as we reckon time; could even be billions of years old. When you look at the geographical strata what do you see? You see two floods! You see the killing of the warm-blooded animals in the Flood of Noah; and you see the killing of the dinosaurs in a different strata in a different time; and that is always buried way down low with the so-called ‘primitive rocks.’

I will have to say that most of the things that they test, they don't test the literal thing. I found out this concerning the testing. They go to Africa like Professor Lecky and he's walking along the ground and sees part of a skull there. He picks up this part of the skull and he says, ‘I wonder how old this is? Well, we'll take it in and do a scientific testing.’ So, what they do, they go and get some of the dirt and they test the dirt for the age, not the skull.

If you understand the error in that, then you'll understand why most of these things are wrong with the carbon dating and even the argon carbon dating, though the dating is correct. The age of the soil maybe totally different than the age of the bone which is found in the soil.

We have a member who used to live in Utah where the Dinosaur National Park where the dinosaur bones are right in the limestone. So, when you test the stone...

Let's look at it this way: You could take a calf, it died, you bury it, it's left there—say, maybe 50 years. Someone comes back and does an archeological excavation. They find these bones, they want to know how old the bones are, how long has it been there? Well, if they take the bones and test the bones, they will get an accurate test. But if they take the soil in which the calf was buried and test the soil, they're not going to get an accurate result because the soil was there long before the calf was buried in it. That's why you find this great divergence.

How long it was that the angels were here in peace and harmony before sin, we don't know. But God had to renew the face of the earth, which is what He did here. We have the spiritual darkness and we have the physical darkness and now God is going to do something about it.

Verse 3: "And God said..." We note that 'by His Word, He commands'! This is going to be so profound when we come to the creation of Adam and Eve. This also tells us our relationship and our destiny with God that God intended from the very beginning of the creation of Adam and Eve. So, He commanded:

"...‘Let there be light.’ And there was light.... [light came into being] ...And God saw the light that it was good; and God divided between the light and the darkness. And God called the light day... [or assigned to it the name ‘day’] ...and He called the darkness night. And the evening and the morning were day one" (vs 3-5)—in the re-creation of the earth for human existence!

He already began with an earth that was in ‘chaos and confusion’—a wasteland and desolation—as a result of the war with Satan and his angels, who fell and became demons.

Let's also notice something here that's important: when there was night and when there was day, what do we literally have? We have on half of the earth it is night, half of the earth it is day continuously at all times!

But when it says "...the evening and the morning were day one" the evening ended the darkness where God was when He created and called into existence the light and separated it!

The evening ended the darkness. Just like when we go through—and that follows the pattern all the way through the Bible—when you come to evening or sunset, it ends that day. This first evening ended the darkness because it was light just enough where God was so that it was evening; and then morning was day one.

Verse 6: "And God said, ‘Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.’ And God made the firmament, and divided the waters, which were under the firmament from the waters, which were above the firmament; and it was so. And God called the firmament heavens. And the evening and the morning were day two" (vs 6-8).

Some people think that the waters above had to do with perhaps an envelope of water or some sort of water-covering above the earth. I do not know whether that speculation has any validity or not. Some people have said well maybe there was a ring of water around the earth. If there was a ring of water around the earth, it had to then end up being frozen, because once you get out of the temperature it's going to freeze. Possible! This doesn't tell us exactly

Verse 6: "And God said, ‘Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.’ And God made the firmament, and divided the waters, which were under the firmament from the waters, which were above the firmament; and it was so" (vs 6-7).

- Could this also refer to clouds?
- Are clouds full of water? Yes! They are when it rains!
- Do they contain lots and lots of water? Yes, they do!

Especially when you get caught in some horrendous rain you wonder when it's going to stop.

I would have to surmise from what is here that what He was doing was separating the waters from the oceans, which became the oceans, from the water, which He wanted to have in the clouds. Now, whether there was a ring of water or a disc of frozen water around the earth, I do not know. It doesn't tell us. We have to leave that in the realm of speculation.

Verse 8: "...And the evening and the morning were day two. And God said, ‘Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together to one place, and let the dry land appear.’..." (vs 8-9).

There is some evidence geologically speaking that there was one major continent on the earth at one time and the seas all around it. Could be! This seems to lend some credence to that. Then they say that the earth was moved around and formed the continents as we have them now.

When you look at some of these continents, you can see that it makes sense. Some of them, which are close by, you can see the difference. Like in the English Channel, you have the white cliffs of Dover on one side and then you have the white cliffs, but not as much, on the other side, and you can tell that it was ripped apart and separated. However, I do not believe any of these things were gradual. I think they happened suddenly and it happened, not a gradual thing.

When you look at the mountains—especially those that go straight up—that didn't happen just a little at a time—it happened all at once. So, there was the dry land.

“...and He called the gathering together of the waters seas; and God saw that it was good. And God said, ‘Let the earth bring forth vegetation—the herb yielding seed and the fruit tree producing fruit after its kind...’” (v 10-11).

We’re beginning to get a lesson here, as he’s teaching us, that it’s after its kind. I think that if we ever do get to the point of Noah’s Flood, I think it’s telling us that the whole earth was corrupted. I think the animals were, the vegetables were, everything that man set his hand to do was corrupted. Just like today. Everything is becoming hybrid and cross-genetics.

Men have thought of and conceived quite a few things. If you have potatoes now that you cut open and they never turn black, you know that they have inserted a gene from a moth into that potato to keep it from turning black. They have done that, yes! They’ve done that with genetics. I know some may not believe it. That’s what they say. What else they can do I don’t know. It’s ‘after its kind.’

“...and the tree producing fruit after its kind, whose seed is in itself. And God saw that it was good. And the evening and the morning were day three” (vs 12-13).

Each one of these things in their sequence. I want you to understand that God is speaking or commanding all of these things into existence. If you want to know the power of the Word of God, and if you want to know what God can do, here’s part of it. He can command and it exists!

Verse 14: “And God said, ‘Let there be lights in the firmament of the heavens to divide between the day and the night, and let them be for signs, and for appointed seasons, and for days and years.’”

This also let’s us know that since there was light and day, and we’re up to the third day, the question becomes: Did God wait until the fourth day to create the moon and the sun? No! I think He set them back in the proper orbit that they needed to be, because I believe (speculation) that they were knocked out of orbit when there was a war. The war between Satan and his demons and God and the angels.

What does God use? God uses the things that He has made! When you look at the moon, look at it very carefully. I think you will see that the majority of those things are not really volcanoes, but craters from different elements—rocks or parts of the universe—hitting it.

We have an unusual thing in our solar system. There is an asteroid belt between Mars and Jupiter. They know, from what they’ve been able to see, looking out into the heavens, that these are really just chunks of junk rock. That’s all they are. In cleaning up the universe around us, God just took all of those and put them into that orbit.

When stars fall from heaven as we look at stars from heaven, is that going to be God sending a lot of those meteoroids back down to the earth and when they hit our atmosphere they’re burning up. I do not know, could very well be. But everywhere you look in our solar system, there are signs of chaos, confusion and war. In the earth, though it’s re-created for man’s habitation, and Mars in particular, and with the asteroid belt that is there.

Some of the other planets, we would have to say we don’t know if there was any habitation on them. I would have to doubt that there would be just looking at the way that they are now. Then He set them for times, for seasons, for years.

Verse 15: “And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heavens to give light upon the earth.’ And it was so. And God had made two great lights, the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night; and God had made the stars also. And God set them in the firmament of the heavens to give light upon the earth, and to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide between the light and the darkness. And God saw that it was good” (vs 15-18).

Here’s another reason why the Holy Days are to be kept: they are part of the creation of God based upon seasons.

Verse 19: “And the evening and the morning were day four. And God said, ‘Let the waters abound with swarms of living creatures...’” (vs 18-20).

Verse 20 (KJV): “...‘Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature’....”

Swarming is a good way—when you see some of these pictures of the schools of fish and so forth—a good word.

“...and let fowl fly over the earth on the face of the firmament of heaven.’ And God created great sea-animals, and every living creature that moves with which the waters swarmed after their kind, and every winged fowl after its kind. And God saw that it was good. And God blessed them, saying, ‘Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters of the seas, and let the fowl multiply in the earth.’ And the evening and the morning we day five” (vs 20-23).

Again, God is commanding this creation by the Word of His power. They're coming into existence. So therefore, let's understand that when God told, for example: Moses or anyone who was to write the Scriptures, 'Write this and put it in a book.' You know, it has power to it. That's why the Word of God is, is a living Word!

Verse 24: "And God said, 'Let the earth bring forth living creatures after their kind—livestock, creeping things, and beasts of the earth—each after its kind.'... [you find a breakdown of the animals as God would see it] ...And it was so. And God made the beasts of the earth after their kind, and the livestock after their kind, and every creeping thing upon the earth after their kind. And God saw that it was good" (vs 24-25). Again, God did it by speaking!

Let's see what happened here beginning with man. Then we'll go to Gen. 2 because there's some very interesting things concerning man.

Verse 26: "And said God, 'Let Us [now this phrase "Let Us..."]

Carl Franklin wrote in his paper The Two Jehovahs of the Pentateuch, he's showing that grammatically in the syntax in the Hebrew—which means the way that it's written and the meaning behind the words—this is not God talking to angels. This is not God talking to a council in heaven. This is one of Elohim saying to the other of Elohim:

"...Let Us make man in Our image, after Our likeness..." (v 26). He didn't say any of the cattle or any of the birds or any other thing was after the likeness of God; they were after their own created kind!

What is true concerning an image is very important. An image is made in the likeness of something that is other than the image. In other words, in this case, being God. God is the reality from which the image was patterned. After His image, after His likeness. Supreme creation as far as the physical things are concerned.

So supreme that He said: "...after Our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the fowl of heaven and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that crawls upon the earth.' And God created man..." (vs 26-27).

Notice that He didn't speak! God created! In the other cases, God made and created by speaking.

"...And God created man in His own image, in the image of God He created him. He created them male and female. And God blessed them..." (vs 27-28). We will see that it was a special creation! That's why it's recorded this way for us.

"...And God said to them, 'Be fruitful and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the fowl of heaven and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.' And God said, 'Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree upon which is the fruit of a tree bearing seed... [in other words, the seed in itself] ...to you shall they shall be for food" (vs 28-29).

There are those who say that, at this time they did not eat any meat. We don't know whether that is exactly so. He didn't say they couldn't eat of any of the animals here at this point, but He was describing what kind of vegetation or fruits that they could eat, and that was with its seed within itself.

Today we have oranges with no seeds. They can't quite get away with it, because it pops up with a seed every once in a while. I'm sure, in the scheme of things, God intended that there be certain things that man could do with plants and animals that are lawful and legal and proper. But, I'm also sure that we're entering a time where there are a lot of things that human beings are doing to plants and animals that are not lawful. I think we are reducing the seed reservoir, in particularly for wheat, because everyone is trying to have great abundance of wheat and rice, and they are getting into the hybridized production of those that I heard of in one, one show that I saw, that they are down to just maybe a dozen genesis seeds of wheat. I don't know what it is for rice, but I do remember the wheat.

Now, what they're doing in the potato, they're going to South America to try and get new genetic strains from the potatoes down there—because we've pretty well destroyed the genetic strains that we have up here. They're subject to all kinds of weakness and sickness and disease. You can't outdo God's way! When God made this, this was tremendous, this was great!

"...to you they shall be for food. And to every animal of the earth and to every fowl of heaven and to all the living creatures that crawl upon the earth, every green plant is given for food.' And it was so. And God saw everything that He had made..." (vs 29-31)—or the soul of them, which is a living soul, as it were, the soul of life. It's true!

Let's understand something absolutely profoundly true concerning all flesh, concerning human beings.

Isaiah 40:6: "A voice says, 'Cry!' And he said, 'What shall I cry? "All flesh is grass, and all the beauty of it is as the flower of the field. The grass withers, the flower fades because the breath of the LORD blows upon it; surely the people are grass. The grass withers, the flower fades; but the Word of our God shall stand forever'" (vs 6-8).

It is actually literally true. We are all grass! Even if you eat a steak, guess where that came from? Grass! Some kind of vegetation. You eat a chicken, where did that come from? Grass, and worms and a few other things.

People even smoke it. Yes! There are various kinds of grass: you have tobacco and then you have marijuana and you have other things. It's amazing what people do. Sometimes all you can do is just shake your head as how great that our creation is, of our bodies and everything. Because what mankind does to itself, and still survives is really just something else.

Genesis 1:31: "And God saw everything that He had made, and indeed, it was exceedingly good..."

The Hebrew there for good means gracious or beautiful. In a sense, the whole creation of God was an act of grace by giving and providing all of these things rightly.

"...it was exceedingly good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day" (v 31).

Genesis 2:1: "Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. And by the beginning of the seventh day God finished His work which He had made...." (vs 1-2).

If you look at the way the Hebrew seventh is spelled. Just look at the letters and compare that with sixth. You see the only difference between the two is a middle letter. Letters are the same, but there's a different letter in the middle.

God ended His work on the sixth day and rested the seventh. He didn't end His work on the seventh day.

What have we always had to say of that verse. That means He ended His work just before the seventh day began, which may or may not be exactly true. But if it is, God ended His work on the sixth day; He's following His own laws! "Six days shall you labor and do all your work."

So, I thought this was really a very meaningful understanding of what was going on here. God finished His work in the sixth day, #6.

"...His work, which He had made. And He rested... [both cases in] ...on the seventh day from all His work, which He had made" (v 2). That helps clarify a lot!

One day I was in busy doing some things and all of a sudden the fax went, and here was this page faxed to me from Carl, noting these things. I had the Interlinear and hadn't had a chance to get in and study it, yet, and here is a very profound, meaningful understanding concerning that—that should be sixth day when God ended His work.

In other words, God Himself also prepared for the Sabbath. When God created the day and night, He started the cycle. Therefore, when it came to the seventh day, He made that day Holy vs creating it Holy. God created time and the days, and then He made the seventh day Holy.

Made is a little less than created. Created is bringing it into its initial existence. Then made is maybe using the same thing only doing something else with the same thing, which He did here in relationship to a day. Remember, Jesus said, 'The Sabbath was made for man.' He did not say created. He said 'made.' Because time had already been created, but then God made this section of time Holy, the seventh day.

Well, we'll get into that a little more in part 2, because there is an awful lot here concerning the Sabbath. Then we will get into the relationship between God and man and what God really intended is revealed, and how He created man and woman.

CHAPTER TWO

The Background in Genesis II

Creation of Man & the Sabbath—Genesis 2

Fred R. Coulter

Today we're going to study two very important things right in the first part of the book of Genesis. We reviewed the creation in part 1. In this one we're going to study more in detail the creation of man and the Sabbath.

I'm going to read some of the things from the Interlinear Hebrew-English Old Testament by George Ricker Berry. He only did Genesis and Exodus, and I'm very sorry that that's all that he did, because he does a very good job in translating.

We're going to cover some very important things and first of all I want to concentrate on creation of Adam and Eve, because I think we're going to find this very important; because the detailed instructions of Adam and Eve and their creation have to do with the finishing of the work on the sixth day. I just want to cover this thing concerning the Sabbath and the sixth and seventh day once again.

Genesis 1:31 (Int): "And evening was and morning was a day sixth."

As you saw in the Hebrew last time, the difference between six and seven is one little letter inserted between two of the other letters.

Genesis 2:1 (Int): "And were finished the heavens and the earth and their all their hosts. And finished God in the day sixth his work which he had made... [it should be the sixth day, not the seventh; there's a little footnote there to verify that] ...and, he rested in the day seventh from all his work which he had made. And blessed God the day seventh and sanctified it; because in it he rested..." (vs 1-2).

We're going to learn an awful lot concerning rest. Sabbath means rest.

Verse 7 (Int): "Then formed Jehovah God, out of dust from the ground, and breathed in his... [the man] ...nostrils breath of life..."

We need to understand that everything else that God created, He commanded it and it was so. Let's look at some Scriptures that will verify that, Psa. 148 shows that God commanded and everything came into existence.

Psalm 148:1: "O praise the LORD! Praise the LORD from the heavens; praise Him in the heights. Praise Him, all His angels; praise Him, all His hosts. Praise Him, sun and moon; praise Him, all you stars of light. Praise Him, you heavens of heavens, and waters that are above the heavens. Let them praise the name of the LORD, for He commanded and they were created" (vs 1-5).

He brought them into existence by the Word of His power. He intended for those to tell us a story. He intended the creation of the heavens to be a witness of His power and His glory, and to be perpetually that which all human beings could see so that they would understand that something greater than themselves had to create that!

Psalm 19:1: "The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament proclaims His handiwork. Day after day they pour forth speech ..." (vs 1-2).

There are noises, sounds that come out of the heavens. Don't they have these big gigantic tracking machines and radio radar devices, huge great disks to try and pick up a message from outer space? Maybe they're trying to communicate to us is the reasoning behind it.

"...and night after night they reveal knowledge. There is no speech nor language where their voice is not heard" (vs 2-3).

In other words, the things that God has created and commanded into being are there in such a dynamic way that every people, every language, every generation has learned from it.

It's also very interesting to know that if you read the account of Josephus and Abraham, you find out that Abraham was a mathematician. Abraham was the one who brought mathematics to Egyptians. So, Abraham was no mean, grunting barbarian stumbling over the stones of the Near East. He understood these things. Of course, this also has to do with the ultimate concerning our salvation.

Verse 4: "Their line has gone out through all the earth and their words to the ends of the world. In them He has set a tabernacle for the sun."

Showing that the greater universe is out beyond what the tabernacle for the sun is. You could say the tabernacle for the sun is our solar system. It's very interesting: when you view how the different solar systems or stars in the universe are. They are shaped like discs, or as some people would say: flying saucers. I'm not going to get into a discussion of flying saucers, but I do believe there are phenomena, which are accountable for that.

Verse 5: "Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoices as a strong man set to run a race." In other words, always cheerful, uplifting and inexhaustible source of energy!

Verse 6: "Its going forth is from one end of heaven, and its circuit is to the other end.... [they knew that things were in a circuit, wasn't flat] ...And there is nothing hidden from its heat." Then it reflects back to the Law of God beginning in v 7.

Now we'll understand even more concerning the creation of God and how it was that He made these things, and why the forming of man, by God Himself, becomes a very important and deep thing for us to understand.

Psalm 33:1: "Rejoice in the LORD, O you righteous ones; praise is becoming for the upright. Praise the LORD with lyre; sing unto Him with a harp of ten strings" (vs 1-2).

That's why on the Sabbath it is good—when we can—to sing. That's why, in the New Testament it talks about singing with 'psalms in your heart.' It's very important, and especially on the Sabbath, because as we will see, the Sabbath becomes a very important day and link to the creation of man.

Verse 3: "Sing unto Him a new song; play skillfully with shouts of joy, for the Word of the LORD is upright; and all His works are done in faithfulness.... [nothing wrong with what God has done and created] ...He loves righteousness and justice; the earth is full of the loving kindness of the LORD. By the Word of the LORD were the heavens made, and all the host of them by the breath of His mouth" (vs 3-6).

God commanded, they came into existence. That's why the Word of God is so powerful and so important. If God says something once, that's quite sufficient for all eternity.

- Is not God eternal? Yes!
- Is not His Word forever? Yes!

Let's see the Word of God, and what that is to do for us once we understand the great and tremendous creation of God. That is to help us understand that:

- God is Lawgiver
- God does things in order
- God does things in organization

God has made everything for a purpose for its own part in God's plan that He has done!

Psalm 19:7: "The Law of the LORD is perfect... [nothing wrong with it] ...restoring the soul..." This is the first step that leads you to conversion!

When you understand that the Law of God is perfect then it becomes a standard to which you see you need to measure up to.

"...the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple. The precepts of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandments of the LORD are pure, enlightening the eyes" (vs 7-8)—giving us understanding and wisdom! God made us in such a way that we are to have:

- understanding
- wisdom
- judgment
- righteousness
- goodness

Verse 9: "The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever; the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether, more to be desired than gold, yea, much fine gold; sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb. Moreover, by them Your servant is warned..." (vs 9-11). Keeps you out of trouble! That's why the commandments are: you shall not.

Why did God give the commandments? There is a positive commandment with parents: 'honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long on the earth.' Then the next one is, 'you shall not murder.' That is the extreme! You cross that line and you have sinned. Within it there are a lot of choices that you can make: 'you shall not commit adultery.' They are all negative commands, because negative commands are the very best when you are given a choice so that you determine your choices!

When it says you shall not commit adultery, the positive is that you will always be faithful to your wife; that is if you're married. They're good! They're right!

"...in keeping them there is great reward. Who can understand his errors?..." (vs 11-12).

No one can, because every way of a man is right in his own eyes, so he needs God's Word to give him the understanding of his errors. I do; you do.

"...Oh, cleanse me from my secret faults" (v 12). This is really a New Testament doctrine! In other words, my thoughts of sin that are in my own mind!

Verse 13: “And keep back Your servant also from presumptuous sins; do not let them rule over me; then I shall be blameless, and I shall be innocent of great transgression. Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Your sight, O LORD, my Rock and my Redeemer” (vs 12–14).

All of these things have to do with the tremendous creation and showing us that now man is different! God can command every one of these things. But he made man differently.

God did something that He did not do with any of the rest of the creation. He did several things here. Of all the rest of the creation, God commanded and it was so. Then God said to them, ‘Be fruitful and multiply and replenish the earth, and it was so.’

With man we have something that is quite different. None of the other creations of God were made like humankind. That’s something very important for us to realize. This is a great death-knell for evolution, because the creation of man is very special in every way: well thought out, well planned and formed by the hand of God!

Genesis 1:26: “And God said, ‘Let Us make man in Our image, after Our likeness...’” God is saying here that He is giving human beings Godlike characteristics.

Now then, all of the others that God created said, ‘after their kind.’ Obviously, we are after the human kind and we pro-generate our own kind, but also being made in the image of God is first fundamental step of being in the God Family! That’s why we’re made in the image of God. None of the other creatures.... Look at apes, chimpanzees and gorillas and you can see some humanlike characteristics in them. But I’m sure God made them that way for us to realize that even though you can have humanlike characteristics—in hands and some facial features—unless you’re made in the image of God you’re still a beast, rather than we evolved from this thing! We have to understand that we’re made in the image and the likeness of God! Then He gave:

“...dominion over the fish of the sea and over the fowl of heaven and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that crawls upon the earth” (v 26). We’re going to look at the continuing account of the details of the creation of man!

Verse 27: “And God created man...” God personally formed!

This, I am sure, is telling us that God wants to have a personal relationship with this part of His creation in a way that separate and different from all the rest of His creation. That’s why He made us in His image and after His likeness. The rest of the Bible then is to tell us that we’re going to be after His kind. He did not command the man to live. He could of, because nothing’s impossible with God.

Genesis 2:7: “...and breathed into his nostrils breath of life...”

I think this shows that God wants us to have a close, personal, intimate relationship with Him. In other words, I believe—we’ll have to draw out of this from what we see—that He breathed into man, what is called the spirit of man and He imparted to his mind at the same time a fully functioning language. Man was an intelligent, talking, responding, decision-making being from the instant of his creation, but obviously, had to be taught.

- in order to be taught he had to be teachable
- in order to be teachable he had to have a language
- in order to have a language, from creation it had to be put into him

I believe that that’s what God did at this point!

“...and man became a living being” (v 7).
God began to show us a purpose in this creation!

I believe that the final acts of His creation on the sixth day were the creation of man, and the final act was the creation of woman. Then the Sabbath began! But let’s see the events that happened on the sixth day:

Verse 8: “And the LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there He put the man whom He had formed.... [He made him with His own hands and formed him] ...And out of the ground the LORD God caused to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food. The Tree of Life also was in the middle of the garden...” (vs 8-9).

Now immediately, God wanted man to know something that’s symbolized by the Tree of Life. I am sure there was a literal tree. I am also sure that this Tree of Life symbolized the way that man would go, which then would be God’s way, which would lead to eternal life—or the other tree:

Verse 9: “...and the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil” Both of them were there in the midst!

I don’t know if they were side-by-side. It could have been that they were side-by-side. We’re not told, but it says ‘in the midst,’ so I would have to take by this account that it was in the middle of the garden.

The rest of it describes where Eden was is really using the names of rivers that were known on the other side of the Flood, and it's very difficult to find out where Eden was, because all of that was destroyed with the Flood. Naming a general area where they thought it was close by after the Flood does not give us the direct geographical area. However, it would have to be somewhere, we would assume, in the Middle East. Some people assume that it would be somewhere in what is called the Holy Land today or what we know as Palestine or Israel; however, your division divides on that. That could be, but that's not the purpose of what we're going through here.

Then God did something, and all the way through it shows responsibility, ability and accountability. Man has ability; he is responsible, and he is accountable.

Verse 15: "And the LORD God took the man and put him into the Garden of Eden to dress it and keep it." To guard it!

Not just to keep it, but to guard it, to protect it, to make sure that it was done the way that God would want it done!

Verse 16: "And the LORD God commanded the man, saying..." Whenever God gives a command, it is a command!

Psa. 119 is one of my favorite Psalms, and this is the one I always try and use to stop the mouths of the gainsayers. I think this is important:

Psalm 119:127: "Therefore, I love Your commandments above gold—yea, above fine gold. Therefore, I esteem all Your precepts concerning all things to be right..." (vs 127-128).

- if God is perfect, which He is
- if God is righteous, which He is
- if God does things which are correct and beautiful and wonderful, which He does
 - ✓ Would not all of His precepts be right concerning everything?
 - ✓ Is any man going to go up and point out to God a sin that He has done?
No, because God does not sin!

When we come over here concerning the commandments given to Adam and Eve, I think this has a great weight of importance! The whole principle of God commanding, the whole principle of God instructing is all found right here in the first part of the book of Genesis, which tells us that man was responsible, accountable and had ability! He put them in the garden to guard it and to keep it!

Genesis 2:16: "And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, 'You may freely eat of every tree in the garden... [anytime you want to eat, go ahead and eat] ...but you shall not eat of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, for in the day that you eat of it in dying you shall surely die'" (vs 16-17). That is the literal meaning!

It doesn't mean in that very instant, in that day, that you would drop dead the minute you took a bite from it. But it means that once you transgress and do this, then you are surely going to die, and that's how it's translated.

They had as the sentence of their transgression, death imparted to their very being. Though they lived many hundreds of years after that, if the account of the time is correct, but they still died! I am sure that implied in that, 'in dying you shall die,' that also implies an aging process from which we all today suffer. So, if you want to blame anyone, you can blame Adam and Eve.

Verse 18: "And the LORD God said, 'It is not good that the man should be alone... [being a separate being] ...I will make a helper compatible for him.'.... [as Adam's counterpart] ...And out of the ground the LORD God had formed every animal of the field and every fowl of the air, and brought them to Adam..." (vs 18-19).

All of the animals that God made, God had them all pass by. So, we have the animals on 'review-march' with Adam who was there.

So, the Lord "...brought them to Adam to see what he would call them..." (v 19). Adam had a full-functioning language; he was able to name all of the animals.

It would be interesting to know what that was. He wasn't polluted with any kind of wrong thoughts. He was not polluted with wrong notions at all. He was standing right there with God and God said, 'All right, Adam, here comes this animal, what do you think you should call it?' So, he gave a name to it. This shows a great responsibility.

Doesn't this indicate that the language that he had, had words in it that would fit? Yes! So, he had a complete language. Adam was made totally complete. There was nothing missing, except his wife. God intended that! He caused all of them to pass by to see what he would name them. And the reason for this was, so that Adam would realize of everything else that God had made, there was nothing in that which was wholly compatible for him.

After that object lesson, v 20: "And Adam gave names to all the livestock, and to the birds of the air, and to every animal of the field, but there was not found a helper compatible for Adam.”

God wanted Adam to understand something very important, too: only God could make for him that which would be right for him.

Verse 21: “And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall over Adam, and he slept. And He took one of his ribs, and afterward closed up the flesh underneath. Then the LORD God made the rib (which He had taken out of the man) into a woman, and He brought her to the man” (vs 21-22).

This also becomes very important for us to understand. As He made the woman, He also had to breathe into her the breath of life so she could become a living soul. He also had to breathe into her what would be what we would call the spirit of man or human beings. He also gave her a fully functioning language; because God did not want to produce an incomplete product and provide for Adam something that was not a counterpart and compatible, and somebody who knew nothing.

- she had intelligence
- she had a mind
- she had ability

The point here that is, I think the most profound thing for us to understand is that God made both man and woman, and breathed into them the breath of life! He desired with this and showing this—that’s why this account is so important—He wanted to have a personal relationship with them and be their God!

Verse 23: “And Adam said, ‘This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh....’ This shows that God must have sat down and said:

Now, Adam, since there is nothing here for you in all of the animals, and I didn’t create anything for you. I want you to see by looking and naming all the animals that there is nothing for you. So, I’m going to put you asleep and I’m going to take one of your ribs and I’m going to make a woman, a help meet, a counterpart for you.

That’s why Adam, when he saw her, said:

“...‘This is now... [in other words after everything else had been understood] ...bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh. She shall be called Woman because she was taken out of Man.’ For this reason shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave to his wife, and they shall become one flesh. And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and they were not ashamed” (vs 23-25).

This was before they had sinned. We also know that there is a great lesson for us in this, concerning marriage. What we are dealing with here now is the ideal complete state of the creation of God.

Let me read to you what I have written in the booklet: The Grace of God in the Bible, so we can, this will help summarize some of these things:

In order for us to fully understand that the entire Creation I was an expression of God’s love and grace, we need to examine the Scriptural account of the creation of Adam and Eve. The very words of God reveal His love and grace: “And God said, ‘Let Us make man in Our image, after Our likeness; and let them have dominion...’” (Gen. 1:26)

Of all the creations of God, only mankind was made in the image and likeness of God. This blessing, which was bounteously bestowed upon mankind, is a profound expression of God’s supreme love and grace. To further demonstrate His love, when the Lord God made Adam and Eve, He personally formed them with His very own hands. This act reveals that the Lord God intended from the very beginning to have a personal, intimate relationship with them.

No other creature was formed by the hands of God. All other created things and beings were brought into existence by the word of His command, through the power of His Holy Spirit.

However, in the account of the creation of Adam and Eve, notice what the Scriptures tell us. We just read those: formed them, breathed into them the breath of life!

The very act of the Lord God Himself breathing the breath of life into man, reveals the intimate relationship that God desired to have with mankind.

That’s why He made the Garden of Eden, He would be there with them. That’s a tremendous thing. And this all relates then, when we come to it, to the very first Sabbath.

When God breathed the breath of life into Adam, God also imparted to him a special spiritual essence, called the “spirit in man” (Job 32:8; 33:4; Zech 12:1; I Cor. 2:9-11), giving him the unique ability to think and reason, hence to acquire knowledge and to make decisions based on that knowledge. At the same time, God also implanted into Adam's mind a fully functioning language in order that he might communicate with his Creator. Furthermore, in order to show the close, personal relationship of love that God intended man and woman to have as husband and wife, 2 The Grace of God He personally formed Eve from one of Adam's ribs....

In the same way that the LORD God had breathed into Adam the breath of life, He also breathed the breath of life into Eve and imparted to her the spirit of man and a fully functioning language.

Of all the living creatures that the LORD God had made, only man and woman were created to give and receive love in a most intimate and personal way. None of the other created beings were made to give and receive sexual love face to face. That blessing was reserved for mankind alone....

This is also to reflect and show the personal relationship that God the Father and Christ have—that is face-to-face, though there is no sexual intimation in that because they are spirit beings. And being face-to-face, this means that God made it so that man and woman would also grow together and, as it were, see things God's way: eye-to-eye. So, it's really a very special thing.

That blessing was reserved for mankind alone. Through the process of procreation, all human beings are blessed with the physical, mental, emotional and spiritual ability to give and receive love. Greater still, only mankind was created to have a personal, spiritual, loving relationship with the Creator God. This special blessing of love and grace was not extended to any other fleshly being which the LORD God had made.

Thousands of years later...

I put in here what David said.

Psa. 139 is also one of the Psalms of David; this is quite a very profound Psalm. I think we've covered this a couple of times in the past, but I think it's good for us to review and go over, because this is really very scientific and up-to-date.

Psalm 139:13: "For You have possessed my reins; You have knit me together in my mother's womb."

This shows that even though—whatever the process may be—in creating mankind through procreation (legitimate or illegitimate) God is the One Who created that being!

Exactly how everything is done, I would have to surmise that each of us are able to impart half-life—father and the mother, the father determining the sex. I also believe that at the instant of conception that a spiritual thing takes place—whether legitimate or illegitimate—to give, because after all, the illegitimate child had no say so, did he, so God is not going to deprive him necessarily just because it was not consecrated in marriage. There are going to be enough problems beyond that. We all understand that, looking out in, in the age today.

I know there will be some people who will say, 'Well, now, legitimate or illegitimate.' You might find that there are some of the people that God has used were illegitimate by birth, that is father and mother were not married.

Still, being 'no respecter of persons,' God gives the individual the spirit of man or the, beginning essence of life. When there is that conception, God caused it to be, whether human beings by determination or by mistake caused it to be. In other words, God has a hand in every human life!

Verse 14: "I will praise You, for I am awesomely and wonderfully made; Your works are marvelous and my soul knows it very well. My substance was not hidden from You when I was made in secret..." (vs 14-15)

Before an embryo becomes an embryo, which then is the stage before what they call a fetus. It is technically called today, unless they've changed the term recently, substance.

"...when I was made in secret..."—and it's still a secret! No one really knows, do they, even with all the scientific endeavors, how human beings are created in the womb. They've done a lot of scientific investigation. They're able to know and understand more than they ever have, but they still don't know!

I think it's very important for us to understand when we bring up the subject of abortion, we need to understand that a human being is fully formed—or nearly so—in six weeks. Every feature of a human being is there. It's just a matter of growth. The only difference between a newly conceived individual and us is a matter of growth, birth and age. Once there is the conception of a human being, it is what it is from that instant forward, have to be. You did not become yourself sometime after you were conceived. You were yourself from the instant you were conceived and it will be until the instant you die.

Verse 15: “My substance was not hidden from You... [in other words, God can know whatever He needed to] ... when I was made in secret and intricately formed in the lowest parts of the earth... [that’s just a symbolic way of talking about in the womb] ... Your eyes did see my substance, yet being unformed; and in Your book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there were none of them” (vs 15-16)—until it was complete!

What they’re trying to do with the genetic coding of human beings today, and they actually use this terminology, ‘the book of your own genetics’ is what they’re trying to write. We find that here, this is very scientific, and this is very up-to-date in the creation of all human beings.

Verse 17: “How precious also are Your thoughts to me, O God! How great is the sum of them!”

So, David really had an insight to the creation of human beings—his own creation—and the reproduction of human beings.

Psa. 8 gives to us an understanding concerning the reason why human beings were made in the first place, and the reason why we were ‘made a little lower’ than God, made in His image, having abilities like He has.

Psalms 8:1: “O LORD our Lord, how excellent is Your name in all the earth! You have set Your glory above the heavens! Out of the mouths of babes and sucklings You have ordained strength because of Your adversaries, to silence the enemy and the avenger.... [here’s part of it right here, this is what David was alluding to]: ...When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, the moon and the stars which You have ordained, what is man that You are mindful of him, and the son of man that You care for him? For You have made him a little lower than God [Elohim] and have crowned him with glory and honor” (vs 1-5).

The word ‘angels’ (KJV) here in the Hebrew is not angels. The word for angels comes from the Hebrew word ‘malak.’ This word here, in the Hebrew, is ‘Elohim,’ translated everywhere else as God, or gods.

“...You made him a little lower than God... [which ties right in with the creation of man and woman after the ‘image and likeness of God’] ...and have crowned him with glory and honor.” Yes!

One of the most gracious acts, one of the greatest gifts that God gave mankind was the whole world. You talk about an act of grace. A tremendous gift, and God says:

Here it is. Now, all I want you to do is take care of this garden. Then from there you’re to overspread the whole earth.

That’s tremendous, brethren! That’s a wonderful, wonderful thing for us to understand.

Now we’ve got greedy men in there that buy and sell and parcel it up and fight and war and shoot, and all this sort of thing and try and take the best. Well, God is going to reserve that for the saints when they’re resurrected.

Verse 6: “You made him to have dominion over the works of Your hands; You have put all things under his feet... [everything] ...all sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field; the birds of heaven, the fish of the sea, and all that pass through the paths of the seas. O LORD, our Lord, how excellent is Your name in all the earth!” (vs 6-9).

David understood that we were “...made a little lower than God...” This also helps reveal the purpose that we are to be eventually in the fullness of the God Family.

1-John 3 is for us to understand, realize and inspire us! God did not make us so that He could whip us, beat us and scourge us. When there is sin, sometimes some of those things are necessary. But as we will see, even with The Grace of God in the Bible, God didn’t bring those things upon people except as a very last resort. Here’s the whole purpose: Once we receive the Spirit of God and know the Word of God:

1-John 3:1: “Behold! What glorious love the Father has given to us, that we should be called the children of God!...” This shows us here in the New Testament that we’re going to be ‘after the kind’—the God kind!

In order for us to be after the God kind we have to be made first in the image and after the likeness of God so that we can learn of God’s way and have that become a very part of our being through the power of God’s Holy Spirit, so that at the resurrection we can be born into the Family of God.

Verse 2: “Beloved, now we are the children of God, and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be; but we know that when He is manifested, we shall be like Him, because we shall see Him exactly as He is.” Remember, human beings started out face-to-face with God!

They started out in their ‘rest.’ We are to enter into the ‘rest’; that after we have been all detoured because of the sin, we have to be redeemed, but God’s goal is still the same, that we are going to be in the Kingdom of God and be as

God is God! That is not a doctrine of Satan. That is a doctrine of God! However, as we are going to see, Satan counterfeited that doctrine and said, ‘I’m a god, you can be like god’; that’s is ‘like me.’ That is Satan’s doctrine. God’s doctrine is that we will be ‘like Him.’ This is to inspire us:

Verse 3: “And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, even as He is pure.” That’s through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ!

- to inspire us
- to uplift us
- to just thrill us to the bottom of the souls of our feet

That’s a tremendous thing! That’s what God wants for all human beings.

Even though being called and having received the Holy Spirit of God, we are Abraham’s seed, where there is:

- neither male nor female
- neither Jew or Greek
- neither free or bond
- neither Scythian or barbarian that still does not take away from the fact that it’s our spiritual relationship with God:

- we are still human beings
- we still have human problems in relationship to the way that God made us and created us
- the order of things as they need to be

1-Corinthians 11:1: “Be imitators of me, exactly as I also am of Christ. Now I praise you, brethren, because you have remembered me in all things, and you are keeping the ordinances in the way that I delivered them to you. But I want you to understand that the Head of every man is Christ...” (vs 1-3).

When God created man and woman, He also set in order a natural order of things that God intended to be. God always intended that the man always be under God, under Christ. Meaning that everyone is under the authority of God, one way or the other. You can’t get away from it even if you sin, because ‘the wages of sin is death’ as Adam and Eve found out.

Verse 3: “But I want you to understand that the Head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is the man...”

In the marriage estate nothing can change that. That’s just the way it is. It’s not a matter of going against God or trying to set down some sort of rule or something that isn’t right.

“...and the Head of Christ is God” (v 3).

There are a few Proverbs that we need to cover here that I think are important concerning, concerning man and woman, and so forth.

Proverbs 8:35: “For whoever finds me finds life... [the wisdom of God] ...and shall obtain favor from the LORD. But he who sins against me wrongs his own soul; all who hate me love death” (vs 35-36).

This is just a general principle applying to all the relationships of men and women. All the relationships in our life and our relationship to God.

Proverbs 9:10 says in relationship to this: “The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; and the knowledge of the Holy is understanding.” God is the One Who:

- gives us understanding
- has given us a mind
- has given us a language

so we can understand the ways of God!

Proverbs 18:22: “Whoever finds a wife finds a good thing and obtains favor from the LORD.”

God intended that to be from the very beginning. Husband and wife—man and wife—and that’s the way God made it. That’s the way that God intended it to be, and so should it be.

Proverbs 19:14: “Houses and riches are the inheritance of fathers, and a prudent wife is from the LORD.” We saw in the creation that woman was to be a counterpart to man!

Trust me, there are a lot of instructions in here for men, and God is going to hold men accountable as well women accountable. It is all there. These things are very important for us to realize.

Proverbs 12:4: “A woman of virtue is a crown to her husband, but she who causes shame is like rotteness in his bones.”

Well, you can turn it around the other way, too. When you have a husband who’s a rotten fool and a philanderer, and goes around and does the things he shouldn’t do, it’s misery, wretchedness, pain, suffering, sickness and disease. It’s harder on a woman when she suffers those things because she was made to be a counterpart for man and for the man to be ‘the head.’ That’s why a husband and wife relations are most important in the way they need to be.

You can go through the entire Bible and you can see that God never slighted women in the least. As a matter of fact, Jesus Christ did a lot to show, and Luke did more, in showing his relationship in teaching women and things like that than any of the others.

1-Cor. 11—There is just a slight thing that we need to cover today, which is very important, which is not a big problem but it is something that just needs to be covered.

So, today we're going to get into just a little touchy area, because I see it wherever I go and I will have to that many women—and they have it on Star Trek, too—have bald-headed, shaved-headed women. Then there's this Susan Power who encourages every woman to become whatever she can be, separate and apart from a man, whatever that may be!

Let's just understand something here very, very clearly. God says it's not good for a man to be alone, therefore, it's not good for a woman to be alone. Whenever the circumstances are that way, and nothing can be done about it, you don't go out and create another problem by running out and marrying the first one that comes along; because now then you end up with a dual problem. Maybe you weren't made for each other. So, you get a double set of problems. I'm not advocating immediate running out and marriage because you happen to be alone. Please understand that.

But we're living in a time where the Babylonian woman rides supreme. I see it everywhere I go. Sometimes it gets very obnoxious. There's also another thing about men that women also know, that when things get very contentious we're cowards! We run and hide, because we don't like animosity and hatred, and shouting, yelling and screaming anymore than anybody else. Even though I'm sure all of us can do a pretty good job of it if we have to.

Here's a principle that we need to understand, because I think this is a slight problem in the Church, which I'm sure that can be corrected very easily.

1-Corinthians 11:4: "Every man who has a covering on his head when he is praying or prophesying puts his Head to shame...."

Who's the head of the man? Christ! I think it interesting that the orthodox Jews will not pray without hats. They won't go into the synagogues without them.

Verse 5: "But every woman who has her head uncovered when she is praying or prophesying puts her head to shame ... [the man] ...for it is the same as being shaved. For if a woman is not covered, let her be shorn. But if it be shameful for a woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered"

(vs 5-6). We're not talking about an outright sin! It is something that is a shame!

Verse 14: "Or does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a shame to him?"

We used to have that problem more than we do today. I can never figure it out. When I watch some of these singers, like on TNT or something, they've always got to have this long hair hanging down all around, and it just makes you wonder about it. It always looks bad! At least it does to me.

It's says, "...it's a shame." That's why, with a Nazarite vow, what happened was this: when the vow was taken, then the man shaved his head and he did not cut it—or do anything to it—until the vow was over and the hair would grow. Now, this was to show the sign of humility and shamefulness. In other words, in this vow a man was to show that he wanted to yield himself to God and so put himself in this shameful condition.

When we understand that John the Baptist was a Nazarite from the beginning, from his birth, and never cut his hair, never drank wine, never took anything that was made of the grapes, nor any strong drink. He was put into that position physically because he was the one who was to announce the coming of Christ. We find that very important.

We're talking about something that is not an absolute sin, but is something that is not necessarily right, and Paul covers it here: let her be covered! We'll find out what the covering will be.

Verse 7: "For, on the one hand, a man ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God; but, on the other hand, the woman is the glory of man." In fact, taken from his rib, made from his very inner most being!

Verse 8: "For the man is not of the woman... [that's why the creation was the other way around] ...but the woman is of the man. And also, the man was not created for the sake of the woman, but the woman for the sake of the man" (vs 8-9).

He's saying that we're going all the way back to the proper order of creation, which everything that God has done is right and everything that He's done from the beginning is true and righteous all together.

Verse 10: "For this reason, it is necessary for the woman to have a sign of being under authority on her head because of the angels"—which means you ought to have a covering and sign that she is under the power of her husband because of the angels.

I think the slight thing that needs to be taken care of—and I’ve seen this a lot wherever I go, especially in traveling—and I have not mentioned it, even though it may have been brought up to me on several occasions, but here’s an appropriate time to handle it and take care of it. I think, just as any of us who want to go ahead and do the things that are pleasing to God, that this should also be taken care of for men and women in the right way.

Verse 11: “Nevertheless... [he goes on to say, this doesn’t take away from the fact that] ...neither is the man separate from the woman, nor the woman separate from the man in the Lord. For as the woman is of the man, so also the man is by the woman...” (vs 11-12). Of course, even Christ was born of the woman! Yes, of Mary!

“...but all things are of God. You judge for yourselves. Is it becoming for a woman to pray to God uncovered?... [then he says the other way around]: ...Or does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a shame to him? But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her; because the long hair has been given to her instead of a veil to cover her head” (vs 13–15).

This is not the first age of mankind when they ran around with shorn-haired women—or shaved-headed women. Apparently Paul had that problem back in Corinth. It’s not unusual that we would also have—we don’t have a great raging problem concerning it—but it’s something that each one should address themselves before God in their own way in their own lives. I’m sure that, that since these things are so, the blessings of God will come when this is taken care of in the way that’s pleasing to God.

Don’t ask me how long is long; don’t ask me how short is short. I think it’s quite evident. It’s one of these things that you make a judgment.

Verse 13: “You judge for yourselves....”
So, I’ll leave the judgment to you!

Verse 16: “But if anyone is contentious over this issue, we have no such custom, neither do the Churches of God”—that is concerning the subject that he just covered here!

I think that since we’re going back and talking about the creation of man and woman and so forth, then we need to cover this in this particular way.

Now then, so everyone will know that this is not picking on women time—hope you all understand that—read all the book of Proverbs, if you want to, men and women take the instruction there because there are a lot of spiritual lessons for us that we can learn. I might mention that that’s New Testament doctrine.

Let’s look at the situation concerning the Sabbath. Let’s go back to Gen. 2 and let’s read that again. Then there are some things we need to learn about it. Let’s understand that the very root word for Sabbath is rest!

Genesis 2:2: “And by the beginning of the seventh day God finished His work which He had made. And He rested on the seventh day from all His work, which He had made. And God blessed the seventh day and sanctified...” (vs 2-3).

When God sanctifies something that means it’s set-aside for a Holy purpose. So, this is a day which is set aside.

“...because... [the first Sabbath is very important] ...on it He rested from all His work which God had created and made” (v 3).

What was the last thing that He made? Eve! The next morning, on the Sabbath Day, what do you suppose happened on the Sabbath Day? If God blessed it and sanctified it, He did it for a purpose!

Let’s look at a couple of things showing what the Sabbath Day is for, and then we’ll come back and establish that the seventh day we have today is the same seventh day that they had then.

Now then, let’s understand just a little bit something concerning the Sabbath. I’m going to read to you just a little bit out of Grace of God in the Bible because I think it summarizes it quite well:

In addition to God’s loving and gracious act in creating them in His image, God further expressed His love and goodness by blessing Adam and Eve... (Gen. 1:28).

To help them maintain this personal state of grace and to ensure that they would always know their Creator and be able to commune with the LORD God Himself, in His personal presence, He specifically created and sanctified the seventh day as a perpetual day for rest and fellowship with Him.

God specifically created and made the seventh day for mankind. Jesus Christ, Who was the Lord God of Creation, made this fact absolutely clear and declared that He and He alone was Lord of the Sabbath Day—not any other day.

...He declared, “The Sabbath was made for man [mankind], and not man for the Sabbath; therefore the Son of man is

LORD EVEN OF THE SABBATH”
(Mark 2:27-28).

Which means that’s the New Testament day of worship. We have a more profound way of understanding it today.

When we understand the observance of the first Sabbath in the light of other Scriptures, we can learn a great deal about the grace of God. The Scriptural record in Genesis 3 reveals that Adam and Eve were personally taught by God. They saw God face to face, they talked with God and walked with God—before they had ever sinned. Most certainly God had personally rested and kept the very first Sabbath with Adam and Eve.

Undoubtedly, He fellowshiped with them and instructed them! He would have to tell them about the Tree of Life and what it meant. He would have to tell them why He created them. Would not God want them to know that first? Yes, He would!

The Scriptural record in Genesis 3 reveals that Adam and Eve were personally taught by God. They saw God face to face, they talked with God and walked with God—before they had ever sinned. Most certainly God had personally rested and kept the very first Sabbath with Adam and Eve. They kept this first Sabbath with God in a perfect state of grace in His presence. There can be no doubt that God had instructed them on that first Sabbath. What a marvelous day that very first Sabbath must have been! There could be no greater grace than being in the presence of and being taught by the LORD God Himself—their very Creator!

Let’s go to the book of Isaiah and let’s put a couple of Scriptures together to show the whole meaning and the intent of the Sabbath. This is a key thing for us on how to keep the Sabbath and why we keep it the way we do.

Isa. 58—Do you think that God, being the ‘same yesterday, today and forever,’ would have instructed Adam and Eve any differently than this? Some people say because it’s not told that Adam and Eve fellowshiped with Him and kept that first Sabbath, therefore, there’s no indication that they kept it. I say that is reasoning from your carnal mind to destroy the Sabbath! Here is what God says concerning the Sabbath thousands of years later—so, would this not also the instruction that He would give back then?

Isaiah 58:13: “If you turn your foot away from the Sabbath, from doing your own desires on My Holy Day...”

When was it Holy? When God sanctified it and blessed it! That’s when it was Holy! It’s God’s Holy Day from the beginning. Does God run down here and destroy every person who’s breaking the Sabbath? No, He does not! He let’s them go their own way, and they are missing a tremendous blessing of God.

Let’s notice we’re not to do ‘our own pleasure.’ That doesn’t mean that we don’t do things that are not pleasurable—it’s a pleasure to eat; it’s a pleasure to fellowship. But, why should this day be the way it is? Let’s think about the first Sabbath. What do you suppose that God told them?

I’m your Creator. I’m your Maker. This is a special day of a memorial of My Creation. This is a day in which we are going to come together every week and I’m going to teach you what you need to know. We’re going to have a personal relationship. I’m your Creator and you have a great and fantastic opportunity as the very first human beings.

Don’t you think that God told them what was, what was going to be if they would obey Him? Yes!

“...from doing your own desires on My Holy Day, and call the Sabbath a delight...” (v 13)—and what a delight that must have been, the first one.

No sin, no hostility, no animosity, no television, no radio, no driving a long way to come to Sabbath services, no worrying about anything. God provided it all; I just wonder if God did not provide the food for the Sabbath for that very first Sabbath Day. They had it all right there, didn’t they? Yes, they did! Now, it would not be a sin on the Sabbath while you’re sitting there with God and maybe God reached up and plucked some food for them to eat; I don’t know, very possible.

“...the Holy of the LORD... [belongs to Him] ...honorable; and shall honor Him, not doing your own ways, nor pursuing your own desires, nor speaking your own words...” (v 13). What does this mean? This means we’re to:

- know the words of God
- speak the words of God
- study the words of God

That’s why today, in Sabbath services, it’s important that we study the words of God, because these are not our words! God inspired them; this is instruction for us!

It's the same way with our fellowship, too. It should be centered on those things in our lives that have to do with serving and loving God. Too many times, in the recent past, and I'm sure this is something that all human beings cycle through, that the Sabbath became more their own day, and their own day of doing what they were going to do for their own social things.

When you do this, notice it is IF, which means that if you don't do v 13—the IF—THEN you'll never understand v 14, because 'great understanding have they who do His commandments.'

Verse 14: "Then you shall delight yourself in the LORD...

Now, you go back and think of all the Sabbaths that you have kept that turned out to be kind of a dud. What happened? You didn't do v 13, did you? No, you did your own thing!

I found this, I'll confess, it's no work to sit in front of a TV. So therefore, you can sit in front of a TV and kind of justify yourself, 'Well, this is really not working.' But is the TV from God? Did God send it into the tube for you to watch? No!

I found that when I have done that, when I shouldn't have done it, my Sabbath turned out to be a dud! You can draw the parallel, not just TV, but whatever it may be. I've also found this: Someone talked me into having a wedding on the Sabbath; it was just to be a simple affair. It became very complicated and the Sabbath was a dud. Why? Because we were not doing what God wanted us to do!

When we do that; when we do all of v 13: "If you turn your foot away from the Sabbath, from doing your own desires on My Holy Day, and call the Sabbath a delight, the Holy of the LORD, honorable; and shall honor Him, not doing your own ways, nor pursuing your own desires, nor speaking your own words, then..." (vs 13-14).

They had all of that with the first Sabbath. Absolutely did! Plus being in the very presence of God. Today we have the blessing of fellowshiping with God spiritually. Then they had it face-to-face.

Verse 14: "Then you shall delight yourself in the LORD; and I will cause you to ride upon the high places of the earth..." (v 14). This is going clear into the spiritual salvation that God is going to give us!

So, understanding God and His way, and the purpose of being created are intrinsically tied to the Sabbath. Intrinsically tied! The Sabbath is to be every week when we draw close to God:

- to know of His way

- to study His Word
- to pray to God
- to fellowship with Him
- to fellowship with each other

Since this is true, going all the way back, it had to be true of that very first Sabbath.

Let's understand a principle that we find in Exo. 5, which follows all the way through. Whenever you truly begin to enter into a relationship with God—or God begins dealing with you—then the Sabbath question always comes up. When Moses first went into Pharaoh:

Exodus 5:1: "And afterward Moses and Aaron went in and told Pharaoh, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel, "Let My people go that they may hold a Feast to Me in the wilderness.'" And Pharaoh said, 'Who is the LORD, that I should obey His voice to let Israel go? I do not know the LORD, neither will I let Israel go'" (vs 1-2). *After all, Pharaoh was god on earth!

Verse 3: And they said, 'The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Let us go, we pray you, three days' journey into the desert and sacrifice to the LORD our God, lest He fall upon us with plague or with the sword.' And the king of Egypt said to them, 'Moses and Aaron, why do you keep the people from their work? Get to your burdens!' And Pharaoh said, 'Behold, the people of the land now are many, and you make them rest from their burdens'" (vs 3-5).

Has to do with the Sabbath, the very first question was resting. You truly, truly cannot understand God, nor fellowship with Him when you're busying doing your own works and your own business!

A lot of people claim, 'Well, there was not Sabbath-keeping from Genesis all the way here.' We're not going to take the time, we've proven that other places. But you know that Abraham, if he did the things that pleased God, he kept the Sabbath—so did Isaac, so did Jacob. Everyone who comes in contact with God keeps the Sabbath. If they don't, then they're not in contact with the right God or they have the wrong doctrine, one of the two.

We have the renewing of the Sabbath for the children of Israel. Remember they started counting:

- day one—getting the manna
- days two, three, four, five
- day six—double manna

Exodus 16:23: "And he said to them, 'This is that which the LORD has said, "Tomorrow is the rest of the Holy Sabbath to the LORD. Bake what you will bake today, and boil what you will boil. And that which remains over, lay up for yourselves to be kept until the next morning.” And they laid it up until the next morning as Moses said. And it did not stink; neither was there any worm in it” (vs 23-24).

They were all in close quarters. God was right there in the pillar of the cloud by day and the fire by night; therefore, they were in the very presence of God!

Verse 23: “And he said to them, ‘This is that which the LORD has said, ‘Tomorrow is the rest of the Holy Sabbath to the LORD...’”

It’s to the Lord all the way through. One of the greatest arguments thrown against the Sabbath is that it was given to the Jews. Not so! Never says so in the Bible. It is the Sabbath of the Lord!

“...Bake what you will bake today...” (v 23).

Verse 26: “Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, in it there shall be none.”

- Did God cease from the work of creating the manna? Yes!
- God also rested on the Sabbath and ceased from His work—didn’t He? Yes!
- What kind of work is God interested in doing on the Sabbath? Spiritual work!

That’s what He does!

Now let’s look at another one to know that they had exactly the right day. The Sabbath was intended to be more than just a memorial of Creation. But the Creation, and the fact of it, tells us what God is meaning in relationship to the day.

Exodus 31:13: “Speak also to the children of Israel, saying, ‘Truly you shall keep My Sabbaths... [plural; it’s not an option whether we decide to or not] ...for it is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations to know that I am the LORD Who sanctifies you.’”

You cannot know the Lord unless you keep His Sabbath Day! That’s very simple! With it we are sanctified.

Verse 14: “You shall keep the Sabbath therefore, for it is Holy to you. Everyone that defiles it shall surely be put to death, for whoever does any work on it, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. Six days may work be done, but on the seventh day is the Sabbath of rest...” (vs 14-15). Here ‘sabbath’ and ‘rest’ are almost identical words!

“...Holy to the LORD. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath Day, he shall surely be put to death. Therefore, the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations as a perpetual covenant” (vs 15-16)—which, as we have covered before, is always ongoing continuously!

Verse 17: “It is a sign between Me and the children of Israel forever; for in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day He rested, and was refreshed.”

This tells us that they had the same exact seventh Sabbath Day as the day that God rested on!

- If God tells us to keep the seventh day Sabbath, would He change the day? No!
- Would He hide the knowledge of it if it’s required? No!
- Who is the one who have put up arguments that it was changed? Men!

Nowhere in the Bible has the day ever, ever, ever been changed. The knowledge of why we were created is intrinsically linked together. That’s why it begins with the Sabbath Day. There may be another thing or two that we can learn from this.

Is this where people take it? Well, they take it because the Jews claim that they are all of Israel and actually, when you understand how the Jews feel about the Sabbath, they don’t feel anybody but Jews only should keep the Sabbath. That’s why they’re very anxious to get anybody who is not a Jew off from keeping the Sabbath. They want them keeping Sunday.

CHAPTER THREE

The Background in Genesis III Adam & Eve Sin and the Punishment—Genesis 3, 4 & 6 Fred R. Coulter

Today we're going to finish getting through Gen. 3. I think we learned an awful lot concerning the Sabbath; and by putting it together from the things that we've understood in other parts of the Scriptures, so that we would understand why God made the Sabbath. The most important thing concerning the Sabbath being the seventh day is that God made it for us so that we could be in contact with Him! Of course, God wants that. God made His creation of, of man and woman so that we would be in contact with Him; so He especially created that day for the purpose of fellowshiping, of teaching, knowledge and understanding!

Before we get to Gen. 3, let's understand something: The Bible does not tell us how long it was from the Creation—from God's initial instruction to them in the Garden of Eden—to the time the serpent was let loose.

Let's use a modern day example, from our own experiences within the Churches of God: How many years was it that people were in the Church of God, studied the Scriptures, got the instructions from God, knew their Bibles, and then kind of let things slack and then in came the serpent? Almost identical!

Coming in with another teaching by saying that God is not two, but one or three. What happened? People fell for it 'hook, line and sinker'; however, not everyone. I would have to conclude that since God wants—before we make a choice—it to be knowledgeable for us that we know what we're doing. That He certainly gave sufficient time—whatever that was—for Adam and Eve to be instructed by God, to live in the Garden of Eden, to know what God wanted, to keep His commandments and so forth, before the serpent was let loose.

I do not believe that it was done the day after they were created or a week or ten days after they were created. I don't know how long, but I'm sure that it was longer than a week or ten days.

- they would know
- they would have knowledgeable choices
- they would understand what they were doing

The reason I say that is because we're going to see the consequences of their sin in relationship to all human beings, and it's past on to all of us. With the stakes so high, and the situation so profound, I think God let them know in a pretty definitive way what His overall plan was, what they should be doing and then He let the serpent come into the garden.

Genesis 3:1: "Now, the serpent was more cunning than any creature of the field, which the LORD God had made. And he said to the woman, 'Is it true that God has said, "You shall not eat of any tree of the garden"?"'

A direct challenge to what God had said, 'You could eat of every tree of the garden, except the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil.' So, the woman always had to correct him! Once you have some knowledge that is true, what is something that you do? You try and correct the false statement! In that, you have to be careful because there may be a trap set. In this case, there was a big trap set.

Just refuting something is not necessarily enough. Not only do you have to refute what is said in the way of a false statement, but you also have to obey God and keep those things which are right and correct in addition to it. That's why it says that 'knowledge puffs up, but love edifies,' because you can get all carried away with knowledge.

Verse 2: "And the woman said to the serpent, 'We may freely eat the fruit of the trees of the garden, but of the fruit of the tree which is in the middle of the garden, God has indeed said, "You shall not eat of it, neither shall you touch it, lest you die"'" (vs 2-3).

This shows subsequent instruction, because when you read Gen. 2 God says you shall not eat of it. It's 'not eat' and 'not touch.' Here's evidence of some subsequent instruction! I don't think, as some have concluded, that Eve added her 'bit' to it. I think that God pretty well told them, because once you touch it then you're going to start with lust. I'm sure that's why He said you should not touch it, and I think her statement was true.

"... 'You shall not eat of it, neither shall you touch it, lest you die.'.... [that means in dying you shall die] ...And the serpent said to the woman, 'In dying, you shall not surely die! For God knows that in the day you eat of it, then your eyes shall be opened, and you shall be like God...' (vs 3-5).

I think the King James says 'as God'—but it is you will be 'like' God. You will be similar to God in a certain way. You could take that statement just like we do today when you talk to the Russians about democracy. Their version of democracy is far different than ours. So, when we're communicating on a word, the understanding of that word is not the same in both minds. I am sure that they had—at least Eve did—the understanding that she would be exactly as God is.

I also believe that God told them that their eventual destiny was to be in the God Family. And I'm sure that He indicated to them that it would take a certain amount of time to do so. Here comes the serpent along and says, 'Well now, you want to be like God now. Don't wait. Now!' That's the same philosophy that Satan has with every life. Get to it early. Get to it quick and destroy it now! That's what he did with Adam and Eve here.

Here's how they would be 'like God': obviously, they wouldn't be eternal, because they didn't eat of the Tree of Life. Obviously, they weren't going to improve and be righteous, because every indication is that up to this point, Adam and Eve had a neutral disposition. In order to make the choice they had to have a neutral disposition. They were neither inherently righteous nor were they inherently evil. They had to make the choice! Here's the choice, here's what they would be like.

"...and you shall be like God, deciding good and evil" (v 5) It says in the King James: "...knowing good and evil."

Knowers (Interlinear) here actually means deciders. You're going decide what is right and what is wrong. In other words, the message is:

- Who is God to tell you what is right?
- Who is God to tell you what is wrong?
- Why don't you decide for yourself?
- Does that not sound like a lot of things we've heard today? Yes!
- Is that not what is taught in the schools today? Yes, exactly!

You will be deciders of what is good and what is evil. Well, that makes you very important; that just lifts you up. You can decide. You can decide for yourself, apart from God, and this is going to make you like God.

It's also interesting that knowers or knowing is one of the most interesting facets of all the pagan religions: it's Gnosticism!

It comes from the Greek word 'gnosis' and that's why the English word know for knowledge is 'kn'—it's a carry-over from the Greek with the two consonants there.

We also find that Masonry is a Gnostic religion. What is the symbol of the Masons? They have 33 degrees or steps in which they go with varying degrees of revelation of lies until they get to the top where they are told Lucifer is 'God.' That's why they have to go through all of these degrees, step-by-step. But the symbol of Masonry is a 'G' with a square in a triangle and over the triangle is the all-seeing eye!

Get out a dollar bill, and just to let you know that this same system is still going today, you look at the backside of the dollar bill. It says, 'in God we trust.' However, to the left of it is a total rejection of God, which is the pyramid with the all-seeing eye, the New World Order is what it means. They've been trying to get the New World Order for a long time. The New World Order began back here with Adam and Eve—when you really understand it—with the deception that Satan brought forth.

There are still Gnostics, and that's the same thing that Satan held out to Adam and Eve, 'You will be knowers and deciders of what is right and what is wrong.'

Verse 6: "And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food..." You can't tell by looking, that's a very important thing to understand.

That also applies to clean and unclean meats. You can't tell by looking—some of them you can. I mean, if you look at some of these oysters and clams, you ought to have enough sense to realize that that's not something to eat. You can't tell.

One day I was in The Kings Table. We're going on down through the line, getting the things they we need and we come to this meat that looked like roast turkey. I said, 'Oh, roast turkey!' And said, 'No, roast pork!' Just looking at it you could not tell that is not good for you. God has to tell us what is right and wrong, especially in those areas that we cannot decide!

Eve's looking at it didn't prove a thing! Just like buying a used car. You can get one that looks good, that sounds good, because it has 90 weight oil in the crankcase; that runs quiet, because it has a little sawdust in the differential. But you drive it home and it's a pile of junk. So, not just how it looks!

“...and that it was pleasing to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise...” (v 6).

This is the proposition that Satan said that you will be wise! When you have intellect, when you have a mind that is designed to learn, you want to learn in knowledge; you want to increase in knowledge. That’s a whole life-long, driving force that God has put in us, which we need. Here he was appealing to all of those things.

“...she took of its fruit and ate. She also gave to her husband with her, and he ate. And the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked...” (vs 6-7).

They saw something they didn’t see before. I’m sure they saw themselves being naked because they were brought together as husband and wife and they were naked and not ashamed.

You have something that takes place here that brings about shame. That brings about a guilty conscience. What is not said here—and we don’t want to speculate too much in what was done here—some people say that Eve had relations with the serpent and from that comes the seed of Cain. Not so! Not so at all! But some people like to perpetuate their own hostilities, so they try and do it that way.

Some people also try and indicate that there was perhaps a lot of sexual perversion that went on between Adam and Eve. That is possible! I do not know what it was that the serpent told them, or showed them, but whatever it was, it had to do with their nakedness. They knew that they were naked. That’s the first thing that they knew. They did have some understanding!

Some say it’s the fig tree from which they ate. I don’t know. It could be, it could not be. There’s one reference to a fig tree back here in the book of Mark. There is a fig tree that Jesus refers to, which definitely has to do with non-productive Satan religion.

Why did Jesus curse the fig tree? Well, let’s look at the account here and maybe we can come to understand. First of all, we know that Jesus condemned the Pharisees and Sadducees for following their father Satan the devil. So, when He’s referring to the fig tree, we are going to see that He is referring to them and this may stretch all the way back to the false knowledge in the Garden of Eden that never produced any spiritual fruit unto salvation.

Mark 11:12: “And in the morning, after they left Bethany, He became hungry. Then, seeing a fig tree afar off that had leaves, He went to it to see if He might possibly find something on it. But after coming to it, He found nothing except leaves because it was not yet the season for figs” (vs 12-13).

Why did He go to the fig tree and try and find something on it if there were only leaves and it wasn’t time for figs? We’re talking about here, in parable, the religion of Judaism, which goes right back into satanism, which goes right back to the Garden of Eden. This tree, this fig tree, as symbolizing Judaism didn’t bring forth any fruit. It didn’t produce anything of any lasting spiritual value, because it was all steeped in satanism and paganism.

We have the same thing today with Catholicism and with Buddhism. But since Judaism was so close and they were claiming they knew God, but they were rejecting God with all their traditions. This is why I am sure that it was a fig tree. Notice, it wasn’t a peach tree or an apricot tree or an apple tree; it was a fig tree.

Verse 14: “And Jesus responded by saying to it, ‘Let no one eat fruit from you any more forever!’ And His disciples heard it. Then they came into Jerusalem; and after entering the temple... [this is how we tie it in with Judaism] ...Jesus began to cast out those who were buying and selling in the temple; and He overthrew the tables of the money exchangers and the seats of those who were selling doves. Moreover, He did not allow anyone to carry a vessel through the temple. And He taught, saying to them, ‘Is it not written, “My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations”? But you have made it a den of robbers”’ (vs 14-17)—a den of iniquity!

Wherever Satan is, it is a den of thieves. Whether it is in a church, a corporation, a government or a family. It makes no difference, wherever Satan is, it’s a den of thieves!

Verse 18: “Now the chief priests and the scribes heard this, and they sought how they might destroy Him; for they feared Him, because all the multitudes marveled at His teaching. And when evening came, He went out of the city. And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.... [right from the very ground up] ...Then Peter remembered and said to Him, ‘Look, Master! The fig tree that You cursed has dried up.’....” (vs 18-21). This is showing a complete repudiation of Judaism!

- not the Truth of God
- not the laws of God
- not the commandments of God

but of Judaism, and that they should have faith!

Verse 22: “And Jesus answered and said to them, ‘Have faith from God.’”

Then He gave a very important lesson concerning prayer, concerning what we need to ask, how we need to ask and in what attitude:

Verse 23: “For truly I say to you, whoever shall say to this mountain, ‘Be taken away and be cast into the sea,’ and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that what he said will take place, he shall have whatever he shall say.”

We have to temper that and tie that in with other things like: ‘keep My commandments and receive the Holy Spirit,’ and all of those things have to be tied in with that.

Verse 24: “For this reason I say to you, all the things that you ask when you are praying, believe that you will receive them, and they shall be given to you. But when you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive, so that your Father Who is in heaven may forgive you your offenses. For if you do not forgive, neither will your Father Who is in heaven forgive you your offenses” (vs 24-26).

The whole lesson here is another one of these things that’ll be a complete divorcement away from Judaism and into the way that Jesus Christ was teaching. One of the first things you have to have is faith and then you live by prayer. So, that’s why we have that.

It’s interesting that the fig tree was cursed and it may go right back to the Garden of Eden showing that what they were doing and what they were following was harkening all the way back to some of the original teachings of Satan the devil. It’s interesting that God gives us all the basic knowledge we need to know:

1. how we got here
2. who our first parents were
3. Who God is and the commandments of God
4. how we got evil, and why it is that human beings are evil

Could it be:

- that Adam and Eve had previous encounters with Satan?
- or the serpent that was there ‘softened them up’ for this point here?

It’s possible! It doesn’t tell us, so we can’t say dogmatically. But the very fact that she didn’t say:

- Who are you?
- What are you doing here?
- How did you get here?

Sort of gives the credence to the question: Could it be that that they knew of the serpent before the particular time of the eating of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil? It’s possible! We can’t rule it out, but we can’t dogmatically say ‘yea.’ But at least it gives us a little more basis of understanding.

Genesis 3:8: “And they heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day...”

This is in the evening or the cool of the day, and it shows that they were right there with God, they had complete access to God all the time.

“...Then Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden.... [there they were right there] ...And the LORD God called to Adam and said to him, ‘Where are you?’” (vs 8-9)

I don’t know if there was a designated place that they would meet every day at this particular time, it’s very possible. So, God came down and said: ‘Where are you?’

Verse 10: “And he said, ‘I heard You walking in the garden, and I was afraid because I am naked, and so I hid myself.’ And He said, ‘Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten of the tree, which I commanded you that you should not eat?’ And the man said...” (vs 10-12)

Here’s the classical case that always happens. No one likes to take blame for whatever they do. It’s interesting, modern psychology is based on that. They are now understanding that people have to be responsible for what they do. But when psychology first started this out and people got the way they were, it was blame father, blame mother, blame school, blame everybody else: ‘you poor little thing, you can’t help it.’ So, that’s what Adam did; he said, ‘Now look...’

Verse 12: “And the man said: ‘The woman whom You gave to be with me... [It’s God’s fault. It’s not ‘my fault’ it’s God’s fault.] ...she gave me of the tree, and I ate” —that let’s me off the hook! If it wouldn’t have been for the woman, Lord, I wouldn’t have eaten, but there it was!

Verse 13: “And the LORD God said to the woman, ‘What is this you have done?’ And the woman said, ‘The serpent deceived me, and I ate.’”

So, everyone is trying to blame everyone else.

Sidebar regarding comment: The reason that I'm using Jehovah is because that's the translation in the Interlinear and that is the really the correct pronunciation of the Hebrew word YHVH, which is translated, Lord. To read it in the King James would be: 'The Lord God says...'

The King James translates YHVH as Lord, and when you first have God dealing directly with Adam and Eve it is the One Who created them: the Lord God, in this particular case or the One of Elohim Who revealed Himself as, as Jehovah, or as some people like to say Yahweh.

That is not in any way indicating that we're switching over and believing in sacred names at all, we're not; that is not required at all whatsoever. But, it is still, nevertheless, one of, one of the names of God. So, in reading this, please understand that we're not trying to do that.

Verse 14: "And the LORD God said to the serpent, 'Because you have done this you are cursed above all livestock, and above every animal of the field. You shall go upon your belly, and you shall eat dust all the days of your life.'"

When you compare our discussion that we were having before services about how human beings are made to stand upright, fully erect, and walk on two feet, made in the image of God, now here, the adversary of God now is made so he can never stand upright.

Did he stand upright at one time? It's possible, I don't know! All we know is what we see today in the particular case. But I think that is very profound that the one that symbolizes Satan the devil being the serpent, cannot stand upright. It has to go on his belly. I think one of the most gruesome ways of eating is the way that a snake eats. I'm sure you've seen that on some of these Discovery programs showing how serpents eat. The thing whole and is really quite a struggle. What we're finding here is that everything that God said is true.

Verse 15: "And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her Seed; He will bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel."

That did happen when Jesus was crucified. When they crucified Him and, and put the nails through His feet. It wasn't through the front part of His feet because He would have bones broken. It was prophesied 'no bone would be broken.' So, it went through the Achilles tendon and the heel, so it would go that way, and it did bruise His heel.

Verse 16: "To the woman He said, 'I will greatly increase your sorrow and your conception... [I will greatly multiply your trouble, your sorrow] ...in sorrow shall you bring forth children. Your desire shall be toward your husband, and he shall rule over you.'"

God gave equal punishment to all. God is not picking on women here, please understand that. Man had his sorrow increased, and his work increased just as well. Let's see what happened here:

Verse 17: "And to Adam He said, 'Because you have hearkened to the voice of your wife and have eaten of the tree—of which I commanded you, saying, "You shall not eat of it!"—the ground is cursed for your sake... [everything that he would set his hand to do he had obstacles to overcome and problems to overcome] ...In sorrow shall you eat of it all the days of your life. It shall also bring forth thorns and thistles to you, and thus you shall eat the herbs of the field; in the sweat of your face... (vs 17-19)—nostrils, which is a literal translation!

I think showing that he's going to have to not, not just the sweat of your brow, but it's going to be a breathing, difficult, very exasperating kind of existence.

"...you shall eat bread until you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken; for dust you are, and to dust you shall return" (v 19).

That was the punishment that was given out to all of them. Let's, first of all, understand that there is a parallel for us to learn which is drawn on continually. Let's see the result of what happened as is in relationship to Eve and then into Adam.

There is a lesson for us here continually concerning the Word of God, continually concerning how Satan is going to be out there to try and turn God's way upside down and to interfere in our lives. I think living in the end-time we're going to experience a lot of that. We're going to see a lot of it. We're going to see a lot of obstacles brought up against us.

2-Corinthians 11:2: "For I am jealous over you with the jealousy of God because I have espoused you to one husband, so that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness... [clever arguments, sounding good, having logic] ...so your minds might be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ" (vs 2-3).

That's exactly what's been happening today—coming along with philosophical and theological arguments that just boggle the mind. They're just so mind-twisting that it's difficult to even read it.

I know, I've been studying quite a bit of it now so I can really understand how much of the New Testament has been written to combat all of this satanic philosophy, and it's amazing how much is there to combat everything that Satan has done.

Verse 4: "For indeed, if someone comes preaching another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or you receive a different spirit, which you did not receive, or a different gospel, which you did not accept, you put up with it as something good."

It says, 'you're putting up with it, you're allowing this to happen.' That's why he said that you need to be careful that you don't be deceived.

1-Tim. 2—here's a section of Scripture that has been used against women in ways that are not exactly correct. But as we've pointed out before, we're still male and female and God expects us to be, to live our lives in a way that He, He wants them to be lived.

1-Timothy 2:9: "In like manner also, let the women adorn themselves with clothing that shows modesty and discretion, not with elaborate braidings of the hair, or with gold, or pearls, or expensive apparel"—overly done!

I don't know of any women that I've seen in church at all who was doing that, so don't take this as a personal thing.

Verse 10: "But with that which is fitting for women who profess to have reverence for God—with good works. Let a woman learn in quietness and be submissive in every respect" (10-11).

It doesn't mean you are to be still and to not ask questions or anything like that.

Verse 12: "For I do not permit a woman to teach, nor to exercise authority over man, but to be in quietness"—teaching in church!

That doesn't mean that a woman cannot teach. We have the example of Aquila and Priscilla; they taught Apollos, but they were not teaching him in the church.

Verse 13: "For Adam was formed first, then Eve. And Adam was not deceived; but the woman came to be in transgression by being deceived" (vs 13-14).

We're going to see that this doesn't mean that Adam didn't sin. A lot of people read this and think, well, it's just the woman, and then they get the hard-heel and put down women all the time. No, we're going to see, Adam not being deceived, knew what he was doing so therefore his sin was worse than Eve's.

Verse 15: "But she shall be saved through the childbearing, if they continue in faith and love and sanctification with self-control."

Now let's look at the effect concerning Adam. What happened here to all mankind. Rom. 5, in this particular case, is a somewhat difficult section to understand, but let's see if we can untangle it here at this particular point. Adam did sin! We're going to see it here, very clearly. His sin had a great affect on all humankind.

Romans 5:12: "Therefore, as by one man sin entered into the world..."—didn't say 'woman.'

Does that mean that Adam probably could have stopped the whole thing even though Eve may have eaten of it? If he would have kept God's way and not eaten of it? I don't know, it's possible! I do not know, that's an open question. That's one of those we'll have to wait for the resurrection to get the answer on, because it doesn't tell us directly.

We're going to deal in a little scenario now, so we'll have a little speculation: What if Adam would have eaten first, instead of Eve? I don't know, doesn't tell us! He ate second; he knew better, he was not deceived. When you're deceived, you don't know better; you're deceived. He wasn't. He knew what he was doing. I'm sure he knew the consequences that was going to happen to the whole human race.

Rom. 5 shows us something very important that what happened. This helps give us an understanding as to what happened to human nature and why the world is so evil! Though everyone is trying to do good in their own way, except those who are totally dedicated to evil.

Verse 12: "Therefore, as by one man sin entered into the world... [and the 'world' here being the human realm] ...and by means of sin came death; and in this way, death passed into all mankind..."

We're as good as dead from the instant of conception, just a matter of time. Some live longer, some shorter.

"...and it is for this reason that all have sinned" (v 12).

With the passing of death inherent within their genes, sin also was passed to all human beings, that we have a sinful nature, no longer neutral, as they were originally created. Now there was a sinful nature, and this is the reason why all men have sinned.

Verse 13: “For before the Law, sin was in the world. However, sin is not imputed when law does not exist.”

What he’s saying is—in kind of double twist on the words here is—before the Covenant given to Israel, there was Law in the world, that’s why there was sin; because ‘sin is the transgression of the Law’!

Verse 14: “Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam until Moses, even upon those who had not sinned in the likeness of the transgression of Adam... [a profound sin; a knowledgeable sin] ...who was a type of the One Who was to come.”

Now we’re going to look at a couple of things in 1-Cor. 15 concerning Adam and concerning Christ. We know that Paul tells us that all of us have ‘the law of sin and death’ within us. That’s reflected in the carnal nature that when you want to do good you can’t.

No one has been able to beat this, yet. If you want to know the Truth of God’s Word, all have died. That verifies the Truth of God’s Word! No one has been able to overcome it. Everyone has tried to prolong life as long as they can. But the aging process is a very part of our being.

1-Corinthians 15:22: “For as in Adam all die... [they all die because of the sin of Adam; death was passed on, sinful nature was passed on] ...so also in Christ shall all be made alive.”

Let’s get the comparison in v 45: “Accordingly, it is written, ‘The first man, Adam, became a living soul; the last Adam became an ever-living Spirit.’”

That’s what led to the question: What would the world have been like if Adam and Eve had not sinned?

{Note message: What Would the World Be Like if Adam & Eve Had not Sinned}

There is a comparison here! So we will have to say that if Adam and Eve had not sinned, then Adam would have been the first man changed from flesh to spirit and we would all go through Adam. But now, because they sinned, we all go through Christ.

It’s not like the Mormons, they come along and say that Adam and Eve had to sin so that all of these spirits up in heaven could be sent down and be put into human bodies, because they need a human body. Well, that is just demonism, just another version of Hinduism in the guise of a ‘Christian-sounding religion.’

So, because of that sin, we have all sinned and we come up with this human nature!

Let’s see another verification of this, and this is something that the world cannot figure out. Why is it that all human beings tend to do evil in varying degrees, one way or the other? Mark 7:21 shows that it’s from within, inside! Therefore, we have no one to blame but ourselves.

Mark 7:21: “For from within, out of the hearts of men, go forth evil thoughts...” This lists out the sins as they come along in the experience of a lifetime:

“...adulteries, fornications, murders, thefts, covetousness, wickednesses, guile, licentiousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness; all these evils go forth from within, and these defile a man” (vs 21-23).

That kind of nature was put into us, passed on to us by inheritance from Adam and Eve down to this day. Only God can change it! Only Christ can remove it! It’s the only way. Can’t be done any other way.

With a life like that, here let’s go look at one of the most righteous kings that we have. Let’s look and see what, what David said of his own conception. We saw before what he said of it: how wonderfully and awesomely he was made. We have the other side of it. Now we have what happens when you are sinning and you are confessing your sins and you really understand and realize how in-depth the sin is that human beings have.

There was a murderer down in San Jose`. Something worked out that they could not convict him, so he was set loose. He says, ‘You got to kill me.’ No, there’s nothing we can do legally. He says, ‘I’m unreformable.’ At least he was honest. He said, ‘I think of murder and mayhem all the time. If you don’t lock me up and do something with me and take me out of my misery, I know I’m going to do it again.’ That was really something!

True confession, that a man would really admit that. Of course, these so-called ‘serial killers’—that they just kill one person after another—they are the same way. They get so obsessed with the evil and so compulsive with it that every thought is to execute this evil. Every thought is to carry out this evil.

When David was repenting, here’s what he said, Psalm 51:1: “Have mercy upon me, O God, according to Your loving kindness; according to the greatness of Your compassion, blot out my transgressions.”

- What did he have in mind?
- What was it he did? Adultery and murder!

Listed in the same order right there as in Mark 7! He schemed and he planned and he plotted and all this sort of thing.

Verse 2: “Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin, for I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.... [when God convicts you of your sin it is ever before you] ...Against You, You only, have I sinned, and done evil in Your sight, that You might be justified when You speak and be in the right when You judge. Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me” (vs 2-5).

That doesn't mean it was a sinful, illegitimate birth, it means 'just from the very conception of my being sin was within me.'

That's why the sweetest, nicest children—you often wonder, I wonder what Stalin was like when he was a little baby? Wonder what Hitler was like when he was a little baby? Wonder what Cleopatra was like when she was a little baby? And on and on! All little babies are sweet and lovely, but they have inherent the law of sin and death in them. The more they are exposed to an evil world and Satan, the more in degree that this evil becomes more profound.

You can even take this human nature and you can raise it in a relatively good environment, with a minimal amount of influence of sin and you can come up with someone who the world would say is a 'upright.' That is, they are not given to too much sin. But nevertheless,

- they will lie
- they will cheat
- they will covet
- they will still want their own way

Even in the very best! That's why 'all have sinned and come short of the glory of God and none can save himself.'

David understood that it was from within. Now, let's look at a couple of Proverbs concerning that. There are a couple of Proverbs that we have memorized. As a result, man's way is the way of sin! The way that seems right.

Proverbs 16:25: “There is a way that seems right to a man, but the end thereof is the way of death.” The wages of sin is death! Man's way seems good and right, but leads to death.

Proverbs 21:2: “Every way of a man is right in his own eyes...” That's how we have the excuse that you try and palm it off on someone else!

Because of that, you can't come to God on your terms. We're going to see that's what Cain was doing. He was going to God on his terms. You can never come to God on your terms. Here's why:

Proverbs 15:8: “The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD...”

- IF you don't repent
- IF you don't change
- IF you don't have a heart that God can work with

Even whatever you do in the way of sacrifice, not only just animal sacrifice but time, labor, whatever it may be:

“...is an abomination to the LORD ...” Who is the mother of abominations? Babylon the Great, mother of harlots and abominations in the earth! All comes from her.

Verse 9: “The way of the wicked is an abomination...” That's what, as we're going to see, happened to the world before the Flood!

Verse 10: “There is grievous correction for him who forsakes the way...”

- Did that not happen to Adam and Eve?
- Was not their correction grievous? Oh yes, even affects us!

“...he who hates reproof shall die. The grave and destruction are before the LORD—how much more the hearts of the children of men?” (vs 10-11).

God knows the heart. The Bible tells us what our human hearts are like. (Mark 7:21)

Verse 15: “All the days of the afflicted are evil...” That's what it was before the Flood! It got so bad!

It's just like God is always done. When people come to a certain point that they just turn their backs on God, God says:

Okay, you can have it all. All your own way and I don't have to do anything but just let it run its course.

Then history is written!

Verse 25: “The LORD will destroy the house of the proud, but He maintains the border of the widow. The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD...” (vs 25-26).

So, we have the way of evil is an abomination; and we find all the way through here that these things are called abominations. That is amazing!

Verse 27: “He who is greedy for gain troubles his own house...” Didn’t that happen to Adam and Eve? They were greedy of gain! They wanted to be made wise in their own way! This is something the way that these parallels really follow along.

God had to do something. He withdrew the opportunity of salvation until the Messiah should come. With the exception of those few that He would call.

Genesis 3:19: “...‘for dust you are, and to dust you shall return.’ And Adam called his wife’s name Eve because she was the mother of all the living. And for Adam and his wife the LORD God made coats of skins and clothed them” (vs 19-21).

That is to clothe their nakedness! Some people say that this was also an offering for a sin sacrifice. It’s possible, but if you read what a sin sacrifice is, how they handled it, everything had to be burned: the skin, the innards and everything had to be burned. It’s possible that it was, but I am not going to completely say that this was an animal sacrifice for sin.

Here’s what God had to do, v 22: “And the LORD God said, ‘Behold, the man has become like one of Us, to decide good and evil...’—which he can’t do, he just thinks he can do!

God is the One Who decides what is good, and God is the One Who decides what is evil. But now that mankind had taken it to themselves they were ‘like God’ in that particular sense, to decided good and evil.

“...and now, lest he put forth his hand and take also of the Tree of Life, and eat, and live forever—...” (v 22).

God closed off the way to the Tree of Life. And the reason being is, not that He wasn’t going to bring salvation at a later date, which He was without a doubt; but you cannot live forever in a state of sin!

How would you like to live forever the way you’re living now? With the pulls of sin, with the pulls of the flesh, and all this sort of thing forever and ever and ever? Therefore, God cut off the way of the Tree of Life.

Verse 23: “Therefore, the LORD God sent him out from the Garden of Eden to till the ground from which he had been taken. And He drove out the man, and He placed cherubim at the east of the Garden of Eden, and a flaming sword, which turned every way to guard the way to the Tree of Life” (vs 23-24).

It’s called ‘the way of the Tree of Life’—symbolizing a way to live! I’m sure there was a literal tree. What happened to the Tree of Life? I don’t know! I do know that after the Flood it was no longer mentioned in the sense that it was here. Could it be that God took the tree back with Him, I don’t know, at the time of the Flood? It’s possible!

Could it be that the tree was destroyed? If it’s a Tree of Life, can it be destroyed? I can’t answer that either! We’ll have to wait for God to tell us quite a bit. Now then, we start the whole chronicle of human sin! Sin starts in the family.

Genesis 4:1: “And Adam knew Eve his wife... [which means they had sexual relations] ...and she conceived...” It wasn’t with the serpent, trust me and the Word of God!

If Cain was the offspring of the serpent, God would have made it clear. But then you’re also violating the Laws of God, which is kind after kind. You cannot have something that would be impossible to take place. So, he was human as human can be and his father was Adam and not the serpent. Here’s what she said:

“...and bore Cain, and said, ‘I have gotten a man from the Lord’” (v 1). So, right away she began to think this was the One that was prophesied about! That Cain was the One Who was going to then bring the deliverance to them.

Verse 2: “And she bore again, his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.”

In the account of Josephus it shows that the ‘process of time’ was perhaps as much as 120 years. Those of you who like to do a little mathematics—and I’ve seen this in some publications—you take 1500 years, which is 1550-plus years from the time of Adam and Eve until the Flood. You start out with two and then you start increasing the population. It’s estimated that there could have been as many as a billion and a half people on the earth at the time of the Flood.

When you consider there is a tradition—and I will have to put it that way—that Adam and Eve had 56 children. That would not be hard to believe that they had 56 children. All God gives us is the loose lineage of the line of Cain; and the exact lineage of the line coming down to Noah. Nothing else is preserved for us. Everything else of the world before the Flood has been obliterated.

Verse 3: “It came to pass that Cain brought to the LORD an offering of the fruit of the ground.”

We know that firstfruits are to be brought. We also know that a tithe of the ground was to be brought. This was an improper offering; and I think it’s probably true—the tradition that they had—that Cain was forcing the ground and doing things that he shouldn’t have been doing.

Verse 4: “And Abel also brought of the firstlings of his flock and of the fat of it....”

There are some people who believe that this could have been on a Holy Day—it’s possible! It doesn’t say that it was, doesn’t say that it wasn’t.

“...And the LORD had regard unto Abel and his offering” (v 4). Why? Because he did it according to the commands of God! Whenever you do anything according to the commands of God, He will have respect unto you.

Verse 5: “But He did not have regard unto Cain and his offering. And Cain was extremely angry and his countenance fell.... [he got mad at God] ...And the LORD said to Cain, ‘Why are you so angry? And why has your countenance fallen? If you do well, shall you not be accepted?....’” (vs 5-7). All He said was, ‘Look, Cain, all you have to do is do what’s right. Won’t you be accepted?’

“...But if you do not do well, sin lies at the door....” (v 7). There’s a couple of interesting things here, which may fit into this:

When they brought their offering, where did they bring it? I’m sure that God was still in the Garden of Eden, so when they came up to the east gate, where the Cherubim were.... What is over the altar of God in the tabernacle and the temple? The Cherubim! I think this: when they brought an offering, they came to the entrance—the east entrance of the Garden of Eden, where the Cherubim were—and there was an altar for offerings. That’s where they offered it. If they did well, they were accepted of God.

When He says, “...sin lies at the door...” could it be that He is telling Cain that ‘Your offering here at the door is sin’? Could be!

“...Its desire is for you, but you must rule over it” (v 7). You have to be responsible and control your own self, so Cain didn’t accept that.

Then we have the account here concerning Cain killing his brother. God knows! God knows everything.

Verse 8: “Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him. And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: Am I my brother’s keeper?’ (v 8-9). Immediately, right in the family here is the strife going on!

- When you have children, do you have fights with the kids? Yes!
- Is there strife between them? Yes!

Nothing new, it started out with the first family. That’s part of the sorrows that Eve would go through. More than just the pain of bearing children, but also the turmoil and the sorrow of fighting and arguing and rearing the children.

Verse 10: “And He said, ‘What have you done? The voice of your brother’s blood cries to Me from the ground. And now you are cursed from the earth, which opened its mouth to receive your brother’s blood from your hand. When you till the ground, it shall no longer yield its strength to you, and you shall be a wanderer and a fugitive upon the earth’” (vs 10-12). Then he was cast out!

Verse 13: “And Cain said to the LORD, ‘My punishment is greater than I can bear. Behold, You have driven me out from the face of the earth today, and I shall be hidden from Your face....’” (vs 13-14).

No more access to God, totally cut off from God! Now, no more could he come up to the entrance of Eden and make an offering. Totally cut off.

You have a double removable in this particular case. Adam and Eve were put out of the garden for their sin, which was the first removal. They still had access to God coming to the entrance of Eden on the east side. Now Cain, because of his sin, is removed even further to wander, to travel, to have no roots, to have nothing permanent.

Cain said, “...‘And I shall be a fugitive and a wanderer in the earth, and it shall be that anyone who finds me shall kill me.’ And the LORD said to him, ‘Therefore whoever kills Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold.’ And the LORD set a mark upon Cain so that anyone who found him should not kill him” (vs 14-15).

What was the mark? I don’t know! There’s been a lot of speculation, but I have not found any validation to any of the speculation. I have thought maybe it was an ‘X’ or a mark or a cross and perhaps that was the origination of the cross, I do not know! But whatever it was, I’m sure his children, when they got up on his knees and said, ‘Grandpa, what is that?’ I’m sure that he told the biggest fib in the world. I’m sure that he said, ‘God put this on me to set me apart from and make me special above all men.' You can almost hear the story.

Now, the question is, where did Cain get his wife? Obviously, from one of the daughters of Adam and Eve! Obviously, it was at that time, because of the inheritance that they had, determined that they could marry their own sisters because they had not had enough intermarriage where then it would create problems genetically. Had to be.

Verse 17: "And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enoch..."

The reason I suspect that Cain told all of his descendants that this was a special mark from God—not a sign of a curse—is because you read the names of the lineage of those of the line of Cain and they are very similar to the names that you find in the lineage from Adam and Seth on down to Noah, very similar.

We won't go through any more in Gen. 4 or 5. Let's come to Gen. 6 and we will end this study here, to see what the earth became like. When you have people having the law of sin and death in them and just give them free reign and let them do whatever they're going to do, it's going to be a mixture of good and evil.

Genesis 6:1: "And it came to pass, when men began to multiply..."

You reach a certain point in human reproduction that you're having a multiplying factor. Right now they say there are what, 5.5-billion people on the earth, somewhere close to that. And they say that within 20 years that it will double! Now, they're doing all they can to try and stop this with abortion and so forth, but they reached the same point here:

"...began to multiply on the face of the earth, and when daughters were born to them, that the sons of the mighty ones saw the daughters of men, that they were beautiful..." (vs 1-2).

These were those who were called 'sons of God.' These are not some special, giant Nephilim, as they are called. This is not some sort of angels intermarrying with human being to produce a super race.

"...and they took wives for themselves from all whom they chose.... [rather than do it the way that God said] ...And the LORD said, 'My spirit shall not always strive with man in his going astray... [that's how we know those sons of God were men, because he says so] ...for he is but flesh... [not an angelic being] ...and yet, his days shall be a hundred and twenty years'" (vs 2-3).

God pronounced sentence right then: he's only going to live 120 years longer!

Verse 4: "There were tyrants on the earth in those days..." Do we have giants today? Yes, we do! All you have to do is stack up the watusi along side of the Japanese and you'll see that there are giants.

"...and also after that, the sons of God came in to the daughters of men, and they bore children to them. They were mighty men who existed of old, men of renown" (v 4).

Or men renamed after the term: 'sons of God.' Here they were building up the master race. That's what they were doing, mighty men.

Verse 5: "And the LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great... [absolutely incredible] ...was great on the earth, and every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually." Now we're reaching the same point again today!

- How far advanced were they technologically? We don't know!
- Could they have been advanced as we are? Could be, maybe even more!

We don't know, but the end result of man's way, under Satan's influence, is that "...his heart was only evil continually."

It was so bad: "...And the LORD repented that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart. And the LORD said, 'I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth, both man and beast, and the crawling thing, and the fowl of the air; for I repent that I have made them'" (vs 6-7).

- Why would God destroy every living thing? I do not know!
- Was it that they were having genetic engineering at that time, on a grander scale than we understand today?
- Why does it say:

Verse 8: "But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD. These are the generations of Noah. Noah was a righteous man and perfect in his generations..." (vs 8-9)—or his pedigree or his progeny!

- Is that telling us that the rest of mankind was so twisted and defiled?
- Is that telling us that they were doing things with animals that they should not have been doing?
- Doing things with animals and human beings combined together that they should not have been doing?

I don't know! I think I've mentioned this a time or two, but I'll mention it here since we're covering this very basic fundamental section of the Scriptures.

There is in mythology, the man's torso on a goat's body. This was called one of the gods. Could it be that that actually happened? I don't know! But I'll tell you one thing, today they are looking for as many ways as they can to enhance a super race, so that they can do something with the genes to make better athletes, to make stronger men, make smarter men. They have a whole university dedicated to that, many different places, but in particular, the Rockefeller University in their genetic section there. Very advanced into this.

Could this refer to Noah being the firstborn? It could but it doesn't say firstborn! It says he was 'perfect in his generations.' I think that whenever we have something referring to a 'firstborn' it lists them as firstborn. So, it's possible that it could, but it's also possible that in his pedigree or his genetic makeup there was nothing foreign in it. There had to be reason why God had to kill all life. ALL LIFE! Now that's drastic! ALL human beings and ALL life. We can see the evidence of the Flood everywhere.

Verse 10: "And Noah begat three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Now, the earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence... [everything was corrupted] ...And God looked upon the earth, and behold, it was corrupt—for all flesh had corrupted its way upon the earth" (vs 10-12).

- What do you mean "...all flesh had corrupted..."?
- Does that mean it was rotting? No!

This would have to be that all flesh was all mixed up. I would have to conclude all mixed up genetically. It was so bad and the evil was so rife that:

Verse 13: "And God said to Noah, 'The end of all flesh has come before Me, for the earth is filled with violence through them. And, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.'"

Then He told him to make the ark. And that was some, some big vessel. God is the One Who sent the animals to Noah. Apparently God picked out those animals that had a pure strain in their, in their genes, so that on this side of the Flood—which we live on now—things would not be all mixed up and twisted around. But this whole phrase here: 'that all flesh' not just human beings. There's a differentiation here.

Verse 5: "And the LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great on the earth, and every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually."

Verse 12: "And God looked upon the earth, and behold, it was corrupt—for all flesh... [not just human flesh] ...corrupted its way upon the earth. And God said to Noah, 'The end of all flesh has come before Me, for the earth is filled with violence through them. And, behold, I will destroy them with the earth'" (vs 12-13).

There's also a prophecy that in our time that it's going to get very similar to it. Yet, at the same time, when all of this evil is going on, as it was back then, we saw that "all flesh had corrupted its way and "...the earth was filled with violence."

Matthew 24:37: "Now, as it was in the days of Noah, so shall it also be at the coming of the Son of man. For as in the days that were before the Flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark" (vs 37-38).

In spite of all the violence, in spite of all the corruption, there were the normal functions going on which human beings were doing. To them, they had been so accustomed to their way of life, so accustomed to the evil that was on every side about them, that they just took everything for granted. They didn't have a clue until the Flood came!

Comment was made that the scientists are doing what they can to try and alter the genetic substance of certain of the monkey family and, in particular, pigs, to try and have replaceable livers and hearts from pigs and other animals. That's something!

Which reminds me, the greatest blow to the abortion movement took place this week. Which was, the woman who was Jane Roe in Roe vs Wade has changed and repented and is now a pro-lifer. The thing that did it—sometimes the overwhelmingness of evil will get to you—and she said that the thing that got to her was when she opened up a freezer at the Planned Parenthood or the abortion clinic that she was working in, and saw a freezer full of fetuses. She said, 'that was it.'

Even though she's now pro-life she says it's still all right in the first trimester. Well listen, as we have studied in the past, a baby is fully formed—it's just a matter of growth—with just six weeks. So, by time a woman has definite conformation that she is pregnant the new little person is already formed, and it's only an inch long.

Yes, she was baptized by a Baptist preacher, so at least in the letter of the Law she's doing something reasonable. But it's interesting, she still hasn't come all the way to abhor all abortion. She's trying to, you know like you do when you repent of your sins to a certain degree, you kind of like to straddle the fence to so you can still justify what you've done in the past, but kind of say you're getting away from it. That's what's she's doing.

I thought that that was profound when she opened up the freezer and it was full of fetuses so that the doctors could use them for experiments and all those things that they want to do. They sell them, make money on them.

Yes, the Chinese are going to have population control by having very strict laws—execute people for the smallest little crime so they can kill them and sell their heart, their liver and their eyes, and all that sort of thing.

History repeats itself without a doubt. We don't know how bad it's going to get. We don't know what the technology is going to do. I am sure there are a lot of propagandistic statements put out which are not true. But nevertheless, I think they are endeavoring in trying to do that.

One of the things they want to do is come up with the 'divine' man, one who's going to live forever. One who's going to be smarter than ever before. That's Satan's whole goal!

I think this: I think that when the beast comes on the scene it's going to be the result of a tremendous and profound satanic religious experience. Which is, for those religions of the world in Masonry and all that sort of thing, they are going to have a 'divine' man. Once they get this 'divine' man then I think they are going to conclude that many more people can now follow in his footsteps if they just make an image to the beast.

I'll let you think on that! We'll end here. We're through with our little study there in Genesis, but I think it's been very good to go back to the very basics and understand that and come forward from there.

CHAPTER FOUR

The Sabbath: Sign of God

Fred R. Coulter

If someone asked the question: Give me a sign O God, and how can I find You? God has already given the sign! What is that sign?

1-John 5:3: “For this is the love of God: that we keep His commandments, and His commandments are not burdensome.” They are not grievous, not burdensome! That is an absolutely basic, fundamental thing!

Which commandments do people not like most of all? Let’s see something about the carnal mind and we all know this.

There was an article in the paper, quite a long one, about deception; how that it’s inherent in all human beings and all human beings must be deceptive to survive. Does that sound a little Biblical? The heart is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked! That’s the best of our heart. Here is why:

Romans 8:7: “Because the carnal mind... [that is the mind devoid of the Spirit of God] ...is enmity against God...” that’s the same word for enemy!

All you have to do is just substitute the ‘i-t’ and put an ‘e’ in there and you have enemy, and it’s the same in the Greek.

“...for it is not subject to the Law of God; neither indeed can be” (v 7).

When you have ‘religious’ people in the world—I don’t care what religion that they are of—let’s look at some of those who claim they are Christians. What two commandments do they always disagree with? Actually, there are three, but basically two and the third one is subject to the second one.

- they may be nice people
- they may be kind people
- they may be what the society would say would be model citizens

But what is it that they always don’t agree to? Sabbath! Idols! Commandments 2 & 4!

What is the third one that is subject to the Sabbath? The Holy Days! There are some people who say, ‘God, I believe I ought to keep the Sabbath, but not the Holy Days.’

I listened to this message from this Protestant minister who said:

Since Jesus was resurrected on Sunday, and since Pentecost is on Sunday, therefore, I keep Sunday. Case over and done, case closed.

Does he have an open mind? No! He also said:

And I don’t want to hear any more of this Sabbath bit. Because you are not to go out and just lay around and be lazy and stay in your bed all day Saturday.

Guess what he knows? He knows something, doesn’t he? He knows which day is the seventh day; yes, he does! Gen. 2 becomes very important and I have never heard this explained this way.

- Who was the Sabbath made for? It was made for man!
- Where do you find that Scripture? Mark 2:27-28!

This minister quoted Gen. 2 and I have never heard it this way, because he forgot his New Testament, he forgot what Jesus said about the Sabbath; that He was Lord of the Sabbath!

Genesis 2:1: “Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. And by the beginning of the seventh day God finished His work, which He had made. And He rested on the seventh day from all His work, which He had made. And God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because on it He rested from all His work, which God had created and made” (vs 1-3). And this minister said:

Therefore, the Sabbath was made for God!

Of all of the years I’ve been in the Church and all of the Sabbath arguments I’ve heard—and not to make fun of anyone who has false teeth because you need them—if I had false teeth they would have fallen right out of my head. That’s how shocking it was to me. Can you believe that? ‘It was only made for God!’

- Why are we to remember the Sabbath? To keep it Holy!
- Why? He set it apart right here!
- Why? Because God is Holy!

The Catholics later on, as you find in a book by Samuele Bacchiocchi—Anti-Judaism and the Origin of Sunday—concerning the enmity between Christians and Jews when Sunday worship was coming into the early Church. I want you to understand that when John was writing the Epistle of First John, what was starting to come into vogue? Sunday worship!

God gave them the Sabbath! In the book Anti-Judaism and the Origin of Sunday by Samuele Bacchiocchi, those who were the initiators of Sunday-keeping that later became the Catholic Church said that ‘God cursed the Jews with the Sabbath to set them aside for punishment.’ Isn’t that something? God doesn’t say anything about that in Exo. 20! He says:

Exodus 20:8: “Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it Holy.... [they just had the lesson of getting it with the manna] ...Six days you shall labor and do all your work. But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God...” (vs 8-10).

Yes, it is His, but He doesn’t say that He made it for Himself to rest on, did He? No, He didn’t!

However, this becomes very, very important, because I know for sure that it’s not going to be too long before there are going to be people we know that were keeping the Sabbath who are going to be keeping Sunday. You can be almost guaranteed of it!

“...In it you shall not do any work, you, nor your son, nor your daughter; your manservant, nor your maidservant, nor your livestock, nor the stranger within your gates; for in six days the LORD made the heaven and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day. Therefore, the LORD blessed the Sabbath Day and sanctified it” (vs 10-11).

- For whom? For all of mankind!
- Did He bless it just for Himself?
- Did He sanctify it for just Himself?

Wherever God is and whatever God does it is Holy! Moses went up on the mountain, and God said, ‘Take off your shoes because you are standing on Holy ground.’ God didn’t make the Sabbath for Himself!

I know that this is very basic, but it’s something that is the very key as to why there were the problems going on in the early New Testament Church. I still like the answer that was given when asked by a Protestant when it became obvious that this particular person was keeping the Sabbath and all of the rest on this tour to the Holy Land were keeping Sunday. They came up to this man and he was a minister that I knew and they said, ‘By the way, what day do you keep?’ And his answer was, ‘The same day Jesus did. What day do you keep?’

Now you cannot argue with that, can you? Remember that if someone ever corners you and asks you, ‘What day do you keep?’ You just tell them, ‘I keep the same day that Jesus kept. What day do you keep?’ Here is why:

Mark 2:27: “And He said to them, ‘The Sabbath was made for man... [on account of the creation of man] ...and not man for the Sabbath.’” What does that phrase mean? That man has no jurisdiction over the Sabbath!

Verse 28: “Therefore, the Son of man is Lord even of the Sabbath.”

- What is this telling us? Very simple, Jesus is Lord of the Sabbath!
- Which day is the Lord’s Day if Jesus Christ is your LORD? The Sabbath!

It’s got to be; it can’t be anything else!

John 14:15—Jesus said: “If you love Me, keep the commandments—namely, My commandments.”

If the Sabbath was made for a curse to put on the Jews, why didn’t Jesus—when He brought the New Covenant—reveal that and relieve us from that curse? He didn’t because that is not a true statement! It is not a curse!

There are several other places we can go to: Ezek. 20 is a very instructive set of verses.

When has obedience to God ever been a curse? Nowhere! Obedience to God may cost you your life, in some cases it’s going to be martyrdom, but:

- Is that a curse?
- or
- Is that a witness? It is a witness!
 - What does the curse come from? Not keeping it!

Deut. 28 says, ‘IF you will, indeed, listen to My voice and hearken to My commandments, and do all of that which I say, blessed shall you be:

- in the city
- in the country
- in the fruit of your womb
- in your basket
- in your store
- in fighting your enemies

But IF you will not listen and will not keep my commandments, cursed shall you be.’ So, the curse comes not from obedience, but from disobedience!

Ezek. 20 talks about what God did for the children of Israel. Let's get the scene before we go through some of the verses.

Ezekiel 20:1: "And it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that some of the elders of Israel came to ask of the LORD, and sat before me. And the Word of the LORD came to me, saying, 'Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and say to them, "Thus says the Lord GOD, 'Have you come to inquire of Me? As I live,' says the Lord GOD, 'I will not be inquired of by you'" (vs 1-3).

Remember that they were in captivity. They were in this place of captivity. Why were they in captivity? Disobedience! Now they are wanting to come to God and say to God, 'God, why am I in this captivity?' God answered:

"...'Have you come to inquire of Me? As I live,' says the Lord GOD, 'I will not be inquired of by you'" (v 3).

In other words: What are you going to do to come and question God?

Verse 4: "Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers. And say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "In the day that I chose Israel, and lifted up My hand to the seed of the house of Jacob, and made Myself known to them in the land of Egypt; when I lifted up My hand to them, saying, 'I am the LORD your God'"'" (vs 4-5).

- IF God would have promised to give the blessing that He promised to give to Abraham
- IF it would have been through someone other than Abraham and someone else's descendants hypothetically:

- Which laws do you think that God would have given to them? The same ones! Yes!
- Why? Because they came from God!
- What does it say of God in the person of Jesus Christ?

Hebrews 13:8: "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, and today, and forever." So therefore, He would have given them exactly the same laws! What did He tell them through Jeremiah the prophet?

You go tell those sinning children of Israel that had I gone to some other nation, they would have kept My Laws until now. But unfortunately I'm stuck with these rebellious children!

God promised! Once you promise, you can't get away from it! He says, 'But Israel has changed from Me being their God, to serving all of these idols.' So, God really indicted His people, didn't He?

Look at the Indians in India, I mean we could stand up here and say, 'Look at all these Hindus. What a mess their religion is,' which is true. But God is saying, 'Had I gone to those people, they wouldn't have done to Me what you have done to Me.' He made it known!

Ezekiel 20:6: "In the day that I lifted up My hand to them, to bring them out from the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; then I said to them, 'Let each man throw away the abominations of his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am the LORD your God'" (vs 6-7).

So, right when God was getting the Ten Commandments, they made the golden calf, worshipped it, had a great sex orgy there, the whole thing, just like one of our rock concerts that we have today. All right, no different, same thing going on.

Verse 10: "And I caused them to go out from the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. And I gave them My statutes and showed them My ordinances, which if a man do, he shall even live in them. And also I gave them My Sabbaths..." (vs 10-12)—plural; a sign there are the Holy Days involved!

There are some people who are good enough to accept Jesus, to accept the Sabbath, but not accept the Holy Days. You are confronted with a problem in that particular case. They try and doctrinally somehow show that these are tied in with the sacrifices, but they had sacrifices on every day, so the argument of sacrifices being on the Holy Days and whether they ought to keep the Holy Days or not or the Sabbath or not is really having no bearing whatsoever to do on the Sabbath or the Holy Days, none whatsoever!

Verse 12: "And also I gave them My Sabbaths to be a sign between Me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD Who sanctifies them. But the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness; they did not walk in My statutes, and they despised My ordinances, which if a man does, he shall even live in them. And they greatly polluted My Sabbaths. And I said, 'I will pour out My fury on them in the wilderness to destroy them'" (vs 12-13).

- if God is merciful, which He is
 - Does anybody doubt that God is merciful?

- if God gave the Sabbath for a curse, which some people believe that He did
 - Don't you think that God being merciful would remove that curse and tell them about another day?
 - Wouldn't that make sense?
 - Is that not logical? Yes, it is!

So, they despised God's way!

Then He even said to their children after He took care of them in the wilderness, you know, and you saw all of them dying. Then He said to them again:

Verse 20: “And keep My Sabbaths Holy; and they shall be a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God.” So, they rebelled!

Ezek. 22—we find that the priests are in on this, the prophets are in on this. The problem is not with ordinary people as much as it is with the leaders. A person comes to a minister, maybe a Protestant minister, and says:

You know, Pastor, I've been reading my Bible, and I think that we ought to keep the seventh day. I really see in Jer. 10 that it's also telling us not to have Christmas trees. And in Ezek. 7 it says that we are not to have hot cross buns and all this Easter stuff. Furthermore, I went to the library and looked it up in the encyclopedia and those things are pagan. What do you think?

Well now, Jesus has delivered us from those things. We don't have to keep them, and besides, we have Christianized Christmas and we have Christianized Easter, so now it's all okay.

So, the person, not wanting to offend the minister, the minister after all is the 'expert'; so they take his word. It's like this one minister who said about Saturday, 'We're not to sleep all day Saturday.' We're not! If any of you are sleeping here, wake up!

Ezekiel 22:25: “There is a conspiracy...”—and that's a nasty word today! Anyone who talks about a conspiracy, you're mentally off because you're imagining something.

- Who is the greatest conspirator in history? Satan the devil!
- Is he conspiring?
- Is he working? Yes!
- Who does he want to get?
- If he gets one minister then he gets how many hundreds or thousands of people?

Verse 25: “There is a conspiracy of her prophets in her midst, like a roaring lion tearing the prey. They have devoured souls...”

That's especially vivid in my mind because I just saw one of these wild documentaries, and it showed the lions, and I tell you those lions can jump on top of a zebra or a wildebeest and one big gnash right on the back of the neck, and that's it, they devour them. The whole pride of lions comes in and you talk about table manners, you talk about conversation around the table. They are fighting, tearing and the poor little cubs have got to get in there and try and get something.

Just picture that with these ministers. That's what they are spiritually doing to people! They come and say, 'Oh, Mr. Minister, I read my Bible and it looks like we ought to keep the seventh day,' which is the seventh day! Conspiracy!

“...They have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made many widows in her midst. Her priests have done violence to My Law and have profaned My Holy things. They have put no difference between the Holy and the profane...” (vs 25-26).

Who made the difference between Holy and profane? God did, He is the One! That's why the Sabbath is Holy, because God made it Holy! That's why the days that we keep are called Holy Days because they are days that God made Holy!

“...and have not taught the difference between the unclean and the clean...” (v 26).

I was listening to the news and they were saying cholera has spread because of unclean cooks serving unclean food, namely shrimp, clams and those unclean things that should not be eaten that God said, 'Don't eat them.' Not because He wants to take some tidbits away from you that you may like, but because there are certain things in these animals that may make you sick, may make you prone to disease, so later you are going to have problems.

“...and they have hidden their eyes from My Sabbaths, and I am profaned among them” (v 26). That becomes important! I know this is really basic, but I haven't gotten to the point that I want to get to, yet.

If you find yourself in this terrible and horrible condition that you are trying to find God, and there are a lot of people out there trying to find God. Some people say, 'If God would show me a sign, I would believe Him.'

- Isn't that what they said to Jesus?
- Isn't that what people say today? 'If I could see God, I would believe Him.'

There is a man who was a minister of God., and before he was a minister he was a paraplegic. This is an experience within the Church of God now.

He was paralyzed from the neck down. When he came to the knowledge of the Truth and felt he had faith that God would heal him, he called for the elders of the Church and was anointed. Within ten days he was walking!

It was such an unusual thing that even the Veterans Administration—then he went to say, ‘My conscience is overloading me, I cannot bear it. God has healed me. I am walking. Please take me off of disability’—they said, ‘We don’t believe it; we are not going to take you off disability.’ He said, ‘Okay, my conscience is clean, I can receive my check every month and it’s clean; I tried.’ He tried two or three times to do that.

He was a pretty powerful minister. He was always in pain even though he had this, and he would get around and he would still limp and things like that. He was a very friendly, gregarious, outgoing man and could really speak in power, and sing and lead songs; a tremendous, fantastic person! He would tell you about how God healed him. Furthermore, he married the nurse that was taking care of him.

Now then, because of men within the Church, and because of difficulties that he had, now he doesn’t believe in keeping the Sabbath, when God led him to it, or necessarily the Holy Days.

So, if someone asks, ‘Give me a sign, O God! How can I find You?’ God has already given the sign, and He has already given the thing that you can do! You don’t have to be a cripple to find God or to see the sign. What is that sign? The Sabbath!

Why is it such a fantastic sign, because in spite of all of the calendar manipulations by men, the seventh day on the calendar on your wall today—unless it’s been changed by some modernists as it has in some areas of the country and Europe—what day is the seventh day of the week? Saturday, the Sabbath! You can verify that by asking any Jew who still keeps the Sabbath. You can verify that by asking any Protestant, ‘Which day is the first day of the week?’ It’s the day after the Sabbath! No doubt!

- there is the miracle
- there is the sign

What if you really want to get right with God?

Isaiah 56:1: “Thus says the LORD, ‘Keep justice and do righteousness...’”

I talked to a man and he says, ‘The first place to begin to solve all the political problems is to pass a law—if you could and think that would be possible—to outlaw all politicians from being attorneys as professionals.’ Sounds like a good thing, but it won’t work. That’s why God has to destroy the system because you can’t repair it. God can repair an individual life, but He is not going to repair the system, He is going to destroy it. So there is no justice, there is no judgment.

“...for My salvation is near to come...” (v 1).

- When is God’s salvation coming? When Christ returns!
- Are we close to that?

We can also say when Christ came the first time, too!

“...and My righteousness to be revealed” (v 1). This is a prophecy for the end-time!. Anyone at the end-time

- who wants to get right with God
- who wants to draw close to God
- who wants to serve God

Here is what God says:

Verse 2: “Blessed... [not cursed] ...is the man... [in the general sense of a human being] ...who does this... [that’s a pretty specific thing] ...and the son of man who lays hold on it... [as something to do] ...who keeps the Sabbath from profaning it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil.”

What if he is not an Israelite or a Jew? Because the argument is always made, ‘The Sabbath is for the Jews, but Sunday is for the stranger or the Gentile’ and that is a name that the Jews have coined, which is really a misnomer and it should be the nations.

Verse 3: “And do not let the son of the stranger... [Gentile, someone other than an Israelite] ...who has joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, ‘The LORD has utterly separated me from His people.’ And do not let the eunuch say, ‘Behold, I am a dry tree.’” That is: ‘God, why can’t I have any kids?’

Verse 4: “For thus says the LORD, ‘To the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths... [we have the Holy Days involved here, too] ...and choose things that please Me, and take hold of My covenant.’”

Mr. Minister, which day should we keep? I heard one minister say when it was brought up to him that we shouldn’t keep Christmas. He said, ‘Look, I’ll put on the beard, and the Santa Claus suit if it’s going to bring more people into this church.’

Think about that for a minute. He’s got all the priorities totally backward. The Bible says what if you gain the whole world, but lose your soul? The wicked, though they walk hand-in-hand, are all going to fall. God says, “...who keep My Sabbaths, and choose things that please Me, and take hold of My covenant”—a prophecy of the New Covenant!

Sometimes we get so bogged down in technical things and details, interesting doctrine and teaching that we can learn, because we’ve been in the Church a long time and we need to learn those things. But it’s absolutely amazing and fantastic how you can go back to a basic thing like the Sabbath, which is so vitally, vitally, important, and ask: Is that important for me to return to God? Yes!

Especially in light of the situation that the message I gave concerning the Sardis Church and Laodicean Church and things like that. There are a lot of people out there who just feel justified—because they’re hurt by a man—to give up on God! No one is justified to give up on God because they are hurt by a man!

Listen, human beings are going to hurt you over and over again. Why? Because they are human beings! Don’t be surprised. Even the best intentions sometimes hurt people. Why? Because they are misunderstood! If you’re wanting to be hurt, you’re going to be hurt. If you are looking to be hurt, it’s going to come, but don’t let it take you away from God!

I want you to notice the similarity between 1-John 3:22 and what we just read in Isa. 56:4^[transcriber’s correction]:

1-John 3:22: “And whatever we may ask we receive from Him because... [here is the cause] ... we keep His commandments and practice those things that are pleasing in His sight.”

Isaiah 56:4: “For thus says the LORD, ‘To the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths, and choose things that please Me, and take hold of My covenant.’” Not too much different, is it?

- Why was Jesus always faithful? He said, ‘I always do those things that please God.’
- Did Jesus keep the Sabbath? Yes, He kept the Sabbath!
- Did that please God? Yes, that pleased God!

Verse 5: “Even to them will I give within My house... [the Church] ...and within My walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters...”

What did we just read concerning one of the Churches of God? Behold I will give you a new name, which no man knows, but he who receives it! So, there it is right there, New Testament doctrine.

“...I will give them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off. Also the sons of the stranger, who join themselves to the LORD to serve Him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be His servants, everyone who keeps from profaning the Sabbath, and takes hold of My covenant; even them I will bring...” (vs 5-7).

- Where?
- What was the message topic for Pentecost?
Come to the mountain!

Verse 7: “Even them I will bring to My Holy mountain, and make them joyful in My house of prayer....”

Then it says some burnt offerings and so forth, that’s when they had them, but now we have the offerings. What are the offerings that we have? They are offerings of:

- praise
- thanksgiving
- glory to God
 - ✓ through our prayers
 - ✓ through our life

because we worship Him in Spirit and in Truth!

Isa. 58—God is now talking to the children of Israel; He’s got something to say to them. He just talked to all the Gentiles (Isa. 56). Now He is talking to the children of Jacob:

Isaiah 58:1: “Cry aloud, do not spare, lift up your voice like a ram’s horn, and show My people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.” What were they?

Here is a famous Scripture that a lot of people turn to and say that we should not keep the Sabbath:

Isaiah 1:14: “Your new moons and your appointed feasts My soul hates...” That’s right after He said:

Verse 13: “Bring no more vain sacrifices; incense is an abomination to Me—new moon and sabbath, the calling of assemblies—I cannot endure iniquity along with the solemn assembly!”

- Whose sabbaths?
 - Whose new moons?
 - Whose feast days?
 - God’s?
- or
- Theirs?

Theirs! When the Protestants say, ‘My sabbath is Sunday,

- What are they saying?
- What does God say about their sabbath?
He says:

Verse 14: “Your new moons and your appointed feasts My soul hates...”

I will remember this as long as I live. I had the unusual duty of being the minister in Salt Lake City, which was the heart of Mormon land, and so I was driving, and this was when I first moved there, and I was driving down this road and here is the sign:

Remember the Sabbath to keep it Holy; see you in church on Sunday

I almost wrecked the car! This is the Sabbath that God hates! But that’s how people take the name that God has and they put it on their days. That’s what God hates! This has nothing to do with God’s Sabbaths!

- Can a person keep the seventh-day of the week as we know it, the true Sabbath, and it still be not a Sabbath to God, but a Sabbath to themselves even though it’s on God’s day? Yes, they can!
- How can they do that? Keep it their own way!

Add so many man-made traditions on it like the Jews do today, that the Sabbath is an absolute total burden? Like they do in Israel if a car goes down the street, they stone it!

- Which is more work, the person driving the car down the street or the stoning of the car?
- Can you imagine stoning a car?

Here is what it has to be in worshipping God—the day is important, but what is secondary importance on that day; actually the primary importance? You’ve got to have the right day in order for this to work!

John 4:20—the woman of Samaria said: “Our fathers worshiped in this mountain, but You say that the place where it is obligatory to worship is in Jerusalem.’ Jesus said to her, ‘Woman, believe Me, the hour is coming when you shall neither in this mountain nor in Jerusalem worship the Father. You do not know what you worship. We know what we worship, for salvation is of the Jews. But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in Spirit and in Truth...” (vs 20-23).

That’s what makes the seventh-day the spiritual day to keep, when you worship the Father in Spirit and in Truth.

“...for the Father is indeed seeking those who worship Him in this manner. God is spirit, and those who worship Him must ... [the word there in the Greek is ordained, obligatory, mandatory ...worship in Spirit and in Truth” (vs 23-24).

God says, Isaiah 58:1: “Cry aloud, do not spare, lift up your voice like a ram’s horn, and show My people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.”

What do you need to do then? You need to repent and worship God in Spirit and in Truth! IF you are keeping the Sabbath, but you’re not keeping it by loving the brethren and loving God, THEN you are not keeping it in Spirit and in Truth and worshipping God. We all have to grow in this more. I can’t say that any of us are perfect in it.

Verse 2: “Yet, they seek Me daily, and seem eager to know My ways...”

Nothing could be more true of Americans than this. ‘In God we trust! We are a Christian nation! Oh, we want to know God’s Word’ and all this sort of thing.

“...as a nation that did righteousness, and one that did not forget the ordinance of their God. They ask of Me the ordinances of justice; they seem eager to draw near to God. They say, ‘Why have we fasted, and You do not see? Why have we afflicted our soul and You take no knowledge?’ Behold, in the day of your fast you pursue your business and exploit all your workers. Behold, you fast for strife and debate, and to strike with the fist of wickedness; you cannot fast as you do this day, and expect to make your voice to be heard on high” (vs 2-4).

Here is one of the conditions if you are going to return to God:

Verse 13 “IF you turn your foot away from the Sabbath... [walking on it, polluting it, trampling it, doing your own thing] ...from doing your own desires on My Holy Day, and call the Sabbath a delight, the Holy of the LORD... [this applies to the Holy Days] ...honorable; and shall honor Him, not doing your own ways, nor pursuing your own desires, nor speaking your own words, then... [notice all those conditions] ...you shall delight yourself in the LORD...” (vs 13-14).

That way then no man is going to stand in the way and make you bitter or turn you from God!

“...and I will cause you to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed you with the inheritance of Jacob your father, for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it” (v 14).

That’s why it is so very, very, important, so it comes all right back to the very basic thing that the Apostle John said that IF we love God and keep His commandments, this is how we know that we know God.

Brethren, I know that none of you are disbelieving in keeping the Sabbath because you're all here! But it's very important for us to know and understand what God thinks about it and what we need to do so that we can also do better than we have been doing and how that it is important and right.

The next time you hear anyone say, like I did, 'I keep Sunday because...' then you will know that they have chosen their own sabbath, which God says, 'I hate!'

But IF you want to delight in God, keep His way, keep His Sabbath, keep His Words!

CHAPTER FIVE

Importance of the Sabbath

Fred R. Coulter

Let's look at something very important in Mark 13 and Matt. 24. I know when I first thought about this, and when I first let it penetrate into my mind to get some of the thinking of God, rather than the thinking of men about what they think God says; because some people have said we've published the Gospel around the world already. They have already had their witness.

But those people are long since gone and the magazine they claimed that did it, now has been reduced in circulation from 8-million, to 1.5-million, and the world is still going on. But here is what it says right here:

Mark 13:10—it's talking about the end-times: "And the Gospel must first be published among all nations." What do you have in your hands? You have the Gospel! The Gospel being published in all nations refers to the Word of God; it does not refer to someone preaching about the Gospel. The Gospel will be preached in all the world (Matt. 24).

Now let's understand something concerning the Old Testament. We're going to make this just a little bit different today.

Heb. 4—we're going to come back to Heb. 4 and look at it a little later—because we are going to see that one of the major teachings of Jesus Christ did in fact, have to do with:

- the Sabbath Day
- your capacity to work
- your capacity to eat and drink

Hebrews 4:2: "For truly, we have had the Gospel preached to us, even as they also did..."

Who is Paul talking about? The children of Israel! So, they had the Gospel preached unto them in the form that God gave that to them.

"...but the preaching of the Word did not profit them, because it was not mixed with faith in those who heard" (v 2). They had the Gospel preached to them as well!

What is this telling us? This is telling us that the Gospel includes both what is known as the Old Testament and the New Testament. Yes, indeed it surely, surely does!

Remember several weeks ago we covered the Scripture—let's go there for just a minute just to review—because I think a lot of times when someone comes along with dynamite and blows up your foundation, which is what has been happening, you need to go back and repeat some things. Let's go back and repeat some of these things.

Luke 24—here's why the Gospel was also in the Old Testament and as we know: a covenant is God's arrangement or agreement with you! In every covenant, there are always the Laws of God that go right through all the covenants. Here is a very, very important section in the Scriptures.

Luke 24:25: "Then He said to them, 'O foolish and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken!'"

- Does Christ expect us to believe the prophets? Yes, absolutely!
- Is that part of the Gospel? It surely is!

It told an awful lot about Jesus Christ, and it's telling an awful lot about what's going to happen at the end of the world!

- Is that not part of preaching the Gospel to the whole world? Sure it is!

Verse 26: "Was it not necessary for the Christ to suffer these things, and to enter into His glory?" And beginning with Moses... [Moses is part of the living Word of God] ...and from all the prophets, He interpreted to them the things concerning Himself in all the Scriptures" (vs 26-27).

That was quite a Bible study. How would you like to have been at that Bible study where Christ Himself was telling you?

Verse 28: "And as they approached the village where they were going, He appeared to be going on farther. But they constrained Him, saying, 'Stay with us, for it is toward evening, and the day is declining.' And He entered in as if to stay with them. And it came to pass, as He sat at the table with them, He took the bread and blessed it; and after breaking it, He gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened..." (vs 28-31).

That's what has to happen with Christ, your eyes must be opened! That's why Judaism is so dead. As we covered several weeks ago, the fig tree was cursed from the roots up. You have to have your eyes opened and only Christ can open them.

“...and they knew Him; and He disappeared from them” (v 31). If you are born again, that’s what you should be able to do!

There are some people who say they are born again, and they make fun of those... What was the old test, the hatpin test? Stick yourself and see if you bleed! The better one is just walk through the wall. That will be far more convincing.

Verse 32: “And they said to one another, ‘Did not our hearts burn within us as He was speaking to us on the road, while He was opening the Scriptures to us?’ And they rose up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and those with them assembled together, saying, ‘In truth, the Lord has risen! And He has appeared to Simon.’ Then they related the things that had happened to them on the road, and how He was known to them in the breaking of the bread. Now, as they were telling these things, Jesus Himself stood in their midst and said to them, ‘Peace be to you!’” (vs 32-36).

This is part of the glory that the disciples, especially John, wrote about where he says, ‘We beheld His glory as the only begotten Son of God.’ They saw Him transfigured on the mountain. They saw Him in His glorified form at that point, and now they see Him raised from the dead.

Verse 37: “But they were terrified and filled with fear, thinking that they beheld a spirit apparition. Then He said to them, ‘Why are you troubled? And why do doubts come up in your hearts?’” (vs 37-38).

We need to understand that also, today, in our day. They had to live through the time to see Christ killed and then resurrected from the dead. Today people come along and try and put fear in your hearts and fear in your minds and try and manipulate things to their own use.

Now, as Carl [Franklin] and I were talking yesterday. We talk quite often But he said and I wrote it down:

It’s one thing to be moved by God to do His will...

Isn’t that something? That is true! That’s what God wants. God wants someone to love, because He is capable of loving the whole world perfectly! God wants someone who will have a relationship with Him, with His Spirit, to love Him. So, it’s one thing to be moved by God to do His will...

That’s why there are a lot of independent Sabbath-keepers out there that are being moved to do the will of God! How many people are out there doing that? God is going to bring them! God is going to call them!

Then he says: “It’s one thing to be moved by God to do His Will; it is another thing to presume that you can force God to be moved to do your will.”

That’s really quite a profound thing! It’s one thing to be moved to do the Will of God; it’s quite another thing for you to presume that you can move God, or force God to do your will.”

This is why this is so important when we come to Luke 24 about understanding the Word of God.

Luke 24:39: See My hands and My feet, that it is I... [v 40]: “And after saying this, He showed them His hands and His feet. But while they were still disbelieving and wondering for joy, He said to them, ‘Do you have anything here to eat?’ Then they gave Him part of a broiled fish and a piece of honeycomb. And He took these and ate in their presence. And He said to them, ‘These are the words that I spoke to you when I was yet with you, that all the things which were written concerning Me in the Law of Moses and in the Prophets and in the Psalms must be fulfilled.’ Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures” (vs 39-45).

That’s how you understand the Bible, by Christ sending His Spirit to be with you to open your mind! Can God do that anywhere? anytime? with anyone? Yes, He can! I think God is going to demonstrate it. I think God is going to purposefully do that so that if any minister, any minister at all or any person be so presumptuous to think that they have a corner on the market with God to force Him to do their will, God is going to do just the opposite! You can be guaranteed that!

Now let’s see something concerning the will of God concerning what is in Law of Moses. What is in the Law of Moses that is most objected to? Obviously the Sabbath!

It’s even to the point now where people are being taught that ‘it’s okay to work on the Sabbath’ if your family is starving or to do good humanistic works on the Sabbath, such as build houses for Habitat for Humanity. After all, God doesn’t want you to starve and God wants you to provide for your family because if you don’t provide for your family, you’re ‘worse than an infidel.’ Hear those Scriptures, and yes, yes, yes!

IF you’re sleepy and not studying the Bible and if you don’t know what the Word of God is, THEN you’re going to be in really bad shape.

But the truth is, the Ten Commandments are a part of the Gospel. If the Gospel is also contained in the Old Testament, are not then the Ten Commandments part of the Gospel?

Let's go to Deut. 5 where the Ten Commandments are listed there, and let's just read the ones concerning the Sabbath. We'll ask some questions concerning the Sabbath so that we will know. Now I'm covering some of what I know is very basic, and I kind of feel like the Apostle Paul when he wrote the book of Hebrews; he said, 'Can't we just go beyond the principles of Christ unto perfection?'

Well, I would have to say no, because we've got to go back and pick up the basics every once in a while. Too many people are not ready to go on to perfection. We need to cover this so we know exactly what we are saying.

Deuteronomy means the second giving of the Law. There are many things concerning the Gospel of Christ and the Gospel as to how we should keep it in the New Testament; many, many things.

Deuteronomy 5:12: "Keep the Sabbath Day..." In Exo. 20 says to remember the Sabbath. Keep is pretty direct! Does God want us to keep the Sabbath? Yes!

Verse 12: "Keep the Sabbath Day to sanctify it as the LORD your God has commanded you. Six days you shall labor and do all your work. But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God..." (vs 12-14). IF you love God and fear God and keep His Commandments:

- Are you going to keep it?
- Is it not part of the Gospel of Christ? Yes, it is!

"In it you shall not do any work..." (v 14).

If any man comes along and says to you, 'The Sabbath for us today is Christ in us, and the rest of Christ—being in us—is our Sabbath.'

Do you know what that explanation is? That is mental insanity! That's not true! Christ in you motivates you to keep the Sabbath correctly, not the opposite to give up on it.

"...In it you shall not do any work, you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your manservant, nor your maidservant, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your livestock, nor your stranger within your gates, so that your manservant and your maidservant may rest as well as you. And remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt" (vs 14-15).

Now when we come to the days of Unleavened Bread, which we will be coming to here very quickly—it will be upon us faster than we know—what does Egypt picture? Egypt is a type of sin! The Pharaoh is a type of Satan. They're the ones who have you working seven days a week because you are slaves to the system. So, he is saying to remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt!

Now today if Christ were here to open our minds to tell us what it would be, it would not surprise me one bit if He said, 'You are a slave to this world's system! Therefore, you keep the Sabbath and on the Sabbath Day you remember what it was like to live without the Sabbath!' It is quite instructive.

"...and the LORD your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand..." (v 15)

- Who calls any individual? God does!
- Does it take a mighty hand, sometimes something even greater than a mighty hand?
- What is the strongest thing in the world to change? The human mind!

When God's Spirit comes to call you and bring you out of the world, that's greater than a mighty hand, because He is not just changing your position from one place to another, He is changing your mind from being hostile to God to opening your mind to love God! That's a tremendous difference. So, He:

"...and the LORD your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and with an outstretched arm. Therefore, the LORD your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath Day" (v 15). He commanded you!

Matt. 6 is built upon the Sabbath commandment, since we understand that the Sabbath is part of the Gospel, and we will see that confirmed when we come to Heb. 4. This is very basic for us to go through, because there are people now who have kept the Sabbath for years and are wondering: Should we keep the Sabbath?

- What happens when someone comes along and teaches you to sin?
- Does anyone know what that is called in the Bible?
- It is the doctrine of Balaam!

Balaam was hired by Balak to come and curse the children of Israel (Num. 22-24). Balaam went up on a mountain and he saw all the children of Israel, and all he could do was bless! So, Balak gave him all this money and he was coming out of his gourd, saying:

Look, I gave you this money, and I hired you to curse them, and you went up here on the top of the mountain and you blessed them. Now go on up there and curse them.

So Balaam goes on up again, and he blesses them. Balak is really getting out of shape and he's really getting mad, 'Didn't I hire you to curse them!' Balaam said, 'Well, I can only do what the LORD will allow.' Then Balak said, 'Now go on up there again and curse them.' So, Balaam went up and blessed them with the longest best blessing that you could read!

Balak was really angry, and Jude tells us that what Balaam did was teach Balak to cast a stumbling block in front of the children of Israel to entice them to sin so that God would have to correct them. That's happening within any church:

- Sunday-keepers are doing that in relationship to Sabbath!
- Sabbath-keepers who are now ready to shift over to Sunday-keeping, are they not doing the same thing by saying it's okay to work on the Sabbath, when God says you shall not do any work?

It's one thing if there is an 'ox in the ditch,' or if a car is broken down, but you don't go to the junkyard every Sabbath and resurrect all the cars! In other words, you don't throw them into the ditch, and that's what they are doing!

Matthew 6:24 is inexorably tied to the Sabbath: "No one is able to serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other..." it always happens!

Have you ever worked for a partnership where the bosses were equal, and then they got into a feud? Try that some time; it'll give you fits!

"...or he will hold to the one and despise the other..." (v 24). Is that not happening with those who are rejecting and despising the Laws of God? the commandments of God? Yes, indeed!

"...You cannot serve God and mammon" (v 24).

Let's look at this thing concerning master. It could also be translated lord because it comes from the Greek word 'kurios.' Let's look at that in relationship to the Sabbath, and you're going to hear a passel of sermons that are coming out that are going to cover a lot of these same things.

Mark 2:23: "Now, it came to pass that He went through the grain fields on the Sabbaths..."—not corn as we understand corn, but that wouldn't be too bad. If you were back in Iowa walking through a cornfield and the corn was ripe and you just reach up and snap off an ear and peeled it back. Have you ever eaten that fresh, sweet corn right off the cob, raw? Oh, it's good!

"...and as His disciples made their way through the fields, they were picking and eating the grain. Then the Pharisees said to Him..." (vs 23-24).

This is their own law, because it says that you shall not reap the corners, you shall leave it for the poor, and if anyone is passing through your field, he can pluck a little and eat, but he is not to stop there and encamp and harvest. But the Pharisees said if you pluck a head of corn on the Sabbath, you're working, you're laboring, you're harvesting. That's not a Law of God!

"...Look at them! Why are they doing that which is not lawful on the Sabbaths?" (v 24). There was no Law against it, except their own tradition!

Jesus answered with another one for them to figure out, which was greater and harder to figure out!

Verse 25: "And He [Jesus] said to them, 'Have you never read what David did when he was hungry and in need of food, he and those with him? How in the days of Abiathar the high priest, he entered into the house of God and he ate the showbread..."

The showbread was a loaf of bread that was especially baked and was in a special container. There was one loaf for each one of the twelve tribes of Israel, and these were before the Lord constantly. They had to change them every week, and the priest could eat it and give it to his family.

- Who was David? He was not yet king at that point; he was the king-designate!
- What was David also in addition to being the king-designate and later to be king?
- Was he not also a prophet of God? Yes, he was!
- Did he not prophesy concerning Christ in the Psalms, concerning many things in the Psalms? Yes, he did!

The correct answer is that even though it was unlawful for anyone else to eat it, the truth is, to give it to David and David to give it to his men because they had need, was not against the Laws of God whatsoever.

"...which it is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and he also gave it to those who were with him?" (v 26).

Jesus gave them something to try to figure out. If they are so smart and condemn people for plucking a head of grain, then go figure this one out. If you want to figure out between what is lawful and what is not lawful, because the most important thing is that you worship and serve God in Spirit and Truth.

Verse 27: “And He said to them, ‘The Sabbath was made for man...’”

As we have seen in the past, for the purpose of fellowshiping with God, not just for the purpose of fellowshiping with each other. That is necessary and that is true, but if we just fellowship with ourselves and God is not there, well then there is no reason for us to come together then is there? It was made for man for that specific purpose.

“...and not man for the Sabbath” (v 27). In other words, man is not going to go tell God—Who made and created the Sabbath—‘God, I don’t want to keep Your Sabbath. It gets in the way. Now I can’t earn a living.’

What do you think Satan wants to get the whole world bound up into; being so busy just like in Egypt that you have to work seven days to meet the bare meager things of even living. So, man is not going to come along and tell God or force God! That’s why this is so significant: It is another thing to presume that you can force, or make God to be moved to do your will!

Verse 28: “Therefore, the Son of man... [Jesus Christ] ...is Lord... [Master—‘Kurios’; you cannot serve two masters (Matt. 6:24)] ...even of the Sabbath.”

He is saying the same thing here in Mark 2! The Sabbath was made for man by God, and not man for the Sabbath, because there is one Lord of the Sabbath: Jesus Christ! You can’t serve two Sabbaths to do the activities of men.

Verse 28: “Therefore, the Son of man is Lord even of the Sabbath.” This tells us that the Christian Sabbath is the same day that God gave to ancient Israel, the seventh day of the week, and Christ is Lord of it

Now let’s read what Jesus says, and this ties directly in with the Sabbath. Dwight Blevins from Grand Junction called me and he’d been studying this, and he is the one who planted the seed for today’s message. He said that when you read Matt. 6, ‘Is this not tied directly into the Sabbath and working?’

Matthew 6:24: “...You cannot serve God and mammon.” That’s very interesting; you can’t keep the Sabbath while you are working on it to earn a living. And mammon is living riches, to get money.

Verse 25: “Because of this I say to you, do not be anxious about your life as to what you shall eat and what you shall drink... [the very basic necessities] ...nor about your body as to what you shall wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Observe the birds of heaven: they do not sow, neither do they reap, nor do they gather into granaries; and your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much better than they?” (vs 25-26).

What is He really saying here? IF you don’t trust God to provide for you—obviously in the Sabbath-keeping situation here—THEN you are counting yourself less than the birds. You are counting yourself in a situation that you are really actually saying, ‘God cannot provide for me.’ That’s accusing God!

Verse 27: “But who among you, by taking careful thought, is able to add one cubit to his stature? And why are you anxious about clothing?... [‘I know you need to be clothed, don’t worry about it’] ...Observe the lilies of the field, how they grow: they do not labor, nor do they spin; but I say to you, not even Solomon in all his glory was arrayed as one of these” (vs 27-29). God is going to clothe you!

- if He is going to take care of the plants
- if He is going to provide for the birds
- if He is going to provide for His whole creation which He does! His whole creation is an expression of His love to all of mankind!

Verse 30: “Now, if God so arrays the grass of the field, which today is and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall He not much rather clothe you, O you of little faith?”

That’s why we have said that the Sabbath is a test commandment. The truth is, every commandment is a test commandment! ‘Will you keep My commandments or no?’ Yes, every one is! So you have to have faith.

Verse 31: “Therefore, do not be anxious, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘With what shall we be clothed?’” But some will say:

- this Sabbath commandment is pretty tough
- my bank account is really getting low
- my wife over here is nagging at me
- my children are hungry and they have holes in their shoes; they’re just about ready to go barefoot
- therefore, God, I’m going to break the Sabbath and go work because I don’t have one bit of faith in You for You to provide

That’s what they’re saying!

What should they do? They should go to God, and if they’re having a difficult time on the Sabbath Day, pray and draw closer to God. Ask for His Spirit in love, and do the things that please God. He'll gladly provide for you!

I talked to a man whose wife was just 'beating him over the head,' so to speak:

You turned down all these jobs because of the Sabbath. This last one was really a good one. Now the Church says you can work on the Sabbath, and yet, you refused.

He held to keeping the Sabbath and God blessed him with a better job than any of those that he turned down. God was able to provide! Can He not do that? Yes!

Verse 32: "For the nations seek after all these things...."

- they work seven days a week
- they don't keep the Sabbath

So, this is intrinsically bound up in the Sabbath command!

"...And your heavenly Father knows that you have need of all these things" (v 32). God knows!

- If you know, God knows!
- If God knows, He'll take care of it!
 - ✓ maybe not in the way you think or in the means or manner in which you suspect
 - ✓ maybe it will not be as much because there are other lessons to learn
 - ✓ maybe it will be more than you expect because God is blessing you above and beyond

That's all in God's hands, and that's all in God's relationship with you!

Verse 33: "But as for you, seek first the Kingdom of God..." That's what it needs to be. God will take care of it!

Can you truly seek the Kingdom of God if you're not keeping the Sabbath, when the Sabbath pictures the whole situation concerning the Kingdom of God? NO!

"...and His righteousness..." (v 33)—the imputed righteousness of God! That's what you are to seek.

- Would God break His own Sabbath?
- Did God break His own Sabbath?
- NO!

If you go back and read Exo. 16 and the giving of the manna, what did God do? He gave manna for six days and five of those days, He said:

Now look, you just go out and you get a certain amount for everyone. Don't keep it over to the next day because it's going to breed worms and stink. But on the sixth day, you go out and you gather twice as much, and then you prepare for the Sabbath and you can keep it over and it won't breed worms and stink.

Consider the fact that this happened for forty years, every single week! That's quite a thing! Some of them thought, 'I'm going to go out and get some manna on this Sabbath Day! So, they went out to look and God said, 'How long refuse you to keep My commandments?' And that was long before the giving of the Ten Commandments.

Verse 33: "But as for you, seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you." Just exactly what you need!

Some people are going to be blessed more than others. Does that mean they are more righteous? NO! It does not! It just means that God has blessed them more than others. So therefore, if someone has more than you, you don't get mad at God and say, 'You didn't give it to me; You gave it to him.' That's not it. Here is what we are to do:

Verse 34: "Therefore, do not be anxious about tomorrow..."—do not be worried! If you have faith in God and trust in God, He will provide!

"...for tomorrow shall take care of the things of itself. Sufficient for the day is the evil of that day" (v 34).

Isn't it true that every day has got it's own problems? So, handle those day-by-day. How do we differentiate what I said by one person receiving more of a blessing than another, as compared with what it says in the Old Testament that if you do these things, you will be blessed? I didn't say the lack of blessing, I just said that God may give someone more, bless them with more than you, I'm not saying that He isn't going to bless you or provide for you. Let's see how this all ties in together!

Matthew 6:9: "Therefore, you are to pray after this manner... [which is how you develop faith] ...'Our Father, Who is in heaven, hallowed be Your name; Your Kingdom come; Your will be done on earth, as it is in heaven'" (vs 9-10).

That's what we need; we need the will of God. That will answer the question: How is God going to bless us? Maybe God is going to bless us with a trial because He has a greater purpose in mind. Sometimes we don't know why we're going through those trials that He has a greater purpose in mind, but nevertheless, that's how God works.

Verse 11: “Give us this day our daily bread...” That ties in with the rest of Matt. 6 where He says, ‘Give no thought about what you will eat, what you will drink...’ and so forth, for God will take care of you!

Now in relationship to that let me read this letter here:

We were members of the WCG for about twenty-five years. Then things started to change. First off, they had first, second, third tithe, tithe of the tithe, excess second tithe, building fund, and special funds, work two or three jobs if you had to, etc., to keep it up, and tithe on the gross. They live like kings in mansions and pools and two or three homes, get planes—something is rotten in California. I had to get out. Now changes again! Work on the Sabbath! Work on the Holy Days! Holy Days are not commandments. Eating unclean meats is okay, etc. Anyway, your book Lord, What Should I Do is refreshing. Please send me four copies.

So, I will!

We get many, many such letters. We can help that way an awful lot. When you wrap your whole life up in serving God and then someone comes along and steals it from you, and then after they steal it they begin throwing it away, it's no wonder that there are a lot of people in just such terrible, terrible shape out there.

Let's go back and read some commands concerning the Sabbath. We do need to have this basic sermon concerning the Sabbath, in the light of the things that are going on, and I just want you to understand.

Exodus 16:25—after the whole incident concerning the giving of the manna: “And Moses said, ‘Eat it today, for today is a Sabbath to the LORD. Today you shall not find it in the field. Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, in it there shall be none’” (vs 25-26). There will be no manna there!

- What is this also telling us?
- What was manna? Food!
- Who provided it? God did!

That ties right in with Matt. 6!

- Is not God able to provide? Yes!
- Does He want you to work on the Sabbath? No!

As we saw, God said no work, not any work! Don't be throwing everything into the ditch so you have an excuse to work. There won't be any out there. If God was not going to send the manna, and there wasn't going to be anything out there for them:

- Do you think that God will bless anyone for Sabbath-breaking when they know better?
- Do you think that God is going to bless them with their work?
- What's going to happen to these poor people who say, ‘I believe what so-and-so said about it being okay to work on the Sabbath. I'll go ahead and work on the Sabbath’?
- What happens if they lose their job? They are going to be in worse shape, because with the devising of men you are not going to force God to do your will!
- God is not going to bless that effort
- God is not going to prosper you in what you do when it is sin

We have all tried it! Haven't we all kidded ourselves and said, ‘God understands, this sin won't hurt a bit. After all I'm trying to do good.’ That's what everyone wants to do; do good in their sinning! I've done that.

- Did I prosper in it? No!
- Did I do well in it? No!
- Was I happy in it? No!
- Was God pleased in it? No!
- Did God in His mercy and graciousness and love, lead me to repentance? Yes!

Which means that He doesn't want me to do it! So, it is the same way with any of us and in anything we do.

Verse 27: “And it came to pass that some of the people went out on the seventh day in order to gather...” These are:

- hardworking people
- diligent
- workaholics
- mannaholics

They want to go out and get more manna!

“...but they did not find any. And the LORD said to Moses...” (vs 27-28).

This is really quite something, what He said here. He didn't say, ‘Now I understand. You know these people have been bound up in Egypt for so long, and I know that they worked every day. Now you know I understand that they had to go and look just to satisfy their own curiosity.’ NO!

Verse 28: “...‘How long do you refuse to keep My commandments and My Laws?’” I want you to make special note of that; that's a very important verse! Why?

Because when people get into these arguments concerning Old Testament/New Testament laws and commandments and the giving of them, and so forth; please understand that the laws and commandments of God were in effect before they ever got to Mt. Sinai, before God ever spoke them! That's what it is saying right here:

“...‘How long do you refuse to keep My commandments and My laws? See, because the LORD has given you the Sabbath...’ (vs 28-29). It is a gift! The Sabbath is a creation and a gift from God:

- so that you can fellowship with God
- so that you can love God
- so that God can love you
- so that God can instruct you out of His Word
- God is the One Who has a corner on the Sabbath!
- God is the One Who has a corner on the Truth!

Not us! God has given you the Sabbath!

“...therefore, He gives you the bread of two days on the sixth day.... [another gift, a miraculous gift the bread of two days] ...Let each one stay in his place. Do not let any one go out of his place on the seventh day.’ So, the people rested on the seventh day” (vs 29-30).

Exo. 20—we’re just going to read some very important things here, very fundamental for us to understand:

Exodus 20:8: “Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it Holy.” *No other day can be Holy, except the Holy Days! Sunday is not Holy; God never made it Holy!

Verse 9: “Six days you shall labor and do all your work. But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God. In it you shall not do any work, you, nor your son, nor your daughter; your manservant, nor your maidservant, nor your livestock, nor the stranger within your gates; for in six days...” (vs 9-11).

It goes back to creation. What is the authority of the Sabbath and the Ten Commandments? It’s a creation, God made it! When you keep the Sabbath:

Verse 11: “For in six days the LORD made the heaven and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day. Therefore, the LORD blessed the Sabbath Day and sanctified it.” The Sabbath is perhaps one of the most often mentioned commands in the whole Bible!

Exodus 23:12: “Six days you shall do your work, and on the seventh day you shall rest, so that your ox and your donkey may rest, and the son of your handmaid, and the stranger, may be rejuvenated. And be watchful in all that I have said to you. And make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of your mouth” (vs 12-13).

We could go through Deut., Num., and Lev. and all of that, but what I want you to do with Exo, 31—which becomes a very important thing concerning the Sabbath—is remember what we did going through and showing in Num. 11 concerning that the Church was an extension of Israel. *That those Gentiles who are called are grafted into the olive tree of Israel! With that in mind:

Exodus 31:12: “And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ‘Speak also to the children of Israel, saying, “Truly you shall keep My Sabbaths, for it is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations to know that I am the LORD Who sanctifies you”’” (vs 12 -13).

- What is the whole purpose of the New Testament for each one of those who are called saints?
- Why are you called saints? Because you have the Holy Spirit of God and you are sanctified!
 - God is the One Who is sanctifying us
 - God is the One Who sanctified the Sabbath
 - He blessed it
 - He sanctified it

Same way with us! That’s why we are to keep the Sabbath. Remember the children throughout your generations:

- If we are part of Israel, now spiritual Israel, are there still generations of Israel? Yes, indeed!
- Can we not have spiritual meaning out of these verses as well because it’s part of the Gospel? Absolutely!

Verse 14: “You shall keep the Sabbath, therefore, for it is Holy to you. Everyone that defiles it shall surely be put to death...”

Maybe not that day; maybe not for many years, but what is the ultimate outcome! ‘The wages of sin is death.’ When you teach people to sin, the wages of sin is death!

“...for whoever does any work on it, that soul shall be cut off from among his people” (v 14).

I’ll tell you what’s going to happen, those who begin breaking the Sabbath by working on it—because now the leader says it’s okay to do it—and after all, ‘He said I could, Lord. If he says I could, Lord, I’m going to. Therefore, I’m justified.’

That's the same old thing of human nature going way back to Gen. 3 when they got caught in their sins. Notice whose fault it was. Notice what happened. God came and He was calling Adam and Eve:

Genesis 3:9: "And the LORD God called to Adam and said to him, 'Where are you?' [they were hiding] ...And he [Adam] said, 'I heard You walking in the garden, and I was afraid because I am naked, and so I hid myself.' And He [God] said, 'Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten of the tree, which I commanded you that you should not eat?'" (vs 9-10).

You can put any commandment in there. 'Have you done that which I said you should not do?' Have you?

- be it the Sabbath
- be it idols
- be it taking God's name in vain
- be it any of the commandments of God
- be it anything in the New Testament

You put it there!

Verse 12: "And the man said, 'The woman whom You gave to be with me...'" What Adam really is saying is: 'God, You're the One; You are at fault, not me, but the woman You gave me!' Adam wanted her, desired her! When God presented her to him, Adam said, 'Now this is bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh. She shall be called woman.' So, you're not going to have a copout by blaming the church leader! Even if the church leader comes and says do this or that or the other thing. IF it is against the Law of God or the commandments of God, you're not to do it!

Verse 13: "And the LORD God said to the woman, 'What is this you have done?' And the woman said, 'The serpent deceived me, and I ate.'"

God took care of them all! He said, 'Look, you're not going to escape the judgment or the penalty for what you have done.'

Likewise today, those who go out and work because a church leader has said it's okay to work—let's understand something concerning things like childbirth, or an accident, or something like that. There are things that need to be done, and you know, babies come because babies come, and it is called child labor; it is painful and it is in travail. So, God certainly expects that to be taken care of. I am sure that if you are coming to Sabbath services and you are in an accident, that you are going to be very happy a highway patrolman is there to help you, or an ambulance is there to help you. In this world there are those things that go on. However:

- How many of you have had an accident coming to Sabbath services? None!
- How many here had your children born on the Sabbath Day?

If a person is a nurse and, say, works in a hospital, there are certain things that need to be done, but I was talking to a nurse who called and she said that there are always plenty of people who want to come and work on Saturday, so 'I just swap shifts with them.' IF your desire is to please God and serve Him, there is going to be a way. God will provide a way. I have often had people ask me this:

- How do you keep the Sabbath at the North Pole? When I get a letter from someone at the North Pole, I'll answer it!

In the meantime, that question cannot be answered because no one is there to keep the Sabbath.

- What do you do when you live in a high northern latitude and you have a whole lot of dark? Then you calculate it by what you see!

That's how you calculate the Sabbath, and it will generally work out to be approximately 24 hours long!

- What about when the sun never sets in the summer? Well, when it dips to its lowest point, in the middle of the lowest point, that's the ending of the day so you go from there!

Exodus 31:15: "Six days may work be done, but on the seventh day is the Sabbath of rest, Holy to the LORD. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath Day, he shall surely be put to death. Therefore, the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations as a perpetual covenant" (vs 15-16).

This is in addition to the covenant that was given at Sinai. This is a special Sabbath-keeping covenant. Why did He make it a special Sabbath-keeping covenant for a perpetual covenant? I would have to say, brethren, for the New Testament Church! Knowing that we would not have a temple, knowing that we would not have a priesthood, but still keep it!

Verse 17: "It is a sign between Me and the children of Israel forever; for in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day He rested, and was refreshed."

Ezek. 20—Why did the children of Israel go into captivity? Because they broke the commandments of God and broke the Sabbath!

This is quite a lesson. How important is it? When we read this, let's understand that God says in the book of Ezekiel three times, 'I don't delight in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his ways.'

Ezekiel 20:1: "And it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that some of the elders of Israel came to ask of the LORD, and sat before me. And the Word of the LORD came to me, saying, 'Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and say to them, "Thus says the Lord GOD, 'Have you come to inquire of Me? As I live,' says the Lord GOD, 'I will not be inquired of by you'"'" (vs 1-3).

In other words, just like I started out: It is one thing to be moved by God to do His Will; it's another thing to presume that you can force or move God to do your will! That's what He just said here. 'Are you going to come and question me?'

"... 'As I live,' says the Lord GOD, 'I will not be inquired of by you.' Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers" (vs 3-4). So now we have a history lesson!

Paul gave a history lesson; what was the history lesson?

1-Corinthians 10:5: "But with many of them God was not pleased, for their dead bodies were strewn in the wilderness. Now these things became examples for us, so that we might not lust after evil things, as they also lusted" (vs 5-6).

What did we just read about in Exo. 16 on lusting, going out to break the Sabbath?

Verse 7: "Neither be idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, 'The people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.' Neither should we commit sexual immorality, as some of them committed, and twenty-three thousand were destroyed in one day. Neither should we tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted Him, and were killed by serpents" (vs 7-9).

Do we not tempt Christ when we reject the Sabbath? Yes, we do!

Verse 10: "Neither should we complain against God..."—murmur! Is that not what's happening? Complaining? Murmuring? Criticizing against God? That's what He is saying in:

Ezekiel 20:3: "... 'Have you come to inquire of Me?..." Are you going to come and complain to Me? Read the whole book of Jeremiah, how merciful God was where He said over, and over, and over again! 'You find some people who will do what is right, and I [God] will turn back this captivity. I'll change it, I don't want them to die.'

1-Corinthians 10:11: "Now all these things happened to them as examples, and were written for our admonition, on whom the ends of the ages are coming."

- Are we living in the last days? Yes!
- More so than Paul? Yes!

Verse 12: "Therefore, let the one who thinks he stands take heed, lest he fall." They are not falling now; they are pushing! Yeah, they are running! Let's have a little history lesson here, quite instructive:

Ezekiel 20:5: "And say to them, "Thus says the Lord GOD: 'In the day that I chose Israel, and lifted up My hand to the seed of the house of Jacob, and made Myself known to them in the land of Egypt..."

- Has God made Himself known to you?
- Did God send His Spirit today to make Himself known? Yes!
- What is the whole thing that we are to know? We are to know God!
 - ✓ we are to know Christ
 - ✓ we are to know the Father

He who says I know Him and keeps not His commandments is a liar and the Truth is not in him!

Didn't we study that in 1-John? Yes, indeed! The one who is keeping the commandments and walking the way that Jesus did, in him is the love of God being perfected! So, just as God chose them, he chose us!

"...when I lifted up My hand to them, saying, 'I am the LORD your God.' In the day that I lifted up My hand to them, to bring them out from the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; then I said to them, 'Let each man throw away the abominations of his eyes...' (vs 5-7). Whatever it may be:

- an idol
- fornication
- adultery
- stealing
- idolatry
- taking God's name in vain
- breaking the Sabbath

"...and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt..." (v 7).

What are we doing today? Back in Memphis Tennessee they've got a whole pyramid back there where they take people through, and they run them through the demonic initiations into the ancient rites of Egyptian religion; right here in the United States.

“...and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.’ But they rebelled against Me and would not hearken to Me. They did not each man throw away the abominations of their eyes, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. And I said, ‘I will pour out My fury against them to fulfill My anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.’ But I worked for My name’s sake, that it should not be profaned before the heathen among whom they were...” (vs 7-9).

In other words, He said even while they were in the land of Egypt they were so involved in idolatry that He was even going to destroy them right in the land of Egypt before He ever called them out. What did they do when they got to Mt. Sinai and Moses was up on the mountain for forty days? They said, ‘Aaron, make us calves.’ So, God didn’t do it.

“...for I made Myself known to them in their eyes, by bringing them out of the land of Egypt. And I caused them to go out from the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. And I gave them My statutes and showed them My ordinances, which if a man do, he shall even live in them” (vs 9-11). The righteousness of the letter of the Law!

Verse 12: “And also I gave them My Sabbaths to be a sign between Me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD Who sanctifies them. But the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness; they did not walk in My statutes, and they despised My ordinances...” (vs 12-13).

Can you imagine what it must have been like? No wonder Moses complained all the time, ‘O Lord, you got me saddled down with all these people.’ You know, when they were good they were the people of God; when they were bad, they were Moses’ people all the way through there.

“...And they greatly polluted My Sabbaths. And I said, ‘I will pour out My fury on them in the wilderness to destroy them.’ But I worked for My name’s sake, so that it should not be profaned before the heathen in whose sight I brought them out” (vs 13-14).

Even Moses said. ‘Now, God, consider what the other nations are going to say if you kill them; that you brought them out here to destroy them. Now think about that, LORD.’ And He did!

Verse 15: “And also I lifted up My hand to them in the wilderness, and swore that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them—flowing with milk and honey, the glory of all lands—because they despised My judgments and walked not in My statutes; and they polluted My Sabbaths; for their heart went after their idols” (vs 15-16).

Now what is the idol today? Mammon, money, dollars, bucks, power, prestige, notoriety, clothes, car! We have so many things out there that could be abominations; it’s unreal.

Verse 17: “Nevertheless, My eye spared them—from destroying them; nor did I make an end of them in the wilderness. But I said to their children in the wilderness... [He is referring to the book of Deut. and the second giving of the Law before they went into the land] ...’Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, nor observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols. I am the LORD your God. Walk in My statutes, and keep My ordinances, and do them” (vs 17-19).

What did Jesus say? If you love Me, keep My commandments! If you love Me, keep My words! Same thing, exactly the same thing.

Verse 20: “‘And keep My Sabbaths Holy; and they shall be a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God.’ But the children rebelled against Me...” (vs 20-21).

All you have to do is read the book of Joshua and the book of Judges. As soon as Joshua and the elders died, what did they do? Right back to Sunday-keeping, Christmas keeping, and mark my words, when they quit keeping the Sabbath, that’s exactly what’s going to happen again. It will happen!

“...They did not walk in My statutes, nor keep My ordinances to do them—the ordinances which, if a man do, he shall even live in them. And they polluted My Sabbaths, and I said, I would pour out My fury on them, to fulfill My anger against them in the wilderness. Nevertheless, I withdrew My hand...” (vs 21-22).

God just finally threw His hands up and said, ‘All right, if you want it I’m going to let you have your own ways, and when you get so filled with your own ways, idolatry, pollution, wretchedness and rottenness, then you come crying to me, then I’ll hear.’

Verse 24—He said: “Because they had not done My ordinances, but had despised My statutes and had polluted My Sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers’ idols. Wherefore, I also gave them over to their own statutes that were not good...” (vs 24-25).

- their own ways
- their own laws
- their own civil governments
- their own religion

He just said, 'I'll just give you over to it. If you want it, have it, you got it; the whole thing.'

“...and their own ordinances by which they could not live. And I defiled them in their own gifts...” (vs 25-26). Worst thing that could happen to anyone is just to be left to wallow in your own sin!

“...in that they caused all that opened the womb to pass through the fire...” (v 26).

In other words, they just went into the whole same situation that the Mayans down in ancient Mexico went through. The reason God destroyed those civilizations is because they were doing the same thing:

- going through the fire
- cannibalism
- offering to the gods

So evil and awful that one of their special sacrifices was to cut open the sacrificial human victim and take out the heart while it was still beating and drink the blood of it. Now you see some of these things and all the archeologists say, ‘I wonder why these civilizations no longer exist?’ Read the Bible!

“...that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the LORD” (v 26). Sometimes God just does that! Just turns you over to your own devices until you learn the lesson. Some things you can learn quite quickly.

We have a series—and in-depth study—on the Love of God that is really the whole heart and core as to why the Church is going through everything it is. When you really understand it, the love of God is the greatest thing, the greatest fulfillment and attainment in your life, and it does take your life.

That’s why as you go through life and life is empty and you get older and there is no satisfaction—that’s why the whole experience of Solomon is there. He had all these physical things and all the power, and all the money and wealth and every convenience you could ever want and he said, ‘I am just a bag of wind. I am just an empty, hollow, frustrated old man.’ Why? Because he never learned the love of God!

The love of God is the greatest thing. We can’t be playing third grade sandbox any more, going back to these things. If someone is not convinced they ought to keep the Sabbath after being in the Church of God 25 years, well then I cannot be too much help to you. You should go help yourself. Isn’t that what Jesus said, ‘You go learn what these things mean.’

Heb. 4 will help us understand. Remember where we just read in Ezek. 20 where He destroyed those in the wilderness because they didn’t believe.

Then He said to the children, ‘Now look, you’re going to go into the ‘promised land,’ now here is what God says.’

Hebrews 3:15: “As it is being said, ‘Today, if you will hear His voice, do not harden your hearts, as in the rebellion.’ For some, after hearing, did rebel, but not all who came out of Egypt by Moses. But with whom was He indignant for forty years?... [notice He didn’t say angered] ...Was it not with those who had sinned...” (vs 15-17).

Can you have the very presence of God in the cloud by day and the fire by night, every day and every night, and have the manna come six days every week, and the Sabbath every week, and still have the gall to keep your own idols? Wow! That’s something!

“...whose dead bodies were strewn in the wilderness? And to whom did He swear that they would not enter into His rest...” (vs 17-18). Going into the ‘promised land’ is a tremendous rest! You compare that with wondering in the Sinai!

I remember one time we went down to Palm Springs. Boy, was it hot, and I thought: How would you like to walk in that desert in all that heat? Yet, they did and still didn’t believe God! So, you see that they could not enter in because of unbelief. The spies came back and said, ‘Oh look, they’re giants. Oh we can’t go in.’ Joshua and Caleb said, ‘Oh yes, God will take care of it for us.’

Hebrews 4:1: “Therefore, we should fear, lest perhaps, a promise being open to enter into His rest...”

That is the ultimate reward of God in the Millennium. Now we are not talking about the ‘promised land,’ we are talking about the Kingdom of God. That’s the rest we are talking about.

“...any of you might seem to come short. For truly, we have had the Gospel preached to us, even as they also did; but the preaching of the Word did not profit them because it was not mixed with faith in those who heard. For we who have believed, we ourselves are entering into the rest, as He has said, ‘So, I swore in My wrath, “If they shall enter into My rest—”’ although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. For He spoke in a certain place about the seventh day in this manner...” (vs 1-4).

This is showing that the Sabbath is a continuous type of the rest of God. The rest of God is not Christ in you, so therefore, you perpetually keep the Sabbath every day. As one man said, ‘When do you work?’ It doesn’t happen that way.

“...‘And God rested on the seventh day from all His works.’ And again concerning this: ‘If they shall enter into My rest—” (vs 4-5)—which we just read about in Ezek. 20.

Verse 6: “Consequently, since it remains for some to enter into it, and those who had previously heard the Gospel did not enter in because of disobedience, again, He marks out a certain day, ‘Today,’ saying in David...” [What was that day? That’s pictured by the Sabbath Psalm quoted here!]: ...after so long a time (exactly as it has been quoted above), “Today, if you will hear His voice, harden not your hearts” (vs 6-7).

Is this not the same thing as it is with every covenant of God? Hear His voice, obey His words, thus says the Lord, thus says Jesus, thus say the Prophets!

Verse 8: “For if Joshua had given them rest...” They understood that it was Joshua that led them into the ‘promised land.’ The sense of it is this way: “For if Joshua had given them rest...” In other words, and that was the fulfillment and the completion of God’s plan, then:

“...He [God] would not have spoken long afterwards of another day” (v 8). That other day is the coming of the Kingdom of God, that other day is the Millennial rest of God!

Verse 9: “There remains, therefore, Sabbath-keeping... [rest] ...for the people of God.” This is an entirely different word! All the way through, the word for rest in the Greek is ‘katapausis’ that means rest, recline, repose from your labor and hard work.

This one, v 9, is an entirely different word for rest and it in the Greek is ‘sabbatismos,’ which means a keeping of the Sabbath! New Testament command. “...therefore, Sabbath-keeping for the people of God.”

- Who are the people of God? The ones that have the Spirit of God! A keeping of the Sabbath!
- Why? Because God’s plan is not complete and the Sabbath pictures the completion of that plan!

Verse 10: “For the one who has entered into His rest, he also has ceased from his works, just as God did from His own works.”

Then comes a statement showing that after we have the Sabbath-keeping what are we to do spiritually?

Verse 11: “We should be diligent, therefore, to enter into that rest... [the ultimate reward of God to us] ...lest anyone fall after the same example of disobedience”—unbelief!

What is it when you tell people you can work on the Sabbath? It is unbelief!

When Christ returns, and every Sunday-keeper knows this if they have read their Bible, and a lot of Sunday-keepers read their Bibles. That’s why some Sunday-keepers are still either closet Sabbath-keepers or they keep the Sabbath. When Christ returns He is going to obviously do away with the Sabbath because it’s an inconvenience to everyone. Of course not!

Isaiah 66:23: ““And it shall come to pass, that from one month to another, and from one Sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before Me,” says the LORD”—every Sabbath!

This is part of what Christ opened the mind and understanding to the disciples:

Isaiah 56:1 “Thus says the LORD, ‘Keep justice and do righteousness; for My salvation is near to come, and My righteousness to be revealed.... [this is just before the return of Christ] ...Blessed is the man who does this, and the son of man who lays hold on it; who keeps the Sabbath from profaning it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil.... [all the commandments] ...And do not let the son of the stranger... [Gentile] ...who has joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, ‘The LORD has utterly separated me from His people.’ And do not let the eunuch say, ‘Behold, I am a dry tree’” (vs 1-3). A eunuch is the most shameful thing to happen to a man!

Verse 4: “For thus says the LORD, ‘To the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths, and choose things that please Me, and take hold of My covenant.’”

Did we not just go through the things that please God? Yes! “...take hold of My covenant...” This can be concerning the New Covenant, but did we not read of a special covenant concerning the Sabbaths of God that include the seventh day and Holy Days in Exo. 31? Yes, we did!

Verse 5: “Even to them will I give within My house and within My walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters; I will give them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off.” Go back and read the promise to the seven churches; ‘...And I will give him a new name...’

Verse 6: “Also the sons of the stranger, who join themselves to the LORD to serve Him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be His servants, everyone who keeps from profaning the Sabbath, and takes hold of My covenant.” Isn’t that amazing? Yes it is!

CHAPTER SIX

Weekly Sabbath

Fred R. Coulter

What we're going to understand is this: The weekly Sabbath is one of the very first things that you begin to understand when God calls you! When I was growing up I was never religious; never in a church. I had an aunt who was a Sunday school teacher, and her name was Aunt Grace; and whenever she would come and visit us she would bring her little felt-board thing, and she would teach us with her little felt-board thing. I always got absolutely bored to tears. Whenever she would come I would say, 'Oh! No! Not again!'

When I was ten-years-old, my folks wanted me to be a 'good boy' so they sent me off to Lutheran catechism. This was held up at the minister's house and my mom would drive me up there, I'd get out of the car, wave bye-bye, walk up the porch. As soon as she was gone, I'd jump over the edge of porch and run off, as I didn't want any religious instruction. Finally they gave up on trying to make me take catechism, and I had no religious exposure at all to anything.

I think I was still in the service. I must have been about 22 at that time, and I was visiting my sister over on Bainbridge Island. So I thought I would go to church and I didn't want to go to a Catholic church, so there was an Episcopal church. I walk into this Episcopal church on Sunday morning and lo and behold it looked just like a Catholic church. I couldn't get over it. Here the priest with his long robes and he has his little staff with the sun-disk on top of it, walking down the aisle and all of that sort of thing. I thought to myself: how's this any different than the Catholic Church.

One other time—I was delivering papers—I must have been about 15, and it was Sunday morning and they were having Easter sunrise services, so I wanted to see what that was like. Here are these thousands of people out there, and so I got my paper route done early and I was standing there watching it and as soon as the sun came up they all bowed down, and I wondered: what on earth is this? It was all Catholic!

So, I had no exposure to religion at all. I was not convinced that Sunday was right one way or the other. But as soon as I heard about the Sabbath, something happened in my mind. It was just like God took a switch and turned it; because I said, 'Ahha! That's got to be it!' I do recall one other event. That was one of my aunts—another aunt on my mother's side—she was a Seventh Day Adventist. Of course, my mother always thought that Seventh Day Adventists were weird, and she proved it to me. My aunt's daughter came over to visit us, and at that time, the Seventh Day Adventists were very strict vegetarians. My mother made up some tuna fish sandwiches and put a lot of eggs in it. So she gave it to her daughter and she loved them. She said, 'Oh this is delicious, what is it?' My mother said, 'Well, it's deviled eggs.' She ate a huge stack of them, not knowing that it was tuna fish and eggs. Well, I didn't know that they were vegetarians until my mother told me with this tuna fish thing.

Then sometime later, we went up to visit them. We get up there and she has meatballs and gravy prepared for us. I thought, well now, that's really down right nice of her. Here, she's a vegetarian and we come and visit and she makes meatball and gravy for us. So, pass around the meatballs and meatball and gravy and everything, so I said I'm going to show her how much I appreciate her effort. So, I heaped on lots of meatballs and lots of gravy and it was the first 'mock meat,' old soybean stuff that I ever had in my life. I knew for sure vegetarian was wrong from that day forward.

There are two fallacies in Ellen G. White's prophecy that all meats would be polluted at the end-time:

1. so are the vegetables
2. they have organic vegetables and organic meat now

So, that was about the sum-total of my religious experience, until I went to college in San Mateo after I got out of the army; and I started the day course, and they require you to take a course in paleontology, which is eighteen weeks long: six weeks of paleontology, six weeks of geology and six weeks of biology. This was my first opportunity in a big class, it was theater style and I was sitting about halfway back up. All the students filed in, filled it all up; there must have been 300-400 students there, and the professor comes out and the very first thing, he gets up there and walks back and forth until it's quiet. One way to get the students to quit talking is to say nothing and walk back and forth, pretty soon it gets quieter and quieter and finally there's silence. He stood up there and he looked at all the students and he said: 'Anyone here who believes in God and the Bible, there is the door. I don't want to hear it during the course of this class.'

Well, not being religious, it hit me the wrong way! How dare anyone tell me that I can't believe in God, though I didn't! It's just kind of a quirk of human nature. I wasn't an atheist, but I didn't believe in God. All my religious experience with my family told me that it couldn't be right. So anyway, that really got me to thinking.

What's the first thing you do? You try and coordinate evolution with creation! But that didn't work. Then, lo and behold, one night in my car I heard the World Tomorrow program. At that time they were really preaching the Bible, and it was Herbert W. Armstrong. He was on KGO at 9:30, and as soon as I heard that program something else clicked in my mind and I knew that that was it. I wrote in and I got the literature and the Plain Truth and as soon as I heard about the things; there was a series on the Ten Commandments; reading that. There was also a series on the two Babylons—Satan's Great Deception; out of the book Two Babylons by Alexander Hislop—and that's very important for people to understand. So, I immediately got the book and I started reading a couple pages every day, going through it, and I heard about the Sabbath and I knew about the Sabbath and I knew that I needed to keep the Sabbath, but I kept putting it off.

About August I went on down to Ambassador College, and a dishwasher who worked at the same restaurant I did went down with me; because where I was working I was passing out literature and I'd listen to the program at night while I was there. I would save all my preparation work to do it back in the kitchen. I could turn on the radio and listen to the World Tomorrow program. He wanted to go and he was a friendly, outgoing guy and so forth; so he went down with me to Ambassador College.

I counseled about baptism, and I wasn't keeping the Sabbath and I was still eating bacon and tomato sandwiches. I decided I was going to quit eating bacon and tomato sandwiches and I'm going to keep the Sabbath. I came on back and I told my boss, I said, 'Look, I'm going to give you two week notice that I need to have off from sundown Friday to sundown Saturday, or I quit.' So he said, 'What for?' I said, 'For my religion.' He said, 'When did you get religious?' I said, 'Ok, if you can't do it, let me know.'

He went back and looked at the schedule and he came back and says: I can't do it. So I said, 'Do you mind if I look at the schedule?' No, go ahead. So I went back and figured it out. And here's how I figured it out: In the winter I would work for the chef from eight in the morning to four in the afternoon on Friday. Then in summer I would work from eleven to seven and get off before sunset. And then I would have all day Sabbath off from sunset to sunset, and then one o'clock in the morning on Sunday morning I would come into the killer graveyard shift. So that's how I was able to keep the Sabbath.

So, everyone who comes into contact with the Truth is going to have to cross the Sabbath bridge somewhere, and you're going to have to make a decision: What am I going to do? Because the Sabbath is the first step in beginning to understand the Bible. Absolutely!

You can understand certain parts of it. There are many Sunday-keepers who understand certain parts, that is true. There are many Sunday-keepers who have not investigated the Sabbath, and in some cases, they can be very sincere in what they believe. But what is happening with Sunday-keepers now, with the advent of the coming one-world religion moving in, more and more Sunday-keepers are losing what they have according to the Scripture that Jesus said, 'Even that which they think they have shall be taken from them.' So, there is that aspect of it, too, that I think is going to open up a whole lot more concerning the Sabbath in the years as we go down the road here.

Why is Sabbath-keeping the key to understanding the Bible? Because it's in the Ten Commandments! James 2 applies to Sabbath-keeping as well. When James wrote this, he was writing to those who were attending the synagogue. Now if you attend a synagogue, do you attend it on Saturday or Sunday? You attend it on Sabbath, Saturday! So therefore, he doesn't mention about Sabbath-keeping here.

Another very important thing that we cover in the message series The Holy Sabbath is that it does not have to absolutely re-duplicate what is said in the Old Testament, in the New Testament. It doesn't have to duplicate it. If it shows it as a practice then it shows it as a binding commandment for New Testament Christians; because that's one of their arguments. 'The New Testament doesn't say anywhere about the Sabbath.' We'll see. Yea, it does!

But here's a principle, James 2:8: "If you are truly keeping the Royal Law according to the Scripture, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself,' you are doing well. But if you have respect of persons, you are practicing sin, being convicted by the Law as transgressors; for if anyone keeps the whole law, but sins in one aspect, he becomes guilty of all..." (vs 8-10).

Remember, these were all Sabbath/Holy Day-keepers at the point he's talking to them. So therefore, their biggest problem was not understanding the Sabbath or Holy Days. Their biggest problem was getting along with each other. Is that not the biggest problem we have today, too? Yes, very similar!

Verse 11: “For He Who said, ‘You shall not commit adultery,’ also said, ‘You shall not commit murder.’ Now, if you do not commit adultery, but you commit murder, you have become a transgressor of the Law. In this manner speak and in this manner behave: as those who are about to be judged by the law of freedom” (vs 11-12).

We can apply the same thing. We can apply the same thing to the Sabbath. We’ll see that in a little bit. Can you then take and have another god and still worship the true God? No! So, I’m going to take the first four commandments; he took the last six there as he was applying them. You apply it to the first four commandments: ‘You shall have no other gods before Me.’ You can’t worship the true God by worshipping a false god. If I’m going to send you a thousand dollars and I send it to him, you never get your thousand dollars. It’s the same thing. I sent it to the wrong person. If you have the wrong god, you can’t possibly have things right.

You might have the right God, but you might be doing it wrongly. That’s why the next commandment: ‘You shall not make any graven image of any likeness of anything that’s in heaven above, the earth beneath, water under the earth, nor bow down to worship them.’ You might have the right God, but if you have an idol then you are worshipping God in the wrong way.

If you have no idols, then you come to the third commandment: ‘You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain, and if you say, ‘Lord, Lord,’ and do not the things which I say,’ then what are you doing? You’re taking His name in vain. Now also this particularly applies to ministers who, if they teach false things in the name of God, are taking His name in vain.

Then you come to the Sabbath one. It’s very profound, very important commandment; right in the middle of all the Ten Commandments. Think of it this way: Think of the Ten Commandments as a whole body. Think of it as a human body, all connected one with the other. Starts out with the head: the first commandment; and ends up with the toes: the last commandment. What if you took this human body and you cut out one foot in the middle, do you have a whole human body? No! As a matter of fact, you might have something kind of dead! So think of that way. Maybe it’ll help you understand about the Sabbath a little bit more.

Exodus 20:8: “Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it Holy.” Very profound! It does not say,

‘one day in seven, honor Me.’ That’s also very profound, because that’s what most people think.

Verse 9: “Six days you shall labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God...” (vs 9-10).

That’s very interesting phraseology when you look at it. It belongs to Him! It is His day! And we’re going to see a little later on He created it.

Now, if it belongs to someone and you steal that time, are you stealing from God? Yes!

“...In it you shall not do any work, you, nor your son, nor your daughter; your manservant, nor your maidservant, nor your livestock, nor the stranger within your gates; for in six days the LORD made the heaven and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day. Therefore, the LORD blessed the Sabbath Day and sanctified it” (vs 10-11).

Now there’s quite a bit we can learn from this, too, which is also very important. The Sabbath always reminds us that God is Creator. When we know that God is Creator, we won’t believe in evolution, will we? No!

It also tells us something else: That God hallowed it, which means to make it Holy. God alone can make something Holy because God is Holy. Can a man make something Holy? No! Sunday-keeping really gets into some very judgmental things concerning God, which are very profound, and most people don’t realize it. But sufficient to say, the Sabbath was made for fellowship with God! It is a day He said, ‘It is a Holy convocation, and on this day I have set it as a perpetual appointment.’

This is why you begin to understand about God, because something happens when you keep the Sabbath that does not happen when you keep Sunday. If you keep Sunday you can understand certain things up to a point. But you really don’t know God, and that’s a vast difference. Keeping the Sabbath is a day that we’re going to see, is a day God made an appointment so that we may know Him.

Leviticus 23:1: “And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ‘Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, “Concerning the appointed Feasts of the LORD...”’” (vs 1-2). We’ll cover the Feasts when we get done with the Sabbath!

“...which you shall proclaim to be Holy convocations, even these are My appointed Feasts” (v 2). They belong to God!

God has given an appointed time every week that He says, ‘I will fellowship with you.’ Now, since He’s not here on the earth, He does not do it face-to-face. He has sent His Holy Word so He fellowships with you through His Word and, and as we're going to see, through His Spirit.

Verse 3: "Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of rest, a Holy convocation. You shall not do any work. It is a Sabbath to the LORD in all your dwellings."

What God desires, since it is a Holy convocation, we are to come together whenever there are enough people to come together, and even if there are only two or three God says He will be there in the midst.

Let's see the overriding reason for the Sabbath, which God has set forth for us. God wants us to have a relationship with Him. This relationship is based upon His Word and His Spirit, through His Son Jesus Christ. This is what the Apostle John was writing to all the people there, so that they can have the fellowship with him.

1-John 1:1: "That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our own eyes, that which we observed for ourselves..."

Not just see with the eyes, but actually to have seen Him in His glorified form. To have gazed upon Him; because John was one of those who was on the Mt. of Transfiguration! That's what it's referring to here.

"...and our own hands handled... [even after He was resurrected from the dead] ...concerning the Word of Life; (and the life was manifested, and we have seen, and are bearing witness, and are reporting to you the eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested to us); that which we have seen and have heard we are reporting to you in order that you also may have fellowship with us; for the fellowship—indeed, our fellowship—is with the Father and with His own Son Jesus Christ" (vs 1-3).

That's the very whole purpose of the Sabbath. He does it spiritually.

1. God has made sure we have His Word; what God has to say to us is contained here
2. God will spend His Spirit to be with you, if you're seeking Truth, and when you're baptized, will be in you, which the fellowship becomes even closer

Genesis 2:1: "Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. And by the beginning of the seventh day..."—because all the way through it says, 'for in six days God made the heaven and earth and all that is in there.'

"...God finished His work which He had made. And He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had made. And God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it because on it He rested from all His work, which God had created and made" (vs 1-3).

On this first Sabbath God fellowshiped with Adam and Eve. Think of that! I've often wondered what that first Sabbath was like, when God talked with Adam and Eve. He says:

I've made you. I'm your God. I've made this beautiful Garden of Eden here for you and look and behold everything is there. You can freely eat of all the trees in the garden except the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil. In the day you eat thereof you're going to die.

And that means in dying you will die, meaning that the whole process of aging and everything that goes along with it will occur.

But I'm going to meet with you every Sabbath Day right here in the garden.

Kind of reminds me of that hymn, I Come to the Garden Alone.

If Adam and Eve had not sinned, which I have a message on that, which was a little difficult to do because that's quite a question: What Would the World have been Like if Adam and Eve had not Sinned? It would truly be a different place, we know that. It would be more like what it's going to be like when Christ returns. That's why God did it. He wanted to fellowship with His creation, and He made us in His image for that very purpose.

Now, let's come to the Beliefs's booklet with all of that as a background, and let's read the statement on it and you will see how we've written the statement, and of course, how the layout of the whole Beliefs's booklet follows step-by-step-by-step all the way through to teach: beginning with God down to the end.

Now, I saw a belief's booklet recently where it says all the way through: 'We believe'—everything that they believe starts out that way—we believe, we believe, we believe. Which is okay if it's really true, but what it really should be—anything concerning beliefs—it should show what God wants us to believe and explain what the Bible teaches us! That's what we've tried to do here with this.

Beliefs and Doctrines of the New Testament Church {booklet of CBCG—truthofgod.org}:

The weekly Sabbath is the seventh day of the week, known as Saturday today.

Now, that has to be clarified. Why does that have to be clarified? How many here have seen a European calendar? The European calendar has Sunday as the seventh day. All business corporations run Sunday as the seventh day. The whole system is already set up for it. All they need to do is just change the calendar slightly, and of course, if you destroy the knowledge of the background of the Truth concerning the Sabbath, then you can come out and say, ‘Well look, Sunday is the seventh day.’ So, it has to be defined carefully.

In the beginning, the Sabbath was created by God. He blessed and sanctified the seventh day at creation as a special day for rest and fellowship with Him. The Sabbath is a memorial of creation and was made for all mankind. It was the commanded day of weekly worship for 3,000 years before the Ten Commandments were given to Israel.

Now we’re going to look at some other Scriptures, which also help define that.

The Fourth Commandment is a reminder to observe and to keep the Sabbath day Holy. As Lord God of the Old Testament, Jesus Christ created the Sabbath by resting on the very first seventh day and by blessing and sanctifying it. In the New Testament, Jesus Christ proclaimed that He is Lord of the Sabbath day....

We’ll look at that Scripture in just a minute!

...During His ministry on earth, He reaffirmed the sacredness of the Sabbath and taught its proper observance. Jesus Christ Himself showed by example that it is right to do good on the Sabbath day, in addition to resting from one’s physical labor and secular business. The apostles of Jesus Christ and the early New Testament Church observed the Sabbath and taught Gentile Christians to observe it.

In the series The Holy Sabbath, I have quotes showing that it was clear up to 300_{A.D.} that the Sabbath was kept. Then the edict of Constantine to shift it over to the Sunday and Constantine was the beast. He is the one who ordered the formation of the Catholic Church by government edict. That’s when the order came down to quit keeping the Sabbath, punishable by death. I have all of that there. The whole history of the Sabbath is one bloody mess. You need to understand that.

The keeping of the seventh-day Sabbath is a special sign of the Covenant between God and His people. God commands that it be observed from sunset Friday to sunset Saturday. During this Holy time, Christians are commanded to rest from their labor and to assemble to worship God and to receive instruction from His Word. Observance of the seventh-day Sabbath is essential for salvation and for true fellowship with God the Father and Jesus Christ.

That’s about as complete a statement as we can have concerning that. Let’s look at two things, which are very important we need to understand. This is a special covenant. Let’s also understand something concerning covenants. All covenants of God have laws and commandments, which must be kept. A covenant is an agreement on how you will do it—or the terms of it—very important to realize concerning a covenant.

I want you to notice the phraseology that God uses as He tells Moses; Exodus 31:12: “And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ‘Speak also to the children of Israel, saying...’”

Now, let’s understand something here that’s very important for those who may not realize it. The Jews do not consist of all the children of Israel. Though the Jews claim that they are. Let me give you an example here:

What if you had eleven brothers, and all the eleven brothers were not identifiable. Then you and your descendants claim everything that belongs to the eleven brothers. You palm yourself off, and your extended family, as all twelve brothers. Not true! There were twelve tribes of Israel, of which the Jews—the tribe of Judah—were one tribe. So this is not talking to Jews, though today, Jews, looking back say it’s only talking about them. Not so! It’s talking to all the children of Israel, all twelve tribes:

“... ‘Truly you shall keep My Sabbaths...’ (v 13)—because He owns them!

- it’s not a hint
- it’s not a suggestion
- it’s not an idea
- it’s not whether you want to or not

Now, you can choose whether you want to obey God or not, that is true. But if you want to obey God then keeping His Sabbaths is a very important thing. Notice it is also a plural, which when we get to the Holy Days, we’ll explain that that also encompasses the Holy Days.

“...for it is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations...” (v 13)—covering a long, long time! We’re going to see a little later on, He says: ‘perpetual covenant.’ That’s important to understand.

“...to know that I am the LORD Who sanctifies you” (v 13). In other words, if you don’t keep the Sabbath you don’t know the Lord! Really! You may know of Him. You may know certain things about Him. But you don’t know Him! That’s why He gave the Sabbaths; that you may know Him.

And with the Holy Days you may know His plan, through Jesus Christ.

Verse 14: “You shall keep the Sabbath, therefore, for it is Holy to you. Everyone that defiles it shall surely be put to death...” This is telling us, spiritually, no Sabbath-breaker’s going to be in the Kingdom of God! Would have to!

“...for whoever does any work on it, that soul shall be cut off from among his people” (v 14).

God does not reach down and kill instantly. To the carnal mind, is deceptive. But it is really a greater punishment...what is one of the greatest punishments you can have in the world and not even know it, and maybe not necessarily even feel any pain right away? What do you suppose the greatest punishment would be? Rejection; being cut off from God!

Now, most people out in the world today are out there doing their shopping. They don’t know they’re cut off from God. They don’t even understand that it’s part of the punishment; because in that they’re having a good time. So you see, being cut off from God has a much different meaning and connotation to it than most people realize. They just don’t know. You’ve heard it said, ‘If you don’t know, you don’t know that you don’t know!’ On the other hand, what else do you have? You have to understand how blessings work.

Who was the most blessed man to ever walk the face of the earth? Jesus Christ! Direct access to God the Father. He was called, ‘This is My Son, the Beloved.’

- Was He always blessed of God? Yes!
- Did He live a miserable life in the flesh? Yes!

Especially His last three and a half years and crucifixion! So, you have to discern how blessings come. But He did all of it for ‘the joy that was set before Him.’ That doesn’t mean He was happy; because when He was on His way up to Jerusalem, He was distressed. He knew what was going to happen. But He was blessed. So you’re right, it’s understanding how blessings come. Blessings don’t come—like I said in the message series Epistle of James—like an ATM machine. You just walk up and put your card in and ching! here it comes. It’s totally different.

Verse 15: “Six days may work be done, but on the seventh day is the Sabbath of rest, Holy to the LORD. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath Day, he shall surely be put to death. Therefore, the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations as a perpetual covenant” (vs 15-16).

Who is Israel today? Israel today is the Church! The spiritual Israel of God is the Church of God today.

Verse 17: “It is a sign between Me and the children of Israel forever; for in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day He rested, and was refreshed.” Those are some pretty powerful commandments there!

Since Jesus Christ is the One Who made the Sabbath, He owns the Sabbath. He was the Lord God of the Old_[transcriber’s correction] Testament Who became Jesus Christ, the Son of God, of the New Testament.

Mark 2:27: “And He said to them, ‘The Sabbath was made for man...’” The Greek there is ‘anthropos’ which means mankind. God made it for all mankind!

Yesterday I had to go shopping. I had to go get some videos and paper—we get it at Costco because we get it there cheaply—and it was jammed; and I couldn’t help but think, it really struck home. You know the scanners they have—boop, boop, boop—and as I was pushing the cart and getting the stuff, all I could hear was boop, boop, boop! I thought, you talk about merchandizing; you talk about making money; and you know, on Saturday, that place is jammed to the gunnels.

Just think how much better the whole world would be if they kept the Sabbath in the letter. Wouldn’t it be nice if we didn’t have to travel miles and miles to come to church; all we would have to do is walk out the door and go down a couple blocks and there’s a church right on the corner. No steeples, no idols, no crosses, no crucifixes. The whole neighborhood is keeping the Sabbath. They almost had that down in Loma Lynda, California; that’s a Seventh Day Adventist town, and they actually closed the post office on Saturday and opened it on Sunday. I didn’t know that until I talked to a postal worker who worked down there.

Just think! All the problems that we have in Sabbath-keeping today would be solved. God originally made it for all mankind. If mankind had the knowledge of God—even in the letter of the Law—wouldn’t that be a marvelous thing indeed? Yes, it would!

“...and not man for the Sabbath” (v 27). God did not make the Sabbath and then make man! He made man and then made the Sabbath and said, ‘Here’s the Sabbath. Fellowship with Me on this day.’

Verse 28: “Therefore, the Son of man is Lord even of the Sabbath.” He is LORD! Now, if anyone professes Him to be Lord, what should they do? They should keep the Sabbath!

We all need to understand this, not only in relationship to the Sabbath, but in relationship to everything concerning God.

Matthew 7:21: “Not everyone that says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord’ ...” He’s Lord of the Sabbath; just saying He’s Lord is fine, but that’s not all there is to it.

“...shall enter into the Kingdom of Heaven, but the one who is doing the will of My Father Who is in heaven” (v 21).

- What is the will of the Father Who is in heaven?
- Did Jesus Christ always do the will of the Father?
- When He created everything that there is, was it the will of the Father that He did it? Yes!
- Was it the will of the Father that He made the Sabbath Day and made it Holy? Yes!

That’s why He is LORD of the Sabbath. If you say, “Lord, Lord,” and do not practice the will of the Father in heaven above, you’re not with God!

- you may have part of God
- you may have some knowledge of God
- you may have some things of Truth of God

But you don’t know God, because He created the Sabbath so that you may know Him. That’s the whole reason.

Verse 22: “Many will say to Me in that day, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy through Your name?... [millions of preachers everywhere; prophesied means just to speak] ...And did we not cast out demons through Your name? And did we not perform many works of power through Your name?’ And then I will confess to them, ‘I never knew you. Depart from Me, you who work lawlessness’” (vs 22-23)—against law!

If you are against the Sabbath Day, are you against a Law of God? If you are against a Law of God, are you practicing lawlessness in rejecting the Sabbath? Yes! Ultimately, yes!

CHAPTER SEVEN

How To Observe the Sabbath Today

Fred Coulter

A Sunday-keeper, watching Church at Home {churchathome.org} clear down in Florida is convicted of the Sabbath, gets a hold of Randy and she said, ‘How do I keep the Sabbath?’ Well, we’re going to have to do some Church at Home on how to keep the Sabbath at home! Unless you can keep it at home first and have a relationship with God, when you get together you’re not going to be able to optimize your fellowship or learning on the Sabbath.

Today I’m going to talk a little bit about Sabbath observance. Let’s see what God commands and then let’s ask: How do we observe the Sabbath today?

You can go to Exo. 16 and that tells you how to observe the Sabbath if you are in an exodus and you are in the wilderness and the only place you have to go is your tent, and you have no Bible. All you have to eat is manna, and if you don’t fix it right on Friday or if you keep it beyond the Sabbath Day, you’re going to be eating maggots and a stinky mess!

What was the command? ‘None of you shall go out of the door of your tent!’ So if we went back to Exo. 16 and said, ‘Oh, here’s how we’re going to keep the Sabbath today.’ No! We can get some principles from it, but let’s go to Exo. 20 and let’s read the command. We’re going to pick this apart a little bit and apply it today, and see how we are to do it.

Exodus 20:8: “Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it Holy.” First of all, you’re to remember it! Lots of times people, even though they’re pretending they are keeping it, are forgetting it and they’re not keeping it Holy. How do you keep it Holy today? We’ll answer that question as we go along!

Verse 9: “Six days you shall labor and do all your work. But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God. In it you shall not do any work, you, nor your son, nor your daughter; your manservant, nor your maidservant, nor your livestock, nor the stranger within your gates” (vs 9-10).

Who came here on donkey back today? Nobody! Now let’s understand something very important: Not all definitions of keeping the Sabbath in the Old Testament in a physical way necessarily apply to today!

Now don’t start thinking, ‘Oh, oh, where are we going with this?’ We’re going to understand how to keep the Sabbath spiritually so when we gather together on the Sabbath the Spirit of God will be here with us, and the Spirit of God in us will all connect together with God and His Word and learn. That’s the whole purpose of Sabbath services today! We also have something that until about 500 years ago we didn’t have. That’s the whole Bible! So all the circumstances become more spiritual in how we keep the Sabbath.

Then He says, v 11: “For in six days the LORD made the heaven and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day. Therefore, the LORD blessed the Sabbath Day and sanctified it.”—made Holy!

All right, we find in Deut. 5 that it says we are to keep the Sabbath. We will talk about keeping the Sabbath and the degree of keeping the Sabbath and how you should do it, but there’s one important aspect of the Sabbath here that he brings out, which is different from what we have in Exo. 20.

Deuteronomy 5:12: “Keep the Sabbath Day to sanctify it as the LORD your God has commanded you. Six days you shall labor and do all your work. But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God. In it you shall not do any work, you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your manservant, nor your maidservant, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your livestock, nor your stranger within your gates, so that your manservant and your maidservant may rest as well as you” (vs 12-14).

How many here have servants in their household? You’ve got lots of them: a stove, dishwasher, light switches, furnace. You have lots of servants, but they are all automated!

- Can you rest your car? If it’s not running!
- Is that resting it?
- Is it wrong to drive a car on the Sabbath?
- How many walked here today? Nobody!

You all came by car!

Here is a key thing we are to remember for the Sabbath that separates us from the rest of the world:

“And remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt...” (v 15).

Tie in Rev. 11:8; Jerusalem today, which is symbolic of the sin of the world is called Sodom and Egypt! So, today we take ‘that you were a slave in the land of Egypt’ and apply it spiritually this way:

- we were all slaves to the system of the world; slave to Satan the devil
- Did God call us out? Yes!
- Did we have an exodus from the world? Yes, but we still live in it!
- How did that happen? Through Jesus Christ Who is called the Way, the Truth, and the Life!

We are not just a community and organization of physical people with the name Israel, we are physical people with the Spirit of God and we are spiritual Israel, which includes all nations and people. Lest we get lifted up in conceit and lest we get lifted up in spiritual pride, let us remember that if you count all Sabbath-keepers in the world there are about 20-million. That’s why Christ is the Head of the Church; He knows where His people are.

That’s why no corporate church—be it the Catholic Church, or be it a Church of God—say, ‘We are the only true Church of God on earth.’ Are you going to limit God? I just have to say, a lot of us have a lot of baggage still hanging in the back of our mind we need to get washed out with the washing of the water by the Word {note our in-depth study: Washing of the Water by the Word} We have a lot of things and concepts of church and people still practicing them that become anchors in growth and overcoming.

How many have faithfully kept the Sabbath for years and years; decades? Probably all of us, we could raise both hands and all ten fingers. Have you ever gone to Sabbath services where it wasn’t sanctified? Now what do I mean by that? To where Sabbath services were centered around:

- extolling a man
- following corporate orders
- politics
- in-fighting among leaders and brethren
 - ✓ How was your Sabbath? Pretty rotten—wasn’t it?
 - ✓ How many times did you go home feeling miserable?
 - ✓ How many times did you wake up and say, ‘Oh, I dread going to Sabbath services, but it’s a Holy convocation, so I’m going.’

You get there and it was totally unprofitable. As a matter of fact, you may have gone to church with a good attitude and came home with a rotten attitude. Did that ever happen to you?

I remember sitting over here in the auditorium in Pasadena and I was doing a little survey because of all of the politics and in-fighting going on. Everyone who wants to repeat Pasadena is going to repeat all the intrigue and hatred and everything that went on there because of the sins. So, that’s not the model to follow. But I remember sitting there and here was this man, he gave a short message. I thought, let’s see how many times he mentions the leader and how many times he mentions Jesus Christ. Well, I forget what it was with the short message, but then the guy for the main message started. So I said, ‘Okay, I’m going to do a tally.’ You know, do tick marks—one, two, three, four, five... So, I put over here the leader, put up his initials. Put over here Jesus Christ. I did tick marks, tick marks. This is when they were trying to politically contain the Church together. By all means, you must keep the Church together so you that you can have the money coming in.

- Isn’t that right?
- Isn’t that the purpose of the church? Wrong!

By all means you must even lie and call all the brethren ‘dumb sheep,’ if they find out about the truth of the philandering of the evangelist.

I’m sitting there listening to this man, one of the approved. You didn’t speak in that auditorium unless you were approved. So, I put a tick mark for Jesus Christ and ten for the leader. Tick mark for Jesus Christ and fifteen for the leader. Believe this or not, in an hour and a half he mentioned Jesus Christ 10 or 11 times and the leader 111 times! Now how is that for a Holy Sabbath? Really rotten!

You kept the command to assemble together, but of what profit was it for you? Not very much! You go back through all the dark days that were going on there, and how many fights between brethren and ministers, husbands and wives, false doctrine, and everything just under a black cloud. Remember those days? Now that’s happening in the Protestant churches today. People are leaving in droves, and they don’t know where to go.

Leviticus 23:1: “And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ‘Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, “Concerning the appointed Feasts of the LORD... [the Sabbath is an appointed Feast of God every week] ...which you shall proclaim to be Holy convocations...”’”(vs 1-2)—Holy assembly!

We’ll talk about that in a little bit so that you understand that a Holy convocation can be very small in number. A Holy convocation does not necessarily mean that you go to a synagogue or a church building.

“...even these are My appointed Feasts. Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of rest, a Holy convocation. You shall not do any work. It is a Sabbath to the LORD in all your dwellings” (vs 2-3). Then it talks about the appointed Feasts in their seasons!

Sidebar on the calendar here for just a few minutes, so be patient. Have you gone through all the calendar material that we have? Four videos and a stack of information! There are many problems with Sabbath-keeping and new moon observation and things like this, which is causing a great deal of confusion among Churches of God and even Seventh Day Adventists who keep the Holy Days, as one of the elders brought up. We’ll try and answer that.

Be prepared to really get your thinking cap on; be prepared to really, really know. All those who are in the helpers’ class, as we call it, I’m going to make that an assignment for everyone of you to do. It’s going to take you some time to go through it. But I will give you just a little review:

When the sundial went back ten degrees during the days of Hezekiah, that got all calendars off everywhere. How many have seen on the History Channel this Greek apparatus with all the gears, tells about the movement of the planet, the movement of the sun. They even had it where they had some things that would compensate for the variation in the moon. The moon goes fast and goes slow. The earth goes fast and goes slow. The orbit of the earth is not exactly perfect.

Some believe that we originally started out with 360 days, twelve months of thirty days and everything was just fine. But then we had the Flood! We know, through the evidence of Velikovsky, close encounters with Mars.

So the last time that the earth had a major astronomical event was during the days of Hezekiah. That threw all the calendars off! How do we get from 360 days to 365-1/4 days? Well, because of astronomical events! Someone did some calculation on it and said that the earth had to slide out of its orbit by 1.4 degrees in order for the sundial to go back 10 degrees.

Now we have five days added to the solar year? The key thing is this: God never loses a second! He had to re-reveal to the priests how to calculate the Holy Day calendar. It has always been by calculation. Yes, there has been observation, but only if it agrees with the calculation. Now we have it in the material that we will send to you a whole book on how to calculate it. If you know how to add, subtract, multiply, and divide, you can calculate.

Because the earth, the moon, the sun, and the heavenly bodies associated with keeping time have all been functioning at different rates and different speeds and different times, you have to base everything on an average. So, the Calculated Hebrew Calendar does that. God gave this to the priests.

Verse 4: “These are the appointed Feasts of the LORD, Holy convocations, which you... [to the Levites] ...shall proclaim in their appointed seasons.”

God gave it to the priests and the Levites. They would determine and calculate when it would be and you can read that in all the material that we send out to you. We have the whole book, Sanctification of the New Moon by Maimonides. You’ve got everything in there. They knew clear back then, the 5,000 permutations or misnomers of the moon. They had all that figured out. They were to proclaim it.

It came on down through the priesthood, even though there was corruption within the priesthood. God preserved that information. Came down to the time of Jesus Christ, there were two schools—Hillel and Shammai. Hillel was the head of the calendar court. He was called a Nasi. He was a priest. He was head of the calendar court. And we can prove that everything that was done during the days of Jesus was done according to the Calculated Hebrew Calendar, because the Passover that He was crucified on was by calculation with two postponements. That was the appointed season.

A little more on the calendar and then we’ll move on. When the temple was destroyed, a whole school of priests moved up to Tiberius and that’s where they preserved the knowledge of the calendar, as well as other things. That’s where they also started writing what later became the Mishnah and later the Talmud. What they did, they wrote down everything that was going on at the temple, because they didn’t know when they would be able to get back to the temple or not. So, they were writing that down.

Later because of persecution they moved over to Jebnah, which is on the coast, right near where Tel Aviv is. If you read the book of Haggai you find that God said the remnant of the Jews would be on the coast. And the Jews in Tel Aviv and the area right near there, Haifa and so forth, have had relative peace because that’s where they should be. They should not be in the West Bank and that’s why they have so much trouble there.

When they moved to Jebnah in the year 354_{A.D.}, Hillel II who was the grandson of Hillel I, great-great-great grandson. He released to the world the knowledge of how to calculate the Hebrew calendar to the world. People come along and say, ‘Oh, he invented the calendar in 354_{A.D.}’ Not true! There was so much persecution against the Jews and against the Christians that he was afraid that that knowledge would be lost, so he revealed it to the world.

If you want an easy way to figure it, we have online the Calculated Hebrew Calendar. You put in the year and up come all the Holy Days including the Passover. We have the best calculated digital Hebrew calendar program, in the world, right on our truthofGod.org website.

Since the priests were to proclaim it, the only proclamation for the Holy Days is the Calculated Hebrew Calendar, which came from the priests—period! No other man is authorized to view the moon or to devise a calendar, because he is not a priest. God never gave the responsibility of creating a new calendar to the New Testament Church.

So everyone who says, ‘Well, I’m going to view it. Let’s watch for the new moon.’ You must be an expert in it, because to truly see the new moon you must be in a particular place in Jerusalem at a particular time and it is only visible between ten and fifteen minutes right after sundown. If you miss it but see it the next day, you’re already a day off and God never loses a day.

Now one final thing concerning the calendar, because it’s important having to do with the Holy Days! You’ve heard of the 19-year time cycle. Why is there a 19-year time cycle? Two reasons:

1. there’s a 19-year time cycle for the sun
2. there’s a 19-year time cycle for the moon

They coincide within one hour and few minutes every 19 years. So every 19 years that hour and some odd minutes is accumulated until you get a whole day. That is called a postponement.

Is that not what we have on the Roman calendar today? Every fourth year we add a day! Why do we do that? Because if we didn’t, we’d lose a quarter of a day every year! That’s why in the 1500s Pope Gregory said, ‘Okay, we’ve lost ten days on the Julian calendar up to today.’ So, what they did, they took in October and they said, ‘We are going to add ten days to the calendar.’ You can take any day, but I think they did it on the fourth of October. The next day was the fifteenth.

All those who don’t believe in postponements still follow along with the Gregorian calendar, which is the one we have today. It was postponed ten days and every four years it’s postponed one day. Postponements are synchronizing adjustments to keep everything in time. Otherwise you wouldn’t proclaim them in their seasons.

Let’s talk about some other aspects of the Sabbath. Let’s come to the book of Nehemiah. Let’s see some things here that are very important. Because there are a lot of people who feel as though we should follow Nehemiah.

Nehemiah 13:14: “Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my good deeds which I have done for the house of my God and for the offices of it. In those days I saw in Judah some treading winepresses on the Sabbath...” (vs 14-15).

- How big is Judah? Very small area!
- How big is Jerusalem? A very small city!

Keep that in mind!

“...and bringing in sacks of grain, and loading donkeys and also wine, grapes, and figs, and all kinds of burdens which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath Day. And I admonished them on the day in which they sold food. And men of Tyre dwelt therein, who brought fish and all kinds of goods, and sold them on the Sabbath to the children of Judah and in Jerusalem. And I contended with the nobles of Judah and said to them, ‘What evil thing is this that you do and defile the Sabbath Day?’” (vs 15-17).

Now let’s look at the setting that we have in Jerusalem. They didn’t have to travel anywhere to keep Sabbath. I don’t know how many synagogues there were in Jerusalem, but they had the temple plus some synagogues all within walking distance. Did they have any of the circumstances we have today in coming to church? No! In this case they were bringing the world to themselves. Today, we live in the world and gather together! Complete opposite! So, then he shut the gates and put guards up there, the Levites, made sure that there was no more buying and selling in Jerusalem. With that in mind, let’s see what happened during the days of Jesus:

Mark 2:23: “Now, it came to pass that He went through the grain fields on the Sabbaths...”

Did Jesus stay in Jerusalem and do nothing on the Sabbath? No! Circumstances were even a little different then. They had synagogues in Galilee, and they had synagogues in various parts of Judea as well. So, here He’s walking. According to Exo. 16 He shouldn’t even have been outside the door of His house, because it says ‘Don’t go out of the door or your tent.’ The Greek here—Sabbaths—is plural:

“...and as His disciples made their way through the fields, they were picking and eating the grain” (v 23).

What does it say in the Old Testament? You’re to keep the Sabbath in harvest time!

Verse 24: “Then the Pharisees said to Him, ‘Look at them! Why are they doing that which is not lawful on the Sabbaths?’”

What were they doing? They were picking the grains, rubbing them in their hands, and eating them! I don’t know how much they were picking, but by time you get twelve disciples, and it doesn’t say whether Jesus ate or not. By time you get twelve disciples doing all of that, you’re stripping quite a few heads of grain!

Notice how He answered them, because there’s a time when, because of the circumstances and because of how we are, we can add today, just like in His day, that there are some things from the Old Testament that have to be re-judged according to the need.

Verse 25: “And He said to them, ‘Have you never read what David did when he was hungry and in need of food, he and those with him? How in the days of Abiathar the high priest, he entered into the house of God and he ate the showbread, which it is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and he also gave it to those who were with him?’” (vs 25-26).

What was happening? They were running from Saul! They were all sweaty and hungry! How many have ever seen the loaves of showbread? There was a big loaf that was put there every Sabbath! They put new bread at noon on the Sabbath when the new course of priests would come in. There was a special tray, which had six shelves on each side, and each loaf was for one of the twelve tribes. The priests were to eat that. That was Holy to the Lord!

Remember what happened when Uzziah went in to offer incense? He was struck with leprosy, because he was presuming to be a priest when he was not. Here the circumstances are different. Now notice what Jesus says and let’s analyze the circumstances that they had.

Verse 27: “And He said to them, ‘The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath; therefore, the Son of man is Lord even of the Sabbath’” (vs 27-28). What was the purpose of the Sabbath made for man?

- to rest

- to remember that you came out of Egypt as slaves
 - to worship the Lord
 - to assemble together
- for us in the New Testament Church*
- to grow in grace and knowledge
 - be educated in how we become the sons and daughters of God
 - to be kings and priests at the resurrection

Matthew 12:1: “At that time Jesus went through the grain fields on the Sabbath Days; and His disciples were hungry, and they began to pluck the heads of grain and to eat them. But after seeing this, the Pharisees said to Him, ‘Behold, Your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath.’ But He said to them, ‘Have you not read what David did when he himself and those with him were hungry? How he went into the house of God and he ate the loaves of showbread, which it was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those who were with him, but for the priests only? Or have you not read in the law that on the Sabbaths the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath and are guiltless?’” (vs 1-5). They did the work! There was a lot of work.

Have you ever slaughtered an animal? Let alone spend all day slaughtering animals and offering sacrifices. They really worked at the temple! Jesus shows His authority over the Sabbath, because we read in Mark 2 that the ‘Son of man is Lord even of the Sabbath Day’

Verse 6: “But I say to you, there is One here Who is greater than the temple.”

We need to think on that, because this is by the authority of the one who put his presence in the temple, Who was the Lord God of the Old Testament and became Jesus Christ of the New Testament.

He is showing here that while they were traveling, and it was on the Sabbath Day, and may very well have been walking longer than what the Jews would consider a Sabbath Day’s journey, and this they were doing repeatedly on the Sabbath. That’s what it’s talking about here in the plural! This is not just a one time event that they were doing.

Jesus is telling the Pharisees that “...One here Who is greater than the temple” has given them permission to do so, for the need for the strength and energy to serve on the Sabbath! We need to keep that in mind.

Verse 7: “Now, if you had known what this means, ‘I desire mercy and not sacrifice,’ you would not have condemned the guiltless. For the Son of man is Lord even of the Sabbath Day” (vs 7-8).

Let's also understand that Jesus also said to 'go into all the world and preach the Gospel.' Of course, that entails travel! That entails different things that living in the restricted area of Jerusalem or in the confines of our homes if you're keeping church at home, or where two or three families are gathered together. Most of us travel, and some of us great distances!

When we meet here we meet in a hotel and they have their employees that they hire. They are here whether we are here or not. If we didn't eat a meal here they would still be here. But because we all travel, it is perfectly allowable for these kinds of occasions that we pay for ahead of time. The room is paid for ahead of time, and that we can have an extended Sabbath Day service, with morning and afternoon services, with a meal in between.

Based on this and based on the circumstances, and based on serving God in love, Truth and Spirit, this is permissible.

It's not permissible to go out and do your grocery shopping on the Sabbath, or to buy goods on the Sabbath. This is just for the purpose of brethren gathering together for a Sabbath service. Since we are not close together and we all travel we can have fellowship together, a meal together and God has always blessed us in this. It has never been without a blessing. We have done this for years, so we need to consider this. They—the priests—worked!

- Have you ever done butchering?"
- Have you ever slaughtered some animals, cut them up?"
- How about if you do it all day long?

Verse 7: "Now, if you had known what this means, "I desire mercy and not sacrifice," you would not have condemned the guiltless.

What is Jesus saying here? He's saying there are times when the letter of the Law—to serve a physical and spiritual purpose—you do not 'strain at a gnat and swallow a camel.'

Let's apply this to what we do when we're traveling. We meet here in this room. It applies to a Feast day or wherever you are.

- Do we pay for the room? Of course!
- Does the hotel require their personnel to be here to manage and watch the property and take care of it? Yes!
- Whose servant are they? The hotel's!
- Do they do this when we don't meet here? Of course, they do!

When we meet here, are we like in Jerusalem, a small little city where we can all walk? No! A lot of us have to drive! When I come down we have all-day services and we have them serve us a lunch. Has God cursed us because of that? No, He's blessed us! Why? Because this comes into the category of the showbread!

Now someone would say, 'Well, we need to get a hall where we can have potlucks.' All right, that's fine. Who's going to do all the work then? Because the work has to be done! Who's making people in the Church work? People in the Church!

So, from this we have made the judgment.... Now if someone is otherwise minded and they think they should not do as we do here, then that is your personal preference. But know this, it doesn't make us more sinners, nor those who don't eat on the Sabbath in circumstances like this, more righteous. It's a needful area that God blesses, because of the circumstances. All right, now let's reverse it!

- What if you're meeting at home? You have no need to eat out! You're at home!
- What if you're the only one at home?
- How can you keep a Holy convocation, especially for new people?

1. they don't know where a church or congregation is
2. you can't easily get there, you've got to drive

- Can you still keep the Sabbath at home? That's the whole basis of Church at Home! Of course, you can!
- What if you're alone? You pray and ask God to bless your study, to bless your day!
- Who is there?
- What did Jesus say? 'Wherever two or three are gathered together in My name, there I am in the midst.'
- If it's you, God the Father and Jesus Christ, how many is that?
- So can we have a Sabbath at home alone? Yes, but you're not alone!
- Do you miss being with brethren? Yes!
- Are you still in a Holy convocation with you, God the Father and Jesus Christ at home? Yes!
- What if two families get together? Same thing applies!

We meet here every other Sabbath!

- Are we going against the Holy convocation area of the Sabbath by doing only every other Sabbath?
- Why do we go every other Sabbath? It's simply because not everyone can come every Sabbath!

Maybe there will be a time when there will be enough people where we can meet every Sabbath.

That will be fine. But still, in meeting every Sabbath not everyone can come every Sabbath.

- Are the ones who meet every Sabbath more righteous than the ones who don't meet every Sabbath?
- What is the quality of your Sabbath?
- Is it spiritual?
- Are you learning the Word of God?
- What is it?

We pay for the room and we pay for the food. Everything's all arranged ahead of time. I think God is more pleased to see us gather together on the Sabbath, since we're so scattered, and be able to have a meal together and fellowship together, rather than say we're going to go by Neh. 13. You can't go by Neh. 13, because you're not in Jerusalem and you're not there in the same circumstances.

If you are in your home, you can go by Neh. 13. If a salesman comes to the door, you spray him with mace—psst! NO! We are living in the world, not of the world. We are called out of the world and the circumstances are different than if you're in Jerusalem where the whole city keeps the Sabbath. The temple is there; the synagogues are there; you don't have to drive; you don't have to get on a donkey and go someplace. Besides, the donkey is supposed to rest, too.

What if you have to drive and you have to go on a toll road? Where I go up to Fairfield I have to cross a bridge. Used to be $2.00, now it's $5.00. Am I sinning if I give him a $5.00 bill? Or Would I be sinning if I neglected the flock and say, 'I can't come up here because I have to pay the toll'? Well, come up on Friday. I used to come up on Friday, but there are so many things to do that I can't come up on Friday anymore. But then, if I come up on Friday to avoid paying the toll on the bridge, I have to get a motel, and I have to go buy some food! That's why Jesus said He desires mercy, not sacrifice!

So, you have to make the judgment on it. There is Rom. 14, we are not to make the Sabbath a burden. We are not to judge our brothers concerning eating and drinking, another point said. The Kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking.

Let's see the circumstances that Paul was confronted with. This follows right along the line with, 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice.'

1-Corinthians 8:1: "Now concerning things sacrificed to idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love edifies.... [God wants mercy; God wants love] ...But if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he knows nothing yet to the degree that he ought to know. But if anyone loves God, he is known by Him. So then, concerning the eating of things sacrificed to idols... (vs 1-4)

- What was this? They lived where they had pagan temples, by former pagan people who are now members of the Church of God.
- What did you have? You had the temple of Zeus, the temple of Diana, the temple of Apollos! You had incense altars and everything like that.

All the meat that they bought was sacrificed to the gods. So some people said, 'Well, we're just going to just going to be vegetarians.' That was most of the problem of Rom. 14. Others said, 'Idol doesn't mean anything. It's dumb, it's stupid, there's nothing in it.'

Verse 4: "So then, concerning the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we understand that an idol in the world is nothing, and that there is no other God except one. For indeed, even if there are those which are called gods, whether in heaven or on earth, as there are many gods and many lords" (vs 4-5).

Like Hinduism: they have 400-thousand gods and goddesses. You can't even go out and step on an ant, you kill one of your lost relatives. You can't kill they this cow though its pooping right in your house.

Verse 6: "Still, to us there is one God the Father, from Whom are all things, and we are in Him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by Whom are all things, and we are by Him. However, not all have this knowledge. But some, with consciousness of the idol, until now eat it as a thing sacrificed to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled" (vs 6-7).

We don't have that problem. We don't have it today! That was a real problem. Then he said, 'What if someone sees you sitting in the idol's temple eating?' You could even go there and buy it cooked ready to go. That was their McDonald's! And a church member comes by and says, 'Oh! Guess what I saw. I saw so-and-so over at the idol's temple eating. He's condemned.' No, he's not condemned, because he knows an idol is nothing! Can an idol contaminate food? No! But there's a crossover point if you get involved in the religious services.

Let's see what Paul wrote concerning this, 1-Corinthians 10:14: "Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. I speak as to those who are wise; you judge what I say? (vs 14-15).

We have to make judgments! We have to judge righteous judgments! Whatever it is to serve the brethren, to edify the brethren, and as long as we are yielding to God, led by His Spirit, we convoke together with God's Spirit, God blesses us in what we are doing with that. Same way if you have church at home.

Now, we are going to have new people coming and as Harry ran surveys for the Church in the past, when they started to get on the mailing list, it took what, two years before they started—between two and three years. There are going to be new people coming in, brand new people. They're going to have different hang ups than you have. What we need to do is shed all the hang-ups that we've had from our previous Church of God associations.

Some things were good; some things were not good. But we have to be able to realize when new people come, there are going to be difficulties involved. We can't be so sensitive that when new people come, we say, 'Oh, they're disturbing us and we don't have the love we used to have,' and all of that sort of thing. Help them to learn the love of God so you keep the love of God.

Verse 16: "The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not the fellowship of the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not the fellowship of the Body of Christ? For we, being many, are one Body and One Bread, because we are all partakers of the Bread" (vs 16-17)—Who is Christ!

Didn't He say, 'Break this bread. This is My body.' And the Church is the Body of Christ? Yes, indeed!

Verse 18: "Consider Israel according to the flesh. Are not those who eat the sacrifices partakers of the altar?... [of course!] ...What then am I saying? That an idol is anything, or that which is sacrificed to an idol is anything?" (vs 18-19). Of course not, he said no! However, don't cross the line and get involved in their religious services.

Verse 20: "But that which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God; and I do not wish you to have fellowship with demons. You cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord, and the table of demons" (vs 20-21). You can't do that!

That's why having the Passover in the right way, according to the Truth of what is taught is of paramount importance. As you'll find out when you read the third edition of The Christian Passover book, what is the one central thing that Satan wants to get? He wants to get you separated from God! How can he do that? There are various distractions and pleasures in the world! That's one way. But to really do it, is to confuse the issue concerning the Christian Passover: when it's to be taken, how it's to be taken. That's why we have that 500-page book, The Christian Passover.

It covers more than the Passover, but it's important to understand that is the renewal of the covenant. IF you don't partake of the Passover in the manner that is worthy according to the way that Jesus has instructed, THEN you can take the first step going out from God! That's why it's important. We are in a covenant relationship with God that is bound by our covenant baptism.

Baptism is not a ritual to get into a church. Baptism is a covenant pledge that you make to God because God's covenant pledge was that Christ died for you!

- What are you going to do for God?
- What does God require of you?

If Christ died, you die! How do you die? Baptism, conjoined to His death! That is your covenant pledge to God!

It also says this: If you do not fulfill the agreement of the New Covenant with the Spirit of God in faith, hope, love and growing in grace and knowledge, that you are going to die. That symbolic death in the watery grave of baptism is your pledge to God: I will be faithful to the end! He says, I will give you eternal life and resurrect you.

Satan is wanting to stop you from attaining that! The central thrust is going to be against the Christian Passover, the way Jesus taught us to take it. That's why we have so many different variations in the world. You've got the Lord's Supper in the morning. Never could figure out how that could be. You take it every Sunday if you're a Catholic and especially a priest. You know, you have Mass at six, at seven, at eight, at nine, ten o'clock you have High Mass. You get out the incense and you do all these things that you do. But what do they do with the Mass? They have so perverted it that they claim that the priest has the power to command Christ to come down into that sun wafer offered to an idol in the temple of the sun on Sunday, and say that the priest in command says to Christ to put His presence in there.

I tell you this: Christ obeys no man! And what they are doing, he is crucifying Christ every time they go through it. So that's the central thing. Likewise, with the Sabbath. We'll get back here to Sabbath-keeping.

Let's see how we are to conduct ourselves. Here is the attitude and this is a spiritual attitude. So in the weeks that we don't meet, have a good Sabbath at home. Maybe get your children together. Spend some time with them. Spend some time really teaching them the Word of God. That might help your family a whole lot. Would that not be a good Holy convocation at home? Yes, indeed!

Maybe several families could get together. Fine! In that circumstance, you're still going to eat, but you don't need to go out because you're right at home. You can take care of that. Here's what God wants us to do.

How do we profane the Sabbath? By doing things of the world, thinking the way the world thinks!

- Can you turn off television one day? Yes!
- Can you stop the music one day except music that glorifies God? Yes!
- Can your children learn to sit down and understand the Bible? Yes!
- Are you capable of teaching them? Yes!

Especially through the Proverbs! Talk about what they go through at school. I think more and more you ought to have home-schooling. That's a lot of work.

As a matter of fact, that would be my suggestion to end the problems at school. Shut all schools down, have all mothers stay home, teach the children at home on the Internet. Use the school's facilities for community activities only. Retire most of the teachers. Keep a number of them for tutors and you can eliminate hundreds of millions and billions of dollars. You would solve a lot of crime, because they would be at home, not out with gangs.

Isaiah 56:1: "Thus says the LORD, 'Keep justice and do righteousness; for My salvation is near to come, and My righteousness to be revealed.... [this is a prophecy of the New Testament] ...Blessed is the man who does this, and the son of man who lays hold on it; who keeps the Sabbath from profaning it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil'" (vs 1-2). Profaning means to secularize!

Verse 3: "And do not let the son of the stranger, who has joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, 'The LORD has utterly separated me from His people.' And do not let the eunuch say, 'Behold, I am a dry tree.' For thus says the LORD, 'To the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths... [plural] ...and choose things that please Me, and take hold of My covenant; even to them will I give within My house and within My walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters; I will give them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off'" (vs 3-5). That's talking about the resurrection!

This also tells us that the purpose of the Sabbath is to be preparing for the resurrection IF we:

- grow in grace

- grow in knowledge
- grow in righteousness
- grow in all of these things

That's what the Sabbath is for! Then he says:

Verse 6: "Also the sons of the stranger, who join themselves to the LORD to serve Him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be His servants, everyone who keeps from profaning the Sabbath, and takes hold of My covenant" (v 6)—and that is the New Covenant! That's what we've done!

So what we need to do is this: In keeping the Sabbath we keep it Holy. How? By shutting off the world as much as we can! If you have to drive here, you have to drive through the world. What do you do? You pray for protection! You go home, you pray for protection!

Have you ever been in a wreck and you know that God spared you from it? Years ago when I was writing the first edition of the Passover book, I rolled my car over going at 75mph on Hwy 5, because I was doing something stupid trying to block out the sun and the left front tire went over the edge of the highway and rolled over. I don't relive the experience, but I remember it and learned a lesson. Don't do stupid things while you're driving, Fred! I know just about the spot where it is, so whenever I go down and go home I remember, Don't do anything stupid!

When it rolled over and I didn't have my seatbelt on, it rolled over one whole time, clear around, and I'm thinking, Ooooh, no! Landed right side up, blew out two tires. The roof was all bent, the windshield had cracked and the back windshield was out and it was all dusty. I opened the door of the car, got out and stood up. I had a little knick on my forehead because of the rear view mirror.

The first thing I said was, 'O God, thank You for saving me from my stupidity.' God protected me. What they did, they wanted to tow the car clear down to Bakersfield. I said, 'Oh no, I'll never get home from there.' So, the highway patrolman told the tow truck, because he wanted to have some money towing the truck, and he says, 'Go ahead and see if the tires will hold the bead.' So he put the air in the tires—yes—start the car and he says, 'Well, go up here about 20 miles and check in and redo these tires because there may be some sand in there and there may be some air going out.'

I looked like I had been dumped on with a flour sack. They had cell phones at that time and as soon as the highway patrolman came, someone said, 'Well, do you want to call home?' I said, 'Yeah.' So I gave him the number, he called home and I said, 'Mom, I'll be a little late. I had an accident with the car. I rolled it over, I'm okay. Bye.'

I drove up, got the car taken care of. When I got home, we had a patio above the garage, so here I'm coming in my little diesel Isuzu. Everything was all out of whack and the body was twisted. Dust from the wreck that had gotten in the back of the car was blowing all over and it was so cold coming over the mountain that I had a pillow back there because the window was broken so the wind was coming in.

When I finally came up, Dolores was up on the balcony looking down and the kids were there. I got out and stood up and all she could do was laugh, because I looked like I was Scrooge from the movie, Ebenezer Scrooge. So, God takes care of us in it!

Isaiah 58:13: "If you turn your foot away from the Sabbath... [from doing your own thing] ...from doing your own desires on My Holy Day, and call the Sabbath a delight... [it is a delight and that means on the Sabbath, by all means, you need to pray] ...the Holy of the LORD, honorable; and shall honor Him, not doing your own ways, nor pursuing your own desires, nor speaking your own words." Learn the words of Christ!

Verse 14: "Then you shall delight yourself in the LORD; and I will cause you to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed you with the inheritance of Jacob your father, for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it." It gives us the whole purpose of what we are to do! That's what we need to focus in on, on the Sabbath.

- If there are things we need to do, like drive to assemble—that's fine!
- Gather together a couple of families—that's fine!
- Be alone and only Christ and you and the Father are there—that's fine!
- Get together where we have a meeting like we have here—that's fine!
- Have a meal like we have here—that's not against God!

Do we lose God's Spirit when we go in there and eat in there? No, we don't! God has blessed us with it. We've done this for how long? I think only once or twice they've tried to slip in some shrimp or some ham on us, but we took care of that.

I hope this helps you understand that there are many different ways to keep the Sabbath as long as you keep it, but you also have to adjust to the circumstances in your life and the circumstances of other people when they are involved.

When we come together, do this: Leave your hang-ups at home if you haven't gotten your hang-ups washed away by the washing of the water by the Word! Let's meet in love, in acceptance; not judging, not criticizing. If someone has a problem and you see the problem, what did John tell us to do? Pray for the individual! You don't sit there and criticize and condemn him. Do you want someone to criticize and condemn you? No! Same way.

- we meet in love
- we meet in understanding
- we meet in thanksgiving

We meet and we ask Christ and God the Father to be here so that with Their Spirit and with Their Word we are fed the Word of God! We have something that we can grow in grace and knowledge with.

Keep all of that in mind and I hope that helps us with it. We could go through some other things, but we won't. But I'm sure the Apostle Paul traveled on the Sabbath. How long did it take him to get to Rome? A year and a half! So, his circumstances were different, and ours are different. But that doesn't mean, like some people say...

I remember one man saying, 'Well, I have no trouble going out and shopping for groceries on the Sabbath.' I said, 'Well, I do.' But if I'm traveling a long distance and things like that, I eat along the way; I've taken lunch with me, too. I've done both; we could do both.

But then I find that God doesn't condemn me in it. He doesn't condemn you in it. But if we go ahead and then make it something, then where the meal and just being together eating becomes the central part of Sabbath services, then we're getting into the area where we are not using the Sabbath for our spiritual benefit!

I hope that helps answer a lot of questions. Maybe it created a whole lot more—whatever. If it did, we'll bring them up and we'll discuss those.

God's Holy Days Overview

CHAPTER EIGHT

Important Events on Holy Days

Keys to understanding the deep things of God, and God reveals them when we need to understand

Fred R. Coulter

- Why does God hide things in a secret?
- How do we find them?

That's quite a question, because everyone can have access to a Bible in their own language. God has made it so that no one can have an excuse and say, 'God, I never knew.' His answer will be, 'Did you have a Bible?' Yes! 'Did you read it?' No! Why didn't you? Some would say that they read it, but couldn't understand it. Why is that? Because there are certain keys necessary for God to reveal!

1. Obey My Voice!

We have the Bible with the voice of God all written down, and Jesus said, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God that proceeds out of His mouth.'

God is so great, good and powerful, that in spite of the sins of all people in the world, He's caused His Word to be spread around the world. Anyone at anytime can have access to it, especially in this digital age!

What does the Bible tell us about those who have understanding? Those who keep the commandments of God! Stop and think about it; one of the greatest events to take place in the history of mankind was when Israel was before God at Mt. Sinai. God spoke the Ten Commandments. All of the Israelites heard Him.

- Do you know the Ten Commandments?
 - Do you keep them?
- if you keep them*
- How do you keep them?

That's a key!

We're going to see something else later on, but when God gave the Ten Commandments that was on a Pentecost. All of the Sabbaths and Holy Days of God give us important things:

- in time
- in history
- in prophecy
- in fulfillment

God has said in the New Testament that it's given to those who love God to understand the mysteries or the secrets of God! They are secrets because of the keys that are necessary to understand. The first one is obey His voice!

2. Keep His Sabbath and the Commandments of God

3. The Passover and Holy Days of God

Let's think about it for just a minute: the Sabbath Day every seventh day. In spite of the sins of the Jews, they have preserved the Old Testament and the Calculated Hebrew Calendar. All God's days are based on His calendar. Think about all these things as we're going along.

God deals with nations, His people and His Church, all three!

In Dan. 2 Nebuchadnezzar had a dream—he was king of Babylon—and he pulled a 'slick one' on his astrologers and soothsayers. He said, 'I had a dream and I want you to do two things:

- 1) tell me what the dream was
- 2) what the interpretation is

If you don't you're going to lose your heads!'

Well, Daniel, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego were the Jewish young men who were taken captive and brought to Babylon. The captain of the guard told it to Daniel, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego and they said, 'We'll pray to God and ask Him to reveal what it was that the king dreamt.'

Daniel 2:17: "Then Daniel went to his house and made the matter known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions.... [that's Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego] ...That they might pray for the mercies of God in heaven concerning this secret, that Daniel and his companions should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a night vision...." (vs 17-19). God is the revealer of secrets, but He gives conditions to reveal those secrets! What did Daniel do?

"...And Daniel blessed the God of heaven. Daniel answered and said, 'Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, for wisdom and might are His. And He changes the times and the seasons; He removes kings and sets up kings. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding. He reveals the deep and secret things;

He knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with Him. I thank You, and praise You, O God of my fathers, Who has given me wisdom and might, and have now made known to me what we desired of You, for You have made known to us the king's matter” (vs 19-23).

Then Daniel was taken before the king. Here's what was told to the king:

Verse 27: “Daniel answered before the king and said, ‘The secret which the king has demanded cannot be shown to the king by the wise men, the enchanters, the astrologers or the magicians.’”

Who is the god of those enchanters, the astrologers or the magicians? Satan the devil! Think of it today:

Do any of the religions of the world anything about the plan of God? Even many of fake Christianity may understand some parts, but they don't understand it the way that they should. Why? Because they have half knowledge!

Remember, one of the keys to understanding is Sabbath-keeping. Sunday-keeping will never do it. You may guess some parts, but you'll really never understand it.

Verse 26: “The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, ‘Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen and its interpretation?’ Daniel answered before the king and said, ‘The secret which the king has demanded cannot be shown to the king by the wise men, the enchanters, the astrologers or the magicians. But there is a God in heaven Who reveals secrets and makes known to King Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days....’” (vs 26-28)—from that time down to the end, and in outline form!

Sidebar: Daniel and all of his prophecies are the lock to the framework. Revelation and all the things given to the Apostle John is the key to open the lock. All of those things put together is based upon: Do you love God and keep His commandments? Never forget that!

“...Your dream and the visions of your head upon your bed are these: As for you, O king, while upon your bed your thoughts came to you of what should come to pass hereafter. And He Who reveals secrets makes known to you what shall come to pass” (vs 28-29).

Now notice Daniel's attitude; this is what it is important; v 30: “But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living man, but so that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your heart.”

Then Daniel describes it: a man with a head of gold, chest of silver, then brass, iron and iron and clay. That one image represents the major kingdoms of this world from that time down to the end.

Verse 44—right down to the ten toes: “And in the days of these kings, the God of heaven shall set up a Kingdom, which shall never be destroyed....” That's the whole Gospel!

In every single book in the Bible, it talks about the Kingdom of God, either directly or indirectly! “...shall never be destroyed....”—and that's pictured by the Feast of Tabernacles!

“...And the Kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever” (v 44). We need to also understand that:

- God is true
- God cannot lie
- His Word is true

There is no lie in anything that He has in the Scriptures! Men try twist it and try to make it look like a lie. That's also part of what we have to believe. Even though Nebuchadnezzar had an outline of understanding, he really didn't know the details.

Verse 45: “Because you saw that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold, the great God has made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter. And the dream is certain, and its interpretation is sure.” And you can depend on this with every single word of God!

How much time is it from Nebuchadnezzar down to the end? Babylonian Empire—middle of the 5th century_{B.C.}; well over 2500 years! Let's see how this fits in with the New Testament:

1-Peter 1:2: “Who have been chosen according to the predetermined knowledge of God the Father, by sanctification through the Spirit...”

He talking about all of us who have been called, baptized, received the Holy Spirit and have understanding of the Bible. Very important!

“...unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ...” (v 2). Nowhere in the New Testament does it say that the Law has been done away!

“...Grace and peace be multiplied to you. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who, according to His abundant mercy, has begotten us again unto a living hope...” (vs 2-3).

What is that hope? The hope of eternal life!

But notice that it says, "...begotten us again...!" Note Appendices P & Q (The Holy Bible in Its Original Order, A Faithful Version); also articles found on truthofGod.org:

- What Does It Mean to be "Born Again"?
- What Does it Mean to be "Born of God"?

When you were conceived, you were begotten by your father, you first begettal and then you were born, your first birth.

Then when you repent and receive the Holy Spirit of God you receive the begettal of God's Spirit in your mind and then when the resurrection comes, that's when you're born again. It's really that simple!

"...through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead; unto an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and unfading, reserved in heaven for us... [which Christ is going to bring] ...who are being safeguarded by the power of God through faith..." (vs 3-5). That's why it's important:

- to believe, and that's faith
- to love, and that's what God wants
- to obey, and do what He says

"...for salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time" (v 5).

1-Cor. 2—here we find out that God does reveal things, and reveals them when we need to understand them. There are many things, even in the Old Testament that are prophecies in action of things that are going to take place way in the future. All of those will be major events.

Sidebar: I have two books at home written by two different people who think they know the prophecies. They don't! They don't understand them! Why? Because they're trying to solve them their way, rather than let the Bible interpret the Bible to give understanding! That's a big difference!

1-Corinthians 2:9: "But according as it is written, 'The eye has not seen, nor the ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him.'" Keep that in mind!

Everyone wants God's love and forgiveness for themselves. But how many people want to love God in return, the way that God says we should do it?

Verse 10: "But God has revealed them to us by His Spirit..." If you don't have the Spirit of God you're not going to understand it!

- How do you receive the Spirit of God? You repent and be baptized!

- What did Peter say about that? That God reveals it to those who obey Him!

No one is going to receive the Spirit of God without obeying God! Just not going to happen!

"...for the Spirit searches all things—even the deep things of God" (v 10)—which are hidden in the Bible! But He will reveal them!

Verse 11: "For who among men understands the things of man except by the spirit of man, which is in him? In the same way also, the things of God no one understands except by the Spirit of God. Now, we have not received the spirit of the world..." (vs 11-12).

What is the spirit of the world? Who does that come from? Satan the devil!

"...but the Spirit that is of God, so that we might know the things graciously given to us by God" (v 12).

Have you seen Water's World on Fox News? He used to go out and take his microphone and cameraman and they'd go out on the streets of New York City and ask them different questions. Some people don't even know who the President is! Some people did not know who Columbus was! That's in the world, lost! If you asked them anything about God, their eyes would probably roll back like in slot machine!

"...but the Spirit that is of God, so that we might know..."

Isaiah 56:1—this will be very enlightening for us: "Thus says the LORD..." God speaking directly to you, even though He may have spoken it a long time ago, it makes no difference, because His Word is Spirit and Life! So, it's still active today.

"...Keep justice and do righteousness..." (v 1).

Psalms 119:172: "...all Your commandments are righteousness."

If you're not keeping the commandments of God, you're practicing unrighteousness or lawlessness! If all of His commandments are righteous that has to be true!

Isaiah 56:1: "...for My salvation is near to come... [this toward the end of the age; a prophecy of our time] ...and My righteousness to be revealed."

What's the first thing revealed of the righteousness of God that's going to startle the world? Actually shake the world down to the core?

Revelation 6:14[transcriber's correction]: "Then the heaven departed like a scroll..." and the Son of man is revealed!

The whole earth is going to go into convulsions! That's the first revelation of the righteousness of God demonstratively to the whole world! That's so powerful that 144,000 of the children of Israel repent, and a great innumerable multitude repent. That's going to be a startling event to be revealed.

Isaiah 56:2: "Blessed is the man who does this, and the son of man who lays hold on it..." This means that you grab it, and it's like something that you take to your bosom so-to-speak.

"...who keeps the Sabbath from profaning it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil" (v 2).

Not only the things that are evil, but when you're doing things that are normal, when you do it on the Sabbath Day, it becomes an evil thing because you're rejecting what God has said! People are blinded because they don't know!

Verse 3: "And do not let the son of the stranger, who has joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, 'The LORD has utterly separated me from His people.' And do not let the eunuch say, 'Behold, I am a dry tree.' For thus says the LORD, 'To the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths, and choose things that please Me...'" (vs 3-4). That's the key!

When we love God and keep His commandments we're doing the things that please God!

"...and take hold of My covenant... [the covenant of eternal life] ...even to them will I give within My house..." (vs 4-5)—ultimately New Jerusalem!

"...and within My walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters; I will give them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off"—eternal life! You have to have eternal life in order to have an everlasting name.

Verse 6: "Also the sons of the stranger, who join themselves to the LORD to serve Him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be His servants, everyone who keeps from profaning the Sabbath, and takes hold of My covenant."

It is rarely taught that those who keep the Sabbath are going to be in the Kingdom of God, but this is exactly what it's telling us!

Verse 7: "Even them I will bring to My Holy mountain... [of New Jerusalem] ...and make them joyful in My house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon My altar... [only then when they had the sacrifices] ...for My house shall be called a house of prayer for all people."

Where was this stated in the New Testament? John 2! What did Jesus do? He went in and made a scourge and drove out the moneychangers, the cattle, birds and everything else. He scattered their money all over! Can you imagine the made dash of them trying to get the money! Then He said, 'You have made this a den of merchandise, but it should be the house of prayer for all people!'

What was the proposition that God gave to Israel just before He gave the Ten Commandments? Exo. 19—here's what Israel was to do down through all time! God gave them His commandments and His Word. This brings together many of the things that we've already covered. God is speaking to Moses and this is what he was to tell the Israelites:

Exodus 19:4: "You have seen what I did to the Egyptians..."

- Was that a major event in history?
- Do you know how long it took Egypt to recover from the destruction that God brought upon them? 400 years!

"...and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you unto Myself. Now, therefore..." (vs 4-5).

Notice that God always gives the condition to us; "...if you will obey My voice indeed, and keep My covenant, then you shall be a special treasure to Me above all people; for all the earth is Mine. And you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a Holy nation.' These are the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel" (vs 5-6).

All the details came later! But they said, v 8: "And all the people answered together and said, 'All that the LORD has spoken we will do.'...."

Then they got scared to death and afraid, and they said, 'Moses! You speak to us and you go to God and listen and tell us what God says, and we will do it!' But they never, never did it! They couldn't even do it for 40 days and 40 nights!

When Moses was on the top of Mt. Sinai and getting the rest of the laws, commandments, statutes and judgments, and all the instructions on building the tabernacle and everything. They came to Aaron and said, 'Hey, we don't know what happened to this guy Moses, he went up on the mountain, it looks like a volcano, maybe he fell in it and died. Make us gods!' So, what did Aaron do? Made a golden calf! After they said, 'Yes, we will do all that God says!'

Notice what God says, and this carries right down to today. I have a message: What Would the World Be Like if Adam & Eve Had Not Sinned? It would be quite a different place than it is today.

What would the world have been like if the 12 tribes of Israel had been faithful to God and carried the Word of God to the whole world, even back then? Remember, it was conditional: ‘IF you will obey My voice and keep My commandments THEN you shall be a kingdom of priests to Me!’ But they never did it! When they went into the ‘promised land,’ finally got in there after 40 years of wandering around the Sinai Peninsula because of their sins.

What did they do after Joshua and the elders died? They started going after the gods of the other people! Israel has been like a roller-coaster of waves. They come to God for so long and then they get down and depraved. Then God has to send a judge to raise them up, get them out of their depths, and we’re in one of those low places right now. Will we come up out of it for the time being? We don’t know, we’ll have to see!

Isaiah 43:21—God says: “This people that I formed for Myself; they shall declare My praise. Yet, you have not called upon Me, O Jacob; much less have you troubled yourself about Me, O Israel” (vs 21-22).

Go back and look at all the promises that God gave to the 12 tribes of Israel because of Abraham. When God makes a promise He’ll never break it. What happens if sin comes along? There will be punishment and if there is repentance, go forward again!

Sidebar: Look at what God promised David. He would always have someone sitting on the throne of Israel, always! Never missing! Never lacking!

Then David sinned with Bathsheba. God gave the promise, He doesn’t break His word, so He gave punishment against David for what he did. The child died and there was a near revolution by his own family against him. Absalom wanted to take over the kingdom. That was David’s punishment. But God never changed His pledge, and likewise with Israel!

If they come back to God—even halfway—God will still give them a little correction, but will be with them and bless them. The Church—look at Rev. 2 & 3—you go through that and see what happened with the Churches.

What does it say about God? I am the same yesterday, today and forever! Both the Father and the Son! Now, this is what the world cannot really understand:

Luke 10:21: “In the same hour Jesus rejoiced in the Spirit, and said, ‘I praise You, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You did hide these things from the wise and intelligent, and did reveal them to babes. Yes, Father, for it was well pleasing in Your sight to do so.’”

Doesn’t that sound like tying in with Daniel where he said, ‘I’m nothing more than any other person, but God is the One Who gave the secret’?

Verse 22: “Then He turned to the disciples and said, ‘All things were delivered to Me by My Father; and no one knows Who the Son is, except the Father; and Who the Father is, except the Son, and the one to whom the Son personally chooses to reveal Him.”

You won’t find any other translation this way: “...the Son personally chooses...”

Why did I do it that way? There’s a special verb in the Greek called ‘middle voice verb.’ Most action is by the subject: ‘I see Jack.’ That’s direct!

Middle voice is that God is the subject and the object. His calling is the object back to Himself. So therefore, to translate it personally shows the personal involvement that God wants in our lives.

Verse 23: “And He turned to His disciples and said privately, ‘Blessed are the eyes that have seen the things that you see. For I tell you, many prophets and kings have desired to see the things that you see, and have not seen them; and to hear the things that you hear, and have not heard them.” (vs 23-24).

Now He gets down the very core; v 25: “Now, a certain doctor of the Law... [he understood the Law, like most theologians today] ...suddenly stood up, tempting Him and saying, ‘Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?’”

All of you out there, if you’re a Sunday-keeper and listening to this—understand what is being said by Jesus. If you believe in Jesus, then you better believe what He says. If you think you’re going to have eternal life, you better see how He says that you’re going to have eternal life, or you’re just deluding yourself. Your Sunday-keeping is doing you no good spiritually speaking!

Verse 26: “And He said to him, ‘What is written in the Law? How do you read it?’ Then he... [the doctor of the Law] ...answered and said, ‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself” (vs 26-27).

All Sunday-keepers: Do you do this? What is the love of God?

1-John 5:3: “For this is the love of God: that we keep His commandments; and His commandments are not burdensome.” They are freedom! Freedom from sin!

Luke 10:29: “But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, ‘And who is my neighbor?”

Doctor of the Law, like a priest!

So, Jesus gave him a parable (paraphrased): there was a certain man who was robbed, beaten and left over in the ditch to die. Along came a priest and saw him and went clear to the other side of the road as he was going to do his religious duty at the temple, and did nothing to help him. Then along came a Levite and he looked over and he had to get to the temple so he could offer the sacrifices.

Then along came a Samaritan, which is like saying they're the most cursed people on earth to a Jew. He came and took the man, cleaned his wounds, put oil and wine on it and put him on his donkey and took him to an inn and took care of him. When he left, because he had to go to Jerusalem to do some business, told the inn-keeper, 'Here's some money, you take care of him and if it's more than that, when I come back I'll pay you.'

So, Jesus asked the doctor of the Law: Who do you suppose loved his neighbor?' And the doctor of the Law said, 'Well, I suppose the Samaritan.' That was probably hard for him to say!

We're going to look at some Scriptures understand some really deep things of God. But before we get going, I want to cover a couple of things here:

- Book: From a Speck of Dust to a Son of God: Why Were You Born?

The most important thing you need to know is why you were born, this is vital and shows you why this nations is under a curse because of all the abortions. They're killing the most innocent of all:

- Transcript Book/w CD: The Keys to Answered Prayer

The most important thing in your Christian life is prayer! That way you have contact with God, and God has contact with you.

Now let's continue on with our study today. Let's come to an important event, but before we get there let's do a little rehearsal.

The Sabbath:

- Is the Sabbath a commemoration of an important event?
- What does it say in the 4th commandment? For in six days God made the heaven and earth!
- Is that not an important event? That's why you keep the Sabbath!
- Why is that necessary? Because we're made a little lower than God, after the image of God and we have a mind to do a whole lot of different things!

So, if you don't keep the Sabbath, you get lifted up in your own vanity and intellectualism, and you think you are so smart! Yes, people are smart. What did God say as to why He had to destroy the Tower of Babel? Because anything that they imagined they can do!

So, the Sabbath is important that you realize and understand that your life comes from God. Everything that there is comes from God, and you realize that you live, move and have your being with Him! This keeps you in proper perspective with you and God, and God with you.

The Passover:

The Passover marks two important events; what two are they?

1. with the children of Israel, the firstborn being spared, with the destruction of the firstborn of the Egyptians

Remember, the sacrifice of the Passover in Exo. 12 and from that time forward was not for the forgiveness of sin. It was for the sparing of the firstborn. That's why if you understand that that's the sparing of the firstborn for the covenant with Israel.

2. the Passover for eternal life, the sacrifice is God manifested in the flesh.

What was He?

- the firstborn of Mary
- the only Begotten of the Father

When He was crucified, that was an important event! The key most important event besides the Sabbath. His sacrifice was for the forgiveness of sin! Was the sacrifice of the Firstborn, not the sparing!

When you go back to when the children of Israel were in their houses in Egypt, when did the death angel come? Midnight!

Jesus the Firstborn of the Father and Mary. What happened on that Passover night? He was arrested to be crucified, showing that God did not pass over His own Son!

First and Last day of Unleavened Bread:

The first day is getting rid of leaven, and in the New Covenant it is also getting rid of sin!

The last day they went through the Red Sea. Was that an important event? Open of the Red Sea ten miles wide and walk through? Yes, indeed! For us, we have our sins forgiven and God helps us through all the impossible tasks in our lives.

Pentecost:

Was that an important event? Yes, for the children of Israel it was the giving of the Ten Commandments and statutes and everything of God.

What was it for the New Testament Church? The receiving of the Holy Spirit! That was an important event! There are two other important events:

1. the heavens rolling back as a scroll
2. the first resurrection

Then we have Christ's return on Trumpets with all the saints together.

Trumpets:

For the covenant with Israel it was for the success of their wars when they followed God, because it was a War Feast! For the New Testament it pictures two things:

1. the first coming of Christ
2. His final coming when He returns with all the saints together

That is a monumental event! Don't you think the whole world is going to celebrate that during the Millennium.

Day of Atonement:

What was that for the children of Israel? That was a covering for their sins every year, and the placing of the sins on Azazel, who was a type of Satan released in a place not being dwelt in, the wilderness!

For the return of Christ, the Day of Atonement pictures the angel taking Satan the devil and the demons and putting them in the abyss and locking them up.

The Feast of Tabernacles:

That pictures God living with His people! There was the fulfillment of it in Solomon's days after he built the temple. God put His presence in the temple at that time.

For the New Testament, what is it for us? We rule and reign with Christ a thousand years! We're the Church of the Firstborn made perfect! All of that is tremendous!

The Last Great Day:

This is only mentioned twice in the Old Testament, and once in the New Testament, picturing the second resurrection!

Every one of the Holy Days, the Sabbath, which is Holy, all picture important events. It's no wonder that when the world dismisses them as having already been fulfilled—which they hasn't been—or as the Catholics say 'the old Law' so you don't have to do it.

Every one of everything that goes to the children of Israel and to the Church started with Abraham. This is one of the most important events in the Bible, Gen. 15, and we'll prove later that this took place on a Passover Day. Think about that!

When we read this, think about how important it was that Abram obeyed God! Remember when God called him, much like our calling. He said, 'You get up from your father's house and to a land that I will show you.' Abram obeyed and went. He said, 'I will make your name great! I will bless those who bless you, and curse those who curse you, and in you shall all the families of the earth be blessed.'

That's an amazing thing, indeed! From one man! Here he was 85-years-old and had no descendants. How is God going to do that? Well, very carefully!

Genesis 15:3: "And Abram said, 'Behold, You have given no seed to me; and lo, one born in my house is my heir.' And behold, the Word of the LORD came to him saying, 'This man shall not be your heir; but he that shall come forth out of your own loins shall be your heir'" (vs 3-4).

Think about that for a minute. After this promise was given nothing happened for 15 years. How long have you waited for a promise. Remember: God cannot lie!

Verse 5: "And He brought him outside and said, 'Look now toward the heavens and number the stars—if you are able to count them.' And He said to him, 'So shall your seed be.'"

Here he was 75-years-old and no children, wife can't conceive, and I imagine they were trying really hard. God gave Abram this promise. Imagine how his faith had to be for that. There are two promises here:

1. physical seed
2. spiritual seed—stars of heaven

Jesus confirmed that by saying that those who are children of the Father in the Kingdom shall shine forth as the sun!

Verse 6: "And he believed in the LORD. And He accounted it to him for righteousness."

This sacrifice that is coming up is what is called a maledictory oath! Understand that in the Bible whenever there is a covenant that is made, there has to be a showing forth a symbolic death of the one giving the pledge, which normally is the sacrifice of an animal.

The Indians used to do it by taking a knife and scuff their palms and when they made a covenant they would put their hands together and the blood would mix with the blood and they were bound to do it unto death.

Here is what happened: remember, it started out in the evening and then God took Abram outside and showed him the stars. Has anybody ever seen the stars of heaven at noonday? No! You can only see them at night, so that's a night!

Verse 7: "And He said to him, 'I am the LORD that brought you out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give you this land to inherit it.' And he said, 'Lord GOD, by what shall I know that I shall inherit it?'" (vs 7-8).

Those promises are general sweeping promises of God that He's going to fulfill!

Verse 9: "And He said to him, 'Take Me a heifer of three years old, and a she-goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon.' And he took all these to himself, and divided them in the middle, and laid each piece opposite the other; but he did not divide the birds" (vs 9-10).

I don't know how long that would take, but what he did was to cut them right down the middle and each half was laid opposite each other with a path to walk between. The birds he didn't divide.

Now, get the timing: this tells us that it took a good deal of time:

Verse 12: "And it came to pass, as the sun was going down... [we don't know how close to the horizon it was; we're not told, but]: ...that a deep sleep fell upon Abram. And, behold, a horror of great darkness fell upon him!"

What was this? This was a symbolic death, that Abram experienced!

Verse 13: "And He said to Abram, 'You must surely know that your seed shall be sojourners in a land that is not theirs (and shall serve them and they shall afflict them) four hundred years. And also I will judge that nation whom they shall serve. And afterward they shall come out with great substance. And you shall go to your fathers in peace. You shall be buried in a good old age. But in the fourth generation they shall come here again, for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full'" (vs 13-16).

That's another statement in itself. How long does God put up with wickedness before He finally judges? Quite a while!

Verse 17: "And it came to pass—when the sun went down..."

What happens when the sun goes down? That ends the day! So, we started out one day in the evening, up in the morning, then the afternoon the sacrifice of the animals, and then the symbolic death of Abraham and the darkness.

We can see that that was probably at the same time that Jesus Himself died on the cross, which was the ninth hour^[transcriber's correction] of the day (Mark 15:33-34) or 3 p.m.

Before all the rest of the Bible was written, it was very difficult to understand the things that I'm explaining right now. But you who have read and studied this, can understand it.

Jesus also said that 'you understand things that prophets didn't understand.'

"...and it was dark... [into the second day; it's a two-day sequence] ...behold, a smoking furnace and a burning lamp passed between those pieces" (v 17).

What do you suppose the smoking furnace was doing? This was a mammoth sacrifice, and it was God Who was walking between those parts! He was pledging His future death. This also shows that the God of the Old Testament was the One Who became Jesus Christ.

What do you suppose that smoking furnace did to those sacrificial animals? Burned them up completely, and left just little stacks of ashes! To show the veracity and absolute assurance that what Jesus—the Lord God of the Old Testament—told Abraham would take place!

This is the most important event in the Old Testament in relationship to the Holy Days! This is the beginning of the Passover, right here!

Verse 18: "In the same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, 'I have given this land to your seed...'" Abram was 85-years-old that this was given.

Genesis 16:16: "And Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram."

- Now what happened? A big mistake!
- What was that mistake? Sari thinking that she can help the fulfillment of God's promise by saying, 'You can go into my handmaiden and you can have children by her!'

In the legal sense of the law at that time that would be true. But that's not what God promised!

- What do we have? Ishmael!
- Has that been a problem ever since?

Good lesson: Never help God fulfill His promises!
Let God fulfill them His way in His time!

Each party to a covenant must have a blood sacrifice. We saw the one with the three animals and two birds that God used. Abraham didn't walk through. He hadn't given any sacrifice.

Genesis 17:1: "And when Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to Abram and said to him, 'I am the Almighty God! Walk before Me and be perfect.... [New Testament standard] ...And I will make My covenant between Me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly.' And Abram fell on his face. And God talked with him, saying, 'As for Me, behold, My covenant is with you, and you shall be a father of many nations. Neither shall your name any more be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you a father of many nations. And I will make you exceedingly fruitful, and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you. And I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your seed after you in their generations for an everlasting covenant...' (vs 1-7).

That is carried right down to today in the physical nations! This has nothing to do with conversion or eternal life.

Verse 8: "And I will give the land to you in which you are a sojourner, and to your seed after you, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession. And I will be their God.' And God said to Abraham, 'And you shall keep My covenant, you and your seed after you in their generations. This is My covenant, which you shall keep, between Me and you and your seed after you. Every male child among you shall be circumcised. And you shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin. And it shall be a sign of the covenant between Me and you. And a son of eight days shall be circumcised among you, every male child in your generations; he that is born in the house, or bought with silver of any foreigner who is not of your seed. He that is born in your house, and he that is bought with your silver, must be circumcised. And My covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant'" (vs 8-13).

When there's circumcision, what happens? There's blood! That was the sacrifice for the physical nations on Abraham's part. That had nothing to do with salvation; that had to do with the physical nations.

A year later is when he gets the promise of Isaac (Gen. 18). He is born (Gen. 21).

Genesis 21:1: "And the LORD visited Sarah as He had said. And the LORD did to Sarah as He had spoken, for Sarah conceived..." (vs 1-2). She's 90-years-old!

Why did God do it that way? Because you can believe when something that is impossible is accomplished by God!

Can you imagine at 90 getting pregnant and nursing him for three years? I wonder what Sarah thought when she first found out that she was pregnant? Then when Isaac was born? At first she laughed when she heard it of God! Then God said to her, 'Why did you laugh?' I didn't laugh! 'Yes, you did laugh!' It was laughable!

Let's see the sacrifice for the spiritual aspect of the spiritual seed, the stars of heaven! There had to be that sacrifice in order to complete the covenant that God made. There were two parts to that covenant:

1. physical seed
2. spiritual seed

The spiritual seed was a prophecy of the coming of the New Testament Church, and the plan of God expanding out with all those who would be converted and brought into the spiritual Family of God. This was a big deal!

Gen. 22 was probably also on a Passover. We'll prove that in just a little bit. Abraham was asked to do this when Isaac was about 15-years-old. So, from the time the promise was given until the birth of Isaac was 15 years. Then by deduction, Isaac had to be about 15 years of age for this. Think about the faith that Abraham had to have, and this was also important! I'm quite convinced that this occurred on a Passover Day.

Genesis 22:1: "And it came to pass after these things that God tested Abraham, and said to him, 'Abraham!' And he said, 'Here I am.' And He said, 'Take now your son, your only son Isaac...' (vs 1-2).

Who is missing? Ishmael! He was not counted in the promises of spiritual seed! He was counted in the promises of physical seed.

"...whom you love, and go into the land of Moriah, and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains, which I will tell you.' And Abraham rose up early in the morning and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son. And he split the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up and went to the place of which God had told him" (vs 2-3). This took a lot of courage to do!

- Why was Abraham willing to do this?
- Where do you find the answer to that? Heb. 11!

Look at the hundreds and hundreds of years before the answer finally came!

- Why did Abraham do this? Because he counted God worthy to raise Isaac from the dead if he were sacrificed and died!

That's the faith!

Verse 4: “Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place afar off. And Abraham said to his young men, ‘You stay here with the donkey, and I and the boy will go yonder and worship, and come again to you.’ And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it upon Isaac his son....” (vs 4-6).

- Abraham was a type of God the Father
- Isaac was a type of Christ
- the wood that Abraham placed upon Isaac was a type of the crucifixion

Isaac had to have a lot of faith, too. But think about this: here's your own father leading you off to sacrifice you. That's quite an important thing; but Isaac didn't resist!

“...And he took the firepot in his hand...” (v 6). The King James says that ‘he took fire in his hand’ but you can't take fire in your hand, you'll burn it! So, it had to be a firepot with coals.

“...and a knife. And they both went together. And Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, ‘My father.’ And he said, ‘Here I am, my son.’ And he said, ‘Behold the fire and the wood. But where is the lamb for a burnt offering?’” (vs 6-7).

Notice what Abraham said. Here you're walking right up to the place that you're going to offer him.

Verse 8: “And Abraham said, ‘My son, God will provide Himself a lamb for a burnt offering.’ So, they both went on together. And they came to the place of which God had told him. And Abraham built an altar there... [of whole stone] ...and laid the wood in order. And he bound his son Isaac and laid him on the wood, upon the altar. And Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slay his son. And the angel of the LORD called to him from the heavens and said, ‘Abraham! Abraham!’ And he said, ‘Here I am.’ And He said, ‘Do not lay your hand upon the lad...’” (vs 8-12). That shows that he had to be about 15-years-old.

“...nor do anything to him, for now I know that you fear God, seeing you have not withheld your son, your only son, from Me.’ And Abraham lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, behind him a ram was entangled in a thicket by its horns....” (vs 12-13).

I don't know how it got there; I don't know if an angel led it up there and stuck its horns in the thicket. I don't know if God created instantly a ram stuck in the thicket; that could be, too. When they came up there they didn't see it. I'm sure they were looking around, because Abraham said, ‘God will provide a lamb.’ I imagine that they were looking, ‘Where's the lamb?’

“...And Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up for a burnt offering instead of his son” (v 13)—a substitutionary sacrifice!

- How does that apply spiritually to us?
- What are the wages of sin? Death!
- How do we die? A symbolic death in baptism!

which accomplishes a lot of things:

- cleansing of sin
- your covenant pledge unto death that you will keep your promise to God

God has already proved His promise to you! (Rom. 6)

Verse 14: “And Abraham called the name of that place The LORD Will Provide; so that it is said until this day, ‘In the mount of the LORD it will be provided.’ And the angel of the LORD called to Abraham out of heaven the second time, and said, ‘By Myself have I sworn,’ says the LORD...” (vs 14-16).

When God swears by Himself, He's swearing by His existence and everything that He stands for!

“...because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son; that in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply your seed like the stars of the heavens...” (vs 16-17)—the sacrifice for the spiritual seed; whereas the circumcision was the sacrifice for the physical seed!

“...and as the sand, which is upon the seashore.” (v 17). It took care of both!

Isaac was a type of Christ, symbolic, but he was physical and had children—Jacob and Esau! Then Jacob had the 12 sons and his name was changed to Israel.

Let's show that this took place—Gen. 15—on the Passover Day and the night following.

Exodus 12:41: “And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years...”

We had 400 years (Gen. 15) and now we have 430 years! We had 15 years from Gen. 15 until Isaac was born, then we have 15 years by deduction that Isaac had to be 15-years-old: 15+15=30+400=430 years.

“...it was even on that very same day, all the armies of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt” (v 41).

What day was that? The day after the Passover Day! That means that the first part off the pledge that God gave to Abraham took place on the Passover Day.

As the day began, then you have the night and then in the morning Abraham laid out the sacrifice. Then you have Abraham having the symbolic death and the sun went down and the promise was made. The sacrifices were burned to ashes.

Verse 42: "It is a night to be much observed to the LORD..." That's how that works!

This shows that every single day that God says that we are to observe:

- the Sabbath
- the Passover
- Unleavened Bread
- Pentecost
- Trumpets
- Atonement
- Tabernacles
- Last Great Day

all picture mammoth, important events that will literally take place to fulfill the Word of God!

CHAPTER NINE

Overview of the Holy Days

All the understanding of God's purpose and plan is gradually unfolded to us throughout God's Word

Fred R. Coulter

Greetings, brethren! Welcome to Sabbath services!

With all the exciting things going on in the world, we have rest on the Sabbath, and we're going to look at God's purpose for us today, and analyze a little bit more about the Holy Days, since they're coming up real soon.

I would like to mention that we have all the material in this booklet Rome's Challenge to the Protestants, by Cardinal Gibbon of Baltimore in 1893. We also have it in Appendix N in The Holy Bible in Its Original Order, A Faithful Version. Let me suggest that you read the commentaries before and the appendices after are very vital for your overall understanding about the Bible and the Word of God. It will assist greatly in your study. One of the most important appendices that we have is Appendix Z: Understanding Paul's Difficult Scriptures Concerning the Law and the Commandments of God.

You will see that if you're still using an old King James Version or a New King James Version, or any other version, they carry through all the errors plus adding new ones that were in the KJV. In The Holy Bible in Its Original Order, A Faithful Version those have all been corrected.

Let's see what we're to do on the Sabbath, and see about the purpose of God.

Psalm 78:1: "Give ear, O my people, to my law; incline your ears to the words of my mouth. I will open my mouth in a parable; I will speak dark sayings of old" (vs 1-2)—because they're all hidden in the Bible!

I want to mention something else, we have the DVD—True Fellowship with God. I want you to get that and really listen to it, especially if you're discouraged or down in the dumps, because when we come to Sabbath services God wants us to look at His purpose over all, in our lives and be encouraged that regardless of what's going on God is with us, in us and working with us! Keep that in mind!

2-Timothy 1:7: "For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of sound-mindedness"—which comes from using the Word of God written in our heart and mind by God's Holy Spirit to think correctly!

There are many things out in the world to lead us astray! This is why this is good that we come every Sabbath, because it helps us keep our thoughts oriented on God's way.

Verse 8: "Therefore, you should not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me His prisoner; but jointly suffer with me for the sake of the Gospel, according to the power of God."

Don't worry about the circumstances that are happening even right now, because a lot of us are alone, or maybe two, three or four. There is a Church of God down near Pasadena who was served an arrest warrant to the pastors, saying they couldn't have any meetings. So, be sure and keep that in mind. That's Rock Church of God. All the authorities that are closing down meetings are:

1. against God
2. against the Constitution, which they have taken an oath to uphold

So, we're perfectly all right meeting in small groups or even larger groups, because all the political people believe that the protests are okay, that is if you belong to a certain political party.

Verse 9: "Who has saved us..."

- we've been saved from our sins
- we're constantly in a state of being saved
- we shall be saved at the resurrection

"...and called us with a Holy calling..." (v 9). And that's directly from God Himself to each one of us! We always need to keep that in mind.

"—not according to our works..." (v 9)—because our own works are not motivated by God's Spirit! But all of the works of God... When you read Rev. 2 & 3 with the churches, what's the first thing that Jesus said? I know your works! IF you have faith, you will have works!

But God's works, that we love Him, keep His commandments, obey His laws—keep His Sabbath and Holy Days—those are the most important things that we do. Where would we be without that Sabbath every single week? On the Sabbath Day, regardless of where you are, if you are there to worship and serve God and study His Word, He is there with you!

Think about this: Someone is going to say, 'I'm all alone!' *No you're not, because Paul wrote that 'where two or three are gathered together, quoting Christ, there I [Christ] am in the midst of you! If you are there alone, and you have the Spirit of God, you have the Father and the Son with you, so you're not alone!

"...but according to His own purpose and grace..." (v 9). God has His purpose! We are part of something so great and far-reaching and fantastic that it's awesome to even contemplate it.

"...which was given us in Christ Jesus before the ages of time" (v 9). Think about that!

Little ole us! And all of God's people down through time, a Holy calling from God Himself!

- Who was the One Who drew us to Himself? The Father!
- Who was the One Who redeemed us from our sins? Jesus Christ through His sacrifice!

That was all planned!

Now then, to understand the plan of God, we have the Sabbath and Holy Days. Let's talk a little bit more about the purpose of God.

Isa. 14 is where it's recorded that Satan rebelled to takeover the Throne of God. Of course, Rev. 12 tells us that a third of the angels joined in the rebellion. Isa. 14 talks about the Assyrian to be destroyed on the mountains of Israel. There are two fulfillments of that:

1. During the days of King Hezekiah, which was during the lifetime of Isaiah the prophet (Isa. 37-39). The whole army of the Assyrians came to conquer Judea and Jerusalem. God fought very cleverly. While they were all sleeping to get a good night's rest before the battle, God sent a powerful angel and they all died, 180,000!
2. At the return of Christ with the King of the North and all the other kings of the nations gathered around. That's all within this Isa. 14.

Now let's see something about God. The only thing that can change God's mind; there's only one thing that can change God's mind to defer something for a time. Repentance! That is the only thing!

Isaiah 14:24: "The LORD of hosts has sworn... [when He swears by Himself there is no wiggle-room] ...saying, 'Surely as I have thought, so it shall come to pass; and as I have purposed, so it shall stand.'"

Think about that! Everything that God has, we read it and it was proposed before the ages of time. Think about how all that planning had to go in to effect to create the Earth. The Earth doesn't sit out here by itself. You've got the sun and then Mercury, Venus, Earth, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus and on out into outer space and the universe.

God is preparing the universe for His people. Think about your calling. You need to think with the Spirit of God how great, broad and fantastic that is.

Verse 26: "This is the purpose that is purposed upon all the earth... [everything here] ...and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations"—and we know through the Holy Days everyone who has ever lived and died! Amazing! Think of that!

Verse 27: "For the LORD of hosts has purposed, and who shall reverse it?... [no one] ...And His hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?" No one! The purpose of God is going to be done!

Let's add something very interesting to understanding the Scriptures before we begin looking at the Holy Days and what they mean.

Psa. 119 is the longest Psalm in the book of Psalms, and all the Levitical singers were required to memorize it. To help them memorize it, each verse began with the Hebrew letter that is directly over each eight-verse section.

Psalm 119:159: "Consider how I love Your precepts... [an operation that God is going to do or is doing] ...O LORD, according to Your loving kindness give me life. Your Word is true from the beginning, and every one of Your righteous ordinances endures forever" (vs 159-160).

What are the Holy Days? Ordinances of God! Think about that!

Verse 128: "Therefore, I esteem all Your precepts concerning all things to be right... [if they're right, then they're true] ...and I hate every false way."

Let's put this together with Isa. 28. Since God's Word is true from the beginning, and there's no lie in it, and all His precepts are right or true, when it says in:

Isaiah 28:13: "So then, the Word of the LORD was to them precept upon precept, precept upon precept... [Truth upon Truth, because everything that God says is Truth] ...line upon line, line upon line... [showing how we study and put it together] ...here a little, there a little..."

For those who don't know the Truth, they will fall away and go backward!

On first appearance when someone would pickup the Bible to read it, they would not know the significance of what it's telling them. They would not have a clue! It's also interesting, and here's a precept of God: Lev. 23 is the only place in the entire Bible that gives the Holy Days listed in chronological and calendrical order, which is the Calculated Hebrew Calendar.

A person not knowing anything about the Hebrew calendar ask—and I get letters like this every once in a while—is the Passover Day of the 14th day of January? That's the first month of the Roman calendar! So, you can tell that this is a newbie!

Another interesting thing that is an operation by faith: God gave to the Levitical priesthood the calculations of the calendar, calculations that He established! He did not put it in the Bible, so those are the oracles of God given to the priesthood.

In spite of all the sins of the Jews and the priesthood, they have preserved the Old Testament and they have preserved the calendar. Why? Because God determined that through them He would preserve it and we can have absolute faith in that!

Leviticus 23:1: “And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying.”

As we all know, the three most important words are obey My voice, and it's written down. So, when we read the Bible it's like God talking to us. Think of that! He had it preserved for all time until the return of Christ. In it is preserved the outline of His whole purpose. A lot of people don't believe in God because they don't know what He's doing, and they are not willing to take the very first step, which is listed right here in Lev. 23.

Verse 2: “Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, ‘Concerning the appointed Feasts of the LORD, which you shall proclaim to be Holy convocations, even these are My appointed Feasts’”—or times!

Think of it this way: if you have an appointment with someone, you're expected to be there, and you're expected to the one who wants you to come to that appointment to be there, as well. God is always there! So, you are required to come to His appointment, the Sabbath Day!

Verse 3: “Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of rest, a Holy convocation. You shall not do any work. It is a Sabbath to the LORD in all your dwellings.”

That is an appointed time every week! God has preserved the knowledge of the seven-day week, even though during the French Revolution they tried to have a ten-day week. That didn't workout so well!

Tie in New Testament doctrine on the Sabbath: Jesus said that ‘the Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath, therefore, the Son of man is the Lord of the Sabbath Day.’ Even in the New Testament the Sabbath is required, and Christ is the Lord of it. He always has been and always will be.

There's more to it; v 4: “These are the appointed Feasts of the LORD, Holy convocations, which you shall proclaim in their appointed seasons. In the fourteenth day of the first month, between the two evenings... [after sunset and before dark] ...is the LORD'S Passover” (vs 4-5).

It's not the Jews' Passover! What Passover is the Jews' Passover? The next day, which is actually the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread!

This goes all the way back to Gen. 3 with the sin of Adam and Eve. It's interesting about their sin. After God created them, what was the first thing that was brought to their attention? The Sabbath Day! Just like the first thing of the Feasts of God here is the Sabbath Day.

How long they were in the Garden of Eden before they sinned, we don't know. But it had to be plenty long enough for them to know everything they needed to know, and to have enough knowledge to think that IF they decided to choose their own way they could make it succeed. Therefore, the serpent could not have entered into the garden the very next day. They would not have had enough knowledge about what God wanted and what they should do. How long that was we don't know.

But after they sinned was the first prophecy of Jesus Christ and likewise that goes clear forward to 30^{A.D.} with the crucifixion of Jesus Christ.

All of the other prophecies about Christ and His sacrifice are scattered through Psalms, the Prophets and the Gospels. Amazing thing, really!

The next one, the day after, v 6: “And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to the LORD. You must eat unleavened bread seven days.”

Why do we have this? So, that we know that we have to come out of sin and the world! That follows the Passover because Christ is our Passover Who was sacrificed for us, therefore, we're not to be living in sin! The Law of God tells us what sin is, which is the transgression of the Law.

Sidebar: Keep this in mind: Did God authorize anyone to change the words of the Law that He has spoken? No one!

Think about that when you look at fake Christianity in the world.

- they use the Bible, but they don't know the Bible
- they claim the Lord Jesus, but they don't know Him

It's because they live in perpetual sin with:

- Sunday-keeping
- holiday-keeping

They fulfill the prophecy in Isaiah that says to Israel, 'You have made Me to serve with your sins!' Quite an amazing thing! How true is the Bible? Think about everything that you go through.

Verse 7: "On the first day you shall have a Holy convocation..."

This shows us that there is a Satan the devil; he's out there and the author of sin. In our own mind we're not only to change our behavior, but our thoughts with the Spirit of God. Then we have that for seven days.

Verse 8: "...In the seventh day is a Holy convocation..."

What happened on the Passover with Israel when they were in Egypt? They had the sacrifice of the Passover lamb! That Passover lamb was not for the forgiveness of sin. That was for protection of the firstborn.

Go forward to the Passover of Christ: He was the Firstborn of Mary and the only Begotten of the Father.

On the Passover night, at midnight, is when God passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt and killed the firstborn of the Egyptians.

Fast forward to the Passover of Jesus, at midnight He was arrested and taken off to be judged and crucified. That comes clear back to Gen. 15.

Just like we read, 'a precept here, a precept there, here a little and there a little.' You don't find any of this in Lev. 23. So, if you just pick it up and read it you think 'that's strange, I wonder what it means.' The rest of the Bible tells us what it means!

Then we have what is called The Wave Sheaf Offering Day!

Verse 9: "And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying... [these are the words of God] ...'Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, "When you have come into the land, which I give to you, and shall reap the harvest of it, then you shall bring the premier sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the priest. And he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD to be accepted for you. On the next day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it" (vs 9-11).

That's the regular Sabbath during Unleavened Bread, or more correctly the first day after the Sabbath during Unleavened Bread! There are times when the Passover falls on the Sabbath Day, and then that becomes the Sabbath and the next day becomes the Wave Sheaf Offering Day.

What does all of that mean? For Israel it was that they could go out and start working and harvesting and bringing in the harvest of the grain.

For the New Testament it is the harvest of God for the first resurrection!

Then it tells all the offerings to bring, to be counted specifically seven full weeks plus one day, which adds up to 50 days. Then they were to all bring two loaves made of finely beaten flour and bring them to the temple. Every other offering to God for sin—and this is not a sin offering—had to have unleavened bread. But these loaves had to be leavened, because that pictures the change of the bread permanently baked. That typifies the change at the resurrection permanently now spirit beings.

Think of this: here's everybody gathered around in the temple area and the tents around there. At a certain moment when the priest gave the signal, they were to take these loaves and wave them. Think if you were on the top of the Mt. Olives looking toward the temple and all the people were there and here are these loaves that they're waving. That pictures the first resurrection because they're raised up! But you don't find any of that here. You have to find that in the rest of the Bible.

Then we come to the next one, which is the Feast of Trumpets. That's a War Feast, and that projects that whenever there is a war Israel was not to go out to battle unless God said to go, and God would be with them and the battle would be the Lord's!

Whenever Israel went out on their own they didn't succeed, so that tells us a pretty long lesson. If we try and do things on our own, without yielding to God, it's not going to work. But if we do what God says, like 'remember the Sabbath Day to keep it Holy' we'll be blessed. So, this War Feast actually projects toward the conquering of the land with the children of Israel capturing the land from the Canaanites. That's the first fulfillment!

Then subsequent wars that God told them to do and then it comes clear to the end at the return of Christ and the wars at the end, and the final Battle of Armageddon. None of that's here, because it only says:

Verse 24: "Speak to the children of Israel saying, 'In the seventh month, in the first day of the month, you shall have a Sabbath, a memorial of blowing of ram's horns, a Holy convocation."

The next one is the Day of Atonement, which is interesting. From it you get virtually very little understanding, unless you understand that there's a Satan the devil. What is he called in the New Testament? The god of this world!

That's why one goat is for the Lord to be sacrificed for a sin offering. That's a type of Christ. Then the other one is a type of Satan the devil. That one is not sacrificed, but sent into the wilderness and let go alive symbolizing that Satan is a spirit being and will not die.

But this shows the fairness of God. In what way? Christ paid for your sins and the sins of the whole world with His sacrifice for every human being! All will have an opportunity for that through the Holy Days and the Last Great Day, but that will have to wait to come.

- In this age, who is the author of sin? Satan!
- Is there an atonement for Satan's sin?
- Is there an atonement for Satan's sin that he makes us sin?

We have our part because we sin, but God would not be just if He didn't lay all the sins on Satan that are pictured by the live goat that is let loose. That's why the goat that was sacrificed for the sins of the children of Israel are covered.

The sins that they sinned instigated by Satan the devil are not covered or forgiven, but are removed, symbolizing that there will never, never, ever be any peace or forgiveness as long as Satan is around. That is unless you come to Christ!

When you read Rev. 20 Satan is bound. What's the first thing that happens when he's loosed? War! That shows that when Satan is around, people sin. But at that time these people would have already rejected Christ, and their war is a war to their own destruction.

After that we have the Feast of Tabernacles that pictures the Millennium, when Satan will be removed, when all people will have an opportunity for salvation. But there have to be other Scriptures brought in just like we read in Isa. 28 to put it together and understand it.

Then the Last Great Day! That's really quite a day!

Everyone that God did not call and did not commit the unpardonable sin will be raised for an opportunity for salvation. Jesus said, 'Anyone.'

- How about all those who lived, died, and were not called?
- How about all of those in the Flood?
- How about all of those who were aborted?
- How about all of those in accidents?

When we watch the news tonight, what are we going to find? Well, there's war here, shooting there, bombing there, riots over here, all instigated by Satan! It won't be then.

We will do a survey of the Gospel of John and the framework of the Passover and Holy Days, so that people will know and understand the Holy Days are the most significant thing necessary to understand the purpose of what God is doing!

We're going to do an interesting survey, because if the Holy Days and the Sabbath were done away. The Gospels would not have Christ going into the synagogues on the Sabbath.

One of the first things that Christ made clear; Matthew 5:17: "Do not think..."

What happens when someone says don't think? They will think the opposite! In the Greek these are double negatives meaning:

Absolutely, v 17: "Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I did not come to abolish, but to fulfill."

This does not mean not to do it to make it of no value, it means to complete it to make it of greater value!

Verse 18: "For truly I say to you, until the heaven and the earth shall pass away..."

If you're talking to a Protestant, ask him 'What are we standing on? What are we breathing? Heaven and earth are still here!

"...one jot or one tittle shall in no way..." (v 18). There's the double negative: don't think it, it's not going to be a reality, neither one.

"...pass from the Law until everything has been fulfilled. Therefore, whoever shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so... [you won't here this on TBN or in any Sunday-keeping church] ...shall be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven; but whoever shall practice and teach them, this one shall be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven" (vs 18-19).

Think about it, because we're up against that! Then it says:

Verse 20: "For I say to you, unless your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, there is no way... [double negative again] ...that you shall enter into the Kingdom of Heaven." Think about that!

What is the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees? Not the laws and commandments of God, but their own traditions that they hold in higher esteem than they do the laws and commandments of God!

One of the leading rabbis told Roy Assanti when Roy said, ‘If you would not keep your traditions you would be just like us, because keep the commandments.’ The rabbi replied, ‘Oh, if we didn’t have our traditions we’d have nothing at all!’

Same thing applies to Catholics and Protestants. They have their traditions and laws, but it’s not of God!

Verse 21: “You have heard that it was said to those in ancient times, ‘You shall not commit murder; but whoever commits murder shall be subject to judgment.’” Let’s take this, in just a minute, and apply it to the Sabbath!

Verse 22: “But I say to you, everyone who is angry with his brother without cause shall be subject to judgment. Now, you have heard it said, ‘Whoever shall say to his brother, “Raca,” shall be subject to the judgment of the council.’ But I say to you, whoever shall say, ‘You fool,’ shall be subject to the fire of Gehenna.” That’s pretty strong!

Since Jesus said the He’s Lord of the Sabbath, what would have to happen with the Sabbath and Holy Days? We would have to have a command just exactly like He said in Matt. 5:

You have heard that it was said to those in ancient times that you shall remember the Sabbath Day to keep it Holy, but I tell you, you shall keep Sunday because I came to change it.

The only reason that Jesus would have had to do, is because no man can change what God has commanded! Only God can change what He’s commanded. So, if God changed it from the seventh day to the first day, you would have to find it in the New Testament. I’ll pay anyone $10-million—because I know I’ll never have to pay it—because it’s not there! This commandment would have to be:

You’ve heard it said in ancient times that you shall remember the Sabbath to keep it Holy, but I say to you, I came to change the law and change it to Sunday. And you have heard it said in ancient times that you shall keep the Holy Days of God, but I say to you that I came to abolish those and replace them with the pagan holidays of Satan the devil!

That’s what Christ would have had to say! So, all if the fake Christians out there—their pastors, their priests—are in violation, walking in sin, rejecting the commandments of God.

Mark 2:27: “And He said to them, “The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath”—which means that man cannot tell God that he’s changing the Sabbath from the seventh day to the first day, because it’s more convenient for people!

Verse 28: “Therefore, the Son of man is Lord even of the Sabbath.”

- Who is the Son of man? Jesus Christ!
- Who is Lord of the Sabbath? Jesus Christ!

He is the Lord of Passover and all the Holy Days. In those and the meaning of them all the understanding of God’s purpose and plan is gradually unfolded to us so that we have understanding! But how many are willing to do that?

We will see that the Gospel of John has three Passover seasons. We find the fourth one in Luke 6. We find a great fulfillment of Pentecost. Also, the Gospel of John talk more about God the Father, coupled with 1st, 2nd & 3rd John—than all of the other parts of the Bible put together. John was the one whom Jesus loved; furthermore he was descendant of the priests. So important was John that he was the only one to receive the revelation of Jesus Christ contained in the book of Revelation, which came from God the Father. No one else!

One other thing about John, because he was of the priestly family. In Rev. 4 he hears a trumpet and it says, ‘Come up here!’ He comes up and sees the Throne of the Father, the only man to ever do that!

Everything that is written by John in his Gospel and three epistles are absolutely essential for understanding:

- what we are to do
- what days that we keep
- how we develop the love of God

John 2—this all took place after He had His temptation in the wilderness with Satan the devil and recuperated.

John 2:13: “Now the Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.”

Why did John write it “...the Passover of the Jews...”? Because during the days of Jesus the majority of the people kept the 14th Passover, which was the 14th day of the 1st month!

The priests (John 19) kept the wrong day, calling it Passover on the 15th. {Our book The Christian Passover answers every argument!} John was writing this so that it was going to go out to all the Gentiles.

Jesus went to Jerusalem, v 14: “And He found in the temple...” Here’s a fulfillment of a Scripture, a particular one by the last prophet who was Malachi: the Lord shall suddenly come His temple!

“...those who were selling oxen and sheep and doves, and the money exchangers sitting there”

(v 14).

Money exchangers: the Jews in the Diaspora would come from whatever country they were in, and the local currency they had could not be used at the temple, because they were living in Gentile lands and was technically unclean. However, quite clean enough for the money exchangers to take it!

So, in order to buy a sacrifice, they would first have to go to the money exchangers and receive temple coins and then buy the sacrifice. But they were all cheating and so forth. Notice what Jesus did in His sudden appearance.

Verse 15: “And after making a scourge of cords, He drove them all out of the temple... [not just scare them and chase them away] ...with both the sheep and the oxen; and He poured out the coins of the money exchangers, and overturned the tables. And to those who were selling the doves, He said, ‘Take these things out of here!.... [that was to be done outside the confines of the temple area] ...Do not make My Father’s house a house of merchandise” (vs 15-16).

That’s very important for all ministers and Protestants, you merchandise the people like crazy! Those who are faithful will pay their tithes and offerings. You don’t have to ‘beat them over the head’! If someone is not wanting to give it, ‘beating them over the head’ will make them give with resentment.

So, on this Passover He cleaned it up and they couldn’t understand why He was doing this; they said, ‘By what authority do you do this?’ He didn’t tell them! He also did it before His last Passover.

Verse 18: “As a result, the Jews answered and said to Him, ‘What sign do You show to us, seeing that You do these things?’ Jesus answered and said to them, ‘Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.’ Then the Jews said, ‘This temple was forty-six years in building, and You will raise it up in three days?’” (vs 18-20).

Verse 23: “Now, when He was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the Feast...” You have the Passover and the Feast. Passover is one day (Lev. 23) and the Feast of Unleavened Bread is seven days.

“...many believed on His name, as they observed the miracles that He was doing”—healing the sick, the blind, restoring people who were lame, etc.

Verse 24: “But Jesus did not entrust Himself to them...” When they thought that He was That Prophet they wanted to take him and make Him king.

Verse 25: “And He did not need anyone to testify concerning man, for He Himself knew what was in man.”

- What is in man? Carnal nature!
- What is that like? Jer. 17!

In John 4 Jesus is on His way back to Galilee. I won’t go into about the woman at the well, if you want to know about that, go to Church at Home {churchathome.org} and I go through and explain that God is looking for those to worship Him in Spirit and in Truth.

When Jesus didn’t want to eat what they brought, His disciples didn’t know what to think.

John 4:33: “Then the disciples said to one another, ‘Did anyone bring Him something to eat?’ Jesus said to them, ‘My meat is to do the will of Him Who sent Me, and to finish His work.’”

Here’s an allusion to Pentecost and the harvest; v 35: “Do not say that there are yet four months, and then the harvest comes. I say to you, look around. Lift up your eyes and see the fields, for they are already white to harvest.”

Tie in Matt. 13 about the sowing of the seed and the harvest, and all of that. The harvest represents the resurrection at the end of the age on Pentecost.

Verse 36: “And the one who reaps receives a reward, and gathers fruit unto eternal life; so that the one who is sowing and the one who is reaping may both rejoice together. For in this the saying is true, that one sows and another reaps” (vs 36-37).

Then Jesus gave them something really important to understand. Here are all of the Law and Prophets up to Christ. God was preparing everything for the ministry of Christ, and God was making it so that He would choose the 12 disciples to become the 12 apostles. There’s a lot going on here.

For the first coming of Christ we have all the prophecies from the Prophets and the promises to Abraham.

Verse 38: “I sent you to reap that in which you have not labored; others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.”

That’s very important for us today. We have the Word of God because of the labor of all of those honest and faithful preservers of the words of Christ. I have at home a book that is 480-years-old: Stephen’s 1550 New Testament Greek. I can tell you from that, the Greek that we translated for the New Testament is exactly the same there as it is in the Received Text.

God is faithful and will preserve His Word!

Look at all the laborers who were before us. Look at all of those in the Church in the Piedmonts, which ended up being called the Waldensians. They went into Europe evangelizing.

A little addition to that: Just to show that today we need to look at what other people have done and God has used. So, it's possible for us. Look at all the things we're using technologically. Other people made it and we're using what they made.

Sidebar: John Guenther who is doing historical work of the Church of God has discovered that in the first 300 years after Christ there were times that in the British Isles they were keeping the Passover, the Sabbath and the commandments of God, and he's got the documentation. Amazing!

Quite different from what we first heard if you've been in the Church for a long time. What was one of the first things you heard? The Gospel was not preached in 18-1/2 centuries! Not true! There was a big work in Britain and Europe, and in the mountains of the Piedmonts.

When the Catholic Church sought to crush it, the Protestant Reformation came out of that. Unfortunately, they didn't follow William Tyndale's admonition that 'we are to keep the commandments of God from the bottom ground of our heart!'

Have you read anything of William Tyndale? Amazing! Amazing man!

Here it is, the harvest is white, leading up to Pentecost.

Note our book: A Harmony of the Gospels—Matthew, Mark, Luke and John all synchronized with pictures and commentary telling you about the life of Jesus Christ. It's something that will really help you. This is the third edition in its third printing.

- What happened to Jesus next on the Holy Day of Pentecost?
- How do we know?

In the translation, it doesn't show it quite as well as in the Greek, so there's a footnote in The Faithful Version!

Luke 4:16: "And He came to Nazareth... [He was up there in Samaria and now He comes down to Nazareth] ... where He had been brought up; and according to His custom, He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath Day..."

Pentecost is a Sabbath Day, but this in the Greek is on the day of the Sabbaths—plural—which means the seven Sabbaths of the seven weeks to Pentecost.

"...and stood up to read. And there was given Him the book of the prophet Isaiah; and when He had unrolled the scroll, He found the place where it was written, 'The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me...'" (vs 16-18).

On what day did God send the Holy Spirit? Pentecost! See how all that ties in?

"...for this reason, He has anointed Me to preach the Gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to heal those who are brokenhearted, to proclaim pardon to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to send forth in deliverance those who have been crushed, to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord" (vs 18-19)—which is the first year of the ministry of Jesus Christ!

All of this is in the New Testament. John 6—here again it talks about Passover in very important detailed instructions about the meaning of Passover.

John 6:4: "Now, the Passover a Feast of the Jews, was near." What did He do? He fed the thousands!

Verse 27: "Do not labor for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures unto eternal life, which the Son of man shall give to you; for Him has God the Father sealed. Therefore, they said to Him..." (vs 27-28).

This is always true of carnal people; they always want to do what is good to gain favor with God. God wants, first, repentance and doing His commandments, so they asked Jesus:

"... 'What shall we do, in order that we ourselves may do the works of God?' Jesus answered and said to them, 'This is the work of God: that you believe in Him Whom He has sent.' ... [Himself] ... Therefore, they said to Him, 'What sign will You perform, that we may see it and believe You? What work will You do? Our fathers ate manna in the wilderness, as it is written: "He gave them bread to eat that came down from heaven"' (vs 28-31). They were quoting Scripture! They do that!

This sounds like something all politicians would like, that they would have the key to have bread come down and feed all of their constituents and they would always have a unified vote, that they could never be voted out. I think of that every time I read it.

Verse 32: "Then Jesus said to them, 'Truly, truly I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven; but My Father gives you the true Bread from heaven.'"

He's talking about Himself, and the symbolism of what the Passover would mean with the bread and the wine. But of course, the Jews here wouldn't understand it.

Verse 33: "For the Bread of God is He Who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.' Therefore, they said to Him, 'Lord, give this bread to us always.' Jesus said to them, 'I AM the Bread of Life; the one who comes to Me shall never hunger; and the one who believes in Me shall never thirst at any time'" (vs 33-35).

He was talking on a spiritual level about Himself Who was to become the Passover Lamb of God!

Verse 36: "But as I said to you, you also have seen Me, yet, you do not believe. All whom the Father gives Me shall come to Me, and the one who comes to Me I will in no wise cast out" (vs 36-37).

Think about how important this is because He had to have human nature; v 38: "For I did not come down from heaven to do My own will, but the will of Him Who sent Me." That's quite a statement!

The whole thing about the Sabbath and the Holy Days is the will of God, and how we are to live.

Verse 39: "And this is the will of the Father Who sent Me: that of all whom He has given Me, I should not lose any, but should raise them up in the last day."

The last day for those who are converted is not the last day of the Feast—the Last Great Day—but the last day meaning Pentecost, which is the 50th day and the last count of the 50 days!

Verse 40: "And this is the will of Him Who sent Me: that everyone who sees the Son, and believes in Him, may have eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.' Then the Jews were complaining against Him, because He said, 'I AM the Bread that came down from heaven'" (vs 40-41).

Then Jesus goes through and explains everything concerning salvation, which depends on the Passover, that last Passover that Jesus took, and His crucifixion! Then He summarizes here:

Verse 53: "Therefore, Jesus said to them, 'Truly, truly I say to you, unless... [if you do not] ...you eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink His blood, you do not have life in yourselves.'" Of course, the Jews said, 'How is He going to do that?'

Verse 54: "The one who eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up in the last day; for My flesh is truly food, and My blood is truly drink" (vs 54-55).

This shows the complete dedication that God has to us and our dedication back to Him—both!

Verse 56: "The one who eats My flesh and drinks My blood is dwelling in Me, and I in him.... [think about all the things that we've read up to this point]: ...As the living Father has sent Me, and I live by the Father; so also the one who eats Me shall live by Me" (vs 56-57). Complete dedication to God!

That's the explanation of the Passover where He said that of the bread and the wine: Do this in the remembrance of Me!

John 7—Feast of Tabernacles. Jesus went up there secretly, because He knew they were looking for Him, but what did He do? His brothers came to Him and said, 'Why don't you go up to the Feast, because no man does what You're doing unless He wants to be seen by others.'

Jesus said, 'No, I won't go up at this time, but you go up.' Now think about this: If the Holy Days were to be done away, He would have said that you don't need to go up because they're all going to be done away, stick around.' But He didn't do that!

He went up secretly. How would He go up secretly? Just change His form a little bit like He did with the two going to Emmaus! Remember that after the resurrection? No one would recognize Him.

Then in the middle of the Feast He gets up and starts preaching and teaching again. Jesus:

- kept the Passover
- kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread
- kept the Feast of Pentecost
- kept the Feast of Tabernacles
- kept the Last Great Day

John 7:37: "Now, in the last day, the great day of the Feast, Jesus stood and called out, saying, 'If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink. The one who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.' But this He spoke concerning the Spirit, which those who believed in Him would soon receive; for the Holy Spirit was not yet given because Jesus was not yet glorified" (vs 37-39). Take these words right here and analyze them:

- anyone—anyone, period!
- the last day—there is a second resurrection—(Rev. 20)

That's when they will have the opportunity! In the world there are three categories of people:

1. those who belong to Christ, love God the Father and Jesus Christ, keep the commandments, the Sabbaths and Holy Days

2. the people in the world who are out there that are blinded because they have not been given the calling, so their minds have not been opened and they live decent lives and are not committing the unpardonable sin
3. those who commit the unpardonable sin—those who reject God the Father and Jesus Christ by being complete Satan-worshippers today

When this last group is resurrected they refuse to repent! They will go into the Lake of Fire!

Everyone gets a first opportunity, so you have the wait for the message on the Last Great Day.

The next Passover, John 13-17 are all the most important words of the New Covenant! The very words of Christ bringing you, in love, with Him and the Father, and for you to know that God has personally chosen you! That's so great! Think about it!

- He's not calling the rich
- He's not calling the wise
- He's not calling the famous

He's calling us so that we can love Him and do the things that's He wants!

Mark 14—This is interesting, a little background on what it was done this way. Who was the one to betray Jesus? Judas! He was looking for an opportune time to betray Jesus. This is why Jesus didn't tell the disciples where they were going to have the Passover, because He didn't want Judas to know.

He sent Peter and John into the city and 'follow a man carrying a pitcher and into whatever house he goes in, go in there and tell the master of the house the Teacher says I want to keep the Passover with My disciples.'

Judas could not betray Him during the Passover service. So, they had the Passover service and then Judas was given the sop and he left. They first had the foot-washing and then they had:

Mark 14:17: "Now after evening had come, He came with the twelve. And as they sat and were eating, Jesus said, 'Truly I say to you, one of you shall betray Me, even he who is eating with Me'" (vs 17-18).

So, Judas was right there for the start. He couldn't go before hand and say, 'Hey I know where He's keeping the Passover, you can get Him over here.'

Verse 19: "And they began to be extremely sad... [that one of them was betraying Him] ...and said to Him one by one, 'Is it I?' And another, 'Is it I?' But He answered and said to them, 'The one who is dipping a morsel into the dish with Me, he is the one of you twelve. The Son of man indeed goes, just as it has been written of Him...'" (vs 19-21).

That means that all of the Scriptures concerning His crucifixion, every one of the Scriptures that says that Jesus was the Lord God of the Old Testament inspired the Prophets, David and the different ones to write, especially Isaiah about the crucifixion. David about the very words of Christ while He was on the cross, 'as it was written of Him.'

"...but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! It would be better for that man if he had not been born" (v 21).

Verse 22: "And as they were eating, Jesus took bread; and after blessing it, He broke it and gave it to them, and said, 'Take, eat; this is My body'"—symbolic of His body!

Our conversion with the Spirit of God the Father and Christ in us is so intimate with God that the covenant is based upon the very sacrifice of Christ. You can't eat that sacrifice, but the symbolism of it is that you're going to live by Christ. The bread pictures every word of God! Jesus was called the Word! He was the Lord God of the Old Testament. All of those things come together!

Verse 23: "And He took the cup; and after giving thanks, He gave it to them; and they all drank of it. And He said to them, 'This is My blood, the blood of the New Covenant, which is poured out for many'" (vs 23-24)—the sins of the whole world, but each one individually!

There has to be the shedding of blood before a covenant can be enacted. A covenant is never valid until both parties have given the sacrifice. Christ gave His; ours is baptism, both signifying death and life! When you're buried under the water, you're burying your old self. That is your sacrifice, because you're telling God, 'I will be faithful to the end!'

Therefore, you're joined to the sacrifice of Christ. That's the symbolic meaning and fulfilling in our lives, because God sends His Spirit to dwell in us. That's what's so absolutely amazing and astonishing that the Great Sovereign of the universe would do that with His people! That is so great.

Verse 25: "Truly I say to you, I will not drink again at all of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the Kingdom of God."

When will that be? We will all drink it at the Wedding Supper of the Lamb!

- I wonder what it's going to be like to eat spiritual food?

- I wonder what it's going to be like to drink spiritual wine?
- I wonder what it's going to be like to be dressed with spiritual clothes?

What God has done and is doing is fantastic!

When you look at all of these Scriptures and put them together, you see that every single one of the Holy Days marks an important aspect of the plan of God:

- to carry out His purpose
- to keep us informed
- to keep us faithful
- to keep us trusting in Him

We'll see in John 14 why! We know that Jesus said that 'if you love Me keep My commandments.' I wonder how the Protestants view that when they do away with the Sabbath and Holy Days. I wonder how they can say that? I cover John 14 a lot, because it's so important!

John 14:21: "The one who has My commandments and is keeping them... [present tense participle] ...that is the one who loves Me, and the one who loves Me shall be loved by My Father..."

Don't ever think you're not important; you're so important that the father loves you! Think on that, especially the time now with all the difficult things that are around us.

"...and I will love him and will manifest Myself to him" (v 21). Not by an apparition! But by opening your mind to the Truth and calling you!

Verse 22: "Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, 'Lord, what has happened that You are about to manifest Yourself to us, and not to the world?'" It's done by love and obedience with God's Spirit.

Verse 23—the most important verse in the whole Bible for us in this life now at this time; "Jesus answered and said to him, 'If anyone loves Me...'"

How are we to love God? With all our heart, mind, soul and strength! That's a fulltime occupation when you understand it.

"...he will keep My Word..." (v 23).

- not look for a way around it
- not look for a way to sin and justify it as okay

"...and My Father will love him..." (v 23). He said that in v 21!

"...and We will come to him and make Our abode with him" (v 23)—because the Holy Spirit is dwelling in us! That's why:

- we need study every day
- we need prayer every day
- we need that connection with God spiritually every day

So that we have our minds being constantly converted!

- led by the Holy Spirit of God
- keeping the commandments of God
- keeping the Sabbath and the Holy Days
 - ✓ which is what God created and made for us
 - ✓ in which God does all the things in His plan so that we can understand

So, here we are in the very last days! How much longer we have, we don't know, but we know one thing: Paul wrote that there would be perilous times and we're seeing how that's sprouting out in many, many different places. This is why it's important that we stay close to God!

All of this shows how important all the Holy Days of God are! We have coming up real quickly, Sept. 19, the Feast of Trumpets. After that we have Atonement and then Tabernacles and the Last Great Day. So, wherever you are, even if the circumstances are that you're alone, God the Father and Christ are with you! You will have a great and a wonderful Feast.

Let's look forward to all the Feasts of God, and remember how important the Sabbath and Holy Days are of God, and that He has given us—through His Word, Spirit, love and grace—the understanding of His plan!

CHAPTER TEN

Should We Keep the Holy Days of the Bible?

Fred R. Coulter

Most religions that profess themselves to be Christian claim that they don't have to keep them. Many of them such as the Seventh Day Adventists, and others as well, claim that because there were sacrifices on these days, therefore:

They were ritualistic and sacrificial days only and have no meaning other than what they meant in the Old Testament.

- Is that true?
- What does the Bible show?
- What does the Bible teach?
- How can people take the Bible and interpret that it's perfectly all right to keep:
 - ✓ Halloween?
 - ✓ Christmas?
 - ✓ New Years?
 - ✓ Ground Hog's Day?
 - ✓ Lent?
 - ✓ Good Friday?
 - ✓ Easter?

all of the pagan holidays

- How can people say that it's in the Bible and we can do that?
- How can people say that when it is never even listed in the Bible?
- How is that possible?

Well, here is what happens!

2-Corinthians 2:17: "For we are not like the many... [what we are dealing with is a very, very old problem] ...who for their own profit are corrupting the Word of God..." The Word of God is corrupted by:

- poor translations
- wrong texts
- corrupt interpretations
- claiming things that are not substantiated by the Bible

What needs to be done is that people need to go through the Bible and they really need to put it all together!

Isaiah 28:13: "...precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, there a little ..." and also as Paul told Timothy that you have to 'rightly divide the Word of Truth.'

2-Corinthians 2:17: "...but we speak with sincerity, as from God, and before God, and in Christ."

2 Corinthians 4:1: "Therefore, having this ministry, according as we have received mercy, we are not fainthearted. For we have personally renounced the hidden things of dishonest gain..." (vs 1-2).

That's a very important thing to do, because the human 'heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked; who can know it?' So you have to renounce that!

"...not walking in cunning craftiness..." (v 2)—walking with a hidden agenda that other people don't know, that you will craftily spring upon them at a later date!

"...nor handling the Word of God deceitfully..." (v 2)—by taking the Word of God and applying it to things that are not true and saying they are true!

"...but by manifestation of the Truth, we are commending ourselves to every man's conscience before God. But if our Gospel is hidden, it is hidden to those who are perishing; in whom the god of this age has blinded the minds of those who do not believe, lest the Light of the Gospel of the glory of Christ, Who is the image of God, should shine unto them" (vs 2-4).

So, any part of the Gospel that you have hidden from you, or blinded from you, then you need to understand that it falls into several categories:

1. you have misinterpreted the Word of God
2. you have blinded your eyes to it
3. it may be a tradition
4. Satan has blinded your mind to that part of it

Satan is trying to get all those who truly have the Spirit of God and are Christians to give up on something somewhere along the line, because he knows that 'a little leaven leavens the whole lump.'

Matt. 7 is profound! Some of these Scriptures are very basic, because this is a very basic topic. As a matter of fact, so basic that I have not given a message on proving keeping the Holy Days in years, because I'm basically dealing with all of those who keep the Holy Days. But when we come into contact with people who do not keep the Holy Days, nor understand the Holy Days, then we do need to go back and reconfirm the Truth as to why we do it, and so forth. But I'm going to approach this a little bit differently.

We have applied Matt. 7 to false prophets because it talks about false prophets. There can be a prophet who is a half-false prophet by preaching half-truth!

Matthew 7:21: "Not everyone who says to Me 'Lord, Lord' shall enter into the Kingdom of Heaven; but the one who is doing the will of My Father, Who is in heaven." That is the key!

- Are you doing the will of the Father?
- Was it the Father's will that Christ created the Sabbath?
- Was it the Father's will that Christ gave the Holy Days to the children of Israel?
- Was it the Father's will in these things?
- Was it the Father's will that what Christ did and observed be part of what God wanted? Yes, absolutely!

IF you are not doing the will of the Father, Who is in heaven:

- though you use the name of the Lord
- though you may belong to a church
- though you may have a group that really is a group that you like

Verse 22: "Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy through Your name?....'"—preached in Your name!

I have heard some stinging sermons against the Holy Days. There are tremendous errors in their way of thinking.

"...And did we not cast out demons through Your name? And did we not perform many works of power through Your name?" (v 22).

- you can have part of the fruits
- you can have some of the things that look like they come from God
- you can have some of the Truth of God

But unless you have the whole Truth of God and you are willing to live by all the Truth of God, and if you come to understand the Truth of God—which you have previously not understood—and you are willing to keep it; if you're not doing those things then you're going to end up in this category:

Verse 23: "And then I will confess to them, 'I never knew you. Depart from Me, you who work lawlessness'"—being against Law!

Since the Holy Days are part of the Law of God, you need to make very sure that you are not against the Law of God as respecting the Holy Days! The only thing you have different than a Protestant is the Sabbath! So you might as well put yourself in the same category of the Protestants if the only thing you do is keep the Sabbath. If that offends some people, well then, you might take your offense to God and find out from His Word what you need to do!

We have to keep the will of God. This is the attitude that we need, Psal. 143. The will of God is contained in His Word, and the will of God is here for us that we're to keep. We're going to see that it is the will of God that we keep the Feasts of God! As a matter of fact, we're going to see later that the Apostle Paul, with no doubt—no question whatsoever—absolutely commands the keeping of the Feast.

Psalms 143:10: "Teach me to do Your will... [God is the One Who is going to have to teach you from His Word with His Spirit] ...for You are my God; may Your good Spirit lead me on level ground of uprightness"—to be righteous before God!

Rom. 12 is a New Testament expression of that very same Psalm. This is important for us to realize, because the will of God is what we are all going to be held accountable for! Didn't Jesus say to those who were not doing the will of the Father in heaven above that they were going to be cast into outer darkness? Yes He did! Believe me, after the experience in the Lake of Fire it will be outer darkness. There will be nothing left!

Romans 12:1: "I exhort you, therefore, brethren... [Paul here is sincerely asking the brethren] ...by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, Holy and well-pleasing to God, which is your spiritual service. Do not conform yourselves to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind in order that you may prove what is well-pleasing and good, and the perfect will of God" (vs 1-2).

That's what we have to do. That's why the Holy Day issue becomes very important. As we go through this, ask yourself: Am I keeping all the will of God?

It says prove by the renewing of your mind! So, you are to use your mind to rightly divide the Word of God, as Paul told Timothy. Not handle it improperly!

"...that you may prove..." (v 2). How do you prove something? You prove something by the facts!

- God is fact
 - His Law is fact
 - His Word is fact
 - His Truth is fact
- what's important here is that:*
- you don't go on what you feel

Should We Keep the Holy Days of the Bible?

- you don't go on what you personally believe

A lot of personal beliefs become idols before God; they are idols in your mind. You have to prove what is the good, acceptable and perfect will of God. How? As defined by His Word! You don't prove it by an emotion or a feeling. God's Word is here in the Bible. You have the whole thing; it's impartial. The problems come when people interpret things incorrectly.

Let's look at some of these things and see how these are handled and what is done. Luke 16 is one of the Scriptures that has been misinterpreted almost universally by the Catholics, the Protestants, and by some in the Churches of God; in particular the Sabbath-keeping, non-Holy Day-keeping Churches of God, which also includes the Seventh-Day Adventists.

Luke 16:13: "No servant is able to serve two masters; for either he will hate the one, and he will love the other; or he will hold to the one and will despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon." There's only one way to serve God, and that's through:

- His Word
- His Truth
- His Spirit

Verse 14: "Now the Pharisees, who were also covetous, heard all these things; and they ridiculed Him. And He said to them, 'You are those who justify themselves before men... [exactly what happens with all of these false doctrines] ...but God knows your hearts; for that which is highly esteemed among men is an abomination before God'" (vs 14-15).

That can apply to all the religions of men; they're very highly esteemed. Here's the verse that He's leading up to, and this is something that almost everyone universally does not understand:

Verse 16: "The Law and the Prophets were until John..." Therefore, from the time of John the Baptist the laws of God have been done away! That is the conclusion! Let's read the whole thing and see what it says:

Verse 16: "The Law and the Prophets were until John; from that time the Kingdom of God is preached, and everyone zealously strives to enter it"—showing that to enter the Kingdom of God is a difficult situation!

- With the Kingdom of God being preached, does that do away with the laws and commandments of God, including the Holy Days?

- What does it mean, "The Law and the Prophets were until John...?"

There's also another misconception that people are under, which is that Jesus was under the Old Covenant. Not true! Jesus was under a special covenant between Him and God the Father, so He could establish the New Covenant.

- the New Covenant is the Kingdom of God
- the Law and the Prophets were the authority for preaching up to that time

Christ comes and the Kingdom of God is preached!

But notice, He wants to make it very clear concerning the Laws of God. He wants you to understand that the laws and commandments of God have not been done away, because there's a different emphasis in preaching.

Verse 17: "But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one tittle of the Law to fail."

Especially for those who are Sabbath-keepers, you believe in the commandments of God; you believe in the Ten Commandments, and you've probably read this Scripture. Well you have to apply it correctly to all the rest of the Scriptures, as well.

Matthew 5:17: "Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets... [don't let it enter into your mind; don't even think this thought] ...I did not come to abolish, but to fulfill."

Here's where the other miscommunication and twisting of the Scripture comes, which is this: IF Christ fulfills it, then we don't have to do it. This is where people get into the false doctrine of saying that:

- Christ fulfilled the Sabbath for me; therefore, I don't have to keep it
- Christ fulfilled the Holy Days; therefore, I don't have to keep them
- Christ fulfilled you shall do no murder; therefore, I can murder
- Christ fulfilled do not commit adultery; therefore, it's all right to commit adultery

NO! because then you have abolished the Law! Let's find out what Jesus fulfilled, and let's find out what is yet to be fulfilled, or is still being fulfilled.

Verse 18. "For truly I say to you, until the heaven and the earth shall pass away, one jot or one tittle shall in no way pass from the Law until everything has been fulfilled."

When that is fulfilled, if you read Rev. 21 & 22, then you have a new beginning with other things that are going to be fulfilling to a greater degree than the ones we've had in the past.

Now let's see what Jesus did fulfill? I know that the doctrine of not keeping the Holy Days, for those who keep the Sabbath, is that the Holy Days were part of the ritual. Well, we will see Jesus did away with the ritual. But did He do away with the days? Let's see what it is that Christ did!

Hebrews 9:11: "But Christ Himself has become High Priest of the coming good things, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made by human hands (that is, not of this present physical creation)... [Paul was referring to the physical building of the temple in Jerusalem at the time] ...Not by the blood of goats and calves, but by the means of His own blood, He entered once for all into the Holiest, having by Himself secured everlasting redemption for us" (vs 11-12).

Verse 28: "So Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear the second time without sin unto salvation to those who are eagerly awaiting Him."

Now then, Paul goes on to explain what Christ did with His sacrifice to fulfill. When He fulfilled it, we will see that He added to it a greater sacrifice, that is, being His sacrifice. We're going to find that He fulfilled the animal sacrifice and the temple ritual for a special purpose.

Hebrews 10:1: "For the priestly law, having only a shadow of the good things that are coming, and not the image of those things, with the same sacrifices, which they offer continually year by year, is never able to make perfect those who come to worship."

It is the goal of God to have everything perfected! These animal sacrifices could not do it.

Verse 2: "Otherwise, would they not have ceased to be offered? For once those who worship had been purified, they would no longer be conscious of sin. On the contrary, in offering these sacrifices year by year, there is a remembrance of sins, because it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins" (vs 2-4)—because it's a lesser being than a human being!

- How can a goat atone for human sin?
- How can a bull atone for human sin?

Those things were just to cover them at the temple so they could continue functioning under the Old Covenant!

Verse 5: "For this reason, when He comes into the world, He says, 'Sacrifice and offering You did not desire, but You have prepared a body for Me [Christ]. You did not delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin. Then said I, 'Lo, I come (as it is written of Me in the Scroll of the Book) to do Your will, O God'" (vs 5-7).

God's will and the proper worship of God, the proper forgiveness of sin before God is what he's talking about here. It ties right in with what we talked about: the will of God!

Verse 8: "In the saying above, He said, 'Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin (which are offered according to the priestly law) You did not desire nor delight in.'"

- Is that the whole Law?
- Do the animal sacrifices constitute the whole Law of God?

or

- Are they part of the Law of God as we find in the Old Testament? No!

The animal sacrifices were a small part of the Law of God. And we're going to see that when we get into it.

Verse 9: "Then He said, 'Lo, I come to do Your will, O God.' He takes away the first covenant in order that He may establish the second covenant."

The first covenant with the second covenant, but understand that the covenant does not do away with Law; the covenant is your relationship with God. In every covenant there are always laws.

Verse 10: "By Whose will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. Now, every high priest stands ministering day by day, offering the same sacrifices repeatedly, which are never able to remove sins; but He, after offering one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down at the right hand of God" (vs 10-12).

What are we talking about here? We're not talking about doing away with Law; we're talking about doing away with sin! The way to do away with sin and the way to worship God is what has been changed.

What is sin? New Testament doctrine: Sin is the transgression of the Law! So, the New Covenant is how to do away with sin and your relationship with God. Jesus' one sacrifice fulfilled all the animal sacrifices and all the temple ritual, and replaced it with His sacrifice and with the temple in heaven above. It was done away with only in respect to that it was obsolete and not effective, and never could do away with sin, and now we have a new way of worshiping God under the New Covenant. So far having nothing to do with the Sabbath, having nothing to do with the Holy Days.

Verse 14: "For by one offering He has obtained eternal perfection for those who are sanctified. And the Holy Spirit also bears witness to us; for after He had previously said, "This is the covenant that I will establish with them after those days," says the Lord, "I will give My Laws into their hearts, and I will inscribe them in their minds”” (vs 14-16).

- that is the exact opposite of doing away with anything
- that is the exact opposite of fulfilling them for you as a person

Verse 17: “And their sins and lawlessness I will not remember ever again.... [the animal sacrifices were a remembrance of sin every year] ...Now, where remission of these is, it is no longer necessary to offer sacrifices for sin” (vs 17-18)—of animals and other rituals, because the one offering for sin was Christ!

Verse 19: “Therefore, brethren, having confidence to enter into the true Holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which He consecrated for us through the veil (that is, His flesh), and having a great High Priest over the house of God, let us approach God with a true heart, with full conviction of faith, our hearts having been purified from a wicked conscience, and our bodies having been washed with pure water. Let us hold fast without wavering to the hope that we profess, for He Who promised is faithful” (vs 19-23). What we have here is a whole new way of worship:

- a new temple in heaven above
- a new High Priest
 - ✓ Who is Christ
 - ✓ Who is at the temple in heaven above at the right hand of the Throne of God
 - superior to the earthly temple
 - superior to the earthly priesthood
 - superior to the earthly sacrifices of the goats, bulls, and turtledoves

That is what has been changed! It has been changed with the fulfillment of those things by Christ. Jesus said until everything be fulfilled!

So far the only thing that has been fulfilled is the replacing of the temporary animal sacrifices and the temporary temple/tabernacle on earth with the permanent eternal one in heaven. Whenever anything has been done away or fulfilled it is replaced with something of a higher standard! You can understand that when you read Matt. 5-7, where Jesus said, ‘You have heard it said of old time, but I say to you...’ So, whenever He brought the fulfillment of the Law He gave it a higher standard. He didn’t do away with anything, Christ came to do away with sin!

I know those of you who believe in the weekly Sabbath turn to Gen. 2 all the time to prove that Sabbath was a day that was created. Which came first, the day, by creation? or The ritual of animal sacrifice? The day came first! No doubt! The sleight of hand, the deceitful handling of the Scriptures is when you claim that the ritual sacrifices and the ritual temple things done at the temple, when those were done away with they also did away with the Sabbath and did away with the Holy Days. That’s where the sleight of hand comes in. So therefore, we have to ask: Which came first? Now we’re not talking about evolution, the chicken or the egg. We’re talking about which came first—the creation of the day? or the sacrifices? The answer obviously is the creation of the day.

Genesis 2:1: “Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. And by the beginning of the seventh day God finished His work, which He had made. And He rested on the seventh day from all His work, which He had made. And God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because on it He rested from all His work, which God had created and made” (vs 1-3).

So we know that God made the seventh day, He sanctified the seventh day. We all understand that, but is that all that God made?

The truth is, God created all days, but He specially made the seventh day of every week the Sabbath! Now let’s understand something else that He did:

Genesis 1:14: “And God said, ‘Let there be lights in the firmament of the heavens to divide between the day and the night, and let them be for signs, and for appointed seasons, and for days and years...”

How do we govern the weekly Sabbath? From sunset to sunset! But God also created seasons!

{note our in-depth study concerning the Covenants of God}

Long before the Old Covenant was ever given, the covenant was given to Abraham (Gen. 15). We do not have the time to go through the technical explanation of it, so I will just tell you:

Genesis 15:4: “And behold, the Word of the LORD came to him saying, ‘This man shall not be your heir; but he that shall come forth out of your own loins shall be your heir.’ And He brought him outside and said, ‘Look now toward the heavens and number the stars—if you are able to count them.’ And He said to him, ‘So shall your seed be.’ And he believed in the LORD. And He accounted it to him for righteousness” (vs 4-6).

This was given on the 14th day of the 1st month at night, the same day in which the Passover occurs, if you believe in the Sabbath and Passover. So, we have the day first, then the significance of the day. The next day in which He made the covenant to take the children of Israel out of Egypt was the 15th, which became the 1st day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

Let's see that by going to Exo. 12. Which came first, the day? or the sacrifice? We will see the day came first! The sacrifice came as later instruction. Here's the instruction that they were to do concerning the lamb:

Exodus 12:5: "Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year. You shall take it from the sheep or from the goats. And you shall keep it up until the beginning of the fourteenth day of the same month.... [the day came first; He designated the day first] ...And the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it between the two evenings" (vs 5-6).

I'm not going to go through any technical explanation on it, except to say that this is after sunset, between sunset and dark. God named the day, the 14th; v 11: "...It is the LORD'S Passover."

I assume that most of you keep the Passover. But if you keep the Passover and you don't keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread, then you are cutting something off. You are not following through on the commands of God. You are throwing the commands of observation—which God has commanded to be Holy Days—into the same categories as the animal sacrifices. They were never in the same category.

Verse 13: "And the blood shall be a sign to you upon the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you. And the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you when I smite the land of Egypt. And this day shall be a memorial to you. And you shall keep it a Feast to the LORD throughout your generations. You shall keep it a Feast as a Law forever" (vs 13-14).

The day was chosen first, the sacrifice was put on the day, and God says you are to keep the day forever. Later when Christ came, He was sacrificed on the 14th day and He became the sacrifice that replaces the lamb that the Israelites killed. Christ is the Lamb of God, and it's on the 14th day! That's why the Passover Day is to be kept.

Notice v 15, speaking of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, this becomes very important, because again, we're going to see that the day was there before the offering:

Verse 15: "You shall eat unleavened bread seven days; even the first day you shall have put away leaven out of your houses; for whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel. And in the first day there shall be a Holy convocation... [the same weight and force of command as in Gen. 2 of blessing the Sabbath day, a Holy convocation] ...and in the seventh day there shall be a Holy convocation for you. No manner of work shall be done in them, except that which every man must eat, that only may be done by you. And you shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread, for in this very same day I have brought your armies out of the land of Egypt. Therefore, you shall keep this day in your generations as a law forever" (vs 15-17). So the day came first!

Exo. 20—here is where the giving of the Ten Commandments was. But in the Exo.19 we have a special event that took place: the preparing for the giving of the Ten Commandments. The Ten Commandments were given on the Day of Pentecost. So the day came first!

The trick is this: IF you believe in the Ten Commandments, then why do you not celebrate, keep or observe the Feast of Pentecost on which the Ten Commandments were given? That's a question you need to ask!

Lev. 23 is the chapter in the whole Bible where all the Holy Days are listed. We have established:

1. the Sabbath Day was before any sacrifice
2. the Passover Day was established before any sacrifice
3. the first and last day of Unleavened Bread were established before any sacrifice
4. the Day of Pentecost was established before any sacrifice

Those are Holy convocations!

Leviticus 23:1: "And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 'Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, "Concerning the appointed Feasts of the LORD...'" (vs 1-2).

I want to make this very clear: they are not, never have been, never will be the feasts of the Jews, though other people have called them the feasts of the Jews, and though for particular reasons which John knew, he labeled the 'feast of the Jews' concerning the Feast of Tabernacles, but it's the Feast of the Lord!

"...which you shall proclaim to be Holy convocations, even these are My appointed Feasts" (v 2). All of them! Then He starts off with:

Verse 3: "Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of rest, a Holy convocation. You shall not do any work. It is a Sabbath to the LORD in all your dwellings." The other Holy convocations are "...Sabbath to the LORD in all your dwellings" too.

Verse 4: "These are the appointed Feasts of the LORD, Holy convocations, which you shall proclaim in their appointed seasons."

God created the time for seasons (Gen. 1:14). If you believe that you are to proclaim the seventh day as a Feast of God every seven days, and that you are obligated by God to keep the Sabbath and to keep it Holy, what gives you the right to go against God?

They are "...Holy convocations, which you shall proclaim in their appointed seasons,"

You disobey that command and do not proclaim them! What is your reason for not proclaiming them? We will look at some of them! Your reasons are going to fall apart, because it has not been a proper, rightful dividing of the Word of God.

Verse 5: "In the fourteenth day of the first month, between the two evenings, is the LORD'S Passover... [in every case God gives the day first and then the offering for that day] ...and on the fifteenth day of the same month is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to the LORD. You must eat unleavened bread seven days. On the first day you shall have a Holy convocation. You shall not do any servile work therein, but you shall offer a fire offering to the LORD seven days...." (vs 5-8).

The sacrifices at the temple, then, were added to the days. The days came first. Likewise with Pentecost, and how to count it. If you don't know how to count Pentecost, we have two booklets that explain in depth the whole thing of counting Pentecost {find at truthofGod.org}:

- Count to Pentecost From the Morrow After Which Sabbath?
 - Count to Pentecost
- Also a Message:
- How to Count Pentecost

Verse 21: "And you shall proclaim on the same day that it may be a Holy convocation to you...."

Verse 24: "Speak to the children of Israel saying, 'In the seventh month, in the first day of the month, you shall have a Sabbath, a memorial of blowing of ram's horns, a Holy convocation. You shall do no servile work therein but you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD'" (vs 24-25). Again, the day is proclaimed first and then the sacrificial offering.

Verse 27: "Also, on the tenth day of this seventh month, is the Day of Atonement. It shall be a Holy convocation to you. And you shall afflict your souls and offer an offering made by fire to the LORD. And you shall do no work in that same day, for it is the Day of Atonement, in order to make an atonement for you before the LORD your God" (vs 27-28).

Verse 32: "It shall be to you a Sabbath of rest, and you shall afflict yourselves. In the ninth day of the month at sunset, from sunset to sunset, you shall keep your Sabbath."

This is the verse that all Sabbath-keepers turn to, to show that you must keep the Sabbath from sunset to sunset, but this is defining the Day of Atonement. If this defines the Day of Atonement, and you keep the Sabbath but not the Day of Atonement, why do you take your definition from the Day of Atonement and apply it to the Sabbath, if it is not equally applicable to the Sabbath and the Day of Atonement and all the other Holy Days?

Verse 34: "...'The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the Feast of Tabernacles for seven days to the LORD. On the first day shall be a Holy convocation. You shall do no servile work therein. On the eighth day shall be a Holy convocation to you....'" (vs 34-36)—then the sacrifices and so forth!

Verse 37: "These are the Feasts of the LORD, which you shall proclaim..."

As you can see, I'm doing a survey. Because in order to understand this, you must get an overview by a survey to understand.

Verse 37: "These are the Feasts of the LORD, which you shall proclaim to be Holy convocations..." If you take this statement, which is true, and you go back and you apply it in:

Leviticus 23:2: "...'Concerning the appointed Feasts of the LORD, which you shall proclaim to be Holy convocations, even these are My appointed Feasts.... [It starts out with the Sabbath]: ...Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of rest, a Holy convocation. You shall not do any work. It is a Sabbath to the LORD in all your dwellings" (vs 2-3). Now then, you're stuck!

- Why do you not proclaim those other days according to God's calendar the way that they should be?
- Are you missing something by not doing it?
- Are you incorrectly dividing the Word of God because you are misapplying Scripture?

Let's go to the heart and core of the whole thing. You're also going to be stuck with another problem if you say that because they had ritual sacrifices on these days, and the sacrifices have been done away with because Christ's sacrifice superseded all the animal sacrifices, what are you going to do with:

Numbers 28:1: “And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ‘Command the children of Israel, and say to them, “My offering and My bread for My sacrifices made by fire... [because there was the tabernacle, and later the temple] ...a sweet savor to Me, you shall be diligent to observe to offer to Me in their due season.” And you shall say to them, “This is the offering made by fire which you shall offer to the LORD: two lambs of the first year without blemish day by day, a continual burnt offering”” (vs 1-3). This is the daily burnt offering!

Now, because animal sacrifices were done away, have days been done away with? No! One in the morning, one in the evening.

Verse 9: “And on the Sabbath Day two lambs of the first year without blemish, and two tenth parts of flour for a grain offering, mixed with oil, and its drink offering; this is the burnt offering of every Sabbath, besides the continual burnt offering, and its drink offering” (vs 9-10).

Now then, if you take your reasoning—which so many do to get rid of the Holy Days—by saying that the ritual sacrifices were offered on the Holy Days and the sacrifices were done away with; therefore, ‘we don’t have to keep the Holy Days.’ What are you going to do about the Sabbath? Because if you take the reasoning of one, you must also take the reasoning of the other!

- Were there sacrifices on the Sabbath Day? Yes!
- Were those sacrifices done away with and fulfilled in Christ? Yes!

IF you take the assumption that because those were true, therefore, ‘we conclude that we don’t have to keep the Sabbath because the sacrifices were done away.’ You’re stuck in your own logic. Because if you keep the Sabbath, because God commanded it, and you don’t keep the Holy Days, because the sacrifices were done away with, then your logic traps you into your own corner, where then you must not keep the Sabbath by the same logic.

I’ve gone over this with Church of God Seventh Day people until I’m blue in the face. But when you are dead and your mind is set, and you are not willing to let the Truth of God enter into it, then you can come to that conclusion. But how else are you going to conclude it? If you take the reasoning that the Holy Days do not need to be kept because there were ritual sacrifices on those, and those ritual sacrifices are all done away with in Christ, so was Sabbath ritual sacrifice done away in Christ.

Therefore, you’re stuck in your own logic because you’re not honest in handling the Word of God, and you misapply the Word of God so that you may keep the Sabbath and do away with the Holy Days. You’ve got to understand that. That’s where you begin. Maybe other people couldn’t convince you, but maybe the Word of God can convince you.

Now you can go through and apply this to all the Holy Days in the rest of Num. 28 & 29, because every one of the days had sacrifices. You can’t use that logic; that logic is a misnomer; that logic is not correct. If you run on to Gal. 3 and misapply that, then you’re also going to get yourself in trouble. If you need some understanding concerning the book of Galatians, we have a whole in-depth study on that—Epistle of Paul to the Galatians—which goes through it and explains it.

Now then, as we’re here in Ezek. 20, I call your attention to reference back to Exo. 31, where the Sabbaths are, God said you were to keep. Now notice when we are reading here, God does not make any differentiation between which Sabbath is which. All of the Holy Days are annual Sabbaths.

Ezekiel 20:10—God says: “And I caused them to go out from the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. And I gave them My statutes and showed them My ordinances, which if a man do, he shall even live in them. And also I gave them My Sabbaths...”(vs 10-12)—plural!

That is not the Sabbath, but Sabbaths, plural! The fourth commandment in the Ten Commandments says, ‘Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it Holy.’ But He gave them more than the weekly Sabbath. He gave them His annual Sabbaths:

“...to be a sign between Me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD Who sanctifies them” (v 12). If you don’t keep the Holy Days:

- Is there something that you don’t know about the Lord?
- Is there something in your understanding that is missing because you’re not sanctified by those days?

Verse 13: “But the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness... [Are you rebelling against God if you reject His Holy Days?] ...they did not walk in My statutes, and they despised My ordinances, which if a man does, he shall even live in them. And they greatly polluted My Sabbaths....”—plural!

Verse 16: “Because they despised My judgments and walked not in My statutes; and they polluted My Sabbaths; for their heart went after their idols.”

When you take God’s time and make it yours, or you declare God’s Holy time not Holy, it becomes an idol in your mind! So, He told them not to do it.

Should We Keep the Holy Days of the Bible?

Verse 19: “I am the LORD your God. Walk in My statutes, and keep My ordinances, and do them, and keep My Sabbaths Holy; and they shall be a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God.’ But the children rebelled against Me....” (vs 19-21).

If you think that the weekly Sabbath is good, right and fine, tell me why the annual Sabbaths are not also good, right and fine. If you don’t keep them, then you are saying that God’s Word is not worthy of your observance. I mean, you need to keep things on a clear, factual basis. Don’t get your feelings involved in on it, because you’re going to get yourself in deep trouble.

Let’s see what we are to do in the New Testament. Then we will see, did they in the New Testament under the New Covenant, keep these days?

You’re also stuck with another problem. If you say you love God, and you try and love God this way, then you have to ask yourself: Why do I reject the Holy Days of God?

Matthew 22:37: “And Jesus said to him, ‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment; and the second one is like it: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets” (vs 37-40).

Whereby Jesus said, ‘One jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the Law until all be fulfilled.’ The only thing that we have seen in the Scriptures which has been fulfilled has been the animal sacrifices and the temple ritual, which have been replaced and superseded by a higher sacrifice of Jesus Christ in a greater temple in heaven above. All of the rest is still hanging on the love of God!

- Do you love God?
- Do you love God in Truth?

OR

- Do you want to love God your way and tell God what to do?

How does God want us to worship Him today?

John 4:23: “But the hour is coming... [when you wouldn’t worship any longer in Jerusalem, the temple would be gone] ...and now is, when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in Spirit and in Truth...”

- we know the commandments of God are Truth
- we know the Laws of God are Truth

- we know that all of God’s ways are true
- we know His commandments are true

Therefore, if you’re going to worship God in Spirit and in Truth, you’re going to be keeping His commandments from the heart spiritually, loving God.

“...for the Father is indeed seeking those who worship Him in this manner. God is spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in Spirit and in Truth” (vs 23-24).

The word must there in the Greek has the force of obligatory! You are obligated before God to worship Him in Spirit and in Truth. Since all the words of God are true, and since the Holy Days are part of the true Word of God, you must worship Him on those days, as well as the weekly Sabbath.

Let’s do a little attitude check for everybody here now, whether you agree with what I have said or not up to this point, or maybe some of the things you agree with, and some of the things you don’t agree with. But you have to ask yourself: Do I agree with God? Not whether you agree with me, or agree with another man. If I don’t teach you the Word of God, and if I don’t preach the Word of God, then it really doesn’t matter what I say, even though I may misuse the Word of God and sound religious.

Psa. 119:127 is profound, and this is the whole attitude we’ve got to come to concerning

- the will of God
- the commandments of God
- all the things of God

Psalm 119:127: “Therefore, I love Your commandments above gold—yea, above fine gold.”

With the deception that is coming upon the whole world there is going to be a reason why it’s coming. You may be part of that deception, or caught up in that deception if you do what they do in the world. Satan is going to come!

2-Thessalonians 2:9: “Even the one whose coming... [the great Beast Power that is coming] ...is according to the inner working of Satan, with all power and signs and lying wonders, and with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in those who are perishing because they did not receive the love of the Truth...”

Now we just read where David wrote, “...I love Your commandments...” But if you don’t love the Truth, which is all the Word of God, what are you subject to? You’re subject to death, because you can’t be saved! And another thing takes place:

Verse 11: “And for this cause God will send upon them a powerful deception that will cause them to believe the lie, so that all may be judged who did not believe the Truth, but who took pleasure in unrighteousness” (vs 11-12).

IF you don't believe the Truth of God's Word, are you having pleasure and unrighteousness by rejecting them?

- IF those are Sabbaths, which they are
- IF they are commandments, which they are
- IF they're to be kept, which they should
- IF you are transgressing that

THEN you are sinning, and you are unrighteous!

- IF you don't keep them THEN you have pleasure in unrighteousness
- Is that not true?
- Are you not then going to blind yourself to other things further down the road?

Always remember, when God gives a witness out of His Word, once is sufficient! Please understand that!

Psalm 119:127: “Therefore, I love Your commandments above gold—yea, above fine gold.”

How many people do you know work on the Sabbath so they can make money because they reject the Sabbath commandment? Apply the same thing to the Holy Days!

Verse 128—here's where we need to come: “Therefore, I esteem all Your precepts concerning all things to be right...”

- Do you believe that of the will of God?
- Do you believe that every precept of God is right?
- Do you believe that every command of God is right
- Do you believe that every Law of God is good and right?

“...and I hate every false way” (v 128).

- Are you willing to hate the sin that you have been committing in not keeping the Holy Days?

OR

- Are you going to come up with other arguments to justify your own idol?

That's what it gets down to, because those are self-justifications for your own way! There can be no doubt about it.

- Do you consider all the precepts of God concerning all things to be right?

If you do then you will hate every false way!

We're going to spend the rest of the time in the New Testament, showing that, yes, the Holy Days were kept by those in the New Testament; and in fact, by a very command of God!

Mark 2—this is one for those of you who are Sabbath-keepers to turn to, to show that we need to keep the Sabbath in the New Testament.

Mark 2:27: “And He said to them, ‘The Sabbath was made for man... [no question about it; God really expects all mankind to keep the Sabbath] ...and not man for the Sabbath; therefore, the Son of man is Lord even of the Sabbath” (vs 27-28). Since the Holy Days are a Sabbath:

- Is He also Lord of those?
- Is He Lord of the Passover?
- Is He Lord of the first day of Unleavened Bread?
- Is He the Lord of the last day of Unleavened Bread?
- Is He the Lord of Pentecost?
- Is He the Lord of Trumpets?
- Is He the Lord of Atonement?
- Is He the Lord of Tabernacles?
- Is He the Lord of the Last Great Day?

YES!

Those other days and commands were made for the people of God. The Sabbath was made for mankind in general! So, if you only keep the Sabbath, you're only doing what God requires of all people everywhere! The Holy Days have special meaning for the people of God. Maybe you've never thought of it that way. Well, you need to think of it that way!

Let's see what Jesus did. Let's understand that Jesus was not under the Old Covenant; He was under a special covenant with God the Father, which was even greater than the New Covenant, when you really come to understand it. Because with the covenant that God the Father and Jesus Christ had, Jesus could not sin once.

{note message: The Covenant Between God the Father and Jesus Christ}

It was a greater covenant that we are under. Obviously, it had to be. Because He was God before He became a human being.

But let's notice what He did here; Luke 2:40: “And the little Child grew and became strong in spirit, being filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon Him. Now, His parents went to Jerusalem every year at the Feast of the Passover. And when He was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the Feast” (vs 40-42). Then you know what He was doing!

- Did Jesus keep the Feast? Yes!

- Did He keep it only because His parents kept it? No!
- Why did His parents keep it? Because it was a Law of God!
- Why did Jesus keep it? Because it was the Law of His Father!
- What was He doing there at the Feast?

Verse 46: “Now, it came to pass that after three days they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both hearing them and questioning them. And all those who were listening to Him were amazed at His understanding and His answers” (vs 46-47).

As I point out in the in-depth study: Prophecies of Jesus in the Old Testament, Jesus was taught every morning of God the Father! There He was on the Holy Days, and afterwards, doing the Father’s business.

Verse 48: “But when they saw Him, they were astonished; and His mother said to Him, ‘Son, why have you dealt with us in this manner? Look, Your father and I have been very distressed while searching for You.’ And He said to them, ‘Why is it that you were looking for Me? Don’t you realize that I must be about My Father’s business?’” (vs 48-49), showing that Joseph was not His father! That’s what He was clearly saying here.

- Was it the Father’s business to send Christ? Yes!
- When did Christ die? On the Passover Day!
- Was that the Father’s business? Yes, it was!

Now let’s see how He carried out the Father’s business in His ministry. We’re going to survey some things here in the book of John for just a minute. Keep in mind that Jesus Christ set us an example, in Whose footsteps we should follow!

If Jesus did no sin... Some people come to the point of saying that if you keep the Sabbath and Holy Days you are sinning. We know that if you keep the Sabbath you are not sinning. But are you sinning if you don’t keep the Holy Days? You are! Here, if it was sin to keep them, then Jesus sinned.

John 2:13: “Now the Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.”

The reason why John says “...the Passover of the Jews...” is because John is showing that Jesus was correcting them for their wrong worship of Passover, and Tabernacles, and other days. The days of the Holy Days are God’s days! What did He do? He went into the temple:

Verse 14: “And He found in the temple those who were selling oxen and sheep and doves, and the money exchangers sitting there; and after making a scourge of cords, He drove them all out of the temple, with both the sheep and the oxen; and He poured out the coins of the money exchangers, and overturned the tables. And to those who were selling the doves, He said, ‘Take these things out of here! Do not make My Father’s house a house of merchandise’” (vs 14-16). He got rid of them and the sin there!

Jesus was also showing another thing, which He later on said to the Pharisee who wanted to know, which was the great commandment? He answered correctly, and said, ‘You are not far from the Kingdom of God. Now go and learn what this means: I desire mercy and not sacrifice.’ That’s what Jesus was teaching here. He desired mercy and not sacrifice!

Verse 23: “Now, when He was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the Feast, many believed on His name, as they observed the miracles that He was doing.” He was healing, and teaching on the Feast day of Unleavened Bread, right there at the temple!

John 5 doesn’t tell us what Feast this is. But according to the chronology as we go through the book of John, we find that it is Passover/fall festival season, Passover/fall festival season, and Passover. So, by chronology, this had to be one of the Feast days, either Trumpets or the first day of the Feast of Tabernacles, or the last day of the Feast of Tabernacles, one of the three. It was not Atonement, because they were carrying burdens and so forth.

John 5:1: “After these things there was a Feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.”

- Was He there keeping it? Yes!
- Did He correct them for their wrong use of the day? Yes, He did!

He told the man whom He healed to pick up his bed and walk, and he walked! Then He gave the spiritual lesson here that God is working spiritually.

John 6:4: “Now, the Passover a Feast of the Jews, was near.” Jesus explained about the bread and the wine, that it symbolized His body and His blood; and made it absolutely mandatory that you keep the Passover, otherwise you don’t have any life in you.

Verse 53: “Therefore, Jesus said to them, ‘Truly, truly I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink His blood, you do not have life in yourselves.’”

Unless you keep the Passover properly you don’t have life in you! I just might mention here, too, those who use grape juice are not keeping it properly, because it is not wine. You need to understand that.

John 7:1: “After these things, Jesus was sojourning in Galilee, for He did not desire to travel in Judea because the Jews were seeking to kill Him. Now the Jews’ Feast of Tabernacles was near” (vs 1-2).

His brethren said, ‘Why don’t You go up and show Yourself?’ And He said, ‘No, you go up. My time is not yet.’ Verse 8—they went up to the Feast.

Verse 10: “But after His brothers had gone up, then Jesus also went up to the Feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.”

In spite of the public pressure that was put against Him and all those seeking to kill Him, He still went and kept the Feast! He observed the Feast of Tabernacles!

Notice something very important concerning the will of God and understanding:

Verse 14: “But then, about the middle of the Feast, Jesus went up into the temple and was teaching. And the Jews were amazed, saying, ‘How does this Man know letters, having never been schooled?’ Jesus answered them and said, ‘My doctrine is not Mine, but His Who sent Me. If anyone desires to do His will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it is from God, or whether I speak from My own self’” (vs 14-17).

Jesus was there during the Feast of Tabernacles, and there is great meaning to the Feast of Tabernacles.

Verse 37: “Now, in the last day, the great day of the Feast, Jesus stood and called out, saying, ‘If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink. The one who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. But this He spoke concerning the Spirit, which those who believed in Him would soon receive; for the Holy Spirit was not yet given because Jesus was not yet glorified’” (vs 37-39). Jesus taught on the Last Great Day!

- we find him teaching during the Feast of Unleavened Bread
- we find Him teaching during the Feast of Tabernacles
- we find Him teaching at the Passover time
- we find Him teaching His disciples during the Feast of Unleavened Bread

Jesus did all of those things!

Now we’ll do a little survey with the book of Acts. Please understand, we’re into New Covenant teachings! IF the Holy Days were to be done away, IF they were no longer to be kept, THEN you would hear Jesus say:

You have heard it said of old time, ‘You shall remember to keep the Sabbath Day Holy, and the Holy Days.’ But I say unto you, you shall keep Sunday Holy, and Christmas, and Easter, and New Year’s.

He didn’t say any of that! No, He did not!

On the Day of Pentecost, by the command of Christ; ‘Remain in the city of Jerusalem until you have been endued with power from on high’ So, His command was to be there and keep the Day of Pentecost. If Jesus commanded His apostles to keep it, and gave the Holy Spirit on the Day of Pentecost, which was the same day that the Ten Commandments were given, should you not keep the Day of Pentecost?

Acts 2:1: “And when the Day of Pentecost, the fiftieth day, was being fulfilled, they were all with one accord in the same place. And suddenly there came from heaven a sound like the rushing of a powerful wind, and filled the whole house where they were sitting” (vs 1-2).

Then you know the rest of the story, in preaching on the day of Pentecost. That’s when God started the Church.

- He formalized the Church in the wilderness on the Day of Pentecost by giving the Ten Commandments
- He started the New Covenant Church on the Day of Pentecost right there at the Temple of God

Acts 12:1: “Now, about that time, Herod the king stretched forth his hands to persecute some of those of the Church; and he killed James, the brother of John, with the sword. And when he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to take Peter also. (Now, those were the Days of Unleavened Bread.)” (vs 1-3).

Now, the reason that is mentioned is because they were keeping the days of Unleavened Bread!

Verse 4: “And after arresting him, he put him in prison, delivering him to four sets of four soldiers to guard him with the intent of bringing him out to the people after the Passover season.”

Acts 16—I know all of the arguments that people will give. Let’s understand that this is a time when Paul went into Macedonia and preached to them:

Acts 16:13: “Then on the day of the weeks... [Pentecost] ...we went outside the city by a river, where it was customary for prayer to be made...”

We will see that on that very day in one of the synagogues in Galilee Jesus Christ stood up for to read, and began His ministry in Nazareth on that day.

Luke 4:16: "And He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up; and according to His custom, He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath Day and stood up to read." That is on "...the day of the weeks..." if you look at the Greek!

- Jesus taught on Pentecost
- Paul taught on Pentecost
- the Holy Spirit was given on Pentecost

The day of the weeks!

Acts 18:18: "And after Paul had remained there many days, he took leave of the brethren and sailed away to Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila. Now, Paul had shorn his head in Cenchrea because he had made a vow. And he came to Ephesus, and left them there; but he himself went into the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews. And when they asked him to remain with them for a longer time, he did not consent, but took leave of them, saying, 'I must by all means keep the Feast that is coming at Jerusalem...'" (vs 18-21).

Now the only Feast, chronologically speaking, that it could be here is the Feast of Tabernacles. He went to Jerusalem to keep it. So, Paul said, "...I must by all means keep the Feast..." You can't say that he was keeping it under the obligation of circumcision, because he preached against circumcision.

Acts 20:5: "These went on ahead and waited for us in Troas. But we sailed away from Philippi after the Days of Unleavened Bread..." (vs 5-6).

Why mention going after the days of Unleavened Bread? Well, it's very simple: they kept the days of Unleavened Bread and wouldn't leave until the Feast of Unleavened Bread was over. In other words, they observed the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and then left after that.

"...and in five days we came to them at Troas, where we stayed for seven days. Now, on the first day of the weeks, when the disciples had assembled to break bread..." (vs 6-7).

That was then after sundown after the Sabbath ended, getting on into the first day of the week and so forth. So, they kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread. That's the important thing to understand.

Acts 24:14: "But I confess to you that according to the way, which they... [the Jews] ...call heresy, so I serve the God of my fathers, believing all things that are written in the Law and the Prophets."

Paul himself was the one who wrote to show that the only thing that had been fulfilled and superseded by the sacrifice of Christ was the animal sacrifice and the temple ritual, and we read that earlier. He believed everything else.

Acts 27:9: "And after much time had passed, and the voyage was now dangerous because the annual fast day had already passed..." Tie in Lev. 23:27, referring to the Day of Atonement!

So here Paul, even when he was sailing and it was dangerous, he was still keeping the Day of Atonement on that ship. And the fast had ended. So Paul kept it!

1-Corinthians 16:7: "For at this time I will not stop to see you, but I hope at some future time to stay with you, if the Lord permits. But I will remain in Ephesus until Pentecost" (vs 7-8)

How were they measuring time?

- by Christmas? No!
- by Easter? No!
- by New Year's? No!
- by Sunday? No!

But by Sabbath and the Holy Days, all the way through! Here's Pentecost:

1-Cor. 5 is the command, and you need to understand that here is a principle: You can't have one commandment without the other! You must have all of them!

Did not the Apostle James say that if you keep the whole Law, yet, offended one point, you're guilty of all the Law? So, if you keep the Sabbath but don't keep the Holy Days, then you are guilty of transgressing the Holy Days, and stand before God as a sinner! Especially when we have here in 1-Cor. 5 an absolute, dogmatic command by the Apostle Paul to keep the Feast, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

1-Corinthians 5:7: "Therefore, purge out the old leaven... [because during the Days of Unleavened Bread leaven is a type of sin] ...so that you may become a new lump, even as you are unleavened... [having put it out of their houses, and they are unleavened in Christ] ...For Christ our Passover was sacrificed for us. For this reason, let us keep the Feast... [Unleavened Bread]...not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of Sincerity and Truth" (vs 7-8).

So he is virtually saying here in this command to keep the Feast that if you don't keep the Feast, you're not keeping the Truth! There is a great command.

We need to understand another principle, which is this: People say that if it's not repeated in the New Testament, ‘I don’t have to do it.’ The reason a lot of these things are not repeated in the New Testament is because it would become redundant. God didn’t want to have a book of 50 volumes. He wanted one book. That’s why you have to believe the whole Word of God!

I just want to focus in on one verse in Heb. 4 and to summarize the part up to it, because God’s plan is not yet complete. {note our in-depth study: Epistle of Paul to the Hebrews}

Hebrews 4:9: “There remains, therefore, Sabbath-keeping for the people of God.”

That becomes very important, because Sabbath-keeping means more than just keeping the Sabbath. Sabbath-keeping includes all of the Holy Days, and the people of God include the Gentiles (1-Peter 2), not just the Hebrews.

For people to say they’re not convinced that we ought to keep the Holy Days, then what you need to do is get in and really study your Bible more, and ask yourself:

- Do I really believe in the Word of God?
- Do I really believe the will of God?
- Am I willing to understand it the way God says?

OR

- Am I going to keep this in the way of personal opinion and become like all other religious people?

And end up rejecting the Word of God!

CHAPTER ELEVEN

The Three Most Important Days Sabbath, Passover and the Holy Days of God

Fred R. Coulter

What are the three most important things in our relationship with God that keeps us in contact with Him and understanding His plan? Now, that is aside from prayer and study!

Psa. 119 is very important. What we're going to do is look at all of these Scriptures and, of course, there isn't going to be a single Scripture that we haven't covered in the past. But we're going to see it with a little different perspective because the truth is the teachings and the Word of God are layered.

That's why Isa. 28 says, 'line upon line, precept upon precept,' because that's the way that God has done it. Many times it's layered in such a way that even some of the most obvious things you don't see right away, which we'll find out that's what has happened to us.

Psalm 119:18: "Open my eyes so that I may behold wondrous things out of Your Law." That's quite a verse!

Let's tie that together with Matt. 13, and let's realize some of the blessings that we have because we have the whole Bible. Remember that all of ancient Israel did not have the Bible like we have it today! The closest thing that came to that was the New Testament Church. But they were writing the New Testament and that was being added and so forth, and it really wasn't solidified until John canonized the New Testament.

Yet, even at that John had to write some things like 'the one who reads let him understand,' because he didn't understand. We are told in Dan. 12 that even the great prophecies that Daniel prophesied of the tremendous historical events to take place on the earth leading up to the return of Christ were closed and sealed to the time of the end!

So, the reason that we have the entire Bible is so that at the time of the end God is going to give a witness to all people regardless of whether they are in the Church of God or not.

{note message: Who are the Two Witnesses and Elijah?}

Let's see something very important for us to understand, and we've gone over this over and over again. But we're going to see today a little more meaningful perhaps maybe even significantly more meaningful of what Jesus said.

Matthew 13:10: "And His disciples came to Him and asked, 'Why do You speak to them in parables?'"

It's just like with the Old Testament. Why did you write it in such a way that it's hard to understand? That's so we'll search it out, and that's so that those who have God's Spirit will understand, and those who don't have God's Spirit will not understand. The very same book.

Verse 11: "And He answered and said to them, 'Because it has been given to you...'" You!

- whoever has the Spirit of God
- whoever has the Bible
- whoever knows the things of God out of the Bible

it has been given! Remember that we have nothing we didn't receive (1-Cor. 4).

So, we cannot claim any great insight because we're intellectual, because we're smarter than other people. It all comes and it's given to us. "...it has been given you to know..." That's why you know things!

Read the Epistle of 1-John, and go over and note all the things that we know, and are to know, that's recorded there. It will be astounding!

{note book: The Seven General Epistles; we have all that broken down there}

"...given to you to know the mysteries... [secrets; the secret things belong to God and how He reveals them to us] ...of the Kingdom of Heaven but to them it has not been given" (v 11).

Someone sent me a letter where a man had some people that he had known and they came over and spent some time with them, had dinner with them, and after asking the blessing on the meal it got around to them talking about the things pertaining to God. It turned out that these people were active members and in their local Presbyterian Church. They knew nothing of the Bible, and he knew nothing of the return of Jesus Christ!

The Three Most Important Days Sabbath, Passover and the Holy Days of God

Yet, they were active in the church and the wife was even mayor of the city they lived in, and she even wrote 1,000 articles for the local newspaper. So, he wrote that to me as well as many of his other friends. I could tell he made it into a form letter and it said ‘Dear,’ and then he wrote Fred on it. They don’t know anything! Why? Because “...it hasn’t been given to them to know...”

This is important to understand. But “...to them...it has not been given...” And remember you have nothing that you didn’t receive, so they never received it because it wasn’t given to them! We’ve gone over these Scriptures many times before, so I think we’re going to find is really very interesting today and also enlightening. As it says:

Psalm 119:18: “Open my eyes so that I may behold wondrous things out of Your Law.”

Matthew 13:12: “For whoever has understanding, to him more shall be given...”

That’s why we are to grow in grace and knowledge, and we are to increase in it. Also, there’s another Scripture where Jesus said that if we ask the Father, He will give the Spirit to us. Not only just receive it when we’re baptized and have hands laid on but we need to also grow in the spirit and use the Spirit of God:

- to change our minds
- to cleanse our hearts
- lead us
- guide us

in what we need to do!

“...and he shall have an abundance, but whoever does not have understanding, even what he has shall be taken away from him” (v 12).

Just like this man made the comment to them after they were leaving, ‘Well, I’ll have to check out on this thing concerning the return of Christ.’

- Is he void of knowledge? Yes!
- Is he lacking in understanding? Yes!
- Does he go to church? Yes!
- Do they use the Bible? Yes, parts of it!

Remember: the Bible is like a million-piece puzzle and if you take away a few parts of it you’ll never see the whole picture and there certain key things that help us with God’s Spirit to put the million-piece puzzle together. Yet, as we do it there are going to be many pieces that God is going to add to us in the way of understanding as we grow in grace and knowledge.

Sometimes it’s going to be like were going to cover today you’re looking so closely at the tree that you miss the forest. Or we take a perspective like an ant and if he climbs the tree that’s a great journey or if he goes clear across the forest floor that’s a tremendous journey. But if you’re like an eagle flying and looking down you see the whole picture. We’re going to see some of that today.

Verse 13: “For this reason I speak to them in parables...” That’s why even the Word of God is hard to understand, especially for those who do not obey Him!

A key to understanding the Bible is obeying God and then that obeying God grows into the kind of spiritual obedience that develops into:

- love
- faith
- hope

through His grace!

Seeing they see it, like it says in a prophecy: they handed the book to the wise men he says, ‘I don’t know anything about that.’ They handed it to the ordinary man and he says, ‘I can’t read’; that’s referring to the Bible.

“...because seeing, they see not; and hearing, they hear not; neither do they understand” (v 13).

Like one grown son told his father when they were talking about the Sabbath, ‘I’ll keep the Sabbath if God comes down and tells me to keep the Sabbath.’ Hello! God already did from the beginning!

Verse 14: “And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah...”—which is talking about the very children of Israel! The house of Israel and the house of Judah, which says:

“...‘In hearing you shall hear...’” (v 14). Didn’t that happen in Jesus’ ministry? Yes, indeed! When, just before the crucifixion, He was teaching everyday in the temple and everyone was coming to hear Him. They were spellbound with what they heard, but:

- How many really believed to the point of conversion?
- How many hated Him because of it, like the religious leaders?

“...and in no way understand; and in seeing you shall see, and in no way perceive; for the heart of this people has grown fat, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed... [they don’t want to listen] ...lest they should see with their eyes, and should hear with their ears, and should understand with their hearts, and should be converted, and I should heal them” (vs 14-15).

Doesn't Jesus want to save the whole world? Yes! But His way, on His time schedule, and not now.

Verse 16: “But blessed are your eyes, because they see; and your ears, because they hear.”

Just think about all the things we really, really understand. That will take you some time to sit down and think about it.

Verse 17: “For truly I say to you, many prophets and righteous men...”

I want you to apply this to today, especially when we're looking at such catastrophic events that are just about ready to befall us, which the march in the footsteps of those things are already here.

“...have desired to see what you see, and have not seen; and to hear what you hear, and have not heard” (v 17).

- if you're a good full-fledged socialized Church of God going Laodicean
- if you're a glad-hander and you go to church for the social
- if you're really not taught anything and you've been lackadaisical in your study
- if you just sit there and let them feed you little teaspoons of warm milk

You're in trouble! You don't have very long to get right with God!

What is Jesus' personal message to you? Repent and be zealous! (Rev. 3). So, God made these things known to His people to whom He wants them known.

I want you to think about how many, many times we have read Lev. 23. Do we not read it over and over again every year? I want to show you something very obvious in the way that it has been divided out by God Himself, and it's one of those things that has been right there in front of our eyes all the time. When I explain it you will say, 'I never knew that.' Personally, as a minister, how many times have I gone over it during the many, many years that I've been a minister? It's going to be something; it is the way that it is structured and we read it and we understand it, but sometimes we miss the structure.

This is going to answer: What are the three most important things for us in our relationship with God and our obedience to God?

Leviticus 23:1: “And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ‘Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, “Concerning the appointed Feasts of the LORD, which you shall proclaim to be Holy convocations, even these are My appointed Feasts”’” (vs 1-2).

That's why we have the Calculated Hebrew Calendar, because everybody has an idea. Here's the test of your conversion:

- Do you believe the model prayer that Jesus gave?
- How does it start?
- Our Father in heaven hallowed be Your name, Your Kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven!

Here's a very simple prayer, and think about all of the deceived professing Christians who recite that every Sunday. They don't believe it but they recite it. Why? Because they are blinded and they don't hear!

- What is the first thing that we ask? Your will be done on earth!
- What does that mean? Of course, it's going to be done, but that means in our own personal lives!
- Are you really seeking the will of God?

or

- Are you seeking to find your own pet little doctrine?
- Your own pet little interpretation—which is not verified in the Word of God—and you go to God to try and say this is what God says?

When you do that you end up telling God what to do! Now, we're going to see the great problems that this causes. Anyone who tells God what to do! You take all Sunday-keepers all holiday-keepers, they are telling God what to do!

Just like the Catholics brag because of Sunday and the pagan holidays that they have, the occult holidays are not just pagan they are satanic.

Oh, the pope has blessed them so that makes them good. Yes, we took away the pagan name of the day and we put a 'Christian' name on it. Isn't that lovely?

What does God say? You shall have no other gods before Me! How are they going to understand anything else if they have all these false gods that they just rename so it looks Christian? They aren't!

That's why the Catholics also brag, 'we could preach the gospel, that is the Catholic gospel, without the Bible, because of their traditions and what they believe. Catholics—by the Bible—are not Christian. They take some things from the Bible for the appearance of being Christian, but their full allegiance is never to God it's to the pope and the virgin Mary who is not in heaven. The Apostle John—who took care of Mary after Jesus died—wrote 'no one has ascended into heaven except the Son of man Who is now in heaven.' That's well after the time of the death of the virgin Mary.

They don't understand. You cannot go to God and tell Him what you are going to do, which is contrary to the Word of God and ask God to sanctify it, because He won't! It is His will that is to be followed not ours.

Verse 3: "Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of rest, a Holy convocation. You shall not do any work. It is a Sabbath to the LORD in all your dwellings."

Well now, in order to further deceive the people in Europe what they've done they've rearranged a calendar, which is also the corporate calendar of the world to have Sunday as the seventh day of the week. Isn't that wonderful? So, all the deceived generations now coming up these new mush-heads that come into the world and go to the government schools, the Catholic schools and the Catholic/Protestant schools—because that's all Protestants are just reformed Catholics—they look at the calendar and they say, 'Oh look, Sunday is the seventh day.' Well, that's like buying gold coins only to find out they're lead and have been painted with gold paint! Sunday is not the seventh day!

That's why we have in The Holy Bible in It's Original Order, A Faithful Version, Appendix N: Rome's Challenge to the Protestants, because the enemy has even told all the Protestants that 'if you keep Sunday you're not following the Bible you are following the Catholic Church, because we established Sunday and there is no place in the Bible would substantiates it.' So, they don't know!

1. The Seventh-Day Sabbath

- What is the first thing spoken of here?
The seventh day!
- What does that go back to? Seventh day of creation!

Granted, it's the fourth commandment in the Ten Commandments. But that doesn't mean that it is not essentially first in giving us understanding in our relationship with God.

Do you think it's possible to really have a relationship with God when you refuse to keep His Sabbath Day?

Remember that Jesus said—Who is the Creator of everything—'Heaven and earth shall pass away but My words shall not pass away! Do not think I've come to abolish the Law or the Prophets.'

This is the #1 key important thing—the Sabbath Day—because when you start keeping the Sabbath Day as I've instructed many, many people to do when they are just coming into the knowledge of the truth wondering about the difference between the Sabbath and Sunday I say this:

You take one month and you keep the Sabbath every day for a month beginning at sunset Friday to sunset Saturday, and you make a special study of the Sabbath Day in the Bible, Old and New Testament. Ask God for understanding and I guarantee you that you will understand why the Sabbath has to be kept: because God said so! That's why! Is the Sabbath Day the will of God? Yes! That's why He created it!

Mark 2:27: "... The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath"—meaning man has no authority over which day is the Sabbath! So, all the religious leaders and popes in Christendom today are in defiance of God.

Verse 28: "For the Son of man is Lord even of the Sabbath Day."

Which day is the Lord's day? Not Sunday! The Sabbath! It's a key important thing that is the first step of faith in obedience to God that someone needs to take in order to begin to understand about God and to begin to develop a relationship with God. It's a continuing, ongoing thing that you do the rest of your life.

Leviticus 23:4: "These are the appointed Feasts of the LORD, Holy convocations, which you shall proclaim in their appointed seasons."

If you want a good overview of this you get our book: Occult Holidays or God's Holy Days—Which? You carefully read and study that through. That is the most basic, fundamental book for you to read, to learn and to understand. It will probably take two or three readings for you to really glean out of it.

Another thing I want to tell everyone that they need to learn how to get out of your 12-minute attention span! What do I mean by that? I mean the whole generation of this world, because of television, has been trained for a 12-minute attention span. A 15-minute segment, 2 minutes of commercials to begin with, then 12 minutes, and that brings you to 14 minutes and then 2 or 3 minutes of commercials. Then they take the next 15 minutes and they break it down into another pause at 20 minutes after, between 15 after and 30 minutes after.

You watch yourself I've even done this: When it gets close to 12 minutes of watching television you start getting restless. If you want to get a snack or you want to get something else you start thinking about it and you're so glad when the commercial comes, because you get up and go get your snack or go to the bathroom or something.

In order to understand the Bible you cannot have a 12-minute attention span, because you'll never understand it. You cannot have: 'Oh, give it to me very simply. Give me a summary and then I will understand. You will never understand with a summary! You've got to know the deep things of God, and that comes:

- with work
- with study
- with prayer

with repeating these things over and over again on a daily basis!

The reason that is so is because God has not called you to improve your physical life—hopefully it will—He has called you to eternal life and that's what the training is all about eternal life. It's not a social club, not a get-together of people that you know and love, that's all well and good. But if you don't rise above that what you're doing is in vain.

Verse 4: "These are the appointed Feasts of the LORD, Holy convocations, which you shall proclaim in their appointed seasons.

2. Passover

Verse 5: "In the fourteenth day of the first month, between the two evenings, is the LORD'S Passover" (vs 4-5).

That is fundamental in your covenant with God, because if you do not keep the Passover the way that Jesus taught in the New Testament—at the time and in the manner that He said, including the foot-washing, the bread, the wine in that order—Jesus said, 'You do not have any part with Me' (John 13), and we'll understand why.

3. The Holy Days

This book—God's Plan for Mankind Revealed by the Sabbath and Holy Days—is going to take you in depth all the way through:

- the Sabbath
- the Passover
- the Feast of Unleavened Bread
- Pentecost
- Trumpets
- Atonement
- Tabernacles

• Last Great Day

The meaning and purpose of God's plan as outlined by that is the structure of it and what these messages do is bring you the details of the Scripture to fill it out. Just like what we covered here:

- the Sabbath
- the Passover
- the Holy Days

This is an overview and everything else fits under that!

Maybe you've never thought of it, but look at the structure of it. Here it is right in front of us, and it reminds me of:

I charged a battery and I put it back in the box so I would be sure and have it after it was charged and it got covered up with it some papers having to do with getting the battery charged and so forth. I knew I put it in the box but when I wanted to get it to use it I looked in the box I didn't see it, so I thought: Where did I put it? I looked here and I looked there and I came back and looked at the box again and I said, 'What did I do with that?'

So, after looking around I finally quit and I said well it's bound to show up because it doesn't have legs and it didn't crawl away and we don't have any ants or cockroaches to carry it out. So, the next day I thought I'd throw out the box. I opened it up and I reached in there and I picked up those papers and there was the battery.

So, many times in understanding the Scriptures is just like that. We look and we look and we can't find it! We don't know. How did that happen? Well, here of all the years that we've been reading Lev. 23 how did it happen that we didn't understand:

- the Sabbath
- the Passover
- the Holy Days

and we'll show why! The Sabbath, Passover and Holy Days are the signature that sets us apart from the world!

Someone will say, 'Now you know the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ is most important.' On what day was Jesus crucified? Passover Day; not on 'Good Friday'! If you believe in 'Good Friday' and if you believe that he was crucified on a Friday and was resurrected on a Sunday morning you don't know how to count! You can't even count to three! Now let's look at these three things again:

1) if you do not keep the Sabbath and you keep Sunday, you're a 'religious' person

- 2) if you do not keep Passover
- 3) if you do not keep the Feasts of God

What is the counterfeit in place of it?

- Sunday
- Communion/the Eucharist
- occult holidays

What are those? Those are the three most important things in Satan's counterfeit Christianity! Now if that offends you then be offended, but that is the truth.

Just like it was during the days of Elijah. 'Why do you vacillate between two opinions as to who the Lord is? If the Lord be God serve Him if it be Baal serve him,' and Baal's day is Sunday, by the way, and the occult holidays are all his days. So, don't stand up there and think in your mind that those things have all been changed. You've got another thought coming! Just to use an expression from mother, father, grandmother and grandfather, if you don't change your ways you're going to be in trouble. That means repent. So, there we have it; that's something!

Let's begin in Exo. 3, and we're going to emphasize certain things and a lot of people think that by time you come to Exo. 12 that that is the first Passover. We will start out here and see the basis for why God sent Moses, called him—notice that Moses didn't appoint himself—to lead the children of Israel out of Egypt! You need to understand the reason for it. When we go through Exo. 12 we will see the link. Just like if you are on the website and you come to a certain point in there is a link that says click here. So you click there and that gives you more understanding. Well, there's a link in Exo. 12 that confirms what were going to read in Exo. 3.

So, after God told Moses what He was going to do, Exodus 3:11: "And Moses said to God..."—because he's been out there for 40 years shepherding sheep! Actually that was good training for him. But what did it do? It kept him isolated from everything of the riches and the wealth of Egypt! When God began dealing with him, beginning with the burning bush, and then told him what he was going to do... Moses began to comprehend all of it because he had been in Egypt and he was the heir apparent of the Pharaoh.

Verse 11: "And Moses said to God, 'Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?' And He said, 'I will be with you. And this shall be the sign to you that I have sent you: When you have brought forth the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God upon this mountain'" (vs 11-12).

What we are going to do, we're going to take these three things and we're going to focus in on the Passover mostly. We're going to begin to build and understand the substructure of what the Passover is all about. It is one thing to say keep the Passover between the two evenings, it's another thing to know and understand what it's all about. So, we'll begin to understand it here.

Verse 13: "And Moses said to God, 'Behold, when I come to the children of Israel, and shall say to them, "The God of your fathers has sent me to you"...'" I want you to understand that and he tells us exactly who they are.

"...and they shall say to me, "What is His name?" What shall I say to them?" (v 13).

- Why?
- How many gods did they have in Egypt?
- All the names of all the gods and everything?
- Who was Pharaoh? He was 'god in the flesh' on the earth!

That will help you understand why all the severe plagues were there! We won't go into any of those in this message.

"And God said to Moses, 'I AM THAT I AM.'..." (v 14). Another translation is 'I will be what I will be!' Because God is a covenant God, and in the different covenants He presents Himself differently, though it's the same God.

"...And He said, 'Thus you shall say to the children of Israel, "I AM has sent me to you"' (v 14). You'll find the emphasis of I AM in the book of John because that follows through.

Verse 15: "And God said to Moses again, 'You shall say this to the children of Israel, "The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is My name forever, and this is My title from generation to generation.'"

Here is why God sent Moses. God prophesied to Abraham that it would happen. That also passed down to Isaac and to Jacob. The reason that he sent Moses was to fulfill His promises to Abraham Isaac and Jacob! Let's understand something here very clear:

- if anyone tells you Moses was a Jew, he is an ignoramus
- if anyone tells you that all the children of Israel were Jews, he's an ignoramus
- if anyone tells you that Adam was a Jew or Noah was a Jew, that's completely incorrect

That is the propaganda of Judaism!

It gives the appearance that Judaism is a monolithic belief, that all Jews believe the same thing. Not true that is a propaganda statement, which is normally called lies. So, if you believe that, that shows you how ignorant you are of the Word of God and the history that you need to read like those genealogies, because they tell us about who the children of Israel really were! That's why they're there.

Another reason why God selected Moses was because he was from the tribe of Levi. God pre-selected the tribe of Levi and also the house of Aaron to be the priesthood from Levi, and the Levites to assist the priesthood. It's very interesting that Aaron was the firstborn and Moses was the second born. Moses turns out to be—because of the calling of God and what he was given to do—the greatest man in the history of the Bible up to Jesus Christ. Moses was:

- 1) a priest
- 2) a prophet
- 3) a spokesman for God
- 4) the mediator between God and the children of Israel

Samuel came close to it, because he was a priest, a prophet and a judge, but Moses ranks right up there at the top.

Verse 16: “Go, and gather the elders of Israel and say to them...” That's how they communicated! The elders would come, Moses would speak to them and they would carry the message to the children of Israel. They didn't have telephones, cell phones Blackberries or iPods. That may come as a surprise to many young people today.

Just like someone asked a girl well where does milk come from? A carton! Like Rachelle did one time when we were in a drought of 1977 and they were doing all the irrigating and sprinkling; she was about two-and-a-half or three-years-old and we were coming home and we were looking at this field where they were and they had all the sprinklers going. They were irrigating and everything she says, ‘Look, daddy, rain!’ It hadn't rained in about two-and-half-years of her life.

“...The LORD God of your fathers has appeared to me, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying...” (v 16).

We're going to emphasize that over and over again. Because what happens to Israel is not because of Israel, but because of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and the promises that God gave to Abraham passed on to Isaac, and passed on to Jacob! Not because of any righteousness on the part of their descendents, but because a covenant with Abraham, and we'll see how that fits in with the Passover. Here's what God said:

“...‘I have surely visited you and have observed what is done to you in Egypt.’ And I have said, ‘I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, to a land flowing with milk and honey’” (vs 16-17).

Now we won't go through any of the rest of the things in all the things that took place leading up to them being let go by Pharaoh. Remember that God raised up Pharaoh for the specific purpose, and all of you who believe that the God of the Old Testament was evil and harsh listen up.

Romans 9:14: “What then shall we say? Is there unrighteousness with God? MAY IT NEVER BE! For He said to Moses, ‘I will show mercy to whomever I show mercy, and I will have compassion on whomever I have compassion.’ So then, it is not of the one who wills, nor of the one who runs...” (vs 14-16).

Not by human will and that's true of Moses right he wasn't sitting out there on the mountain saying, ‘O God, I've got a good idea. Why don't you send me down and I'll bring the children of Israel out of Egypt.’ No! God is one who informed them. It's the will of God! Remember where we started? Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven!

“...rather, it is of God, Who shows mercy. For the Scripture said to Pharaoh, ‘For this very purpose I raised you up in order that I might show in you My power...’” (vs 16-17).

Did He do that? Yes! Someone is going to say, ‘Why did He harden Pharaoh's heart?’ To demonstrate His power because Pharaoh had already hardened his heart! Remember: Pharaoh was the servant and direct worshiper of Satan the devil. That's what this confrontation was all about. If you look at any of the mummies of the pharaohs, what do you see on their crown? A cobra right up on the front of the crown! Yes, they worship Satan the devil the old serpent.

“...that I might show in you My power... [For what purpose?] ...so that My name... [and all of His actions] ...may be declared in all the earth” (v 17).

- Is that happening every time we read the Scripture?
- Is that happening every time when someone reads the book of Exodus?
- Yes it is!

That's being fulfilled today every time someone reads it or someone preaches it in all the earth down through history.

Verse 18: "So then, He shows mercy to whom He will, and He hardens whom He will. Will you then reply to me, 'Why does He yet find fault? For who has opposed His purpose?'" (vs 18-19). Because sin is sin, and sin is always at fault! Transgression of the Law is sin!

Verse 20: "Yes, indeed, O man, who are you to answer against God?..."

Think about this relationship if you really have your mind and your life wrapped around Sunday and the occult holidays of this world.

"...Shall the thing that is formed say to the one who formed it, 'Why did you make me this way?' Or doesn't the potter have authority over the clay to make from the same lump of clay one vessel unto honor, and another vessel unto dishonor?" (vs 20-21). Yes were all made of the dust of the earth!

Verse 22: "And who dares to question His purpose if God, willing to show His wrath and to make known His power, chose in much long-suffering to put up with the vessels of wrath, which were created for destruction; in order that He might make known the riches of His glory unto the vessels of mercy, which He prepared before for glory" (vs 22-23).

God's purpose is going to be done! Remember where we started: Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven! So, you can take what we just read here and you can apply it to the coming beast.

After all the plagues and of the course there are even historical documentation that they took place.

Exodus 11:1: "And the LORD had said to Moses, 'I will yet bring one plague on Pharaoh and on Egypt. Afterward, he will let you go from here. When he shall let you go, he shall surely thrust you out from here altogether'"—because they were afraid they would all die!

Verse 2: "Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man ask from his neighbor, and every woman from her neighbor, articles of silver and jewels of gold."

They were going to spoil or plunder, as payment for their years of slavery, from the Egyptians. This started before the Passover, and they had the final thrust of it when they were assembling for the Exodus.

Verse 3: "And the LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. And the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people. And Moses said, 'Thus says the LORD, "About midnight I will go out into the midst of Egypt"' (vs 3-4).

Now isn't that interesting. He didn't tell Pharaoh which day, did he? About midnight! Which day, Moses? He told the children of Israel, but he didn't tell Pharaoh.

Verse 5: "And all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sits upon his throne, even to the firstborn of the slave-girl that is behind the mill; also the firstborn of beasts."

Now that is roughly 20% of the population, and probably with the animals something like 10 or 12%. Because firstborn are not just males, that's male and female.

Verse 6: "And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it anymore."

But here's the promise! Facing the days we are going to face here's a promise that you can claim, and that's why you need to have a right relationship with God.

Verse 7: "But against any of the children of Israel... [today the Church is the Israel of God] ...not even a dog shall move his tongue, against man or beast, so that you may know that the LORD puts a difference between the Egyptians and Israel."

In the same way today with the Church. We live in the world but were not of the world. There's a difference between those who have the Spirit of God and love God and keep His commandments and those who are in the world.

Verse 8: "And all these, your servants, shall come down to me... [Moses is telling Pharaoh this] ...and bow themselves down to me, saying..."

So, the moral of the story is when we get the latter part of Exo. 12 Moses did not go to Pharaoh when Pharaoh sent the message to leave. A lot of people say that was after midnight. Let me just state here that when you begin examining about Passover you are going to find that that is so important. Satan has done everything he can to cause:

- confusion
- wrong timing
- misinterpretation
- hatred toward than any other single day of God; even more so than the Sabbath! We're going to see why that's so important.

“...“You and all the people that follow you—get out!” And after that I will go out” (v 8).

He didn't go back to Pharaoh and say, O Pharaoh, it was so nice of you after all this all this and all of these plagues that you finally agreed to let them go.' Didn't happen that way.

“...And he went out from Pharaoh in flaming anger” (v 8). I like that! Would you say that's righteous indignation? Of course!

Verse 9: “And the LORD said to Moses, ‘Pharaoh shall not hearken to you so that My wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.’ And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh. And the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart so that he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land” (vs 9-10).

So, not only was this a battle between the children of Israel and Pharaoh and the Egyptians, but it was a titanic battle between Satan the devil and the demons and the people of Egypt who followed them, and God, Moses, Aaron and the people who of the children of Israel who would follow God.

The message that I gave on Who are the Two Witnesses and Elijah? I said there are three Elijah's:

- 1) Elijah
- 2) John the Baptist
- 3) a coming Elijah.

Let's look at three pair of two witnesses:

- 1) Moses and Aaron
- 2) Elijah and Elisha
- 3) the two witnesses of Rev. 11:3

So, the pattern follows the same thing!

Now let's see the instructions that are given. I want to emphasize this is the first Passover for the children of Israel, but this is not the first Passover of God! We'll see that. It will involve the same day, because the 14th day of the 1st month is the Passover day. No other day!

If you want to know why the Jews in the Diaspora keep the 15th then you need to get The Christian Passover book and read it. I've had people say, 'Oh it's such a thick book.' Well, you don't understand all the problems that Satan has caused concerning the Passover! There is not one wasted page in this book. You need to read it step-by-step so you will understand because people are going to come along and bring in Jewish traditional interpretation and try and hang that on the Passover Day to justify what they are doing. What you need to do is read this book and understand what happened to the Passover, and why the Jews today have the wrong day. It comes down to something very simple.

1. they have rejected Christ who is the true Passover
2. they are in the Diaspora scattered around the world

Very few will admit like... I have a quote here from a rabbi in the 11th century that:

We are scattered across the face of the earth because of the sins of our forefathers and because of our own sins and we walk in their footsteps.

You tell me one Jew today who will say we are scattered abroad because we sinned against God.

They cannot—when they are not in the land—keep a 14th Passover! But what they like to try and do is send their agents to come and try and convince Christians who keep it on the 14th that they should keep it on the 15th. That's what this book The Christian Passover is about:

- What does it mean?
- Should it be observed the 14th or 15th and then all of the details! There is not one question concerning the Passover that has not been raised by many, many different people down through time all gathered together in this one book.

We're going to go through the whole chapter of Exo. 12. Let me just say that the congregation, or the children of Israel, is composed of all 12 tribes, descendants from the 12 sons of Jacob, of whom one—Judah—are the ones from whom the Jews have come from. We're not speaking here when we read the name Israel of the Jews. They were one of 12 tribes!

Exodus 12:1: “And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, ‘This month shall be to you the beginning of months. It shall be the first month of the year to you. Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying, “In the tenth day of this month...”” (vs 1-3).

There are a lot of very significant things that took place in the New Testament concerning Christ on the same day, which you will find in The Christian Passover book and also in A Harmony of the Gospels. These two books are very important for you to understand concerning the Passover.

“...In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them each man a lamb for a father's house, a lamb for a house. And if the household is too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbor next to his house take according to the number of the souls, each one, according to the eating of his mouth, you shall count concerning the lamb” (vs 3-4). That generally figures out to be approximately 10 people per lamb!

Verse 5: “Your lamb shall be without blemish...” Here we have a type of Christ, but not the sacrifice of Christ; a type of Christ.

As a matter of fact, every offering that was to be given was to be without blemish. {Note the book The Law of Offerings by Andrew John Jukes {amazon.com}. It breaks it down in great detail about all the law of the sacrifices, and so forth. It’s really phenomenal.

We started with these three most important things: the Sabbath, the Passover and the Feasts that is the superstructure upon which all the rest of these things hang and all of the details come below it. So, what were going to do here is read some of the details, and they all are important.

Verse 5: “Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year...” Can’t be more than a year! In another place it says you can’t bring an offering that is less than eight-days-old. So, it had to be eight-days-old up to a year.

In the spring of the year when this took place guess what happened just before this, the sheep were already through their lambing. So, most of these were very small lambs. Let’s compare a small lamb to a large lamb, one that’s over a year old. If 10 people ate off that large lamb they have a lot of meat. But you get a little small lamb, there’s not much there. I’ll tell you about this later as we go along, because not only did we search the Scriptures, we also timed the slaughter, the skinning, the roasting and the burning of the bones of a small lamb that was, I think, two-months-old; actually a kid goat.

“...You shall take it from the sheep or from the goats. And you shall keep it up until the beginning of the fourteenth day of the same month...” (vs 5-6).

For those of you who were following along in the King James please understand that you will be a little handicap in understanding the true meaning of the words because they are not properly translated in the King James, which is also another point of great confusion when people try to understand about it, because it speaks of two evenings one at the beginning of the day and one at the end of the day. You need to know how to distinguish between them, and the translation of The Faithful Version does distinguish those very properly.

Verse 6: “And you shall keep it up until the beginning of the fourteenth day of the same month...”

- When does a day began?
- We find in Lev. 23:32 that it’s from the 10th day of the month is defined as from sunset on the 9th day to sunset on the 10th day!
- When does the 10th begin? When the 9th day ends at sunset!
- When does the 14th day begin? At sunset of the 13th!

So, we have a Scriptural interpretation of that!

“...And the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel... [that means all at once] shall kill it between the two evenings” (v 6).

Now there’s a little star there and we’ve got a marginal reference the Hebrew ‘ben ha arbayim’ between sunset and dark the beginning of the 14th day. We have a chapter on that in The Christian Passover book. When the sun touches the horizon as defined here in the Passover book this is why you need the Passover book because it covers every argument. The Jews say, ‘between the two evenings’; some of them say ‘from one evening to the next evening,’ a whole day. Are you going to take a whole 24 hour day to do this?

What if you interpreted it between one evening and the next evening and you said, ‘I think that since I don’t want to stay up at night what I’ll do I will do it like about 10 in the morning that will be much more convenient for me to do.’ You’re a dead man! When did God pass though Egypt? At midnight! Is that before sunrise? Considerably! Kill it between the two evenings, which is between sunset and dark.

Here we have the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel that selected the lamb on the 10th day of the 1st month, which by the way when you go through A Harmony of the Gospels, you will find that that is the day, John 12, that Jesus was selected by the voice coming from heaven.

Since He was the Lamb of God, God selected Him on that day, the same day that the lamb here was selected. Someone is up on the roof of the house many different places, because all the children of Israel lived in what was called the land of Goshen. They didn’t live in among the Egyptians, because for the Egyptians Hebrews were unclean people. They were shepherds of animals while most of the Egyptians were vegetarians. Kind of sounds little like India. What do you think would happen in India if you had a large number of people kill those little lambs all at the same time? There would be a riot!

In the Hebrew: ‘ba-erev’ is sunset and it comes just before ‘ben ha arbayim.’

Picture this: Egypt has a flat landscape you have to worry about hills or mountains. You can look out west and you can see when the sun touches the horizon that’s the beginning of ‘ba-erev’ and takes about five minutes for the sun to set. That’s the end of ‘ba-erev’ and the beginning of ‘ben ha arbayim.’

Here you have your different ones up on top of the houses and they’re watching the sunset so they can tell exactly when the sun has set, and between the two evenings begins and they say now! Then the head of the house took his trusty little knife slit the throat of the lamb drained the blood and prepared the whole lamb.

Now just to let you know, those two little kids that we did this on to get the timing for the Passover book we wanted to do it authentically. We had a man at that time Gordon Emerson who had sheep and he had goats, and he volunteered to do the slaughtering of the lamb for us. You had to have someone who knew what they were doing. Well, he knew what he was doing, so, we all watched. He took the lamb got it by its hind feet and hung it up cut its throat let the blood drain. Very painless!

God says you’re not to eat the blood. So, what you do? You cut the throat and drain it! Let it go on the ground! Remember that no sacrifice of the Passover and its blood was to be sprinkled upon the altar, because it was a domestic observance. This happened all at once. Then what did he do? He cut it right down the middle of the belly from the throat all the way back to the genitals and then pulled out the skin to start skinning it.

I wondered how he was going to do that? Well first of all he opened it up and all the innards came out. All the intestines the heart the lungs you know the kidneys were still left up there so that was taking care of a little later, because they’re up in the fat of the cowl, so you take that out. It all came out in just a few seconds. No problem with that and were all standing there thinking, ‘My, that’s fast!’

Now came the time for skinning. He pulled part of the hide on the left side and part of the hide on the right side so he could put the edge of his hand in there. So, you put your hands together with your thumbs touching and then imagine that your little finger and the side of your hand is just under the skin of the lamb. He just went with both hands from top to bottom, and that skin was loose and ready to come off in less than 10 seconds. Then he cut a place so he could get the legs off front back and back. That was it.

It was killed, blood drained, gutted and skinned in less than 15 minutes; all ready to go. So, the lambs were all ready to go before it got dark, because between the two evenings is between sunset and dark. Now, here’s what they were to do.

Verse 7: “And they shall take of the blood and strike it on the two side posts and upon the upper doorpost of the houses in which they shall eat it.” Domestic observance!

Of course, someone will say, ‘Why should you emphasize that because there was no temple built.’ You’ve got to read the book but we’ll cover it. It was never to be at the temple. What about Deut. 16? Hold on we’ll get there.

Verse 8: “And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roasted with fire...” They were to take the whole animal put it on a spit and turn it.

“...and unleavened bread...” (v 8). Is the Passover Day an unleavened bread day? Of course! That’s what it says: unleavened bread! Then someone is going to say well that makes eight days of unleavened bread. No! You have one day for the Passover and seven days for the Feast. It does make eight, just like the Feast of Tabernacles is eight days long, because there are seven days of the Feast of Tabernacles and one day the Last Great Day.

If you want to really think this through you tell me where they were able to get leavened bread while they were walking to Rameses to assemble for the exodus. Did they run to the Egyptians and say, ‘We ate this hardtack last night, this unleavened bread. It was terrible! Give me one of your biscuits would you please. Oh I’m on the way to Rameses to assemble to leave.’ Never happened! Like I’ve said jokingly before there was no McDonald’s to stop and buy an Egg McMuffin in the morning.

“...They shall eat it with bitter herbs.... [other instructions; all of these are important details] ...Do not eat of it raw... [no rare lamb] ...boiled at all with water...” (vs 8-9).

I want you to make a point of this right here, because this becomes most important for Deut. 16.

“...but roasted with fire, its head with its legs, and with its inward parts” (v 9). That is the heart the liver and the kidneys were to be put in the cavity where the intestines were.

Some people have thought they just killed the lamb, let it bleed, put a spit through it from tail to head, left the fur on it, left the intestines in it, and started roasting it. Well, if they did that let me tell you what would happen: About 45 minutes into cooking it would explode in your face, because all the intestines would be heated up and the heat would make them explode and wouldn't be able to contain it.

So, there were no intestines in it. They did not roast it with its fur on it. But they kept it because that's part of the remains they were to burn before they left.

Verse 10: "And you shall not let any of it remain until the morning...."—'boqer'—that's sunrise!

Since they all had wristwatches courtesy of Walmart they all knew the exact time when they would assemble. No! I'm being very facetious! God kept it simple. 'ba-erev' is sunset.

- Can even the simplest minded person understand when sunset is? Yes!
- Can the simplest minded person understand when sunrise is? Yes!

After the sun is set and all night and then—which set in the west—then you look in the east in the morning and you see the sunrise.

Verse 10: "And you shall not let any of it remain until the morning...." What would be remaining after you ate all the flesh? The skin the guts and the bones!

Another thing that's important to understand about the bones is that being mostly young lambs their bones are not set hard, and they're mostly cartilage and they can burn very quickly, very easily. But what we did for the book, we got a shank bone. So, I put it in our fireplace in the front room to see how long it would take to burn the shank bone, which would be the biggest thickest part of the lamb. I got it at the local market just for that purpose. It took two hours for that to burn so it could be crumbled into ashes.

- Why would God want it done that way?
- Everything burned?
- Were they living in Egypt? Yes!
- Did they worship other gods? Yes!
- Did they have little magic idolatry things?
- Have you ever read about scarabs these, 'good luck' charms and you keep?

So, God wanted it all burned so no one could say:

- look I've got the ear of the lamb when the Passover took place
- I've got the right hoof here in the front leg, and this is going to protect me, and we'll use this is a 'good luck' charm

That's why! People would do that! Because someone would say:

- God took us out of Egypt look what I have; I've got a hoof the lamb

"...And that which remains of it until the morning you shall burn with fire. And this is the way you shall eat it: with your loins girded..." (vs 10-11). Have everything ready! No time for the last minute 'I have to pack my suitcase. I've got to take my clothes.'

"...your sandals on your feet..." (v 11)—because they stayed up most all that night. I'm sure some of the children slept while some of these things were going on until the slaughter of the firstborn at midnight.

"...and your staff in your hand. And you shall eat it in trepidation...." (v 11)—in 'haste' in the King James is not correct and a lot of people have misinterpreted you eat it in haste so you can hurry and get out of there right after midnight, and from midnight until in the morning you could go to Rameses. But what did God say? You shall not go out of the door of your house until sunrise!

"...It is the LORD'S Passover" (v 11).

- Who owns the Sabbath Day? God does!
- Who owns the Passover? God does!

That's His Passover, His Holy Days. If you want to be right with God you:

- do it His way
- on His day
- according to His will

Passover

CHAPTER TWELVE

Origin and Meaning of Passover

Fred R. Coulter

What is the origin and the meaning of the Passover? Especially the Christian Passover?

Let's understand something about the Bible, and this is always basic and fundamental, but it is also in depth and runs through the entire Bible on understanding. The Bible is not a book that anyone can just pick up and begin to understand like reading a novel. Certain things that are in there, which are basic, different people can understand at different times, and begin to apply them.

However, to understand what we are going to cover today, we need to look at how God has designed the Bible and how it is to be understood. That's why in studying the Bible it's got to be accompanied with prayer and obedience, because all of those things are required! It's got to be accompanied with an attitude of love to God and an attitude of being willing to obey what God reveals to you as you study the Word of God.

1-Cor. 2 tells us how we begin to understand the Bible, and this also shows us that you need spiritual help from the Spirit of God, either the Spirit of God is with you and will help lead you to understand, or if you are already baptized, the Spirit of God is in you and will lead you to understand. Nevertheless, either way the things of the Bible, as we will see, are spiritually discerned.

1-Corinthians 2:9: "But according as it is written, 'The eye has not seen, nor the ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him.'"

If you love God, what did Jesus say? If you love Me, keep My commandments! It is not for just anybody in the world, it's not just for anybody who wants to pick up the Bible and start reading it. Oh, they can, but there are prophecies that say, even the 'wise men' and the priests can't understand it. Or the 'wise men' say, 'I don't know what this says, what it means.' You have to love God!

Verse 10: "But God has revealed them..." God must reveal it, and through the Spirit of God, He must open our minds to understand the Word of God.

"...to us by His Spirit, for the Spirit searches all things—even the deep things of God" (v 10). God expects us to go from the beginning, from the basics and on into the deep things of God!

Part of what we're going to cover today is the deep understanding of the Passover of God although it is in the simplicity of Christ.

Verse 11: "For who among men understands the things of man except by the spirit of man, which is in him? In the same way also, the things of God no one understands except by the Spirit of God. For who among men understands the things of man except by the spirit of man, which is in him? In the same way also, the things of God no one understands except by the Spirit of God." Therefore, when you are studying:

- you should always ask God to help you understand
- you should always ask God for His Spirit to lead you so that you will do things according to the way that God wants them done! You will understand according to the way that God wants you to understand it.

This also tells you another reason why the world, though they call themselves Christian, cannot understand because they are not loving God the way God says, and are not keeping the commandments of God the way God says to keep them. Therefore, when that happens they are blinded!

Christ shows very clearly that IF you do not believe God when you hear the Word of God, and IF you're not willing to live by His Word, you automatically blind yourself and put yourself on Satan's side, who is the one who blinds those from understanding the Gospel. The way that God gives understanding to the Bible is a two-edged sword:

1. for those who refuse to believe and understand
They won't; they read the words and they can't understand it!
2. for those who want to know the Word of God, those who want to love God
He opens their understanding to it!

There is no other book in the world that does this, because no other book in the world is based upon the spiritual words of God, because the words Jesus spoke, they are Spirit and they are Life!

What we're going to do is look at the beginning, or the origin of the Passover, and the origin of the Passover

- does not begin with Exo. 12; it begins in Gen. 15
- does not begin with Israel; it begins with Abraham

There are more parallels with the events that happen here in Gen. 15 that relate to the Passover and to the preaching of the Gospel than has been understood. We've gone through this quite a few times since we first understood it.

Today we are going to learn even more. We are going to draw even more precepts out of it, we're going to have more understanding out of it, a little more here and a little more there, because it's all right there.

There is a reason for it, and there is a reason why the Passover for the Christian Passover is not patterned after the Passover that God gave to Israel! That Passover—though it had types of Christ with the lamb without blemish, and the blood that would protect them from death and so forth—the timing of the Passover in Exo. 12 is different than the timing of the Passover for the New Covenant that Jesus taught the apostles on His last Passover.

What Jesus taught His apostles on the last Passover conforms more to the flow of events here in Gen. 15 than it does to the Passover in Exo. 12, or the later slaying of the lambs at the temple by the Jews in their traditional Passover offerings that they had on the day portion of the fourteenth.

Genesis 15:4: “And behold, the Word of the LORD came to him saying, ‘This man shall not be your heir...’”

That is Eliezer of Damascus, because here Abram was about 85-years-old or so, no children and God promised him a child! So, here God is going to make the promise sure.

“...but he that shall come forth out of your own loins shall be your heir” (v 4).

You have to be a fleshly human being first. Who was the one that was born to Abraham and Sarah? It was Isaac, and Isaac was the child of promise! We have here a physical birth, keep that in mind.

Verse 5: “And He brought him outside and said, ‘Look now toward the heavens and number the stars—if you are able to count them.’...”

The universe is quite a thing, and the heavens God designed to be glorious and awesome to lead mankind to realize that God is Creator, and to seek His purpose in creating it, because God did not do it in vain. He did it with purpose in mind!

Now let's see what the heavens are designed to do. There is a book/DVD called The Privileged Planet, and there is another one called The Rare Earth. What the astronomers now have discovered is that in order for there to be physical life, complex life like we have on the planet, there have to be multitudinous factors that have to be there:

- the earth can't be too close to the sun or too far from the sun
- the earth has to be the right size
- the moon has to be the right size
- the sun has to be the right size
- the solar system that must be of the right composition
- Jupiter and Uranus is needed to give protection from all of the asteroids that would come crashing in if they weren't there

You need to have everything in perfect balance, so it's:

- the perfect earth
- in the perfect solar system
- in the perfect galaxy

because the galaxy is set in such a way that from the earth you can examine the heavens like no other place in the entirety of the universe!

There is no other place because there is too much gas, there are too many clouds, gaseous clouds. If you were on Venus, you would never see the sun. The earth is in the perfect place because God created and put it there, and He did it for a reason, for His plan that He has for all mankind, and that's all wrapped up in Jesus Christ, and that's all wrapped up in the Passover and the Holy Days.

Psalms 8:1: “O LORD our Lord, how excellent is Your name in all the earth! You have set Your glory above the heavens!”

If you can get out and see the stars and see the heavens and you know mathematically... This is why there are no atheist astronomers. You've got a lot of atheist philosophers like Carl Sagan who doesn't have a brain in his head because his mind has been closed with foolishness for rejecting God! But those who are like Carl Sagan say that ‘we are a low-class planet in a low-class galaxy, that we are nothing in the universe,’ and just the opposite is true! But only from the earth can you measure the sun, moon and stars and can see the galaxies.

What do we have out there? We've got the Hubble Telescope, and it looks deep into space! The farther they go into space what do you see? More galaxies, more stars! There's a purpose for that.

Verse 3: “When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, the moon and the stars, which You have ordained.”

Isa. 40 says that He strung out the heavens like a curtain and calls all the stars by names and has numbered them, and He upholds them through Christ with the Word of His power. Then David said:

Verse 4: “What is man that You are mindful of him, and the son of man that You care for him?” Believe it or not the creation of mankind and what God is doing here on the earth is the focal point of His plan!

Verse 5: “For You have made him a little lower than God...”—Elohim—not just the angels but Elohim, a little lower than God! God made us in His image for a great purpose, a great plan and that’s all wrapped up in the Passover. The first place to begin to understand God is to realize when you look out and see the heavens, that God made all of this.

- He keeps it in motion
- He made the earth and put everything here to sustain our life
- He gives us breath
- He gives us food
- He gives us water
- He gives us air

All of that comes from God to all human beings whether they are sinners or saints!

“...and have crowned him with glory and honor. You made him to have dominion over the works of Your hands; You have put all things under his feet” (vs 5-6). That’s what God has done!

When men look out into the heavens and they reject... We’re going to see again the same principle we covered there in 1 Cor. 2. We are going to see exactly the same principle.

Now let’s see what happens when you reject this witness and testimony of God’s creation. These evolutionists and scientists, they look out there and say that ‘this just happened by accident; that there was a ‘big bang’!

- When they have a big bang with a terrorist’s bomb, what do they know? They know that some human set it off!
- How about the ‘big bang’ that made the universe?
- How did it get there without someone doing it? It is amazing!

But there is a thinking process where you cause your mind to close, and that begins with rejecting the beauty and glory and power of God as evidenced in the universe!

Romans 1:18: “Indeed, the wrath of God is revealed from heaven upon all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men who suppress the Truth in unrighteousness.”

Any part of the Truth they hold it back, they change it. What one day do they desire to get rid of more than any other day? The Passover!

Under the inspiration of Satan the devil, Satan knows that if he can get people not to keep the Passover, or to keep the Passover wrongly, then he’s got them on the hook! Whether it’s a big hook or a little hook, he’s got them on the hook because sooner or later, they’ll turn their backs on God, because the Passover Day is the covenant day between God the Father, Jesus Christ and those whom He has called! When you begin to slough-off on that and do it in different ways, that’s why there is so much confusion concerning the Passover:

- the 14th or 15th
- at sunset/at dark
- three in the afternoon
- Is the bread leavened or unleavened?
- Do you have a lamb, do you not have a lamb?
- Should it just be the Lord’s Supper and the Eucharist?

Everything to move away from what the Bible says! Every step you take away from what the Bible says, you close your mind!

Verse 19_[transcriber’s correction]: “Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God has shown it to them; that which may be known of God is manifest among them, for God has manifested it to them; for the invisible things of Him are perceived from the creation of the world, being understood by the things that were made—both His eternal power and Godhead—so that they are without excuse” (vs 19-20).

As we are going to see, the Passover is where to start and everything else flows from that, because Christ was crucified on that day, and according to the timing of Gen. 15.

Verse 21: “Because when they knew God, they glorified Him not as God, neither were thankful; but they became vain in their own reasonings, and their foolish hearts were darkened.” That’s what happens when you reject the glory of God!

There is another lesson for us in Gen. 15 after God told Abram:

Genesis 15:5: “...‘Look now toward the heavens and number the stars—if you are able to count them.’...”—and I’m sure it was a gorgeous night out there!

Of course, with the Passover night it is nearly a full moon so you’ve got the full moon out there, you’ve got all the stars, and you’ve got all this beauty and splendor that is out there. God took Abram out there to show him, and here is His promise:

“...And He said to him, ‘So shall your seed be’” (v 5). There are two seeds:

1. physical seed, Isaac
2. spiritual seed, those who will be born into the Kingdom of God

What do we have here? We have exactly what Jesus taught later! Remember when Nicodemus came to Him, and Jesus said that you cannot see the Kingdom of God unless you have been born again. Jesus said ‘that which is born of the flesh is flesh, that which is born of the spirit is spirit,’ and this is exactly what we have here, because at the resurrection.

Daniel 12:3^[transcriber’s correction]: “And they who are wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament, and they who turn many to righteousness shall shine as the stars forever and ever.

Matthew 13:43^[transcriber’s correction]—at the resurrection: “Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the Kingdom of their Father....” That shows the glory that they will have!

What do you have? You have your first birth, the physical life, and you have the second birth, projected to the resurrection from flesh to spirit! Right in here you have embedded the core of what it means to be born again! That’s another precept that we can get out of here. That’s why the heavens declare the glory of God. Let’s also understand that Isaac was also that type.

In this special that was put on by the National Geographic, In the Womb, they are able to take 3-D actual photos of the baby in the womb.

They now know that in the womb, that the baby is nearly fully developed at 6 weeks, and that’s when a woman first knows that she is pregnant. It clearly shows that what is in her is another body and she is entrusted to bring forth that life by God, Who created her and designed her to do so. The body that is in there is not hers, but another life! They also showed that the baby grows and develops. They even showed when the heart first starts beating—quite amazing—and they show how it grows.

The baby practices everything in the womb that it needs before it’s born so when it’s born it will be able to function:

- it moves its arms and legs
- it turns around
- it pushes and kicks
- it opens its mouth
- it smiles and frowns
- it sleeps
- it even drinks the amniotic fluid, about a pint of it a day
- it’s fed by the mother through the umbilical cord
- it knows the food that the mother eats because it comes to the baby
- it knows the mother’s voice
- reacts to music

They have also found that good symphony music relaxes the baby and rock music sends them out of their mind as it were.

Even the living principles that we can see of people who have already been born and are in the world applies to the baby in the womb. So, when the baby is born, now it has to do something it has never done; it must breathe! It will also show when it is in the womb, it’s got plugs in its nostrils, and when they’re born they clean out those plugs and it can breathe. When it is born it has practiced nursing, it knows its mother, it knows the sound of the voice, and everything like that, and the mothers are built just right so that the babies can suckle. That’s the way God designed it!

Now in a parallel this way, after we’re born, we grow up, we’re called of God, everything that we are doing as Christians:

- by loving God
- keeping His commandments
- living by every Word of God
- having the Word of God written in our heart and our mind

we are practicing what we need for eternal life!

When we are born again into the Kingdom of God, we will be ready to start functioning, but it’s going to be just like when the baby is born into the world and must begin breathing—which it’s never done before—when we are born into the Kingdom of God, we are going to start functioning as spirit beings, which we have never done before. We have all of that buried right in these verses!

Genesis 15:5: “...And He said to him, ‘So shall your seed be.’” Well, you can’t count the stars! It was beyond the ability of Abraham to do!

Many things are beyond our ability to do, so we trust God and we believe God. Now that’s what Abraham did, he believed in the Lord and that’s New Testament doctrine. It was counted or imputed to him for righteousness. He was put in right standing with God because he believed God!

We know that God said to go ahead and you get the heifer the goat, the ram, the turtledove and the pigeon. He made this special sacrifice where they were cut down the middle, except for the turtledove and pigeon, and it was a real bloody sacrifice. There was a little path between the backs of the animals that was made so God later could walk down through there, because God was going to pledge His death!

- in order to accomplish the physical seed to come
- in order to accomplish the spiritual seed which would result from that God had to take a maledictory oath and He had to pledge His death for the sins of mankind, and that's what He did here. That's what the Passover is all about, and we know and we understand when we put it together, and you can read it in The Christian Passover book, that this occurred on the 14th day of the 1st month.

It started at night just like our Passover does, and it went on into the day portion with the sacrifices that were here, and this relates to the timing of the crucifixion and death of Jesus Christ. The Passover of Exo. 12—though it has types relating to Christ—is not of the timing which relates to the crucifixion of Christ! Neither are the other sacrifices at the temple related in timing to the sacrifice of Jesus Christ. This, and this alone, is!

Verse 12: “And it came to pass, as the sun was going down...”

God has to perform this miracle in order to show Abraham that the future coming Messiah was doing to die. When did Jesus die? It says here in the Gospels at the ninth hour, which is about three o'clock and that's when the sun starts going down!

“...that a deep sleep fell upon Abram. And, behold, a horror of great darkness fell upon him!” (v 12).

How are you going to give someone an experience of death, and yet, remain alive? This is how you do it, and this is what God did!

Verse 13: “And He said to Abram, ‘You must surely know that your seed shall be sojourners in a land that is not theirs... [captivity in Egypt] ...(and shall serve them and they shall afflict them) four hundred years”—fourth generation!

Now we go into the next day because all days in the Bible are calculated from sunset to sunset.

Verse 17: “And it came to pass—when the sun went down and it was dark...” Now we are into the 15th day! Where was Christ on the 15th day of the 1st month after He was crucified on the 14th day? He was in the tomb in total darkness, in total blackness!

If you have ever gone to the Carlsbad Caverns, you get down there and they turn the lights out and they say, ‘Put your hand in front of your face and see if you can see it.’ You can’t see a thing! This is what this horror of great darkness was picturing and now with the darkness of night, then we see something else. We see God’s power and pledge to fulfill what He said to Abraham.

“...behold, a smoking furnace... [you might liken that to a blowtorch] ...and a burning lamp passed between those pieces” (v 17).

That’s the only way that Abraham in this horror of great darkness could comprehend that God walked down between the parts of those animals! As He walked down between the parts of those animals, the smoking furnace just burned up those sacrifices and there was probably nothing left there but ashes.

Verse 18: “In the same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram...”

Likewise with us, the covenant that Christ made with us was sealed with His death, and it was guaranteed when He was put into the tomb. I can’t help but think of the difference between the death of John Paul II and the funeral and the accolades and all of the leaders of the world praising him there. They had five kings, six queens, they had seventy presidents and prime ministers, and they had top officials from all governments of the world, and they had over 140 representatives of other religions of the world there.

A perfect time for the spirits of Satan to massage all their self-righteousness so much so in fulfilling the will of God because Rev. 17 says that he puts it in their mind to fulfill His will. Even the president of Israel shook hands with the president of Syria and Iran at the funeral for the pope! They want him to be a saint right now; he is a great man in this world.

What about Christ, I couldn’t help but compare it to Christ:

- rejected
- despised
- religious leaders hated Him
- the governments of Rome did Him in and crucified Him
- the people hated Him
- they spit upon Him
- the soldiers beat Him up

- they crucified Him
- He died an ignominious death

The only ones who were there to be of any help were Joseph of Arimathea and some of the women who brought spices and that was it. Where was He buried? He was buried in a grave! He was counted with robbers. The grave was a sepulcher.

- no pomp
- no ceremony
- no circumstances
- not dressed up in a Santa Claus suit

None of that! What a difference! What a contrast! That's why God hates religion! {note our in-depth study on Why God Hates Religion (truthofGod.org)} God promised it! Here is the promise of His death, which occurred on the Passover Day in 30_{A.D.}

Now let's see something else that is related to the Passover, and has Passover significance though I cannot prove it dogmatically that this occurred on the Passover Day. However, here is the lesson, you know what it was.

Genesis 22:2: "And He said, 'Take now your son, your only son Isaac"—that's how God refers to Isaac, even though Ishmael was his son, he is not counted as the son of promise, because it was by the conniving of Sarah that occurred, and the world is paying the penalty for it ever since.

What is the greatest problem we have in the world? The fights and quarrels between the children of promise and the children of Hagar!

"...and go into the land of Moriah, and offer him there for a burnt offering..." (v 2)

Abraham went three days' journey, and he took the wood, he took the fire, and then he loaded the wood on Isaac when they got there and he took the fire in his hand, it was probably in a pot, and he carried the coals and I'm sure they always added a little wood to it, so they could keep the fire going.

Verse 7: "And Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, 'My father.' And he said, 'Here I am, my son.' And he said, 'Behold the fire and the wood.... ['I see the fire, you got it in your hand, and the wood is on my back'] ...But where is the lamb for a burnt offering?" Carrying the wood was like carrying a cross, and in this case:

- Isaac was a type of Christ
- Abraham was a type of God the Father
- the fire was a type of fiery trial that the crucifixion would be for Jesus

Notice the faith! Many times God doesn't do anything for us until the last second.

Verse 8: "And Abraham said, 'My son, God will provide Himself a lamb for a burnt offering.' So, they both went on together. And they came to the place of which God had told him. And Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood in order. And he bound his son Isaac and laid him on the wood, upon the altar. And Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slay his son" (vs 8-10).

Why would he do that? Because he counted God powerful enough to raise Isaac from the dead in case he did go through it (Heb. 11).

Notice a miraculous thing; v 11 "And the angel of the LORD called to him from the heavens and said, 'Abraham! Abraham!' And he said, 'Here I am.' And He said, 'Do not lay your hand upon the lad, nor do anything to him, for now I know that you fear God...'" (vs 11-12).

All those trials and the things that he went through were to show whether he really loved God or not; whether he was really willing to do the things that God said or not, and to believe that God would fulfill His promise!

Now remember that God said that his seed would be as the stars of heaven and as the sand on the seashore.

- IF he is going to offer his son Isaac who was the only heir to carry that out
- IF God didn't resurrect him from the dead after the sacrifice
- IF it would have come through

THEN God would have given him the greatest lie that has ever been. We believe God because:

- He is true
- His Word is true
- His Word is right
- He will do what He said and that is what Abraham did!

"...for now I know that you fear God..." (v 12). How long does it take for us to know God and love God? It takes a lifetime!

Just like the baby in the womb has to be prepared for birth, we have to be prepared for the second birth of being born again at the resurrection, and that's what Abraham was doing.

"...seeing you have not withheld your son, your only son, from Me" (v 12). He was willing to love God and keep His commandments more than his own family!

Verse 13: "And Abraham lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, behind him a ram was entangled in a thicket by its horns...."

Rams normally don't get caught in thickets with their horns so as I have said, I believe God created this ram just for this particular thing—for a substitutionary sacrifice. Christ is that substitutionary sacrifice for us. He died for our sins! So, here is a type of Christ then the sacrifice was offered instead of his son.

Now notice what happened then, v 15: “And the angel of the LORD called to Abraham out of heaven the second time.” Here is the message from God! You can't have anything greater or stronger or of a greater promise than this that God gave!

Now because of what Abraham did, God did something special. God did something He did not need to do, because every word of God is true and God cannot lie and He doesn't need to swear as a man!

But He said here, v 16: “...‘By Myself have I sworn,’ says the LORD...” This makes it absolutely unilateral, unequivocal that all:

- the promises that He gave to Abraham will come true
- the promises of the Messiah to come would come true
- the timing of it would come true

And it was to be exactly as God said and open the door for spiritual salvation!

“...‘because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son’” (v 16).

Let's understand that this is something above and beyond the commandments of God! This is something that God told him to do, and we're going to see the key important thing.

Verse 17: “That in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply your seed like the stars of the heavens... [in this case the spiritual is brought out first] ...and as the sand, which is upon the seashore.... [the physical seed] ...And your seed shall possess the gate of his enemies. And in your seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice” (vs 17-18).

I have a message on that about the simplicity in Christ: To Understand God: Obey My Voice.

Also, this shows in Heb. 6 that God has given by these two immutable things that we just read of, in blessing I will bless!

We will see how this event that we just covered in Gen. 22 projects forward to Christ, projects forward to salvation, as we have already understood.

Hebrews 6:13: “For God, after promising

Abraham, swore by Himself, since He could swear by none greater, saying, ‘Surely in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply you.’ Now, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise. For indeed, men swear by the greater, and confirmation by an oath puts an end to all disputes between them. In this way God, desiring more abundantly...” (vs 13-17).

Who did He do this for? “...to show the heirs of the promise the unchangeable nature of His own purpose...” (v 17)—the purpose of God!

That's why in Gen. 15 this was done on the Passover Day and then we will look at the last Passover of Jesus and we will see the importance of that day as a covenant day and the renewing of the covenant.

Verse 18: “So that by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to lay hold on the hope that has been set before us.”

This was done so that we could have hope in God. So that we know that God is going to do what He has said. This is the whole simplicity in Christ!

Verse 19: “Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both secure and steadfast...” The world's going to come and go, the people are going to come and go, but:

- God is always there
- the hope of God is always there
- the Truth of God is always there
- the love of God is always there

“...and which enters into the sanctuary within the veil” (v 19).

What does this do? Just exactly as the voice came from heaven to speak directly to Abraham so likewise through Christ, we are able to enter into the Holy of Holies because of what Christ has done. That's why when Christ died, the veil in the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom, to show that the way to the Holy of Holies was now open through prayer to God to Father in heaven above!

Verse 20: “Where Jesus has entered for us as a forerunner, having become a High Priest forever according to the order of Melchisedec.”

Now let's look at one other thing concerning Abraham and then we will come to the New Testament and look at that last Passover with Jesus.

In Gen. 26:4 God is talking to Isaac and passing the promise on to him, because Jesus said of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob to the Pharisees, ‘You'll see them in the Kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out!’ So, we know that they are going to be in glory in the Kingdom of God!

Genesis 26:4: “And I will multiply your seed as the stars of the heavens... [the spiritual seed; then the physical seed] ...and will give to your seed all these lands. And in your seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because...” (vs 4-5).

This doesn’t tell us whether Abraham kept the Holy Days or not, but this gives us an indication that he probably did!

Verse 5: “Because Abraham obeyed My voice and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My laws.”

Later when God gave all these things to Israel, the Holy Days were called statutes. So, if Abraham kept the statutes of God, and God created the sun, moon, stars and the earth, and gave the timing of the Passover and everything, it stands to reason that there was some kind of commemoration that Abraham had before God on this Covenant Day. Do we have that with the Passover today? Yes, indeed!

This is why in the New Testament we are called: if you are Christ’s, then you are Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise. The promise was spiritual seed. Of course, we’ve all been born flesh, and now we are learning how to practice, just like the babe in the womb, to learn the things we need to learn and prepare for the resurrection! Tremendous!

The Last Passover of Jesus {Note that the Scriptures used for the following text is from the Faithful Version Bible, which is very close to A Harmony of the Gospels}

John 13—I am going to read from A Harmony of the Gospels, because I have the parallel columns here. I am going to go through this, and I am also going to answer some questions that relate to recycling of an error concerning the Passover: that the foot-washing was after supper because that’s what the King James says, but that’s a mistranslation. The word means: and during supper and the Greek verb that is used there has to do with the beginning of supper, not after supper.

I’ve got a letter that I did in January 19, 1975 to answer that very question. Darryl Hansen put out a paper that said the Passover and Night to be Remembered are on the 14th, meaning that the Feast is over on the 20th. Look what happens when people don’t do the things that God wants them to do, the way He wants them to do. But all the way through leading up to John 13 the disciples came and said, ‘Where do You desire us to prepare to keep the Passover?’ Jesus said, ‘You go into this house and you tell the master of the house that I am coming and I want to keep the Passover with my disciples at your house. You follow the man who has a pitcher of water and in that house we’ll have the Passover.’

So, when they got in there, He came at evening, sat down with the twelve. John 13 is important for us to understand because the timing of this is very similar when you take the keeping of the Passover at night, and:

- it’s the promise of eternal life
- it’s the renewal of the New Covenant

That’s the same night that God gave the promises of the covenant to Abraham. Then the sacrifices took place on the day portion, and that pictured the agony and torturous crucifixion that Jesus Christ would go through to die for the sins of the world.

So, it goes from Abraham to Christ and to the Church. That’s why it is very important for us to understand we are not to mix in the Passover of Israel with the Passover of Christ, because that relates back to Abraham and not to the Passover of Exo. 12. That served a little different function, though it was the Passover, than what is served by the Passover for us today. Here again we see the same pattern, you have the physical and the spiritual. The Passover to Israel was physical, and now Christ comes and He reveals the spiritual Passover that we are to take, and the covenant of eternal life.

Foot-washing:

John 13:2: “And after supper began...” That’s what it means from the Greek, and I’ll re-do this letter of January 19, 1975, and you will see that I have always preached the same thing.

“...(the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon’s son, that he should betray Him)”(v 2).

- Where does Satan like to come and get as close to Christ as he could?
- What did the apostles have to put up with?
 - ✓ false apostles
 - ✓ false brethren
 - ✓ false practices

That’s why we have to stand for the Truth!

Today, for us to stand up and tell the Truth... Look at all the accolades and all the glory that was displayed with the funeral of the pope, and for us to stand up and say:

- the pope is a liar
- all the doctrines are lies
- everything that they are doing is a lie
- that’s all of Satan the devil

People will say, ‘You’re an idiot, you’re insane, you are rotten, you are committing a hate crime.’

Well, that's because no one is willing to prove the Truth. If you say the Truth—and people don't want the Truth, and hate the Truth—they're going to get mad. That's why they killed Christ!

Verse 3: "Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He had come from God and was going to God..."

Where did Jesus come from? John constantly said He came from heaven!

John 1:1: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God."

Who was Christ? God manifested in the flesh! Yet, some people can go into the Bible and say, 'Oh no, He was just born by the virgin Mary. He didn't come from heaven.'

John 13:4—Jesus "Rose from supper and laid aside His garments; and after taking a towel, He secured it around Himself. Next, He poured water into a washing basin and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel, which He had secured" (vs 4-5).

That was the job of the lowest servant of the household to do, and that was always done at the beginning of supper, just like when Jesus went in to eat with Simon the Pharisee, and He came in. Here was the woman when He sat down, or actually reclined, because they reclined on couches to eat. They didn't sit at tables like we do.

What did she do? She wiped His feet with her hair and with her tears and was repenting! After Jesus asked Simon who is He going to forgive the most, the one that owes a lot or a little. Simon said, 'I suppose to the one who owes a lot.' Jesus said, 'You see this woman? I came in and you didn't give me any water to wash My feet, and she has washed My feet with her tears and wiped them with the hair of her head.' That shows that foot-washing should be at the beginning, not at the ending.

Verse 6: "Then He came to Simon Peter; and he said to Him, 'Lord, are You going to wash my feet?' Jesus answered and said to him, 'What I am doing you do not understand now, but you shall know after these things'.... [because He was going to explain it to them] ...Peter said to Him, 'You shall not wash my feet, not ever.' Jesus answered him, 'If I do not wash you, you have no part with Me'" (vs 6-8).

- Why does Satan want people to not do foot-washing? Because Satan doesn't want you to have part with Jesus!
- What is the first thing that they stop doing when they modify the Passover or what they call the Lord's Supper, which is a perversion of the Passover?

- What do they stop first? Foot-washing!

'Oh well, we don't do that today. That's too humiliating to do.'

It is so simple, Jesus said to do it, and we will see that He tells us to do it! Anyone who says you don't have to do foot-washing is saying that they know more than God! They're better than Jesus Christ! They may not think those words, but that's precisely what their actions and their attitude says! So, IF you don't do foot-washing, you have no part with Him!

Verse 9: "Simon Peter said to Him, 'Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.'"

Just like the way that humans do, what do they do, they want to improve on what God says! Oh, if the feet are good, how about the hands and head? If this had not occurred and been recorded, what would people be doing today? Hands, head and feet!

Verse 10: "Jesus said to him, 'The one who has been washed does not need to wash anything other than the feet, but is completely clean; and you are clean, but not all.'"

Now there are two apparent contradictions if you don't understand it. "...'The one who has been washed...'" What does it mean to be washed? We'll see it does not mean to be bathed; you take a bath before you come. Obviously, the disciples did not have a chance to take a bath before they got there. No! What were they doing? They were walking into Jerusalem, and they were asking Jesus, 'Where do you want to keep the Passover?' They were all dirty with dusty feet, and sweaty from walking, and they didn't have underarm deodorant and things like this. I mean let's get down to the real nitty-gritty of life, because that's what it was. It's not talking about being bathed in a bath.

Act 22—let's see what washed means. This is Paul giving an account of his calling where he was on the road to Damascus. You talk about the reach of the high priest to get people that they wanted to get! He actually had arrest warrants to go in the synagogues and get anyone who believed in Christ and haul them out and take them to prison and, yes, even have them killed. So, God knocked him down, that's how He called him. Then He told Ananias, 'I want you to go take care of Saul for Me.' And he said, 'O Lord, look he has come with orders to take people away.' He said, 'He is a chosen servant to Me.'

Acts 22:13—Ananias "Came to me, and he stood and said to me, 'Brother Saul, look up.' And I looked up at him at that time. And he said, 'The God of our fathers has personally chosen you to know His will, and to see the Just One, and to hear the voice of His mouth” (vs 13-14). He was personally taught by Jesus Christ!

Verse 15: “For you shall be a witness for Him to all men of what you have seen and heard. And now why do you delay? Arise and be baptized, and wash away your sins...” The word wash is ‘louo’ in the Greek.

Now let’s see where we have the same thing. If you are baptized, you don’t need to be baptized again, you just need to have your feet washed on the Passover night!

Hebrews 10:22: “Let us approach God with a true heart... [because we have a great High Priest over the house of God] ...with full conviction of faith, our hearts having been purified from a wicked conscience... [that’s by the blood of Christ] ...and our bodies having been washed with pure water.... [baptism] ...Let us hold fast without wavering to the hope that we profess, for He Who promised is faithful” (vs 22-23).

That’s what it means to be washed (John 13) and that is accomplished through the operation of baptism and then you only wash the feet. Therefore, as I wrote in The Christian Passover and in The Day Jesus the Christ Died, that foot-washing does commemorate and renew your baptism! It also shows that you are going to walk in God’s way! That’s what it means to be washed. You don’t have to wash anything other than the feet.

John 13:10: “...but is completely clean; and you are clean, but not all.” The reason He said that was because Judas was there for the foot-washing and Judas went out after the foot-washing!

Now the truth is, as you will see in the letter I did in 1975, is that only John mentions the exact time when Judas left, and there is no mix-up in the account in Luke 22.

Verse 11: “For He knew the one who was betraying Him; this was the reason He said, ‘Not all of you are clean.’ Therefore, when He had washed their feet, and had taken His garments, and had sat down again, He said to them, ‘Do you know what I have done to you? You call Me the Teacher and the Lord, and you speak rightly, because I am. Therefore, if I, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet... [we could add in there the same as the lowest servant of the household] ...you also are duty-bound to wash one another’s feet” (vs 11-14). That’s the real meaning of the Greek!

That’s why Satan wants to get rid of that first. Then according to what the meaning of the Feast of Unleavened Bread is ‘a little leaven, leavens the whole lump.’ Then one error after another follows each other right down the line to where even today some people say the Passover is not important.

Verse 15: “For I have given you an example, to show that you also should do exactly as I have done to you”

If we love God and if we keep His commandments, His love is being perfected in us (1-John 2) and we walk in the footsteps of Jesus Christ! If He gave this example for us to do:

- What should we do? What Jesus said!
- What was the reason that the promise was given to Isaac? Because of what Abraham did, he ‘obeyed My voice.’

This is the voice of Christ speaking and if He says you are duty-bound to do it, you’re duty-bound to do it!

Verse 16: “Truly, truly I tell you, a servant is not greater than his lord, nor a messenger greater than he who sent him.”

Those who say you don’t need to do foot-washing are saying that ‘We are greater than the Lord. We know more than God.’

Verse 17: “If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.” Does that mean we should do them? Of course!

Eating the Unleavened Bread:

Luke 22:19: “And He took bread; and after giving thanks, He broke it and gave it to them, saying, ‘This is My body, which is given for you. This do in the remembrance of Me.”

He did that also with the wine. Let’s continue on over here in and we’ll get the wine and I’ll make a very important point concerning transubstantiation; that there is no such thing as transubstantiation. It doesn’t take place.

Drinking the Wine:

Mark 14:23: “And He took the cup; and after giving thanks, He gave it to them; and they all drank of it. And He said to them, ‘This is My blood, the blood of the New Covenant, which is poured out for many” (vs 23-24). Not only the many, but each individually!

Now let’s understand that when Christ did this on that night, it is not recorded that when He broke the bread, all of a sudden some of His flesh came off of His arms and leapt into the bread so His flesh would be in the bread. Nor did His blood come out of His wrists and into the wine so His actual blood would be in the wine. It is symbolic! Just like your baptism is a symbolic death!

You cannot eat the blood and flesh of Jesus Christ because after His resurrection, He had no more flesh and blood to give. Everything that is done with the Eucharist in saying that that is so, is an absolute lie and perpetuates people in bondage, in fear, in superstition and cuts them off from Christ!

When the priest stands there and holds the bread up high and everyone worships the bread, whose god is it? Who are they worshipping? You need to know where that came from!

Note this book (truthofGod.org): The Two Babylons on the ‘unbloody sacrifice’ That originally came from Egypt as an unbloody sacrifice, and that means no animal sacrifice. But in order to make it a bloody sacrifice, they’ve had to say

It’s a mystery where that, even though it’s apparently bread and even though it’s apparently wine, it is really the flesh and blood of Jesus Christ and He is crucified again every time we say the Mass.

That is an absolute lie! That has nothing to do with the Passover!

The ‘I.H.S.’ on the little wafer... If you break the bread, how do you have it perfectly round? Why is it in the form of a sun disk, and why does it have ‘I.H.S.’: Isis, Horus and Semiramis. It is perforated with a cross and so they can break it into four pieces.

1-Corinthians 11:25: “In like manner, He also took the cup after He had supped, saying, ‘This is the cup of the New Covenant in My blood. This do, as often as you drink it in the remembrance of Me.’”

He did this with the bread, v 24: “And after giving thanks, He broke it and said, ‘Take, eat; this is My body, which is being broken for you. This do in the remembrance of Me.’”

“...This do, as often as you drink it ...” (v 25).

Now this doesn’t mean as often as you would like to drink it because there is a special Greek particle that is equivalent to the English ‘a’ that in the Greek is ‘alpha,’ and the English ‘n’ that in the Greek is ‘nu’ and it is pronounced on. Now ‘on’ is a special particle that is not translated into English, but it shows that this statement ‘as often as’ means that there are conditions and limits to how often that you do it. What is the condition and limit?

1. the Passover is a yearly event so it is restricted to once a year

“...as often as...” you do it is not as often as you would like, but until...

2. “...until He comes” (v 26).

He hasn’t come, yet! So, as often as we do it, year-by-year, “...you solemnly proclaim the death of the Lord until He comes” (v 26).

Verse 26: “For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you solemnly proclaim the death of the Lord until He comes.”

- When did He die?
- Every day? No!
- One day, Passover Day!

You cannot commemorate His death any other day than on the day that He died, which was the Passover Day.

Verse 27: “For this reason, if anyone shall eat this bread or shall drink the cup of the Lord unworthily, he shall be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.” If you don’t do it the way Jesus said, you’re taking it unworthily.

Where does that put the majority of Christendom? Yet, they think they are so righteous! That’s why you need to prove what is the Word of God, understand what is the Word of God. Don’t believe what any minister or priest or scholar or expert tells you, you read it in the Bible and prove it and you make sure that you get a good translation of the Bible so that you will have the understanding that you need. In the world they want to commemorate His birth and His resurrection, and forget about His death, and you have no forgiveness of sin unless you remember His death!

John 6—let’s see the whole meaning of this and we’ll go into in a little more detail than I did last time. But when we renew the New Covenant, and also John gave the words of the covenant in four chapters: John 14-17. Of course, we’ve gone through that with the Passover preparation.

Let’s understand the meaning of it. We have to have the foot washing, we have to have the bread, we have to have the wine, and that’s the sequence in the way that we do it. Then we read the words of the New Covenant, John 14-17 and in those four chapters you’ll find:

- faith
- hope
- love
- the whole Christian experience
- the promise of the Spirit given
- the promise of the love of Christ given
- the promise of the love of God the Father given
- the promise that Christ would be with us even to the end of the age

Even through the preaching of those that succeeded the apostles down to the time that we have today, that these very words would be spoken and practiced and believed!

John 6:32: “Then Jesus said to them, ‘Truly, truly I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven... [they were looking for the manna] ...but My Father gives you the true Bread from heaven. For the Bread of God is He Who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world’” (vs 32-33).

When I read those things, I cannot understand how people believe that Jesus was not in heaven before He came to the earth!

I’ve talked about what if you had a Volkswagen Jetta and you put Rolls Royce nametags on it? Do you have a Rolls Royce, or do you have a Volkswagen Jetta? You have a Volkswagen Jetta. Only the name has been changed. It is still the same thing, the Volkswagen.

He came down from heaven; v 33: “‘For the Bread of God is He Who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.’ Therefore, they said to Him, ‘Lord, give this bread to us always.’ Jesus said to them, ‘I AM the Bread of Life; the one who comes to Me shall never hunger; and the one who believes in Me shall never thirst at any time’” (vs 33-35).

This is talking spiritually, not physically! You don’t have to go across the earth looking at other religions. This is what you have with God’s Spirit, you’ll never hunger and you’ll never thirst and tie in Matt. 5 if you hunger and thirst after righteousness, you shall be filled!

This is confirmed as a figure of speech: spiritually with Christ in you, that’s what it results in, but you have to taste the Word of God. You have to live by every word that comes out of the mouth of God. Not by bread alone, and that’s what this symbolizes.

Psalms 34:8—something very similar to what Jesus said: “O taste and see that the LORD is good...”

You’re not biting into the flesh of Christ, and you’re not drinking His blood! You are taking in the Word of God as spiritual food!

“...blessed is the man who takes refuge in Him” (v 8). That shows the result of it!

Verse 15: “The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and His ears are open to their cry. The face of the LORD is against those who do evil, to cut off the memory of them from the earth. The righteous cry, and the LORD hears, and delivers them out of all their troubles” (vs 15-17)—you can claim that promise!

Whatever trouble you have, God promises to deliver you out of all, one way or the other. You may have to pray repeatedly, but God sooner or later will do it just like He did even at the last minute with Abraham raising the knife to offer Isaac for the sacrifice.

Verse 18: “The LORD is near to the brokenhearted and saves those who are of a contrite spirit. Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD delivers him out of them all” (vs 15-19).

Whatever your trials and difficulties, if you’re having them, you just take this Psalm, when you’re praying, get on your knees open it up there, read it out loud to God, claim this promise and say:

- God, you have promised and I’m trusting in Your Word
- God, You cannot lie
- God, I trust in You
 - ✓ and believe You
 - ✓ and believe Your Word

That’s all tied here to Christ as the Bread of Life!

John 6:47: “Truly, truly I say to you, the one who believes in Me has eternal life.”

What was it said about Abraham? He believed in the LORD! It shows that Abraham is going to have eternal life.

Verse 48: “I AM the Bread of Life.” Everything that Jesus was, is, stands for and gives us, through the power of the Holy Spirit: spiritual life at the return of Christ and at the resurrection; eternal life in the Kingdom of God forever!

That’s what the whole story of it is back there with Abraham. That’s where it began, and it is brought to a partial completion with Christ through the Passover, and through His crucifixion and resurrection, and continues on down as we will see with the church harvest leading up to Pentecost and the first resurrection. So, this is really a tremendous thing when you put it all together.

Verse 49: “Your fathers ate manna in the desert, but they died.” Isn’t it true? You can eat the best food in the world; manna is the best food wouldn’t you say? Even today

- you can eat the best food in the world
- you can take care of yourself the best you can
- you can exercise the best you can
- you can drink your own fresh juice forever

Guess what? We are all going to die, as in Adam! We are all looking to eternal life after death.

Verse 50: “This is the Bread [Christ] which comes down from heaven so that anyone may eat of it and not die.... [forever] ...I AM the living Bread, which came down from heaven; if anyone eats of this Bread, he shall live forever; and the bread that I will give is even My flesh, which I will give for the life of the world” (vs 50-51).

This is the whole plan and purpose of God, and it goes back and the first Passover was with Abraham!

Verse 52: “Because of this...” Now you always have to have an argument! This is Fox News fair and balanced before it was ever on television.

“...the Jews were arguing with one another, saying, ‘How is He able to give us His flesh to eat?’.... [just cut a little off His forearm and pass it around] ...Therefore, Jesus said to them, ‘Truly, truly I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink His blood, you do not have life in yourselves’” (vs 52-53).

That is symbolized by the bread, not His literal flesh, and by the wine, not His literal blood!

Verse 54: “The one who eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up in the last day.”

What is the last day for us? It is not the Feast of the Last Great Day! There is a Feast for us, which is the last day of the 50 count to Pentecost.

- Isn't the 50th day the last day?
- Isn't Pentecost when we are going to be resurrected? Yes!

Verse 55: “For My flesh is truly food, and My blood is truly drink. The one who eats My flesh and drinks My blood is dwelling in Me, and I in him” (vs 55-56).

Wow! This was hard to take! Even these who were complaining about this were His disciples. Then He set the record straight. What does it mean?

Verse 57: “As the living Father has sent Me, and I live by the Father; so also the one who eats Me shall live by Me.”

- you live by Jesus Christ
- you live by every Word of God

That's what it means, and that goes right back to why Abraham received the blessing, because Abraham obeyed My voice!

Here is the whole meaning of the Passover and why it goes back to Abraham:

Galatians 3:26 “Because you are all sons of God... [destined to be as the stars in heaven, the spiritual seed] ...through faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ did put on Christ.”

Your baptism is a conjoining to the death of Jesus. That's why we remember the death of Jesus through the Passover. We don't forget His resurrection, but His death, the death of God manifested in the flesh is the most important thing!

- we're baptized into Christ
- we put on Christ
- we have the mind of Christ
- we have the knowledge of Christ
- we have the Word of Christ
- we have the way that Christ lived and walked

Verse 28: “There is neither Jew nor Greek; there is neither bond nor free; there is neither male nor female...”

That is just spiritually speaking, because I am still a man and those of you who are women are still women, and those of you who are men are still men! So, in the flesh they're still a man and woman.

“...for you are all one in Christ Jesus.... [that is for the opportunity for salvation] ...And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed... [which He promised as the stars of heaven] ...and heirs according to the promise” (vs 28-29). You will receive eternal life!

That's the origin and meaning of the Passover!

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

The Passover: Abraham, Isaac, Israel & Christ I

Fred R. Coulter

Most people believe that the Passover began with the children of Israel in Egypt. However, we're going to see that that is not true—it began long, long before then. Most people today believe that the Passover is only for the Jews; however, the Jews have it on the wrong day. I've covered that very thoroughly in the book The Christian Passover.

So, let's approach this from an entirely different point of view. Let's first of all go to Gal. 3—and I found in translating that God inspired the Greek in such a way that if you're going to be honest in translating it, almost all the versions will be similar. The reason is because you can't translate any differently.

Galatians 3:29: "And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."

I think if you go through and look at the writings of the New Testament you will be very surprised how much of the New Testament is keyed to Abraham, and then Abraham, Isaac and Jacob—but more in particular to Abraham.

Hebrews 6:13: "For God, after promising Abraham, swore by Himself, since He could swear by none greater, saying, 'Surely in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply you.' Now, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise. For indeed, men swear by the greater, and confirmation by an oath puts an end to all disputes between them. In this way God, desiring more abundantly to show the heirs of the promise the unchangeable nature of His own purpose... [resolve] ...confirmed it by an oath" (vs 13-17).

I want you to understand the unchangeable nature of His own resolve because that does tie-in with God's plan, and God's plan ties in with the Passover and the Holy Days as well as the weekly Sabbath. That's important to understand.

Verse 18: "So that by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to lay hold on the hope that has been set before us; which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both secure and steadfast, and which enters into the sanctuary within the veil; where Jesus has entered for us as a forerunner, having become a High Priest forever according to the order of Melchisedec" (vs 18-20).

This also tells us a very important thing: we always have to have the hope that God gave to Abraham, the hope of eternal life! We need that as secure and steadfast for the anchor of our soul. That way we're not going to be tossed to and fro by everything that comes along.

As we find in the series in the book of Hebrews, the thing that is important is that we have a High Priest who is heaven at the right hand of God and this is the greatest, most supreme thing that God could do for us while we are in the flesh.

Here's something that's very important that we need to understand and remember:

Hebrews 13:8: "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday... [that is when He was the God of the Old Testament] ...and today... [that is under the New Covenant] ...and forever"—that is in carrying out God's plan into the ages of eternity!

These things we really need to have as a preface before getting into the Passover concerning Abraham, Isaac, Israel and Christ.

Now, let's see something that is important, something that is profound!

Galatians 3:6: "It is exactly as it is written: 'Abraham believed God...'" *That is a profound statement: he believed God!

That is what we have to do in the New Covenant, as well. He didn't believe in just what God had told him, but he believed God! This is what it means to be for all of us, that we believe God! When God says something, we believe it because God said it! So therefore, we believe God!

"...and it was reckoned to him for righteousness" (v 6). This is telling us that when you believe God, wholly and completely, you are righteous before Him! Righteousness is imputed to you. We'll see how this comes when we get back to the book of Genesis.

Verse 7: "Because of this, you should understand that those who are of faith are the true sons of Abraham"—the spiritual sons! There were the physical sons through Isaac and Jacob and Israel.

Verse 8: “Now, in the Scriptures, God, seeing in advance that He would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the Gospel beforehand to Abraham...”

When have you heard that the Gospel was preached to Abraham? There it is! The Gospel begins with what He said to Abraham.

“...saying, ‘In you shall all the nations be blessed.’ It is for this reason... [because Abraham believed] ...that those who are of faith are being blessed with the believing Abraham” (vs 8-9).

Let’s go back to the book of Genesis and see this. We will see that the Passover did not begin with Israel, but rather it began with Abraham! We’ll see that it is the same day that God gave the Passover to Israel! The reason we keep the Passover today is because of Abraham—that’s what it says: ‘If you are Christ’s then you are Abraham’s seed and heirs according to the promise.’ Likewise, when we partake of the Passover we need to understand that the words that Jesus gave, the words of the New Covenant, we need to believe!

Genesis 12:1: “And the LORD said to Abram, ‘Get out of your country, and from your kindred, and from your father’s house into a land that I will show you.’”

I want to make something very clear, that what Abraham did fulfilled this requirement that Jesus gave in the Gospel of Luke:

Luke 14:25: “And great multitudes were going with Him; and He turned and said to them.” Multitudes of people:

- like to use the name of Christ
- like to claim that they are Christian
- like to think of themselves as Christian

But they are the ‘glad-handers’ just like the people who were here, because they came because they were looking for the physical things. They remembered the feeding of the 4,000, the feeding of the 5,000, and so forth. So, Jesus turned and He made a very important point here:

“...‘If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brothers and sisters, and in addition, his own life also, he cannot be My disciple’ (v 26).

It is not like the Protestants say, ‘All you have to do is give your heart to the Lord.’ No! You have to do the same thing as Abraham did! This is a requirement of Abraham, now detailed a little more closely for us. “...cannot be My disciple” means the impossibility of being a disciple of Jesus Christ. So, we can tie that together:

- if you do not believe God
 - if you do not believe Christ
 - if you do not keep His commandments
- you are not of Christ!*

- you may claim to be
- you may think you are
- you may even have some important people whom you look to in this world as your spiritual leaders

But unless you do what Jesus said here, you’re not His disciple.

Verse 27: “And whosoever does not carry his cross and come after Me... [you have to go through whatever trials and difficulties you go through, and bear your cross] ...cannot be My disciple”

Remember what Jesus said, ‘The broad way, the easy way’—many are going that way with the name of Christ. But it’s going to end in destruction!

Verse 28: “For which one of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has sufficient for its completion; lest perhaps, after he has laid its foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, saying, ‘This man began to build, and was not able to finish’? Or what king, when he goes out to engage another king in war, does not first sit down and take counsel, whether he will be able with ten thousand to meet him who is coming against him with twenty thousand? But if not, while his enemy is still far off, he sends ambassadors and desires the terms for peace. In the same way also, each one of you who does not forsake all that he possesses cannot be My disciple” (vs 28-33).

What is the hardest thing to give up?

- many people have walked away from lands
- many people have walked away from countries
- many people have left families

But what is the hardest thing to give up? Self! You’re to give up self to become a new creature in Christ.

Let’s see how the Gospel began. What we read in Matthew, Mark, Luke and John or all the New Testament, is a detailed fulfilling and carrying out of this promise that was given to Abraham by God directly Genesis 12:2: “And I will make of you a great nation. And I will bless you and make your name great. And you shall be a blessing. And I will bless those that bless you and curse the one who curses you. And in you shall all families of the earth be blessed” (vs 2-3).

That is a broad, broad promise! Literally, the rest of the Bible from this point on shows how God fulfilled those promises and was carrying them out. How that the carrying out of these promises are going to go clear on down

- through into Millennium
- into the Last Great Day
- into New Jerusalem coming on this earth
- into all eternity

That's quite a thing!

Verse 4: "Then Abram departed, even as the LORD had spoken to him..."

Let's see where God gives a little more understanding of what He promised him. Abram believed Him! God didn't give him any details, He said, 'Just go, I'll bless you.' So Abram left!

Please understand that's the same with us. Many times God has us do things that we don't understand right away. Later He reveals it to us. Here's the later part; He revealed a little bit more to Abram/Abraham. We're going to see that there are two things here that this took place over a period of two days and that these two days are:

- the Passover, the 14th of the 1st month
- the 1st day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the 15th of the 1st month

We'll prove that after we get into it!

So, God gave the promise, Genesis 15:4: "And behold, the Word of the LORD came to him saying, 'This man shall not be your heir; but he that shall come forth out of your own loins shall be your heir.'"

There is the physical seed! First there is the physical then there is the spiritual; that's what Paul said.

- the first man, Adam, was of the flesh
- the second Adam—Christ—was from heaven
- there is a natural body, which is sown in the resurrection and raised a spiritual body

So, here we have the same thing. God is giving the promise of a physical heir—a son! Now then, we have a second promise given:

Verse 5: "And He brought him outside and said, 'Look now toward the heavens and number the stars—if you are able to count them.' And He said to him, 'So shall your seed be.'" That's quite an awesome thing!

Remember, at that time, there was no smog around to obscure the vision of the stars. You see the stars at night. What God is doing here, He is bringing the words of the covenant to Abraham!

He expands upon that because there are two parts here: the physical seed and the spiritual seed!

We will see the promise of spiritual seed is likened unto the stars. He is giving two promises to Abraham:

1. physical seed from his own bowels
2. spiritual seed which would come through Christ

Galatians. 3:29: "And if you are Christ's then you are Abraham's seed and heirs according to the promise."

Matthew 13:43: "Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the Kingdom of their Father. The one who has ears to hear, let him hear." Let's see how we will be when we are glorified spirit beings!

1-John 3:1: "Behold! What glorious love the Father has given to us, that we should be called the children of God! For this very reason, the world does not know us because it did not know Him. Beloved, now we are the children of God, and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be; but we know that when He is manifested, we shall be like Him, because we shall see Him exactly as He is" (vs 1-2).

Rev. 1—we can show that when God took Abraham out there and showed him the stars; He was literally showing him the glory of His coming spiritual seed through Christ!

Revelation 1:13: "And in the midst of the seven lampstands one like the Son of man, clothed in a garment reaching to the feet, and girded about the chest with a golden breastplate. And His head and hair were like white wool, white as snow; and His eyes were like a flame of fire; and His feet were like fine brass, as if they glowed in a furnace; and His voice was like the sound of many waters. And in His right hand He had seven stars, and a sharp two-edged sword went out of His mouth, and His countenance was as the sun shining in its full power" (vs 13-16).

What is a star? A star is a sun! So, when God told Abraham that he'd be 'like the stars, so shall your seed be,' this is talking about the spiritual seed!

Philippians 3:20: "But for us, the commonwealth of God exists in the heavens, from where also we are waiting for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ; Who will transform our vile bodies that they may be conformed to His glorious body... [tie in Rev. 1] ...according to the inner working of His own power, whereby He is able to subdue all things to Himself" (vs 20-21).

When God told Abraham that his seed was going to 'be as the stars of heaven for a multitude,' He's not only showing the number, He's also showing the kind of glory that they will be. Some people may ask—'so shall your seed be'—does that not just refer to physical seed? Well, what is God's plan overall for human beings? To become the sons of God!

When we receive the begetting of the Holy Spirit, we receive the seed of eternal life, and in the Greek the seed is called 'sperma.' Unfortunately, 1-John 3:9 is one of the worst translated verses in all the King James Version of the Bible, which reads:

1-John 3:9 (KJV): "Whosoever is born of God does not commit sin..." That is an entirely incorrect translation, and incorrectly interpreted by the Protestants who say that if you are born again you cannot sin. That is, if you have a 'conversion experience' you cannot sin. That is not true! Let's show the contradiction right within the translation of the King James:

1-John 5:16 (KJV): "If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death..."

- Does this not say that a person, who is converted, is capable of sin?
- Does it not?
- Is not a brother converted? Yes!

And if he sins a sin 'not unto death' that means it's sin he can repent of!

"...he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it" (v 16). This shows two things:

1. converted people can sin
Converted people, according to Protestants, are born again. But that is not a correct interpretation.
2. no one is born again until the resurrection

However, with the proper translation:

1-John 3:9: "Everyone who has been begotten by God does not practice sin because His seed... [that is from God the Father] ...of begetting is dwelling within him, and he is not able to practice sin because he has been begotten by God."

So, when it talks about 'seed' in Gen. 15, we see that there is physical seed and we also see that there is spiritual seed. That's why I started out that 'if you are Christ's, then are you Abraham's seed—spiritual—and heirs according to the promise.' We're going to find how important this is. I remember when we first understood this it was really, really quite an eye-opener. We'll go through it and we will clarify it for you.

Genesis 15:5: "... 'So shall your seed be.' ... [physical and spiritual] ... And he believed in the LORD. And He accounted it to him for righteousness" (vs 5-6).

Let's understand there was no work for Abraham to do, because it's impossible to count the stars. He could not have children at this point so there was no work for him to do. He believed God, counted to him for righteousness!

Then God gives him an instruction, v 7: "And He said to him, 'I am the LORD that brought you out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give you this land to inherit it.' And he said, 'Lord GOD, by what shall I know that I shall inherit it?'" (vs 7-8).

God then did a very profound thing, and this has to do with the very crucifixion of Christ, His death and being put in the grave.

Verse 9: "And He said to him, 'Take Me a heifer of three years old, and a she-goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon.' ... [this means that they're all mature] ... And he took all these to himself, and divided them in the middle [cut them down the middle] ... and laid each piece opposite the other..." (vs 9-10)—meaning that the spine was close to each other and there was a path down between these animals cut and laid out, everything was there: the blood, the guts, everything.

"...but he did not divide the birds..." (v 10). He probably put one bird on one side and one bird on the other side! What was the purpose of this? This is a special maledictory sacrifice and oath: that when one takes an oath such as this, they cannot break it.

Verse 11: "And when the birds of prey came down upon the carcasses, Abram drove them away. And it came to pass, as the sun was going down..."

First of all, back in v 5 we have 'a night.' Then in the day portion of the day, which was the 14th of the 1st month he did the sacrificing of the animals.

- there was no altar
- there was no sprinkling of the blood
- there was no burning of it by Abraham

Just laid out there! So much so that 'the fowl'—which then would be the vultures and buzzards—were circling up overhead.

And they "...came down upon the carcasses, Abram drove them away. And it came to pass, as the sun was going down, that a deep sleep fell upon Abram..." (vs 11-12).

You can read in The Christian Passover book how this is very likened to the time when Jesus died. He died at the third hour and the sun is going down at the third hour. Then two things happened here:

1. "...a deep sleep fell upon Abram..." (v 12)

What is a person who dies in Christ? They are sleeping! So, here's a deep sleep! This is a type of death! A type of the death of Christ, perhaps precisely at the same time that Jesus died. When He was crucified on the 14th day of the Passover when He was crucified.

2. "...And, behold, a horror of great darkness fell upon him!" (v 12)

Verse 13: "And He said to Abram, 'You must surely know that your seed shall be sojourners in a land that is not theirs, (and shall serve them and afflict them) four hundred years. And also I will judge that nation whom they shall serve. And afterward they shall come out with great substance. And you shall go to your fathers in peace. You shall be buried in a good old age. But in the fourth generation they shall come here again, for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full' And it came to pass—when the sun went down..." (vs 13-17). Now we are into the second day!

When do the days begin and end according to Scripture? At sunset! So, we have the sun going down.

Now, remember, we started out at night in vs 4 & 5. Then we had the day portion with the sacrifice, and we'll explain the sacrifice here in just a minute. Now the sun went down:

"...and it was dark..." (v 17). Then God did something very profound to give to Abraham the guarantee of the promises beginning in v 4 carried on down through vs 13, 14 & 15!

"...behold, a smoking furnace and a burning lamp passed between those pieces" (v 17).

What happened when God went through those parts? It doesn't tell us directly, but I would say from what the context of it is here, when God walked between the parts of that sacrifice those animals were consumed, and there was nothing left but ashes.

Verse 18: "In the same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, 'I have given this land to your seed, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates.'" Then it lists all of the different tribes of Canaan!

- Where else do we find a two-day sequence?
- How do we know this is the 14th and 15th?

We can't prove it from right here, because it doesn't say the 14th day of the 1st month here, and it doesn't say the 15th day of the 1st month here. However, if we go the Exo. 12, we do have the days numbered, and we do have it told us exactly when it took place.

Again, I refer you to The Christian Passover book; you can go through in detail, because we have great detailed explanation of everything that is here because there is great confusion over the Passover. Of course, it's only logical that Satan would confuse everything concerning the Passover because if you keep the Christian Passover today, the way that Christ wants you to—at the time that He says, in the manner that He says—then you belong to Christ. Satan's objective is:

- to confuse it
- to cause problems with it
- to change the day if possible

Because the Jews today keep the Passover on the 15th—which I fully explain in the book The Christian Passover—they do not recognize Christ at all! In order to truly recognize Christ, you must understand the Truth of the Passover, because Christ died on the Passover Day, the very time that the sacrifice took place that Abraham gave and fell into the deep sleep.

Now let's read the instructions here for the children of Israel concerning the Passover. We're not going to go in great detail, but what I want to point out is this.

Exodus 12:3: "Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying, 'In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them each man a lamb for a father's house, a lamb for a house. And if the household is too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbor next to his house take according to the number of the souls, each one, according to the eating of his mouth, you shall count concerning the lamb. Your lamb shall be without blemish... [type of Christ] ...a male of the first year. You shall take it from the sheep or from the goats. And you shall keep it up until the beginning of the fourteenth day of the same month...' (vs 3-6)— the 1st month because He said:

Verse 2: "This month shall be to you the beginning of months. It shall be the first month of the year to you."

Verse 6: "...And the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it between the two evenings"—between sunset and dark, which is amply proved in the book The Christian Passover. They were to eat it in that night, after taking the blood and roasting it and so forth.

Verse 12: "For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast. And I will execute judgment against all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD. And the blood shall be a sign to you upon the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you....” (vs 12-13).

All of Israel was blessed because of the Passover, but the Passover spared the firstborn. There is a great parallel with that for today with God’s Church who are the Church of the Firstborn, as we will see a little later, and also the rest of the world. How important is the Church of God to the world? Far more important than we’ve ever calculated! As important as the firstborn of Israel in relationship to the rest of the firstborn of Israel, so the Church of the Firstborn, which we are today, is as important to God as the rest of the world.

Verse 14: “And this day shall be a memorial to you....”

Verse 21: “Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel and said to them, ‘Draw out and take a lamb for yourselves according to your families, and kill the Passover lamb. And you shall take a bunch of hyssop and dip in the blood that is in the bowl, and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood in the bowl. And none of you shall go out of the door of his house until sunrise” (vs 21-22). So, they could not leave that night! We explain all of that in The Christian Passover book.

Verse 23: “For the LORD will pass through to strike the Egyptians. And when He sees the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not allow the destroyer to come into your houses to strike you. And you shall observe this thing as a law to you and to your children forever. And it shall be when you have come to the land, which the LORD will give you, according as He has promised that you shall keep this service. And it will be, when your children shall say to you, ‘What does this service mean to you?’ Then you shall say, ‘It is the sacrifice of the LORD’S Passover, Who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when He struck the Egyptians and delivered our houses.’ And the people bowed their heads and worshiped. And the children of Israel went away and did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron; so they did. And it came to pass at midnight the LORD struck all the firstborn...” (vs 23-29).

We do want to get a little chronology here with Numbers 33:1: “These are the journeys of the children of Israel, who went forth out of the land of Egypt with their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron. And Moses wrote their goings out according to their journeys by the command of the LORD. And these are their journeys according to their starting places. And they set out from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month...” (vs 1-3).

When does the 15th begin? Right after the sunset of the 14th! They went out by night; they couldn’t have gone out on the night of the 14th because they had to stay in their houses. If they kept the Passover on the 15th then they could not have left until morning. If they left in the morning they could not leave at night. That’s as simple as can be. If you’re going to go to work at six in the morning, you don’t show up at six at night. It’s that simple!

So, they left “...On the next day after the Passover Day...” (v 3).

Let’s see what they did when they left their homes. Where were the homes of the children of Israel? They lived in the area of Goshen in the Northwest part of the delta, the very choicest part of Egypt, and they had their little villages scattered there. For them to leave Rameses means they had to assemble at Rameses and then leave there. So, they assembled at Rameses on the day portion of the 14th!

Here’s what they did, Exodus 12:33: “And the Egyptians were urging the people, that they might send them out of the land quickly, for they said, ‘We are all dead men.’ And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneading-troughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders. And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses. And they asked for... [they had no intention of bringing it back] ...articles of silver, and articles of gold, and clothing from the Egyptians. And the LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, and they granted their request, and they stripped the Egyptians. And the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, the men being about six hundred thousand on foot, apart from little ones” (vs 34-37).

This is where we get the figure of 1.8-million. If you have one woman and one child per man, then you get 1.8-million people.

Verse 38: “And also a mixed multitude went up with them, and flocks and herds, very much livestock. And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought out of Egypt, for it was not leavened, because they were driven out of Egypt and could not stay, neither had they prepared any food for themselves for the journey” (vs 38-39).

According to the commandment of God—remember what we read back in Num. 33?

Verse 40: “Now, the sojourning of the children of Israel in Egypt was four hundred and thirty years, and it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, it was even on that very same day, all the armies of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt. It is a night to be much observed to the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt. This is that night of the LORD to be observed by all the children of Israel in their generations" (vs 40-42).

This is not the Passover, because on the Passover they stayed in their homes; they came out by night! How does this tie in with Gen. 15?

Verse 41: "And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, it was even on that very same day..."—in reference to:

Genesis. 15:17: "And it came to pass—when the sun went down... [which we know begins a new day] ...and it was dark—behold, a smoking furnace and a burning lamp passed between those pieces. In the same day... [being night time] ...the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, 'I have given this land to your seed...' (vs 17-18).

What also is part of the covenant?

Verse 13: "And He said to Abram, 'You must surely know that your seed shall be sojourners in a land that is not theirs... [that's how they were in Egypt] ...(and shall serve them and afflict them) four hundred years... [which it was actually 430] ...And also I will judge that nation whom they shall serve.... [and God said He did judge them on the Passover night]: ...And afterward they shall come out with great substance.... [Did they do that? Yes!] ...And you shall go to your fathers in peace. You shall be buried in a good old age. But in the fourth generation they shall come here again, for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full'" (vs 13-16).

When the sun went down, beginning the 15th, that same day God made the covenant that He would bring them out and that they would inherit the land! That's what the 'same day' is referring to. God did it by walking through the special sacrifice, which is called a maledictory oath, meaning that once you make this oath you cannot change it. Of course then, the smoking furnace burned up all the sacrifice completely.

Since 'the same day' (v 18) equals the 'same day' in Exo. 12:41, that is the 15th day of the 1st month. Therefore, when we come back to Gen. 15, the promises God gave to Abraham was on the night of the 14th, which is the same night in which we take the Passover; in which we have the promises of eternal life given to us by Jesus Christ in the words of the New Covenant!

Let's come to understand a little bit more about this maledictory oath. Jer. 34 tells us what kind of oath this is; there is no greater, no stronger oath. In doing this not only did He make the covenant with Abraham to bring the children of Israel out, but God also foretold of His coming crucifixion. We will see what happens when people don't keep it. This is the most solemn oath that you can have.

Jeremiah 34:8: "The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty to them... [here's the liberty; they made a covenant; we'll see how they made the covenant] ...That each man should let his male slave, and each man his female slave—if a Hebrew man or a Hebrew woman—go free, that none should enslave a Jew, his brother among them. And all the rulers obeyed, and all the people who had entered into the covenant allowed them to go free, each man his male slave, and each man his female slave, so that not any should be enslaved among them any more; and they obeyed and let them go. But afterward they turned and took back the male slaves and the female slaves whom they had set free and enslaved them again as male slaves and female slaves...." (vs 8-11).

Almost like Pharaoh; where Moses said, 'Let my people go.' They couldn't get along without the servants, so the Jews—when they let them go—they said, 'Oh, look what we did, we got to do the work ourselves.' Too bad! They went back on their word; they went back on a covenant. I want you to also remember that in relationship to the coming Passover, which is the renewing of the New Covenant.

Verse 12: "So, the Word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them out from the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, saying, 'At the end of seven years each man should let go free his brother, a Hebrew, who has been sold to him. And when he has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you.' But your fathers did not hearken to me, nor incline their ears. And you had turned today, and had done right in My sight to call for liberty, each man to his neighbor. And you had made a covenant before Me in the house, which is called by My name. But you turned back and defiled My name, and each of you has taken back his male slave and his female slave whom you had set free to do as they pleased. But you forced them again to become your male and your female slaves'" (vs 12-16).

Verse 17: "Thus says the LORD, 'You have not hearkened to Me to proclaim liberty each man to his brother, and each man to his neighbor! Behold, I proclaim freedom for you,' says the LORD, 'to the sword, to the plague, and to the famine. And I will cause you to be a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth.'"

How serious is a covenant? Mighty serious! How serious is it when you break it? Remember, they did this in the house of God. Also remember that when we do things, we have access to God the Father in heaven above. This is not just in the physical house on the earth, when we have a covenant.

Verse 18: “And I will give the men who have sinned against My covenant, who have not done the words of the covenant which they made before Me when they divided the calf in two... [just like Abraham did, he cut it in two] ...and passed between its parts.”

When anyone made that kind of covenant and passed between the parts of the animals that were sacrificed for that covenant, what they’re declaring by their action is this: If I break this covenant, I will be like these animals that have been sacrificed—cut down the middle.

Verse 19: “The rulers of Judah, and the rulers of Jerusalem, the officials, and the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the parts of the calf; I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life. And their dead bodies shall be for food to the birds of heaven and to the beasts of the earth” (vs 19-20).

Did not the fowls of heaven come down to try and get the sacrifices that Abraham made? Yes! So, now God is going to say, ‘I’m going to do this to you.’

Verse 21: “And I will give Zedekiah king of Judah, and his rulers, into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their lives, and into the hand of the king of Babylon’s army, who has withdrawn from you. Behold, I will command,’ says the LORD, ‘and cause them to return to this city. And they shall fight against it and capture it, and burn it with fire. And I will make the cities of Judah a desert without a soul to live in it” (vs 21-22).

Apparently, God fought their battle for them; drove back the king of Babylon. So, they said, ‘Thank you, God, for doing that, we repent, we’ll let our slaves go free.’ Then they changed their minds, so God said, ‘Now I’m going to cause the king of Babylon to return, and now he’s going to do it in the whole city.’

This tells you the seriousness of the kind of oath that there is when you make a covenant and pass between the parts. That’s the oath that God made with Abraham to guarantee that he would have:

- 1) physical seed
- 2) spiritual seed
- 3) that He would take them out of the land of the stranger in the same day that He made the covenant with Abraham—that very same night

The Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread really began with Abraham and not with Israel!

Let’s look at the extension of this covenant, the physical seed that would be Israel. They would come through Isaac. Oh the Arabs would that it would have been Ishmael. But it wasn’t! So, here then is a continuation of the covenant, now giving in detail the requirements for the physical seed. Abraham had to wait a long time. This was a year before Isaac was born; and Isaac was the promise of the physical seed.

Genesis 17:1: “And when Abram was ninety-nine years old... [He left at 75-years-old; here we are 25 years inclusive counting] ...the LORD appeared to Abram and said to him, ‘I am the Almighty God! Walk before Me and be perfect.’”

Tie in Matt. 5:48, because we are told to ‘be perfect as your Father in heaven is perfect.’ It’s the same requirement. It is the Gospel preached to Abraham.

Verse 2: “And I will make My covenant between Me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly.’ And Abram fell on his face. And God talked with him, saying, ‘As for Me, behold, My covenant is with you, and you shall be a father of many nations. Neither shall your name any more be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you a father of many nations” (vs 2-5).

That was before Isaac was even born. When God says something it is as good as done! When God says you will be in the Kingdom of God it is as good as done! The only condition is you have to endure to the end and be faithful, and you’ll make it.

Verse 6: “And I will make you exceedingly fruitful, and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you. And I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your seed after you in their generations... [the physical seed] ...for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your seed after you. And I will give the land to you in which you are a sojourner, and to your seed after you, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession. And I will be their God.’ And God said to Abraham, ‘And you shall keep My covenant, you and your seed after you in their generations. This is My covenant, which you shall keep, between Me and you and your seed after you. Every male child among you shall be circumcised” (vs 6-10). Here’s the covenant of circumcision!

- he was blessed of God
- he had righteousness imputed to him

- his sins forgiven him for 25 years while he was in uncircumcision

so that

- he could be the father of the uncircumcision who received the promise of eternal life
- he would be the father of the circumcision

Verse 11: “And you shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin. And it shall be a sign of the covenant between Me and you. And a son of eight days shall be circumcised among you, every male child in your generations; he that is born in the house, or bought with silver of any foreigner who is not of your seed. He that is born in your house, and he that is bought with your silver, must be circumcised. And My covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant” (vs 11-13).

That was it was continuous until that time, and I think for all the descendants of Israel to this day:

- not for salvation, but for the keeping of the covenant here, because we live today in the land that God gave to the descendants of Israel
- not for salvation, but for this part of the covenant because whoever are the descendants of Israel should

Verse 14: “And the uncircumcised male child whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people—for he has broken My covenant.”

God has not required this of the Gentiles in their own nations. We know that in the New Covenant circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing, but the circumcision of the heart and faith in Christ! But, this is for the physical seed.

Verse 15: “And God said to Abraham, ‘As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, but her name shall be Sarah. And I will bless her, and give you a son also of her. Yes, I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations—kings of people shall be from her.’” (vs 15-16).

Verse 17: “And Abraham fell upon his face and laughed, and said in his heart, ‘Shall a child be born to him that is a hundred years old? And shall Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear?’ And Abraham said to God, ‘Oh, that Ishmael might live before You!’” (vs 17-18)—the easy way out!

Verse 19: “And God said, ‘Sarah your wife shall bear you a son indeed. And you shall call his name Isaac. And I will establish My covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him. And as for Ishmael, I have heard you.

Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly. He shall beget twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation. But I will establish My covenant with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear to you at this set time in the next year” (vs 19-21).

It’s important for us to understand that God does things at the set times! They had the circumcision party. Isaac was born, sure enough at the set time that God had said. Then we have something profound.

Genesis 21:1: “And the LORD visited Sarah as He had said. And the LORD did to Sarah as He had spoken, for Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age...” (vs 1-2).

God does the impossible things, that way it can never be said that it’s of a man. You show me any 100-year-old today who has a pregnant 90-year-old wife, and then we will know that this was not a miraculous thing.

“...at the set time of which God had spoken to him. And Abraham called the name of his son that was born to him (whom Sarah bore to him) Isaac. And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac, when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him. And Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him” (vs 2-5).

That means he was pretty close to the end of his 100th year. Because remember, when God told him, Abram said:

Genesis 17:17: “...Shall a child be born to him that is a hundred years old?...” Apparently he was just 100 at that point; no more than three months into his 100th year, and Isaac was born before the 100th year was out. That’s how we have the chronology.

Let’s talk about the Passover and Isaac. Because this time it talks about Isaac and Abraham. We find some tremendous types coming down to the prophecy, not only the prophecy, but to the actual crucifixion of Jesus Christ. Here we find that in type: Abraham is a type of God the Father, who has only one son, and this son is to be sacrificed! We do not have anything dogmatic that we could say that this took place on the Passover Day. It’s possible, but we don’t know for sure, so we can’t say that.

Here is a test that Abraham went through. Remember what we read at the beginning in Luke 14:26. Here again he’s going to be tested on it. Not only do we do that with what is called ‘counting the cost’—to the end of v 33—but we always ‘count the cost’ continually as we go through our Christian life. We’re confronted with many things where we must ‘count the cost’:

- Will we obey God or not?
- Will we believe God or not?
- Will we trust God or not?

That's on an ongoing basis, it's not just, you know, you do it once and it's over with. No. not at all.

Here he is, we don't know how old. As we'll see a little later, Isaac is called a 'lad.' We could say that he was probably less than 20. May even have an indication that he was, say, not much more than 12. So, between 12 and 20 was the age of Isaac when this event took place. Which means that from the time that God called Abraham, we have 37-45 years and this even took place. God also tested Abraham all those years.

{Note message: Genesis 15 and the 430 Years (proving Isaac was 15 years old)}

Abraham had a little deceitful streak in him, which Isaac inherited and also Jacob inherited, and also Jacob's mother, she had a little deceitful streak in her. God uses some of those human weaknesses in His plan. But here we have between 37 and 45 years when this even took place:

Genesis 22:1: "And it came to pass after these things that God tested Abraham, and said to him, 'Abraham!'...."

God does not tempt anyone with evil; let's understand that!. God puts before us choices, whether we will obey him or not. When we are tempted with evil and drawn away of our own lusts, and then the lust conceives it brings forth sin. God did not make us sin when we do that, that's our own human nature! That's why we have the Feast of Unleavened Bread continuously year-by-year as long as we're in the Church of God, so that we understand that our human nature is always here and we always have to be working on getting rid of it, just like we get rid of leaven out of our lives.

"... 'Abraham!' And he said, 'Here I am.' And He said, 'Take now your son, your only son Isaac...'" (vs 1-2).

Was Ishmael Abraham's son? Yes, he was! But not of Sarah; not counted as 'seed for the promise' so therefore, He said, 'Your son, your only son.' So, this is very much a type of God the Father in relationship to Christ. In this case then:

- Isaac being a type of Christ
- Abraham being a type of the Father

"...whom you love, and go into the land of Moriah, and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell you" (v 2).

There were mountains in Moriah. The Jews claim by tradition that this was the area where the temple was built. But also one of the mountains of Moriah would be the mount that later became to be called the Mt. of Olives. Could this be? The Mt. of Olives is higher than the Temple Mount. Could this be the mount where Christ was crucified? If the parallel follows, then that could be true!

Verse 3: "And Abraham rose up early in the morning and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son. And he split the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up and went to the place of which God had told him. Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place afar off. And Abraham said to his young men, 'You stay here with the donkey, and I and the boy will go yonder and worship, and come again to you.' And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it upon Isaac his son...." (vs 3-6). That's almost like a type of carrying the cross that Christ did!

"...And he took the fire pot in his hand..." (v 6). Obviously you're not going to carry it in your hand, because if you carry fire in your hand you're going to burn it.

"...and a knife. And they both went together.... [I imagine it was kind of a silent climb up that mountain] ...And... [finally] ...Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, 'My father.' And he said, 'Here I am, my son.' And he said, 'Behold the fire and the wood. But where is the lamb for a burnt offering?'" (vs 6-7).

Now, we notice two things here, there are two acts of faith:

- 1) Abraham believed
- 2) Isaac also believed and did not complain

He could have said, 'This is ridiculous, we're going to go up here and you're going to offer an offering, and I find out at the last minute it's me!' But he didn't do it.

Verse 8: "And Abraham said, 'My son, God will provide Himself a lamb for a burnt offering.'.... [sometimes God waits until the very last minute for deliverance] ...So they both went on together. And they came to the place of which God had told him. And Abraham built an altar there..." (vs 8-9).

Let's understand something about sin offerings and burnt offerings. On the Mt. of Olives—picture this in your mind—you're looking at the temple area and you are looking north. To the right is east and east of the temple is in the Kidron Valley going down 450-feet. They built a bridge across the Kidron Valley to go into the east gate of the temple. This bridge went to the Mt. of Olives. On the Mount of Olives, right near the crest of the Mt. of Olives, was what was called the Miphkad Altar, a special altar outside the temple area. This is where they took all the sin offerings, and they took all the skins of the sin offerings and they burnt them in the Miphkad Altar. This was like a huge pit and these things were constantly and continually burnt. At the bottom of the pit there was a conduit, which went down into the Kidron Valley where periodically they would push the ashes out.

Could it be that where he built this altar is later where the Miphkad Altar was built? Even though this was a burnt offering, Christ was a sin offering. Christ was not burned, because He had to be buried and raised! So, the parallel breaks down when you get out of the physical parallel, when you start getting into the real sacrifice of Christ.

“...And Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood in order. And he bound his son Isaac and laid him on the wood, upon the altar. And Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slay his son” (vs 9-10).

- Why did he do that? His only son and the one to whom he was told, 'you will have physical seed'!
- Why was he willing to do this? Because God commanded him to!
- What was in his mind?
- Was he doubting God?
- Was he angry at God?
- What was it?

Hebrews 11:8 gives a real good summary of the life of Abraham: “By faith Abraham, being called of God to go out into the place which he would later receive for an inheritance, obeyed and went, not knowing where he was going. By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, like a foreigner, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the joint heirs of the same promise; for he was waiting for the city with the foundations of which God is the Architect and Builder. By faith also Sarah herself received power to conceive seed, and gave birth when she was well beyond the childbearing age because she esteemed Him faithful Who had personally promised her a son. Because of this faith, there came into being from one man—and moreover, one who was reproductively dead—descendants as numerous as the stars in the heavens, and as countless as the sand on the sea shore” (vs 8-12).

Verse 13: “All these died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them from afar, and having been persuaded of them, and having embraced them, and having confessed that they were strangers and sojourners on the earth. For those who say such things make it manifest that they seek their own country, as promised by God. And if, on the one hand, they had let their minds dwell fondly on the place where they came from, they might have had opportunity to return. But now, on the other hand, they are aspiring to a more excellent country—that is, a heavenly one. Therefore, God is not ashamed to be called their God because He has prepared a city for them (vs 13-16).

Verse 17: “By faith Abraham, when he was being tried, offered up Isaac; and he who had received the promises offered up his only begotten son of whom it was said, ‘In Isaac shall your Seed be called’; because he reckoned that God was able to raise him even from among the dead, from which he also received him in a figurative way” (vs 17-19).

That’s why he was willing to do it, because he knew that if it came down to the point where he did offer his son, as that offering, that God would raise him from the dead!

Genesis 22:10: “And Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slay his son.” Then he heard a voice from heaven. I imagine though, before he took out the knife that he looked around everywhere and didn’t see a lamb.

Verse 11: “And the angel of the LORD called to him from the heavens and said, ‘Abraham! Abraham!’ And he said, ‘Here I am.’ And He said, ‘Do not lay your hand upon the lad, nor do anything to him, for now I know that you fear God...’” (vs 11-12).

So, how long was he tried before God really, really knew—through and through—that Abraham feared God? Just say 37 years! Is it any wonder that we still go through trials, that we’ve been in the Church for how long? How many people have been in the Church for so long—say 10, 15, 20, 30 years—then leave? That’s why we’ve had the trials come upon us, for the same reason.

“...for now I know that you fear God, seeing you have not withheld your son, your only son, from Me.’ And Abraham lifted up his eyes and looked. And, behold, behind him a ram was entangled in a thicket by its horns. And Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up for a burnt offering instead of his son” (vs 12-13).

How did the ram get there? Well, either God drove it up there while his back was turned, or God supernaturally created a ram right there, which would be fitting, to supernaturally create one, because that would be a type of Christ Who was a supernatural creation.

Verse 14: “And Abraham called the name of that place The LORD Will Provide; so that it is said until this day, ‘In the mount of the LORD it will be provided.’”

I wonder if that's also a prophecy of the sacrifice of Christ on the Mt. of Olives?

Verse 15: "And the angel of the LORD called to Abraham out of heaven the second time, and said, 'By Myself have I sworn,' says the LORD..." (vs 15-16).

Here's where everything becomes completely irrevocable! It cannot be turned back, nothing can stop from what God has promised. All the promises of God will come, as He said.

"...because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son; that in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply your seed like the stars of the heavens, and as the sand which is upon the seashore. And your seed shall possess the gate of his enemies. And in your seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice" (vs 17-18).

That's the only way we're going to have the blessing of God, is if you obey the voice of God. As we've covered in our series concerning Hebrews, if you don't listen to Christ there is no eternal life!

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

The Passover: Abraham, Isaac, Israel & Christ II

Fred R. Coulter

I want to cover just a couple of more things here concerning this type of the Passover. As I said, there is no direct indication that you can make this happen on the Passover Day; I tried hard to do so, but you can't. We can just take the teaching and see how it applies not only to the Passover Day but also to the whole operation of the substitutionary sacrifice of Christ for us, just as God provided the ram instead of Isaac for the sacrifice. God has provided Christ instead of our death. So that's really important for us to understand and realize.

We can understand that when God swears something, and He doesn't need to swear. In other words, when men give an oath that's to end a dispute between parties. But God doesn't need to swear because He doesn't lie. When He swears, He's giving a double-emphasis that this is absolutely going to happen with no doubt, no shadow of turning! Because He has done this, we can have absolute confidence and a surety that what God has said He will do, He will do!

Now we live in the end-time and we have the benefit of seeing that yes, He did do it; God did do it!

Genesis 22:15: "And the angel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time, and said, 'By Myself have I sworn,' says the LORD, 'because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son; that in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply your seed like the stars of the heavens, and as the sand which is upon the seashore. And your seed shall possess the gate of his enemies. And in your seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice'" (vs 15-18).

Now, this becomes a very profound and important thing, because too much of Christianity today is based upon lawless grace, meaning that you don't have to obey. Oh they claim, yes, they read the Scriptures, which say 'if you're Christ's then you're Abraham's seed and heirs according to the promise.' But they don't read the thing that he obeyed!

As we have seen, the 'stars of heaven' apply to the spiritual seed, which is the Church, and at the resurrection 'the saints will shine as the stars of heaven' (Matt. 13:43^[transcriber's correction]). The 'sand that is upon the seashore' is the physical seed of Israel. Then He adds another promise here: 'your seed shall possess the gate of his enemies.' Then the blessing is passed on to Isaac:

Genesis 26:1: "And there was a famine in the land (besides the former famine that had been in the days of Abraham). And Isaac went to Abimelech, king of the Philistines, to Gerar. And the LORD appeared to him and said, 'Do not go down into Egypt. Live in the land which I shall tell you of. Stay in this land, and I will be with you and bless you, for to you and to your seed, I will give all these lands; and I will establish the oath, which I swore to Abraham your father. And I will multiply your seed as the stars of the heavens and will give to your seed all these lands. And in your seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because Abraham...'" (1-5).

The thing we need to understand is that the covenant did not depend upon Isaac; it did not depend upon Jacob. It depended upon Abraham! This has been a consternation to many, many people. Especially when they look at the nations of the Ten Tribes of Israel, in their modern setting—and the other nations of the world do—and they wonder how come we have it, and in many cases we are so bad. They're looking at it from the point of view, 'Well, since you're so bad, you don't deserve it.'

God said He was going to give it 'because of Abraham.' He also said later on, that if their descendants sinned He would correct them. But He would not rescind the promise that He gave to Abraham. Here's this famous verse we've gone over and over and over again. One that Protestants I am sure do not like to hear:

Verse 5: "Because Abraham obeyed My voice and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My laws." That's also important because the Passover began with Abraham and not with Israel!

Let's see the Church in relationship to Isaac. Certain people will say that God had other commandments that He gave them. That's absolutely not true because Christ is 'the same yesterday, today and forever.' The commandments that He gave Israel are the same commandments that Abraham obeyed! For anyone to say anything other than that they are just Biblical illiterates. You cannot prove it from the context. The only commandments are God's commandments, and He won't change them.

- Is He going to change the first one? No!
- Is He going to change the second one? No!
- Is He going to change the third one? No!
- Is going to change the fourth one? No!

None of them!

Abraham kept the commandments of God and His statutes! The Holy Days are statutes. God began the Passover with Abraham! Those arguments, when you really understand the Bible, do not have legs at all, they just don't stand.

In relationship to that, there are indications the way that the commandments and the statutes and the judgments are written out, that they are written in sections of five, which is half of ten. You find ten all the way through the statutes and judgments there, again verifying that these things are also things God gave for Abraham to follow. We also need to understand that Abraham had a big household. He had hundreds of people there with him.

- How do you run and govern it? You do it by God's way!
- How do you settle disputes among people? You do it God's way!
- Which days do you rest and keep? God's days!

When we understand that the Sabbath was binding from creation—just like everything else God created is perpetually going on down to this day—so the Sabbath is perpetually going on down to this day! Once you know the Scriptures and once you know the Bible there is no question that Abraham did those things. Any of the other things that people come up with are just arguments to avoid obeying God. They don't like the word obey. They like the word liberty, which is another word for lawlessness.

Galatians 4:28: "Now we, brethren, like Isaac, are the children of promise. But as it was then, so also it is now: he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit. Nevertheless, what does the Scripture say? 'Cast out the maidservant and her son; for in no way shall the son of the maidservant inherit the promise with the son of the free woman.' So then, brethren, we are not children of the maidservant, but of the free woman" (vs 28-31). We are children of promise!

I'm trying to tie the things of Abraham back into the New Testament. We have Abraham in Gal. 3, and Isaac in Gal. 4. Now let's come down to the time that the blessing is passed on to Jacob. God said before they were born about Esau and Jacob:

- they were two kinds of people
- Esau who was the oldest would serve the younger
- the younger would prevail

Sometimes God does things and allows things to happen by the use of human nature. We find that Jacob connived to get the blessing, or the birthright, from Esau He didn't have to do it, because God would have given it another way. But also it was a test on Esau. Esau was willing to sell it and give it up.

Then it came time for the blessing and mamma got involved in it and she said, 'You go in and you pretend that you're Esau and get the blessing.' He says, 'Well, how can I do that? He's a hairy man.' She says, 'Well, we'll put a goats skin on your neck.' You talk about a hairy man—he must have been a real hairy man. You know, if you feel the back of the neck and it's all like goats hair. She made the stew, she put the skins on his hands and on the back of his neck, because he was a smooth man.

Genesis 27:18: "And he came to his father and said, 'My father!' And he said, 'Here I am; who are you, my son?' And Jacob said to his father, 'I am Esau your firstborn...'" (vs 18-19)—a big fat lie!

The reason God does things like this is so that Esau would think that he just took it. But he didn't!

"...I have done as you asked me. Arise, I pray you, sit and eat of my venison, that your soul may bless me.' And Isaac said to his son, 'How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son?'?..." (vs 19-20).

Going out and shooting venison and it takes a little while to chase him down and get it with bow and arrow.

"...And he said, 'Because the LORD your God brought it to me.' And Isaac said to Jacob, 'Come near, I pray you, so that I may feel you, my son, whether you are truly my son Esau or not'" (vs 20-22). So, he had his doubts!

Verse 23: "And he did not recognize him, for his hands were hairy like his brother Esau's hands. And he blessed him. And he said, 'Are you truly my son Esau?' And he said, 'I am.' (vs 23-24). Isaac checked him out a couple of times here!

Verse 25: "And he said, 'Bring it to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, so that my soul may bless you.' And he brought it near to him, and he ate. And he brought him wine, and he drank. And his father Isaac said to him, ‘Come near now and kiss me, my son.’ And he came near and kissed him. And he smelled the smell of his clothing, and blessed him, and said, ‘See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the LORD has blessed. And may God give you of the dew of heaven, and of the fatness of the earth, and plenty of grain and wine. Let people serve you, and let nations bow down to you. Be lord over your brethren, and let your mother’s sons bow down to you. Cursed be everyone that curses you, and blessed be he that blesses you” (vs 25-29). We’ll see how this expanded out to the 12 tribes of Israel!

Verse 30: “And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was scarcely gone from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting. And he also had made a dish of savory meat and brought it to his father. And he said to his father, ‘Let my father arise and eat of his son’s venison so that your soul may bless me.’ And his father Isaac said to him, ‘Who are you?’ And he said, ‘I am your son, your firstborn, Esau.’ Then Isaac trembled greatly, and said, ‘Who then was the one who has hunted deer and brought it to me—and I have eaten it all before you came, and have blessed him? Yea, he shall be blessed!” (vs 30-33). The blessing can only be given once!

Verse 34: “And when Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with a great and exceedingly bitter cry, and said to his father, ‘Bless me, even me also, O my father!’ And he said, ‘Your brother came with deceit, and has taken away your blessing.’ And Esau said, ‘Is he not rightly called Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times—he took away my birthright, and behold, now he has taken away my blessing.’ And he said, ‘Have you not reserved a blessing for me?’ And Isaac answered and said to Esau, ‘Behold, I have made him your lord, and all his brethren I have given him for servants. And with grain and wine I have sustained him. And what shall I do now to you, my son?’” (vs 34-37).

Verse 38: “And Esau said to his father, ‘Have you but one blessing, my father? Bless me, even me also, my father.’ And Esau lifted up his voice and wept. And Isaac his father answered and said to him, ‘Behold, Your dwelling shall be far from the fatness of the earth and far from the dew of heaven from above. And you shall live by your sword and shall serve your brother. But it shall come to pass that when you shall have the dominion, you shall break his yoke from off your neck”” (vs 38-40).

That has not yet happened Esau and Ishmael are still subject to the descendants of Jacob.

Verse 41: “And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him. And Esau said in his heart, ‘The days of mourning for my father are at hand—then I will kill my brother Jacob.”” Hearkens back to Cain and Abel!

So, Jacob gets out of there. Rebekah says ‘Look, get out of here, go hide, run away, go to Laban, my brother, go up there.’ Right before he left, here’s the charge:

Genesis 28:1: “Then Isaac called Jacob and blessed him, and commanded him. And he said to him, ‘You shall not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan.... [remember that Esau did] ... Arise, go to Padan Aram, to the house of Bethuel your mother’s father. And take a wife from there of the daughters of Laban your mother’s brother. And may God Almighty bless you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, so that you may be a multitude of people. And may He give you the blessing of Abraham, to you and to your seed with you, so that you may inherit the land in which you are a stranger, which God gave to Abraham”” (vs 1-4).

Isaac sent him away to Padanaram, and then Jacob had a dream and saw this ladder ascending up:

Verse 12: “And he dreamed. And behold, a ladder was set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven! And behold, the angels of God were ascending and descending on it! And behold, the LORD stood above it, and said, ‘I am the LORD, the God of Abraham your father, and the God of Isaac. The land on which you lie I will give to you and to your seed. And your seed shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south. And in you and in your seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. And, behold, I am with you, and will keep you in every place where you go, and will bring you again into this land, for I will not leave you until I have done that which I have spoken of to you”” (vs 12-15). And he did!

There was still some chicanery. Jacob got his punishment back for being deceitful and lying. What happened? Well, he came to Laban and saw Rachel and said, ‘This is it, first love, got to have her!’ Made a deal and said to Laban, ‘I’ll work seven years for her.’ He said, ‘That’s fine, you can have her.’

So, came the wedding night, and I guess they were all wearing burqas then, and lo and behold, when he woke up in the morning and guess who it was? It was Leah, not Rachel! He wanted Rachel so bad he said, ‘Ok, I’ll work another seven years for you.’ Laban said, ‘That’s fine.’ So, Jacob had to work 14 years. Jacob had a little deceit brought back upon him for his deceit, and he had to work fourteen years instead of seven.

All the children of Israel were born; you know the rest of the story. They all got jealous of Joseph. Joseph had quite a bit of vanity and he came out with this coat that his father made him and said, 'Look guys, I had a dream, and I was standing there and I was the main sheaf. And all the sheaves bowed down to me, that's you guys!' So, they got mad.

They and had another dream and got together and said, 'Look, we've got to stop this, let's kill him.' Judah said, 'No, let's sell him. Here's what we'll do, we'll take and kill a goat and take the coat and spread it with the goat's blood. We'll sell Joseph for his 'snotty-nosed' way of doing things. We'll sell him off to the Arabs when they come by.'

They came by, sold him off, and took him down to Egypt and he ended up in prison and he was able to tell the answer to the dreams that different ones had and he was raised to be the second in charge of Egypt because he was able to tell Pharaoh the dream of the seven fat cattle and the seven skinny cattle that a famine was coming.

Joseph was down in Egypt 17 years before the famine came. When the famine came God sent the sons down to get food, and Joseph knew who they were, but they didn't know who he was. Sure enough, the prophecy came true; in order to get the corn they had to bow down and worship him, because he was second in charge.

Remember, in order to get Benjamin—because he remembered Benjamin was his blood brother, through Rachel—he put some things in the sacks of corn. Then he told the Egyptian soldiers, 'Now they have stolen things, it's hidden in the corn, you go out and arrest them and bring them back here.'

They did and he said, 'Now look, you bring your youngest brother down here. Otherwise I'm going to lock you all up in a dungeon.' They said, 'Ok we'll bring him down.' They brought him down, and then finally he revealed himself to them that he was Joseph, and they went back and got Jacob and brought him down. Jacob came in and Pharaoh gave him all the land of Goshen.

Now we come down to the final blessings that we have that were given to the sons of Jacob, or Israel. Gen. 48—here's a blessing that is with us to this day and it cannot fit the circumstances of the Jews today. What occurred here in Gen. 48 and 49 is as momentous for the physical seed as the promise given to Abraham for the spiritual seed!

Abraham, Isaac and Jacob knew that they had a blessing to pass on to their descendants. Jacob's name was changed to Israel and it came time for the blessing to be given. We find that Joseph brought his two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh....

I might mention here that Joseph married the daughter of the high priest of On; and a lot of people think that Joseph married a black woman. That's not the case! Egypt, at that time, was much like what the United States is today. It was a diverse society. To say that you married an American today doesn't tell you anything. But in order for the blessing to those of the descendants of Joseph and the descendants of Jacob, he could not have intermarried with a race that was contrary to the genetic inheritance that he had. So, he obviously married someone the same as he was.

Joseph brought both of his sons to him, Genesis 48:13: "And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left, and Manasseh in his left toward Israel's right hand. And he brought them near to him." You would think that this just kind of a little detail, but it's very important!

Verse 14: "And Israel stretched out his right hand and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left upon Manasseh's head, crossing his hands, for Manasseh was the firstborn."

Now again, we have the same thing happen. The blessing goes to the younger first, then the older. Whereas through normal inheritance law, what do we have, the firstborn is the one who receives the inheritance.

I'm going through this, even though it doesn't directly relate to the Passover, because we need to understand—and I want to make the record absolutely clear—that the Jews today do not represent all the twelve tribes of the children of Israel. The Jews represent one tribe, plus a substantial number of Levites. That's all of the true Jews.

You can read the book of Josephus and you can see where that in the history—especially during the days of John Hyrcanus the high priest, during the days of the Maccabees and also during the days of Herod the Great—that they forced Esauites to become circumcised Jews and follow the Jewish religion. They are Jews in the sense that they are proselytes. What we are talking about here are the genetic, physical descendants of Jacob and his twelve sons!

We have a publication here, that shows how these sons came to be in their modern inheritance today: America and Britain: Two Nations That Changed the World by Philip Neal. It's very important concerning Ephraim and Manasseh. Ephraim undoubtedly is what we call Great Britain today, and Manasseh is undoubtedly what we call United States of America today. That is before recent years when the strangers are coming in to rise up high above us! Now we're seeing that fulfillment of prophecy because of disobedience.

But, here's the prophecy of the physical seed coming on down now to Ephraim and Manasseh:

When he did this he guided "...his hands, for Manasseh was the firstborn. And he blessed Joseph and said, 'May God, before Whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God Who fed me all my life to this day, the Angel Who has redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads. And let my name be perpetuated in them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac...' (vs 14-16).

Now, it's important to understand that he did not give that blessing to the rest of his sons. He gave different blessings to them, through they are the descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the special blessing of nations and power goes primarily to Ephraim and Manasseh was this:

"...and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.' And Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, and it displeased him. And he held up his father's hand to remove it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head. And Joseph said to his father, 'Not so, my father, for this is the firstborn. Put your right hand upon his head.' And his father refused and said, 'I know it, my son, I know it. He also shall become a people, and he also shall be great, but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations'" (vs 16-19).

It's not an incidental thing that the British Empire became to be known as the Commonwealth of Nations. It was to share the common wealth; in other words: the money, the gold, the silver, the possessions, the military. That's why it was called the Commonwealth.

Verse 20: "And he blessed them that day, saying, 'In you shall Israel bless, saying, "God make you as Ephraim and as Manasseh.'" And he put Ephraim before Manasseh." That's how it came about!

Before he died, Genesis 49:1: "And Jacob called to his sons and said, 'Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you what shall happen to you in the last days.... [this gives us an identification of the nations today] ...Gather yourselves together and hear, sons of Jacob, and hearken to Israel your father. Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity and the excellency of power. Unstable as water..." (vs 1-4). Many people believe that the descendants of Reuben are the French, very possible!

"...you shall not excel because you went up to your father's bed; then you defiled it. He went up to my couch. Simeon and Levi are brothers; tools of violence are their weapons" (vs 4-5).

That's why the Simeonites maybe are more involved in Mafia within Israel, and the Levites instruments of cruelty. That's why they were selected for the priesthood and the slaughtering of animals. They can handle it without all of the weeping and wailing and the animal rights boo-hooing.

Verse 6: "Oh my soul, do not come into their council. Let not my honor be united with their assembly, for in their anger they killed a man, and in their self-will they hamstrung oxen. Let their anger be cursed, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel. I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel" (vs 6-7). That's the way it is in the last days, they're scattered throughout all Israel!

Verse 8: "Judah, may your brothers praise you. May your hand be on the neck of your enemies. May your father's sons bow before you. Judah is a lion's whelp. My son, you have gone up from the prey. He stooped, he crouched like a lion; and like a lioness, who shall rouse him? The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come.... (vs 8-10). That is Christ, and He came and the disciples then became the lawgivers through the apostles!

"...And to Him shall be the obedience of the people. Binding His foal to the vine, and His donkey's colt to the choice vine, He washed His garments in wine, and His clothes in the blood of grapes. His eyes are more sparkling than wine, and His teeth are whiter than milk" (vs 10-12).

I think that describes maybe some of the things that are going on in Israel today where the Jews are. All the bloody warring that's going on? Perhaps!

Verse 13: "Zebulun shall live at the seashore... [many people think this has to do with Holland—could very likely be] ...And he shall be a haven for ships, and his border beside Sidon. Issachar is a strong donkey..." (vs 13-14). Finland today! It's between the west and the east and they carry a great burden from Russia!

"...crouching down between the sheepfolds. And he saw that rest was good and that the land was pleasant. And he bowed his shoulder to bear a burden, and became a tribute-servant" (vs 14-15). The Finnish were under tribute to the Soviet Union for a long time!

Verse 16: "Dan shall judge his people, as one of the tribes of Israel...." We have two aspects of Dan:

1. Danmark
2. the Irish that also came from Dan

...Dan shall be a serpent by the way, an adder in the path that bites the horse's heels, so that its rider shall fall backward. I have waited for Your salvation, O LORD. Gad, raiders shall attack him, but he shall overcome at the last" (vs 16-19). A lot of people think that Gad is Switzerland, that little small country!

Verse 20: "Out of Asher his bread shall be rich, and he shall yield royal dainties. [Netherlands] ...Naphtali is a deer let loose. He gives goodly words" (vs 20-21)—Sweden!

Now notice Joseph's blessing. This cannot apply to the Jews, v 22: "Joseph is a fruitful bough..."

Since before WWII and even through the Holocaust and everything, there has never been very many more than 13-15-million Jews worldwide.

"...a fruitful bough by a well, whose branches run over the wall. The archers have fiercely attacked him and have shot at him, and hated him.... [we've seen this happen time and time again] ...But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the mighty God of Jacob—from there is the Shepherd, the Stone of Israel—..." (vs 22-24).

That is the great stone that is under the coronation chair, on which they coronate the kings and queens of England. By-the-way, they coronate them as kings and queens over 'your people, Israel.' When you read the whole, the whole ceremony, it's not over Britain, it's not over England, it's over 'your people, Israel.' She is coronated in the Jerusalem Room of the Westminster Abbey.

Verse 25: "By the God of your father, Who shall help you. And may the Almighty bless you with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lies beneath, blessings of the breasts and of the womb. The blessings of your father are greater than the blessings of my ancestors, to the utmost bound of the everlasting hills. They shall be on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of him, the ruler, the leader who was separated from his brothers" (vs 25-26).

That's really quite a blessing! You cannot say that this fits the Jews as we know them today. Remember, this is a prophecy for the last days.

Verse 27: "Benjamin is a wolf that tears in pieces.... [a lot of people think that Benjamin today is Norway—from whence we get the Vikings who 'ravened as a wolf'] ...In the morning he shall devour the prey, and at night he shall divide the spoil."

Now, before we get into the Passover of Israel, let's see some blessings that were passed on at that time. I'm just going to cover the blessing to Joseph, so we can distinguish Ephraim and Manasseh, the sons of Joseph, from the Jews.

Deuteronomy 33:13: "And of Joseph he said, 'Blessed of the LORD be his land, with the precious things of the heavens, for the dew, and for the deep that couches beneath, and for the precious things of the fruits of the sun, and with the precious things of the yield of the months. And with the chief things of the ancient mountains, and for the precious things of the everlasting hills" (vs 13-15).

Where has most of the gold and silver and precious jewels come from? They have come from the descendants of Joseph! In particular and primarily South Africa, because South Africa was part of the Commonwealth of Britain, part of the British Empire, too.

Verse 16: "And for the precious things of the earth and fullness of it, and for the good will of Him Who dwelt in the bush. Let the blessing come on the head of Joseph, and on the top of the head of him who was separated from his brothers. His glory is like the firstborn of his bull, and his horns are like the horns of the wild ox...." (vs 16-17).

Isn't it interesting that both of those things are on the seal that the British have?

"...With them he shall push the people together to the ends of the earth.... [Wasn't it said of the British Empire, 'The sun never set on the British Empire?'] ...And they are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh" (v 17). So, there is the blessing given to the physical seed!

Now let's come to the book of Exodus, and let's look at the events leading up to the Passover with the children of Israel while they were in Egypt. I wanted to go through and just carry those prophecies forward showing the blessings that would come to children of Israel being all of the twelve tribes, and of whom the ten that were carried off into captivity first, were given the blessing and the fulfillment in the last days.

After Joseph died, then there arose another Pharaoh who didn't know Joseph. He enslaved the children of Israel. He was bent on destroying all the male children of the children of Israel by having them drowned in the river. You know the story of Moses: he was put in the basket, his mother watched it as it went on down, the daughter of Pharaoh found the basket and said, 'This is mine, his name shall be Moses, for he came out of the water.' He was raised in the court of Pharaoh. He was next in line to be Pharaoh, and then God worked it out to reveal that he was really not of the bloodline of, he was not so of Napatri, the daughter of Pharaoh, but he was the son Levi, a Hebrew.

In trying to rescue one of the Hebrews, because of the harsh bondage, he killed an Egyptian, and then he fled into the wilderness. Straight across the Sinai Desert, and he came to Midian. Then he married one of the daughters of Jethro. Then we come to the time when Moses was out there watching the sheep and the time of the ‘burning bush.’

We’ll summarize the burning bush thing. He went up, and the thing that’s important is this: after Moses came up to the burning bush:

Exodus 3:5: “And He said, ‘Do not come near here. Put off your sandals from your feet, for the place on which you stand is Holy ground.’”

This shows that wherever God is it’s Holy. We can also draw a lesson from this concerning the Sabbath. Wherever God puts His presence, that is Holy time. That’s why the Sabbath is Holy. We can project that out into the Passover and all the Holy Days, as well! That’s why they are called Holy Days, because God puts His presence in it. Wherever God is that is Holy.

Verse 6: “And He said, ‘I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’”

That’s the point I want to make here, that God is following through on His promises to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Remember, we started out Gen. 15 where He said that his descendants would be ‘slaves in a land not their own,’ and they would come out with ‘great substance.’ Then He also tells them what His name is:

Verse 13: “And Moses said to God... [After God said ‘I will surely be with you’ (v 12)] ... ‘Behold, when I come to the children of Israel, and shall say to them, “The God of your fathers has sent me to you,” and they shall say to me, “What is His name?” What shall I say to them?” And God said to Moses, ‘I AM THAT I AM.’” (vs 13-14).

{note message about Jesus being I AM That I AM; about Jesus being the I AM}

Not only does this identify the God of the Old Testament, but it also identifies that the God of the Old Testament is the God of the New Testament.

“...And He said, ‘Thus you shall say to the children of Israel, “I AM has sent me to you.”’ And God said to Moses again, ‘You shall say this to the children of Israel, “The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is My name forever, and this is My title from generation to generation. Go, and gather the elders of Israel...” (vs 14-16).

Your brother Aaron is going to meet you, and you go deliver the people. They did that. Remember that Jesus said that if you ‘do not believe that I AM you shall perish in your sins.’

Exodus 4:29: “And Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel. And Aaron spoke all the words, which the LORD had spoken to Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people. And the people believed. And when they heard that the LORD had visited the children of Israel, and that He had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed and worshipped” (vs 29-31)—and went on their way!

Then here comes the first confrontation between Moses, Aaron and Pharaoh. This is kind of like the Beverly Hillbillies—maybe not quite that bad, but almost—coming into Pharaoh. So, here they come.

Exodus 5:1: “And afterward Moses and Aaron went in and told Pharaoh, ‘Thus says the LORD God of Israel, “Let My people go that they may hold a Feast to Me in the wilderness.”’”

Can you imagine that! Here are two upstart people walking into the Pharaoh of Egypt saying, ‘Let the people go that we can keep the Feast.’ Pharaoh was supreme ruler! God raised him up, as he said in the book of Romans, that He raised him up to show His power to all the earth. The very fact that it is in the Scriptures and is everywhere around the world, this story is told over and over again as a witness that God is greater than Egypt, and even to this day, testifies that He’s greater than Egypt. What was Pharaoh’s response?

Verse 2: “And Pharaoh said, Who is the LORD, that I should obey His voice to let Israel go? I do not know the LORD, neither will I let Israel go.” Can you imagine the effrontery that he felt with these two upstarts come in there and tell him to let them go?

Verse 3: “And they said, ‘The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Let us go, we pray you, three days’ journey into the desert and sacrifice to the LORD our God, lest He fall upon us with plague or with the sword.’ And the king of Egypt said to them, ‘Moses and Aaron, why do you keep the people from their work? Get to your burdens!’ [not going to hear it] ... And Pharaoh said, ‘Behold, the people of the land now are many, and you make them rest from their burdens” (vs 3-5).

Rest means to ‘sabbathize.’ Here we have the Sabbath in the land Egypt long before they get to Mt. Sinai. Of course, they didn’t understand it. What did Pharaoh do?

Verse 6: “And Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters of the people and their officers the same day, saying, ‘You shall no more give the people straw to make brick, as before. Let them go and gather straw for themselves. And you shall lay upon them the same number of bricks, which they have made before. You shall not reduce it, for they are idle; therefore they cry, saying, “Let us go sacrifice to our God.” Let more work be laid upon the men, and let them labor in it. And do not let them regard vain words” (vs 6-9).

So, they went out and did that. The people of Israel were expecting to be let go just like that, at the snap of a finger. Things didn’t work out the way they wanted and it came down just the opposite of what they expected.

Lesson: Just because it doesn’t work out the first time doesn’t mean God doesn’t mean what He says. He has other things in mind!

Then what happened? They came and they told Moses, they said, ‘Look! This is getting worse. We’re not being let go.’ So, Moses and Aaron went back to Pharaoh.

Here’s what the people said, v 20: “And they met Moses and Aaron standing in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh. And they said to them, ‘The LORD look upon you and judge because you have made us offensive in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hands to kill us.’ And Moses returned to the LORD, and said... [even Moses didn’t believe at this point] ...‘LORD, why have You treated this people ill? Why then have you sent me?’” (vs 20-22).

Moses was even questioning, ‘What am I doing here, Lord I went and said let them go and he didn’t let them go. What do You want me to do?’

Verse 23: “For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in Your name, he has done evil to this people. Neither have You delivered Your people at all.” God gave them the answer. He said, ‘Wait, Moses, I’ve got a plan.’

Exodus 6:1: And the LORD said to Moses, ‘Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh; for with a strong hand he shall let them go, and with a strong hand he shall drive them out of his land.’ And God spoke to Moses, and said to him, ‘I am the LORD. And I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob as God Almighty [El Shaddai] But I was not known to them by My name JEHOVAH” (vs 1-3).

So, that’s the covenant name of God for the Old Covenant—JEHOVAH. He says, ‘I’m going to release them.’ Let’s see when God gets down to business what happens. In this account, we’re going to find the signs and then the plagues. Notice what God said:

Exodus 7:1: “And the LORD said to Moses, ‘See, I have made you a god to Pharaoh. And Aaron your brother shall be your prophet. You shall speak all that I command you. And Aaron your brother shall speak to Pharaoh that he send the children of Israel out of his land. And I will harden Pharaoh’s heart and multiply My signs and My wonders in the land of Egypt. But Pharaoh shall not hearken to you, and I will lay My hand upon Egypt, and bring My armies, My people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments. And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD when I stretch forth My hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them.’ And Moses and Aaron did as the LORD commanded them; so they did. And Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron was eighty-three years old, when they spoke to Pharaoh” (vs 1-7). You talk about an old church!

THE SIGNS

1. Snakes from rods!

Moses and Aaron go in, and the Lord said, v 9: “When Pharaoh shall speak to you saying, ‘Give a miracle for yourselves,’ you shall say to Aaron, ‘Take your rod, and throw it in front of Pharaoh. It shall become a snake.’” This is important because they were serpent-worshippers there!

Verse 10: “And Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh. And they did so as the LORD had commanded. And Aaron threw down his rod in front of Pharaoh and in front of his servants, and it became a snake. Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers. And they, the priests of Egypt, did the same with their secret arts” (vs 10-11). There are false miracles and there are things that Satan can do to make it look like it’s the hand of God.

Verse 12: “For each man threw down his rod, and they became snakes... [here’s a snake fight right out in the middle of it] ...but Aaron’s rod swallowed up their rods. And He hardened Pharaoh’s heart so that he did not hearken to them, as the LORD had said” (vs 12-13).

2. Blood from water!

Then we have the next sign: blood being made from water. The Egyptians worshipped the Nile. It was a like a god, and that’s why they had crocodile gods, frog gods and so forth. So, Moses went out there and stretched forth his rod.

Verse 20: “And Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded. And he lifted up the rod and struck the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh... [right in front of him] ...and in the sight of his servants. And all the waters in the river were turned to blood. And the fish in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river. And there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt. And the priests of Egypt did so with their secret arts. And Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not hearken to them, as the LORD had said" (vs 20-22). After the seven days were fulfilled then they were able to drink the water!

I think the movie The Ten Commandments did a really good job in showing this; really portrayed it. That was one of the good movies that they made. Of course, it was made years ago; Cecile B. DeMille produced it, I think it was in the 50s and it's a classic. Every year about Passover time they always play the full version of The Ten Commandments.

3. Frogs!

If you've ever seen Egyptian frogs you will know these are not just the little pestilential things, but these are huge, about the size of a big head. I just want you to picture this: the land filled with frogs! Here's what's going to happen:

Exodus 8:1: "And the LORD spoke to Moses, 'Go to Pharaoh, and say to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Let My people go so that they may serve Me. And if you refuse to let them go, behold, I am going to strike all your country with frogs. And the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly which shall go up and come into your house, and into your bedroom, and upon your bed, and into the house of your servants, and upon your people, and into your ovens, and into your kneading troughs. And the frogs shall come upon you, and upon your people, and upon all your servants'"'" (vs 1-4).

They stretched out the rod and all these frogs started coming out of the river! Imagine all the sound that goes with it; all of the croaking and so forth. The magicians did the same thing and they brought up frogs. Three times the magicians were able to counterfeit the miracle of God.

Now, this got to Pharaoh for a little bit, v 8: "And Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, 'Pray to the LORD that He may take away the frogs from me and from my people. And I will let the people go, so that they may sacrifice to the LORD.' And Moses said to Pharaoh, 'I give to you the honor—when shall I pray for you, and for your servants, and for your people, to destroy the frogs from you and your houses so that they may remain in the river only?' And he said, 'Tomorrow.' And he said, 'It shall be according to your word so that you may know that there is none like the LORD our God'" (vs 8-10).

So they departed. His heart was hardened. God has a way of doing things that really gets your attention.

4. Lice!

Verse 16: "And the LORD said to Moses, 'Say to Aaron, "Stretch out your rod, and strike the dust of the land, so that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt."'.... [Have you ever had lice?] ...And they did so, for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod and struck the dust of the earth and it became lice in man and in beast. All the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt. And the priests did so with their secret arts to bring forth lice, but they could not. So there were lice upon man and upon beast. And the priests said to Pharaoh, 'This is the finger of God.' And Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not hearken to them, as the LORD had said" (vs 16-19).

I wonder how they got rid of the lice? Who knows! It doesn't say that they removed them. It doesn't say how long they endured, but I tell you what, they must have had a lice-killing program there, you know: crushing them; killing them; combing them out of the hair; cleaning out all of the beds; cleaning off all the clothes; sweeping out the house; putting them up in buckets and burning them. You know, you'd almost have a picture how this went on. It doesn't tell us how long this went on.

5. Flies!

Have you ever been bothered by a fly? Imagine swarms of them. Have you ever seen pictures of people in Africa and their cows with all of these big huge flies? Well, just keep that in mind when we read this here:

Verse 20: "And the LORD said to Moses, 'Rise up early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh. Lo, he comes forth to the water....'"

Every day it was the obligation of Pharaoh to go to the river, because he was representative of God in their pagan religion, and he would be there at sunrise.

So God says: "...And say to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Let My people go, so that they may serve Me.... [Pharaoh probably thought: we just got rid of the lice! You're here again!] ...And if you will not let My people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies on you, and on your servants, and on your people, and into your house. And the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground on which they are. And in that day I will cut off the land of Goshen, in which My people live, so that no swarms of flies shall be there, so that you may know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth. And I will put a dividing line between My people and your people. This sign shall be tomorrow.'" And the LORD did so. And teeming swarms of flies came into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt. The land was ruined because of the swarms" (vs 20-24).

The children of Israel suffered the first four so they would understand that God is behind it, to let them know that they better listen to God and not do as Pharaoh.

It didn't take long for Pharaoh to react this time. When you have just one fly doing its little square flight pattern right in front of you. And you kind of sit there and wait for it to land on you, all you do is slap your face real hard. Or there's a fly that's coming down on your food.

Imagine swarms of flies, just crawling everywhere, just all over your hair, all over your arms, all over the walls. You can't even walk across the room without squishing the flies that are there. And they're into the cupboards and they're eating everything and everything is dirty, and there would have to be fly-dung everywhere! I mean let's look at this as realistic as how it happened!

Verse 25: "And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, 'Go sacrifice to your God in the land.'"

'I'm not going to let you go out, you do it in the land, I'll go half-way.' So much with common ground.

Verse 26: "And Moses said, 'It is not right to do so, for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God. Lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us?'"

No! They were probably animal-worshippers. You know, just like the Indians in India today. The Hindus worship cows. If a miracle happens with a cow, they run and they gather the urine and they gather the dung so they can put it on themselves and wipe themselves with the manure and they can anoint themselves with the urine. If the children of Israel are out there sacrificing the cattle and the sheep they would really raise a big stink. So, Moses said:

Verse 27: "We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as He shall command us.' And Pharaoh said, 'I will let you go so that you may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness. Only you shall not go very far away. Pray for me.' And Moses said, 'Behold, I will go out from you, and I will pray to the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, tomorrow. But do not let Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.' And Moses went out from Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD. And the LORD did according to the word of Moses. And He removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. There remained not one" (vs 27-31).

If you were an Egyptian and all these flies came in one day and they bothered you for ever how many days they had the flies, and then all of sudden one day, they're gone. You'd begin to think that Moses and Aaron had contact with God, the Greater Power than the sorcerers and magicians.

Verse 32: "And Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go."

6. Boils!

Exodus 9:1: "And the LORD said to Moses, 'Go in to Pharaoh and tell him, "Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews, 'Let My people go so that they may serve Me, for if you refuse to let them go, and will still hold them back, behold, the hand of the LORD is upon your livestock in the field, upon the horses, upon the donkeys, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep, a very grievous plague.... [boils and blains] ...And the LORD shall separate between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt. And there shall nothing die of all that belongs to the children of Israel'"'" (vs 1-4).

God was also demonstrating to the children of Israel. The thing is they didn't remember these things. By time they got seven days out of Egypt to the Red Sea, they were complaining to God already. Many times—and this is a lesson for us—we need to remember the things that God has done and not be complaining to God for the things He hasn't yet done.

Verse 5: "And the LORD appointed a set time, saying, 'Tomorrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land.'... [He did it] ...And the LORD did that thing on the next day, and all the livestock in the field of Egypt died. But of the livestock of the children of Israel, not one died.... [Pharaoh's getting desperate here] ...And Pharaoh sent, and, behold, there was not one of the livestock of the Israelites dead. And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go" (vs 5-7).

All right, so he put 'murrain,' which is boils and blains, upon the cattle and they died. Then we have the seventh sign. Now it's going to come on the people.

Verse 8: "And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, 'Take to yourselves handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the sky in the sight of Pharaoh. And it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and it shall become a boil breaking forth with sores upon man and upon beast... [that's the remainder of the beasts]

...throughout all the land of Egypt.’ And they took ashes of the furnace and stood before Pharaoh. And Moses sprinkled it up toward the sky, and they became boils breaking forth with sores upon man and upon beast. And the priests could not stand before Moses because of the boils, for the boils were upon the priests and upon all the Egyptians” (vs 8-11).

Now, one boil really lays you low. The worst kind of boil is called a carbuncle! That is painful! I don’t know if they were covered from head-to-toe with boils—like Job was—but what a sight that must have been.

Verse 12: “And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he did not hearken to them, even as the LORD had spoken to Moses. And the LORD said to Moses, ‘Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say to him, “Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews, ‘Let My people go, so that they may serve Me; for I am going to send at this time all My plagues upon your heart, and upon your servants, and upon your people, so that you may know that there is none like Me in all the earth’”” (vs 12-14).

THE PLAGUES

Now we get the plagues! The signs were bad enough. Here we have the whole purpose of Pharaoh.

Verse 15: “For now I will stretch out My hand, that I may strike you and your people with plagues, and you shall be cut off from the earth. And for this very purpose I have raised you up, to show My power against you, and that My name may be declared throughout all the earth. Do you still exalt yourself against My people that you will not let them go? Behold, tomorrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as has not been in Egypt since the foundation of it, even until now!” (vs 15-18).

And he said, ‘Whatever are left of the cattle you get them out of there, get them under cover because they’re going to die.’ And that’s what happened!

7. Hail!

Verse 22: “And the LORD said to Moses, ‘Stretch forth your hand toward heaven, so that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt... [Can you imagine the weather reports today if there were snow in Cairo? I mean, just snow!] ...upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.’ And Moses stretched forth his rod toward the heavens. And the LORD sent thunder and hail, and the fire came down to the ground. And the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt. And there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. And the hail struck throughout all the land of Egypt, all that was in the field, both man and beast. And the hail struck every herb of the field, and broke every tree of the field. Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail” (vs 22-26).

This time Pharaoh kind of almost got the point. I mean, what does it take to get people’s attention?

Verse 27: “And Pharaoh sent and called for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, ‘I have sinned this time. The LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked. Pray to the LORD, for it is enough. Let there be no more mighty thunderings and hail. And I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer” (vs 27-28).

I tell you what, after you hear hail and see lightning and hear the thunder, and have that stacking up, and you’re used to this warm climate. Can you imagine what all this hail and ice is going to do? It’s going to drop the temperature. You don’t have any clothes for cold weather. There you are, hail all around. Man! But he still didn’t quite get it.

Verse 34: “And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders had ceased, he sinned still more and hardened his heart, he and his servants.”

God said, ‘I’m going to bring another plague. By time all of this is done, there is virtually nothing left in Egypt.

Exodus 10:1: “And the LORD said to Moses, ‘Go in to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the heart of his servants so that I might show these My signs before him, and so that you may tell in the ears of your son, and of your son’s sons, what things I have wrought in Egypt, and My signs which I have done among them...” (vs 1-2).

We are to read and go through these things to know that it was the hand of God that did it!

“...so that you may know that I am the LORD.’ And Moses and Aaron came in to Pharaoh and said to him, ‘Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews, “How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Let My people go so that they may serve Me; for if you refuse to let My people go, behold, tomorrow I will bring the locusts into your country. And they shall cover the face of the ground so that one cannot be able to see the earth. And they shall eat the rest of that which has escaped, which remains to you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which grows for you out of the field. And they shall fill your houses, and the houses of all your servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians, which neither your fathers, nor your fathers' fathers have seen, since the day they were upon the earth until this day. And he turned himself and went out from Pharaoh.” And Pharaoh’s servants said to him, ‘How long shall this man be a snare to us? Let the men go so that they may serve the LORD their God. Do you not yet know that Egypt is destroyed?’” (vs 2-7).

Verse 8: “And Moses and Aaron were brought again to Pharaoh, and he said to them, ‘Go! Serve the LORD your God. Who are the ones that shall go?’ And Moses said, ‘We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters. We will go with our flocks and with our herds; for we must hold a Feast to the LORD.’ And he said to them, ‘Let the LORD be with you, for if I ever let you go with your little ones, watch out, for you have some evil purpose in mind. Not so! Go now you men... [just the men—I’m only going to let the men go] ...and serve the LORD, for it is you who did desire it.’ And they were driven out from Pharaoh’s presence” (vs 8-11).

8. Locust!

Then what happened? Moses went out, raised his rod and locust came! Covered the land! And I don’t imagine they were itty-bitty things. I bet they were huge, giant, devouring things; they ate everything!

Verse 15: “For they covered the face of the whole ground so that the land was darkened, and they ate every herb of the land and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left. And there did not remain any green thing in the trees, or in the herbs of the field, through all the land of Egypt.... [here’s worldly repentance]: ...Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste. And he said, ‘I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you. Now therefore, I beg you, forgive my sin only this once, and pray to the LORD your God that He may take away from me this death only’” (vs 15-17).

So, they went out and did it. When they were gone Pharaoh’s heart was hardened.

9. Darkness!

Here comes another plague and this is quite a plague. You kind of really have to imagine this:

Verse 21: “And the LORD said to Moses, ‘Stretch out your hand toward the heavens, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, so that one may even feel the darkness.’ And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven. And there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days” (vs 21-22). They could feel it!

It would be kind of like this: Have you ever been in a room with all the doors shut and you turn out the light and you can’t see anything.

Verse 23: “They did not see one another, nor did any rise from his place, for three days. But all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.” Pharaoh really had it this time!

Verse 24: “And Pharaoh called for Moses, and said, ‘You go serve the LORD. Only let your flocks and your herds be left.... [‘All of our cattle are killed, we want yours.’] ...Let your little ones also go with you.’ And Moses said, ‘You must give us also sacrifices and burnt offerings so that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God. Our livestock also shall go with us. There shall not be a hoof left behind, for we must take from them to serve the LORD our God. And we do not know with what we must serve the LORD until we come there.’ But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he would not let them go” (vs 24-27). This kind of sounds like the last stand of Hitler! Very similar to it!

Verse 28: “And Pharaoh said to him, ‘Get away from me! Take heed to yourself! See my face no more... [‘I’m so important, you better not come in my presence and see my face anymore!] ...for in the day you see my face you shall die.’ And Moses said, ‘You have spoken well. I will never see your face again’” (vs 24-29).

10. Death of the firstborn!

Exodus 11:1: “And the LORD had said to Moses, ‘I will yet bring one plague on Pharaoh...’” The fourth plague, and this one is going to be the most devastating of all, v 1: “And the LORD had said to Moses, ‘I will yet bring one plague on Pharaoh and on Egypt. Afterward, he will let you go from here. When he shall let you go, he shall surely thrust you out from here altogether. Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man ask... [this was spoiling] ...from his neighbor, and every woman from her neighbor, articles of silver and jewels of gold’” (vs 1-2).

I imagine they were so frightened and fearful that when the children of Israel went up and said, ‘I want your gold and I want your silver,’ they said, ‘Here!’ Lest they die and more plagues come upon them.

Verse 3: “And the LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. And the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh’s servants, and in the sight of the people.”

Remember, at the beginning in Exo. 7 he says, ‘I have made you a god’ to Pharaoh.

Verse 4: “And Moses said, ‘Thus says the LORD, “About midnight... [We’ll see that’s the 14th day of the 1st month] ...I will go out into the midst of Egypt. And all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sits upon his throne, even to the firstborn of the slave-girl that is behind the mill; also the firstborn of the beasts”” (vs 4-5). That is whichever ones are left alive!

Verse 6: “And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it any more. But against any of the children of Israel not even a dog shall move his tongue, against man or beast, so that you may know that the LORD puts a difference between the Egyptians and Israel” (vs 11:6-7).

Let’s understand something here concerning the Church: God has put a difference between His people and the world; a very big difference! You are the people of God; you represent God and all that He is to everyone else in the world that comes in contact with you! That’s very important to understand. God has called you to be in His Kingdom.

Therefore, that’s why He says we’re not to be part of the world. We’re in the world, but we’re not of the world. Just like there could be no compromise with the children of Israel with the Egyptians in their dealings with God. So, He puts a difference!

Verse 8: “And all these, your servants, shall come down to me and bow themselves down to me, saying, “You and all the people that follow you—get out!” And after that I will go out.’ And he went out from Pharaoh in flaming anger.”

What a witness to Pharaoh. He says, ‘You get out of here and don’t see my face anymore’ and Moses just said all these words and then left in great anger!

Verse 9: “And the LORD said to Moses, ‘Pharaoh shall not hearken to you so that My wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.’ And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh. And the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart so that he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land” (vs 9-10).

The reason God did that was to show the children of Israel that:

- He was God
- He alone could deliver them
- He alone would fight their battles and overcome them

IF they trusted in Him they would be released from their slavery!

Now we come to Exo. 12 and the Passover and we will continue in part 3 with the Passover and the children of Israel!

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

The Passover: Abraham, Isaac, Israel and Christ III

Fred R. Coulter

Let's come to Exo. 12 and pick up where we left off last time and cover concerning the Passover with Israel; their first Passover. Many of the details, as you know, have been written in the book The Christian Passover, which covers all the technicalities that we have concerning:

- between the evenings or between the setting times
- between sunset and dark
- sunset and morning

I won't go into those in great detail. I will just mention them as we come to them so we have a greater understanding of it and then we will go through Exo. 16 just to really show beyond any shadow of doubt how God uses the terms:

- at even
- between the evenings
- 'ben ha arbayim' meaning from sunset to dark

Let's begin with the instructions that Moses gave to Israel for the Passover in Egypt:

Exodus 12:3: "Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying, 'In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them each man a lamb for a father's house, a lamb for a house. And if the household is too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbor next to his house take according to the number of the souls, each one, according to the eating of his mouth, you shall count concerning the lamb. Your lamb shall be without blemish...'" (vs 3-5)—a type of Christ!

"...a male of the first year. You shall take it from the sheep or from the goats. And you shall keep it up until the beginning of the fourteenth day of the same month..." (vs 5-6)—until the beginning of it, which is at sunset of the 13th when the sun goes down, then it is the 14th day.

"...And the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it between the two evenings" (v 6).

Everett Fox—The Schocken Bible: The Five Books of Moses—translates it as between the setting times, and the Hebrew is 'ben ha arbayim,' which means between sunset and dark. So between the two evenings is another rendering of it, meaning that there is the first evening being sunset and then the second evening being dark.

Here is what they were to do and we will see the reason for it. We need to understand something very important here concerning the Passover as it was with Israel, and then let's look at the Passover when we come to the one with Christ and then for us, because it has great significance and it shows God's mercy, kindness and goodness in many, many ways.

Verse 7: "And they shall take of the blood and strike it on the two side posts and upon the upper doorpost of the houses in which they shall eat it. And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roasted with fire, and unleavened bread..." (vs 7-8).

Now let's understand something very simple: the entire Passover Day is an unleavened bread day! That is a one-day Feast, as we will see. The Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days is a Feast that follows the Passover.

There is nowhere that you can find in the Scriptures at all anywhere that it was allowable to eat leavened bread on the day portion of the Passover. Nowhere can you find that the Israelites did that, because at sunrise, they left their houses and assembled at Rameses. Let's understand that there were no McDonalds on the way. You see they didn't eat any leavened bread on the day portion of the Passover. Now we can be for sure that they were to eat it with unleavened bread, that is the Passover, that they didn't have any leaven in their houses. It was to be destroyed.

"...They shall eat it with bitter herbs. Do not eat of it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but roasted with fire, its head with its legs, and with its inward parts" (vs 8-9)—the heart and the liver and the kidneys were put back into the cavity from where they took out the innards.

Verse 10: "And you shall not let any of it remain until the morning. And that which remains of it until the morning you shall burn with fire."

They were to eat it that night! Anything that was left they couldn't leave it until morning, but they should burn it with fire. God had a specific reason and purpose for doing that.

1. it was total destruction of the Passover lamb or kid
2. the children of Israel could not take a tooth, a bone or a hoof as a good luck charm from the Passover lamb or kid

God wanted it totally destroyed!

Now you can read in The Christian Passover book that we actually went through and found out how long it would take to burn all the skin, the intestines, the bones and so forth in fire. It took quite a while to burn it to ashes, and it also helped substantiate that they didn't leave their houses until morning.

Verse 11: "And this is the way you shall eat it: with your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. And you shall eat it in trepidation..."—haste (KJV) is an unfortunate translation, because that gives people who believe in the 15th Passover the impression that they were to eat it in haste and hurry up and leave as soon as they ate it.

Well if they did that, they had no opportunity to burn what was left, and it takes quite a few hours to burn all of those bones especially the teeth. What we are dealing with here is that the Hebrew means you shall eat it in trepidation, because of all the events that would take place, not in haste! Of course, if you are eating it in trepidation, the chances are you are going to eat it quite quickly too, but not in haste so that you can hurry and leave!

"...it is the LORD'S Passover" (v 11). That's what's important to understand, brethren, it's not the Jews' Passover.

What we do is the Christian Passover as Jesus modified the instructions in the New Testament. Never was this the Jews' Passover. It is the LORD'S Passover, and here's why:

Verse 12: "For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night... [we know that it was midnight] ...and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast. And I will execute judgment against all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD."

This becomes profound and important when we understand that God has judged all the pagan religions and gods of this world in this Passover, and for us with the Passover of Christ! This tells us that we should not go out and combine any of the things of the religions of this world—be it Judaism, be it mainstream Christianity, or whatever—into any of the practices that we do because God has already judged them, no doubt about it.

That's why later He told the children of Israel that they were not to add anything or take away from what He gave them. They were not to go to the people of the land and say 'How do you worship your gods, and this is a good idea and let's do so unto our God.' God said, 'You shall not do so unto the LORD your God!' So, there is a specific reason for judging the gods of Egypt, and that is to show that:

- they are not God
- they are impotent
- they have no power
- they are the imaginations of men and demons
- they are inspired by Satan the devil
- they have nothing to do with the true God
- they have nothing to do with making life right

But only having to do to keep people in the captivity, in the bondage of sin to Satan the devil and his ways!

We need to understand that and apply that to also the Christian Passover, and the New Testament, and the New Covenant and what we are to do.

Verse 13: "And the blood shall be a sign to you upon the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you...."

This is a type of the blood of Christ. His blood causes God to pass over our sins, so we have the remission of sins that are passed. And He says:

"...And the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you when I smite the land of Egypt" (v 13).

Let's understand something here concerning the blood and the firstborn: the firstborn of all the children of Israel—man and beast—were spared, because of the blood that they put on the doorposts and the lintels. So, the firstborn became a tremendous blessing to all the children of God. Whereas, the firstborn of Egypt, man and beast, became a tremendous curse because God executed His judgment not only against the gods, but against the firstborn, and this literally destroyed Egypt. By the time the children of Israel left Egypt beginning the next night, Egypt was left in destruction; there was hardly anything left. The pride and power of Egypt had been absolutely broken with the death of the firstborn of man and beast.

Now let's understand something for us. There is something that we need to realize, and we need to understand in all humility, in all understanding of God's Word, with thanksgiving, but not to get us all lifted up, not to make us feel as though we are superior to other people, because we are not. But just as the sparing of the firstborn for the children of Israel in Egypt was a blessing. Then that blessing extended to all the rest of the children of Israel who were not the firstborn; but also we have a parallel here, because we are the firstfruits and we are the Church of the Firstborn.

Hebrews 12:22: “But you have come to Mount Zion, and to the city of the living God, heavenly Jerusalem; and to an innumerable company of angels; to the joyous festival gathering; and to the Church of the Firstborn...” (vs 22-23).

So, just like the firstborn being spared during the Passover that the children of Israel had in Egypt, so likewise, the firstborn who are right now begotten and those who have the Spirit of God and living today are a blessing to this entire world!

The world doesn't know that, but we need to take that with all humility and understanding and thankfulness because of God's mercy and love. It shows His mercy, not any greatness that we could attribute to ourselves, but just in the same manner that God destroyed the firstborn in Egypt and executed His judgment against all the gods of Egypt.

Likewise in our lives in the things that we do, all the ways of the world, that's why Paul said, 'The world is crucified unto me.' When we come to the Passover we need to understand that that needs to be our attitude, in gratefulness and thanksgiving for what God has done. This ought to give us a lot of inspiration, encouragement, strength and power in the Spirit of God to do His will.

Exodus 12:14: “And this day shall be a memorial to you. And you shall keep it a Feast to the LORD throughout your generations. You shall keep it a Feast as a Law forever.”

That's what we are to do, and it is a memorial. The Passover is a memorial, and that's why when we come to the New Testament, Jesus said, 'Do this in remembrance of Me.'

Now then, we come to the Feast of Unleavened Bread, because the Feast of Unleavened Bread follows immediately the next day.

Verse 15: “You shall eat unleavened bread seven days; even the first day you shall have put away leaven out of your houses...”—past tense!

Everett Fox in The Schocken Bible translates it: “You shall have already...” or “already on the first day...” that is as the first day comes.

“...you shall have put away leaven out of your houses...” (v 15)—meaning that by time the first day comes, you shall have put away leaven from your houses. It has to be out and gone!

Then the Passover Day being an unleavened bread day—the whole day—and that's why I have in

The Christian Passover book what Josephus wrote, that ‘we observe the Feast for eight days of Unleavened Bread.’

That does not mean that we are having a Feast of Unleavened Bread for eight days, it means that we have two Feasts:

1. a memorial Feast of the Passover, which is unleavened bread
2. continuing seven days of the Feast of Unleavened Bread

Both of these Feasts have different meanings, which we will see! That's why they are both unleavened, but we will see the meaning of it in just a minute.

Verse 16: “And in the first day there shall be a Holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be a Holy convocation for you. No manner of work shall be done in them, except that which every man must eat, that only may be done by you.”

So whatever work is necessary on a Holy Day, whatever is necessary to provide the meal because it's a Feast day, you go right ahead and do it.

Verse 17: “And you shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread... [here is the reason for the Feast of Unleavened Bread] ...for in this very same day I have brought your armies out of the land of Egypt. Therefore, you shall keep this day... [the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread] ...in your generations as a law forever.”

The meaning of the Feast of Unleavened Bread is when God brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, at least it was the beginning of it, and that's why we have The Night to be Much Remembered. We have already covered that in the part that we did with Abraham.

Verse 18: “In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at sunset... [Hebrew 'ba erev,' which means at sunset and sunset of the 14th begins the 15th] ...You shall eat unleavened bread, until the twenty-first day of the month at sunset”—which ends the 21st day and begins the 22nd day! So, you have the seven complete days!

Verse 19: “Seven days there shall be no leaven found in your houses, for whoever eats that which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a stranger, or born in the land. You shall eat nothing leavened. In all your dwelling places you shall eat unleavened bread” (vs 19-20).

That is clear as can be! Therefore, for seven days we will do as God has said and we will eat unleavened bread. During the Feast of Unleavened Bread as we know from the New Testament, leaven is a type of sin, a type of human nature that sours and puffs up.

Verse 21: “Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel and said to them...” [he is giving them the detailed instructions]: ...‘Draw out and take a lamb for yourselves according to your families, and kill the Passover lamb. And you shall take a bunch of hyssop and dip in the blood that is in the bowl, and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood in the bowl. And none of you shall go out of the door of his house until sunrise” (vs 21-22).

Everett Fox translates it (SB): “Now you are not to go out, any man from the entrance to his house, until daybreak.”

That’s why the blood was put on the lintels and the side posts—to show that they were not to go out of the entrance of their house, the door of his house until daybreak!

Verse 23: “For the LORD will pass through to strike the Egyptians. And when He sees the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not allow the destroyer to come into your houses to strike you. And you shall observe this thing as a law to you and to your children forever. And it shall be when you have come to the land, which the LORD will give you, according as He has promised that you shall keep this service” (vs 23-25). That’s in the 14th day of the 1st month!

Verse 26: “And it will be, when your children shall say to you, ‘What does this service mean to you?’”

This means they were doing the domestic killing of the lambs otherwise the son wouldn’t be able to know what was going on. You can read all about the domestic and the temple Passover in The Christian Passover book. Here is what they were to answer:

Verse 27: “Then you shall say, “It is the sacrifice of the LORD’S Passover... [this also verifies that it was a domestically killed lamb or kid] ...Who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when He struck the Egyptians and delivered our houses.”” And the people bowed their heads and worshiped. And the children of Israel went away and did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron; so they did” (vs 27-28).

You know the rest of the story. At sunrise, and by that time all the remainder that was left over would be burned the skin, the guts, the bones, and so forth of the Passover lamb or kid. There was to be nothing left of it. Sunrise was the signal for them to be able to go out of the door of their houses so that no one would leave early, and no one would leave late. I mean you can look out and you can see when sunrise takes place!

Then they were to gather at Rameses; v 37: “And the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth...”

They had to come from their houses and their houses were in the land of Goshen. They assembled during the day portion of the 14th, spoiling the Egyptians along the way, and they left that night—the Night to be Much Remembered—that He brought them out of the land.

Let’s just cover a little bit in Exo. 16 where God again, gave the Sabbath to the children of Israel. We find that the children of Israel were there on the 15th day of the 2nd month, which was a weekly Sabbath, and the 15th day of the 2nd month they had Sabbath services and God gave them a special message. Here is what God told them.

{The Favorite Version is used for transcript, which is very close The Schocken Bible}

Exodus 16:4: “Then the LORD said to Moses, ‘Behold, I will rain bread from the heavens for you. And the people shall go out and gather a certain amount every day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk in My Law or not. And it shall come to pass on the sixth day, they shall prepare what they bring in. And it shall be twice as much as they gather day by day.’ And Moses and Aaron said to all the children of Israel ‘At sunset...’” (vs 4-6).

Since this is the Sabbath Day message, what does sunset do? Sunset ends the Sabbath Day!

“...‘At sunset, then you shall know that the LORD has brought you out from the land of Egypt. And at sunrise... [which is morning] ...you shall see the glory of the LORD, for He hears your murmurings against the LORD. And what are we that you murmur against us?’ And Moses said, ‘You will see when the LORD shall give you flesh to eat at sunset...’” (vs 6-8)—‘ba erev’; He didn’t give it between noon and sunset!

Why did God not send the quail until sunset? God is Lawgiver, and God does not break His own laws; very simple! How could He teach the people to keep the Sabbath if He Himself broke it?

“...the LORD shall give you flesh to eat at sunset and bread to the full at sunrise, for the LORD hears your murmurings, which you murmur against Him. And what are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD” (v 8).

That certainly is true in many, many cases. You know people accuse God because things don’t go the way they want. Well, God is going to make it go the way He wants. What you need to do is yield your life and yourself to Him and understand that all things do work together for good for those who love God.

Verse 11: “And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ‘I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel. Speak to them, saying, “Between the two evenings [‘ben ha arbayim’ between sunset and dark] ...you shall eat flesh, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread. And you shall know that I am the LORD your God.”’ And it came to pass, at sunset, that the quails came up and covered the camp. And at sunrise the dew lay all around the camp” (vs 11-13).

Sunset ends the day; no doubt about it. God did not send the quail until after sunset!

“...Speak to them, saying, ‘Between the two evenings... [setting times] ...you shall eat flesh...’” (v 12).

Now something very important that we need to understand: you cannot eat the flesh until it arrives, and it didn’t arrive until sunset! Therefore, here is Scriptural proof that ‘ben ha arbayim’—between the setting-times, or between the two evenings—is after sunset, ‘ba erev.’ There is absolutely no doubt about it, no wiggle room concerning it, and no tradition can change it, because these are the words of God that He spoke to Moses.

There is just one thing I need to summarize concerning the Passover of the children of Israel in Egypt—The Passover pictures and commemorates, as we saw there in Exo. 12, the passing over of the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt to spare the firstborn. That was the meaning of the Passover for the Old Testament.

The meaning of the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread beginning with The Night to be Much Remembered, is that God took them out of the land of Egypt. So we have two distinct things.

Now be sure and read in The Christian Passover book about how and why and when the Jews began taking the Passover on the 15th, and I think you will be surprised. What they are calling the Passover is really the beginning of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and you need to ask, and I think we need to really begin to understand this: When have the Jews ever had anything really right? Jesus, soundly, roundly, absolutely condemned the traditions of the Jews in Mark 7!

We also need to understand that in the New Testament Jesus Christ changed the symbols, but He didn’t change the day! He kept the literal 14th Passover, it was not a pre-Passover meal nor some sort of bread and wine ceremony taken from Jewish tradition. He kept the Passover!

Mark 14 helps establish very clearly and shows that in the New Testament they understood, New Testament time during Jesus’ days, they understood that the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread were two different Feasts.

Mark 14:1: “Now, after two days was the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how they might stealthily lay hold of Him and kill Him. But they said, ‘Not during the Feast, lest there be a riot among the people’” (vs 1-2).

Then we come to where Jesus was anointed with the alabaster flask of ointment and you have all the account there concerning what happened. Remember that Jesus said that with desire, He desired to eat this Passover with them before He suffered.

Verse 13: “And He sent two of His disciples, and said to them, ‘Go into the city, and you shall meet a man carrying a pitcher of water; follow him. And whatever house he shall enter, say to the master of the house that the Teacher says, “Where is the guest chamber, where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?’”” (vs 13-14).

Jesus ate the Passover! He had to finish the Old Testament Passover, so in the Passover that Jesus had, the last one that He had was this: they did have the lamb, but then after eating the meal He instituted the New Covenant symbols of the bread and wine. But before that took place there was a foot-washing, and the foot-washing has great and tremendous meaning. I’ve got a whole chapter devoted to that in The Christian Passover book.

Matthew 26:20: “And after evening had come, He sat down with the twelve.”

Mark 14:17: “Now after evening had come, He came with the twelve.”

Remember that ‘ben ha arbayim’ means between the two evenings. The first evening is sunset, and that’s when they were killing the lambs and that’s when the disciples said to Jesus, ‘Where do You desire that we prepare for You to eat the Passover?’ Now the second evening is at the beginning of dark.

What we are dealing with here in Matt. 26:20 and Mark 14:17 is this: He came at the beginning of darkness, not at sunset, and the Apostle Paul talks about in the night that Jesus was betrayed, so the Passover is to be taken not right after sunset, but it’s to be taken when it is getting dark! That’s when it should begin.

Now let’s come down to the section here concerning foot-washing, which is the first part of the New Testament Passover. Since we will cover this in the Passover ceremony service, I'm not going to go through the whole account of it, but we'll just cover the meaning here.

John 13:12: "Therefore, when He had washed their feet, and had taken His garments, and had sat down again, He said to them, 'Do you know what I have done to you? You call Me the Teacher and the Lord, and you speak rightly, because I am. Therefore, if I, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, you also are duty-bound... [Greek there means under obligation] ...to wash one another's feet" (vs 12-14).

Why are you under obligation to wash one another's feet? Because Christ said so!

Now let me tell you the first leaven that leavens getting rid of the Passover is—based on the meaning of the Feast of Unleavened Bread a little leaven leavens the whole lump—the first thing they do is get rid of foot-washing. When they get rid of foot-washing—IF you are talked into getting rid of foot-washing—THEN you have taken a step away from Christ! You are walking away from your part with Him, because Jesus said that if He didn't wash the feet of the disciples, they would have no part with Him. So likewise, IF you do not wash one another's feet, THEN you have no part with Christ! You need to think on that. That's profound, and you need to understand it. God does not give us complicated things to do. He doesn't give us a fancy religious ritual to do.

The Roman Catholic Pope has a perverted ceremony of foot-washing, which he does on the eve before Easter, and he has twelve seminary students sitting on chairs that are elevated and they are all dressed in their robes and white and finery, and there are prayers, incense, the Mass, and the whole thing. Then the pope comes down and he has a special server pouring pot where he pours water over the feet of the seminary students and so then he thinks he is fulfilling what Christ has said. That is perverted nonsense!

Let's understand something important here that is true: the only time that you can wash one another's feet is when you partake of the Passover, and that is in the night of the 14th day of the 1st month, being Nisan according to the Calculated Hebrew Calendar! Here is also another reason why we are duty-bound to wash one another's feet,

Verse 15: "For I have given you an example, to show that you also should do exactly as I have done to you. Truly, truly I tell you, a servant is not greater than his lord, nor a messenger greater than he who sent him. If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them" (vs 15-17).

Now let's stop and think about this for just a little bit. If you know them and don't do them, you are not blessed. If you are not blessed, are you cursed? You need to think about that. If anyone rejects foot-washing on the Passover night, they are setting themselves above Christ, because He said, 'The servant is not greater than his lord.' If you think that you are Christ's, then you are His servant! If you say we don't have to do foot-washing, you are setting yourself above Christ! You need to think about those things.

Brethren, what we do is for eternal life! These things are profound; they are important. They are absolutely necessary and required according to the commandments of Christ!

In the rest of that section, we have the account of Judas Iscariot taking the sop and then going on out and betraying Jesus.

Luke 22:19^[transcriber's correction]: "And He took bread; and after giving thanks, He broke it and gave it to them, saying, 'This is My body, which is given for you. This do in the remembrance of Me.'"

The Passover was a remembrance of the children of Israel's firstborn being spared in the land of Egypt. The Passover is a memorial of the death of Jesus Christ for us. Whose death gives us the forgiveness of sin or passing over of our sins and we who are the Firstborn Church. So, we have the parallel there.

1-Corinthians 11:23: "For I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus in the night in which He was betrayed... [showing they took it at night] ...took bread, and after giving thanks, He broke it and said, 'Take, eat; this is My body, which is being broken for you. This do in the remembrance of Me'" (vs 23-24).

We are to remember everything about Christ, and Christ's entrance into our life begins with His death. Since God came in the flesh and died, that is the greatest thing that God could do and that's why we show forth and remember his death every Passover until He comes.

Verse 25: "In like manner, He also took the cup after He had supped, saying, 'This is the cup of the New Covenant... ['diatheke' meaning covenant, not testament] ...in My blood. This do, as often as you drink it, in the remembrance of Me.'"

Now often means: year-by-year until He comes, because you can't take the Passover on any other day than the Passover Day and you take it on the Passover night. This cannot be misconstrued, as the world's religions do, that they take it whenever they want on Sunday, as many times as they want, and they call it Communion, Eucharist, and/or the Lord's Supper, and Paul made it very clear that when you come together, this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

Yet, people insist on calling it 'the Lord's Supper,' and it just shows that they don't know how to understand the Scriptures the way that they ought to. If Paul says it is not to eat the Lord's supper, it means you don't call it the Lord's Supper, and you don't eat the Lord's supper. The truth is the Lord ate His supper and that was on His last Passover night before instituting the symbols of the bread and wine.

Verse 26: "For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you solemnly proclaim the death of the Lord until He comes."

If it is a memorial, which it is, and if you are announcing and portraying the Lord's death until He comes, this means that the time that you eat it is on the Passover and as often as you do that, year-by-year on the Passover until He comes, you are announcing and portraying the Lord's death.

Now then we have something that we need to do and should all do by the time Passover comes.

Verse 27: "For this reason, if anyone shall eat this bread or shall drink the cup of the Lord unworthily, he shall be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord." Meaning that your sins remain on your head!

Now as I have covered concerning forgiveness of one another. Remember that if you don't forgive from the heart each one of your brother's sins, then God is going to lay back upon you your sins, and therefore you are keeping the Passover in an unworthy manner, and you are guilty of the body and blood of Christ.

Verse 28: "But let a man examine himself..." That's what we need to do before the Passover:

- examine ourselves
- confess our sins to God and as I said in the messages on forgiveness {note our in-depth study on Forgiveness}

- go get squared around with your brother or sister before Passover

"...and let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup accordingly, because the one who eats and drinks unworthily is eating and drinking judgment to himself, not discerning the body of the Lord" (vs 28-29)—which is the forgiveness of sin to put you in right standing before God! You are under obligation to forgive your brothers and sisters their sins so that your sins may be forgiven.

Then we have an argument taking place at Jesus' last Passover. We'll just summarize this section. If they had the argument as to who was to be the greatest:

- Don't you think they had an understanding about what they were to do?
- Don't you think they had an understanding about what was to come?

After all, Christ ordained the twelve apostles!

Now in this particular case, at this time Judas had already left to betray Christ. Then He gave the example that whoever is the greatest is to be your servant. We are not to be like the lords of the Gentiles and the religious leaders of the Gentiles who exalt themselves and rule over people. No, brethren, anyone who is a true minister and servant of God is going to teach you:

- to love God
- to love each other
- that your relationship is directly between you and God the Father through Jesus Christ
- that you have direct access to God the Father in heaven above by just getting on your knees and saying, 'Our Father...'

That's why it's so important and profound! So, let's examine ourselves and make sure that we put everything under the blood of Christ and take the Passover in a worth manner, not being the worthiness that we consider worthy, but the worthiness of Christ imputed to us because of God's:

- mercy
- love
- kindness
- forgiveness

That's what it needs to be!

Now since most of the rest of it here has to do with the Passover that we will take and we will cover these Scriptures for the Passover ceremony, let's come ahead to the time when Jesus is betrayed by Judas.

John 18:1: "After saying these things, Jesus went out with His disciples to a place beyond the winter stream of Kidron, where there was a garden into which He and His disciples entered. And Judas, who was betraying Him, also knew of the place because Jesus had often gathered there with His disciples. Then Judas, after receiving a band and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, came there with torches and lamps and weapons. Jesus, therefore, knowing all the things that were coming upon Him, went forward and said to them, 'Who are you seeking?' They answered Him, 'Jesus the Nazarean.' Jesus said to them, 'I AM.' And Judas, who was betraying Him, was also standing with them. But when He said to them, 'I AM,' they went backward and fell to the ground" (vs 1-6).

I have often wondered what those men who came out to arrest Christ and take Him back felt when they were knocked to the ground backwards by the sound of the words 'I AM'?

You understand that that is the name of God 'I AM THAT I AM' and Christ was showing His power as God in the flesh at this particular point. I guess it didn't bother them, because they got up, and so I suppose while they were lying on the ground:

Verse 7: "Then He asked them again, 'Who are you seeking?' And they said, 'Jesus the Nazarean.' Jesus answered, 'I told you that I AM. Therefore, if you are seeking Me, allow these to go their way'; so that the saying might be fulfilled which He had said, 'Of those whom You have given Me, not one of them have I lost'" (vs 7-9). Then we have a very interesting thing:

Verse 10: "Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it out and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear. And the servant's name was Malchus."

It is very interesting that his name was put in here by John. It's also very interesting that John at this point names Peter as the one who had the sword, whereas Mark, who was the scribe for Peter when he wrote of the account didn't name Peter:

Mark 14:47: "But a certain one of those standing near drew out a sword and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear."

I just imagine, you know, Because Jesus then reached out and touched his ear and it was healed, I've often wondered what Malchus thought all that night. There he was standing there watching the things going on with Jesus and what the chief priests and scribes were doing, and what He was going through and I imagine he would just reach up and touch his ear just to make sure it was still there. If you have your ear cut off, that's quite a thing! To have it instantly healed by Jesus touching it, I just wonder what he thought all that night, and what he thought after he heard that Jesus was resurrected from the dead, because surely, he heard it because he was one of the servants of the high priest. They took Jesus, bound Him, led Him away. All the disciples forsook Him and fled away.

Verse 51: "Now a certain young man was following Him, having a linen cloth wrapped around his naked body; and the young men seized him, but he escaped, leaving the linen cloth behind, and ran from them naked" (vs 51-52).

This is Mark writing about himself, because he was probably at this time just a teenager. Later he was to serve the Apostle Paul, Barnabas and Peter.

John 18:13: "And they led Him away to Annas first; for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. Now, it was Caiaphas who had given counsel to the Jews that it was profitable for one man to perish for the people" (vs 13-14).

Remember, that Jesus told Peter that he would deny Him three times, which he did. We'll see this account here.

Verse 15: "But Simon Peter and the other disciple followed Jesus.... [the other disciple was John; Simon Peter and John] ...And that disciple was known to the high priest... [he was acquainted with him] ...and entered with Jesus into the court of the high priest. But Peter stood outside at the door. Then the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the doorkeeper, and brought Peter in" (vs 15-16).

Verse 18: "Now, the servants and the officers had made a fire, for it was cold; and they were standing there warming themselves, and Peter was also standing and warming himself."

I just wonder what Peter was thinking, because Malchus might spot him. What was he going to do, because Malchus was one of the servants of the high priest?

Verse 19: "Then the high priest questioned Jesus concerning His disciples and concerning His teachings. Jesus answered him, 'I spoke openly to the world; I always taught in the synagogue and in the temple, where the Jews always assemble, and I spoke nothing in secret. Why do you question Me? Ask those who have heard what I spoke to them; behold, they know what I said'" (vs 19-21).

Verse 22—approximately 2:00 a.m. in the morning: "But after He said these things, one of the officers who was standing by struck Jesus on the face, saying, 'Do You answer the high priest in that way?' Jesus answered him, 'If I have spoken evil, testify of the evil; but if well, why do you strike Me?' Then Annas sent Him bound to Caiaphas, the high priest" (vs 22-24). So they brought Him there!

Luke 22:56: "And a certain maid saw him [Peter] sitting by the light; and after looking at him intently, she said, 'Now this one was with Him.' But he denied Him, saying, 'Woman, I do not know Him.' And after a little while, another saw him and said, 'You also are one of them.' But Peter said, 'Man, I am not.' Now, after about an hour had passed, a certain other man strongly affirmed, saying, 'In truth, this one also was with Him, for he is indeed a Galilean.' And Peter said, 'Man, I do not know what you are talking about.’ And immediately, while he was yet speaking, the cock crowed. Then the Lord turned and looked at Peter... [just looking right across however far it was away] ...and Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had said to him, ‘Before the cock crows, you shall deny Me three times’” (vs 56-61). And he did!

John 18:28: “Now then, they led Jesus from Caiaphas... [who was the high priest or the chief priest] ...to the judgment hall...”

What is the judgment hall? That’s the place where Pilate was, and the judgment hall was in Fort Antonia, which was Roman property and that becomes important for us to understand and to understand the next statement.

“...and it was early. But they... [all of the scribes and Pharisees, and priests who brought Jesus there] ...did not go into the judgment hall, so that they would not be defiled, but that they might eat the Passover” (v 28). This shows two things:

1. the Jews ate the Passover on the night of the 15th and they had a temple Passover
This is not all of the Jews, because
2. the greatest number of Jews were keeping the domestic Passover, and they had already eaten it

But here we’re talking about those who kept the temple Passover. Why would they consider themselves being defiled going into the judgment hall which is in Fort Antonia being Roman property? It would be the same as going to another country! Num. 9 says that if you are in another country that you take the Passover in the second month.

They would be defiled by going into the presence of Gentiles, which defiling could not be done away within a 24 hour period, and there was not time for a 24 hour period to take place, a whole day, and to bathe at evening. So, both of those have a factor as to why they didn’t go in, that they might eat their Passover on the night of the 15th. So, they all went in and began to condemn Jesus even more. They sent Jesus into Pilate, they did not go into the judgment hall.

Verse 29: “Therefore, Pilate came out to them and said, ‘What accusation do you bring against this man?’ They answered and said to him, ‘If He were not an evildoer, we would not have delivered Him up to you’” (vs 29-30). There is absolutely no proof in that statement whatsoever, but it’s a claim:

If He were not, we wouldn’t have done it. We are so good and have righteous judgment and can discern good from evil. Pilate, you know us, that we are good people. Do you think that we would have delivered Him up if He were not an evildoer?

Luke 23:5: “But they were insistent, saying, ‘He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all of Judea, beginning from Galilee even to here.’ And when he heard Galilee named, Pilate asked whether the Man were a Galilean; and after determining that He was from Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, since he also was in Jerusalem in those days. And when Herod saw Jesus, he rejoiced greatly; for he had long been desiring to see Him because he had heard many things about Him, and he was hoping to see a miracle done by Him” (vs 5-8).

This is Herod Antipas who was the one who killed John the Baptist. So, he wanted to know.

Verse 9: “And he questioned Him with many words; but He answered him nothing.... [Why should He answer the one who killed John the Baptist?] ...All the while, the chief priests and the scribes stood vehemently accusing Him. Then Herod and his soldiers treated Him with contempt; and after mocking Him, he put a splendid robe on Him and sent Him back to Pilate. And on that same day, Pilate and Herod became friends with each other, because before there was enmity between them” (vs 9-12)—allies in evil!

I wonder how many allies there are in evil who hate each other’s guts, but they are allies and become friends for a mutual evil cause. All you have to do is read the daily paper, you’ll find out who they are.

John 18:31: “Then Pilate said to them, ‘You take Him and judge Him according to your own law.’ But the Jews said to him, ‘It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death’; so that the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which He had spoken to signify by what death He was about to die. Then Pilate returned to the judgment hall and called Jesus, and said to Him, ‘Are You the King of the Jews?’ Jesus answered him, ‘Do you ask this of yourself, or did others say it to you concerning Me?’ Pilate answered Him, ‘Am I a Jew? The chief priests and your own nation have delivered You up to me. What have You done?’ Jesus answered, ‘My Kingdom is not of this world. If My Kingdom were of this world, then would My servants fight, so that I might not be delivered up to the Jews. However, My Kingdom is not of this world” (vs 31-36).

This is why we are not to get involved in straightening out this world through the political process, and we are not to fight the authorities of this world because:

- we belong to the Kingdom of God
- the Kingdom of God is not yet here on the earth

- Christ is not yet here; it is not time for us to fight

When Christ returns, then will we fight, and we will be guaranteed that we will win!

- Do you think for one moment, that all of the political infighting that is done by those that are against abortion that they are going to turn back abortion?
- Do you think that all of the political infighting and things that are done to try and restore America to the Constitution once delivered is going to bring that back?

You need to stop and think, and also realize and understand this: Even if those in America could get back to the Constitution once delivered, and if there were enough time, please understand this: in 200 years we would again be exactly where we are today.

Who is the god of this world? Satan the devil! So, IF you are out there getting involved in these things—please understand very profoundly and importantly—though the United States may have the best constitution of any government on earth, it is still a kingdom of this world, and Satan the devil has infiltrated and taken it and has made it what it is today! It is a kingdom of Satan the devil, not of God!

The only reason we have the peace that we have is because the prophecies have yet to be fulfilled, and the preaching of the Gospel must yet still be done, and so we have this time of peace, security and prosperity; not because of any goodness upon our part, but to give us the time to accomplish and do what God wants us to do. We need to fight the fight of faith, and we need to grow and overcome. We need not to get involved in fighting the fights of this world because the Kingdom of God is not of this world, and we are not of this world!

Verse 37: “Pilate, therefore, answered Him, ‘Then You are a king?’ Jesus answered, ‘As you say, I am a king. For this purpose I was born, and for this reason I came into the world, that I may bear witness to the Truth. Everyone who is of the Truth hears My voice.’ Pilate said to Him, ‘What is Truth?’ And after saying this, he went out again to the Jews and said to them, ‘I do not find any fault in Him. And it is a custom with you that I release one to you at the Passover. Do you then desire that I release the King of the Jews to you?’ But they all shouted again, saying, ‘Not this one, but Barabbas.’ Now, Barabbas was a robber” (vs 37-40). And the other account also shows he was a murderer!

John 19:1: “Then Pilate, therefore, took Jesus and scourged Him”—with a ‘cat-o’-nine tails,’ and it is by His stripes of scourging that we are healed! Let’s see the prophecy of what Jesus was going to go through that was given by Isaiah:

Isaiah 53:3: “He is despised and rejected of men; a Man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief; and we hid as it were our faces from Him, He was despised, and we esteemed Him not. Surely He has borne our infirmities, and carried our sorrows; yet, we esteemed Him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.... [that’s what they said when they taunted Him] ...But He was wounded for our transgressions; He was crushed for our iniquities....” (vs 3-5)—and all the bruising that He took with that ‘cat-o’-nine-tails’ and by His stripes we are healed!

“...the chastisement of our peace was upon Him...” (v 5). In order for us to have peace with God and not receive the chastisement of God upon us, that chastisement came upon Christ!

“...and with His stripes we ourselves are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned each one to his own way...” (vs 5-6).

That’s sure true of what it is with the Church of God today. Everyone has a doctrine:

- doctrine, doctrine, who has a doctrine?
- opinion, opinion, who has an opinion?
- church, church, who has a church?
- website, website, who has a web site?

I mean, everyone has gone his own way. That’s why unless you follow the way of the Lord, unless you follow the Scriptures, you are going your own way. You need to stop and ask:

- What are you really going to have if you insist on your own way?
- Have you ever thought of that?
- What if your own way is contrary to the Scriptures or your own doctrine, or your own pet theories or your own whatever?
- What are you going to receive?

Even Jesus said that many will say to Me in that day, ‘Lord, Lord,’

- Have we not prophesied in your name?
- Have we not cast out demons
- Have we not done many wonderful works?

Jesus will profess to them, ‘I never knew you. Depart from Me you who work lawlessness.’ IF you have your own way, you have the wages of sin, which is death!

Jesus was beaten and scourged and crucified to cover the sins of us going our own way, but that we may repent and go God’s way. After all:

- Is that not what the Passover is all about?

- Is not the renewing of the New Covenant all about living the way of Christ and Christ in us in the New Covenant?
- Is not the foot-washing giving us a part with Christ, renewing our baptism, and showing that we are to walk in the way of the Lord and not our own?

You need to think about it and understand it.

Verse 6: “All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned each one to his own way; and the LORD has laid on Him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and He was afflicted; yet, He opened not His mouth. He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter; and as a sheep before its shearers is dumb, so He opened not His mouth. By oppression and judgment He was taken away; and with His generation who did consider... [that’s the preaching of the Gospel; that’s what declares it] ...that He was cut off out of the land of the living; for the transgression of My people He was stricken. And He made His grave with the wicked, and with the rich in His death; although He had done no violence, nor was any deceit in His mouth. Yet, the LORD willed to crush Him and He has put Him to grief: You shall make His life an offering for sin....” (vs 6-10).

So that our sins could be forgiven! God sent Christ in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin condemned sin in the flesh and condemned human nature in the flesh! The crucifixion of Christ shows the crucifixion of human nature. Now you know why Christ said:

Luke 14:26: “If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father and mother, and wife, and children, and brothers and sisters, and, in addition, his own life also, he cannot be My disciple. And whoever does not carry his cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple” (vs 26-27).

Because what God has done is so great and so fantastic and so marvelous that He would come and die for the sins of His creation. The purpose then is that after the resurrection that there would be the children of God.

Isaiah 53:10: “...He shall see His seed... [that’s us, the seed of God the Father] ...He shall prolong His days,” [through the power of the resurrection and live forever] ...and that the purpose of the LORD might prosper in His hand. He shall see of the travail of His soul. He shall be fully satisfied....” (vs 10-11).

God the Father will see the travail of the soul of Christ as it were and be satisfied, that is the sacrifice that brings satisfaction for the forgiveness of sin.

“...By His knowledge shall My righteous Servant justify many; and He shall bear their iniquities. Therefore, I will divide to Him a portion with the great, and He shall divide the spoil with the strong; because He has poured out His soul to death... [he did and we will see that] ...and He was counted among the transgressors; and He bore the sin of many, and made intercession for transgressors” (vs 11-12).

I want you to understand about Isa. 53 and the crucifixion of Christ and what it has to do with the Passover, what it has to do with our eternal life, and that’s why the Passover and renewal of the New Covenant is so profound and important.

John 19:2: “And after plating a crown of thorns, the soldiers put it on His head; and they threw a purple cloak over Him, and kept on saying, ‘Hail, King of the Jews!’ And they struck Him with the palms of their hands.... [it records in another place that they spit at Him] ...Then Pilate went out again and said to them, ‘Behold, I bring Him out to you, so that you may know that I do not find any fault in Him.’ Then Jesus went out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple cloak; and he said to them, ‘Behold the Man!’” (vs 2-5).

Verse 6: “But when the chief priests and the officers saw Him, they cried aloud, saying, ‘Crucify Him, crucify Him!’ Pilate said to them, ‘You take Him and crucify Him because I do not find any fault in Him.’ The Jews answered him, ‘We have a law, and according to our law it is mandatory that He die, because He made Himself the Son of God’” (vs 6-7).

Verse 8: “Therefore, when Pilate heard this saying, he was even more afraid. And he went into the judgment hall again, and said to Jesus, ‘Where have You come from?’ But Jesus did not give him an answer. Then Pilate said to Him, ‘Why don’t You speak to me? Don’t You know that I have authority to crucify You, and authority to release You?’ Jesus answered, ‘You would not have any authority against Me if it were not given to you from above. For this reason, the one who delivered Me to you has the greater sin.’ Because of this saying, Pilate sought to release Him; but the Jews cried out, saying, ‘If you release this Man, you are not a friend of Caesar. Everyone who makes himself a king speaks against Caesar’” (vs 8-12). Political blackmail; same old tricks that are always used in politics today!

Verse 13: “Therefore, after hearing this saying, Pilate had Jesus led out, and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called the Pavement; but in Hebrew, Gabbatha. (Now it was the preparation of the Passover, and about the sixth hour.).... [about six o’clock in the morning because John is writing here of Roman time] ...And he said to the Jews, ‘Behold your King!’ But they cried aloud, ‘Away, away with Him! Crucify Him!’ Pilate said to them, ‘Shall I crucify your King?’ The chief priests answered, ‘We have no king but Caesar” (vs 13-15).

You need to understand how demonic that saying was. That’s the same as saying we have no king but Satan the devil. Jesus said of those Jews that their father was the devil.

Verse 16: “Therefore, he then delivered Him up to them so that He might be crucified. And they took Jesus and led Him away. And He went out bearing His own cross to the place called The Place of a Skull, which in Hebrew is called Golgotha” (vs 16-17).

Verse 23: “Now the soldiers, after they had crucified Jesus, took His garments and made four parts, a part for each soldier, and the coat also. But the coat was seamless, woven in one piece from the top all the way throughout. For this reason, they said to one another, ‘Let us not tear it, but let us cast lots for it to determine whose it shall be’; that the Scripture might be fulfilled which says, ‘They divided My garments among them, and they cast lots for My vesture.’” (vs 23-24.)

Can God make carnal people do things to fulfill:

- His will?
- His Scripture?
- His Word?

and they not even know it? Those soldiers didn’t know that! They didn’t know that God was causing them to do that, but God did!

Verse 19: “And Pilate also wrote a title and put it on the cross; and it was written, ‘Jesus the Nazarean, the King of the Jews.’ As a result, many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city... [it was on the Mt. of Olives just across from the temple] ...and it was written in Hebrew, in Greek and in Latin. Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, ‘Do not write, “The King of the Jews”’; but that He said, “I am King of the Jews.”” Pilate answered, ‘What I have written, I have written’” (vs 19-22).

Quite a thing, quite a statement, I mean this is something brethren, you need to realize that Jesus went through all of this for us. Now He was mocked.

Luke 23:35: “Now the people stood by observing, and the rulers among them were also deriding Him, saying, ‘He saved others; let Him save Himself, if this is the Christ, the chosen of God.’ And the soldiers also mocked Him, coming near and offering Him vinegar, and saying, ‘If You are the King of the Jews, save Yourself.’ And there also was an inscription over Him written in Greek and Latin and Hebrew: ‘This is the King of the Jews.’” (vs 35-38).

Verse 39: “Then one of the malefactors who was hanging there railed at Him, saying, ‘If You are the Christ, save Yourself and us.’ But the other one answered and rebuked him, saying, ‘Do not even you fear God, you who are under the same condemnation? And we indeed justly, for we are receiving due payment for what we did; but this Man did nothing wrong.’ Then he said to Jesus, ‘Remember me, Lord, when You come into Your Kingdom.’ And Jesus said to him, ‘Truly, I tell you today, you shall be with Me in paradise.’” (vs 39-43).

Now let’s come over here to the last of Jesus’ life on the cross.

Matthew 27:46: “And about the ninth hour, Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, ‘Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?’ That is, ‘My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?’”

That is so profound to understand that Christ had to bear all of our sins alone, and that’s why the darkness covered the earth as it were from the 6th hour until the 9th hour, because God the Father had to leave Christ alone for that period of time. Because He had such a close relationship with God the Father throughout His entire life, felt as though that He were forsaken, and that fulfilled the Scripture that we find in Psa. 22, ‘My God, My God, why have you forsaken Me?’

Verse 47: “And some of those who were standing there heard and said, ‘This one is calling for Elijah.’ And immediately one of them ran and, taking a sponge, filled it with vinegar and put it on a stick, and gave it to Him to drink. But the rest said, ‘Let Him alone! Let us see if Elijah comes to save Him.’ Then another took a spear and thrust it into His side, and out came water and blood. And after crying out again with a loud voice, Jesus yielded up His spirit” (vs 47-50).

It says there in the account in Luke that after crying out with a loud voice, Jesus said, ‘Father, into Your hands I commit My spirit.’ And when He had said these things, He expired, died! Then something really took place, this was something:

Verse 51 “Then suddenly the veil of the temple was ripped in two from top to bottom, and the earth shook, and the rocks were split, so that the tombs were opened. And many bodies of the saints who had died, were resurrected after His resurrection; and they came out of the tombs. Then they entered into the Holy City, and appeared to many. Then the centurion and those with him who had been keeping guard over Jesus, after seeing the earthquake... [because you can see an earthquake] ...and the things that took place, were filled with fear, and said ‘Truly this was the Son of God!’” (vs 51-54).

What a testimony! The Jews rejected Him, the scribes, the Pharisees, the chief priests and the religious leaders rejected Him, but here is a Gentile Italian centurion guard who said, “...Truly, this one is the Son of God!”

Brethren, as we go to take the Passover:

- let’s remember what Jesus did for us
- let’s remember all the things that Jesus went through

so that

- we can come before God and have our sins forgiven
- we can be partakers of the New Covenant through His body and through His blood
- we may have eternal life

Let’s keep the Passover with this in mind and rededicate ourselves in the New Covenant to love God with all our heart, mind, soul, being, and to serve Him in those things that please Him!

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

The Passover Exodus and Trusting God

Fred R. Coulter

The Apostle Paul told Timothy that he was to preach ‘in season and out of season,’ and be urgent in it! So, this is the season of the Passover and Unleavened Bread. Let’s take a look and see some parallels of what God has done in our lives in rescuing us from the world, just how He had to intervene in the lives of the children of Israel when they were in Egypt to bring them out of slavery and out of captivity. We will also answer a few questions as we go along as to the timing of the Passover that they had and so forth.

God performed great miracles, all the plagues and everything that God has the power to do and use, and isn’t it interesting that God uses His creation to show His power? That’s why God has created certain things so magnificently, that we can understand that only by the power of God and by His hand could things come into existence.

Let’s look at the last plague before the plague of the firstborn, and there are some good spiritual lessons for us here.

Exodus 10:21: “And the LORD said to Moses, ‘Stretch out your hand toward the heavens, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, so that one may even feel the darkness.’”

This is a tremendous darkness that came upon them. It’s like a dark, thick fog you could feel. I don’t know how many have been in a mine or in Carlsbad Caverns, or whatever. I haven’t been there, but I hear tell that when you get down below, you have all the lights show the way down there, and then they turn them off and they tell you put your hand in front of your face and see if you can see your hand. You can’t see anything. When I read this and the darkness that was there that could be felt, it reminds me that it had to be some kind of really powerful darkness that God brought upon them.

- What is the epitome of spiritual darkness? Egypt!
- What is the warning that God has always given? Don’t go back to Egypt!
- What is Jerusalem called in the end-times? Sodom and Egypt (Rev. 11)!

What we are seeing today is that the world is going back to Egypt in many, many ways. Egypt was a land of many religions, and it was a land of ecumenism: ‘Your god is ok as long as you say my god is ok. I accept you if you accept me.’ This is exactly where the world is headed!

They had kind of a scare with the pope—Benedict XVI—because they thought for sure that he was going to turn the clock back. Well as it turned out, he is not going to turn it back. He is going to continue with the same things that they are doing, ecumenism with separated brethren, and dialogue with other religions, and he did not take the oath against modernism. That means that he is going to proceed with modernizing whatever they need to do to make Catholicism appear acceptable to people in the world.

That’s all going back to Egypt! God wanted everyone to know that the darkness of Egypt is a spiritual lesson for us.

Verse 22: “And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven. And there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days.”

Remember that some time previous God separated out the land of Goshen where the children of Israel were living, so none of the plagues would come upon them. This didn’t come upon them. They had light, but the Egyptians had darkness, and there is also a lesson in that. Here is how dark it was:

Verse 23: “They did not see one another, nor did any rise from his place, *for three days. But all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.”

There is also a lesson for us in this. Even though we live in a world of darkness, God gives us spiritual light! Only in this case, not just in the land of Goshen, but wherever we are! God also is showing, and Christ said, ‘I am the Light.’ Christ is the One Who gives us the way and shows us how to do it!

Here is what happened, just like it is in the world. How many times have good intentions come along and then people go back on them. This was the story of Pharaoh. God gave him an opportunity, and then he hardened his heart, then God hardened his heart even further! It was kind of like a wrestling match between God, Moses, and Pharaoh.

Verse 24: And Pharaoh called for Moses, and said, ‘You go serve the LORD. Only let your flocks and your herds be left.... [because ours were all killed] ...Let your little ones also go with you.' And Moses said, 'You must give us also sacrifices and burnt offerings so that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God. Our livestock also shall go with us. There shall not be a hoof left behind, for we must take from them to serve the LORD our God. And we do not know with what we must serve the LORD... [or how we are going to serve Him] ...until we come there.' But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go. And Pharaoh said to him, 'Get away from me! Take heed to yourself! See my face no more, for in the day you see my face you shall die.' And Moses said, 'You have spoken well. I will never see your face again'" (vs 24-29).

Then God gave Moses some instructions here. Let's look at this because this becomes quite a thing here.

Exodus 11:1: "And the LORD had said to Moses, 'I will yet bring one plague on Pharaoh and on Egypt. Afterward, he will let you go from here. When he shall let you go, he shall surely thrust you out from here altogether. Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man ask from his neighbor...'" Not borrow (KJV)! They weren't going to pay it back; they took it when they left Egypt!

"...and every woman from her neighbor, articles of silver and jewels of gold" (v 2). So, we see here that with this they had approximately two weeks before they left in being able to get some of the riches! They left with wages, as God says a little later on, for all their slavery that they had for all the years that they were there.

Verse 3: "And the LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. And the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people. And Moses said, 'Thus says the LORD... [here is the last thing that he is saying to Pharaoh]: ..."About midnight I will go out into the midst of Egypt. And all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sits upon his throne, even to the firstborn of the slave-girl that is behind the mill; also the firstborn of beasts. And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it any more. But against any of the children of Israel not even a dog shall move his tongue, against man or beast..." (vs 3-7).

This shows God's protection and God's blessing, and this is why when we have troubles, difficulties and trials, we need to trust God and trust His promises that He gives to us because He says that He will. The reason He did was this:

"...so that you may know that the LORD puts a difference between the Egyptians and Israel" (v 7). Today: between the Church and the world! There is a difference. Then he tells Pharaoh:

Verse 8: "'And all these, your servants... [that were standing there with him when he gave the message to him] ...shall come down unto me... [we will see that happen] ...and bow themselves down to me, saying, "You and all the people that follow you—get out!" And after that I will go out.' And he went out from Pharaoh in flaming anger... [Hebrew: white hot; he was really angry] ...And the LORD said to Moses, 'Pharaoh shall not hearken to you so that My wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.' And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh. And the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart so that he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land" (vs 8-10).

God told them what they were to do. He told them how to prepare for the Passover, the 10th day of the 1st month, select a lamb. There is a parallel that happened in the timing of that with Christ. Then on the 10th day, and when you have the Passover in the middle of the week, the 10th day of the month falls on a weekly Sabbath. They were to select a lamb on the 10th day of the 1st month, and they were to keep it up and they were to have it according to the number of persons in the household, which if a household was too small, then they would share the lamb or the kid goat that they had with their neighbor. He gave specific instructions for it:

Exodus 12:5: "Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year..." Here we have a type of Christ, that is true even though the timing of the New Covenant Passover comes out of the timing of Gen. 15, we still have all the types showing that the true Messiah is going to come, and this is part of it.

"...You shall take it from the sheep or from the goats" (v 5). Not all goats are bad; there are good goats! The good goats are independent. I guess we are good goats, even though we are counted as sheep.

Sidebar: I remember my first experience with goats that was up in Boise and I went out to visit this family and they lived up in the back hills behind Boise and to drive up there was really a trick because it was one of these roads that went up, but down the middle of it was an eroded part where when it rained, it left a trench. You had to be careful how you were going up. I got up there, and they had this big tree, and I thought since it was a pretty warm day, I would park under the tree.

Here I'm in the house and was sitting there and talking and visiting. It was right after I had just got up to Boise and I wanted to meet everybody in the Church. All of a sudden the man got up, ran outside, and I jumped up to see what was going on, and here was a goat on top of my car eating the leaves off the tree. He knew as soon as he heard it, he knew exactly what it was because that's why he didn't park his cars under there. I went out there and he said, 'You better move your car.' Goats know how to get it when the going is tough, and they figure out what they need to do regardless of the circumstances. So, here is a case of good goats. So if we're goats, let's hope we're good goats.

Verse 6: "And you shall keep it up until the beginning of the fourteenth day of the same month."

Since the day begins at sundown, when does the 14th begin? At sundown! If you have read The Christian Passover book you will know that soon as the sun goes down below the horizon, it starts the time period called between the two evenings: Hebrew—'ben ha arbayim'—or as the Schocken Bible has: between the setting times.

They were to "...keep it up until the beginning of the fourteenth day of the same month. And the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it between the two evenings" (v 6)

This is where so many people just go off the deep end, because they say that it's in the evening. Well why can't it be the evening beginning of the 15th? Because you would have kept it beyond the 'until'; that's why. This was quite a spectacular thing. I have often envisioned this:

Whatever their little huts were where they were living in their quarters out there and some of the slave quarters that they now have unearthed around the Sphinx and the great pyramids I can just envision their community and they had someone right up on top of one of these houses posted at different locations wherever the Israelites were, and I imagine that he was watching the sun go down, so that as soon as the sun went down and the 14th began he gave the signal and all of the lambs were killed at the same time. So, this was a spectacular event.

When you understand that there may have been as many as 1.8-million Israelites at that time, this was no small, little task. It was a big task, and it was a huge event, and it was something that God was using to show the people:

- His power
- His forgiveness
- His mercy

And since they were going to leave the land of Egypt they needed to look to God! So, He gave them the instructions what they should do:

Verse 7: "And they shall take of the blood and strike it on the two side posts and upon the upper doorpost of the houses... [the lintel] ...in which they shall eat it. And they shall eat the flesh in that night..." (vs 7-8)—which means if you kill it, when does it have to be? If it's on the 14th, then it's when the 14th begins!

"...roasted with fire, and unleavened bread..." (v 8). *That's why it's an unleavened bread day! If you read the account, you can find nothing in there where they had any leavened bread at all.

"...They shall eat it with bitter herbs. Do not eat of it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but roasted with fire, its head with its legs, and with its inward parts" (vs 8-9).

This means that they had the heart and liver; I don't know if the kidney was still there or not. Obviously you can't roast it with all of the innards in it because the innards would explode and you wouldn't have anything to eat.

Verse 10: "And you shall not let any of it remain until the morning. And that which remains of it until the morning you shall burn with fire."

They weren't allowed to go beyond the morning, but anything that was left, they were to burn!

Verse 11: "And this is the way you shall eat it: with your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. And you shall eat it in trepidation..."—not in haste (KJV)!

A lot of people read that in haste in the King James and misunderstand what it means. They think it means they were eating it right then, eat it in a hurry and left at midnight. We're going to see that the instruction was, they were not to leave their houses until morning, or at sunrise! This means in trepidation!

"...It is the LORD'S Passover" (v 11)—because God passed over the houses where the blood was on the doorposts and the lintel, and spared the firstborn of all the children of Israel!

Verse 12: "For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night... [on the 14th] ... and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast..."

- What is this telling us?
- What is this important for, not only for the Israelites then, but for us today?
 - ✓ God gives us protection against all the satanic powers in the world
 - ✓ God has the victory over them

The satanic powers are those powers that are behind the idols and gods of Egypt!

I remember reading an account of a man who went to India to get enlightened, and he said he didn't think too much about idols until his third trip over there. Then he said when he was meditating on the idol, all of a sudden the power came upon him. It was the power behind the idol or all the demonic powers that are behind all the other gods.

“And I will execute judgment against all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD” (v 12).

This is why God will never compromise and give permission to any man, anywhere, at any time, to combine the true worship of God whether it was the worship of God in the Old Testament at that time; or the worship of God in the New Testament today, to combine the religions of this world with God's way! That's why the whole thing of the ecumenical movement that is in the world is going to lead everybody back to Egypt, spiritually speaking.

Verse 13: “And the blood shall be a sign to you upon the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you. And the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you when I smite the land of Egypt. And this day shall be a memorial to you. And you shall keep it a Feast to the LORD throughout your generations. You shall keep it a Feast as a Law forever” (vs 13-14).

Verse 21: “Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel and said to them...”

Here is Moses giving God's instructions to the elders who went on back and gave the instructions to all the households. This had to take place well before the 10th day of the 1st month so everyone would know and be ready, and they would select that lamb on the 10th day of the 1st month. It all had to be coordinated:

“...‘Draw out and take a lamb for yourselves according to your families, and kill the Passover lamb. And you shall take a bunch of hyssop and dip in the blood that is in the bowl, and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood in the bowl. And none of you shall go out of the door of his house until...” (vs 21-22)—midnight? You understand that's not what he said, but some people claim that.

“...sunrise ...” (v 22)—Hebrew: ‘boqer’: sunrise! Here is the reason:

Verse 23: “For the LORD will pass through to strike the Egyptians. And when He sees the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not allow the destroyer to come into your houses to strike you.”

God Himself personally oversaw this, the destroyers may have been angels. It talks about an angel in another place, but God was the One Who personally did this because it was a confrontation between God and Pharaoh and the gods of Satan that were there in Egypt. This was God's personal business. He says:

Verse 24: “And you shall observe this thing as a law to you and to your children forever.”

Here is the difference between the Passover Day and the 1st day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread! We'll see what the 1st day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread means—though they are one day following the other—they have different meanings because they are different days and you can't combine the two together.

Verse 25: “And it shall be when you have come to the land, which the LORD will give you, according as He has promised that you shall keep this service. And it will be, when your children shall say to you, ‘What does this service mean to you?’” (vs 25-26).

They would obviously ask, because this was to be a domestic sacrifice at their houses and they were to reenact it; they were to take some of the blood and put it on the lintel and the side posts where their houses were when they got into the land.

Verse 27: ““Then you shall say, “It is the sacrifice of the LORD'S Passover, Who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when He struck the Egyptians and delivered our houses.” And the people bowed the head and worshipped. And the children of Israel went away and did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron; so they did” (vs 27-28). If they did what was commanded, what did they do?

- they selected the lamb on the 10th
- they killed the lamb at the beginning of the 14th
- they put the blood on the side posts and on the lintel
- they roasted it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs
- they burned the remains by morning
- they didn't leave their houses until morning

At midnight what happened? God smote all the firstborn of the land of Egypt!

That didn't take place all at once, I'm sure it took place as God oversaw the destroyer going in there and it was kind of like a wave that was coming along, and the screams and the cries because the firstborn were dying. I don't know how many of the children of Israel could hear the sound of it, but I tell you what: if you heard any sound of these people crying and screaming because of the death of the firstborn, do you think you would go out of your house before sunrise, when you were told to stay in your house until sunrise? I don't think so!

Who would guarantee that you wouldn't be killed? God didn't give any guarantee unless you stayed in the house! If we stay right with God, He guarantees that He will be with us; same thing today!

Let's come back to v 15 for the Feast of Unleavened Bread; the Passover Day is one day. The 1st day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread is another day. We'll see the meaning of the 1st day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, which begins on the 15th.

Verse 15: "You shall eat unleavened bread seven days; even the first day you shall have put away leaven out of your houses; for whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel." In other words, you lose contact with God!

Verse 16: "And in the first day there shall be a Holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be a Holy convocation for you. No manner of work shall be done in them, except that which every man must eat, that only may be done by you. And you shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread, for in this very same day I have brought your armies out of the land of Egypt. Therefore, you shall keep this day in your generations as a law forever" (vs 16-17). We have two Feasts back-to-back:

1. the Passover commemorating passing over
2. the Feast of Unleavened Bread pictures beginning to leave Egypt

When they left their houses, after they left them in the morning—which is on the day portion of the 14th—where did they go? They went to Rameses! We figured that for some of them it was as much as 15 or 20 miles away. So, it would take them all day to get there. Other ones who lived in the southern part of Goshen would be able to get to Rameses sooner, but that is where they assembled to leave.

So the meaning of the Passover is passing over and the meaning of the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread—which begins at sunset, the beginning of the 15th—is when they began to leave Egypt! Obviously, they didn't get out of Egyptian territory for some time after that, but if you are on your way with God's protection, it is as good as done.

Then God reiterates it concerning the Feast of Unleavened Bread (v 18). Now we're going to see these two back-to-back.

Verse 29: "And it came to pass that at midnight..."

- Is God on time?

- Does He keep His word? Yes, He does!

"...the LORD struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne, to the firstborn of the captive that was in the prison, also all the firstborn of livestock. And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he and all his servants, and all the Egyptians. And there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not one dead" (vs 29-30).

Here is a fulfilling of a prophecy two weeks before; v 31: "And during the night he sent word to Moses and Aaron ..."—he sent a message. Some say that Moses got up and went to Pharaoh. That's not what Moses told Pharaoh.

Exodus 11:8: "“And all these, your servants, shall come down to me and bow themselves down to me, saying, “You and all the people that follow you—get out!” And after that I will go out.’”

That's what he told them would happen; he wasn't going to go back and see Pharaoh again because Moses said, 'You shall see my face no more again.' They came down; Pharaoh sent a message to Moses and Aaron by night. We know this is after midnight; how long after midnight this took place, we don't know.

Exodus 12:31: "And during the night he sent word to Moses and Aaron saying, 'Rise up! Get away from my people, both you and the children of Israel! And go serve the LORD, as you have said. Also take your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and be gone. And bless me also.'" After all this devastation, I need a little blessing!

What was the signal for the children of Israel to leave their houses? Just figure this: However large the community was where the children of Israel were in the land of Goshen, would they have known when the messengers came down to Moses? Would they have even known it, except those right close by? Of course not! So, they would not be able to determine how soon after midnight they could leave if like some of them said that they left their houses at midnight.

God said don't go out 'til morning! What's the signal for everybody that everyone can understand? When you look out and you see the sun coming up, sunrise! Everybody left their houses at sunrise and began to go and assemble down at Rameses!

Verse 33: "And the Egyptians were urging the people, that they might send them out of the land quickly, for they said, 'We are all dead men.'" [if we don't get them out of here, God's going to kill all of us] ...And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneading troughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders. And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses.... [all the way through they obeyed]... And they asked for articles of silver, and articles of gold, and clothing from the Egyptians” (vs 33-35)—that was just thrust upon them!

The Egyptians probably figured that God put it in their minds, ‘If we give them these things, we’ll save our lives. Give them whatever they want.’ So, the Israelites were loaded down. Can you imagine leaving Egypt with 200 years of wages? The Spanish translation is: ‘they asked and they were given.’ That is probably more correct.

Verse 36: “And the LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, and they granted their request, and they stripped the Egyptians. And the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses...” (vs 36-37).

They all had to get to Rameses. In the Passover book I cover all of this and I’ve got a map showing where Rameses is, showing where the land of Goshen is, and when you’re on foot, you’re walking; it’s going to take some time. So, they all gathered there.

They “...journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, the men being about six hundred thousand on foot, apart from little ones.... [that means men and women there probably together besides the children] ...And also a mixed multitude went up with them, and flocks and herds, very much livestock. And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought out of Egypt, for it was not leavened, because they were driven out of Egypt and could not stay, neither had they prepared any food for themselves for the journey” (vs 37-39). So, they didn’t pack up and take all their goodies!

If we are blessed, whoever those of us who are going to go to a place of safety—if we live long enough to see that—God is not going to have us pack up our ‘Petra box,’ so we can tell the angel, when the angel comes to take us to a place of safety, ‘Opp! Wait a minute. I gotta get my Petra box!’ No! God will provide everything, whatever is necessary!

Verses 40 & 41 is the key that unlocks the timing of Gen. 15!

Verse 40: “Now, the sojourning of the children of Israel in Egypt was four hundred and thirty years, and it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, it was even on that very same day...” (vs 40-41).

Now that’s comparing something 430 years earlier, otherwise:

- Why mention the 430 years referring to what happened in Gen. 15?
- Why mention the selfsame day in reference to something that occurred 430 years before?

The reason is because it’s the same day of the year and of the month that occurred with the promises given to Abraham (Gen. 15)!

“...it was even on that very same day, all the armies of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt” (v 41).

Some say that in observing the Night Much to be Observed, we are adding something to the Word of God. Did we sneak into your house and put it in your Bible last night? No, of course not!

Verse 42: “It is a night to be much observed to the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt...”

When did they come out? The night after the Passover, which was in the 15th day of the 1st month, and the Passover was the 14th.

“...This is that night of the LORD to be observed by all the children of Israel in their generations” (v 42).

It says that He brought them out of the land of Egypt. In other words, they started their trip out (Exo. 12:17). Now we see where it is fulfilled that it happened that way.

Now let’s see what this day commemorates and what Moses told them to remember. I think the movie The Ten Commandments with the Exodus, I think they did a very good job on the timing and showing it, and I thought it was interesting that the Jews who gave the timing in the production of it, had it right.

None of them went out of the houses until morning, they assembled at Rameses, and they left Rameses just as the 14th was ending and the 15th was beginning, and as you will read in the Passover book, it took quite a while for all of them to get out of Rameses. When the children of Israel left, they couldn’t all start marching at the same time and get out at the same time. That’s why they came out by night. I’m sure that this is what Moses said as they were ready to leave and I think that the movie, The Ten Commandments has it right. He stood up there and they actually read the words from the Bible, Exodus 13:3: “And Moses said to the people, ‘Remember this day in which you came out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for the LORD brought you out from this place by the strength of His hand. There shall be no leavened bread eaten. On this day you are going out, in the month Abib” (vs 3-4).

When you follow it through correctly, there are two days, and that follows along with what was given there in Gen. 15.

Numbers 33:1: “These are the journeys of the children of Israel, who went forth out of the land of Egypt with their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron. And Moses wrote their goings out according to their journeys by the command of the LORD. And these are their journeys according to their starting places. And they set out from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month. On the next day after the Passover Day, the children of Israel went out with a high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians, while the Egyptians were still burying all their firstborn...” (vs 1-4).

They were probably burying them as quickly as they could on the day portion of the Passover Day when the Israelites were coming down to Rameses.

“...whom the LORD had stricken among them. The LORD also executed judgments upon their gods. And the children of Israel set out from Rameses and pitched in Succoth” (vs 4-5).

Then it tells the rest of the beginning of their journeys and the crossing of the Red Sea!

Where did God ever say to combine the 14th and the 15th into a one-day observance? Nowhere! Just like, where did God ever say that He abrogated the Sabbath, the 7th day and instituted the 1st day? Nowhere!

Leviticus 23:4: “These are the appointed Feasts of the LORD, Holy convocations, which you shall proclaim in their appointed seasons.... [God doesn’t give us an option] ...In the fourteenth day of the first month, between the two evenings... [‘ben ha arbayim,’ the beginning of the day] ...is the LORD’s Passover” (vs 4-5).

However, later you can combine them together. That’s the missing verse. Don’t they wish it was there? No it isn’t there!

Verse 6: “And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to the LORD. You must eat unleavened bread seven days.” Then the 1st day, the 7th day and so forth!

Num. 28—here’s a profound key. Sometimes you get something so simple or it is so simple that you overlook what it is really telling you. It starts out with the morning and the evening sacrifice, and it gives everything that needed to be there. Then on the Sabbath Day, which is a special sacrifice in addition to the daily sacrifice (v 9).

Then we have the beginning of your months and you have sacrifice there; it lists all the things that would be there and that’s in addition to the daily sacrifice (v 11). What He is doing, He is giving the temple sacrifice for all the days, beginning with:

- the daily sacrifice
- the evening and the morning sacrifice
- the monthly sacrifice
- the Sabbath sacrifice

Numbers 28:16: “And in the fourteenth day of the first month is the Passover of the LORD.”

What does this verse tells us by its conspicuous absence. God never required a temple sacrifice on the Passover Day other than the morning and the evening sacrifice, or if it was on the Sabbath, the Sabbath sacrifice in addition. There is no God-authorized temple sacrifice of Passover lambs on the Passover Day at the temple. This simple little verse wipes out all of the traditions of the Jews in one fell swoop.

Verse 17: “And in the fifteenth day of this month is the Feast. Seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten.” The first day Holy convocation, you shall sacrifice and then on every day!

Verse 24: “In this way you shall offer daily, seven days, the bread of the sacrifice made by fire for a sweet savor to the LORD. It shall be offered besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering. And on the seventh day you shall have a Holy convocation. You shall do no servile work” (vs 24-25).

So, there you have it. One simple verse tells you God never required the Passover lamb to be sacrificed at the tabernacle or the temple, which is a later addition that the Jews added! Now that should help answer all the things concerning some of the recycled heresies; that’s what they are.

Psa. 105—let’s see a little summary of what we have just gone through and what we need to be doing. When they left Rameses, they had to follow God and they had to trust God. God put them through circumstances to test them!

Psalm 105:36: “He also struck all the firstborn in their land, the chief of all their strength. He also brought them out with silver and gold; and there was not one feeble person among their tribes” (vs 36-37).

It’s amazing! God prepared all of Israel though they didn’t know it beforehand that there wasn’t one feeble person and all those who were old had the strength and energy to walk and to go on the exodus; an amazing feat! Does God prepare ahead of time, even though we don’t know that God is doing it? Of course!

Verse 38: “Egypt was glad when they departed... [I guess] ...for the fear of them had fallen upon them. He spread a cloud for a covering..." (vs 38-39).

You're not going to go wandering out in the desert if the sun is going to be beating down on you. Not only did God prepare them so there would be no feeble ones among them when they left, but He also gave them a cloud covering. On a real hot day, aren't you glad when a cloud comes by if you're out there working? Walking is work! Hiking out of Egypt and in the desert was work! So, God put a cloud over them.

"...And fire to give light by night.... [God did this so that they would have trust in Him; that they would look to Him] ...The people asked, and He brought quail, and satisfied them with the bread of heaven" (vs 39-40). Even in the wilderness, God is able to provide; nothing is impossible for God!

Verse 41: "He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river, for He remembered His Holy Word unto Abraham His servant" (vs 41-42).

- their exodus goes back to His promise to Abraham
- the Passover that we have today, goes back to Abraham

Just like the children of Israel were brought out of the land of Egypt on the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, that pictures our coming out of the world, too.

Verse 43: "And He brought forth His people with joy, and His chosen with singing, and gave them the lands of the nations; and they inherited the labor of the people" (vs 43-44).

Therefore, when they harvested the sheaf of the firstfruits, because when we have a Passover on the Sabbath Day, the day following the Passover is the day of the Wave Sheaf Offering and that's through Joshua 5 God specifically said in Lev. 23, 'You shall not eat any bread, nor grain, nor parched grain until you come into the land and when you harvest its harvest, cut the wave sheaf, then you can eat the grain! Josh. 5 recorded that they did. What happened on the day after they did that? The manna ceased! No more bread from heaven! I imagine they were happy that they had other things to eat. Nevertheless, that's all part of the covenant that God gave in the promise to Abraham!

Notice why He did this; "...they inherited the labor of the people" (v 44). Why has God called us out of the world? Remember in the final prayer that Jesus gave (John 17)? They are not of the world even as I am not of the world! He calls us out of the world. Why?

Verse 45: "So that they might take heed to His statutes and keep His laws. Praise the LORD!" So we can love and worship God!

Psa. 108—here is what all of this is to do for us. This shows the kind of heart, mind and attitude that we need to have.

Psalm 108:1: "O GOD, my heart is fixed..."

God doesn't want us changing with the vicissitudes of the world. Just like the children of Israel even though God did everything for them, led them out, what was the first thing that they did when Moses wasn't around? They went and made a golden calf and worshipped it! Their hearts weren't fixed. Their hearts were still back in Egypt!

This is something that's important for us. The only way that we come to have our hearts fixed with God is to love God and keep His commandments! That's why in keeping the Passover and Feast of Unleavened Bread, it gives us a renewal to dedicate ourselves so that our hearts are fixed! Then we won't be changeable. Some people might accuse us of stubbornness or hardheadedness, or whatever, but IF it is stubbornness for God and hardheadedness for God, that's good!

"...I will sing and give praise, even with my glory" (v 1).

Verse 4: "For Your mercy is great above the heavens..." That's what God is showing with the Passover and the sacrifice of Christ, and that through His grace He gives us the opportunity to have direct access to God's mercy.

"...and Your Truth reaches unto the clouds" (v 4). That's what we are after, brethren! That's what God wants us to show, teach and do the Truth of God. Everything is based on the love of God and the Truth of God.

Verse 6: "So that Your beloved may be delivered."

- Isn't that what the Feast of Unleavened Bread is all about?
- being delivered from sin?
- being delivered from self?
- being delivered from Satan?

Yes, indeed!

"...save with Your right hand, and answer me. God has spoken in His Holiness: 'I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and I will measure out the valley of Succoth'" (vs 6-7).

Verse 11: "O God, have You not cast us off? And, O God, will You not go out with our armies?... [this pictures God being with us; God being in us] ... Give us help from trouble, for vain is the deliverance of man. Through God we shall do mighty things... [it's by His power, His might, His way] ...for it is He who will tread down our enemies” (vs 11-13).

So remember this: Whatever difficulty, whatever problem you have, God is there to help you! He may let you go a long time before He intervenes. You may have a trial and difficulty, but sooner or later if God is dealing with you, He is going to bring you to the conclusion that He wants you to come to, your trust in Him!

Psalm 112:1: “Praise the LORD! Blessed is the man who fears the LORD... [the fear of the LORD is to lead to the love of the LORD] ...who delights greatly in His commandments.”

- How many people are out there in the world?
- What is the carnal mind?
- Not subject to the Law of God neither, indeed, can be!

They are all out there making their excuses why they won't obey God, regardless of what they are. Here is promise:

Verse 2: “His seed shall be mighty upon earth; the generation of the upright shall be blessed. Wealth and riches shall be in his house ...” (vs 2-3).

What I want you to think about is when you go through and read some of these things:

- look at the spiritual fulfillment of it
- see what Jesus said
- think about the house that we are going to be in

On the Passover night Jesus talks about the Father's house!

- What is that going to be like?
- How much wealth is going to be there?

First of all, you start off that you're going to live forever!

- How much is that worth? You can't measure that in terms of physical wealth or anything like that!

John 14:1: “Let not your heart be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in Me. In My Father's house are many dwelling places; if it were otherwise, I would have told you. I am going to prepare a place for you.... [God is preparing that place; God is making that place] ...And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again...” (vs 1-3).

This is why it is so important for us to understand that every word of God is God-breathed, meaning that it came forth out of the mouth of God and that His inspiration to those who wrote it was a special inspiration above and beyond what we get. We're to get inspiration from what God embedded in the words and the inspiration out of it. But they were inspired to write it this way. Every word of God is true! We can count on it. Christ is coming again!

Verse 6 tells us all about Passover, the days of Unleavened Bread and leading up to the first resurrection:

Verse 6: “Jesus said to him, ‘I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life; no one comes to the Father except through Me.’”

If we understand that and live God's way and realize that back here in Psa. 112 that God says to those who keep His laws and commandments and fear Him; we can say, love Him!

Psalm 112:3: “Wealth and riches shall be in his house....”

- What is the wealth and riches that God is going to give us?
- What did God tell Abraham?

He took him out at night and said, ‘You look at the stars and count them if you can; so shall your seed be’ (Gen 15)!

The wealth of the universe is going to be given to God's Family, and those who are the firstborn. What is it that the firstborn always is given in the inheritance? A double portion! Being in the Church of the Firstborn, we are going to have a double portion forever! It is greater than wealth and riches here:

Verse 4: “To the upright there arises light in the darkness... [just like the pillar of fire at night that gave light to them] ...he is gracious and full of compassion and righteousness.” That's how God treats us!

Think about it this way: We know that in keeping the commandments of God it says there is great reward; that is true. But IF we keep the commandments of God—first of all because we love Him and we know He loves us—we are establishing the commandments of God through a personal relationship with God rather than just the statutes and codes that are written. That becomes far more meaningful! Yes, indeed!

Verse 7: “He shall not be afraid of evil tidings; his heart is steadfast, trusting in the LORD. His heart is established; he shall not be afraid until he sees his desire upon his enemies” (vs 7-8).

When are we going to see the desire of God and God's vengeance upon the enemies? When we are all standing on the Sea of Glass and the seven last plagues are poured out on the earth and we can see it! I tell you, that's something; put all these things together!

As we are going through these things, let's also look and see how that every one of the things that we are covering as described in the Scriptures is putting out the leaven of human nature and self!

Psalm 46:1—this is how it happens when you are trusting God: “God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble... [whatever the trouble is, God is there] ...Therefore, we will not fear, though the earth should change and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea” (vs 1-2).

That's how God wants us to have trust and faith in Him, and that's why the Feast of Unleavened Bread, to get rid of trust in self. Now notice how this goes into the Kingdom of God.

Verse 4: “There is a river whose streams make the City of God rejoice, the Holy dwelling place of the Most High. God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved; God shall help her at the approach of the morning. The nations raged, the kingdoms were shaken; He uttered His voice, the earth melted” (vs 4-6).

Those are powerful words! God is going to intervene and do this. This is something!

Verse 7: “The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.”

Romans 8:31: “What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?”

Psalm 46:8: “Come, behold the works of the LORD who makes desolations upon the earth.” That's why all of these things have happened!

Sidebar: I saw a very interesting picture. It was taken back when Napoleon Bonaparte took a small expeditionary force and went down into Egypt and conquered it. I forget the exact year it was; it was like 1796, and he stood there and looked at the Sphinx, and I have never seen a picture like this. Do you know how high the level of the ground was at the time he was there to look at the Sphinx? It was clear up to the neck of the Sphinx!

I believe God has done two things:

1. He has inspired that men know more about the heavens than ever before
2. He has inspired that men know more about the production of human life and how profound and precious that is

For those who have eyes to see, and ears to hear, they will learn!

He has also given us another witness. They are excavating all these places. What is the Sphinx now? Well, they got all the dirt down from it, they've got even the villages where the workers worked, they've got that all excavated out. Why? Not to show how great Egypt was, but to show how absolutely sinful, inadequate and occult that Egypt was and why God judged it!

But human beings don't get the point. You can go to Las Vegas and here is the Luxor Motel in the shape of a Pyramid and those who go in there actually go through some modified religious rituals that those who went into the Egyptian religions would go through! So, we have the same thing in Psa, 46. God has separated us from it, and here is what He is going to do.

Verse 8: “Come, behold the works of the LORD who makes desolations upon the earth, Who makes wars to cease to the ends of the earth [the ultimate end] ...He breaks the bow and cuts the spear in two; He burns the chariots in the fire” Tie in Rev. 8, 9, 16 & 19 in conjunction with that!

Verse 10: ““Be still, and know that I am God! I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.” The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah” (vs 10-11).

That's why having God protect us and watch over us and that's what is pictured with the Feast of Unleavened Bread, as well.

Psa. 27 brings this all together. Notice how this ties in with the theme of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, leaving Egypt and all of that:

Psalm 27:1: “The LORD is my Light... [that's what God provided wasn't it] ...and my salvation...” He brought them out of Egypt; same thing with us today:

- the Lord is our Light
- He has brought us out of Egypt
- He is our salvation

“...whom shall I fear? The LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?” (v 1).

What God wants us to do is to take all of our sins and problems and the difficulties that we have, bring them to light before God and have them put in proper perspective that they are not as great as they appear to us when we ask God to fight our battles for us. That's why God does not want us to be held down by any of the problems of sin. That's why He has given the Feast of Unleavened Bread. That's why Jesus said on the Passover night, ‘Now you are clean through the words which I have spoken.’ That's really profound! Don't be afraid of anything!

Verse 2: “When the wicked, my enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.” That will happen!

I look back and see many different things how God has intervened for many, many brethren in their lives, and I see it in my life, that God has just intervened and caused people to just turn away. He has fought the battles for us!

Notice how much confidence we are to have IF God is our refuge and we are trusting in Him:

Verse 3: “Though an army should encamp against me, my heart shall not be afraid; though war should rise against me, even then I will be confident. One thing I have desired from the LORD, that I will seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life...” (vs 3-4).

See how that ties in with the other Psalm and John 14? That’s our desire! This is what we are to set our heart and mind on, because this is what God is going to do to fulfill for us!

Talk about the enemy in the days of Hezekiah, what happened? The Assyrians came down and were mopping up everybody and even sent one of the ambassadors to go to the walls of Jerusalem and tell the people:

Don’t believe anything that Hezekiah is going to tell you that God is going to fight for you, because look what we have done to all these other countries. We have wiped them out with our gods.

*Hezekiah took it to God and said, ‘Yeah, LORD, what he says is true, that’s what they have done.’ God said, ‘I’ll fight for you.’ If we trust in God:

- He’ll fight for us
- He’ll bring it to pass

This is our focus, to be in the house of the Lord!

Verse 4: “...to behold the beauty of the LORD and to inquire in His temple, for in the time of trouble He shall hide me in His pavilion... [those are the wings of an eagle (Psa. 91)] ...in the secret place of His tabernacle He shall hide me; He shall set me upon a Rock” (vs 4-5). That’s what He’s going to do. That’s tremendous!

Verse 11: “Teach me Your way, O LORD, and lead me in a level path because of my enemies. Deliver me not over to the will of my enemies, for false witnesses have risen up against me, and he that breathes out violence...” [that’s a prophecy of what happened to Christ] ...I would have fainted unless I had believed that I would see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living. Wait for the LORD; be of good courage... [not discouraged] ...and He shall make your heart strong; yea, wait, I say, wait on the LORD” (vs 11-14). That’s what God wants us to do. That’s how great it is!

Let’s see how we are to trust in God! That’s what the Feast of Unleavened Bread pictures. The children of Israel had to trust God for everything! Had to trust God”

- to take them out of Egypt
- to go through the Red Sea
- to give them food
- to give them water

all in the wilderness

- to keep the cloud-cover in the daytime
- to keep the pillar of fire by night
- they had manna for 40 years

You would think that after 40 years it would be so ingrained in their brains which day was the Sabbath, right, that they would never forget it. Human beings are not like that.

- that’s why we have to be renewed
- that’s why we have to be reinvigorated every year
- that’s why God has the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread

So, we can take all of the things and all of the mistakes and everything that has been done this past year—even though we repented of them along the way—and we can know that we are starting anew!

- that God has called us
- that God has loved us
- that He is going to fight for us

Psalm 62:1: “Only for God does my soul wait in silence; from Him comes my salvation. He only is my Rock and my salvation; He is my fortress; I shall not be greatly moved. How long will you imagine mischief against a man? You shall be slain, all of you; you shall be like a bowing wall and as a tottering fence” (vs 1-3).

All of the things that are happening in the world are building to the crescendo. They are building the wall with untempered mortar and when it falls it is going to be breathtaking!

Verse 4: “They only consult to cast him down from his great height; they delight in lies; they bless with their mouth, but inwardly they curse. Selah.... [that’s just the way it is in the world] ...but inwardly they curse. Selah. My soul, wait in silence for God alone; for from Him comes my hope. He only is my Rock and my salvation; He is my strong tower; I shall not be moved” (vs 4-6). You can come to that conviction of mind:

- through the Spirit of God
- through the Word of God

- through the conviction that comes of it

Verse 7: "In God is my salvation and my glory, the Rock of my strength; my refuge is in God."

Verse 8 is the key and this is one of the lessons that we need to learn continuously in life, but also to have it during the Feast of Unleavened Bread:

Verse 8: "Trust in Him at all times, you people..."

You can tell when you are not trusting in God at all times. That is when you try and do something and God is not behind it and it keeps failing; set it aside, take another course.

- instead of seeking your way, seek God's way
- instead of seeking what you want, seek what God's wants to give you

That's what to do!

Verse 8: "Trust in Him at all times, you people; pour out your heart before Him; God is a refuge for us. Selah."

Psalm 60:11: "O give us help against our foe, for vain is the help of man. Through God we shall do great things, for it is He who shall tread down our enemies" (vs 11-12).

- take this posture
- claim these promises in your prayer and study
- beseech God

Here is what's important. Here is how to overcome any lack of faith that you may have toward that. God cannot lie! God will not lie! So when you go before God, you claim the promises that He has given, and remind God that He does not lie, cannot lie and He has promised. But you have to trust in Him and wait on Him, and He will provide in time, and that time will be the time that He determines.

Psalm 62:9: "Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie..."

I love it when you look around and see all these important men and all these important institutions, whatever, and you read here what the Bible says. They are not what they appear to be. That's what God tells us.

"...when weighed in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity. Trust not in oppression, and do not take pride in stolen goods; if riches increase, do not set your heart upon them.... [keep your heart set upon God] ...God has spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongs unto God. Also unto you, O LORD, belongs mercy: for you will render to every man according to his work" (vs 9-12).

God is our Rock and Christ is the Rock and upon Him we are to build!

Matt. 7:24 doesn't include just what Jesus said verbally while He was in the flesh on the earth, because He was the Lord God of the Old Testament. Whenever we read anything in the Old Testament, they are the words of God, and fulfills what Jesus said, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God, shall man live.'

Matthew 7:24: "Therefore, everyone who hears these words of Mine and practices them..." Like He said, 'I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life.'

"...I will compare him to a wise man, who built his house upon the rock... [Christ is the Rock] ...and the rain came down... [think of the weather channel and some of the movies that they show] ...and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house..." (vs 24-25) This means:

- you are guaranteed trials
- that's how you are going to build spiritual character
- it teaches you to trust in God.

"...but it did not fall, for it was founded upon the Rock" (v 25). That's what we need to do to build our lives!

Notice those who don't do it; v 26: "And everyone who hears these words of Mine and does not practice them shall be compared to a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand." That's always tempting, isn't it?

I know down where we live we have a city called Sand City, right next to Monterey and Seaside. All the contractors love to build there because sand is so easy to work with, because you can pour the foundation easy, it's easy to move and it compacts and everything and it looks really, really, really good.

Just like this wonderful subdivision that was up in Utah, and they had a beautiful mountain scene and the river ran right in front of them and it was just gorgeous and they lived there for many years and enjoyed it, until one year when the rains came, the flood came, and the wind blew and washed away all those houses! They showed it on the weather channel, and I tell you there is nothing more heart-wrenching, and that gets you in the pit of the stomach more than to see someone's house just go!

Well now there is a good lesson for us isn't there?
Yes! We need to build upon the Rock.

Verse 27: "And the rain came down, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell, and great was the fall of it."

How are you going to repair it? There is no repair; it's gone! This is why we need to trust in God!

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

Events Leading Up to Jesus' Last Passover

Fred R. Coulter

Greetings, brethren!

This is the first time in ten years that we've had a Passover in the middle of the week. On rare occasions there's that ten year gap where there are no Passovers in the middle of the week. However, including this year, in the next five years, there will be three Passovers with the Passover in the middle of the week.

We want to look at some of the events leading up to the Passover. We will see that the Passover Sabbath—or the Sabbath before Passover—is the 10th day of Nisan, and is the day that the Passover lamb was to be selected. We will see that Jesus was selected on that Sabbath before the Passover.

Let's begin and we'll do a study covering parts of the last six days leading up to Jesus' last Passover. You can follow through in A Harmony of the Gospels!

John 12:1: "Now, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was who had died, and whom He had raised from the dead. There they made a supper for Him, and Martha served; and Lazarus was one of those who sat with Him" (vs 1-2).

This anointing of Jesus was the first of two. We will see a little later in Matt. 26 that two days before the Passover He was anointed in the house of Simon the leper. So, the account goes on showing:

Verse 3: "Mary then took a pound of pure spikenard ointment worth a great price and anointed Jesus' feet, wiping His feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the aroma of the ointment."

Then Judas Iscariot brought up a problem of waste, v 5: "Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred silver coins, and given to the poor?" Now he said this, not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and carried what was put in it" (vs 5-6)—the incidentals for Christ and the apostles! He carried the bag for payment for it.

Judas was snitching out of the bag himself, and he wanted to sell the ointment to put the money back in the bag. But Jesus said:

Verse 7_[transcriber's correction]: "... 'Let her alone; she has been keeping it toward the day of My burial.

For you have the poor with you always...'" (vs 7-8).

Outside a crowd was gathering, because just a few days before Jesus raised Lazarus from the dead. The people wanted to see Lazarus and Jesus. Even the scribes, Pharisees and priests were wanting to kill not only Jesus, but Lazarus.

Verse 9: "Then a great crowd of the Jews found out that He was there. And they came, not only because of Jesus, but also that they might see Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead. But the chief priests took counsel in order that they might kill Lazarus also" (vs 9-10).

We're going to see that many of the things that were done leading up to the time two days before the Passover, that Jesus brought great confrontation to the religious leaders, the scribe, the elders, the Sadducees, the Pharisees and challenged them. What they did, they made a religion overlapping and coming around all the laws and commandments of Moses. That was basically what is known today as Judaism!

Here's why they wanted to kill Lazarus, v 11: "Because by reason of him, many of the Jews were leaving them and believing in Jesus."

All of this took place on the 8th of Nisan, and of course, the day begins at sunset. That was the 1st month and the 8th day, Wednesday night. Then Thursday, the day portion we have quite a few things happen here.

Verse 12: "On the next day, a great crowd of people who had come for the Feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming into Jerusalem, took branches from palm trees and went out to meet Him, and were shouting, 'Hosanna! Blessed is He Who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel'" (vs 12-13).

Quite a thing! This was not Palm Sunday! Nor was it a Palm Sabbath! This was a Thursday. Think of this for a minute. If this was happening on the Sabbath, don't you think that the religious authorities would attack the disciples and the people for breaking off branches on the Sabbath and strewing them in the road? Of course they would have!

Verse 14: "Now, after finding a young donkey, Jesus sat upon it, exactly as it is written."

Many Scriptures are fulfilled! How are they being fulfilled exactly the way that should be, by the events that were taking place. I am sure that many of the angels were orchestrating the timing of these events. God was sending them also to inspire the people to come to Jerusalem.

Verse 15: “Fear not, daughter of Sion. Behold, your King comes, sitting on a colt of a donkey.’ And His disciples did not understand these things at the beginning; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about Him, and that they had done these things to Him. Then the group that was with Him when He called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, testified of what they had seen” (vs 15-17). So, this was a marvelous thing!

Verse 18: “Because of this, the people also met Him, for they had heard of this miracle that He had done.”

Notice why the Pharisees were wanting to get rid of Jesus and Lazarus:

Verse 19: “Then the Pharisees said among themselves, ‘Do you see that we are not gaining in any way? Look! The world has gone after Him.’”

That’s quite a thing out there. They were afraid of losing power! Isn’t that true? The establishment: Once it’s established and corrupted, it does not want the truth, where in religion or government. People say they want the truth, but they really don’t want the Truth of God, because that would convict them of their sins.

Matt. 21—here we see the beginning of another confrontation that Jesus had with the religious authorities. It describes the Pharisees and also the Herodians. This shows where they got the donkey and the colt and brought them to Jesus.

Matthew 21:12: “And Jesus went into the temple of God and cast out all those who were buying and selling in the temple; and He overthrew the tables of the money exchangers, and the seats of those who were selling doves. Then He said to them, ‘It is written, “My house shall be called a house of prayer,” but you have made it a den of thieves’” (vs 12-13).

That’s quite a thing, and that’s exactly how it is in religion today, and exactly how it is in the government today, and how these things are and how they take place.

So, this last week of Jesus was really very powerful. You know that the angels of God were involved, Satan and the demons were involved, and Jesus and the apostles were involved.

Luke 19:41: “And when He came near and saw the city, He wept over it, saying, ‘If you had known, even you, at least in this your day, the things for your peace; but now they are hidden from your eyes” (vs 41-42).

The spiritual blindness does not equal physical blindness. Spiritual blindness is that they can’t see the Truth and they can’t understand the Truth. As Jesus said, ‘The blind are leading the blind and they will both fall into the ditch.

Verse 43: “For the days shall come upon you that your enemies shall cast a rampart about you, and shall enclose you around and keep you in on every side, and shall level you to the ground...” (vs 43-44). He’s talking about the city of Jerusalem, absolutely true, that happened.

“...and your children within you; and they shall not leave in you a stone upon a stone, because you did not know the season of your visitation.’ Then He went into the temple and began to cast out those who were selling and those who were buying in it, saying to them, ‘It is written, “My house is a house of prayer”...” (vs 44-46).

Now let’s see what He did in the account of Mark; this becomes quite an important thing here.

Sidebar: when first studying out the last ten days of Jesus’ life, that led to understanding that only in Mark did the cursing of the fig tree cover a two-day period. I had two chronologies, that in my first Passover season in 1965 in Boise, Idaho, I wanted to do the last ten days of Jesus’ life.

I had notes from Dr. Herman Hoeh and Dale Hampton. I was using those as a guide for what I was to bring. I found out that they were off, and I couldn’t figure out where it was. So, I took a piece of paper and marked Matthew at the top and took other pieces of paper and had Mark, Luke and John.

I started the last six days before the Passover and went through everything and wrote down all of the Scriptures, which years later became incorporated into A Harmony of the Gospels, The Last Ten Days of Jesus’ Life.

Here in Mark 11 we find that the cursing of the fig tree occurred over a two-day period. When you look at the account in Matthew and Luke it looks like it’s the same day, but it’s not.

Mark 11:11: “And Jesus entered Jerusalem and went into the temple; and because the hour was already late, after looking around at everything there, He went out to Bethany with the twelve. And in the morning, after they left Bethany, He became hungry. Then, seeing a fig tree afar off that had leaves, He went to it to see if He might possibly find something on it. But after coming to it, He found nothing except leaves because it was not yet the season for figs. And Jesus responded by saying to it, 'Let no one eat fruit from you any more forever!' And His disciples heard it" (vs 11-14).

Quite an interesting thing! They didn't know the season of the time of Jesus Christ. This fig tree pictures the way of Judaism. It didn't bring forth any fruit. Why? Because the traditions of Judaism overlaid everything of the Scripture and blinded the people!

Verse 15: "Then they came into Jerusalem; and after entering the temple, Jesus began to cast out those who were buying and selling in the temple; and He overthrew the tables of the money exchangers and the seats of those who were selling doves. Moreover, He did not allow anyone to carry a vessel through the temple. And He taught, saying to them, 'Is it not written, "My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations"? But you have made it a den of robbers.' Now, the chief priests and the scribes heard this, and they sought how they might destroy Him; for they feared Him, because all the multitudes marveled at His teaching. And when evening came, He went out of the city" (vs 15-19).

- cursed the fig tree
- went into the temple
- did the teaching
- casting out all of the animals
- overthrowing the tables
- castigating the chief priest, scribes and Pharisees

Then when it was evening He went out and back to the Mt. of Olives!

Verse 20: "And in the morning..." It was cursed one day; they went into the temple. They left and went out of the city and in the morning:

"...as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots" (v 20). So, it was in the morning, day two!

Verse 21: "Then Peter remembered and said to Him, 'Look, Master! The fig tree that You cursed has dried up.' And Jesus answered and said to them, 'Have faith from God'" (vs 21-22).

This is an interesting statement because in the Greek it means have the faith of God, which means that faith comes from God. We know that in the New Testament it's one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit. This also is what it talks about in Gal. 2, but through the righteousness of the faith of Jesus are we justified! This is a gift of God.

There's always a certain amount of faith that people can have, because people believe things. But to have a spiritual conviction of faith, that must come from God and His Spirit, not from within us.

Verse 23: "For truly I say to you, whoever shall say to this mountain, 'Be taken away and be cast into the sea,' and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that what he said will take place, he shall have whatever he shall say."

There's one caveat that Jesus gave in the model prayer: the will of God! If it is the will of God! It's not that people will go around and start casting out mountains and hills and all of that sort of thing. But something that is harder than that to do is to convert the human mind! That takes the faith of Jesus Christ.

Verse 24: "For this reason I say to you, all the things that you ask when you are praying, believe that you will receive them, and they shall be given to you."

That's a wonderful thing to understand. Look back at your life, according to the will of God the things that you have asked for, God has answered and given. Maybe not necessarily in the same measure that you might necessarily have particularly wanted, but nevertheless, God answers those prayers!

There will even come a time when there will be something happen that you thought of, kind of in a glancing thought, but didn't think too much about it, and sometime later you look and back and say, 'God answered that thought!'

Eph. 3—this is the kind of faith that we are to have, which comes from God. He's not going to give us miracles to do so that we can show off. There has to be a purpose for everything that we ask for, according to the will of God. But notice this promise:

Ephesians 3:20: "Now, to Him Who is able to do exceeding abundantly..." That's also referring to the time of the resurrection and the time when we will be in the Kingdom of God with the fullness of God!

"...above all that we ask or think, according to the power that is working in us" (v 20). So, when Jesus said, "...Have faith from God"—or of God—that's what He meant!

Here's another important principle that He was teaching to His apostles just before He was getting ready to be crucified:

Mark 11:25: "But when you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive..." It says in another place, 'work it out with the one with whom you have a difficulty!'

"...so that your Father Who is in heaven may forgive you your offenses" (v 25). That's a very important thing to understand! The world likes to remember and hate! God wants:

- love
- repentance
- mercy
- reconciliation
- forgiveness
- that's the whole story of the New Testament
- that's the whole purpose as why Christ came

Verse 26: “For if you do not forgive, neither will your Father Who is in heaven forgive you your offenses.”

Verse 27: “Then they came again to Jerusalem. And as He was walking in the temple, the chief priests and the scribes and the elders came to Him; and they said to Him, ‘By what authority are You doing these things?....’” (vs 27-28).

You have to have authority to come into the Temple of God. Thing about what He was doing:

- casting out the animals
- casting out the moneychangers
- overturning the tables
- teaching the people

They wanted to know what authority, because Jesus didn't get it from the high priest or the elders. Who did He get it from? “...By what authority are You doing these things?”

Verse 29: “Then Jesus answered and said to them, ‘I also will ask you one thing, and if you answer Me, I will also tell you by what authority I do these things.’”

Good lesson: sometimes it's best to answer with a question. Why did He do it this way? Because He knew their hearts! He knew that they were after Him.

Verse 30: “‘The baptism of John, was it from heaven or from men? Answer Me.’ And they reasoned among themselves, saying, ‘If we say, “From heaven,” He will say, “Why then did you not believe him?” But if we say, “From men?”; they feared the people, because everyone held that John was indeed a prophet. And they answered Jesus by saying, ‘We do not know.’....” (vs 30-33). That was an outright lie! They knew it was from God!

“...Then Jesus answered and said to them, ‘Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things’” (v 33). Quite amazing, indeed, some of the confrontations that are coming along!

The timeframe that we have is the 10th day of the 1st month, John 12, and this will be very interesting indeed! This is quite a chapter covering many things. This is why we have the four Gospels, to put it all together so that we make sure that we have everything and all the facts that we need.

John 12:20: “Now there were certain Greeks among those who had come up to worship at the Feast. And these came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee; and they asked him, saying, ‘Sir, we desire to see Jesus.’ Philip came and told Andrew, and Andrew and Philip in turn told Jesus. But Jesus answered them, saying, ‘The time has come for the Son of man to be glorified’” (vs 20-23). Remember, this on the 10th day of the 1st month!

That's today, the Sabbath before the Passover. But the sequence was a little different and was actually a week later in the year that Jesus went through these things. But for us, the 10th day of the 1st month is this Sabbath, the Sabbath before the Passover. The 14th day of the 1st month.

Jesus continued, v 24: “Truly, truly I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit.”

Jesus is giving some good parables and teachings here. Then He makes it absolutely clear. I want you to tie in the next couple of verses in John 12 together with:

John 14:6 where Jesus said: “...I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life; no one comes to the Father except through Me.”

- What are we to do in our lives?
- What are we to do with our own human nature?
- What is conversion is all about?

John 12:25: “The one who loves his life shall lose it, and the one who hates his life in this world shall keep it unto eternal life. If anyone will serve Me, let him follow Me...” (vs 25-26).

Then we have about counting the cost (Luke 14); that we have to have complete dedication to God the Father and Jesus Christ!

- not to men
- not to an organization

But to God the Father and Jesus Christ, and our conversion grows deeper and deeper with the Spirit of God as we grow in grace and knowledge! ‘That’s a tremendous thing for us, brethren! Think about that!’

God the Father Who rules the universe, the great Sovereign of the universe, and His only begotten Son Jesus Christ:

- our High Priest
- Head of the Church
 - ✓ They love us
 - ✓ They have called us

They have all of this that we're reading about all worked out so that Jesus would become the perfect sacrifice for the sin of the world That covers all the sins of the world, because the sin of the world is what Adam and Eve did; they didn't obey the voice of God! Then human nature, with the judgment of God, became hostile against God.

Only true repentance, true baptism and true conversion can change that! That's by and through the love and power and will of God!

Verse 27 is where Jesus was chosen by the Father on the 10th day of the 1st month, the Sabbath before Passover:

Verse 27: "'Now My soul is troubled, and what shall I say? Father, save Me from this hour? But for this very purpose I have come to this hour. Father, glorify Your name.' Then a voice came from heaven, saying, 'I have both glorified it and will glorify it again.'" (vs 27-28).

These are the very words that are at the beginning of the prayer in John 17. Let's read that so we see how it all comes together. That is talking about the crucifixion, and this was the 10th day of the 1st month when Jesus was chosen as the Lamb of God.

Here in Jesus' final prayer before He was arrested He spoke these words:

John 17:1: "Jesus spoke these words, and lifted up His eyes to heaven and said, 'Father, the hour has come... [down to the hour] ...glorify Your own Son, so that Your Son may also glorify You"—talking about the crucifixion, and that's what it's talking about in John 12 about glorifying God. He was selected!

Verse 2: "Since You have given Him authority over all flesh, in order that He may give eternal life to all whom You have given Him. For this is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, Whom You did send" (vs 2-3).

Jesus had not yet received His Godship back; not until after the resurrection. That's why at that time the Father was the only true God. Jesus could not be 100% man and 100% God; that's an impossibility.

Verse 4: "I have glorified You on the earth. I have finished the work that You gave Me to do. and now, Father, glorify Me with Your own self, with the glory that I had with You before the world existed" (vs 4-5).

Quite a prayer! Absolutely marvelous! That comes all the way down to us, because Jesus prayed for us as well. Those are things we need to keep in mind as we come to the Passover:

- as we're preparing
- as we're thinking about the foot-washing
- as we're thinking about the bread and wine

We need to do it exactly as Jesus has said, exactly in the timing that we find in the New Testament!

John 12:29: "Then the people standing there, who heard it, said, 'It thundered.' Others said, 'An angel spoke to Him.' Jesus answered and said, 'This voice did not come because of Me, but because of you'" (vs 29-30)—so, you would know that God the Father selected Him as the Passover Lamb to take away the sin of the world!

Notice what else He said, and what this has done, because everything was complete up to this point.

Verse 31: "Now is the judgment of this world. Now shall the prince of this world be cast out."

This had to be done in order to get rid of Satan the devil! Then after the resurrection, his time of judgment has already been given. But there has to be:

- the preaching of the Gospel
- the building of the Church
- the character and conversion of all of those whom God would call

So that with all the rest of the saints the whole of the Kingdom of God can be given to all of the sons and daughters of God at the same time.

- we still live in the world where Satan is active
- we're still subject to overcoming those things

Verse 32: "'And if I be lifted up from the earth, I will draw all to Myself.' But He said this to signify by what death He was about to die" (vs 32-33).

Quite a powerful thing! He let them know that He was going to die! This confounded the Jews, because the Jews were expecting the Messiah, and:

If He's the Messiah surely He would come to us and surely He would recognize that we're the ones who are in authority. After all, we have that authority from God.

True! But they misuse the authority! They corrupted it by the schemes of Satan the devil, rather than follow God.

Verse 34: "The people answered Him, 'We have heard out of the law that the Christ lives forever, and why do You say that the Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of man?'" So, their spiritual blindness was quite a thing!

Verse 35: “Then Jesus said to them, ‘Yet, a little while the Light is with you. Walk while you have the Light, so that the darkness will not overtake you. For the one who walks in darkness does not know where he is going.”

That’s true statement, prophetic from that time down to this. You can tie that going back to John 3, that those who believe are coming to the Light, and those who do not believe do not come to the Light, because they don’t want their evil deeds exposed for what they are. This is quite a prophecy here!

Verse 36: “While you have the Light, believe in the Light, so that you may become the children of Light.’....” Very clear:

- IF you do not believe in Jesus Christ as the Light of the world, the Son of God, the only Begotten of the Father
- IF you do not believe that He is the Lamb of God to take away the sin of the world
 - ✓ you have no life in you
 - ✓ you have no forgiveness in you

that’s the whole purpose of His - life

- death
- crucifixion
- resurrection
- the calling of the Church

It’s all centered around this!

Now we come to the 1st day of the week. This is the day of confrontation where Jesus challenges all the religious authorities—the scribes and the Pharisees—with unbelievable sharp and strong language. This was a tremendous witness to them and against them. Instead of repenting, it provoked them to greater anger and seeking to kill Jesus. Quite a situation!

Jesus laid it bare; He laid it out for all to understand.

Mark 12:1: “And He began to speak to them in parables: ‘A man planted a vineyard, and put a fence around it, and dug a wine vat, and built a tower, and leased it out to husbandmen, and then left the country. And at the harvest season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, so that he might receive the fruit of the vineyard from the husbandmen. But they took him and beat him, and sent him away empty.” (vs 1-3).

What He’s doing is using this parable against them to show that all through the history of Israel, they didn’t believe God, and they didn’t do what the Law and the Prophets said.

Verse 4: “And in turn, he sent another servant to them; but they stoned him and wounded him on the head, and after insulting him sent him away. And in turn, he sent still another servant, and they killed him; and he sent many others, and some were beaten and others were killed. Now then, he had yet one son, his own beloved. And so, last of all he sent him to them also, saying, ‘They will have respect for my son.’ But those husbandmen said among themselves, ‘This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.’ And after seizing him, they killed him and cast him out of the vineyard. Therefore, what will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the husbandmen and will give the vineyard to others. Have you not read even this Scripture...” (vs 4-10).

Think about how many times Jesus said to them, ‘Have you not read...’ that’s quite a thing, indeed. They put all of their traditions as a fence around the laws, commandment and prophets of God, that if the people kept these traditions they wouldn’t break the commandments.

But the problem is that these traditions were breaking the commandments themselves! The schemes of men to make the Word of God better never work! You’ve got to do what God says! That’s the whole story of human life! The three words: obey My voice!

So, Jesus asked them, v 10: “Have you not read even this Scripture ‘The Stone that the builders rejected, this has become the head of the corner; this was from the Lord, and it is wonderful in our eyes’?” (vs 10-11).

Verse 12: “Then they sought to arrest Him, but they feared the multitude; for they knew that He had spoken the parable against them. And they left Him and went their way. But...” (vs 12-13).

They’re not done, they want to trip Him into rebelling against Caesar, and rebelling about paying taxes.

“...they sent to Him some of the Pharisees and the Herodians, in order to entrap Him in His words. And after coming to Him, they said, ‘Master... [look at how they said this] ...we know that You are true, and that You court no man’s favor; because You do not look on the appearance of men, but You teach the way of God in truth. Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar or not?’” (vs 13-14).

IF what they said, that they believed that He was sent from God, that He taught the Truth, that He wasn’t involved in politics like all of the scribes and Pharisees and priests and everything, WHY didn’t they believe Him?

It’s just like we see in many cases in religion and in politics, instead of coming to the truth—which is right in front of them—they continue their own way.

Verse 15: “Should we give it, or should we not give it?” But perceiving their hypocrisy...”

We'll talk about hypocrisy later on; He really laid it on the line in Matt. 23. He absolutely condemned them in such powerful terminology and convicting guilt against them, that that was the last great confrontation.

“...He said to them, ‘Why do you tempt Me? Bring Me a silver coin, so that I may look at it.’ Then they brought it. And He said to them, ‘Whose image and superscription is on this coin?’ And they said to Him, ‘Caesar’s.’ And Jesus answered and said to them, ‘Render the things of Caesar to Caesar, and the things of God to God.’...” (vs 15-17).

That’s talking about more than funds and money; that’s talking about everything. Render to God what He has commanded with all your heart and faith, and believe Him!

“...And they were amazed at Him.... [at His answer] ...Then the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Him, and they questioned Him, saying, ‘Master, Moses wrote for us that if the brother of anyone should die and leave behind a wife, but leave no children, then his brother should take his wife and raise up seed for his brother. Now, there were seven brothers; the first took a wife and died, leaving no seed; and the second took her and died, and neither did he leave seed; and the third likewise. And the seven had her and left no seed. Last of all the woman died also’” (vs 18-22). They were trying to trap Him in it!

Verse 23: “Now then, in the resurrection, when they shall arise, to which of them shall she be wife? For all seven had her as wife.”

Verse 24: “Then Jesus answered them and said, ‘In asking this, do you not err, not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God? For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels who are in heaven. But concerning the dead, that they do rise, have you not read in the book of Moses about the burning bush, how God spoke to him, saying, “I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob”? He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living. Therefore, you err greatly” (vs 24-27).

Why? Because they weren't following God, they were following their own religion!

Verse 28: “And one of the scribes who had come up to Him, after hearing them reasoning together and perceiving that He answered them well, asked Him, ‘Which is the first commandment of all?” We also find this in Deut. 6 and Matt. 22!

This is the whole basis of any relationship with God! Since God is love and you want the love of God, then you must love God. God doesn’t want your part time interest and love in Him, because:

- He wants to give us eternal life
- He wants us to be His sons and daughters in His Kingdom forever

Therefore, what He wants of us is complete wholeheartedness of our entire being. That’s why we have the Passover.

Verse 29: “Then Jesus answered him, ‘The first of all the commandments is, “Hear, O Israel... [put your name there, or Church of God, people of God] ...Our one God is the Lord, the Lord. And you shall love the Lord your God...”’” (vs 29-30).

Notice how all encompassing of everything that we are, and everything that we look forward to becoming. God hasn’t called us so that we can be good little citizens in the world. We’re to be good citizens in the world, true, but He has called us to His sons and daughters in His Kingdom!

- the stakes are higher
- the goal is greater
- the way to it is more difficult

but then it’s also easy when you follow what He says here; notice that in encompasses everything about you:

Verse 30: ““And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.’ This is the first commandment”—right directly to those and all of those who were listening, the strict religionists following what they were following, and avoiding the Truth of God laid out from the Word of God by Jesus Christ.

Verse 31: “And the second is like this: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no other commandment greater than these.”

As recorded in Matt. 22, Jesus said, ‘On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.’

The Law and the Prophets do not support these two commandments. These two commandments support all the Law and the Prophets, because it comes from God first to us, and us back to God! And to our neighbor and the brethren, and even to our enemies.

That’s the whole purpose of the Passover, that we learn this lesson to love God this way, and not let anything become between us and God!

- no person

- no thing
- no idea
- no doctrine
- no religion

We need to remember that when we're taking the foot-washing, the bread and the wine:

- the solemnity of it
- the power of it
- the purpose of it

Verse 32: "Then the scribe said to Him, 'Right, Master. You have spoken according to Truth that God is one, and there is not another besides Him; and to love Him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love one's neighbor as oneself, is more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices'" (vs 32-33).

Verse 34: "And Jesus, seeing that he answered with understanding, said to him, 'You are not far from the Kingdom of God.'

You're close to it, but it's one thing to read the Word, it's another thing to agree that they are true. Yet, it's a third thing to apply them in our lives. That's the whole purpose of Christianity! The whole purpose of the Passover!

This day of confrontation kept going, v 35: "And while teaching in the temple, Jesus answered and said, 'How can the scribes say that the Christ is the Son of David? For David himself said by the Holy Spirit, "The Lord said to my Lord, 'Sit at My right hand, until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet.'" Now then, if David himself called Him Lord, how can He be his Son?' And the whole multitude listened to Him eagerly. And He said to them in His teaching..." (vs 35-38).

Here are the scribes, the Pharisees, the Sadducees and all of them:

Jesus said, "...Beware of the scribes, who take pleasure in walking around in robes, and in salutations in the marketplaces, and in the chief seats in the synagogues and the chief places in the feasts; Who devour the houses of widows, and for a pretext make long prayers. These shall receive the greater condemnation'" (vs 38-40).

Let's see the final confrontation that convinced them that they must kill Jesus! This was so ignominious, so damning and so judgmental of them. Instead of accepting the Truth and repenting they sought the more to kill Him. This is an opportunity and a punishment. An opportunity if they would repent and believe, or a punishment if they felt that they had to continue in the way that they were going.

What was the ultimate penalty? They rejected Jesus Christ! The temple and the whole system were destroyed exactly as Jesus said it would be! To this day the Jews—except for a very few—refuse to believe that because of their rejection of Jesus and their sins against God, God had to send them off into dispersion into the whole world, just exactly as He prophesied in Jeremiah!

They didn't learn the lesson when God destroyed the temple in 539_{B.C.} They didn't learn that! In every writing of the Jews blames all the enemies. Never do you see anything like we're going to read in Matt. 23 about their sins and their hypocrisy. Think about it, and you will see that down through history that is true and repeated over and over again.

Matthew 23:8 "But you... [the disciples] ...are not to be called Rabbi; for one is your Master, the Christ, and all of you are brethren. Also, do not call anyone on the earth your Father; for one is your Father, Who is in heaven" (vs 8-9).

Here you have the whole Catholic Church saying that they represent Christ, and that they are the true religion of God. They are breaking one of the most simple and easy to understand Scriptures! They call their pope—the leader—"holy"!

Verse 10: "Neither be called Master; for one is your Master, the Christ. But the greatest among you shall be your servant." (vs 10-11). That's what all the elders to do and serve the brethren:

- to teach the Word of God
- to teach the love of God
- to teach the things in season

Now is the Passover season and time to really understand, again, the greatness of the love and mercy of God and His sacrifice, and how Christ willingly laid down His life, and what He did to become that sacrifice! So that it sinks deep into our heart, mind and being, and becomes a very part of our spiritual nature.

Verse 12: "And whoever will exalt himself shall be humbled; and whoever will humble himself shall be exalted." If you exalt yourself under the mighty hand of God, and He will exalt you in due time at the resurrection!

Verse 13: But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!.... [double-minded; sanctimonious pretenders] ...For you devour widows' houses, and as a pretext you offer prayers of great length. Because of this, you shall receive the greater judgment."

Did they not receive the greater judgment? Yes, indeed!

Verse 14: Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut up the Kingdom of Heaven before men; for neither do you yourselves enter, nor do you allow those who are entering to enter.”

You have all of your traditions that you place as more important than what God has commanded! So, Jesus is really bringing the confrontation in full power, because He knows that this is going to seal their decision to crucify Him!

Verse 15: “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel the sea and the land to make one proselyte, and when he has become one, you make him twofold more a son of Gehenna than yourselves.”

Think about that for a minute! What is He saying? If you keep doing what you're doing, you're destined for Gehenna fire!

Verse 16: “Woe to you, blind guides, who say, ‘Whoever shall swear by the temple, it is not binding; but whoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is obligated to fulfill his oath.’ You fools and blind!...” (vs 16-17). Morons! Idiots! (Greek: ‘idiotes’)

“...For which is greater, the gold, or the temple, which sanctifies the gold? And you say, ‘Whoever shall swear by the altar, it is not binding; but whoever shall swear by the gift that is upon it, he is obligated to fulfill his oath.’ You fools and blind! For which is greater, the gift, or the altar, which sanctifies the gift? Therefore, the one who swears by the altar swears by it, and by all things that are upon it. And the one who swears by the temple swears by it, and by Him Who dwells in it. And the one who swears by heaven swears by the Throne of God, and by Him Who sits upon it” (vs 17-22).

Verse 23: “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you pay tithes of mint and anise and cummin, but you have abandoned the more important matters of the law—judgment, and mercy and faith....”—the love of God (Luke 11) they have abandoned it! How did they abandon it? By placing their traditions as supreme!

“...These you were obligated to do, and not to leave the others undone” (v 23).

This condemnation is absolutely something! It made them vehemently angry so that they would crucify Him.

Verse 24: “Blind guides, who filter out a gnat, but swallow a camel! Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you cleanse the outside of the cup and the dish, but within you are full of extortion and excess” (vs 24-25).

We can learn some lessons here, v 26:

“Blind Pharisees! First cleanse the inside of the cup and the dish, so that the outside may also become clean.”

That’s the whole purpose of Passover and Unleavened Bread: conversion of the heart and mind, with the washing of the Word of God and His Holy Spirit! The writing of the Word of God in our heart and mind so that we can love God with all our heart, mind, soul, strength and being. That’s the whole purpose of it. Jesus was tell them to take care of the inside: your heart, mind, thoughts!

Verse 27: “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whited sepulchers, which indeed appear beautiful on the outside, but within are full of the bones of the dead, and of all uncleanness. Likewise, you also outwardly appear to men to be righteous, but within you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness” (vs 27-28).

Isn’t that a tremendous truth of all religionists and politicians, because they were religious and politicians.

Look at how bad the policies of the politicians are in America today. Look at what they have done in lying, hypocrisy, hatefulness; the media and all who are against law and order and truth! No society can be run by lawlessness. Nothing can exist or get done.

Same way with the Church. You can’t have Christianity without the laws and commandments of God, because those are things that God wants us to do. Those are the works that God wants us to walk in and to do.

To say the Law has been done away makes all the Protestants lying hypocrites, just like the scribes and Pharisees. It hasn’t been done away!

Verse 29: Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the sepulchers of the prophets, and adorn the tombs of the righteous; and you say, ‘If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets’” (vs 29-30).

But they’re about ready to partake of the blood of Jesus Christ!

Verse 31: “So then, you are testifying against yourselves, that you are the sons of those who killed the prophets, and as for you, you are filling up the measure of your fathers” (vs 31-32).

Notice how this continues; this is a heave lambaste to confront them for coming to arrest and crucify Him. They in their own minds will think that they are doing service to God.

Verse 33: “You serpents, you offspring of vipers, how shall you escape the judgment of Gehenna? Because of this, behold, I send to you prophets and wise men and scribes; and some of them you shall kill and crucify, and some of them you shall scourge in your synagogues, and some of them you shall persecute from city to city; so that upon you may come all the righteous blood poured out upon the earth, from the blood of Abel the righteous, unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar. Truly I say to you, all these things shall come upon this generation" (vs 33-36).

- Did that happen? Yes, it did!
- Are the words of God true? Yes, they are!

This is why God wants us to understand the great sacrifice of Jesus Christ, and to understand the deep meaning of the Passover.

As we prepare for the Passover this coming Tuesday night, let's keep all these things in mind!

Verse 37—here's how Jesus felt about it: "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those who have been sent to you, how often would I have gathered your children together, even as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, but you refused! Behold, your house is left to you desolate. For I say to you, you shall not see Me at all from this time forward, until you shall say, 'Blessed is He Who comes in the name of the Lord'" (vs 37-39).

Matthew 26:1: "Now, it came to pass that when Jesus had finished all these sayings, He said to His disciples, 'You know that after two days the Passover takes place, and the Son of man is delivered up to be crucified.' Then the chief priests and the scribes and the elders of the people assembled together in the court of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas; and they took counsel together for the purpose of seizing Jesus by treachery, and killing Him. But they said, 'Not during the Feast, so that there will not be a riot among the people.' Now, when Jesus was in Bethany, in Simon the leper's house" (vs 1-6). This is a different one, the first anointing was in Lazarus' house!

Verse 7: "A woman came to Him with an alabaster flask of ointment... [the second anointing] ...very precious, and poured it on His head as He sat down to eat."

Then Judas went and got the 30 pieces of silver and set out to betray Jesus!

Let's take everything we need to do in preparation for the Passover and understand that we need to examine ourselves (1-Cor. 11). If we examine ourselves and confess our sins, that we do not fall into the judgment of God!

When we come to the Passover at the beginning of the third day, that we will come with an attitude and understanding that we need to have, so that we worthily take of the Passover through the worthiness of Christ; not because of our worthiness, but because of:

- God's love
- God's mercy
- God's grace
- God's forgiveness

Have a meaningful, deep and profound Passover!

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

The Last Ten Days of Jesus' Life I

The days of provocation

Fred R. Coulter

Greetings, brethren, welcome to Sabbath services! Before we get into the message I want to bring up about The Christian Passover book. I got an e-mail from a woman who said, 'Jesus died at the time the lambs were being killed at the temple.' Well, we will see that cannot be true.

Anybody remember what happened to the temple when He died? What else happened? Earthquake! They wouldn't be able to have any lambs there to offer, because the Holy of Holies was exposed, and everybody had to get out except the priests.

If you haven't received your book: A Harmony of The Gospels, yet, please order it. This is the third edition, second printing. When you get it, please read the commentaries. Those tell the story as we will see why that is so important. When we first did the Harmony in 1974, there are a lot of stories that go with that.

All the pictures that are in it—and we have many more in the other editions—we're all photos from the photo storage department from Ambassador College. I went in and asked the one who's in charge of it, and I said, do you have any photos that we could use? Well, by that time he heard I was doing the Gospel, he said, 'Here they are, all you want, just bring them back.'

So, I took them down to the printer. He took the printing photos of them, so they could be in the Harmony, and sized them to fit into different things. Also, these four pictures that are on the wall up here in the corner, they originally were in the original Harmony. Those sketches were done by Jay Vance. His profession was taking plans like Jonathan draws up and sketching how it would look in a three dimensional rendering.

Now then, all of those were done by Jay Vance, and he did it with a Rapidograph pen. That's a special pen that lets the ink out in very fine lines, almost like a needle. You can you can see it on the Passover book. Then he designed the York Publishing emblem, and York Publishing is the name that I use to publish it.

Dave Brady told me, 'You ought to write; you ought write a book.' That was because I was giving for the second time, and this was in 1972, the Last Ten Days of Jesus' Life. I said no, Rod Meredith ought to write it because he teaches first year Bible. I shouldn't write it.

Things changed because of all the politics and all of the coming after those who didn't bow down and scrape down to the 'falsity' of the hierarchy. So, my sanity project was—by studying and putting together the Harmony—so I could get my mind on Christ and not get wrapped up that all the wars of politics.

That took two years to get that done and then published. Then the second edition we change the cover to green, and the printer R.R. Donnelley did a very bad mistake. You see the picture on the cover with the sunburst. Why did I choose the sunburst? One man said, 'Why did you have this? It looks like an orthodox cross.' I said, 'It's the sun.'

Jesus said that 'the sign of the Son of man will shine from the east to the west.' So that's why we had it. The artist who did this—we paid him for it—by blowing through a narrow straw. You get those little dots and things like that. So, we appreciate that.

Now we have A Harmony of the Gospels, third edition, second printing, which means that the total printed was 60,000. Probably close to little over 50,000 have been distributed.

How did I come up with York Publishing? Well, David Brady said that no one likes to buy from a church, and you can't have a long name. You can't use your own name: Coulter's Publishing. He says it has to be short; it has to be something that people can identify with, even though they've never seen it.

So, one day I was driving to go down to Torrance, and I was going down Orange Grove Boulevard, down to Highway 110. I started down the freeway and at the first overpass there was the sign 'Next Exit York Boulevard.' That's it! Why was that a good name?

If you think of York, what do you hear all the time? New York! York is something people can identify with, though they don't know exactly, in this case, what it would mean. I won't get into all of the wars and politics that we had to go through down in Pasadena, but I'll tell you this: there was a concerted effort to completely root me and Delores out of the ministry—period!

When it came to a climatic head, Rod Meredith was fired, and the next day Al Caruso left. I mean, we went through things because I stood for a man who had been disfellowship politically, and he kept trying to get back into church, his name was Nolan. And that was quite a thing!

When you have a hierarchy, you can't disagree with it; especially the one in Pasadena. I won't get into that, but that gave time where I could get my mind off the politics, off the troubles and I did a paraphrase translation the first time because I didn't know enough Greek. I later I took Greek from Dr. Dorothy.

So, we are going to cover The Last Ten Days of Jesus' Life; that includes to His resurrection. Now then, this is the only Harmony of the Gospels that follows the chronology based upon the Calculated Hebrew Calendar, which is different than the Roman calendar. You can go back in time clear to creation, and you can go forward in time because based on the sun, the moon and the earth and the rules of how it is determined, you're always correct with the Holy Days. You could never do it by observation.

Did you see the super moon? Do you know what happens when there's a super moon? The moon is thousands of miles closer to the earth, and instead of 250,000 it is 211,000 miles away. Do you know what happens? It moves quicker!

So, you can't really determine, unless it's by calculation to account for the variance with the sun, the earth and the moon. Then God has figured all the relationship with the rest of the things in the universe for the calendar. How do we know it's always correct? There are two days you can check on!

A lot of people think they have to check on the new moon. No, you check on the two days that has to be the full moon: 15th day of the 1st month and the 15th day of the 7th month, always a full moon. Furthermore, there has to be two days of full moon in order to go clear around the earth. So, all you 'flat-earthers,' forget it. It is waxing when it comes to New Zealand, comes to full, comes around over here to the Western Hemisphere, and it's full, but it is waning.

Passover night: When you leave Passover night you can see that the moon is not quite full. But the next night it is full. Since 1960 I have been checking it every year. The only time I haven't been able to see it, is if it's cloudy and I can't see the moon. But it's always on time.

Now then, one other thing before we start here. A lot of people say, well you can't trust the Jewish calendar because the Jews did this, that and the other thing. Well, not the official Jews who were in charge of the calendar. A lot in Babylon tried to change it and do a lot of things because they wanted to take power to themselves. But the priests and the Levites in the Jewish community kept the calculation of the calendar correct.

'Well, we can't trust that.' All right, why don't you throw away the Old Testament, because they preserved it, too! If you can't trust one, you can't trust the other. If it's off, why is it always correct with the full moon? Because there has to be adjustments for the new moon! From the new moon to the full moon sometimes is not even 14 days. Sometimes it's almost 16 days. That's why there are the rules of adjustment, postponements and so forth, to keep it balanced.

Before we get into the last ten days, let's start out with the birth of Christ. You can study that in the Passover book. He was born in 5_{B.C.} I have a calendar from the Hebrew calendar. No other Harmony has anything like this, because they go by the Roman calendar and they have a Friday crucifixion, and they have a Palm Sunday, so they don't even know what they're talking about.

Jesus was born on the Feast of Trumpets, a Sabbath in 5_{B.C.} That means He was circumcised on the Sabbath before Atonement, which then made Him a legal resident of Israel. When Tabernacles came, He was tabernacling with all the people of God as an official member.

When He began His ministry—you can look up the calendar calculations in the appendices in the back of the Harmony—He started on the fourth day of the week in a Jubilee year. What is the Jubilee Year? What does the Jubilee stand for? Release of slaves! Jesus came to release people from the slavery of Satan and their sins.

But Jesus first had to be tempted by Satan the devil. His ministry was three and a half years. How many months are in three and a half years? Forty-two? Wrong! There were two years in His three and a half year ministry that were leap years and had an extra month in both of those. So, His ministry began on the fourth day, and was 44 months long. Then He was crucified on the fourth day, and He rose and ascended to the Father four days after He was crucified. So, #4 has a lot to do with Jesus' ministry and verifying it. Those signs are given, because the Jews always demand a sign.

How many days was He with the apostles before His final ascension? Forty! He starts out on the fourth day, 40 days temptation, then He is crucified on the fourth day of the week, three days in the grave, and then He ascends to the Father on the first day. Protestants look at that and say, 'That's why we keep Sunday.' You have to read the Bible!

What happened was, I heard a message by Dr. Hoeh about the last ten days of Jesus' life; that was in about 1963. I graduated in 1964 and then I heard a message by Dale Hampton on the last ten days of Jesus' life. In the first year of my ministry in Boise, Idaho—this would be the spring 1966—I decided to bring The Last Ten Days of Jesus Life.

So, I got my notes from Dr. Hoeh and Dale Hampton, and guess what I found? There was a one-day conflict. How did that happen? So, I got Robertson's Harmony to see if I could find where the one-day discrepancy was. Well, I couldn't find it, and that made it worse.

I took one Bible, opened it up to Matthew, one Bible opened it up to Mark, and one to Luke and one to John. I went through and started right here in John 12. I knew that we had to use a Calculated Hebrew Calendar. I'll show you where the extra day is recorded.

This is going to be easier than trying to go through the Scriptures in the Bible. The Scriptures will be the same here, but all in the organized manner.

Section 282—Six Days Before His Last Passover, Jesus Comes to Bethany:

John 12:1: "Now, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was who had died, and whom He had raised from the dead."

Six Days Before Jesus' Last Passover

This chart combines the Roman calendar and the Hebrew calendar

- When does the day start in the Hebrew calendar? Sunset! All days start at sunset!
- When do they start on the Roman calendar? Midnight!

So, if you look carefully at the chart, you will see that I have it divided. I have sunset/sunrise, and then it overlaps on the bottom, I have the Roman dates. I want you to count forward—counting is inclusive—starting with the first day. Day five: Nisan 8, 1-2-3-4-5-6 days before the Passover. So, the Passover is the 7th day from when we started here in verse one.

Verse 2: "There they made a supper for Him, and Martha served; and Lazarus was one of those who sat with Him. Mary then..." (vs 2-3).

I want you to notice Mary is named, because we'll see something here in a minute, because Jesus was anointed twice, not once.

Verse 3: "Mary then took a pound of pure spikenard ointment..."

I don't know anything about spikenard ointment.

...worth a great price and anointed Jesus' feet wiping His feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the aroma of the ointment. As a result, one of His disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, who was about to betray Him, said, 'Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred silver coins, and given to the poor?'" (vs 3-5).

What is one of the ways that evil people appear to be righteous? By giving to the poor!

Sidebar: I got a brand new book—a nice big thick one—called In The Closet In The Vatican: Power, Homosexuality, Hypocrisy by Frederic Martel. Homosexuality is rampant, all of them. It's quite a book. He took three years in writing it has been published in English and in French, and I don't know what the other language was simultaneously. Brand new publication, so I'll let you know about it, about how homosexuality is rampant in the Catholic Church. Guess what's rampant in the nunneries? Lesbianism! No wonder Rev. 17 says 'filled with abominations and blasphemies.' That's what it is. So, Simon wanted to appear righteous.

Verse 6: "Now he said this, not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and carried what was put in it. Then Jesus said, 'Let her alone; she has been keeping it toward the day of My burial. For you have the poor with you always, but you do not always have Me.' Then a great crowd of the Jews found out that He was there..." (vs 6-9)

Notice it was a supper (v 2). So, this is at sunset, or the beginning of the day. That's why on the chart we have it where it is.

"...And they came, not only because of Jesus, but also that they might see Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead. But the chief priests took counsel in order that they might kill Lazarus also..."

you have got to get rid of all the evidence

...because by reason of him, many of the Jews were leaving them and believing in Jesus" (vs 9-10).

You can see the picture in the Harmony. These are some of the pictures that we got from the Ambassador photo file of the model city. Now a key thing in the chronology:

Luke 19:47: "Now, He was teaching day-by-day in the temple; and the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people were seeking to destroy Him."

The Day Portion—Nisan 8—Thursday, March 30, 30 AD.

Section 283—Jesus' Triumphal Entry into Jerusalem

The Church of God used to say that this palm day was a palm Sabbath. Why did they say that? Because the Catholics and Protestants say Palm Sunday! Why do they say that? Because they believe in a Friday crucifixion!

So, the Church said it couldn't be on a Sunday; it had to be on a Sabbath; but it couldn't be on the Sabbath. Why could it not happen on the Sabbath? We'll read it and will answer the question when we're done!

Now we have all four accounts. John's account does not have where Jesus told him to go get the donkey. The reason I have John 12 here is because of the chronology.

John 12:12: "On the next day...

in the morning after their dinner

...a great crowd of people who had come for the Feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming into Jerusalem, took branches from palm trees and went out to meet Him, and were shouting, 'Hosanna! Blessed is He Who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel'" (vs 12-13).

- What does this tell us?
- Why could this not happen on the Sabbath?

Matthew 21:7: "They brought the donkey and the colt, and put their garments upon them; and He sat on them. And a great number of the multitude spread their garments on the road; and others were cutting down branches from the trees and spreading them on the road. And the multitudes, those who were going before and those who were following behind, were shouting, saying, 'Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is He Who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest!'" (vs 7-9).

Then we have in the account in Luke 19 that the Pharisees said, 'Don't have them shouting. Jesus said, 'If I stopped, the stones would shout! If this was on the Sabbath, what would the Pharisees say? You're teaching the disciples to break the Sabbath, because they're breaking down branches, and they're putting this on the road for you to go. This is why this has to be on a Thursday. We find that in the Luke account.

Luke 19:39: "And some of the Pharisees in the multitude said to Him, 'Master, rebuke Your disciples.' But He answered and said to them, 'I tell you that if these were silent, the stones would cry out'" (vs 39-40).

How would that work? I have no idea! The closest we can come to understand it is Rev. 5, where every created thing is praising God the Father and Jesus Christ in heaven, on earth, under the earth and in the sea. I could see the whales doing it, but I can't see the minnows doing that. But that's all possible. Maybe the big frogs; I wonder what that would sound like? Frogs praising God!

Section 284—Jesus Weeps Over the City of Jerusalem

How many times did Jerusalem reject God? Just read the book of Jeremiah. Read the book of Isaiah. Read the problems that they had in Ezra and Nehemiah, just trying to keep the Jews from going out and apostatizing.

One account was that Nehemiah was so upset, he grabbed one of the renegade priests and punched him in the face, because he was having one of the Ashdod women, instead of having an Aaronic woman.

Luke 19:41: "And when He came near and saw the city, He wept over it, saying, 'If you had known, even you, at least in this your day, the things for your peace; but now they are hidden from your eyes'" (vs 41-42).

Why don't people understand? 'They close their eyes, they close their ears, they don't want to hear' (Matt. 13).

Now try this on the Protestants sometime. Just walk up to them and say, 'I've got God's answer to the evangelicals. They use two main Scriptures, that don't even need the whole Bible. Ask them, 'Why don't you keep the Sabbath?' Oh, that's for the Jews. We keep it on Sunday.

They don't know what they are missing. They don't know that the Sabbath is God's day. If they kept the Sabbath and if they kept it to honor God, would not God open up the Truth to them? If they were seeking Him? Yes, it would happen!

Verse 43: "For the days shall come upon you that your enemies shall cast a rampart about you, and shall enclose you around and keep you in on every side."

You want to know the ghastly slaughter of what happened with the destruction of Jerusalem and the temple, read the account in Josephus. It was awful! When those who were trying to escape, they would be captured and they would cut them open to see if they had any gold or anything in their stomach. Those who they knew didn't have any they crucified them.

Josephus says that there were so many being crucified, that they were waiting for them to die on the cross, so they can put new ones up there. I mean, it was a slaughter.

- it's not a good thing to reject God
- it's not a good thing to reject the words of Christ

That sure happened!

Verse 44: "And shall level you to the ground, and your children within you; and they shall not leave in you a stone upon a stone..."

Sounds a little bit like Matt. 24, Mark 13 and Luke 21, 'not one stone upon the stone.' That was not just for the temple. That was the whole city of Jerusalem. The Jews made themselves such an absolute stench in the nose of the Romans, that they took Jerusalem and did that, and plowed it like a field. That fulfilled the Scripture of the prophecy of the destruction of Jerusalem.

What everyone needs to do is realize that the Word of God is true. The only way you're going to understand it is to believe it, and what God says we need to do: obey it!

Section 285—Jesus Goes into the Temple and Returns that Evening to Bethany

Mark 11:11: "And Jesus entered Jerusalem and went into the temple; and because the hour was already late, after looking around at everything there, He went out to Bethany with the twelve."

Then He came back in the morning

Section 286—Jesus Teaches Daily in the Temple

Luke 19:47: "Now, He was teaching day-by-day in the temple; and the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people were seeking to destroy Him, but could not find what they might do; for all the people were listening intently, hanging on His every word" (vs 47-48).

These days were the days leading up to the crucifixion of Christ. Christ was provoking them! He knew what they were going to do, but he gave them good cause to think they were right in doing what they were doing.

Friday, March 31, 30 AD

Section 287 Jesus Curses the Fig Tree:

Mark 11:12: "And in the morning, after they left Bethany, He became hungry. Then, seeing a fig tree afar off that had leaves, He went to it to see if He might possibly find something on it. But after coming to it, He found nothing except leaves because it was not yet the season for figs" (vs 12-13).

- Why would Jesus do that?
- What about Adam and Eve?
- What did they use to hide their nakedness?
Fig leaves!

Israel in the Old Testament is combined in a parable:

1. to a vineyard
2. to a fig tree

The reason that this is here is because Jerusalem and the temple, because this was on the way to the temple, and the priest and all of them there did not bring forth any fruit to eternal life. There was nothing. They had no spiritual fruit. That's the whole lesson.

Verse 14: "And Jesus responded by saying to it, 'Let no one eat fruit from you any more forever!' And His disciples heard it."

If you read Matt. 21, it looks like that cursing and shriveling up happen immediately. But it didn't! This is the missing day, between Dr. Hoeh and Dale Hampton. Here's the key.

Sabbath, Nisan 10—Saturday, April 1, 30 AD

Section 288—They Go Up to Jerusalem the Next Morning:

Mark 11:20: "And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots...."

Jesus cursed it one day and in the morning they came back and found it dried up!

...Then Peter remembered and said to Him, 'Look, Master! The fig tree that You cursed has dried up'" (vs 20-21).

Since you have the pictures here in the Harmony, I want to show you something. Look at the picture on page 220; see the tree with all of its leaves on it. Look at the picture on page 221, see the tree was no leaves on it. Same tree! How did I get the picture of this? This was a tree before the plague of locusts came on pgs 220-221! This is how they left it. I thought that would be a good example of how they are drying up, nothing on it!

Verse 22: "And Jesus answered and said to them..."

This is very important, because now we're beginning to get into some of the things that we're going to learn for the Feast of Unleavened Bread. God is not interested in just your exterior conduct. He's interested in the conversion that is in the mind and the heart! He doesn't want a change of behavior, He wants a conversion of thinking so that your behavior will be as God wants it.

Even the worst criminal... Have you seen them do interviews of those who are lifers? They come in there and the reporters come up. 'This person is such a nice person, I just don't understand how it was possible.' Well, he can be very nice. Same way with a con man or a con woman, they can be very nice. You don't know how evil they are, until you've lost all your money! Then you know what happened!

Same way with 'religion.' Religion is a good factor in the society to give a little check on the carnal mind, to have a little better behavior. But nothing can display the evil that's in the heart and mind of even the religionists, than this latest book In the Closet In The Vatican. They're all hypocrites and liars!

Now let's come to page 220—I want to go over this again about the two days concerning the cursing of the fig tree and it shriveling up.

Mark 11:15: "Then they came into Jerusalem; and after entering the temple, Jesus began to cast out those who were buying and selling in the temple; and He overthrew the tables of the money exchangers and the seats of those who were selling doves."

What we're going to see from this time forward through the next day is what I call the days of provocation. We need to look at it from the point of view:

- How was the atmosphere around Jerusalem?
- How many angels were there making sure everything works out the way that it should?
- How many demons and Satan were there?

We know that Satan possessed Judas Iscariot to betray Jesus!

What sort of spiritual battle was going on behind the scenes that we couldn't see? Here's the provocation. You go into the temple and you start doing all of this. Now remember, the first time Jesus went into the temple, He did it in John 2. Here again, He comes in, and in the most sacred place, He starts overthrowing everything, and chasing them all out.

Verse 16: "Moreover, He did not allow anyone to carry a vessel through the temple. And He taught, saying to them, 'Is it not written, "My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations"?...'" (vs 16-17).

Think about that! The Jews did not allow the Gentiles to come, except in a cordoned off area. They couldn't go any further unless they would be killed. But this is also a prophecy of the coming temple of God in heaven, which is a house of prayer for all people, all nations.

"... 'But you have made it a den of robbers.' Now, the chief priests and the scribes heard this, and they sought how they might destroy Him; for they feared Him, because all the multitudes marveled at His teaching. And when evening came, He went out of the city" (vs 17-19).

Of course, that's back to Bethany!

Section 288—They Go Up To Jerusalem

That's when they saw that the fig tree the next morning had dried up. Then Jesus taught them a lesson.

Mark 11:21: "Then Peter remembered and said to Him, 'Look, Master! The fig tree that You cursed has dried up.' And Jesus answered and said to them, 'Have faith from God'" (vs 21-22).

The actual Greek means have the faith of God. It has to come from God to us. That's why I translated it, "...Have faith from God."

Verse 23: "For truly I say to you, whoever shall say to this mountain, 'Be taken away and be cast into the sea,' and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that what he said will take place, he shall have whatever he shall say."

That's the extreme of it. What is harder than moving a mountain? Changing the carnal mind! That's harder! And if you wanted a mountain removed, it would have to be according to the will of God, not according to your will. What He says is a very important key, one of the New Testament teachings that goes on into all of the epistles.

Verse 24: "For this reason I say to you, all the things that you ask when you are praying, believe that you will receive them, and they shall be given to you.

It goes from the mountain to all things. Sometimes prayers are answered almost immediately. Sometimes it takes a long time. Sometimes it even takes years. Have you ever had it that you're going along and all of a sudden you think: God answered that prayer! You even forgot that you prayed about it. But He gives another caveat.

Verse 25: "But when you stand praying... [or if you're kneeling]if you have anything against anyone... [Is that all inclusive?] ...forgive..."

Even if you have to do it reluctantly, still forgive. But do it from the heart!

"...so that your Father Who is in heaven may forgive you your offenses" (v 25).

Very interesting! Now in the series that we have Keys To Answered Prayer, we go through all kinds of prayer. Also, in the healing; healing is important. It is true, that you must forgive those in your own mind before God, who maybe they have already died! But it's in the mind, and that is a blockage of your faith to God!

"...if you have anything against anyone... [that is all inclusive] ...forgive, so that your Father Who is in heaven may forgive you your offenses. For if you do not forgive, neither will your Father Who is in heaven forgive you your offenses" (vs 25-26).

That is instruction in perfection. Remember that Jesus identified that conversion is not just your outward behavior, but your inward thoughts.

Matthew 5:48 tells the ultimate of it: "Therefore, you shall be perfect, even as your Father Who is in heaven is perfect." That's the ultimate highest standard, and that will not be fulfilled until the resurrection!

Sabbath, Nisan 10—Saturday, April 1, 30 AD

Section 289: Certain Hellenist Jews Want to See Jesus

John 12:20: "Now there were certain Greeks among those who had come up to worship at the Feast. And these came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee; and they asked him, saying, 'Sir, we desire to see Jesus.' Philip came and told Andrew, and Andrew and Philip in turn told Jesus. But Jesus answered them, saying, 'The time has come for the Son of man to be glorified. Truly, truly I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit'" (vs 20-24).

The only way for it to die is to plant it, and plant it in good soil. We've got some wheat at home, that we have had for, I would say about 40 years now; somewhere around there. It's still wheat! It's in these cans and nothing has changed. When they cleaned out one of these compartments in pyramids, they found some wheat that was over 3,000-years-old. They planted it and it's sprouted and grew! So likewise here:

How do we die? How did Paul say he died? He said, 'I die daily'! That is overcoming human nature. We can't produce the fruit of God, until we are overcoming human nature on a regular basis. As long as we're in the flesh we still have human nature. We have to work against it. That's the process of conversion. We'll cover that more a little later during the Feast.

Verse 25: "The one who loves his life shall lose it..."

I don't know how many have gone through some of the things that John Gunether has done with the Waldensians, and so forth. I imagine they read this Scripture an awful lot. They were slaughtered and tortured.

"...and the one who hates his life in this world shall keep it unto eternal life" (v 25).

Because the very best of every human being, every single one of them has, and we do to, 'the law of sin and death.' But only when you receive the power of the Holy Spirit, are you able to overcome the lust of the flesh and all of the things of 'the law of sin and death' within us.

That's the struggle. And the struggle is defined by Paul in Rom. 7, which is one of the most difficult Scriptures in the Bible to understand, if you're only thinking about keeping the commandments to change your exterior behavior.

Verse 26: "If anyone will serve Me, let him follow Me; and where I am, there shall My servant be also. And if anyone serves Me, him shall the Father honor. Now My soul is troubled, and what shall I say? Father, save Me from this hour? But for this very purpose I have come to this hour" (vs 26-27). He knew!

All right, next page, you'll see one of the etchings of Jay Vance. He very carefully hid his name in very small print. I can't even find it.

Section 290—Sabbath, Nisan 10—Saturday [Sabbath], April 1—30 AD

When were the Israelites to select the lamb for Passover? Tenth day of the first month! Keep it until the 14th. We'll see that they were to slay it right after sunset on the 13th. We'll find that section a little later. Now then, this is actually God the Father selecting Christ as 'the Lamb to take away the sin of the world.'

Why did John write it that way? Why didn't he say, 'Take away the sins of the world'? Why did he say, 'Take away the sin of the world'? Because the sin of the world is the sin of Adam and Eve, and that nature was passed on to us! So, it is the sin of Adam that is the sin of the world, and every human being in every generation in every country, every nation.

John 12:28: "Father, glorify Your name..."

All you sacred-namers, think on this. Nowhere, nowhere, nowhere do you find any sacred name from the Hebrew language in the Greek New Testament. God had it written in Greek because it was not connected with the Old Testament and their practices.

Everyone who gives a translation, and puts what they think the name ought to be in Hebrew here translated into English, they're adding to and taking away from. What is the Father's sacred name? The Father! That's what it is!

"...Then a voice came from heaven, saying, 'I have both glorified it and will glorify it again.' Then the people standing there, who heard it, said, 'It thundered.' Others said, 'An angel spoke to Him.' Jesus answered and said, 'This voice did not come because of Me, but because of you'" (vs 28-30).

The selection of the Lamb on the Sabbath Day for the removal of the sin of the world. But it is removed, one by one as God calls.

Verse 31: "Now is the judgment of this world. Now shall the prince of this world be cast out. And if I be lifted up from the earth, I will draw all to Myself" (vs 31-32).

Remember, that's what he said to Nicodemus (John 3). If the Son of Man be lifted up, they knew that meant to be crucified. They understood that.

Verse 33: "But He said this to signify by what death He was about to die. The people answered Him, 'We have heard out of the law that the Christ lives forever, and why do You say that the Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of man?'" (vs 33-34).

In spite of everything that went on, they still didn't know.

Verse 35: "Then Jesus said to them, 'Yet, a little while the Light is with you....'"

Jesus is referred to as 'the Light of the world, Light of all men.

- John 1: 4, 7-9
- John 3:19-36

He is the Light and those who love God will come to the Light, those who do not will go away from the Light. They don't want to come to the Light lest their deeds are exposed.

- John 8:12
- John 9:5

All showing the Christ is the Light!

Verse 35: "Then Jesus said to them, 'Yet, a little while the Light is with you. Walk while you have the Light, so that the darkness will not overtake you. For the one who walks in darkness does not know where he is going.'"

How can you have any real purpose in life if you don't know why you were born? Why you were called? Look at all the lives. Look at all the people. I've got at home a composite of world history called Langer's Encyclopedia of World History. You know what it really is? It's a history of every fight and battle in every nation, every country down through all time. It is incredible!

Section 291—Jesus Leaves the City Again:

"...Jesus spoke these things and then departed from them and was in hiding. Although He had done so many miracles in their presence, they did not believe in Him, so that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled who said, 'Lord, who has believed our report? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?' For this very reason they could not believe because again Isaiah said, 'He has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts...'" (vs 36-40).

Why would God do that? Protestants believe they've got to get out there and save everyone. Why would God do this? Because, if they are not coming to conversion, He doesn't want them to know, so that they can do so in the second resurrection! Now, you couldn't understand this, unless you have this knowledge of the second resurrection.

There are only two places in the Bible that talk about it. Ezek. 37 and Rev. 20:

- Ezek. 37 talks about Israel and the valley of dry bones. Meaning they lived once, but died.
- Rev. 20 says, the rest of the dead, who are not in the first resurrection, live again after the thousand years.

So, just those two Scriptures alone put together, answers the question, why God would do it. Now think on this. This is why the first fruits are so important. God doesn't do things like the way people think.

“...so that they would not see with their eyes and understand with their hearts, and be converted, and I would heal them.’ Isaiah said these things when he saw His glory and spoke concerning Him” (vs 40-41)

Now then, here is the day of provocation, and what a day this is. This is something!

Section 293—Nisan 11, Sunday, April 2, 30 AD.

Mark 11:27: “Then they came again to Jerusalem. And as He was walking in the temple, the chief priests and the scribes and the elders came to Him; and they said to Him, ‘By what authority are You doing these things? And who gave You this authority, that You do these things?’” (vs 27-28).

They asked this because they didn't give Him that authority. And they thought all authority for anything had to come through them.

Verse 29: “Then Jesus answered and said to them, ‘I also will ask you one thing, and if you answer Me, I will also tell you by what authority I do these things.’”

Now remember this when you're trapped by anybody in a conversation. Don't answer them; ask a question. He put them really between a rock and a hard spot here.

Verse 30: “The baptism of John, was it from heaven or from men? Answer Me.”

Remember that in John 1, Matt. 3 and Luke 3? Who came to John's baptism? The scribes and the Pharisees! They said to John, who are you? Are you the Christ? Are you that Prophet? John said, ‘No, I'm not either one.’ Who are you? I'm a voice crying in the wilderness to prepare the way of the Lord!

They knew from the beginning with John, but what did they do? If your heart is hardened, and your eyes are blinded, and you have your own satanic purpose, because here's this battle going on, on this day of provocation. This is done deliberately by Christ to finalize their excuse to kill Him.

Verse 31: “And they reasoned among themselves, saying...”

I always get a kick out of this. They've got to have a little council meeting before they can answer it!

“...‘If we say, “From heaven,” He will say, “Why then did you not believe him?” But if we say, “From men”’; they feared the people, because everyone held that John was indeed a prophet. And they answered Jesus by saying, ‘We do not know.’....” (vs 31-33).

They knew!

“...Then Jesus answered and said to them, ‘Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things’” (v 33).

It's virtually the same in Matthew and in Luke. Then He got right with them.

Section 294—The Parable of The Two Sons

Jesus speaking right to them. He's pointing out what they're doing wrong, and He's also giving them an opportunity to repent if they would. Could they repent? If they really wanted to they could! So, He said:

Mathew 21:28: “But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first one and said, ‘Son, go work in my vineyard today.’”

Jesus uses the vineyard many times. He compares Israel to a vineyard (Isa. 5). When He came for the fruit, He found wild grapes. What happened?

Verse 29: “And he answered and said, ‘I will not’; but afterwards he repented and went. Then he came to the second son and said the same thing. And he answered and said, ‘Sir, I will go’; but he did not go. Which of the two did the will of the father?’ They said to Him, ‘The first one.’ Jesus said to them, ‘I tell you truly, the tax collectors and the harlots are going into the Kingdom of God before you’” (vs 29-31).

Think about that. Here's the elite. That's almost like going to Washington, DC, and telling all the elite you're all going to burn in hell because you are not doing what you're supposed to do. You say one thing and do another. You say we will take care of the people. But you take care of yourselves. Same thing. The lowest of the people:

Verse 32: “For John came to you...”

Did they go to John? Yes, they did!

...in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him; but the tax collectors and the harlots believed him. Yet, you, after seeing this, did not afterwards repent and believe him.”

Quite a thing! We have a lot to cover on this day; it will take us a couple of sessions to get through. But here again He talks about the vineyard. What does he say in John 15 about Himself and the Church?

He says, 'I am the vine, My Father is the husbandman. Now some translations say farmer. Husbandman is better, because the husband is one who takes care of his wife and his family. So, the Father is the One Who is working in us with Christ. What did He say? You are the branches! We have to stay attached to the vine. Otherwise we can't bring forth fruit.

CHAPTER NINETEEN

The Last Ten Days of Jesus' Life II

A day great provocation and confrontation to provoke them to crucify Him

Fred R. Coulter

We've been going through a series: The Last Ten Days of Jesus' Life, so this is more like a Bible study, word for word. So, if you have your Harmony, turn to page 225, because this is where we will begin. This is only the third time in 54 years that I've given this.

I think we need to grasp what was really happening, especially on this day of provocation. Let's see what we are dealing with, and how the religious leaders responded to Christ and how Christ responded to them, how He talked to them.

I imagine there would be a lot of people today, just like back then, that would be offended if they heard what Jesus said, and the way He said it. Remember the one where the man who said, 'I'll follow you, Lord.' If you Looking for followers you'd say, 'Oh yes, but I got to go bury my father.' Well why don't you do that and catch up with me a little later.

What did Jesus say? 'Let the dead bury their dead.' Think of how all the 'politically correct nuts' would go crazy over this kind of thing. He talked very straightforward. In the John 5:30—after He explained a little bit about the resurrection and so forth, and this is what we need to keep in mind with our selves.

Remember what Paul told the elders from Ephesus when they came to Miletus to see Paul for the last time, he said, 'Take heed to yourself.' So, here is a good verse for us to understand take heed to ourselves, that whatever we have we received; there's nothing that we didn't receive from God even in the physical realm.

So, here's Jesus, Who was God manifested in the flesh, Who could do anything He wanted to do if He wanted to do it. But His choice was this:

John 5:30: "I have no power to do anything of Myself... [that means out from within My own self, My own thoughts] ...but as I hear, I judge; and My judgment is just because I do not seek My own will but the will of the Father Who sent Me. If I bear witness of Myself, My testimony is not true. There is another who bears witness of Me, and I know that the testimony that he witnesses concerning Me is true. You have sent to John, and he has borne witness to the Truth. Now, I do not receive witness from man, but I say these things so that you may be saved" (vs 30-34).

He's talking to the religious leaders, all the priests. Remember that He healed the man who had been infirm for 38 years. Here's a man going around carrying his sleeping bag. They said, 'You're carrying a burden on the Sabbath!' He said, 'The man who healed me...' Who healed you? He didn't know! Later, Jesus found him, then he went and snitched and told all of the priests.

So, here they are all around right at the temple. If you really understand how these things were going on, it's quite a really big deal indeed.

Verse 35: "He was a burning and shining light, and you were willing for a time to rejoice in his light. But I have a greater witness than John's; for the works that the Father gave Me to complete, the very works that I am doing, themselves bear witness of Me..." (vs 35-36).

In other words, look at the man that was healed. Why aren't you rejoicing? I mean, 38 years. Isn't that long enough to be infirm? Way too long!

"...the very works that I am doing, themselves bear witness of Me, that the Father has sent Me" (v 36).

Now they understood The Most High. And in a series we did on that—The Lord God and The Most High—we know in the New Testament, that's the Father.

Verse 37: "And the Father Himself, Who sent Me, has borne witness of Me. You have neither heard His voice nor seen His form at any time."

Today we can think of it as if this were going on at St. Peter's Basilica during a conclave of the pope and all the cardinals and all of that thing.

Verse 38: "And you do not have His Word dwelling in you..." What did they have dwelling in them, in their minds? Their authority, their traditions, their hierarchy!

"...for you do not believe Him Whom He has sent. You search the Scriptures... [How many times did Jesus say, 'Have you never read?' or 'Didn't you read this?'] ...for in them you think that you have eternal life... [they didn't] ...and they are the ones that testify of Me. But you are unwilling to come to Me, that you may have life” (vs 39-40).

The rest of this is really about as sharp a two-edged sword coming out of Christ mouth that you could possibly want.

Verse 41: “I do not receive glory from men; but I have known you, that you do not have the love of God in yourselves. I have come in My Father’s name, and you do not receive Me; but if another comes in his own name, you will receive him. How are you able to believe, you who receive glory from one another, and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God? Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you, even Moses, in whom you have hope. But if you believed Moses, you would have believed Me; for he wrote about Me. And if you do not believe his writings, how shall you believe My words?” (vs 41-47).

Very interesting verse, right there the last one. People say, well the Old Testaments is all done away. What do you know about that; if you don’t believe Moses, you can’t believe Jesus.

I tell you, for the apostle who was the one whom Jesus loved, you would think He would write some really nice wonderful things. But all of these are recording the Truth of Jesus’ ministry to the hierarchy and those in the in Jerusalem and the priesthood. They kept saying, ‘We’re Abraham’s seed, and that’s why we are what we are.’

John 8:37: “I know that you are Abraham’s seed; but you are seeking to kill Me, because My words do not enter into your minds. I speak the things that I have seen from My Father, and you do the things that you have seen from your father.’ They answered and said to Him, ‘Our father is Abraham.’ Jesus said to them, ‘If you were Abraham’s children...’ (vs 37-39).

He said, “I know that you are Abraham’s seed...” What’s the difference between seed and children? The children obeyed! The seed Esau did not!

“...’If you were Abraham’s children, you would do the works of Abraham. But now you seek to kill Me...” (vs 39-40).

Remember the first healing recorded (Mark 3), the man in the in the synagogue with the withered arm? When Jesus healed him, they were all mad and they got together and said, ‘How are we going to eliminate this guy?’ So, this is all building up and it’s all building up to this one particular day, Sunday, the first day of the week, Nisan 11. And it has almost as many Scriptures as it does about the Passover, crucifixion and resurrection.

What we’re going to read when we finish here is going to be mightily important.

“...a Man who has spoken the Truth to you, which I have heard from God; Abraham did not do this. You are doing the works of your father.’ Then they said to Him, ‘We have not been born of fornication.... [everything about Jesus was known] ...We have one Father, and that is God.’ Therefore, Jesus said to them, ‘If God were your Father, you would love Me, because I proceeded forth and came from God. For I have not come of Myself, but He sent Me. Why don’t you understand My speech? Because you cannot bear to hear My words. You are of your father the devil...” (vs 41-44). Try that with Sabbath with a staunch Sunday-keeper. You get about the same reaction.

Now stop and think about this for a minute: Where does the devil like to come all the time? At the top! When the temptation occurred, it was Satan and Christ. And one apostle was picked because he was of Satan to betray Christ. How does Satan like to do? Come in and change the teaching, the interpretation!

“...and the lusts of your father you desire to practice. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has not stood in the Truth because there is no Truth in him. Whenever he speaks a lie, he is speaking from his own self; for he is a liar, and the father of it. And because I speak the Truth, you do not believe Me. Which one of you can convict Me of sin?....” (vs 44-46).

Let’s come back to the Harmony here, page 225. All of these are very deliberate things to come against the religious leaders there, to provoke them to crucify Him. This is all done in public and they couldn’t take Him, because the people thought Christ was a prophet and they would stone them, etc, as we saw.

A Harmony of the Gospels, pg. 225—Nisan 11—Sunday, April 2, 30 AD

Section 295—The Parable of the Vineyard

Mark 12:1: “And He began to speak to them in parables: ‘A man planted a vineyard, and put a fence around it, and dug a wine vat, and built a tower, and leased it out to husbandmen, and then left the country.’”

Compare Isa. 5—Israel and Judah were compared to a vineyard that he planted. When he came for fruit he found wild grapes. So they knew, they knew exactly what He was talking about!

Verse 2: “And at the harvest season he sent a servant...”

Then he sent many servants. Finally He sent his son and they killed him.

Verse 7: "But those husbandmen said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.' And after seizing him, they killed him and cast him out of the vineyard. Therefore, what will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the husbandmen..." (vs 7-9).

Matthew 21:41: "They said to Him, 'Evil men!...'" talking about themselves

"... He will utterly destroy them, and he will lease his vineyard to other husbandmen..."

Luke 20:16: "He will come and destroy these husbandmen..."

Very interesting indeed! They knew that this was about them.

Matt. 21:43—notice what Jesus is saying, because here is what they were looking for: When the Messiah would come He would be human, He would come and join the hierarchy of the priests and set up a kingdom to rule the world from Jerusalem. He didn't do this. But that's how they were looking at it. So, He tells them:

Matthew 21:43: "Because of this, I say to you..."

Imagine that here are the most important people in the Old Testament religion, and the temple and the authority and the leaders and the elders.

"...the Kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and it shall be given to a nation that produces the fruits of it" (v 43).

Now you read in 1-Peter 2, that we are 'a royal priesthood, a royal nation.' So, he's talking about all of those who would come into the Church; they would receive the Kingdom, not the ones who thought they already had it in their hip pocket.

Verse 44: "And the one who falls on this Stone..."

Jesus is talking about Himself, because that was mentioned in an earlier one.

"...shall be broken; but on whomever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder" (v 44).

A prophecy of what was going to happen to Jerusalem.

Section 296, pg. 226—The Priests and Scribes Seek to Arrest Him

They knew!

Matthew 21:45: "Now, after hearing His parables, the chief priests and the Pharisees knew that He was speaking about them. And they sought to arrest Him, but they were afraid of the multitudes, because they held Him as a prophet" (vs 45-46).

All of this is building up and building up. I just imagine over Jerusalem there were thousands and thousands of angels. Remember what Jesus told the apostles? If you believe I'm the Messiah, what would you think if you saw angels ascending and descending on the Son of Man? There were a lot of angels there. Why? Because every prophecy about His life, the confrontation here leading up to His crucifixion, all had to be fulfilled! The angels were there to make sure that they would be fulfilled, and that Jesus would not be arrested beforehand.

Don't you think there was also Satan and demons? Yes! Don't you think the demons were right there pumping up all the priests and Sadducees and the elders and things like this? So, this was filled with trauma and tension this whole day. On the other hand, I like this section from John:

Section 297—Many Leaders Secretly Believed in Jesus

John 12:42: "But even so, many among the rulers believed in Him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess Him..."

A good lesson for us! Don't be afraid! What is Truth is true. It strengthens you, and if it hurts the other person, that's too bad.

"...so that they would not be put out of the synagogue" (v 42).

Now notice how this cuts to the quick of everything. That's what's so good about the Bible. It's not telling us a bunch of fairy tales. It's not telling us lies, it's telling us the truth!

Verse 43: "For they loved the glory of men more than the glory of God"

That's what we all need to keep in mind, too. What we are, we are to serve. Anyone who is in the ministry is to serve and to teach; that's why we're here. How can there be those who will be taught with the Truth of God so they can mature and be brought to perfection, if they're not taught? Like Paul said to the Jews, 'You claim you have the Scriptures when you read them, but don't you teach yourselves?' We have to let the Word of God teach us!

Section 298—To Believe in Jesus is to Believe in the Father

Verse 44: "Then Jesus called out and said,

‘The one who believes in Me does not believe in Me, but in Him Who sent Me. And the one who sees Me sees Him Who sent Me. I have come as a light into the world so that everyone who believes in Me may not remain in darkness’” (vs 44-46).

In the Gospel of John, Jesus is called the Light 21 times. Twice John the Baptist. I'll let you search that out.

Verse 47: “But if anyone hears My words and does not believe, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world, but to save the world....”

wait until He comes to judge

“...The one who rejects Me and does not receive My words has one who judges him; the Word, which I have spoken, that shall judge him in the last day” (vs 47-48).

What was the judgment for those who didn't believe in Jesus, but professed His name, did works of power and did many wonderful things? What was Jesus answer to them the last day? Depart from me, you who work lawlessness. I never knew you! Quite powerful!

Nisan 11—Sunday, April 2, 30 AD

Verse 49: “For I have not spoken from Myself...”

Same thing! This is one of the biggest problems that faces ministers wherever they are. They get lifted up in their own vanity and carried away with what they think they know. And no one can tell them that they're wrong. They won't listen!

Verse 49: “For I have not spoken from Myself; but the Father, Who sent Me, gave Me commandment Himself, what I should say and what I should speak. And I know that His commandment is eternal life. Therefore, whatever I speak, I speak exactly as the Father has told Me” (vs 49-50).

All of these confrontations were occurring in the temple area. Of course, God made sure that there were thousands and thousands and thousands of Jews who came. And remember when it was the Feast of Tabernacles in John 7? The question was, don't the leaders know that this is the Christ?

Section 299—The Parable of the Wedding and the Wedding Feast

Where do we find the fulfillment of that? Rev. 19 and the wedding supper! What's that going to be like on the Sea of Glass, and the angels roll out the whole dining array? And we're all seated there!

Jesus said that He was going to go serve. So, here we are all sitting there, I don't know what kind of food we're going to get. I don't know what kind of food that spirit beings eat, but I hope it's not chicken! Heavenly birds! Ha! Jesus comes around with a wine flask and is pouring wine for us. Because He said, ‘I will drink it with you in that day in My Kingdom.’ That's going to be an amazing thing, isn't it?

There are two parts to this Section 299

Matthew 22:1: “And again Jesus answered and spoke to them in parables, saying, ‘The Kingdom of Heaven is compared to a man who was a king, who made a wedding feast for his son, and sent his servants to call those who had been invited to the wedding feast; but they refused to come....

they refused Christ

...Afterwards he sent out other servants, saying “Say to those who have been invited, ‘Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and the fatted beasts are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the wedding feast.’” But they paid no attention and went away, one to his farm, and another to his business. And the rest, after seizing his servants, insulted and killed them” (vs 1-6).

Didn't that happen to almost all the prophets? I mean, sometimes read the Prophets from the point of view of the prophet who wrote it, especially Jeremiah. He was so discouraged one time, there's one chapter you'll find. He says, ‘Lord, I've done all of this and everybody hates me. This has been so bad, I've gone through so many difficulties.’ And the Lord said in so many words, ‘Now, Jeremiah, keep doing what you're doing. You're life will be your prize.’ Right after that he's thrown into the sewer!

Verse 7: “Now, when the king heard it...”

Who's the king? The Father!

“...he became angry; and he sent his armies and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city” (v 7).

- first part, Jerusalem
- second part, preaching of the Gospel

‘Go therefore into all the world and preach the gospel making disciples’ (Matt. 28:19). Go to all nations, and that begins with:

Verse 8: “Then he said to his servants, ‘The wedding feast indeed is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy; therefore, go into the well-traveled highways, and invite all that you find to the wedding feast.' And after going out into the highways, those servants brought together everyone that they found, both good and evil; and the wedding feast was filled with guests" (vs 8-10).

Now the next part is a little difficult for some people to figure out. But I'll try and explain it for you.

Verse 11: "And when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not dressed in proper attire for the wedding feast."

What is the proper attire for the wedding feast? Revelation 19:8: "...the righteousness of the saints." In other words, he tried to get in there without properly having the right clothes. Sounds a little like Cain bringing his offering, and God didn't accept it. This is what it's conveying. You're not going to get into the Kingdom of God if you do not do it God's way! If you try, and think you're going to be there, you're going to be cast out.

Matthew 22:12: "And he said to him, 'Friend, how did you enter here without a garment fit for the wedding feast?' But he had no answer. Then the king said to the servants..."

This implies all of our personal works of righteousness and faith that we are to do. That becomes the potential for the wedding feast garments.

"... 'Bind his hands and feet, and take him away, and cast him into the outer darkness.' There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. For many are called, but few are chosen" (vs 12-14).

We'll end this section here by saying, remember this—and all elders and ministers remember this, too—God has called every one of the brethren, and He has called you! So therefore, you are actually under in your position to serve. Not over, for you to be served!

Nisan 11—Sunday, April 2, 30 AD—this day of provocation.

Section 300—Spies Are Sent To Entangled Him

Mark 12:13: "But they sent to Him some of the Pharisees and the Herodians, in order to entrap Him in His words."

Look at Matt. 22:15; notice the differences in the explanation, but those differences when you really put them together, adds a lot to what was going on with this confrontation.

Matthew 22:15: "Then the Pharisees went and took counsel as to how they might entrap Him in His speech."

Luke 20:20: "And they kept Him under surveillance, and sent out secret agents who pretended that they were righteous, so that they might catch Him in His words, in order to deliver Him up to the power and authority of the governor."

This same thing has occurred here in America!

Verse 21: And they questioned Him, saying, 'Master...'"

I kind of think they did it this way

"...we realize that You speak and teach rightly, and do not accept any man's person, but teach the way of God in Truth. Is it lawful for us to give tribute to Caesar, or not?" (vs 21-22).

Now here in America, there was a group who was saying that if you're a Christian you don't have to pay any taxes to the government. Well, he's now in jail! Same thing here! They wanted for Jesus to say that you don't have to pay tribute to the government. 'Hey, turn Him over to the authorities. Look, He is saying you don't have to pay tribute.'

Verse 23: "But perceiving their craftiness..."

Matthew 22:18: "But Jesus, knowing their wickedness..."

Mark 12:15: "...But perceiving their hypocrisy..."

Interesting: hypocrisy, wickedness, craftiness. Sounds like Washington, DC!

Section 301—Render to Caesar the Things of Caesar, and to God the things of God

Luke 20:24: "Show Me a silver coin. Whose image and inscription does it have?' And they answered and said, 'Caesar's.' Then He said to them, 'Render, therefore, the things of Caesar to Caesar, and the things of God to God'" (vs 24-25).

That's something we need to really know and understand, too.

- What do we render to God? Our love, our faith, our obedience!
- How did Jesus express it in another way? Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God!

There are some people who say that on the other side of the coin, you do not have to send tithes and offerings. You don't have to give those, because Jesus told the seventy to go out and preach the Gospel and you don't take anything. You only take one set of clothes and one set of shoes and your staff. So therefore, that's how you ought to run your ministry.

I actually had some people tell me that. But what did Jesus say later? Take your provision bag, take a sword, do the other things. That was a special one, as a lesson to those twelve and to the seventy, because he sent out the two groups, so that they could learn God will provide. Also, it was a sign, back toward Jesus, that He was the Messiah.

Today we don't offer animal sacrifices, we take up offerings and tithes, most of it in paper or digital. So, there's an obligation to do both. As we saw in the other one, the man who came in without the proper clothes, he was what you could say much like Cain. What did Cain do? He just brought any old thing you wanted to. God says the tithe is His! {note our In-Depth Study on Tithing}

If you have questions about it, we cover it. I'm sorry that and in the Harmony, that these coins did not come out very clear. But these were actual brass coins with Caesar's image from that time.

Section 302—The Question Concerning Marriage In The Resurrection

And this still goes on. A man came up to me one time and said, 'You know what I believe? I believe that we will have sex as spirit beings in the Kingdom of God.' I said, 'Where did you get that?' And he kind of looked at me and 'um, um' So, we will see.

Luke 20:27: "Then some of the Sadducees..."

Notice, wave after wave... I imagine that they had their council group somewhere by themselves, and different agents would come in and relay what was going on. They would take a council again, and send someone else out to bring something else. Here are the Sadducees, this is the priest party.

Verse 27: "...who do not believe there is a resurrection..."

Interesting! Even in the priesthood, they didn't believe God! That's what Christ said.

"...came and questioned Him, saying, 'Master, Moses wrote to us that if anyone's brother who had a wife should die, and he should die childless, his brother should take his dead brother's wife and raise up seed for his brother'" (vs 27-28).

Therefore, there were seven brothers!

Now, isn't it always the way in argument, to bring up a proposition that is outrageous to try and get an argument? So, here it is seven brothers. Well, you know the whole story. First one died, no children, second one, third one, fourth one, fifth one, sixth one, seventh one. About that time you wonder what's wrong with this family?

So they wanted to know in the resurrection, which they didn't believe in, whose husband would take the wife for all seven.

Luke 20:34: "And Jesus answered and said to them, 'The children of this age marry and are given in marriage; but those who are accounted worthy to obtain that age...'" (vs 34-35).

the coming age

"...and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage; and neither can they die anymore..." (vs 35-36).

there's no need to have children

"...for they are as the angels..." (v 36).

Now why didn't he say God? He could have, because we're going to be the sons and daughters of God. Why did he say angels? So, they wouldn't grab Him and take Him and arrest Him ahead of time.

"...and are the children of God, being children of the resurrection" (v 36).

John 10—notice what happened when He told them that He was the Son of God. When He did tell them that the Bible says 'we are to be gods.' He had a lot of confrontations leading up to this.

We're looking at the confrontation just before His crucifixion. If you take all the confrontations and stack them up end to end, outside of the people believing in Him and coming to be healed and all that sort of thing, His ministry was a struggle! Even the first part of His ministry with the apostles, He even said, 'Oh you of little faith.'

John 10:23: "And Jesus was walking in the temple in Solomon's porch. Then the Jews encircled Him and said to Him, 'How long are You going to hold us in suspense? If You are the Christ, tell us plainly'" (vs 23-24).

Verse 25: "Jesus answered them, 'I have told you, but you do not believe. The works that I am doing in My Father's name, these bear witness of Me. But you do not believe because you are not of My sheep, as I said to you. My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me. And I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; and no one shall take them out of My hand. My Father,

Who has given them to Me, is greater than all; and no one has the power to seize them from My Father's hand. I and the Father are one” (vs 25-30).

Whoa! Look at their response! You know, they didn't run and say, 'You're the Messiah' and bow down. No!

Verse 31: “Then the Jews again picked up stones so that they might stone Him.... [loving group] ...Jesus answered them, ‘Many good works I have showed you from My Father. For which of them are you about to stone Me?’ The Jews answered Him, saying, ‘We will not stone You for a good work, but for blasphemy, and because You, being a man, are making Yourself God.’ Jesus answered them, ‘Is it not written in your law, “I said, ‘You are gods’”? If He called them gods, to whom the Word of God came (and the Scriptures cannot be broken)’” (vs 31-35).

He's telling them If you don't believe the Scripture that makes no difference, you can't break it!

Verse 36: “Why do you say of Him Whom the Father has sanctified and sent into the world, ‘You are blaspheming,’ because I said, ‘I am the Son of God’? If I do not do the works of My Father, do not believe Me. But if I do, even if you do not believe Me, believe the works; so that you may perceive and may believe that the Father is in Me, and I in Him” (vs 36-38).

So, they, again, wanted to take Him, but He escaped away. I don't know how He did that. Jesus as you know can do different things. Remember, after the resurrection. He came across those two walking to Emmaus and they were all discouraged because they thought, well, it's all over. He says, ‘What is this you are talking about?’ They didn't recognize Him because He had changed His appearance.

Later He walked through the door. Anyone who says they're born again (John 3) just like the wind, go wherever, walk through the door! If you don't like that, try the wall!

He did say it back in John 10, but He said angels here:

Luke 20:36: “...for they are as the angels...” [v 37]: But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed by his words at the burning bush, when he called the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; for He is not the God of the dead, but of the living; for all live unto Him.’ And some of the scribes answered and said, ‘Master, You have spoken well.’ And after that they did not dare to ask Him any more questions” (36-40). That is for a while!

Now look what happened as we come to the next section here. So, this day was really a day of great confrontation. We will see, it gets even a little more intense.

Section 303—The Two Great Commandments: Love God and Love Your Neighbor

Mark 12:28: “And one of the scribes who had come up to Him...

I wonder if someone said He hasn't seen you, go up and ask Him a question.

“...after hearing them reasoning together and perceiving that He answered them well, asked Him, ‘Which is the first commandment of all?’ Then Jesus answered him, ‘The first of all the commandments is, “Hear, O Israel. Our one God is the Lord, the Lord”’” (vs 28-29).

Now that's reflective of Deut. 6. Because what does the Bible teach all the way through the Bible? There are two in the Godhead. Not a monotheistic, not tri-theistic, but a dual-theistic. The Lord!

Verse 30: “And you shall love the Lord your God...”

How much involved are we to be with God, and what God wants us to do? This is what it's all about. This reflects a complete commitment, complete faith and complete reliance on God!

Verse 30: ““And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.’ This is the first commandment.”

You could take each one of those; the heart, the soul, the mind, the strength, and do a word study through the Bible. What do we read in the Psalms? The Lord is my strength, my rock and my salvation! This is how we are to approach it. It's not becoming a religious nut or fanatic. But that's what God commands. Why? Because he's going to give us eternal life!

Think of it that way. Every difficulty or trial we come across is an experience so we can grow in grace and knowledge. Some of them are very difficult. Some of them are very trying. But nevertheless, God sees us through it. So, we have to look at the end result.

Verse 31: “And the second is like this: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’....”

- the third one is that you shall love each other as I have loved you!
- the fourth one is, you shall love your enemies and pray for those who spitefully use you.

You can pray many ways for your enemies. Like the rabbi in Fiddler on the Roof, keeping them far from us! Another one is, 'God deal with them and take care of them.'

I remember there was a man who came and was feigning wanting to work with us, but he wanted to do his own work and take everything away from what we had in the early part of what Christian Biblical Church of God was. He came to Monterey, and was going to go on a radio station and do his bit on a radio station. I didn't know that he was going to do that. I heard that he was in Monterey, but I didn't know anything about that. I knew that he was trying to get in and take everything, so I prayed about it, and just asked God to save us from this. Send him away.

Well, he exercised very heavily the night before he was to go on the radio, and after his exercise, he laid down on the floor had a heart attack and he was gone. I can't say God has delivered all of us out of all of our troubles in the same way, but that one particular one is one that I remember. I didn't even know that that happened until about two weeks afterward. Someone came and said, 'Did you know so and so died of a heart attack?' I was flabbergasted!

But God will take care of it. If we fall into the hands of the enemy, then we are to witness. Look at what John Gunether has done with all of the Waldensians and those in the Piedmont up there where God protected the people and they translated the Word of God into native languages, and so forth. They went to their death singing praises to God! Think about that!

Two comments were made: That the man who died of a heart attack in Monterey was also a false prophet, because he was preaching a lot of false things. They never came to pass. You see the reason why love is the first thing and love is the greatest, because from that comes faith, belief, hope, patience and understanding!

The understanding that we derive from the Bible is not because we have anything greater than any other human being. We don't! But God will give understanding if we are yielding to Him and continuously following His way and the Truth.

Mark 12:32: "Then the scribe said to Him, 'Right, Master. You have spoken according to Truth that God is one, and there is not another besides Him; and to love Him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love one's neighbor as oneself, is more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices.' And Jesus, seeing that he answered with understanding, said to him, 'You are not far from the Kingdom of God.'...." (vs 32-34).

Question is, after Jesus' resurrection, did the scribe come into the Church to make it to the Kingdom of God? Don't know!

Section 304—How Is Christ the Son of David?

Matthew 22:41: "While the Pharisees were assembled together, Jesus questioned them."

So, it goes back the other way.

Verse 42: "Saying, 'What do you think concerning the Christ? Whose son is He?' They said to Him, 'The Son of David.'"

Gotcha!

Verse 43: "He said to them, 'How then does David in spirit call Him Lord, saying, "The LORD said to my Lord, 'Sit at My right hand, until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet'?"'"

How are you going to answer that? Next page at the top, second column:

Verse 45: "Therefore, if David calls Him Lord, how is He his Son?" And no one was able to answer Him a word, neither dared anyone from that day to question Him anymore" (vs 45-46).

Now then, here we come to the great provocation and condemnation. This is, if you would, compare when we get to Mark 12, loving God, and then how Jesus condemned the scribes and Pharisees. This was the great confrontation, which I think really infuriated them. And this was deliberate, because they were to be infuriated. And they were frustrated, because they couldn't arrest Him, they couldn't do anything to get Him. That's why Judas. We'll see that in a little bit.

Section 305—A Warning Against the Scribes and Pharisees

Mark 12:38: "And He said to them in His teaching, 'Beware of the scribes, who take pleasure in walking around in robes, and in salutations in the marketplaces.'"

I never will forget this; I can still I can still look down and see it happening. I was at the University of San Francisco, which is a Catholic institution. That was before I went to Ambassador College. I couldn't get in there that year, but I was going to take a business course, so I went from College of San Mateo a junior college to University of San Francisco. Catholic!

Here I am getting the Plain Truth magazine for the first time, all about Satan's Great Deception; all about those things; how the Catholic Church was what it was. So, I'm on the third floor, and it's my fifth week there. My first week, guess what the first mandatory class was? Study of Philosophy!

I thought, why aren't they studying the Bible and creation. Here the fifth week and I have all of this, and here's statue of this person and statue that person, and a cross in front of every room and so forth. I'm standing up here looking out the window down, and between the buildings they had a big lawn area with sidewalks going through. Here are the Jesuits with their cossacks on, walking in the morning, reading their prayer book. The students come by and say, 'Good morning, father.' I thought, I just read that in the Bible or in an article, whichever one it was.

That is the day I decided I must leave. So, I did. I went down to the registrar's office, opened the door to walk in and guess what I saw? A huge picture, it must have been four feet by six feet, of a very melancholy looking Jesus, with the crown of thorns on His head and a big drop of blood coming down.

I said, 'Oh, I've got to get out of here.' So I did; I got out that very day, because that's what they're like. Now Dolores could tell you some stories about archbishops and cardinals coming down to a land development company that she worked for. Once a year they would come down, and the three brothers, who were partners in that company, dreaded them to come because they always extorted $100,000 or more from each of them. If I recall right, one of them hid in his office for two hours, but he finally gave up and came out, and the cardinal left with his bundle.

Verse 39: "And in the chief seats in the synagogues and the chief places in the feasts; Who devour the houses of widows, and for a pretext make long prayers. These shall receive the greater condemnation" (vs 39-40).

We can see that everything was planned out and worked out by God:

- confrontation between Christ and the religious leaders
- the angels of God
- the demons

- Satan the devil

So, we'll see how all that comes together to bring about the crucifixion!

CHAPTER TWENTY

The Last Ten Days of Jesus' Life III

Jesus' secret preparation for His final Passover

Fred R. Coulter

Greetings, everyone! Welcome to Sabbath services!

We're getting close, about five weeks away, to Passover and Unleavened Bread!

Here is what we're advertising this week, which will be very, very helpful to you for Unleavened Bread: In-Depth Study and CD: How to Overcome the Sin Within! That's important, because that's the whole key of Christianity.

Religion is to make you good living in the community one to another. True Christianity is conversion, which is a transformation of the mind and thinking with God's Spirit and His Word. That way your mind is being transformed by God's Spirit will produce good results on the outside.

As we're going to see, this is perfectly described by Jesus in talking to the scribes and Pharisees in exposing them.

Remember, this day—Nisan 11, Sunday April 2, 30 AD—is the day of confrontation and provocation! Jesus comes on them really strong and very hard. Remember, all of this took place at the temple area. There were thousands of people there, and hundreds and hundreds of Levites and probably scores of priests.

from: A Harmony of the Gospels, pg 231

Section 305—A Warning Against the Scribes and Pharisees

This is not like traditional messages; this is like a Bible study, because we're going through most of the verses. Some of the areas, like in Matt. 24, we're not going to go into detail in great parts of it, because we've had so many messages on it anyway.

Matthew 23:1: "Then Jesus spoke to the multitudes and to His disciples, saying, 'The scribes and the Pharisees have sat down on Moses' seat as judges'" (vs 1-2).

Why was that translated that way? This is to show that the priests and the Levites—some of scribes were Levites, but not all—"...sat down on Moses' seat..." to make judgments.

But the Pharisees were not of the priestly line. Some may have been, but Pharisee was a political party. What Jesus is saying here is that He wants everything to be conducted in decent order through God's Word.

Verse 3: "Therefore, every judgment...

as judges

"...that they tell you to observe, observe and do...."

Their judgments were based upon the Word of God! They would come to the judgment seat with a problem, or defugalty, get it settled and they would give the judgment based on the Word of God.

"...But do not do according to their works; for they say and do not" (v 3).

Note Mark 7 about the traditions of men. When they kept their traditions, they were rejecting the Word of God! It was sort of a very obtuse thing that they did. Picture the Law of God in the middle; they designed the traditions to go around the Law of God so that if people did these traditions they wouldn't break the commandments. But after having so many of these traditions, the traditions themselves were breaking the commandments of God. This is why Jesus said,

"...do not do according to their works; for they say and do not For they bind heavy burdens and hard to bear, and lay them on the shoulders of men; but they will not move them with one of their own fingers" (vs 3-4).

Just like all political systems, the elite are never caught and judged. Look at it today right here in America with the Clinton and Obama eras, and they're all getting away with it!

Verse 5: "And they do all their works to be seen by men. They make broad their phylacteries and enlarge the borders of their garments."

I thought of that when I saw a hearing with one of the so-called great generals. He had his stars, medals, ribbons on both sides of his chest; he was very impressive.

Verse 6: "And they love... [v 7] the salutations in the marketplaces, and to be called by men 'Rabbi, Rabbi.' But you are not to be called Rabbi; for one is your Master, the Christ..." (vs 6-8).

We're going to see that He says this the second time!

"...and all of you are brethren. Also, do not call anyone on the earth your Father..." (vs 8-9).

Very important! Years ago, about 1973, I was on the radio program called Religion Online four Sundays in a row. There was a rabbi, a Catholic priest, and me. I was the so-called Protestant. Every time someone would call in and say to the priest, 'Why you call each other Father when the Bible says to not call anyone your Father?' They never could answer that. They would all stumble and so forth. A lot of people know that.

Verse 11: "But the greatest among you shall be your servant."

Serve the people, that's the whole thing! What was said that was wrong 'way back when' in the Church of God? In order to be in the Kingdom of God you must learn to be ruled over by the ministry! That's not correct! You must be ruled over by God! All of us individually! That's why we have the Spirit of God!

Verse 9: "...for one is your Father..."

Father is the sacred name of God the Father (John 17). All of those who try to bring in Hebrew sacred names, and replace them in the New Testament, are adding to the Word of God, that God never authorized to be!

Don't you think that if Hebrew sacred names were necessary in the New Testament, that the apostles—being those who understood Hebrew and Greek—could have easily written the Hebrew name? Of course!

The Old Testament was more like a 'religion.' You corrected the mistakes that you did, and the sacrifice was given to forgive that action. It never the cleansed the mind! That's the key.

Verse 10: "Neither be called Master; for one is your Master, the Christ.

The word for master in the Greek is 'despotes'—from which we get the English word despot! Master is someone whom you give absolute love and obedience to, and that's Christ and God the Father. After saying all of this, why did He put this here? Because every one of the things He said don't do is what men do to exalt themselves.

Verse 12: "And whoever will exalt himself shall be humbled; and whoever will humble himself shall be exalted."

Our exaltation comes at the resurrection! In the mean time, we're to be brethren, and those who are elders and teachers are to teach the brethren and not rule over them.

The thing that is important with God's Holy Spirit is one of the fruits of the Spirit is self-control. Where does self-control come from? Your choosing to do right from your choosing to withhold doing what is wrong. You choose it! We all have certain things that we're working on that are hard to control. I do, you do, everybody does and that will continue until we die or the resurrection, one of the two. There are eight woes to the scribes and Pharisees by Christ.

- every word of God is true
- every word of God is living
- every word of God will take place one way or the other

Verse 11: "But the greatest among you shall be your servant."

Greek is 'diakonos.' What do you suppose the English word is? Deacon! Christ came to 'diakono,' to serve!

- Was Christ a deacon?
- A teacher?
- A minister?
- Yes!
- Savior?

Verse 13: "But ¹woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!..."

They are looking for the accumulation of things and notoriety in this world, that is good notoriety. But Christ is revealing their evil notoriety here. In the first edition of the Harmony I translated this is 'sanctimonious pretenders.' That is what they were!

"...For you devour widows' houses, and as a pretext you offer prayers of great length. Because of this, you shall receive the greater judgment. ²Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut up the Kingdom of Heaven before men; for neither do you yourselves enter, nor do you allow those who are entering to enter. ³Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel the sea and the land to make one proselyte, and when he has become one, you make him twofold more a son of Gehenna than yourselves" (vs 13-15).

What is he saying to him with this? What is Gehenna? Lake a Fire! So, they're making them converts to go into the Lake of Fire. Of course, that would be unless the person repented.

Verse 16: "⁴Woe to you, blind guides..."

- What makes people blind spiritually?
- What made the scribes and Pharisees blind?

Here is Christ fulfilling all the Scriptures; they had all the Scriptures! They wanted to kill Him because He was a competitor. When you read the book of Acts about the first eight chapters are pretty powerful against them. Did they ever have a witness?

We'll just project to head a little bit; we're going to see that when Judas Iscariot came to them to betray Jesus, they rejoiced and when Christ died they thought they had the problem solved. It wasn't; their problems just began! So, He's doing all of this to provoke them!

"...blind guides..." How does a person become blind? John 9, about the man born blind! The disciples asked Jesus, 'Who sinned? his parents? or him? How can a baby in the womb sin? What is sin? Transgression of the Law? What did Jesus say? He didn't sin, nor did His parents sin, but for the glory of God!

God Himself made that man blind for the very purpose of Jesus healing him. You read John 9. Jesus healed him and then the Pharisees found out about it and they brought him in and said, 'How do you receive sight?' This man told me to put some clay on my eyes and went down Pool Shiloam and washed, and I can see!

'Who was He?' I don't know, He left and I can't find Him! 'We don't believe you, bring in his parents. Is this your son?' Yes, that's our son! 'How does he see?' We don't know, ask him!

Then they said, 'This man, we know He's not from God.' And the blind man who could now see said to them, 'How can someone who is not of God do something that has never been done since the creation of the world to heal someone born blind so that they could see? 'You're altogether unclean' and they disfellowshipped him out of the synagogue! Sound like the experience some of you went through at the Church? The truth is, people become blind when they know the Word of God and avoid it, turn their back on it or walk away from it. Automatic blinding!

Why? Because the deceitful nature within will generate and excuse as to why you're walking away is correct! What that does makes them blind! That's why Jesus said, "...blind guides..." They're the ones who are supposed to guide the people, but they can't see the signs of the times, or the fact that it is Jesus Christ.

"...who say, 'Whoever shall swear by the temple..." (v 16).

Notice that it's always a picky little point that never amounts to anything.

"...it is not binding; but whoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is obligated to fulfill his oath'" (v 16).

What is that based upon? The covetous nature! Gold!

Verse 17: "You fools and blind!..."

Greek: 'moranio'—from where we get the word moron! Idiots!

"...For which is greater, the gold, or the temple, which sanctifies the gold? And you say, 'Whoever shall swear by the altar, it is not binding; but whoever shall swear by the gift that is upon it, he is obligated to fulfill his oath.' You fools and blind!..." (vs 17-19).

Here are all these self-righteous officials out there thinking: Who is this coming after us this way? They thought all of these rules are correct. These define righteousness, and Who is this coming in here to knock it all down and say that 'we're fools and blind'?

"...For which is greater, the gift, or the altar, which sanctifies the gift? Therefore, the one who swears by the altar swears by it, and by all things that are upon it. And the one who swears by the temple swears by it, and by Him Who dwells in it. And the one who swears by heaven swears by the throne of God, and by Him Who sits upon it" (vs 19-22).

- What's the solution?
- What did Jesus say in Matt. 5 about what you should say?
- Let your yes be 'yes' and your no be 'no'!

Verse 23: ^[#5]Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you pay tithes of mint and anise and cummin, but you have abandoned the more important matters of the law—judgment, and mercy and faith.

Luke 11:42: "But woe to you, Pharisees! For you pay tithes of mint and rue and every herb, but you pass over the judgment and the love of God...."

Matthew 23:23: "...These you were obligated to do, and not to leave the others undone"

In other words, the most important things of God are not how much money the organization can bring in. But those who are truly converted and truly love God will tithe and give offerings without having to be 'beaten over the head.' Almost every co-worker letter that went out there was an urgent plea for money. What happened to the whole organization? Not all at once, but where is it today? I'll let you think on that!

Verse 24: "Blind guides, who filter out a gnat, but swallow a camel! ^[#6]Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you cleanse the outside of the cup and the dish..." (vs 24-25).

Outside you look great! Let's use another example of this today. At the Academy Awards they're all dressed up, looking sharp, but within what are they? Most of them nothing but a sexual bunch of animals crawling all over the place! There may be a good actor or two in there.

- What does God want from people? The cleansing of the inside!
- How does that happen? With God's Word and God's Spirit, 'the washing of the water by the Word.'

Verse 26: "Blind Pharisees! First cleanse the inside of the cup and the dish, so that the outside may also become clean."

There's the whole principle stated right here this one verse.

Verse 27: ^[#7]Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitened sepulchers, which indeed appear beautiful on the outside, but within are full of the bones of the dead, and of all uncleanness."

No telling what you find in there. Think about this: How is God going to resurrect all of those who died at sea; most of them were eaten by sharks or other sea animals. That's why when a man or woman dies, the spirit goes back to God. That's the key. Everything that you are is recorded on that spirit of man. If you're unconverted, everything that you are. If you are converted, your spirit of man within you is what then is the key for resurrection to eternal life!

It doesn't make any difference how many are eaten up by sharks, the spirit of man goes back to God when they die. We know that the spirit of just men are under the altar of God (Heb. 12). Does God have a place for the spirits of those who did not commit the unpardonable sin, but are worthy of the second resurrection? Of course, He would have to!

How about for those who are wicked? We saw 'make him son of Gehenna. How about those who committed the unpardonable sin?

Sidebar: Can someone unconverted commit the unpardonable sin? Yes! Because when they're resurrected in the second resurrection, and there's no repentance, guess where you're going?

Do you think Hitler committed the unpardonable sin? I don't know how bad a person could get! Even to the end sending 12-16 year-olds out to try and save Berlin when it was surrounded by the Russians. They were going building to building, killing everyone they could find. What did Hitler do? He went down 38-feet below the surface and took his poison pill and died along with the others!

Goebbels and his children all took cyanide capsules. Wonderful ending the Great Reich! How about that for a fulfillment of those who exalt themselves? They shall be abased! It doesn't say humbled, but abased! Is that an abasement? Yes, in the basement!

Verse 29: ^[#8]Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!....

Isn't this the way that people always excuse themselves?

"...For you build the sepulchers of the prophets, and adorn the tombs of the righteous; and you say, 'If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.'" (vs 29-30).

Who were they going to kill and partake of blood? Christ, the greatest of the Prophets!

Verse 32: "And as for you, you are filling up the measure of your fathers. You serpents, you offspring of vipers..." (vs 32-33).

I remember going the zoo in San Diego, California, Jonathan and David always loved to go to the reptile house where the snakes were, and get up close to the glass and say, 'Dad, come and look!'

We came to the Palestinian Viper and I was astonished at that. I looked at that and said, 'I don't ever want to go to Palestine. I would always walk about six feet away from the glass where all the serpents were. You can't get it any worse than vipers!

"...how shall you escape the judgment of Gehenna?" (v 33).

- How many times did Jesus say 'Gehenna' here? At least three times!
- Where were they headed?

Verse 34: "Because of this, behold, I send to you prophets and wise men and scribes; and some of them you shall kill and crucify, and some of them you shall scourge in your synagogues, and some of them you shall persecute from city to city; so that upon you may come all the righteous blood poured out upon the earth, from the blood of Abel the righteous, unto the blood of Zacharias..." (vs 34-35).

In English this is 'from A to Z!

"...son of Barachias, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar. Truly I say to you, all these things shall come upon this generation" (vs 35-36).

We will see the phrase "this generation" here applies to the current generation that He was speaking to. We will find in Matt. 24 the same phrase, but it has other qualifiers in the context to show that means the last generation.

Verse 37: "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those who have been sent to you, how often would I have gathered your children together, even as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, but you refused!"

All the way through here, all of this is based upon choices. That's why it's important for us to know: What do we choose on a daily basis? You can't have a behavior out here that is exemplary but in your mind/heart you have a dual standard. That's called a carinal mind, and that's what we are to overcome.

Verse 38: "Behold, your house is left to you desolate. For I say to you, you shall not see Me at all from this time forward, until you shall say, Blessed is He Who comes in the name of the Lord'" (vs 38-39).

You see these coins (Harmony pg. 233). These are actual temple coins are the temple during Jesus' day. Now, what we did with it was we had the picture of one coin. So we had a photographer, take that one coin and do step and repeat, step and repeat until he came up with this batch of temple coins.

Section 306—A Widow's Mite is More Than Large Donations by the Rich

Now here's something that's always true, and this became a fallacy in the Church of God in the past.

Mark 12:41: "And after sitting down opposite the temple treasury, He observed how the people were casting money into the treasury; and many rich ones were putting in much."

One of the qualifications for someone to be an elder in the Church was the first thing they did was check up on the tithing record. If the person didn't tithe as much as they thought he should he couldn't be an elder. That's not necessarily buying an eldership, but that's coming pretty close to it!

I'm going to watch on the TBN and if someone refers to it here on Sunday. 'Now you all come here and look what they did. Those who are rich put in a lot.' They'll stop there. They won't talk about the widow. 'The more you send in the happier you'll be, and the more blessed you will be.

- Can Satan give things to people to make it look like a blessing from God? Yes!
- Didn't Satan offer Jesus the whole world and rulership of it? Of course!

Verse 42: "And one poor widow came and dropped in two tiny coins, which is equal to one copper coin. Then He called His disciples to Him and said to them, 'Truly I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all of those who are casting money into the treasury'" (vs 42-43).

It's not how much you give; it is how faithful you are to God! That's what counts! The widow was faithful and above and beyond with her two mites.

Verse 44: "For everyone else contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her destitution put in as much as she had, giving all her living."

I don't think that was all her living for the rest of her life, but all her living up to a certain point.

Section 307—Jesus and His Disciples Leave the Temple Area

We're going to just cover a few important points in Matt. 24 so that we understand where we're going with it. I could start almost every letter I write in Matt. 24 today. But we need to understand what happened here.

I was given an article by a man in one of the Churches of God that said that 'getting rid of all the stones did not mean the foundation stones.' He's giving the Jewish presentation where the Mosque of Omar is saying that if that's where the temple was then the foundation stones weren't counted. But that's not where the temple was or will be.

Matthew 24:1: "And after going out, Jesus departed from the temple; and His disciples came to Him to point out the buildings of the temple."

{Fred is describing—see video of this message—the placement of the temple and the Valley of Kidron, and showing that it's real steep up to the temple. Also, showing where the Mt. of Olives is and that it's higher than the temple area.}

On the Mt. of Olives was the Miphkad Altar, which was where they took all the sin offerings, because they had to be burned completely. none of the meat was to be eaten by any person or the priests and Jesus was crucified close to the Miphkad Altar outside the camp.

Verse 2: "But Jesus said to them, 'Do you not see all these things?....'"

Think about this in relationship to what you would think if you were one of the apostles there with Jesus and He said this to you because you were impressed with the beautiful rocks, the beautiful stones and with the building of the temple and the wall and everything like that. They had all of it stone-covered 650-feet.

"... 'Do you not see all...' (v 2).

That means every bit of it!

- Why did the area where the Mosque of Omar is remain untouched?
- Who destroyed the temple? The Romans!
- Whose property was area where the Mosque of Omar was? Fort Antonia!

That was Roman property. So, the Romans didn't destroy it. Not because the temple was there, but because it was their own property. They wanted to destroy everything Jewish with the greatest hatred possible.

"...Do you not see all these things? Truly..." (v 2).

In truth!

"...I say to you, there shall not be left here even a stone upon a stone that shall not be thrown down" (v 2).

That's quite inclusive!

Mark 13:2: "Then Jesus answered and said to him, 'Do you see these great buildings? There shall not be left a stone upon a stone that shall not be thrown down.'"

Luke 21:6: "As for these things that you now see, the days will come in which there shall not be left one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down."

Section 308—On the Mount of Olives Jesus Prophesies to His Disciples about the Events Leading up to: 1) The Sign of His Second Coming; 2) The Completion of the Age

We will quickly go through Matthew 24:

- vs 3-5—false prophets
- v 6—wars and rumors of wars
- v 7—nation against nation

- v 9—deliver you up to affliction
- v 10—many will be led into sin
- v 11—many false prophets

Verse 12: "And because lawlessness shall be multiplied, the love of many shall grow cold. But the one who endures to the end, that one shall be saved."

Verse 14 is a prelude to what will happen until Christ returns:

Verse 14: "And this Gospel of the Kingdom shall be proclaimed in all the world for a witness to all nations, and then shall the end come."

Think about it today, how that with a cell phone anyone can connect with the Word of God, even the Protestant outlets Catholic outlets and we're seeing like we found with Chancy Normandon how that they searched as a group for eight years.

Mac search for how many years I think it was three years before he came to our first service when we were down at a little hall at the other end of the building. Then shall the end come. Verse 15 is a key. This is the key that tells us plan the end is going to begin.

Verse 15: "Therefore, when you see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the Holy place.' (The one who reads, let him understand.)"

That phrase Jesus did not say! If you have King James with red letters, and they put that in red letters, understand that Jesus wasn't writing a thing! John put that there because in 70_{A.D.} the temple was destroyed. There was no abomination of desolation that stood in the holy place as described by Paul (2-Thess. 2), who declared himself to be 'God'! Didn't happen!

So, this is telling us: "...(The one who reads, let him understand)"--because John didn't understand it. He knew of 2-Thess. 2 and he knew the vision given to him of the temple was true, so therefore, he said, 'I know there's go to be another temple built, but I don't understand it, so "...The one who reads, let him understand."

It could not be understood until getting down to our day.

Verse 16: "Then let those who are in Judea flee into the mountains. Let the one who is on the housetop not come down to take anything out of his house" (vs 16-17).

Verse 20: "And pray that your flight be not in the winter, nor on the Sabbath."

I wonder what the apostles thought when Jesus said the Gospel is going to be proclaimed in all the world to all the nations? What was their concept of the world? Middle East? Asia Minor? North Africa? That was about it!

The actual earth is gigantic and is covered with more water than land. Of course, they didn't know. How is this going to work?

Imagine what they felt when Jerusalem was destroyed, the temple was destroyed, and Christ hadn't returned. We covered that in the apostasy series: How Apostasy Starts—how that the false teachers would say, 'Look, our interpretations are more correct because Jesus didn't return.'

Matthew 24:21: "For then..."

He said in v 20, 'Don't let your flight be in the winter or on the Sabbath,' which tells you that the time to flee—if you look at the chart of Daniel/Revelation series—it comes out about two weeks after the Feast of Tabernacle while it's still fall and before winter. Not in the summer, because you'd get some of those areas that are so hot that you would die.

What tells us when that fulfill the then? The abomination of desolation (v 15)—the when!

Verse 21: "For then shall there be great tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until this time, nor ever shall be again."

None this that we're reading now took place at the time of the destruction of the second temple and Jerusalem.

Verse 22: "And if those days were not limited..."

The King James says cut short. The preachers' ideal verse. 'You better get your life in order because God you got to cut the time short.' How many times did we hear that? No! It's limited! What is the limit of time? How long is the Tribulation? Three and a half years! It's limited, not cut short!

"...there would no flesh be saved; but for the elect's sake those days shall be limited. Then if anyone says to you, 'Behold, here is the Christ,' or, 'He is there,' do not believe it." (v 22).

Now notice what's ahead of us:

Verse 24: "For there shall arise false Christs and false prophets..."

We're going to be flooded with them!

"...and they shall present great signs and wonders..." (v 24).

What's going to happen with the false prophet in Rev. 13? He's going to call down fire! If you see that, 'seeing is believing.'

"...in order to deceive, if possible, even the elect" (v 24).

We haven't even come close to that kind of thing, yet! If the multitude believes it, you say, 'No, that's of Satan!' How could this be of Satan? Let's start with bringing the beast back to life. How could this be of Satan? Look, he's bringing peace to the whole world!

Verse 25: "Behold, I have foretold it to you. Therefore, if they say to you, 'Come and see! He is in the wilderness'; do not go forth. 'Come and see! He is in the secret chambers'; do not believe *it. For as the light of day..." (vs 25-27).

Malachi 4:2^[transcriber's correction]: "...the Sun of Righteousness shall arise..." Here it is:

Matthew 24:27: "For as the light of day, which comes forth from the east and shines as far as the west, so also shall the coming of the Son of man be."

Here's what happens in Bible description: many times it will give you an introduction telling you what's going to come then a little further it defines what it is. This is what we have here.

Verse 28: "For wherever the carcass may be, there will the eagles be gathered together."

That's a hard one to figure except to say that if the eagles are angels and the Church is in a place of safety, that may be define it, possibly, the way it would be interpreted.

Verse 29: "But immediately after the tribulation of those days, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken."

What is that going to do for time based upon the Calculated Hebrew Calendar? It's going to knock it all 'caddy wampus'! That's why only the Father knows the time or the day. It's all out of sequence, out of order. What are you going to do? From new moon to full moon with all this going on, it turns out to be 17 or 18 days. That's why it's not going to happen until that time, because it too confusing for those who are keeping the Feast and Holy Days today.

Verse 30: "And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man..."

The sign of the Son of man is:

Verse 27: "For as the light of day, which comes forth from the east and shines as far as the west..."

That defines:

Verse 30: "And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven; and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn and they shall see the Son of man coming upon the clouds of heaven with power and great glory."

There's a gap of time between the sign of the Son of man and when He actually comes to the earth; that time is a little over one year, about 15 or 16 months.

Let's take the Bible and see when the sign of the Son of man appears. I'll direct you to any Day 49 or Day 50—Pentecost—for more details on this to get how the sequence comes about. Rev. 6 is the opening of the seven seals.

Revelation 6:12: "And when He opened the sixth seal, I looked, and behold, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as the hair of sackcloth... [that's what we're talking about in Matt. 24] ...and the moon became as blood; and the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as a fig tree casts its untimely figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind. Then the heaven departed like a scroll..." (vs 12-14).

A scroll is rolled up in two parts, generally speaking. It's opening up in the heavens. This didn't happen in 70 A.D.

"...that is being rolled up, and every mountain and island was moved out of its place" (v 14). That's going to be something!

We've got this globe over here, and many people believe that if they can get a nice island in the South Seas 'I'll escape everything.' One tsunami takes care of you, and this is going to bring a lot of tsunamis. Other people think if they just get a cabin up in the mountains, nobody knows where they are. What are you going to do when you find you're down in the valley and not up in the mountain?

Verse 15: "And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the powerful men, and every bondman, and every free man hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains."

This is devastation such has never, never, never has been. Isn't that what Christ said? Yes!

Verse 16: "And they said to the mountains and to the rocks, 'Fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him Who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, because the great day of His wrath has come, and who has the power to stand?'" (vs 16-17).

That is introduced one heavens roll back and there looks like a second sun. Think about ancient aliens. Think about everyone believing the world is going to be attacked by aliens. How come they all know it's Christ? Well, there'll be a lot of people who will know that. But if you are told by the leader and the beast and the false prophet that what this represents an existential threat to the world, and it's really not Christ. Did they do that with His first coming? So, what will they do with His second coming?

Things will change. Things will change when it comes to Rev. 7; things change to a terrible calm and the winds are not even blowing. Then the 144,000 and the great innumerable multitude are saved, and everybody is in a different posture by time we get to Rev. 8; they start fighting against each other with great intensity and demons join them and so forth.

If you want a real in-depth study on it, get the Daniel/Revelation series.

Matthew 24:31: "And He shall send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet; and they shall gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other."

It goes from His showing Himself with the heavens being rolled back up to the point of the resurrection; but there's a lot in between.

Verse 32: "Now, learn this parable from the fig tree: When its branches have already become tender, and it puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near."

We're going to see a lot of things coming, and a lot of those things are going to look like good things for the world. People getting along with each other, peace! After all we've gone through, won't people want peace? Won't they be told by the false prophet that this is from God?

Verse 33: "In like manner also, when you see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors."

Now, here's this phrase that we saw back in Matt. 23:

Verse 34: "Truly I say to you, this generation shall in no wise pass away until all these things have taken place."

That's the last generation! Who is the last generation? We thought that it was us many times.

Verse 36: "But concerning that day, and the hour, no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, but My Father only."

In Mark it says that not even the Son knows.

Verse 37: "Now, as it was in the days of Noah, so shall it also be at the coming of the Son of man. For as in the days that were before the Flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark" (vs 37-38).

- If the days are like the days of Noah, what do we have today? We have all kinds of things!
- Do you suppose that Noah and his sons had electric power? Power saws? (speculation)

If it was like today, we could say that that would be an assumption. So, think about it! We have decided that there could have been atomic power, or it could have been an explosion of the sun. But there are cities in India that have so much radioactivity that you have to conclude that it's possible that that is because of human warfare. They even have carved toys that look like jet planes. Either way it goes it's a bad situation.

Because we don't know the day or the hour, and the heavens are all going to be shaken, the sun, moon and stars, everything is going to be affected. Nevertheless, this applies down through time from v 42. We even have the record of the Waldensians when they saw everything going on: The crusaders coming down to the Holy Land. They said, 'The Day of the Lord is not far away'—in 1120!

Verse 42: "Watch, therefore, because you do not know in what hour your Lord is coming. But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have been watching, and would not have allowed his house to be broken into. Therefore, you also be ready" (vs 42-44).

- Can Christ come upon you at any time?
- How does He come upon you?
- Do you think that Christ came upon WCG to do the things that were done because of their sins?

That doesn't mean His bodily return to the earth!

"...For the Son of man is coming at a time that you do not think. Who then is the faithful and wise servant whom his lord has set over his household, to give them food in due season?" (vs 44-45).

Here's what we need to do, and this pretty well takes care of most of Matt. 24:

Verse 46: "Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he comes shall find so doing. Truly I say to you, he will set him over all his property. But if that evil servant shall say in his heart, 'My lord delays his coming,' and shall begin to beat his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken, the lord of that servant will come in a day that he does not expect, and in an hour that he does not know. And he shall cut him asunder and shall appoint his portion with the hypocrites. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth" (vs 46-51).

That last verse jumps ahead to the final judgment at the end. So, we must always be:

- moving forward
- doing what is right
- living by the Word of God

Not saying that Jesus' return is a long way off! A lot of us remember when we thought He was coming in 1975. He didn't come! What happened to the Church? Took a while! POOF!

Section 309—Jesus Leaves the City Each Night

Luke 21:37: "And during the day He was in the temple teaching, and at night He went out and lodged on the mountain called the Mount of Olives."

He had a camping place right there on the Mount of Olives!

Verse 38: "And all the people came to Him in the temple early in the morning to hear Him."

He would come there at sunrise and be there all day, go out and come back.

Section 310—The Parable of the Ten Virgins

This is the story of those who are faithful and those who are sleeping and what happens. To show what a vessel/lamp means, we have a picture of an actual oil lamp from that age. They put the oil in and had the wick where it burned the oil.

How long would that last? Not very long! So, the ones who are wise had reserve; they always carried reserves. The ones who were foolish do not have any reserve, which tells you what the story is:

- if you don't study
- if you don't pray
- if you're not preparing
- if you're not taking each day as it comes

Then you may end up going to sleep!

- Have you seen those who've gone to sleep?

- Have you seen those who don't wake up?
- Have you seen those who have been deceived?

This is the whole story of the parable of the virgins! Same way with:

Section 311—The Parable of the Talents

He gives the talents, and those who are successful, what does He say? Well done, faithful servant!

Now here is something is not known very much today: a steward is someone who takes what the master gives them! He gave them five pounds, two pounds and one pound. A steward is to take that money make a profit for the owner of it, and not take anything for himself.

It's likened to those who preach and teach. We are to be stewards:

1. of God's Word
2. of God's people

We are not to take anything to ourselves to ingratiate ourselves and exalt ourselves. But to teach! Remember where we started with the parable how the Gentiles are ruled over. Their great ones and religious leaders have authority over them. Jesus said, 'It's not to be that way with you.' We are to teach!

An interesting comment was made by a man recently when he was looking for a church that would provide for them—the materials and things like that, in listening to some of them, most of them preach, but 'what we found with Christian Biblical, all the ministers teach!'

Last night in our Go to Meeting, there was an excellent message by Roger Kendall and I was very happy to see it because he slowed down in his speaking which was a major thing for him. He did an excellent job! that's what we need to do. All the elders need to teach. And the best thing we can teach is how you can run your own life with the Spirit of God and not have a minister be ruling over you! That can't work! That never works! If you want that join the Catholic Church!

Section 312—The Judgment of the Nations

Section 313—After Two Days the Passover Comes

Matthew 26:1: "Now, it came to pass that when Jesus had finished all these sayings, He said to His disciples, 'You know...'" (vs 1-2).

That tells us that they knew the times and all that sort of thing!

"...that after two days the Passover takes place, and the Son of man is delivered up to be crucified'" (v 2).

But they didn't understand that last sentence.

Verse 3: "Then the chief priests and the scribes and the elders of the people assembled together in the court of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas; and they took counsel together for the purpose of seizing Jesus by treachery, and killing Him. But they said, 'Not during the Feast, so that there will not be a riot among the people'" (vs 3-5).

Mark 14:1: "Now, after two days was the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread..."

Luke 22:1: "Now, the Feast of Unleavened Bread, which is called Passover, was approaching."

Luke is showing how the Jews interpreted it, because they kept the Passover on the 15th.

You'll have to read The Christian Passover book to get all the details of it. But I only found one rabbi who wrote and said that 'we do nothing on the 14th because we are in the Diaspora and our sins are following in the footsteps of our fathers.'

What they did in the Diaspora, they took the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread and called that the Passover, and instead of observing The Night Much to Be Remembered, they made that the night of the Seder.

When you read Deut. 16, if you misinterpret it, you may think that that authorizes the Passover sacrifice at the temple. Read it carefully and you will see that the offerings are to be from the flock and the herd. I challenge you to show me one place in the Bible that talks about the Passover calf. When you understand Exo. 13 about the redemption of the firstborn, you will see that all those sacrifices of the day portion of the 14th called Passover Offerings were offerings mostly for the redemption of the firstborn of man and beast.

Then they had the Night to be Much Remembered, and the instruction was to 'return to your tent in the morning.' So, they stayed up all night on the Night to be Much Observed!

Section 314—In Bethany, Jesus is Anointed for His Burial

He was anointed twice. Where was the first anointing? Lazarus' house where Mary and Martha were! Mary was the one who was doing Jesus' feet. This one here is in a different place.

Matthew 26:6: "Now, when Jesus was in Bethany, in Simon the leper's house."

That is not Lazarus!

Verse 7: "A woman came to Him with an alabaster flask of ointment, very precious, and poured it on His head..."

The first anointing was on His feet!

"...as He sat down to eat" (v 7).

- How did all of this come about?
- How did we have two flasks of alabaster ointment?
- Who was in charge of making sure that everything was carried out? All the angels!
- Who was in charge of the adversary trying to thwart everything that was being done? Satan the devil and his minions the priests!
- Who was the one who betrayed Jesus? Judas Iscariot!

We need to realize that there were angels, demons, high level demons. This was great, great thing to happen, and it was a combat of the ages, because here's the sacrifice of God in the person of the Son of God, His only Begotten Jesus Christ!

Verse 8: "But when His disciples saw it, they became indignant and said, 'What reason is there for this waste? For this ointment could have been sold for much, and the money given to the poor.' But Jesus knew this and said to them, 'Why do you cause trouble for this woman? For she has performed a good work toward Me. For you have the poor with you always, but you do not always have Me. What this woman did in pouring this ointment on My body, she did for My burial'" (vs 8-12).

After saying this will be preached in all the world (Matt. 26:13) both of them are talked about.

Nisan 12—Monday, April 3, 30 AD

Section 315—Judas Betrays Jesus to the Chief Priests for 30 Pieces of Silver

Luke 22:3: "Then Satan entered into Judas, who was surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve. And he went away, and spoke with the chief priests and the captains about a way by which he might betray Him to them. And they rejoiced..." (vs 3-5).

Think about that for a minute!

- Can Satan make people happy?
- Can Satan make people laugh?
- Yes!

I'm going to a couple of Church at Home {churchathome.org} called Satan's Trickery of Children!

There is a new movie coming out by Walt Disney... Think about this: when you understand what comes out of Disney World, everything there is based on satanism! Every single thing! It starts out kind of funny and nice, but they are going to have a movie about a child who has four parents, instilling in children the confusion of gender reality. Is not that evil? But it's going to be presented as funny!

I remember when we first saw Star Wars. Jonathan, David and Stephen were all excited in the car going home. I said to them, 'This is all satanism.' Ah, Dad!

It is! Who was the god that they worshipped? Yoda! That starts with the same letter as Yahweh. Things are getting more and more evil!

They rejoiced! They thought this could never happen. We've been planning and plotting and scheming! Here it 'fall into our lap.' Think about how victorious they felt!

Luke 22:6: "And he promised, and sought an opportunity to betray Him to them away from the multitude."

Mark 14:11: "And after hearing this, they were delighted and promised to give him money...."

Matthew 26:15: "And said, 'What are you willing to give me, and I will deliver Him up to you?' And they offered him thirty pieces of silver."

There again, we took the temple coins and put thirty pieces of silver.

Here's to show you that there was a lot going on with the angels in making everything take place. We're going to see why Jesus did it this way. In order for Jesus to be arrested at the right place, at the right time, and not before hand.

This last Passover, Jesus didn't tell any of the disciples where they were going to keep it. This presented a problems for Judas. If Jesus had told them, Judas could have gone to the chief priest and told him where they were keeping the Passover, 'come over and get Him there, and you can get all the disciples, as well.' Jesus didn't tell them!

Section 316—The Disciples Prepare for the Passover

These are literal translations of the Greek:

Matthew 26:17: "Now, on the first of the unleaveneds..."

No day was there!

“...the disciples came to Jesus, saying to Him, ‘Where do You desire that we prepare for You to eat the Passover?’ And He said, ‘Go into the city to such a man...’” (vs 17-18).

He didn't tell them who or where!

“...and say to him, ‘The Teacher says, ‘My time is near; I will keep the Passover with My disciples at your house’”” (v 18).

Mark 14:12: “And on the first day of the unleaveneds...”

There's a footnote I want you to read. If this were the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, think of the problems that you would have. Passover Day would already be gone! How could Christ be our Passover if this were the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread?

In addition, think on this: Since the Jews kept the Passover a day later, they would have kept their Passover on the 16th and not the 15th. So, what is the answer? Read in the Passover book, the Passover Day is an unleavened bread day in addition to the seven! Josephus writes of eight days of Unleavened Bread.

It used to be in the past that the people would take the Passover on the correct day and they were told they could have a hamburger in the day portion and eat leavened bread on the day portion. If you eat the unleavened bread of Christ, why can you eat leaven after the Passover? They didn't understand the Greek!

Verse 12: “And on the first day of the unleaveneds...”

This is all explained in the footnote in the Harmony and you can get more detail in the Passover book.

“...when they were killing...” (v 12).

That is a literal actual translation; a present tense participle in the Greek. Not when they killed, but “...were killing...”

Where were the disciples? Over in Bethany! Bethany and Bethphage are on this side of the Mount of Olives (referring to map). So, as they're coming down to go into the town, the whole area of the Mount of Olives had tents of pilgrims coming there to keep the Passover and Unleavened Bread. Most of them at that time kept the 14th. You can read that in the Passover book.

It unlocks all the Truth and refutes every Jewish error. So, if you haven't read the Passover book, you get it and we'll send it to you free.

“...when they were killing the Passover lambs...” (v 12).

When were they to kill the Passover lambs according to Exo. 12? Between the two evenings, which Exo. 16 shows is after sunset and before dark!

Get the picture: here's all the disciples there and Jesus didn't tell them where they were going to keep the Passover.

“...His disciples said to Him, ‘Where do You desire that we go and prepare, so that You may eat the Passover?’” (v 12).

Verse 13: “And He sent two of His disciples...”

Peter and John (Luke 22:8).

“...and said to them, ‘Go into the city, and you shall meet a man,,,’” (v 13).

How many people were there? Thousands and thousands!

“...carrying a pitcher of water; follow him” (v 13).

How was that made possible? The angels were working it all out to make sure that when the disciples hit a certain intersection the man carrying the water would be coming!

Luke 22:10: “And He said to them, ‘Watch, and when you come into the city, you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water; follow him into the house that he enters.’”

Jesus did not keep a Passover with the temple sacrificed lamb. He did not tell the disciples that they were killing the lambs and ‘run over to the temple and get a Passover lamb.’ No, He didn't! Who prepared the lamb? The master of the house! So, everything was ready.

Nisan 13—Tuesday, April 4, 30 AD

Mark 14:14: “And whatever house he shall enter, say to the master of the house that the Teacher says, ‘Where is the guest chamber, where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?’”

What happened? The master of the house was preparing everything and having it all ready to go! Killed the lamb and probably had it beginning to roast. Here comes the man with the water. What was the water to be used for? Washing of the feet! The disciples come in and they don't know the man. The man doesn't know them, and the Master or Teacher says, “...Where is the guest chamber, where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?”

All of that must have been worked out by the angels. It was so precise!

Verse 15: "And he shall show you a large upper room, furnished and ready. There prepare for us."

All they had to do was put out the unleavened bread and make sure that the lamb was going.

Verse 16: "And His disciples went away: and when they came into the city, they found it exactly as He had said to them; and they prepared the Passover."

Reading assignment: Read the commentary that follows in A Harmony of the Gospels, pg. 245-255: Jesus' Last Passover and Crucifixion and 28 prophecies fulfilled on the Passover Day.

If anyone is into odds-making, what are the odds that 28 specific prophecies could be fulfilled in one day? That's why all of this had to be prearranged by prophecy, by the work of the angels, to make it all come together for the most important thing since the creation of man.

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE

The Last Ten Days of Jesus' Life IV

From the Passover to the Crucifixion and the last seven sayings of Jesus

Fred R. Coulter

Greetings, brethren! Welcome to Sabbath services!

We've been going through the last ten days of Jesus' life, and we've been using A Harmony of the Gospels. I ask you to please go through the commentary, pgs 245-255—Jesus' Last Passover and Crucifixion—about the gruesomeness of the crucifixion and so forth. When we go through here, we're going to learn an awful lot.

Advertisement: In-Depth Studies:

- The Love of God
- Passover Preparation

The Passover demonstrates the love of God to nth degree. It shows us what Christ really did for us; only He could do it. Why is that? Why do you suppose that is true? Only He could do it because He created mankind and everything on the earth! Everything from the invisible to all the mountains, oceans, the sky and the universe out there. He created us!

- Why could only He do it?
- What else did He do?

In His judgment against Adam and Eve, He gave them 'the law of sin and death,' and that became part of human nature!

What He had to do is also take the 'law of sin and death' within Him, and His struggle was greater than any of ours because He couldn't sin! That's why only He could do it!

Around Jerusalem at that time there were legions and legions of angels. Remember that Jesus said one time when He was testing the apostles if they really believe Him. They said, 'Yes, we believe.' Jesus said, 'What would you do if you saw angels ascending and descending upon the Son of man?'

Also, Satan and the demons were there, so this was a real struggle at Jerusalem. The whole atmosphere was filled with this. That's why, as we saw in part three, Jesus did not tell them where they were going to keep the Passover, because He didn't want Judas coming in and messing up the Passover. So, Judas had to come along with them to the Passover. He couldn't betray them there, so as we will see later, it was out by the Garden of Gethsemane that Jesus was betrayed.

A Harmony of the Gospels, pg 274—this is the first part of the New Covenant, the foot-washing. Remember there are three parts:

1. foot-washing
2. bread
3. wine

Passover Day, Nisan 14—Tuesday Evening, April 4, 30 AD

Section 318—Jesus Institutes the New Covenant Passover:

First part of the New Covenant Passover: The Foot-Washing:

John 13:2: "And after supper began..."

or during supper! The King James says 'when supper ended,' but if you read a little further, they were still eating because Jesus dipped the sop and gave it to Judas. So, that's a complete wrong translation and contrary to the Greek.

Verse 2: "And after supper began (the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, that he should betray Him)."

Stop and think about this. All of us have to fight against our own evil thoughts. Sometimes we get provoked, and sometimes we don't even know why we're provoked. I've done it, you've done it and everybody else has done it.

Also, another way the evil thoughts come are from demons and Satan. There's one person that every time I say that 'Satan inspires' I get a postcard saying that Satan can't inspire. But he can put it in the heart, 'the prince of the power of the air' (Eph. 2).

Verse 3: "Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He had come from God and was going to God, rose from supper and laid aside His garments; and after taking a towel, He secured it around Himself" (vs 3-4).

This is a tremendous thing for us to understand. What is one of the first things that people stop doing when they're slipping away from the Truth? They give up foot-washing! It is humbling! None of us have picture-perfect feet.

Verse 5: "Next, He poured water into a washing basin and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel, which He had secured. Then He came to Simon Peter; and he said to Him..." (vs 5-6).

Look at Peter's attitude. Peter had a real lesson to learn this night, and we'll see what that is.

"... 'Lord, are You going to wash my feet?' Jesus answered and said to him, 'What I am doing you do not understand now, but you shall know after these things'" (vs 6-7).

After Jesus was done washing their feet!

Verse 8: "Peter said to Him, 'You shall not wash my feet, not ever.'..."

- Can we ever tell Jesus what to do? Think on that! NO!
- Was Peter hardheaded? Yes!
- Did he learn some lessons? Yes!
- Did he repent? Yes!
- Was he humbled? Yes!

"...Jesus answered him, 'If I do not wash you, you have no part with Me'" (v 8).

Look at how quickly his attitude change: from no to everything!

Verse 9: "Simon Peter said to Him, 'Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.'"

Why did Peter say that? Because the priests had to wash their hands and their head!

Verse 10: "Jesus said to him, 'The one who has been washed...'"

This has reference to baptism!

"...does not need to wash anything other than the feet, but is completely clean; and you are clean, but not all.' For He knew the one who was betraying Him; this was the reason He said, 'Not all of you are clean.'" (vs 10-12).

Here are some great lessons for us. Humility does not come because you make yourself humble. Humility comes because you are humbled by the magnitude of what God is doing. That's how humility comes. We don't raise ourselves above other to make ourselves important!

Jesus didn't say to Peter, 'Who do you think you are? I'm the Lord.' Jesus could have said that.

Verse 12: "Therefore, when He had washed their feet, and had taken His garments, and had sat down again, He said to them, 'Do you know what I have done to you?'"

They're probably all thinking, 'I don't have a clue!'

Verse 13: "You call Me the Teacher and the Lord, and you speak rightly, because I am. Therefore, if I, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet..." (vs 13-14).

Notice what He says; this is pretty powerful in the Greek:

"...you also are duty-bound to wash one another's feet; for I have given you an example, to show that you also should do exactly as I have done to you. Truly, truly I tell you, a servant is not greater than his lord..." (vs 14-16).

Never happen!

"...nor a messenger..."

*This could also be apostle!

"...greater than he who sent him. If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them" (vs 16-17).

What happens when people quit foot-washing? They're throwing away a blessing! Human nature is so basically evil that when they think they're doing something good, it's really sin!

Section 319—Judas Dips the Sop, and Leaves to Betray Jesus

John 13:18: "I am not speaking of you all; for I know whom I have chosen, in order that the Scripture might be fulfilled: 'He who eats bread with Me has lifted up his heel against Me.' I am telling you at this time, before it happens, so that when it does happen, you may believe that I AM" (vs 18-19).

The double 'ego emi'!

Verse 20: "Truly, truly I tell you, the one who receives whomever I send is receiving Me..."

This becomes important because you don't receive this to be arrogant and over-lording on the brethren. That's not the way. If you bring the Word of God, that is what is to be done.

"...and the one who receives Me is receiving Him Who sent Me" (v 20).

Think about that for a minute. God the Father is so involved with those who are going to be in the first resurrection, that those who are elders and servants of the people are actually representing the Father. Think of how loving, kind, generous and overwhelmingly good that God the Father is. Look at the attitude of Peter when he denied Christ three times. Peter was forgiven and he knew better! But he wasn't going to tell Jesus what to do, and he wasn't going to save Jesus from what was going to happen.

We need to realize that that being the case, it's a great responsibility and also a great humbling that God would do so.

Verse 21: "As He was saying these things, Jesus was troubled in spirit, and testified, saying, 'Truly, truly I tell you, one of you shall betray Me.'"

Isn't that always something? Someone also sneaks in and gets way up in authority. Then after a while—BANG!—it happens every time. This is how God gets rid of the tares. He scatters the Church and lets the tares stay where they are. But the Church is going on its own and the tares are stuck without God, and they don't even know it!

Verse 22: "Then the disciples looked at one another, wondering of whom He was speaking. Now one of His disciples, the one whom Jesus loved, was leaning on Jesus' chest. And so, Simon Peter motioned to him to ask who was the one of whom He was speaking. Then he leaned back on Jesus' chest and asked Him, 'Lord, who is it?' Jesus answered, 'It is the one to whom I shall give a sop after I have dipped it.'" (vs 22-26).

People say, 'How can you dip a sop if you have unleavened bread?' Very simple, after services you can take some scooper corn chips and you can scoop up some avocado and salsa. Are the corn chips unleavened bread? Did you dip it in the salsa and avocado? So, He took a piece of unleavened bread and scooped up something with a little morsel and gave it to Judas.

"...And when He had dipped the sop, He gave it to Judas Iscariot, Simon's son. And after the sop, Satan entered into him...." (vs 26-27)

Right there at the Passover! Think about that!

"...Then Jesus said to him, 'What you do, do quickly.' But not one of those sitting at the table knew why He said this to him; for some thought, since Judas had the bag, that Jesus was telling him, 'Buy the things that we need for the feast'; or that he should give something to the poor. So then, after receiving the sop, he immediately went out; and it was night. When he was gone, Jesus said, 'Now has the Son of man been glorified, and God has been glorified in Him. If God has been glorified in Him, God shall also glorify Him in Himself, and shall immediately glorify Him'" (vs 27-32).

That was a projection of the completion of all of the rest leading up to the resurrection. After Judas is gone:

Section 320—Second Part: Eating the Unleavened Bread

Matthew 26:26 "“And as they were eating, Jesus took the bread and blessed it; then He broke it and gave it to the disciples, and said, 'Take, eat; this is My body.'"

Remember, He gave a preview of this in John 6, and that was a hard thing for a lot of the disciples to take. What does it mean to eat His body? Some would say that's kind of cannibalistic! No, it's not! Because everything has to come through Christ:

In the beginning was the Word, the Word was with God and the Word was God! Everything came into being had to come into being because He brought it into being.

In this way God is projecting that He is going to share His life with us, IF we eat the Bread of Truth, the Word of God, compared to the stones that Satan said to make into bread. Jesus said, 'NO! Man is not to live by bread alone, but by word that proceeds out of the mouth of God!' This fulfills that!

Section 321—Third Part: Drinking the Wine

Verse 27: "And He took the cup; and after giving thanks, He gave it to them, saying, 'All of you drink of it; for this is My blood, the blood of the New Covenant...' " (vs 27-28).

In Deut. 32 it talks about the 'blood of the grape.' This was wine. What is a noted feature of wine when it's ready to drink? Unleavened! All the yeast is out of it! When you have sparkling wine, they put a little bit of leaven back in it so you get the bubbles. Was Christ's blood pure? Absolutely!

"...for this is My blood, the blood of the New Covenant..." (v 28).

Page 258 (Harmony): Chart showing the comparison of the sacrifice of Christ, what He went through and the parallel account with Abraham and the Lord in the Old Testament, and it follows right along exactly.

What did He say about the experience that He was going to go through? He said, 'I have a baptism that I'm going to be baptized by, and I'm in a straight until it's completed!' How was Jesus baptized? In His own blood!

“...the blood of the New Covenant, which is poured out for many for the remission of sins” (v 28).

Think about sin, repentance and forgiveness. What did Jesus say concerning repentance? Someone sins against you, Peter asked, 'What if he does it seven times? Should I forgive him?' Jesus said, ‘Yes! Seven times seventy!’

Why did He say that? Because He understood the weakness of human nature! It seems to work that way. Whenever you do something, and it's great and wonderful and ‘I know that God was with me and helping me’ and you turn around and sin! God is there to forgive you. That's what the sacrifice of Christ is all about!

Verse 29: “But I say to you, from this time forward I will not drink at all of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it anew with you in the Kingdom of My Father.’

I imagine that that is going to be a spiritual wine. What's that going to taste like? Think of this, right in the middle of the Passover service they have an argument.

Section 322—Contention Among the Disciples as to Who Would be the Greatest

What does this tell you? They understood that there were going to be some great things given, and so forth! Remember ‘mama’ with James and John? She came to Jesus and said, 'I have one thing to ask You.' What is it? 'That these, my two sons—the sons of thunder—one sit at Your right hand and one sit at your left hand.' Jesus said, ‘Woman, you don't know what you're asking.’ Here it begins again:

Luke 22:24: “And there was also an argument among them, even this: which of them should be considered the greatest. And He said to them, ‘The kings of the nations lord over them, and those who exercise authority over them are called benefactors’” (vs 24-25).

1. the rulers
2. religious leaders

Verse 26: But it shall not be this way among you; rather, let the one who is greatest among you be as the younger, and the one who is leading as the one who is serving.”

That's why a hierarchy is counter to what God really wants!

Verse 27: “For who is greater, the one who is sitting at the table, or the one who is serving? Is not the one who sits at the table? But I am among you as One Who is serving. Now, you are the ones who have continued with Me in My temptations” (vs 27-28).

On the Sabbath after the last Holy Day I've given a message for that day: What is the Difference Between Temptation and Tribulation? Do you know the difference?

- temptation—you have choices
- tribulation—it comes upon you and you have no choice

Verse 29: “And I appoint to you, as My Father has appointed to Me, a kingdom; so that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, and may sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel” (vs 29-30).

Section 323—A New Commandment—Love Each Other as Jesus Love His Disciples

John 13:33: “Little children...”

They weren't too much younger than Jesus!

“...I am with you yet a little while. You shall seek Me; but as I told the Jews, ‘Where I am going, you cannot come,’ I am now telling you also. A new commandment I give to you...” (vs 33-34).

We have the commandments:

- love God with all your heart, mind, soul and being
- love your neighbor as yourself

And on those two hang all the Law! Here's the third one, and Jesus also gave a fourth one.

Verse 34: “A new commandment I give to you that you love one another in the same way that I have loved you...”

That's pretty strong! This is how you are to love one another. That's commandment #3 in love. Commandment #4 is love your enemies! The best way to love your enemies is to stay away from them.

Verse 35: “By this shall everyone know that you are My disciples—if you love one another.”

Section 324—Jesus Prophecies that Peter Will Deny Him Three Times

Mark 14:27: “Then Jesus said to them, ‘All of you shall be offended in Me in this night; for it is written, “I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.” But after I have risen, I will go before you into Galilee.’ Then Peter said to Him, ‘Even if all shall be offended, yet, I shall not’” (vs 27-29).

The most powerful of human nature is not going to overcome what God has said. God has said, ‘All are sinners! Some people say, ‘I’m not.’ You’re sinners by nature!

Verse 30: “And Jesus said to him, ‘Truly I say to you, today, in this very night...’”

That proves that God reckons the day from sunset to sunset!

“...before the cock crows twice, you shall deny Me three times.’ But he spoke more adamantly, ‘If it were necessary for me to die with You, I would not deny You in any way.’ And they all spoke in the same manner also” (vs 30-31).

But what did Peter do? He did it! Think of that for a minute. Even your best effort to not do it, when God said you’re going to do it, you don’t have the strength to go against God. Amazing!

Section 325—The Beginning of the Final Message to His Disciples

We’re going to cover John 14 during the Passover so I don’t want to go deeply into this:

John 14:20: “In that day, you shall know that I am in My Father, and you are in Me, and I am in you.”

Here’s how you know. This is a test if you have Christ and the Father in you:

Verse 21: “The one who has My commandments and is keeping them, that is the one who loves Me, and the one who loves Me shall be loved by My Father, and I will love him and will manifest Myself to him.’ Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, ‘Lord, what has happened that You are about to manifest Yourself to us, and not to the world?’” (vs 21-22).

How does God manifest, or Christ manifest Himself to us today? By convincing you of the Truth! And you prove the Truth! The Truth can be proved and reproved and reproved over and over again down through all time, because it is true and it’s eternal!

Verse 23: “Jesus answered and said to him, ‘If anyone loves Me, he will keep My Word; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our abode with him.’”

That’s one of the most important verses in the Bible. You have two aspects of the Spirit:

- the Spirit of Christ, or the mind of Christ
- the Spirit of the Father, to be a son or daughter of God

Together! That is dwell in us!

When we sin, God doesn’t take it away. God is merciful and kind, and will forgive. That’s the whole purpose of the Passover and learning to love one another.

Section 326—Some Final Instructions to the Disciples

Luke 22:36: “Then He said to them, ‘Now, however, let the one who has a purse take it...’”

Section 327—Take Two Swords

Verse 38: “And they said, ‘Lord, see, here are two swords.’ And He said to them, ‘It is enough.’”

Section 328—They Sing a Hymn and Leave

Matthew 26:30: “And after singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.”

Section 329—Jesus Christ is the True Vine—Last Command to His Disciples

We’re going to cover the first part of John 15, because this becomes important. Remember how God compared Israel to a vine. Now He compares Himself to a vine and the Father to a husbandman. Some translate that as the farmer. But husbandman is much different, because husbandman means that you are married to the land to take care of it as a possession of God! So, Jesus makes this comparison:

John 15:1: “I am the true vine, and My Father is the husbandman. He takes away every branch in Me that does not bear fruit; but He cleanses each one that bears fruit, in order that it may bear more fruit” (vs 1-2).

- How does He cleanse it? By revealing the sin within so you can repent, that’s how!
- How much sin do we have stored in our mind?
- Do you want me to get a CD and play

Christmas Carols? You have them stored in the mind!

You have them all right there!

- What else do you have there? Every once in a while your human nature cuts loose!

*It's happened to me! It's happened to you! The cleansing is the pruning to get it out in the open so that you can repent!

Verse 3: "You are already clean through the word that I have spoken to you. Dwell in Me, and I in you. As a branch cannot bear fruit of itself, but only if it remains in the vine, neither can you bear fruit unless you are dwelling in Me" (vs 3-4).

I remember one Feast of Tabernacles we were in a beautiful place for a Feast. We had for the first time people come from Michigan. We had 12 people! We thought this was something. So, we broke off some branches from a tree and we just put up where we were meeting so we could watch them. Every day of the Feast we looked at the branches. The second day looked like the first day. Third day they were drooping. Fourth day they were really getting bad. Fifth day they were getting very, very dry. Sixth-eight days there was nothing left.

That shows that we need to stay in Christ! How do we stay in Christ? By loving, praying, repenting, overcoming, asking God to help us in everything!

Verse 4: Dwell in Me, and I in you. As a branch cannot bear fruit of itself, but only if it remains in the vine, neither can you bear fruit unless you are dwelling in Me. I am the vine, and you are the branches. The one who is dwelling in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; because apart from Me you can do nothing" (vs 4-5).

What did Jesus say of Himself when He was here? I do nothing of Myself, that is out from within Me! The Father does the works.

Verse 6: "If anyone does not dwell in Me, he is cast out as a branch, and is dried up; and men gather them and cast them into a fire, and they are burned."

Here is a promise for prayer:

Verse 7: "If you dwell in Me, and My words dwell in you..."

Both!

"...you shall ask whatever you desire, and it shall come to pass for you. In this is My Father glorified, that you bear much fruit; so shall you be My disciples" (vs 7-8).

Then He tells how! It's very interesting and very important! There are 1700 ifs in the Bible, and all of them are contingent upon what people choose to do or not do.

Verse 10: "If you keep My commandments, you shall live in My love; just as I have kept My Father's commandments and live in His love. These things I have spoken to you, in order that My joy may dwell in you, and that your joy may be full" (vs 10-11).

Think about poor Lot living in Sodom; that's about what it is for us today! He didn't have much joy because he was always upset over what was happening. Finally, when it came time to go, the only ones who went were he and his wife and two daughters. All the rest of the family said, 'You're nuts! It's not going to happen!'

So, they were going out and the angel said, 'Don't look behind!' Guess what happened? Lot's wife looked behind and turned into a pillar of salt! I don't know if it was true or not, but Josephus writes that that pillar of salt was still there in his day.

Section 330—Final Words of Encouragement

John 16:26: "In that day, you shall ask in My name; and I do not tell you that I will beseech the Father for you, for the Father Himself loves you..." (vs 26-27).

That is a profound statement! Whenever you're down at the bottom of the pit and you think all is lost, it's not! Whether you're way up here, and you're knocked down, remember that the Father—Who is Sovereign of the whole universe—loves you! He loved the Son—didn't He? But look what Jesus had to go through, and that had to be because of Jesus' love back to the Father and the love for the plan of God and what He's going to do for all human beings. So, we pray to the Father directly!

"...because you have loved Me, and have believed that I came forth from God. I came forth from the Father and have come into the world; again, I am leaving the world and am going to the Father" (vs 27-28).

Section 331—All Will be Scattered. Jesus Has Overcome the World

Verse 32: "Listen, the time is coming, and has already come, that you shall be scattered each to his own, and you shall leave Me alone; and yet, I am not alone because the Father is with Me. These things I have spoken to you so that in Me you may have peace. In the world you shall have tribulation..." (vs 32-33).

*A lot of difficulties and things come upon us that we have no control over! That's tribulation!

"...But be courageous! I have overcome the world" (v 33).

Section 334, page 284—Jesus Prays for Three Hours

They go out to the area of the Garden of Gethsemane

Matthew 26:39: And after going forward a little, He fell on His face, praying, and saying, 'My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from Me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as You will.'

So, He had to overcome even the human element of knowing how bad that this would be that He was saying, 'Will You delay it?'

Verse 40: "Then He came to His disciples and found them sleeping. And He said to Peter, 'What! Were you not able to watch with Me one hour? Watch and pray, so that you do not enter into temptation; the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak'" (vs 40-41).

That's true for all human beings. Last time we had the best thought in the world, we end up doing the worst thing in the world.

Verse 42: "The second time He went again and prayed, saying, 'My Father, if this cup cannot pass from Me unless I drink it, Your will be done.'"

Through prayer He was able to overcome that pull of human nature the first time!

Verse 43: "Now, when He came to them, He found them asleep again, because their eyes were heavy. And leaving them, He went again and prayed the third time, saying the same thing" (vs 43-44).

Luke 22:44: "And being in agony, He prayed more earnestly. And His sweat became as great drops of blood falling down to the ground."

This shows how deeply He had to pray!

Passover Day, Nisan 14—Wednesday Morning, April 5, 30 AD

Section 335—The Lord's Prayer

When you really analyze it, this shows you the whole plan of God in that one chapter (John 17). Just to give you something to think on: How did John know this prayer if he was sleeping? *Jesus had to give him this prayer sometime later! It's word for word of what Jesus was saying, and it's the whole plan of God! So much so that I'm going to save that for a separate message, because if I get too deeply involved in it here, we won't get to where we need to be.

John 17:11: "And I am no longer in the world, but these are in the world, and I am coming to You. Holy Father, keep them in Your name, those whom You have given Me, so that they may be one, even as We are one."

Sidebar on this with the name: If you meet a sacred-namer and he says that you have to have this Hebrew name, this name and the other name. If you turn to John 17, in the Greek it is 'hater': Father! That's His sacred name for the New Testament. There's no other name. It's not here. So, keep that in mind.

Verse 12: "When I was with them in the world, I kept them in Your name. I protected those whom You have given Me, and not one of them has perished except the son of perdition, in order that the Scriptures might be fulfilled."

Then it shows that we are to become at-one with Christ and the Father!

Verse 20: "I do not pray for these only, but also for those who shall believe in Me through their word."

That's us! Everybody all down through time who had the Word of God, the New Testament! He's praying, and He makes intercession for us. Notice how Jesus always keeps His mind on the goal.

Verse 21: "That they all may be one, even as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, in order that the world may believe that You did send Me."

Section 336—The time of the Betrayal Approximately 12:20 A.M.

There's a two page chart—pgs 256-7—showing the whole thing hour by hour down through the time.

Matthew 26:45: "Then He came to His disciples and said to them, 'Sleep on now, and take your rest. Behold, the hour has drawn near, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Arise! Let us be going. Look, the one who is betraying Me is approaching'" (vs 45-46).

That was quite a thing!

Section 337—Judas Betrays Jesus with a Kiss

John 18:1: "After saying these things, Jesus went out with His disciples to a place beyond the winter stream of Kidron, where there was a garden into which He and His disciples entered. And Judas, who was betraying Him, also knew of the place because Jesus had often gathered there with His disciples. Then Judas, after receiving a band and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, came there with torches and lamps and weapons. Jesus, therefore, knowing all the things that were coming upon Him, went forward and said to them, 'Who are you seeking?' They answered Him, 'Jesus the Nazarean.' Jesus said to them, 'I AM.' And Judas, who was betraying Him, was also standing with them. But when He said to them, 'I AM,' they went backward and fell to the ground" (vs 1-6).

He gave them a chance to not do it!

Verse 7: "Then He asked them again, 'Who are you seeking?' And they said, 'Jesus the Nazarean.' Jesus answered, 'I told you that I AM. Therefore, if you are seeking Me, allow these to go their way'; so that the saying might be fulfilled which He had said, 'Of those whom You have given Me, not one of them have I lost'" (vs 7-9).

Section 338—Peter Cuts Off an Ear of the High Priest's Servant, and Jesus Heals Him

I often wondered what happened with this, because Peter cut off the ear of a servant of the high priest. Then He healed it by putting it back on. If I were that soldier, I would be feeling my ear all night. 'It's still there. I saw that Peter cut off and this Man put it back on!' You could say today, and no stitches!

John 18:10: "Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it out and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear. And the servant's name was Malchus. But Jesus said to Peter, 'Put your sword into the sheath; shall I not drink the cup that the Father has given Me?' Then the band and the chief captain and the officers of the Jews took hold of Jesus, and bound Him" (vs 10-12).

Section 339—All Was Done to Fulfill Prophecy

Matthew 26:56: "But all this has happened so that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled...."

Think about that. There's a section on pgs 268-273: Twenty-Eight Prophecies Fulfilled on the Crucifixion Day.

How were all of those fulfilled? The angels were making sure that they were done! The demons were carrying out what they were allowed to do.

"...Then all the disciples forsook Him and fled" (v 56).

Section 340—Jesus is Led Away to the Priest's House

John 18:13: "and they led Him away to Annas first; for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. Now, it was Caiaphas who had given counsel to the Jews that it was profitable for one man to perish for the people" (vs 13-14).

Section 341—Peter Follows Them into the Courtyard

- Why did Peter follow along?
- Why didn't he just follow the others?
- What had to happen to Peter?
- Peter had to deny Christ three times, so he couldn't go off by himself!

John 18:15: "But Simon Peter and the other disciple followed Jesus. And that disciple was known to the high priest, and entered with Jesus into the court of the high priest. But Peter stood outside at the door. Then the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the doorkeeper, and brought Peter in" (vs 15-16).

The angels must have been really, really busy at that time making sure that everything was done!

Verse 18: "Now, the servants and the officers had made a fire, for it was cold; and they were standing there warming themselves, and Peter was also standing and warming himself."

- I wonder what he thought, because who was there with the healed ear?
- Who was the one who had the sword to cut it off? Peter!

Section 342—Annas Questions Jesus and Sends Him to Caiaphas

John 18:19: "Then the high priest questioned Jesus concerning His disciples and concerning His teachings. Jesus answered him, 'I spoke openly to the world; I always taught in the synagogue and in the temple, where the Jews always assemble, and I spoke nothing in secret. Why do you question Me? Ask those who have heard what I spoke to them; behold, they know what I said” (vs 19-21).

A good lesson: you don't answer every question directly, but answer with a question! Put the burden of proof on them!

Approximately 2 AM

John 18:22: “But after He said these things, one of the officers who was standing by struck Jesus on the face, saying, ‘Do You answer the high priest in that way?’ Jesus answered him, ‘If I have spoken evil, testify of the evil; but if well, why do you strike Me?’ Then Annas sent Him bound to Caiaphas, the high priest” (vs 22-24).

Section 343—The Chief Priests Illegally Condemn Jesus

Matthew 26:59: “Now, the chief priests and the elders and the whole Sanhedrin...”

The whole Sanhedrin was 120!

“...sought false evidence against Jesus, so that they might put Him to death; but they did not find any. Although many false witnesses came forward, they did not find any evidence. Then at the last, two false witnesses came forward and said, ‘This man said, “I have the power to destroy the temple of God, and to rebuild it in three days”” (vs 59-61).

This sounds like the hearings of the Democrats today! ‘We’ve got to find a crime...’

Verse 62: “And the high priest rose up and said to Him, ‘Have You no answer for what these are testifying against You?’ But Jesus was silent. And the high priest answered and said to Him, ‘I adjure You by the living God that You tell us if You are the Christ, the Son of God.’ Jesus said to him, ‘You have said it. Moreover, I say to you, in the future you shall see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven” (vs 62-64).

Projecting clear forward to His second coming! They understood this because they knew Dan. 7, that ‘the Son of man came to the Ancient of Days.’ They knew that!

Verse 65: “Then the high priest ripped his own garments, saying, ‘He has blasphemed! Why do we need any more witnesses? Behold, you have just now heard His blasphemy. What do you think?’ They answered and said, ‘He is deserving of death!’ Then they spit in His face and hit Him with their fists; and some struck Him with rods, saying, ‘Prophecy to us, Christ. Who is the one that struck You?’” (vs 65-68).

Section 344—Peter Denies Jesus Three Times

Luke 22:56: “And a certain maid saw him sitting by the light; and after looking at him intently, she said, ‘Now this one was with Him.’ But he denied Him, saying, ‘Woman, I do not know Him.’ And after a little while, another saw him and said, ‘You also are one of them.’ But Peter said, ‘Man, I am not.’ Now, after about an hour had passed, a certain other man strongly affirmed, saying, ‘In truth, this one also was with Him, for he is indeed a Galilean.’ And Peter said, ‘Man, I do not know what you are talking about.’ And immediately, while he was yet speaking, the cock crowed” (vs 56-60).

This scene always intrigues me:

Verse 61: “Then the Lord turned and looked at Peter; and Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had said to him, ‘Before the cock crows, you shall deny Me three times.’ And Peter went outside and wept bitterly” (vs 61-62).

- How great a sin was that? Pretty powerful!
- Did Peter remember this the rest of His life? Yes, he did!

We’ll see that later, right before Jesus ascended, He had a special message for Peter because of this!

Section 345—The Sanhedrin Condemns Jesus and Sends Him to Pilate

Luke 22:66: “Now, as soon as it was day, the elders of the people assembled together, with both the chief priests and the scribes, and they led Him into their Sanhedrin, saying, ‘If You are the Christ, tell us.’ And He said to them, ‘If I should tell you, you would not believe Me at all; and if I should also ask you, you would not answer Me at all, nor let Me go. Hereafter, shall the Son of man be sitting at the right hand of the power of God.’ And they all said, ‘Then You are the Son of God?’ And He said to them, ‘I am that One, as you say.’ Then they said, ‘What need do we have of any other witness? For we ourselves have heard from His own mouth” (vs 66-71).

Luke 23:1: “And when the entire assembly of them arose, they led Him to Pilate.”

Note message: The Enigma of Judas Iscariot. Why did he have to die the way that he did? If you commit or are an accomplice in murder, you have to die, too.

- Would the Jews execute him?
- Would the Romans execute him?
- Could the disciples execute him?
- No!
- Who executed Judas? Himself!

That was the only way that he could have been given the death penalty, because no one else would have done it.

Section 346—Judas Repents and Hangs Himself—The Chief Priests Buy Potter’s Field

Matthew 27:3: “Now, when Judas, who had betrayed Him, saw that He was condemned, he changed his mind and returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders, saying, ‘I have sinned and have betrayed innocent blood.’ But they said, ‘What is that to us? You see to it yourself.’ And after throwing down the pieces of silver in the temple, he went out and hanged himself” (vs 3-5).

Look at how ‘righteous’ they were!

Verse 6: “But the chief priests took the pieces of silver and said, ‘It is not lawful...’”

Here they are killing Christ, and now they’re saying

“...‘It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, since it is the price of blood.’ And after taking counsel, they bought a potter’s field with the pieces of silver, for a burial ground for strangers. Therefore, that field is called The Field of Blood to this day” (vs 6-8).

Section 347—Jesus is Condemned Before Pilate: He Questions Jesus

Matthew 27:11: “Then Jesus stood before the governor...”

Who was it that killed Jesus? All of us! But Jesus’ death covers the sins of the whole world. So, what do we find here? Pilate represented the Roman Empire—government! Pilate was symbolic of all governments of the world!

The high priest was symbolic of... Remember that Jesus said, ‘You are of your father the devil.’ Are all the religions of the world of the devil? Yes! So, the high priest was symbolic of all the religions of the world!

All the people who said, ‘Crucify Him! Crucify Him!’ was symbolic of all of the people of the world who rejected Christ!

This was a great and fantastic thing that was going on; way beyond just the account there that we have in the Bible. It has great ramifications.

“...and the governor questioned Him, saying, ‘Are You the King of the Jews?’ And Jesus said to him, ‘It is as you said.’ And when He was accused by the chief priests and the elders, He answered nothing. Then Pilate said to Him, ‘Don’t You hear how many things they testify against You?’ And He did not answer even one word to him, so that the governor was greatly amazed” (vs 11-14).

Then Pilate finds out that Jesus was from Galilee!

Section 348—Pilate Sends Jesus to Herod

Luke 23:5: “But they were insistent, saying, ‘He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all of Judea, beginning from Galilee even to here.’ And when he heard Galilee named, Pilate asked whether the Man were a Galilean; and after determining that He was from Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, since he also was in Jerusalem in those days. And when Herod saw Jesus, he rejoiced greatly; for he had long been desiring to see Him because he had heard many things about Him, and he was hoping to see a miracle done by Him. And he questioned Him with many words; but He answered him nothing. All the while, the chief priests and the scribes stood vehemently accusing Him. Then Herod and his soldiers treated Him with contempt; and after mocking Him, he put a splendid robe on Him and sent Him back to Pilate. And on that same day, Pilate and Herod became friends with each other, because before there was enmity between them” (vs 5-12).

- Can Satan bring people together?
- Bring them so they agree with each other and they’re happy about it?
- Yes, he can!

Remember that in WWII Germany made a peace alliance with Russia and they were happy and glad that it occurred. But that turned out to be a total disaster.

Section 349—Pilate Finds Jesus Innocent

John 18:31: “Then Pilate said to them, ‘You take Him and judge Him according to your own law.’ But the Jews said to him, ‘It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death’; so that the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which He had spoken to signify by what death He was about to die” (vs 31-32).

What did Jesus tell Nicodemus on that night? When the Son of man is lifted up! He knew how He was going to die! Nicodemus didn’t know a thing. His mind was closed and later it was opened. But I tell you, he had to come at night because he was afraid of the other ones. ‘We know You’re a man from God, but tell us something.’ He didn’t tell them anything! Unless you are born again you’re not going to see the Kingdom of God.

I imagine Nicodemus was saying, ‘What is this?’ Jesus said, ‘If I tell you earthly things, what would you do if I told you heavenly things? Here we have it that they could not kill Jesus.

Verse 33: “Then Pilate returned to the judgment hall and called Jesus, and said to Him, ‘Are You the King of the Jews?’ Jesus answered him, ‘Do you ask this of yourself, or did others say it to you concerning Me?’ Pilate answered Him, ‘Am I a Jew?....’” (vs 33-35).

How am I supposed to know?

“...The chief priests and your own nation have delivered You up to me. What have You done?’ Jesus answered, ‘My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, then would My servants fight, so that I might not be delivered up to the Jews. However, My kingdom is not of this world.’ Pilate, therefore, answered Him, ‘Then You are a king?’ Jesus answered, ‘As you say, I am a king. For this purpose I was born, and for this reason I came into the world, that I may bear witness to the Truth. Everyone who is of the Truth hears My voice.’ Pilate said to Him, ‘What is Truth?’ And after saying this, he went out again to the Jews and said to them, ‘I do not find any fault in Him’” (vs 35-38).

But it shows mob action!

Section 350—Pilate Releases Barabbas and Crucifies Jesus, 8 AM

John 18:39: “And it is a custom with you that I release one to you at the Passover. Do you then desire that I release the King of the Jews to you?’ But they all shouted again, saying, ‘Not this one, but Barabbas.’....” (vs 39-40).

Do you know what that name means? Bar-Abbas, son/father, so of the father. How ironic.

“...Now, Barabbas was a robber” (v 40).

Luke 23:19: “He was the one who had been cast into prison on account of making a certain insurrection in the city and committing murder.”

Sounds almost like our justice system in Washington, DC, today!

Verse 20: “Therefore, Pilate again called to them, wishing to release Jesus. But they kept crying out, saying, ‘Crucify Him, crucify Him!’ And a third time he said to them, ‘But what evil did this Man commit? I have not found any cause worthy of death in Him. Therefore, after chastising Him, I will release Him.’ But they were urgent with loud voices, asking for Him to be crucified. And their voices, and those of the chief priests, prevailed” (vs 20-23).

Section 351—Pilate Washes His Hands in a Show of Innocence

Political! He gave in!

Matthew 27:24: “Now Pilate, seeing that he was accomplishing nothing, but that a riot was developing instead, took water and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, ‘I am guiltless of the blood of this righteous man. You see to it.’

Section 352—Pilate Releases Barabbas; Jesus is Beaten and Scourged

Matthew 27:26: “Then he released Barabbas to them; but after scourging Jesus, he delivered Him up so that He might be crucified. Then the governor’s soldiers, after taking Jesus with them into the Praetorium, gathered the entire band against Him; and they stripped Him and put a scarlet cloak around Him. And after plating a crown of thorns, they put it on His head, and a rod in His right hand; and bowing on their knees before Him, they mocked Him, and kept on saying, ‘Hail, King of the Jews!’” (vs 26-29).

Remember, He’s got the crown of thorns on His head!

Verse 30: “Then, after spitting on Him...”

I'm sure it wasn't just a little water!

"...they took the rod and struck Him on the head" (v 30).

So, those thorns would go right in under the skin right next to His skull!

Verse 31: "When they were done mocking Him, they took the cloak off Him; and they put His own garments on Him and led Him away to crucify Him."

Section 354, pg 300—the Soldiers Lead Jesus Away to be Crucified, and Make Simon of Cyrene Carry His Cross

Luke 23:26: "And as they led Him away, they laid hold on a certain Cyrenian named Simon, who was coming from a field; and they put the cross on him..."

The cross that you see in movies is not anything like this. They would take a tree and they would put huge iron clasps on it, u-shaped so they could take a cross-bar and put it right there. When the person died they would take it out and put someone else there.

So, when Jesus was carrying His cross, He was carrying the crossbar, not the whole thing. That's why it says in other places that He was crucified on a tree, because it was a tree, and there were two trees, one on each side, for the other malefactors.

Verse 27: "And following Him was a great multitude of people with many women, who also were bewailing and lamenting Him. But Jesus turned to them and said, 'Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. For behold, the days are coming in which they shall say, 'Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that did not bear, and the breasts that did not give suck.' Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us'; and to the hills, 'Cover us.'....'" (vs 27-30).

He goes right from that time to the destruction of Jerusalem, and then on into the part of Rev. 6 where the heavens roll back as a scroll and the mountains, earth and everything is shaken, and they go to the holes in the ground.

Section 355—Jesus Refuses Wine and Myrrh (Vinegar and Gall)—They Crucify Him

Matthew 27:34: "They gave Him vinegar mingled with gall to drink; but after tasting it, He would not drink."

Section 356—The Soldiers Cast Lots for His Garments—Jesus Asks the Father to Forgive Them for Crucifying Him

Matthew 27:35: "And when they had crucified Him, they divided His garments by casting lots; so that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, 'They divided My garments among themselves, and for My vesture they cast lots.' And they sat down there to keep guard over Him" (vs 35-36).

How did the soldiers know to do that? Probably was an angel right there! Couldn't see him, but making sure that this prophecy was fulfilled! That's how it had to be done.

Section 357—Pilate Has a Title and Accusation Written and Put on the Cross

Luke 23:38: "And there also was an inscription over Him written in Greek and Latin and Hebrew: 'This is the King of the Jews.'

John 19:20: "As a result, many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Greek and in Latin. Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, 'Do not write, "The King of the Jews"; but that He said, "I am King of the Jews."' Pilate answered, 'What I have written, I have written'" (vs 20-22).

Even down to the last thing, try and change it all!

Section 358—Two Malefactors (Thieves) Crucified with Jesus

Matthew 27:38: "And two robbers were crucified with Him, one at the right hand and one at the left."

I do not know how one commentator said that there were two on the right hand and two on the left hand. I couldn't find it. But that's what some people believe.

Mark 15:28: "Then the Scripture was fulfilled, which says, 'And He was numbered among lawbreakers.'"

All of that! Why were two others crucified? Why didn't they just crucify one? They were busy getting rid of 'bad' people!

Section 359—The People, Priests and Two thieves Mock and Revile Him. Darkness From the Sixth Hour to the Ninth Hour (Approximately Noon to 3 PM)

Matthew 27:39: "Then those who were passing by railed at Him, shaking their heads, and saying, 'You Who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save Yourself....'" (vs 39-40).

Could Jesus have done that? But that would have been against the will of God, so He didn't!

"...If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross.' And in the same way also the chief priests were mocking, with the scribes and elders, saying, 'He saved others, but He does not have the power to save Himself. If He is the King of Israel, let Him come down now from the cross, and we will believe Him. He trusted in God; let Him deliver Him now, if He will have Him. For He said, "I am the Son of God.'" And the two robbers who were crucified with Him also reproached Him with the same words. Now, from the sixth hour until the ninth hour, darkness was over all the land" (vs 40-45).

Luke 23:39: "Then one of the malefactors who was hanging there railed at Him, saying, 'If You are the Christ, save Yourself and us.' But the other one answered and rebuked him, saying, 'Do not even you fear God, you who are under the same condemnation? And we indeed justly, for we are receiving due payment for what we did; but this Man did nothing wrong.' Then he said to Jesus, 'Remember me, Lord, when You come into Your kingdom'" (vs 39-42).

The Seven Sayings of Jesus:

Verse 43: "And Jesus said to him, ¹Truly, I tell you today, you shall be with Me in paradise."

Why could it not be that day? He was saying today that 'you shall be with Me in paradise.' He didn't say that 'today you shall be in paradise.'

Section 360—Jesus Makes John Responsible for His Mother: Mary

John 19:25: "And Jesus' mother stood by the cross, and His mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw His mother, and the disciple whom He loved standing by, He said to His mother, ²Woman, behold your son.' Then He said to the disciple, ³Behold your mother.' And from that time, the disciple took her into his own home" (vs 25-26).

Section 361—At the Ninth Hour Jesus is Forsaken and Offered Vinegar—A Spear is Truth into His side and He Dies—The temple veil is torn in Two

Matthew 27:46: "And about the ninth hour, Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, ⁴Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?' That is, My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"

He had to be forsaken by the Father completely in order to be that perfect sacrifice!

Verse 47: "And some of those who were standing there heard and said, 'This one is calling for Elijah.'"

Luke 23:46: "And after crying out with a loud voice, Jesus said, ⁵Father, into Your hands I commit My spirit.' And when He had said these things, He expired.

John 19:28: "After this, Jesus, knowing that all things had now been finished, so that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, ⁶I thirst.' Now, a vessel full of vinegar was sitting there. And after filling a sponge with vinegar and putting it on a stick of hyssop, they put it up to His mouth And so, when Jesus had received the vinegar, He said, ⁷It is finished.'...." (vs 28-30).

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO

The Last 10 Days of Jesus' Life V

From the Death of Jesus to His ascension and acceptance by God the Father

Fred R. Coulter

Greetings, everyone! Welcome to the Sabbath services!

Since we're getting close to the Passover, and there is always a dispute about whether the bread for the Passover should be on unleavened or leavened. Maybe some of you never heard of that, but that exists.

Remember, every time there may be something a little difficult to understand, someone's going to have the theory to explain it, something other than what it really is. So, our advertisement today, thanks to Ken:

What kind of bread? Article: Christ's Last Passover, Leavened or Unleavened? by Ben Ambrose {truthofGod.org} He wrote this years ago, because it came up. And it's keyed on the sop. Now remember that we covered that. That if today you have unleavened chips and you can scoop in some avocado, (guacamole) or salsa, then that's a sop.

Now, last time we finished up page 304, and we will finish it with this, so that everyone will have everything before Passover. Because it wouldn't be any good to have this as a special series for Passover, and half of it comes after the Feast of Unleavened Bread. That wouldn't work out too well.

Now, I have to make one correction, and that was, I said last time (part 4), that when the vinegar was given to Him. He refused it. That was not correct, He received it. The first time they gave it to Him, He refused it. The last time He received it, and then He died.

Now remember, this was a tremendous event in the world. There was:

- Satan
- the angels
- Christ
- all of the religious authorities

A stark battle going on back and forth! Christ had to die at the right time. That's why the authorities were frustrated in their efforts to get Jesus ahead of time, because it had to happen at the right time.

from A Harmony of the Gospels:

Passover Day Nisan 14—Wednesday afternoon, April 5, 30 AD

Section 362—An Earthquake Opens Some Graves for a Resurrection of Some of the Saints to Another Physical Life as a Sign and a Witness

Matthew 27:51: "...the earth shook..."

How much of a shock was it?

"...and the rocks were split."

Here in California, we have quite a few earthquakes, so we know what it is. Every once in a while, we have an earthquake at night, before you go to sleep and you're laying there and all of a sudden the house starts moving. We have a lot of minor earthquakes that aren't even felt. So, this was a fantastic thing to declare how important His death was.

Verse 52: "So that the tombs were opened..."

The tombs were different from what we have today. They would, dig a small cave inside the rocks, then—just like Jesus' tomb—they rolled the big stone in front of it. They would have this stone cut and put right alongside the opening. They would have a wedge right under the bottom of it, so it wouldn't move until that wedge was released. These tombs opened, meaning in the front of those caves the stones came off. Now notice what happened:

"...And many bodies of the saints who had died, were resurrected after His resurrection..." (vs 52-53).

They weren't resurrected before Jesus' resurrection. Couldn't be, because the firstborn from the dead was Christ.

Verse 53: "After His resurrection; and they came out of the tombs..."

This happens a lot in the Bible. Make a statement to declare what's going to happen. It says: "...were resurrected..." (v 52). But the question is when? A lot of people think that they were resurrected right away, but they weren't.

Verse 53: "After His resurrection; and they came out of the tombs. Then they entered into the Holy City, and appeared to many."

What if you had one of your relatives just buried the week before, and you were still mourning? Since others were resurrected before, there was no conflict. But after His resurrection, they went into the city, which says then that they didn't stay alive in the tomb for three days. They had to be resurrected after He was resurrected. I think on the day that Christ was resurrected, it's important that He was first. When that happened there was the earthquake

Section 363—The Centurion Acknowledges that Jesus was the Son of God

Verse 54: "Then the centurion and those with him who had been keeping guard over Jesus, after seeing the earthquake..."

Remember what happened with the earthquake. The veil was split in two and opened so that the Holy of Holies was seen. That means, they could not have had any sacrifices at the temple on the day that Jesus died; they would have to move everyone out. Plus whatever damage was done to the temple area.

"...and the things that took place, were filled with fear, and said 'Truly this was the Son of God!'" (v 54).

Now then, notice what has to happen. Whenever you have a scheme, you've got to have some way to make it appear right? Well now, Jesus was buried! You can tie this in with Psa. 63, how Jesus really died. It says He died of a broken heart. That means a heart that was pierced, not emotionally, not that His emotions were broken.

Section 364—The Jews Want Jesus' Body Off the Cross Before the Holy Day Begins at Sunset

John 19:31: "The Jews, therefore, so that the bodies might not remain on the cross on the Sabbath, because it was a preparation day (for that Sabbath...[that is the one coming] ...was a High Day)..."

This tells us this is the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread. That's the only day that comes after the Passover Day.

"...requested of Pilate that their legs might be broken and the bodies be taken away. Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first one, and the legs of the other who was crucified with Him. But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs" (vs 31-33).

Now there's also fulfilled another prophecy: 'not a bone would be broken.' That's why I want you to go through the Twenty-eight Prophecies Fulfilled on the Crucifixion Day (Harmony, pgs 268-273). If you do a little mathematics it's impossible that all of those would have happened coincidentally.

Verse 34 tells you why: "But one of the soldiers had pierced..."

that's what it is in the Greek—past tense

"...His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water had come out."

Now the way that that spear was put in, it was put in from the right side and thrust up and got His heart. Because all of His blood had to be shed. He could not have died with blood in His heart. It had to be shed.

Verse 35: "And he who saw this has testified, and his testimony is true; and he knows that what he says is true, so that you may believe."

This is John telling you that 'What I'm writing is true. I saw it; I was there!'

Verse 36: "For these things took place so that the Scripture might be fulfilled, 'Not a bone of Him shall be broken.' And again another Scripture says, 'They shall look upon Him Whom they pierced'" (vs 36-37).

Section 365—Many of the Women Watch to the End

The women are there; they're watching this. Now think about this. They were hoping, as the two men from Emmaus were, that He was going to be the Messiah. What was the version of the Messiah they were looking for? A man to come and take over the government and raise up an army and get rid of the Romans!

So, when He died they didn't know what to do. They were still blinded, even the disciples. They didn't understand what He meant three days and three nights, and the third day, and being raised from the dead. They were watching a far off, and I imagine a lot of them were really disappointed.

How could it be that the One Who is the Messiah was dying, when the prophecies we read say He's going to save us from our enemies? The answer is, because God has a greater plan than anyone has ever thought of!

Section 366: Just Before Sunset, Joseph Of Arimathea Gets the Body of Jesus and Lays It In the Tomb

John 19:38: "Now, after these things, Joseph (the one from Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but having concealed it for fear of the Jews) asked Pilate that he might take Jesus' body away; and Pilate gave him permission. Then he came and took away the body of Jesus. And Nicodemus, who had come to Jesus by night at the first, also came, bearing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds. Then they took Jesus' body and wound it in linen cloths with the aromatics, as is the custom among the Jews to prepare for burial" (vs 38-40).

So, the Shroud of Turin is a complete fake! When they wrapped Jesus' body, what did they do? All of the flesh that was there that was misplaced by the beating, was probably put back in as they wrapped it! You look at the Shroud. If the Shroud was just placed over Jesus, where are all the beaten marks on His chest and on His arm? Not there! So, they wound it!

Verse 41: "Now, there was a garden in the place where He was crucified, and in the garden a new tomb, in which no one had ever been laid. Because of the preparation of the Jews, they laid Jesus there; for the tomb was near" (vs 41-42).

Then I'll let you read the commentary on the three days and three nights. All of this is very important, because in order to say there were three days and three nights between Friday evening and Sunday morning, to have a resurrection on Sunday, which it wasn't. Some of the commentaries even say that when it was dark, between the sixth hour and ninth hour, that that was the first night. How could it be the first night? Jesus was still on the cross, not in the tomb! So, that could not be it. There is no way, anybody, anywhere at anytime, can get three full days from Friday night to Sunday morning.

Then you go through the whole commentary that we have written there. Now let's come to the two-page map on pages 320-321. I will have to confess to one typo in all the Harmonies. It's one very hard to catch because it's very small. I'll show you what that is in a minute. Look how it's laid out. The Hebrew days of the week:

- 5th day—Nisan 15
- 6th day—Nisan 16
- 7th day—Nisan 17
- 1st day—Nisan 18

Right across the top!

Now notice we have sunset/sunrise, sunset/sunrise, all the way through. Now for there to be three whole days and three whole nights, the only way that could be is with a Passover in the middle of the week. This year, with the way that the Passover is, it's not a week in which that could happen in this sequence.

But next year and the next five years, we will have three Passovers out of five with a Wednesday Passover. So, we've got each day:

- 1st night/1st day
- 2nd night/2nd day
- 3rd night/3rd day

Come to 3rd night/3rd day where it says Mark 16:1, that should read Matthew 28:1.

And you see that? See where it is? Come to Nisan 17. That's on the right hand page—321. Look at the day portion, come down to the very bottom where it says Mark 16:1 See that? That should be Matthew 28:1_[transcriber's correction]. And we'll see why in just a little bit.

Now I want to read something important. Now, remember when all of these things were being put together with the Harmony, we didn't have instant search on Google. We had to get the book. We had to get the quote. We had to correctly copy it and everything. But notice this. Even though when you read the apostolic fathers and Ignatius, he was the first one to start out with the Sunday resurrection and coinciding that with the Passover time. But how many years did they understand it was a Wednesday crucifixion?

footnote on pg 321: Knowledge of a Wednesday crucifixion was passed down for at least three centuries after the founding of the apostolic church.

Remember that the Romans had the Julian calendar, and every four years, they would lose a day, which meant that spring was moving closer and closer to winter. And pretty soon, Easter was beyond the spring equinox.

Now that continued all the way down to Pope Gregory, when they finally corrected the calendar. They had to take ten days out of the calendar. Have you ever read that? How did they do that? They saw that they lost ten days so they had October 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th, and the next day was the 15th. They put in the one quarter day accumulated to have a leap year every four years.

The Calculated Hebrew Calendar was always on time. The Catholics couldn't figure out how the Passover was getting further away from their traditional Easter. You look at it this year. Easter Sunday is the day after the first Holy Day, and the first Holy Day is a regular Sabbath, and that Sunday is the 1st day of the count toward Pentecost. Whenever that happens, the Church, the Catholics and the Jews all have Pentecost on the right day. That's the only time!

continue footnote: The Didascalia, which dates from the third century, offers historical evidence that the belief in a Friday crucifixion was a change from the original teaching. The following description of the day of Jesus' crucifixion appears in Book V of the Apostolic Constitutions, which contains the original words of the Didascalia: "For they began to hold a council against the Lord on the second day of the week, in the first month, which is Xanthicus; and the deliberation continued on the third day of the week; but on the fourth day [Wednesday] they determined to take away His life by crucifixion" (Apostolic Constitutions—Didascalia Apostolorum, book V, section I, paragraph xiv)

Now today, you might pop that up in a few seconds on a Google Search. But that shows they knew.

A church historian explains the significance of this record in the Didascalia: "...the only reason can have been that Jesus' passion began on a Wednesday, i.e., the day when He was arrested [and crucified]" (Lietzmann, A History of the Early Church, p. 69).

Let's see what happened after that. When you read these Scriptures the way they should be, let's also understand that the Passover Day was always a preparation for The Night to be Much Observed. Because you have the Passover Day, you began with the Passover at night. Then comes a day portion, and you're preparing for The Night to be Much Observed. When it becomes sunset, that's beginning the 15th day.

That means that whenever the Passover is on a Wednesday, you have Thursday as a Holy Day. Friday is a workday, or preparation day, for the weekly Sabbath. That's where the confusion comes, with people. They can't understand, that in the Passover week when the Passover is on a Wednesday, that the day portion of the Passover is preparation for the Holy Day, which is a Sabbath, and then Friday, the day after is preparation for the weekly Sabbath.

The First Day Of Unleavened Bread Nisan 15—Thursday, April 6, 30 AD

Section 367—On the Holy Day, Guards Are Placed At the Tomb

Matthew 27:62: "Now, on the next day, which followed the preparation day, the chief priests and the Pharisees came together to Pilate, saying, 'Sir, we remember that that deceiver said while He was living, "After three days I will rise." Therefore, command that the sepulcher be secured until the third day; lest His disciples come by night and steal Him away, and say to the people, "He is risen from the dead"; and the last deception shall be worse than the first'" (vs 62-64).

They had no idea what was going to happen. Let's think about our petty little trials today. We may have some emotional ups and some emotional downs. But is anyone coming to knock on your door, ready to take you out and throw you in jail? Is anyone ready to thrust of the spear through your stomach and kill you instantly? No!

Our biggest problem is, we have so much of everything everywhere that we have become so blatantly calcified in Laodiceanism, it's hard for anyone to put up with anyone who has any passion or zeal. Oh well, you can't talk like that. You know, just like they do with Trump: 'You shouldn't tweet.' If he didn't, do you think they would tell the truth? Of course not!

Verse 65: "Then Pilate said to them, 'You have a guard. Go, make it as secure as you know how.' And they went and made the sepulcher secure, sealing the stone and setting the guard" (vs 65-66).

What does it mean to seal the stone? Do they put glue around it? No! I suspect they used their fine hard limestone concrete, and sealed the stone, and when that dried there was no way it was going to be opened. Let's go on with that in mind.

The Preparation Day For the Weekly Sabbath Nisan 6—Friday, April 7, 30 AD

Section 368—After the Holy Day Is Over, The Women Buy and Prepare Spices

Mark 16:1: "Now, when the Sabbath had passed..."

the first Holy Day

"...Mary Magdalene and Mary, the mother of James; and Salome bought aromatic oils, so that they might come and anoint Him" (v 1).

Luke 23:56: "And they returned to the city, and prepared spices and ointments..."

That was a whole day affair. What was coming on after that day? The weekly Sabbath! It shows here that they rested on the Sabbath according to the commandment. This could not be the Holy Day, because the Holy Day, you can have a feast. You can do a lot of things. You can do whatever is necessary in preparing food and so forth. But you can't do that on a regular Sabbath. Because there's a commandment: You shall not do any work. We got that picture with the setting sun to show Sabbath is ending.

Section 370—Toward the End of the Weekly Sabbath, Mary Magdalene and Mary Go To Observe the Tomb

This was quite interesting when I was preparing this, because the Greek does not say when the sun was rising. It says when it was dusking toward the first day of the week. So that also tells us this Sabbath was the seventh day.

Matthew 28:1: “Now, late on the Sabbath, as the first day of the weeks was drawing near, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to observe the sepulcher.”

Why did they go to see it? They just wanted to find out... You're wondering:

- What happened?
- Is the guard there?
- How did they seal it?

So they went to look!

You've got all the commentary to read: Events of The First Day of The Week—Wave Sheaf Day To the Ascension.

Let's come all the way through that commentary. I'll leave you to read it, we'll come back to some of it a little later. All of this can become a little confusing, unless you have all four accounts, pg 334, on the first day of the week, and the women coming. Most people have the idea that all the women came together at the same time. But they didn't.

Nisan 18--Sunday Morning, April 9, 30 AD

Section 371—Early the First Day of the Week, Just Before Women Arrive At the Tomb, An Angel Opens the Tomb

Let's see what it took to open the tomb.

Matthew 28:2: “And in the morning suddenly there was a great earthquake...”

It had to have that hard concrete, lime concrete there to seal it!

...for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled away the stone from the door, and sat upon it” (v 2).

The angels are busy, the demons are busy, Satan is busy, everybody's going crazy trying to get this thing done.

Verse 3: “Now, his appearance was as lightning, and his raiment white as snow.

And for fear of him, those who were keeping guard trembled, and became as dead men” (vs 3-4).

That had to be revealed to them by Christ a little later on, because no one was there to see it.

Section 372—Early the First Day of the Week, Women Come To The Tomb, But Jesus Has Already Been Resurrected

Let's see the progression. Here's something interesting.

John 20:1: “Now, on the first day of the weeks...”

‘ton Sabbathon’, that means the first day toward counting the Pentecost—the first day of the weeks. Now, plural in Sabbath otherwise can be {twice saw the coins}. So this is a special, special one.

“...while it was still dark...” (v 1).

So this was say five in the morning? It was still dark!

“...Mary Magdalene...” (v 1).

she comes first alone

“...came early to the tomb; and she saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb” (v 1).

she saw it, and then she left

Verse 2: “Then she ran and came to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them, ‘They have taken away the Lord from the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him’” (vs 1-2).

They still didn't understand about the resurrection. So, the first one (John 20), Mary Magdalene—while it was dark.

Luke 24:1: “Now, on the first day of the weeks, they came to the tomb at early dawn, bringing the spices that they had prepared; and certain others came with them.”

But not all of them! Let's come to Mark now. So we have before—while it was still dark, we have early dawn. Now let's come here to;

Mark 16:2: “And very early on the first day of the weeks, at the rising of the sun, they were coming to the tomb.”

there were these groups of women

Verse 3: “And they were asking themselves, ‘Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?’ For it was a massive stone. But when they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away. And after entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right, clothed in a white robe; and they were very frightened. But he said to them, 'Do not be afraid. You are seeking Jesus the Nazarene, Who was crucified. He has risen; He is not here. Look, there is the place where they laid Him'" (vs 3-6).

we will see what that is in just a minute

Verse 7: "'But go, tell His disciples and Peter that He goes before you into Galilee...'" and so forth! The account in Matt. 28 just summarizes that.

John 20:4: "Now, the two ran together, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and came to the tomb first; and he stooped down and saw the linen cloths lying there, but he did not enter" (vs 4-5).

He was wrapped. Saw the linen cloths rising. Does a spirit being need to be unwrapped, or can he just come through the cloths? He can come through the cloths. So they saw the outline where Jesus body was where the cloths were, and then probably dipped in the middle because his body wasn't there.

That's quite a thing to see. Just picture it if you're one of the disciples, and you came down there. Remember, all the women—if you think God is against women—who discovered that He was resurrected first? The women!

Verse 6: "Then Simon Peter came following him, and he went into the tomb and saw the linen cloths lying, and the napkin that had been on His head... [especially covering His head] ...not lying with the linen cloths but folded up in a place by itself" (vs 6-7).

What does this tell you? Jesus was resurrected out of the linen. It stayed there in the form of His body with a dip in the middle, because his body was gone. But Jesus took the napkin off His head and folded it and put it in a different place. All who do laundry know clothes do not fold themselves! Just think how much you could make if you could have clothes that could fold themselves. This tells you that He's alive! Amazing!

Verse 8: Then the other disciple, who had come to the tomb first, also went in and saw these things; and he believed."

John was the very first one to believe about the resurrection

Verse 9: "For they did not yet understand the Scripture, which decreed that He must rise from the dead. Then the disciples went away again to their home" (vs 9-10).

Now then, no one has seen Jesus, yet. They've only seen the tomb open. They've only seen the linen cloths and the folded up napkin. Mary Magdalene didn't come running with Peter and John. She went and told them, but she probably walked, probably rapidly. Imagine how she was dressed, and the way they dressed then, women are not going to be running.

Mark 16:9. "Now, after Jesus had risen, early the first day of the weeks He appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom He had cast out seven demons. She went and told it to those who had been with Him, who were grieving and weeping" (vs 9-10)—didn't believe her!

Now we come to the details in John 20. This is quite a thing here. Quite a story! All of these tell us how important that everything about the life of Christ really was. We can't take it for granted like the Protestants do. The whole thing they want to get to, is have your sins forgiven. They think everything is accomplished at that point. But that's only the beginning.

John 20:11: "But Mary stood outside the tomb weeping; and as she wept, she stooped down and looked into the tomb."

Double-checking, is His body really gone?

Verse 12: "And she saw two angels in white who were sitting, one at the head and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had been laid."

So, we have some of them who saw one angel, probably got so excited didn't even see that there was another one, so here there are two:

Verse 13: "And they said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping?' She said to them, 'Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him.' And after saying these things, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, but did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?' Thinking that He was the gardener, she said to Him, 'Sir, if you have carried Him off, tell me where you have laid Him, and I will take Him away.' Jesus said to her, 'Mary.' Turning around, she said to Him, 'Rabboni'; that is to say, 'Teacher.'" (vs 13-16).

probably more like 'Rabboni'

Verse 17: "Jesus said to her, 'Do not touch

Me, because I have not yet ascended to My Father. But go to My brethren and tell them that I am ascending...”

This is a tremendous understanding of what God is doing!

“...to My Father and your Father, and My God and your God.’ Mary Magdalene came to the disciples, bringing word that she had seen the Lord, and that He had said these things to her” (vs 17-18).

Now then like every scheme that is crooked, something goes wrong because the truth always prevails. That is the resurrection. However, come to

Section 374—Soldiers Bribed to Lie

Mathew 28:11: “And as they were going, behold, some of the guard went into the city and reported to the chief priests all the things that were done.”

I get a kick out of this. Always in the Harmony in the Gospels, when the Jews want to do something, they have counsel.

Verse 12: “Then, after gathering together with the elders and taking counsel, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers, saying, ‘Tell everyone that His disciples came by night and stole Him while you were sleeping’” (vs 12-13).

How could that be, if the cement that they had, had sealed it? The earthquake took care of that!

Verse 14: “And if the governor hears of this, we will persuade him to release you from responsibility.’ And they took the money...” (vs 14-15).

I bet they were happy; these soldiers must have been happy as a lark!

“...and did as they were instructed, and this report has been spread abroad among the Jews to this day” (v 15) and even to this day!

He told Mary, ‘I’m ascending to My God and your God and My Father and your Father.’ That was approximately nine in the morning. Remember: this is the day after the weekly Sabbath during the Feast of Unleavened Bread!

What was commanded by God on that day? The Wave Sheaf Offering symbolic of Christ ascending! Now picture this: Here’s the priest and he’s waving the sheaf of firstfruits. While at the same time, Christ is ascending into heaven, to present Himself to the Father. After He presented himself, He comes back to the earth, because there’s more to be done. So, here are two disciples going to Emmaus. Jesus comes up to them, and they are probably disappointed.

Now, the third day is already over and ‘we don’t know what happened to Him. We don’t know where He is. Oh, if He had just stayed alive.’ Jesus comes along and said, ‘What are you talking about?’ They didn’t recognize Him because He could make Himself into whatever form He wanted to make. ‘Oh, Jesus of Nazareth, the Prophet.’ Oh, really? What happened? ‘We were thinking He was going to be the Messiah.’ Oh, really? What happened? ‘They got Him, arrested Him, tried Him and killed Him.’

They were virtually saying to Him that ‘the jig is up.’ So, they finally got to Emmaus and they said, ‘Come on in and eat with us.’ So, they went in, sat down with Him, after He explained a lot of things out of the Scriptures before they got there, and then sat down with them. When He asked the blessing and broke the bread, they knew it was Jesus.

- Can you imagine what they felt like?
- Can you imagine this surge of adrenaline!

So, Jesus disappeared, and they said, we’ve got to go tell the apostles. So they could get up there and tell them.

Section 375—Jesus Appears to Two Disciples on a Journey to Emmaus

Luke 24:31: “Then their eyes were opened... [v 32]: And they said to one another, ‘Did not our hearts burn within us...’ [v34]: ...’In truth, the Lord has risen!....”

Section 376—At Sunset, as the First Day of the Week is Ending, Jesus Appears to the Disciples Behind Closed Doors

Now then, they got to the apostles:

Luke 24:34: saying, ‘In truth, the Lord has risen!....’ [v 36]: Now, as they were telling these things, Jesus Himself stood in their midst...”

What Scripture proves that a spirit being does not need to have doors open? That which is born in spirit is spirit, and it’s like the wind! Nobody’s ever seen the wind. You only see the effect of the wind. Here He is! Did He walk through the door? Don’t know! Did He walk through the wall? Don’t know, but He appeared! Who knows, maybe He just came in came through the roof. Either way He was there.

“...and said to them, ‘Peace be to you.’ But they were terrified and filled with fear, thinking that they beheld a spirit apparition. Then He said to them, ‘Why are you troubled? And why do doubts come up in your hearts? See My hands and My feet, that it is I. Touch Me and see for yourselves; for a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see Me having.’” (vs 36-39).

What does that mean? He did not say flesh and blood! He said flesh and bone! A spirit being does not need blood, but can manifest himself as a human being, to appear as flesh. So, this was special for them so that they could know that this was true.

Verse 40: “And after saying this, He showed them His hands and His feet. But while they were still disbelieving and wondering for joy, He said to them, ‘Do you have anything here to eat?’ Then they gave Him part of a broiled fish and a piece of honeycomb. And He took these and ate in their presence” (vs 40-43).

Now, for those who are technical, what happens to food that a spirit being eats? Don't ask me, I don't know!

Verse 44: “And He said to them, “These are the words that I spoke to you when I was yet with you, that all the things which were written concerning Me in the Law of Moses and in the Prophets and in the Psalms must be fulfilled.”

Not one word of God is ever, ever going to fail!
Everything:

- about His whole life
- about His ministry
- about his death
- about his resurrection

You can go back to Psa, 17 where it says, ‘I will be satisfied when I awake with your righteousness, or like you.’ That was a Psalms of the resurrection.

Verse 45: “Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures.”

- How does that happen with us?
- How are the keys given that tell us what we must do?

All of them were:

- Sabbath-keepers
- Holy Day keepers
- keeping the commandments of God

Not like our world living out here in the satanic world!

The first thing we have to start with is to believe God and the Sabbath. You've got to start with the Sabbath. Then when you read the Word of God, what you learn you need to do—you must do.

The minute you read it and say, ‘Oh well, that's not important; it's probably written by men.’ Your mind is shut again! It'll happen!

Betty was talking about some of those who were saying how wonderful you're going to find Sunday-keeping is, if you just open your mind. Well, in order for Sunday-keeping to be wonderful, you've got to close your mind, because no man can tell God what to do! He said to ‘remember the Sabbath,’ not reject it and forget it. God's Spirit is sent by the Father—seven spirits. He draws us, and our minds are opened. That's how they're opened.

And the only way you understand spiritual Truth—because Jesus said, ‘The words that I speak they're Spirit and Life, which includes all the words in the Bible—is to love God and keep His commandments and grow in grace and knowledge. He wants to teach us as much as we can learn before the resurrection. How's that's going to work out? I don't know! Not everybody's going to have the same job. How that's going to work out? I don't know! God does!

Verse 45: “Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, and said to them, ‘According as it is written...’” (vs 45-46).

Whenever you see, “...it is written...” rarely do you say, ‘was written,’ because the Word of God is always active in the present tense.

“...it was necessary for the Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day. And in His name, repentance and remission of sins should be preached to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. For you are witnesses of these things” (vs 46-48).

Just imagine what it would have been like to be in that room. They've spent three and a half years with Christ in a ministry, seeing all the miracles, seeing everything that was done: tried and crucified. And then:

- He's risen
- He comes to them
- He shows them that He's the One
- He eats food
- He opens their minds to understanding

That must have taken most of the night. But that was easy that night, because it was so filled with adrenaline they couldn't have slept anyway. Here's another one: remember what the lie was? The disciples came and stole the body away! So, the disciples were still afraid of the Jews. Don't you think the Jews would like to come and get them and kill them, as well? Yes!

Section 377—Eight Days Later, Jesus Appears to His Disciples Again

John 20:26: "Now after eight days...

so, you go Sunday-to-Sunday; that's eight days

"...His disciples again were within, and Thomas with them...." (v 26).

And Thomas said, 'Hey, I'm not going to believe You until I can see Your hands and feet and Your side (v 25)

Verse 26: "...Jesus came after the doors were shut, and stood in the midst and said, 'Peace be to you.' Then He said to Thomas..." (vs 26-27).

Tommy boy, come here

"...Put forth your finger, and see My hands; and reach out your hand, and put it into My side; and be not unbelieving, but believing.' And Thomas answered and said to Him, 'My Lord and My God'" (vs 27-28).

Now, think about that statement, because Jesus was God manifested in the flesh, and after His resurrection, He was God wholly again, or completely. Because don't misconstrue that as Holy meaning Divine, but it is. He was Holy Divine God in their presence in appearing as if He had flesh.

Verse 29: "Jesus said to him, 'Because you have seen Me, Thomas, you have believed; blessed are the ones who have not seen, but have believed.'"

What happened during the 40 days? He was with them on and off for 40 days! Then they had a meeting over in Galilee for over 500 brethren that saw Him at the same time. Here's what John writes:

John 20:30: "Now then, Jesus did many other miracles in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book. But these have been written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing, you may have life through His name" (vs 30-31).

Then we come here to Acts 1:3. This is Luke writing to Theophilus; that means lover of God.

Acts 1:3: "To whom also, by many infallible proofs, He presented Himself alive after He had suffered, being seen by them for forty days, and speaking the things concerning the Kingdom of God."

Now I have quite a few Scriptures here, so we will follow along in the commentary. But putting the Scriptures together, what we have in the Old Testament what we have in the New Testament: What was it like when Jesus Christ was accepted by God the Father as the sin offering for the sins of all mankind?

commentary, pg. 330: Jesus Christ Accepted by God the Father

The ascension of Jesus to God the Father was an awesome event. Jesus Christ had finished the work that the Father had given Him to do. As God manifest in the flesh, He had lived a perfect, sinless life and had died by crucifixion to become the perfect sacrifice for the sins of all mankind. God the Father had raised Jesus back to life, and on the Wave Sheaf Day He was ready to ascend to the throne of God the Father to be accepted as the first of the firstfruits, the firstborn among many brethren, and the perfect sacrifice to propitiate the sins of the world.

So let's see if we can grasp the meaning and feeling of this fantastic day.

As He was ascending to the Father, Jesus must have been filled with great joy and anticipation. He would see the Father face to face for the first time since He had become a pinpoint of life when He divested Himself of His power and glory as God to be born of the virgin Mary. Again, the Psalms help us comprehend some of the thoughts and feelings that Jesus might have experienced as He looked forward to being reunited with the Father: "O God, You are my God, earnestly I will seek You! My soul thirsts for You. My flesh longs for You, as in a dry and thirsty land where no water is, to see Your power and Your glory—as I have seen You in the sanctuary. Because Your loving kindness is better than life, my lips shall praise You" (Psa. 63:1-3).

As previously noted, Psalm 23 foreshadowed the prayers of Jesus after He was resurrected from the dead. The psalm to follow, Psalm 24, is in prophetic sequence and depicts Jesus' ascension to be received of God the Father. When He arrived in heaven, the angels sang and shouted for joy. Perhaps this psalm was sung by the angels as they opened the everlasting doors and announced that the King of glory was entering into the presence of God the Father: "The earth is the LORD'S, and the fullness of it, the world, and those who dwell in it, for He has founded it upon the seas and established it upon the waters. Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? Or who shall stand in His holy place? He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who has not lifted up his soul to vanity and has not sworn deceitfully [the perfect life of Jesus Christ]. He shall receive the blessing from the LORD and righteousness from the God of his salvation."

Lift up your heads, O you gates; and be lifted up, O you everlasting doors; that the King of glory may come in. Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle [He was victorious over human nature, sin, Satan the devil and death]. Lift up your heads, O you gates; lift them up, you everlasting doors; that the King of glory may come in. Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, He is the King of glory" (Psa. 24:1-5, 7-10).

What a magnificent scene of splendor and glory Jesus would have seen when He entered through the everlasting gates of heaven! Standing on the sea of glass, He would have seen the resplendent glory and awesome majesty of God the Father seated on His throne with the heavenly host round about. The apostle John, the one whom Jesus loved, saw a vision of God's throne and recorded it in the book of Revelation. What John recorded is what Jesus would have seen when He ascended to the Father.

"After these things I looked, and behold, a door opened in heaven; and the first voice that I heard was as if a trumpet were speaking with me, saying, 'Come up here, and I will show you the things that must take place after these things.' And immediately I was in the Spirit; and behold, a throne was set in heaven, and One was sitting on the throne. And He Who was sitting was in appearance like a jasper stone and a sardius stone; and a rainbow was around the throne, like an emerald in its appearance.

"And around the throne were twenty-four thrones, and on the thrones I saw twenty-four elders sitting, clothed in white garments; and they had on their heads golden crowns. And proceeding from the throne were lightnings and thunders and voices; and seven lamps of fire, which are the seven Spirits of God, were burning before the throne. And before the throne was a sea of glass, like crystal. And around the throne and over the throne were four living creatures, full of eyes before and behind; and the first living creature was like a lion, and the second living creature was like a bull, and the third living creature had the face of a man, and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle. And each of the four living creatures had six wings respectively; and around and within they were full of eyes; and day and night they cease not saying, 'Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, Who was, and Who is, and Who is to come.'

"And when the living creatures give glory and honor and thanksgiving to Him Who sits on the throne, Who lives into the ages of eternity, the twenty-four elders fall down before Him Who sits on the throne; and they worship Him Who lives into the ages of eternity, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying, 'Worthy are You, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power because You did create all things, and for Your will they were created and exist'" (Rev. 4:1-11).

Quite a magnificent scene, indeed. Just think what it's going to be like when we're resurrected!

This was the scene that Jesus would have seen as He walked forward to present Himself to the Father as the perfect sacrifice for sin. He was the first of the firstfruits and the firstborn from the dead. As He walked on the sea of glass toward the Father sitting on His throne, the angels, the twenty-four elders and God the Father would see on His body the scars of the lashes that He had received when He was beaten with the cat-of-nine-tails which tore open His flesh. They would see the scars in His hands and feet where the soldiers had nailed Him to the cross. When the Father's beloved Son greeted His Father, They must have opened their arms and embraced each other in profound love and tears of joy. Thus Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God, was accepted by God the Father on the Wave Sheaf Day.

After He was accepted of the Father, Jesus was selected to open the seven seals. He and He alone was qualified, because He had overcome all. The apostle John saw this tremendous scene in the vision and recorded it: "And in the right hand of Him Who sits on the throne I saw a book, written within and on the back, which had been sealed with seven seals. And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, 'Who is worthy to open the book and to loose its seals?' But no one in heaven, or on the earth, or under the earth was able to open the book, or to look inside it. And I [John] was weeping greatly because no one was found worthy to open and to read the book, or to look into it.

“Then one of the elders said to me, ‘Do not weep. Behold, the Lion Who is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome to open the book, and to loose its seven seals.’ Then I saw, and behold, before the throne and the four living creatures, and before the elders, was standing a Lamb as having been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God that are sent into all the earth; and He came and took the book out of the right hand of Him Who sits on the throne.

“And when He took the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each having harps and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. And they sang a new song, saying, ‘Worthy are You to take the book, and to open its seals because You were slain, and did redeem us to God by Your own blood, out of every tribe and language and people and nation, and did make us unto our God kings and priests; and we shall reign on the earth.’

“And I saw, and I heard the voices of many angels around the throne, and the voices of the living creatures and the elders, and thousands of thousands, saying with a loud voice, ‘Worthy is the Lamb Who was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory and blessing.’ And every creature that is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and those that are on the sea, and all the things in them, I heard saying, ‘To Him Who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb, be blessing, and honor, and glory, and sovereignty into the ages of eternity.’ And the four living creatures said, ‘Amen.’ And the twenty-four elders fell down and worshiped Him Who lives into the ages of eternity” (Rev. 5:1-12).

This is the glory and majesty that Jesus Christ received when He was accepted by God the Father as the Savior and Redeemer of mankind on the Wave Sheaf Day. Jesus had overcome sin in the flesh and gained complete victory over death, opening the way for the redemption and salvation of all mankind through faith in Him. Now He lives in eternal glory, as the first of many sons of God who will be resurrected at His second coming to share His eternal glory and immortality. Those who are Jesus Christ's are now being perfected through the love, grace and power of God the Father. They will be granted the identical spiritual existence that the Father and the Son have. They will be the sons and daughters of God the Father, and the brethren of Jesus Christ. Jesus shared human existence with mankind in order to become the sin offering for the world so that all who believe in Him may ultimately share His eternal existence and glory in the Family of God throughout the ages of eternity. Amen.

Feast of Unleavened Bread

CHAPTER TWENTY-THREE

The Night to Be Much Observed

Fred R. Coulter

- What is the meaning of the Night to be Much Observed?
- Why should we keep it?

We have already been covering why the Night to be Much Observed is not the Passover night, so we're going to concentrate on the meaning of the Night to be Much Observed, which begins the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread. Let's see where this is mentioned; where it's commanded, and then we are going to see a very astounding statement that tells us something very important concerning that night and why we should observe it.

All the details concerning the Passover and leading up to this we have already covered, so I want to cover specifically the meaning of the Night to be Much Observed.

Exodus 12:40: "Now, the sojourning of the children of Israel in Egypt was four hundred and thirty years... [this gives a reference to something else] ...and it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, it was even on that very same day, all the armies of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt" (vs 40-41).

This reference cannot refer to the Passover, because the first time they took it was the night before. So, it can't be referring to the Passover; the selfsame day does not refer to the Passover, but it refers to something else that had occurred 430 years earlier.

Verse 42: "It is a night to be much observed to the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt. This is that night of the LORD to be observed by all the children of Israel in their generations." So, here is the command, a special command.

Now we can understand that this is not the Passover from this point of view: that on the Passover, they were to keep the Passover and when they ate it, it was to be eaten in trepidation; that's what the Hebrew means. Now this one here, notice, the Night to be Much Observed:

1. there are no sacrifices they are to give at this point here on the first one
2. later they would be giving sacrifices at the temple

But here they are leaving Egypt, so, this is the first start!

Verse 51: "And it came to pass the very same day, when the LORD brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies." That's talking about the day they left!

That's where the chapter break should be. Verse 51 should actually be Exo. 13:1, because verse 50 comes to a full stop, and this is a whole new subject. We're going to see something about this a little bit later on, but we'll take a clue here:

Exodus 13:1: "Then the LORD spoke to Moses... [the selfsame day that they were coming out of Egypt] ...saying, 'Sanctify all the firstborn to Me... [we'll cover that as we come to the Feast of Unleavened Bread] ...whatever opens the womb among the children of Israel, of man and of beast. It is Mine.' And Moses said to the people, 'Remember this day in which you came out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for the LORD brought you out from this place by the strength of His hand. There shall be no leavened bread eaten'" (vs 1-3).

We're going to see that this day has to do with the firstborn; has to do with the sanctifying of the firstborn! But the sacrifices that they gave in Deut. 16 had to do with the Night to be Much Observed.

Let's look at something else concerning leaving Egypt. Let's clarify this because there is a lot of confusion concerning it, and really the main portion of the confusion concerning this stems from two sources:

1. the lack of a clear translation concerning sunset and between the two evenings in the King James Version of the Bible and also other translations
2. the tradition of the Jews of keeping a 15th Passover instead of a 14th

Why do they keep a 15th Passover? We saw in Num. 9, it clearly says that in order to take the Passover, they have to be in the land; within the geographical area of the land of Israel! So, if they were on a journey, they could not take a 14th Passover. What happened was this: When the Jews were in exile, which they still are today, they could not—and they will tell you they cannot—keep a 14th

Passover. They keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread but call it—the whole thing—Passover. When they have their meal beginning the night of the 15th, they are actually eating an abbreviated form of the Feast of the Night to be Much Observed!

Num. 33—let’s look at this because this also causes confusion, and the third reason that causes confusion is pre-conceived notions; you come to the Scriptures with something in mind, and you’re looking to prove what you have in mind. When you read it, you think you’re proving what you have in mind because you have read it and you think that that’s what it’s saying.

Numbers 33:1 is part of it: “These are the journeys of the children of Israel, who went forth out of the land of Egypt with their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron. And Moses wrote their goings out according to their journeys by the command of the LORD. And these are their journeys according to their starting places. And they set out from Rameses...” (vs 1-3).

As we saw, the Passover was kept on the night of the 14th. On the day portion of the 14th they finished spoiling the Egyptians and assembled at Rameses, and they had to come from the land of Goshen to Rameses so they could begin their march and their journey out.

Verse 3: “And they set out from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month....”

We know that Lev. 23 says that ‘on the 14th day is the LORD’S Passover and on the 15th is the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread.’ So this, the 15th, is when they left!

“...On the next day after the Passover Day, the children of Israel went out with a high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians, while the Egyptians were still burying all their firstborn whom the LORD had stricken among them. The LORD also executed judgments upon their gods” (vs 3-4).

What is the preconceived notion that people read into this? This must be the morning of the 15th! It doesn’t say that! They left on the 15th; that’s when they departed. That doesn’t mean the whole body of them was out, but they were departing at that point. When you have 1.8-million people that are going to be marching out, even in a wide column, you’re going to get it started. The ones who are at the end are going to come along later. As I mentioned in The Christian Passover book: If you observe the Rose Parade in Pasadena, California, when the parade starts, two hours later, the last crew is starting while the first crew—marching band or float—is finishing. When it says departed, that doesn’t mean the whole mass of them had completely gone.

Deut. 16—we’ll just look at one verse here that is important; we will come back to because this will be important.

Deuteronomy 16:1: “Keep the month of Abib, and observe the Passover to the LORD your God.... [that’s one day] ...For in the month of Abib, the LORD your God brought you forth out of Egypt by night.”

That’s why it is the Night to be Much Observed, because they came out the next night, and as I mentioned previously, show me anywhere in the Bible where God ever combined two days together. Show me one instance where God said, ‘Oops! Let’s combine the two days.’ No! Men are the ones who have combined them. So, they went out by night, so you put it all together. They left with a high hand.

- When did they start?
- When does the 14th end? Sunset on the 14th!
- Is it still light when the sun is going down? Yes!
- Were they leaving when the sun was going down? Yes!
- Did they go on into the night with their exodus? Yes!
- What were the Egyptians doing when they started? They were still burying their firstborn (Num. 33)!

When you consider the number that were dead, if they had a population of 24-million—pick any number you want—20% are firstborn, male or female. Let’s just say they only had 10-million, they had 2-million dead human beings. So, we’ll give it the low figure, we’ll low-ball it.

- How about all the animals?
- How long do you think it’s going to take to bury them?
- How long do you think it’s going to take them to bury 2-million people plus all the animals?

Egypt is a hot place, and if you don’t bury them right away, what happens? These gigantic flies about as big around as a half-dollar piece, come in and the buzzards and the vultures, and if you don’t get them buried they get in the hot, hot sun and the bodies explode.

- Do you think they might have burned some of them?
- Who knows?

It doesn’t say they burned them, it says they buried them!

That’s a big task, which means that you only had, counting all women and children, you only had 8-million to bury 2-million. If you say the adult males that were left who had to do the work and maybe some of the adult females, then you're probably down to a couple of million.

Numbers 33:4 (KJV): "For the Egyptians buried all their firstborn..." That took more than just on the day portion of the Passover to accomplish that!

See they went out with a high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians who were burying their dead. Obviously, when it got dark they would quit.

Sidebar: Dolores watched a historical presentation of Trablanka where they started killing Jews as early as 1941, I believe, and they killed 900,000 in one place. Trablanka was in Poland, the Nazis were killing the Polish Jews, and they would gas them and put them in this big pit, and then they would even put some lime to try and get rid of the bodies, but they couldn't do it. They had so many dead in this big pit, and the stench was getting so bad that they had to dig them up and burn them. So, when it says here "...the Egyptians buried all their firstborn..." that doesn't mean they did it on that one day.

They went out at night, the Night to be Much Observed, with a high hand. This is far different than the Passover night, which was

- a night of fear
- a night of terror
- a night of trepidation

Now you have two operations going here:

1. the Passover you are redeemed
2. the Night to be Much Observed you are delivered

Let's focus in on the time period, because the phrase 430 years and on the selfsame day...

- What does that refer to?
- What was the selfsame day?

We know that according to the Hebrew Calendar, the selfsame day was the 15th (Num. 33)!

We're going to find out that this actually goes back to Abraham, and God's covenant with Abraham (Gen. 15). What we're going to see in Gen. 15 is quite a tremendous thing. We are going to see is a two-day sequence, which involves two nights! The second night of which we will see is referred to in Exo. 12 as the selfsame day, 430 years later! So in fact, we are going to see that the source and the origin of the Passover and the Night to be Much Observed began actually in Genesis 15!

Genesis 15:1: "After these things the Word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, saying, 'Fear not, Abram, I am your shield and your exceedingly great reward.' And Abram said, 'Lord GOD, what will You give me since I go childless, and the heir of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus?' And Abram said, 'Behold, You have given no seed to me; and lo, one born in my house is my heir'" (vs 1-3). Abram could adopt him and designate him as his heir!

Verse 4: "And behold, the Word of the LORD came to him saying, 'This man shall not be your heir; but he that shall come forth out of your own loins shall be your heir.'"

This is the promise of Isaac, and also the promise, which comes down to Jacob and to the twelve tribes of Israel.

Verse 5: "And He brought him outside and said, 'Look now toward the heavens and number the stars—if you are able to count them....'"

When do you see the stars? At night! So, we are dealing with the night. You can't see them at noon, you can't see them at sunrise, maybe you can see a few faint stars, you can't see them at sunset, except maybe a few faint stars and maybe what we call Venus and Mars today. There must have been a lot of stars out there because He said:

"...number the stars—if you are able to count them. And He said to him, 'So shall your seed be'" (v 5). We have two promises of seed here:

1. of Isaac the physical seed
2. the stars of heaven the spiritual seed

What did Jesus say? We will see what the stars of heaven represent in the promise of the spiritual seed:

Matt. 13:43—this is at the return of Christ; this is talking about the resurrection. A little later we're going to see that we are Abraham's seed and heirs according to the promise! So, the promise was given in Gen. 15:

1. of the physical seed: Isaac
2. of the spiritual seed; those in the first resurrection

Notice what Jesus says of those in the first resurrection at His return:

Matthew 13:43: "Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the Kingdom of their Father.... [then He has this little cryptic statement here] ...The one who has ears to hear, let him hear." The only way you're going to understand it is if God gives you the understanding through His Word!

Now let's look at what it says in Dan. 12 concerning the righteous, because when you understand that the sun is a star...

Daniel 12:1: “And at that time... [that’s the time of the end, the time of the resurrection] ...shall stand up, the great prince who stands for the children of your people. And there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even until that time. And at that time your people shall be delivered—everyone who shall be found written in the book”—the Book of Life and this has to be the first resurrection.

Verse 2: “And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth... [shows they were buried] ... shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.”

That’s for those who commit the unpardonable sin and face the second death at the end of the Millennium and 100-year period.

Verse 3: “And they who are wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament, and they who turn many to righteousness shall shine as the stars forever and ever.”

The promise given to Abraham has some big-time promises! That’s why He said to him, as He took him out at night. Now remember: no smog, no pollution, no city lights, you could see all the stars, and I’m sure that was greater... because Texas in America claims that you can see the stars clearer in Texas than anyplace. But I just imagine that this was a whole lot better. What God asked Abraham to do was an impossible task!

Genesis 15:6: “And he believed in the LORD...” You have to believe what God says! IF you are dealing with God:

- Who is a God of Truth, which He is
- His Word is true, which it is
- God cannot lie, which He cannot

*He believed in the LORD for the two promises: physical seed and the resurrected spiritual seed!

“...And He accounted it to him for righteousness” (v 6)—imputed to him for righteousness!

As we know, that has nothing to do with whether he kept the commandments of God, or not. This was a greater righteousness; this righteousness is being put in right standing with God because you believe Him!

Verse 7: “And He said to him, ‘I am the LORD that brought you out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give you this land to inherit it.’ And he said, ‘Lord GOD, by what shall I know that I shall inherit it?...’” (vs 7-8).

As we’re going to see, we are on the day-portion of that day. Yes, he was talking about the ‘promised land’; he was in the land of Canaan, but he dwelt in it never having received an inheritance in it, yet. When He says to inherit it that includes all of his progeny.

“...And He said to him, ‘Take Me a heifer of three years old, and a she-goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon’” (vs 8-9).

All of these were also later used for sacrifices at the temple. But it is interesting, three-years-old, so you’re talking about good-sized animals, and we are going to see that this a special sacrifice. There is no altar that is there to burn them on, there is no splashing the blood upon any altar at all, and here is what he did:

Verse 10: “And he took all these to himself, and divided them in the middle...”—cut them in half from head to toe!

When you do that, if you have watched any of the wild life documentaries on how lions get buffalo and tear them apart and eat them, so just think of this as about the size of a buffalo, an African buffalo. Slit the throat and then you cut it down the middle. How are you going to cut it down the middle? Well, you have to virtually take a battle-ax and this is a very bloody affair, and you’ve got all the guts, you’ve got everything there.

“...and laid each piece opposite the other...” (v 10).

In other words, he put them back-to-back, and what he did in putting them back-to-back, he also created a path that went down between those sacrificial animals! This is a special sacrifice.

You can read of this in The Christian Passover Book. You can also read of it in A Harmony of the Gospels. In the Harmony I’ve got a chart that shows the sequence of events and how this also fits in with the death of Jesus.

“...but he did not divide the birds. And when the birds of prey came down upon the carcasses, Abram drove them away” (vs 10-11).

Verse 12 is a key verse because this gives us a time-flow of the day and what we’re going to see that this is actually the time-flow of the Passover Day, and reflects directly to the crucifixion of Christ and the time of His death more than the Passover of the children of Israel in the land of Egypt.

Verse 12: “And it came to pass, as the sun was going down...” It’s still up, there is still a little time, and it was going down. What happened to Abraham?

“...that a deep sleep fell upon Abram. And, behold, a horror of great darkness fell upon him!” (v 12).

- What was he experiencing in this great vision that God brought upon him? He was experiencing death without dying!
- What it would be like to die?

Verse 13: “And He said to Abram, ‘You must surely know that your seed shall be sojourners in a land that is not theirs (and shall serve them and they shall afflict them) four hundred years. And also I will judge that nation whom they shall serve. And afterward they shall come out with great substance” (vs 13-14).

That’s a prophecy of delivering the children of Israel out from captivity and taking them out of the land of Egypt. As it turned out it was a little more than the 400 years; it was 430 years.

Verse 16: “But in the fourth generation... [that gives us latitude here to understand it] ...they shall come here again, for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full. And it came to pass—when the sun went down and it was dark... [we’re in to the next day] ...behold, a smoking furnace and a burning lamp passed between those pieces” (vs 16-17).

- What was the smoking furnace doing? The burning lamp passed between those parts!
- What was Abraham actually seeing in this vision?

Here is a burning lamp that’s walking down between those parts and probably the smoking furnace came right behind it and devoured everything, just completely devoured it. What this is, God is showing and prophesying His own death, prophesying His death and burial, which happened, on the Passover Day and the beginning of the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, He was in the tomb.

This is a special covenant oath, it’s also known as a maledictory oath, meaning that in order to fulfill this, you pronounce upon yourself your own death.

Notice the promise, v 18: “In the same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, ‘I have given this land to your seed, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the River Euphrates.’”

Then He lists all the land of the Canaanites that they would receive. What God is doing with this, He is guaranteeing that on this second night... We will see this became the night of the 15th; so that means the first night was the night of the 14th. So, we have the Passover and the Night to be Much Observed right here at what you might say is the prototype, the first fulfillment of it! He made a covenant. He is going to give the land to them, and He was also going to deliver them.

When we come back to Exo. 12, what we’re going to see is that this selfsame day had to refer back to:

1. the delivering of the children of Israel through the Passover Day

Because the Passover Day comes first; then the next day is called the selfsame day

2. referring to this day that God made the covenant with Abraham that He would do it

Exodus 12:40 “Now, the sojourning of the children of Israel in Egypt... [which was prophesied] ...was four hundred and thirty years, and it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, it was even on that very same day, all the armies of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt. It is a night to be much observed to the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt. This is that night of the LORD to be observed by all the children of Israel in their generations” (vs 40-42).

Why? Because He fulfilled His promise to deliver them! He fulfilled His promise concerning the Passover Day on the 14th, and His promise to deliver them that they would go out with great substance on the Night to be Much Observed and leave on the 15th. In both cases, what do we have? Two different days, two different meanings though connected! This helps us understand the significance of the Night to be Much Observed.

As I have already previously explained with Deut. 16 so we’ll just review it here, but let’s understand what is happening, and how that relates to the firstborn, because the firstborn especially went out with a high hand, all the children of Israel did—but especially the firstborn—because they were spared from death. So this was a significant thing. All the firstborn belong to God! All the males and all the females (Deut. 14) were brought to the Feast of Unleavened Bread and also to the Feast of Tabernacles and they were used as part of the offerings that they would give in peace offerings to God.

Deut. 16 is a clue. I remember the first time I understood this, because Deut. 16 is difficult to understand because it seems to contradict some of the things in Exo. 12, and it seems to combine some of the things in Exo. 12 and make it look like it comes on the same day; but it doesn’t!

Deuteronomy 16:1: “Keep the month of Abib, and observe the Passover...”

When were they to keep the Passover? The night of the 14th! That’s one day!

“...to the LORD your God. For in the month of Abib, the LORD your God brought you forth out of Egypt by night” (v 1)—which was the beginning of the night of the 15th. So, we have, getting in to the second day!

Verse 2: “And you shall, therefore, sacrifice the Passover offering to the LORD your God, of the flock and the herd, in the place, which the LORD shall choose to place His name there.” I have a full explanation of that in the Passover book!

But here is the key that unlocks this so we have understanding. This is not the sacrifice of the Passover lamb for the Passover, but this is in preparation for the Night to be Much Observed! How do we know that?

“...of the flock and the herd...”

- Have you ever heard of a Passover calf? No!
- What does it say there in Exo. 12? You are to take of the flock of the sheep and of the goats, but here it says herd; the Hebrew here is ‘bovine’!

This has to do with the peace offerings, called here: Passover Offerings; not that they were for the Passover Day, but for the Feast of Unleavened Bread! They probably started preparing these so they could be offered right at sunset beginning the Night to be Observed. These had to be offered at the altar, not the Passover lamb.

“...in the place, which the LORD shall choose to place His name there. You shall eat no leavened bread with it. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread with it, the bread of affliction, for you came forth out of the land of Egypt in haste, so that you may remember the day that you came forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life. And there shall be no leaven seen with you in all your borders for seven days. Nor shall any of the flesh, which you sacrificed in the first day at sunset remain all night until the morning” (vs 2-4).

That sounds an awful lot like the Passover, but let’s understand something, peace offerings could not be left until morning.

Verse 5: “You may not sacrifice the Passover offering within any of your gates...”

That sounds like it contradicts the commands for the Passover, which they were to do at their homes. This has to be the sacrifices for the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

Verse 6: “But at the place, which the LORD your God shall choose to place His name in, there you shall sacrifice the Passover offering at sunset, at the going down of the sun, at the time that you came out of Egypt.”

Here is a gross mistranslation in the KJV, v 7: “You shall roast and eat...” That doesn’t have to do with roasting at all! The Hebrew here is ‘bashal’ which is:

Verse 7 (FV): “And you shall boil...” We have two things that tell us the clue that these are really peace offerings that were prepared on the day portion of the Passover to be eaten after the Passover on the Night to be Much Observed. Those two key things are

1. v 7: “And you shall boil...”

Now we are going to see the Passover lamb was never to be boiled; I go into great detail in that in The Christian Passover book

2. the bovine—there is no such thing as a Passover calf.
 - Can you imagine for a family of ten trying to eat a calf?
 - Can you imagine trying to burn the bones, the hide and everything of the calf?

Let’s look at the commands in Exo. 12 and then we will look at the command for a peace offering. Let’s see what the command was. After they kill it, put the blood on the side posts and the lintels:

Exodus 12:8: “And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roasted with fire...” It didn’t say with fire in Deut. 16, because that should not be roasted, but should be boiled!

“...and unleavened bread. They shall eat it with bitter herbs. Do not eat of it raw, nor boiled... [‘bashal’] ...at all with water, but roasted with fire...” (vs 8-9).

The Jews’ tradition was that if they had it on a spit and they were roasting it in the fire, and some of the juice from the roasting got on the staff that was through the middle of the animal, they were turning it kind of like a rotisserie and roasting it, and the juice cooked part of the meat, they had to cut that meat off and not use it because that was considered boiled in the juice.

“...nor boiled at all with water, but roasted with fire...” (v 8).

When you go back to Deut. 16 (KJV) and it says roast, it doesn’t say roast with fire, and that’s because that’s a gross mistranslation and should be boiled!

We will see the fulfillment of the Night to be Much Observed in the New Testament. Let me just say this: It follows along very logically according to the Word of God, not just human logic, that God commands to keep the Night to be Much Observed. It begins the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread! IF you keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread, you should keep the Night to be Much Observed, because you can't have one without the other.

The Christian Passover book I'm going to mention again, because it's very important and there is not one page of wasted information in there. It is all vital and it covers every one of these questions concerning the Passover:

- the 14th/15th
- unleavened bread/leavened bread
- what time of day
- covers foot washing
- covers the Lord's Supper

Now in the Passover book—Chapters 22-24—covers the full meaning of the Night to be Much Observed beginning with the Passover and coming through the Passover night and Passover Day and in to the Night Much to be Observed and showing the selfsame day.

Now one other thing that's important to understand is this: There is a chart that shows the timing of Gen. 15 in the left-hand column and the death of Jesus Christ in the right-hand column, and how it parallels.

There is one other thing that we need to understand concerning the fulfillment of this prophecy. In Joshua 5 they entered the land and officially had ended the exodus when they got to the land. Now remember the promises given back in Gen. 15 carried forward to the night that they were delivered out of Egypt 430 years later, and also carried the promised of going into the land.

Joshua 5:10: "And the children of Israel camped in Gilgal and kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month at evening in the plains of Jericho. And they ate of the old grain of the land on the next day after the Passover... [the 15th] ...unleavened cakes and roasted new grain in the same day" (vs 10-11).

That meant when they started eating the bread made from the grain of the land, the exodus was officially over and they began the inheritance of the land on the 15th day of the 1st month, the selfsame day! Amazing how it follows all the way through!

Now let's see the parallels concerning the death and burial of Jesus Christ and what happened there, what occurred. We find we have the Passover ceremony—we have that in The Passover Ceremony booklet—but that covers John 13-17. We're going to read off of the chart.

We have something that's important here when we come to Jesus being arrested. To cover the Passover go through The Passover Ceremony booklet that we have for the Passover.

John 18—after Jesus prayed, we come to the time of betrayal. Judas came about midnight. When did God spare the firstborn of the children of Israel in Egypt? At midnight on the 14th! Jesus Christ was the Firstborn of the virgin Mary. He was also Firstborn from among the dead!

In John 18 we have the betrayal of Christ, which took place at midnight, and there are quite a few things that took place. What we really have on the Passover night is that God passed over the children of Israel, the firstborn, at midnight in Egypt. When Jesus came who was the firstborn of God; He did not pass over Him, because He was the Passover sacrifice.

What we are going to see is this: That the timing of the killing of those animals in Gen. 15 parallels—as you see in the chart here—the timing of the things that Jesus went through.

- the bloody sacrifice of those animals parallels the beatings, the scourging, and the crucifixion of Christ
- when Christ died that parallels the time when Abraham had a deep sleep fall upon him and the horrors of great darkness
- when Christ was put into the tomb and it was sealed
 - When was it sealed?
 - When was He put in there? He was put in there just right at sunset!

Let's just do a little survey of John. If you have A Harmony of Gospels, go through and go back to about page 284 and go forward from there.

{verses are from The Holy Bible in It's Original Order, which is close to what is found in the Harmony}

I wonder what those who arrested Jesus thought? In the movie The Passion by Mel Gibson, it didn't really show it with all the meaning, there was too much Catholic tradition involved.

John 18:1: "After saying these things, Jesus went out with His disciples to a place beyond the winter stream of Kidron, where there was a garden into which He and His disciples entered."

You find in the parallel accounts where He prayed, He actually prayed for three hours and then about midnight He quit praying.

Verse 2: "And Judas, who was betraying Him, also knew of the place because Jesus had often gathered there with His disciples. Then Judas, after receiving a band and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, came there with torches and lamps and weapons. Jesus, therefore, knowing all the things that were coming upon Him, went forward and said to them, ‘Who are you seeking?’” (vs 2-4).

When it says, “...knowing all the things that were coming upon Him...” what did He understand? He gave all the prophecies of His death: Isa. 53; Psa. 22; Psa. 69!

Verse 5: “They answered Him, ‘Jesus the Nazarean.’ Jesus said to them, ‘I AM.’ And Judas, who was betraying Him, was also standing with them. But when He said to them, ‘I AM,’ they went backward and fell to the ground” (vs 5-6).

I don’t know about you, but I have often wondered what those soldiers thought, and I wonder if Judas also went back. It doesn’t tell us that he didn’t, but when He said I AM they went back, so that must include Judas, and “...fell on the ground.”

Verse 8: “Jesus answered, ‘I told you that I AM. Therefore, if you are seeking Me, allow these to go their way’; so that the saying might be fulfilled which He had said, ‘Of those whom You have given Me, not one of them have I lost’” (vs 8-9)—except the son of perdition!

Verse 10: “Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it out and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear. And the servant’s name was Malchus.” I am sure he wasn’t aiming just for the ear; I’m sure he was aiming to lop off his head!

Remember that Peter was the one—Matt. 16—you go back read it, when Jesus revealed what was going to happen to Him. What did Peter say? He even took Him aside and said, ‘Lord, this isn’t going to happen to You, I’m here, I will deliver You.’ Jesus said, ‘Get behind me, Satan, you savor the thoughts of men not the thoughts of God.’

Verse 11: “But Jesus said to Peter, ‘Put your sword into the sheath; shall I not drink the cup that the Father has given Me?’” It shows in the parallel account that what Jesus did was He reached over and healed his ear!

- What happens when you cut off something? You have blood and you kind of feeling it!
- What happens when you have a wound that is healed? You feel it and see how it’s going!

I imagine all the way back in, after his ear was healed, Malchus was feeling his ear!

Did it really happen? Malchus comes back in and I’m sure someone said, ‘Where’d you get all that blood?’ This guy over here cut my ear off!

‘how’d it get back on?’ This guy over here that we arrested, touched it and it healed! A witness!

Do we really want to kill Him? There are many, many things. Now remember this is the Passover night, and this is in preparation of His sacrifice on the Passover Day, which parallels the animals that Abraham cut in two and God walked between.

They took Him bound to Annas and Caiaphas and so forth, you can read of it there in A Harmony of the Gospels. They beat Him, they punched Him, they had a trial—which was totally illegal—and I’ve got all the timeframe that is there, everything that happened. The chief priest condemns Him, Peter denies Christ three times, and then the Sanhedrin sends Him to Pilate; Pilate finds Him innocent. Now we’re getting into the day portion.

But then the priests stirred up the people and they demanded Barabbas. What does the name Barabbas mean?

- bar: son
- abbas is from ‘abba’; the father
- son of the father

So, there is a total counterfeit!

They released Barabbas and they took Jesus and they scourged Him, beat Him and scourged Him. Then after He barely was able to survive, they took the cross... It wasn’t like it was in the movie The Passion of the Christ; it was not a cross with two pieces. It was the crossbar that they would hang them on. They would take a tree trunk and they would put it in the ground and up at the top of it they would have a place where you could put into holders, the crossbar. So, they could crucify a person on there, and then when they are dead, they’d just get them off there by lifting up the crossbar, but the tree trunk would remain in the ground.

That’s what Jesus was carrying. It wasn’t quite as high as what they showed in the movie there. Remember, The Passion of the Christ is a Catholic version of the crucifixion of Christ, which is made to conform to Catholic doctrine. The reason why it says that Jesus was crucified on a tree is because the tree trunk was there—‘stauros’—but also for the sake of a cross. So, when He carried out His cross, He was not carrying the whole thing, but He was carrying the crossbar.

Then at the very time of the sacrifices that were going on by Abraham (Gen. 15), Christ was going through His scourging, He was being led away; at the third-hour in the morning He was crucified, and then you have the seven sayings of Jesus. Then you have darkness from the sixth hour to the ninth hour and Jesus dies at about 3:00 p.m., or the ninth hour.

Now let's see something, and then this will also tell us a very important thing concerning the Night Much to be Observed by us today. The first night to be observed, right after the Passover and death of Jesus Christ, was not a night of rejoicing. Remember what Jesus said, He told them on the Passover night, He said, 'You're going to be grieved, but afterwards you will have joy.' This one Night to be Much Observed was not a night of joy for the disciples at that time, but it was later. Because what it was, was this: Jesus performed the oath that He swore to Abraham, and He died— exactly as He said—and He was put in the grave!

After Jesus received the vinegar to fulfill the prophecy, John 19:30: "And so, when Jesus had received the vinegar, He said, 'It is finished.' And bowing His head, He yielded up His spirit." The account in Mark shows that it was at the ninth hour that He died, about 3:00 p.m.!

Verse 31: "The Jews, therefore, so that the bodies might not remain on the cross on the Sabbath, because it was a preparation day (for that Sabbath was a High Day), requested of Pilate that their legs might be broken and the bodies be taken away. Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first one, and the legs of the other who was crucified with Him. But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs" (vs 31-33). Why? It was prophesied He would never have a bone broken!

These soldiers aren't going along and saying, 'I read in the Bible that He was not going to have a bone broken. I'm not going to break the legs so I can fulfill the prophecy.' The soldiers who were there casting lots on His vesture and on His garment, say, 'Oh, let's fulfill prophecy guys.'

God made them do it and they had no inkling of why they were doing what they were doing.

Verse 34: "But one of the soldiers had pierced His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water had come out. And he who saw this has testified, and his testimony is true... [that's John] ...and he knows that what he says is true, so that you may believe. For these things took place so that the Scripture might be fulfilled, 'Not a bone of Him shall be broken.' And again another Scripture says, 'They shall look upon Him Whom they pierced.' Now, after these things, Joseph (the one from Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but having concealed it for fear of the Jews) asked Pilate that he might take Jesus' body away; and Pilate gave him permission. Then he came and took away the body of Jesus. And Nicodemus, who had come to Jesus by night at the first, also came, bearing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds. Then they took Jesus' body and wound it in linen cloths with the aromatics..." (vs 34-40).

No shroud! The Shroud of Turin is a hoax, a lie, and not true. So, the Catholic Church—a church built on lies—that believes in idolatry says:

This may not be exactly the body of Jesus, but we have tried many, many experts, and some of them say that it is. So therefore, it's good for the faithful to worship, you know, that it's true.

The Bible that they have locked away in their little compartment on their altar says that they were wound much like a mummy.

Verse 41: "Now, there was a garden in the place where He was crucified, and in the garden a new tomb, in which no one had ever been laid. Because of the preparation of the Jews, they laid Jesus there; for the tomb was near" (vs 41-42).

Here is the point of the Night to be Much Observed for Christians today:

1. God fulfilled His promise that He would die for the sins of the world as pictured by the Passover Day
2. He began His three days and three nights in the tomb, beginning with the Night to be Much Observed

Think about this: the death of the One Who was God, Who became a human being, He died, and for the joy that was before Him, He endured the cross, despising the shame so He would be able with that sacrifice to save us!

We have joy not in the death, but in the promise of what He did and fulfilled, and yes, in the death from this point of view: God applies the sacrifice of Jesus Christ to us upon repentance, for the forgiveness of our sins so that we do not have the death penalty brought upon us!

That's quite a night of rejoicing! IF we are faithful, the Night to be Much Observed pictures this: We are redeemed by the Passover, we are delivered by the death of Jesus Christ, and now on the Night to be Much Observed, we start our walk out of spiritual Egypt, because you have to be redeemed and you have to be brought out of the world.

- Just like the children of Israel, where were they going? They ended up at Mt. Sinai!
- What was that? That was temporarily the Throne of God!
- Was it not where God gave the Ten Commandments?

Likewise, our walk and our journey, because what begins with the Passover on one night, and then the Night to be Much Observed on the next night beginning our walk is pictured in the seven weeks of them walking to Mt. Sinai and hearing the voice of God, seeing the glory of God. Then with the assembly of the people of Israel there, is a type of the resurrection and the assembly of all of the saints resurrected from the dead.

You see, this Night to be Observed is fantastic from this point of view: That it begins our journey out of sin and from physical life to the resurrection to be resurrected and meet Christ on the Sea of Glass on Pentecost.

Heb. 12—we'll see the parallel; because all of these are connected, Passover, Unleavened Bread and Pentecost, and those three Feasts in the spring apply to the Church.

Hebrews 12:18: "For you have not come to the mount that could be touched..." That is the physical Mt. Sinai! They could even climb up and down on it now; God is no longer there! It's no longer a Holy place. Wherever God is, it's Holy.

"...and that burned with fire, nor to gloominess, and fearful darkness, and the whirlwind; and to the sound of the trumpet, and to the voice of the words, which those who heard, begged that the word not be spoken directly to them. (For they could not endure what was being commanded: 'And if even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned, or shot through with an arrow'; and so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, 'I am greatly afraid and trembling')" (vs 18-21). That was an awesome thing!

We'll talk a little more about this when we come to Pentecost, but here's the parallel. In order to attain to the Kingdom of God, you:

1. have to have your sins forgiven through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ
2. you have to come out of this world and walk in the ways of God, under His direction with His Spirit, with His guidance

What did they do all the way to Mt. Sinai every Sabbath, but keep the Sabbath.

Verse 22: "But you have come to Mount Zion, and to the city of the living God, heavenly Jerusalem; and to an innumerable company of angels; to the joyous festival gathering; and to the Church of the Firstborn..." (vs 22-23).

The death of Jesus Christ, God manifested in the flesh, the Son of The Father, was the firstborn Who was the sacrificial offering of God for the forgiveness of our sins. The timing has nothing to do with the timing of anything at the temple, but between the timing of things in Gen. 15 with Abraham and the death of Jesus Christ.

Now then, the Church of the Firstborn, that's us, and so in another message I will bring out to you the meaning of the firstborn and why the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread beginning with the Night to be Much Observed is so important for us, because we are the firstborn, coming out of this world who, with Christ leading the way we are coming out with a high hand and looking forward to the resurrection.

"...and to the Church of the Firstborn, registered in the Book of Life in heaven; and to God, the Judge of all, and to the spirits of the just who have been perfected; and to Jesus, the Mediator of the New Covenant; and to sprinkling of the blood of ratification, proclaiming superior things than that of Abel" (vs 23-24).

Here now we have an inkling that everything even goes back to Abel, and then that goes back to the promise that God gave there in Gen. 3:15 of His own death. This is something, how the Bible puts it all together.

This is the meaning of the Night to be Much Observed and why we in the Church of God should keep that night beginning on the night of the 15th of Nisan!

CHAPTER TWENTY-FOUR

How Do You Stand Before God?

First Day of Unleavened Bread

Fred R. Coulter

Greetings brethren! This is the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and you know as we have learned, and have seen and understand, there is no justification at all for the religious holidays of this world to have any claim that they come from the Bible.

The will of man cannot be the will of God! Remember the model prayer that Jesus gave to the Father, that we are to ask that God's will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

When God spoke to the children of Israel He gave them His will! That's what we find concerning the Holy Days, and the basic outline of them back in the book of Leviticus.

I want to read several verses at the end of Lev. 22 before we get to Lev. 23 so that we can emphasize and understand something very important concerning the Holy Days of God. They are just as important as the weekly Sabbath, and as a matter of fact, they give the rest of the story in laying out the plan of God, because without the Holy Days you cannot understand the plan of God.

Leviticus 22:31: "And you shall keep My commandments, and do them. I am the LORD."

Whenever you see 'I am the LORD' or 'the LORD says,' These are the words of God, the recorded voice of the Word of God! Of course as we have seen, know and understand we are to obey the voice of the LORD our God!

Verse 32: "And you shall not profane My Holy name. But I will be Holy among the children of Israel. I am the LORD Who is sanctifying you,"

That ties right in with the New Testament, that we are sanctified by God the Father through Jesus Christ!

Verse 33: "Who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. I am the LORD."

Not only that, when God calls us He brings us out of the world! Egypt symbolizes and typifies the world, so this becomes very important. As we have seen, IF you keep the holidays of this world you're going right back into Egypt. Another name that this is called of the world is Babylon! So Babylon and Egypt/Sodom and Gomorrah give a great definition of the end-time age that we live in.

Leviticus 23:1: "And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 'Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, "Concerning the appointed Feasts of the LORD..." (vs 1-2).—which we have seen, know and understand that they are His!

You cannot take something that comes from a pagan god, as we have seen, and put the name of God on it and have some high religious figure 'Christianize' it and sanctify it, and say that this is the will of God. No!

It's very clear these are the Feasts of the LORD, so IF you want to keep any days to God you have to keep the ones that He says! Everything else doesn't count!

"...which you shall proclaim to be Holy convocations, even these are My appointed Feasts" (v 2).

It starts out with the weekly Sabbath because as we know and have seen, the fourth commandment—concerning the weekly Sabbath—is the overarching commandment from which the Holy Days, which are Sabbaths, hang.

Verse 3: "Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of rest, a Holy convocation. You shall not do any work. It is a Sabbath to the LORD in all your dwellings."

We know we keep the seventh day Sabbath every week, week in and week out as we go down through the year. When we come to the spring of the year, which this is, we have the Passover, which we have kept, and I hope that everyone had a profitable and inspiring Passover.

Then we keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread. In these things God teaches us not only His plan. but His way, and how He is doing things. That's why we have the Feasts. Remember that the weekly Sabbath is called a Feast. So, if the weekly Sabbath is called a Feast, and the annual Sabbaths are called Feasts, they are one in the same and belong together! The truth is, as we already know that you can't have one without the other.

Verse 4: "These are the appointed Feasts of the LORD, Holy convocations, which you shall proclaim in their appointed seasons. In the fourteenth day of the first month, between the two evenings, is the LORD'S Passover, and on the fifteenth day of the same month is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to the LORD. You must eat unleavened bread seven days" (vs 4-6).

God says what He means and means what He says, so we eat unleavened bread! There's a lesson in it for us, as we will see.

Verse 7: "On the first day you shall have a Holy convocation. You shall not do any servile work therein, but you shall offer a fire offering to the LORD seven days...." (vs 7-8).

That includes that there's an offering on the seventh day, because if you start on the first day and you have an offering that you have, and of course, these were also the ritual sacrifices and they did them every day. You can see them all listed out in Num. 28.

Verse 8: "But you shall offer a fire offering to the LORD.... You shall do no servile work therein."

So, on every one of the Holy Days we do take up an offering. Today we don't offer sacrifices, but we give monetary offerings, and in a way that's likened unto a sacrifice.

Now let's see the command and what God says, and let's see how that with the offerings that we take up, we are to prepare for them. We are to do the things that God wants us to do in faith and trust, and understanding that God will bless us.

Deuteronomy 16:16: "Three times in a year shall all your males appear before the LORD your God in the place which He shall choose: in the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and in the Feast of Weeks, and in the Feast of Tabernacles. And they shall not appear before the LORD empty, every man shall give as he is able..." (vs 16-17). There's a gauge!

Every time we come before God to bring an offering we have to measure it by the blessings that God has given. So, if you have given and you are living by God's Word, and you are trusting in God, you probably have many blessings that you can count.

"...according to the blessing of the LORD your God, which He has given you" (v 17). That's the gauge on how we are to give our offerings!

2-Cor. 9 is talking about the Feast of Unleavened Bread and sowing and planting, and of course, it has reference then to us being the firstfruits, as we will see as we come down toward Pentecost time. We have an overall command with the very principles of God, and of course, this is based on faith. Everything that we do then must be based on faith:

- to love God
- to serve Him
- to keep His commandments
- to do the things that are right in His sight

2-Corinthians 9:6: "But this I say: the one who sows sparingly shall also reap sparingly..."

As we covered previously, long before the Feast of Unleavened Bread, that the one servant who received the one talent and didn't do anything with it, he didn't even sow it into the bank, as it were, to receive interest when Christ returns. So, he didn't even do the minimum. This is what he's talking about here. If you give sparingly then God will bless you sparingly, because the results will go hand-in-hand.

"...and the one who sows bountifully shall also reap bountifully" (v 6).

There are many, many blessings that come, which are more than just monetary or physical, blessings that you can look at and see. There are the blessings of love, joy, peace and longsuffering; the fruits of the Holy Spirit. There are the blessings where you have God's Spirit, and God is giving you the strength and help to overcome! Those are all part of the blessings that God will give.

Verse 7: "Each one as he purposes in his heart... [it's something that we have to do with deliberation and thought when we come before the LORD] ...so let him give, but not grudgingly..."

God wants us to keep His commandments with joy, not with grudging. Not saying, 'There goes that preacher again.' You know, as we're going to see, we have to preach the Word in season!

"...or by compulsion... [because God requires it] ...for God loves a cheerful giver" (v 7).

Here is the blessing; here is the promise. This is what we claim when we give to God our tithes and our offerings:

Verse 8. "For God is able to make all grace abound toward you so that in every way you may always have sufficiency in all things, and may abound unto every good work."

God gives a promise that you will have sufficiency in all things.

(pause for offering)

Let's look at the connection between Passover and Unleavened Bread, and a relationship with God the Father and Jesus Christ. Remember, as we have covered, John 14-17 are the words of the New Covenant, as we covered during the Passover night. These words also tell us exactly the way to have a relationship with Jesus Christ and God the Father. It shows that since these words were given on the Passover night, that it is absolutely true you cannot have a connection with, or a relationship with Jesus Christ and God the Father unless you keep the Passover! You know we need to be as strong as the Bible is strong and say it exactly as it is.

John 14:6: “Jesus said to him, ‘I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life; no one comes to the Father except through Me.’”

Jesus Christ is our Passover! So, unless you keep the Passover and the Feasts of God you cannot get to God the Father. It is an absolute impossibility! Of course, everything needs to be done exactly as Jesus said it should be done.

John 6:53 shows that it has to be the way that Jesus Christ has said. It is an impossibility for anyone to partake of communion anytime they want to and have a relationship with God the Father and Jesus Christ. They may think they do, but they’re deceived, because no one is going to do anything contrary to the will of God and God accept it! No one can take the Eucharist and stand before a priest, or sit before a priest who has the unmitigated gall to claim that he can command God to come and put the presence of Jesus Christ—His body and His blood—in the bread and in the wine. NO!

Jesus clearly showed that to eat His flesh and drink His blood is symbolized by the unleavened bread and the wine. There is nothing literal in it. It is symbolic! It also has a meaning of what we are to do.

John 6:53: “Therefore, Jesus said to them, ‘Truly, truly I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink His blood, you do not have life in yourselves.... [because all die; the wages of sin is death and there is no way out except through Christ] ...The one who eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life...” (vs 53-54).

He’s talking about the Passover. So, if you don’t take the Passover you cannot have eternal life! You may take a false version of it through communion or the Eucharist, but that has no connection with God!

It may appear to have connection with God because those who perform the service use the Scriptures, but they misuse them because they are unwilling to obey! Remember where we started—God said, ‘Therefore, My commandments you shall keep!’ Those are part of the commandments of God the Father and Jesus Christ.

“...and I will raise him up in the last day; for My flesh is truly food, and My blood is truly drink. The one who eats My flesh and drinks My blood is dwelling in Me, and I in him” (vs 54-56). Without the Passover, Christ cannot dwell in you! That’s what He says.

Here is what we are to do. This tells us exactly the meaning of it. We don’t do this for some religious ritual so that somehow what we do puts us in right standing with God. We do it because God says IF we do, He puts us in right standing with Him! What are we to do after that?

Verse 57: “As the living Father has sent Me, and I live by the Father; so also the one who eats Me shall live by Me.”

- it is a way of life
- it is something that we do
- it is something that we live by
- it is something we think by
- it is something we have our life wrapped up in
- Christ is in us
- God the Father is in us
- it is a way to live

Christ didn’t die in vain to just please men! He died to save the world His way!

Verse 63: “‘It is the Spirit that gives life; the flesh profits nothing....’ That is our own physical flesh!”

Even symbolizing eating His flesh and drinking His blood, it is the spiritual meaning of it! The spiritual application of renewing the New Covenant, as we have seen on the Passover, which is kept the 14th day of the 1st month.

“...The words that I speak to you, they are Spirit and they are Life. But there are some of you who do not believe.’....” (vs 63-64).

And they didn’t like the saying that Jesus said, ‘You have to eat My flesh and drink My blood’; so what did they do? They said, ‘It’s a hard saying. I quit’ because it went against their will! They weren’t willing to follow the will of God the Father and Jesus Christ. That’s the whole meaning of the Feast of Unleavened Bread!

“...For Jesus knew from the beginning who were the ones that did not believe, and who would betray Him. And He said, ‘For this reason, I have said to you, no one can come to Me unless it has been given to him from My Father’” (vs 64-65). No one! It’s an impossibility!

Just like you cannot please God by eating leavened bread during the Feast of Unleavened Bread. It’s an impossibility! Unless you come:

- through Christ
- through His Word
- through His Gospel

- through His way

you can't get to the Father! They couldn't take that!

Verse 66: "From that time, many of His disciples went back and walked no more with Him. Therefore, Jesus said to the twelve, 'Are you also desiring to go away?' Then Simon Peter answered Him, 'Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life; and we have believed and have known that You are the Christ, the Son of the living God'" (vs 66-69).

Jesus wanted to set the record straight, because in Matt. 16 when Peter said, 'You are the Christ,' Jesus said, 'Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jona, for My Father has revealed this to you.' No one knows the true Christ unless He is revealed by God the Father!

Verse 70: "Jesus answered them, 'Did I not choose you twelve, and one of you is a devil?'"

To believe in your own belief of what you think concerning what the Bible says, and the Word of God, will get you nowhere with God!

Now let's see something very profound and important. To show that the only way that we are going to come to God, come to Jesus Christ and God the Father, is:

- through repentance
- a broken heart
- accepting the sacrifice of Jesus Christ
- living by the Words of God

Those who are teachers will see the command of what they are to do, and it does include the annual Sabbaths, and it does include all the commandments of God.

2-Timothy 3:14: "But as for you... [Paul is writing to Timothy] ...continue in the things that you did learn and were assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them. and that from a child you have known the Holy Writings..." (vs 14-15).

They had not only the scrolls of the Old Testament in the synagogues before the time of Christ, but they also had personal scrolls. They also had the Septuagint translated from the Hebrew into Greek.

"...and that from a child you have known the Holy Writings..." means that he was taught in his home, (first part of 2-Tim.) His grandmother and mother taught him. They had the Word of God just like we have the Word of God.

"...Holy Writings, which are able to make you wise unto salvation through faith, which is in Christ Jesus" (v 15).

This is affirming the need to follow and obey the commandments in what is called the Old Testament!

Verse 16: "All Scripture is God-breathed..."—the very Word of God! It's like when I'm speaking, breath is coming out of my mouth. God breathed means that God's Spirit moved these men to write the very Words of God! It's just not the sayings or the thoughts of men. Because of that:

Verse 16: "All Scripture is God-breathed and is profitable for doctrine... [from which all teaching comes] ...for conviction..."—that you have to be!

Not only know the Truth but be convicted of the Truth so you can:

- stand for the Truth
- love the Truth
- live by the Truth

Unless you have conviction you do not have spiritual backbone!

"...for correction..." (v 16)—because we all need correction, every one of us!

We need to let the Word of God correct us; that's the easiest way. You read the Word of God and you change and repent when you see there's correction for you.

The next easiest way is for a minister to teach you and read the Scriptures; you are corrected by that. Then it becomes a little more difficult if you're not willing to listen. Many times it's not a matter of being willing to listen, but because some things are hard to learn that we need the experience of trials and difficulties so that we can learn the profound importance of what God wants us to do, and how we are to live!

Remember, don't complain about any trial or difficulty that you've come through. Always think on and remember the sacrifice of Jesus Christ—His beating, His scourging, His crucifixion—that He went through for every one of us, because He loved us. That's why Paul says all these heavy trials are just but for a light moment. Remember that there is no trial, no difficulty, no situation that is too great for God! But in those He wants you to turn to Him.

"...for instruction in righteousness..." [so that we may learn how to be in right standing with God through the power of His Holy Spirit] ...so that the man of God may be complete, fully equipped for every good work" (vs 16-17).

That's not only just those who are teaching, but that's for everyone!

- that's why the Word of God is here

- that's why we are to prove all things.
- that's why we are to hold fast which is good!

2-Timothy 4:1: "I charge you, therefore, in the sight of God, even the Lord Jesus Christ, Who is ready to judge the living and the dead at His appearing and His Kingdom: Preach the Word!...." (vs 1-2).

- What does this tell us?
- How can he preach the Word if he didn't have it written down?

This tells us at the time that Paul was writing to Timothy, that they had the Words of God! They had all the Epistles of the Apostle Paul.

1-Timothy 6:3: "If anyone teaches any different doctrine, and does not adhere to sound words, even those of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the doctrine that is according to Godliness, he is proud and knows nothing. Rather, he has a morbid attraction to questions and disputes over words, from which come envy, arguments, blasphemy, wicked suspicions, vain reasonings of men who have been corrupted in their minds and are destitute of the Truth... [sounds like 'Biblical scholars' today] ...men who believe that gain is Godliness. From such withdraw yourself" (vs 3-5).

The point is this: Timothy had to have all the Gospels to know the sound words of Jesus Christ! So, this whole thing that the Bible wasn't written until hundreds of years after the apostles, is nothing more than a satanic lie given by atheistic scholars who don't believe the Word of God and have a secret hidden agenda that they want to destroy the Word of God and corrupt it.

In The Holy Bible in Its Original Order, A Faithful Version, you can read the commentary, which absolutely proves that that's so, and that's their motive. There are very few honest scholars out there in the world, but just enough so that the Word of God and the history and preservation of the text will not be lost.

2-Timothy 4:2: "Preach the Word!"

What is a minister supposed to do? Preach the Word!

- not stories
- not his ideas
- not what he thinks

but the Word of God, which means in order to preach the Word of God you have to have it! We have the evidence right here that Timothy had:

- the Old Testament from a child
- the writings of the Apostle Paul

- the Gospels

So, by the time this second epistle is written, every book of the New Testament was available to the New Testament Church except the book of Revelation. That's amazing to understand.

"...Be urgent... [not slovenly, not ho-hum] ...in season and out of season..." (v 2).

What did we in Lev. 23? That these are the Feasts of the LORD, which you shall proclaim in their seasons! Therefore, all Scripture is God-breathed! This is absolute proof that they were keeping the Passover and the Holy Days in the early New Testament Church and that all of these pagan intrusions came later when the state religion was instituted by Emperor Constantine.

"...convict, rebuke, encourage, with all patience and doctrine. For there shall come a time when they will not tolerate sound doctrine..." (vs 2-3).

People don't like that: 'that's harsh, that's too rigid!' You tell it to God! See if He will accept those excuses!

"...but according to their own lusts..." (v 3). That's where these things come from, people have lusts! They want to have it their way! They don't want to do God's way! They want their own way! They want to be satisfied in their lusts!

"...they shall accumulate to themselves a great number of teachers, having ears itching to hear what satisfies their cravings; and they shall turn away their own ears from the Truth; and they shall be turned aside unto myths" (vs 3-4). That's exactly what has happened!

I got a letter where a man wrote and said:

Well, you know that in the New Testament there's no place that shows that we should keep the Feasts of the Old Testament.

As we have already seen in the messages leading up to the Passover and Feast of Unleavened Bread that, yes, right in 1-Cor. 5 you find a direct command by the Apostle Paul, the apostles to the Gentiles, writing and speaking to the Gentiles commanding them to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread because they kept the Passover!

1-Corinthians 5:6: "Your glorying is not good...."

They were glorying about the situation with the man who had his stepmother in immoral sexual relations. But any kind of glorying is not good over things that are sin. It's a sin to say that God has delivered us to do all these abominations, meaning the pagan holidays as we already have seen and know.

“...Don’t you know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump?” (v 6). A little bit of sin starts it!

That’s why God uses leaven as a type of sin during the days of Unleavened Bread. He wants us to understand just like leaven is everywhere, leaven is in the air! Who’s the ‘prince of the power of the air’ that brings people to sin? Satan the devil! Leaven is so common, it’s in the basic food staples that we eat. It’s in bread crackers, cakes, it’s in all of the things that we just normally take for granted.

So, during the Feast of Unleavened Bread He wants us to put out the leaven and to eat unleavened bread for seven days as He has said so we learn the lesson that as God has called us out of Egypt, we have our part to do. If we don’t put the leaven out of our homes, and I’ve seen this time and time again down through the years, that when people don’t put leaven out of their homes—a simple little thing—within a short period of time they no longer understand what sin is! They redefine sin according to their own ideas, sin according to their interpretation of the Scriptures.

Verse 7. “Therefore, purge out the old leaven...”

We’re to go get it out of our homes, and also there’s a spiritual lesson here. Purge out the old human nature!

“...so that you may become a new lump...” [that you may be molded into that new person in Christ] ...even as you are unleavened” (v 7)—showing that they had their houses unleavened! It couldn’t mean anything other than that.

Here’s the reason: Some people ask, ‘Why do you keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread?’ Turn right here, here’s the answer:

“...For Christ our Passover was sacrificed for us” (v 7). Because of Christ we keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread!

Most people think ‘because of Christ ‘we keep Easter.’ God never said so! ‘Because of Christ we keep Lent. Because of Christ we keep Ash Wednesday.’ Where do you find that in the Bible? It’s not there! Those are things of men who did not want to hear the Truth!

We read in 2-Tim. 4 that they wanted to turn to myths and lies and have new teachings that please men, that accept all the sins of the world! That’s what those are.

We keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread, put the leaven out of our homes, and eat unleavened bread seven days because God said so; because Christ was our Passover Who was sacrificed for us. So, IF you want to claim the sacrifice of Christ for the forgiveness of your sins and you do not keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and you do not keep the Passover, you have no part with Him! That’s very clear! Here’s the direct command:

Verse 8: “For this reason...”—because of the fact of the sacrifice of Jesus Christ on the Passover Day! That’s why He’s called our Passover.

“...let us keep the Feast...” (v 8). There can be no doubt it’s the Feast of Unleavened Bread!

- it’s not Easter
- it’s not Lent
- it’s not Sunday-keeping

It is the Feast!

“...not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of Sincerity and Truth” (v 8).

That’s what God wants us to have. He wants us to have a nature that is filled with Truth from the Spirit of Truth by the God of Truth and Jesus Christ, Who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life!

The only way that that can be is if we understand that we must have our natures unleavened spiritually that we become the new creature in Christ! Eating the unleavened bread shows us that we are to live by every Word of God and to understand that God’s way is the way that it is.

Now let’s come to Psa. 34. Let’s see something that’s very important which ties in with the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and ties in with the meaning of living by every Word of God. This is New Testament doctrine here that we’re going to read in Psa. 34. Very profound. Very important for us to understand. And this is the whole meaning of it. You see, Christ is the sinless One. Christ, Who knew no sin, became the sacrifice for us, and He is the One Whom we are able to continuously come to:

- to come to God the Father
- to have our sins forgiven
- to grow in grace and knowledge
- to understand the Word of God

Psalm 34:4: “I sought the LORD, and He answered me... [you’ve got to come to God] ...and delivered me from all my fears.” We’ve got to trust God! That’s what the whole Feast of Unleavened Bread is picturing: you trust God.

Verse 5: “They looked to Him and were radiant; and their faces were not ashamed. This poor man cried, and the LORD heard, and saved him out of all his troubles. The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear Him and delivers them” (vs 5-7).

Part of the blessings of God, the blessings that you hardly ever see or know or recognize. Maybe you can look back and see how angels may have delivered you from some things, but you don’t know that they are there.

Verse 8: “O taste and see that the LORD is good...” That’s why we keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread!

- we taste the Word of God
- we digest it spiritually speaking
- it becomes a part of us
- we think with the Word of God
- we have it written in our heart and mind

“...blessed is the man who takes refuge in Him” (v 8). That’s what we need to do!

Verse 14 shows part of how to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread: “Depart from evil... [put the leaven out] ...and do good... [put righteousness in] ...seek peace and pursue it. The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and His ears are open to their cry” (vs 14-15).

Verse 18: “The LORD is near to the brokenhearted and saves those who are of a contrite spirit. Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD delivers him out of them all” (vs. 18-19). Those are the promises that God gives for keeping the Feast of Unleavened Bread!

We will follow the theme that leaven equals sin, and that we ourselves only change or become unleavened through Christ. Now here’s where we begin. Let’s understand what we are as human beings, and where God wants us to go. The truth is that God is going to take something that is imperfect and He’s going to perfect it! He’s going to take us who are sinful—and upon repentance and baptism, yielding to God and growing and overcoming—perfect us and make us righteous! It’s quite a process that God is doing. Here’s where it begins:

Romans 3:23: “For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God... [all are sinners, none are exempt, and Christ is the only way out] ...but are being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus; Whom God has openly manifested to be a propitiation through faith in His blood, in order to demonstrate His righteousness, in respect to the remission of sins that are past...” (vs 23-25).

God is showing His righteousness, and that righteousness could also be called justification because He is taking those who are sinners and making them in right standing with Him by justification through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ and by His blood!

Verse 26: “Through the forbearance of God; yes, to publicly declare His righteousness in the present time, that He might be just, and the One Who justifies the one who is of the faith of Jesus. Therefore, where is boasting? It is excluded. Through what law? The law of works? By no means! Rather, it is through a law of faith” (vs 26-27).

Then he also asks the question because of faith and because of grace:

Verse 31: “Are we, then, abolishing the Law through faith? MAY IT NEVER BE!... [Greek: ‘me genoito’] ...Rather, we are establishing the Law”—because they’re written in our heart and mind, because we live by them!

However, we still have a sinful nature. Even though we are justified, even though Christ died while we were yet sinners, even though we have the Holy Spirit shed abroad in our heart so we can develop:

- the patience
- the love
- the overcoming

We still have sin to fight!

Let’s come to Rom. 7 and see the predicament that all human beings are in. One mistake that a lot of people make is that they focus on their sins because they have a sinful nature. We’re going to see you have to get sin out, but not focus on sin, but focus on Christ. Then we’re also going to see: How does God look at us? How can God put up with us with this sinful nature, which causes us to do things that we don’t want to do? And we slip and fall in sin, yet we repent and we change, we come to God. Let’s see how all of this works. Let’s put it all together here.

Romans 7:7: “What then shall we say? Is the Law sin? MAY IT NEVER BE! But I had not known sin except through the Law... [because law defines the sin]. ...Furthermore, I would not have been conscious of lust, except that the Law said, ‘You shall not covet.’”

But something happens when God begins to call an individual. Something happens in the minds of individuals once they have the Holy Spirit. That is they see how sinful sin is.

Verse 8: But sin, having grasped an opportunity by the commandment, worked out within me every kind of lust because apart from Law, sin was dead. For I was once alive without law; but after the commandment came, sin revived, and I died” (vs 8-9). That is obviously through the operation of baptism!

He didn't die a literal death and then was resurrected. That's what he's talking about. Of course, baptism is a death, a covenant death into the death of Jesus Christ! That's why we take the Passover.

Verse 11: "Because sin, having taken opportunity by the commandment, deceived me, and by it killed me. Therefore, the Law is indeed Holy, and the commandment Holy and righteous and good. Now then, did that which is good become death to me? MAY IT NEVER BE! But sin, in order that it might truly be exposed as sin in me by that which is good, was working out death; so that by means of the commandment, sin might become exceedingly sinful" (vs 11-13).

How is that possible? How is it possible that we're going along and we're living our lives in the world, we have no consciousness of sin. We know some things are right, and some things are wrong, but:

- we don't have a consciousness of sin
- we don't have a conviction of sin
- we don't have a need to repent of sin

Oh, when we do something wrong and we're caught doing something wrong, yeah we're sorry, but that's not repentance of sin toward God!

What changes? It is the Holy Spirit of God! Because when God begins to call someone He sends the Spirit to be with them. When they repent and are baptized the Spirit is within them. Here is what the Spirit does.

John 16 is talking about the activity and work of the Holy Spirit. Jesus was telling His disciples.

John 16:7: "But I am telling you the truth. It is profitable for you that I go away because if I do not go away, the Comforter will not come to you. However, if I go, I will send it to you. And when that one has come, it will convict the world concerning sin..." (vs 7-8).

- What gives us the conviction of sin in our lives?
- What brought the Apostle Paul to the point that he had this conviction of seeing how evil that human nature really was?
- It was by the Holy Spirit of God!

So, the truth is this: if you find that you're a sinner, and if you're convicted that you are a sinner, and if you find yourself doing like the Apostle Paul did here, doing things he didn't want to do but still did them:

- What is convicting you of that?

- Your thoughts? No!

The Holy Spirit that is with you, or in you!

Romans 7:14. "For we know that the Law is spiritual; but I am carnal, having been sold as a slave under sin; because what I am working out myself... [just what I do by myself] ...I do not know..." (vs 14-15).

- Isn't that true?
- Don't we do a lot of things that we don't know why or what we do them for?

And a lot of them end up being sin!

"...For what I do not desire to do, this I do; moreover, what I hate, this is what I do. But if I am doing what I do not desire to do, I agree with the Law that it is good" (vs 15-16)—because you can now see that your behavior needs to be changed!

That's why we need to put out the sin. When we put the sin out, as we're going to see, we need to put righteousness in. The same Holy Spirit that convicts us of sin so we can repent and get rid of sin, it is the same Holy Spirit that gives us the power and strength to put righteousness in through Jesus Christ. That's what we're going to see is the way that it works.

Verse 17: "So then, I am no longer working it out myself; rather, it is sin that is dwelling within me."

All of us have sin. We'll see it's called the law of sin and death, and we have to overcome it. We can only overcome it through Christ.

Verse 18: "Because I fully understand that there is not dwelling within me—that is, within my fleshly being—any good. For the desire to do good is present within me; but how to work out that which is good, I do not find.... [within me] ...For the good that I desire to do, I am not doing; but the evil that I do not desire to do, this I am doing. But if I do what I do not desire to do, I am no longer working it out myself, but sin that is dwelling within me" (vs. 18-20).

There is a solution, and the solution is Christ, and the solution is the Feast of Unleavened Bread after the Passover. Because once you have your sins forgiven, you've got to do something else. That is you've got to do it God's way!

Verse 21: "Consequently, I find this law in my members, that when I desire to do good, evil is present with me."

You can still find that today. You go along, you're doing something good and then all of a sudden here comes an evil thought out of the middle of nowhere. That's the law of sin and death working in you.

We're going to see through Christ there is a way out! What we need to focus on You see sometimes we get so 'beat sin out, get sin out of your life' that all people do is just look and see: where is the sin? Well you need to find out where the sin is. What do you do after that? That's the rest of the story of the Feast of Unleavened Bread! So, he says concerning this:

Verse 24: "O what a wretched man I am! Who shall save me from the body of this death?... [we need to be saved from this, and only Christ can] ...I thank God for His salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ. Because of this, on the one hand, I myself serve the Law of God with my mind; but on the other hand, with the flesh, I serve the law of sin" (vs 24-25). In other words it is the sin within your members that causes you to do this!

Where do we stand before God?

This is what I want you to understand. This is what is so important that we need to realize what Christ does and how we stand before God and that's the whole meaning of the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

Romans 8:1: "Consequently there is now no condemnation..." I want you to repeat that.

You love God the Father, you accept Jesus Christ as your Savior, and we're going to see how there is no condemnation. There's no condemnation! You don't need to focus on the sin that has brought you down, but you focus on the solution, which is Christ in you!

When you see the sin, you put it out getting rid of the leaven. In order to replace that you have to eat unleavened bread. That's putting Christ in! That's why He has us eat unleavened bread for seven days, so that we have to understand and realize that God puts us in a very special category. There is no condemnation. The very fact that you have the law of sin and death in you and you are overcoming it, and you are looking to God to change you, there is no condemnation, because there is the forgiveness available. That's why we are in the grace of God.

Verse 1: "Consequently, there is now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who are not walking according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit." You're not just following the dictates of the flesh!

Before you were converted that's what you were doing. You had no consciousness of good. You had no consciousness of God. You are not convicted because of sin. You just knew somewhat of right and wrong. But now with the Holy Spirit convicting you of sin, you see sin within you. That's the Holy Spirit revealing it to you so you can change and repent and let Christ blot that out and forgive you and give you His Spirit! Now, because you are doing that, you are walking in the Spirit and not in the flesh.

Verse 2: "Because the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus has delivered me from the law of sin and death. For what was impossible for the Law to do... [because the Law has no power] ...in that it was weak through the flesh, God having sent His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin condemned sin in the flesh" (vs 2-3). So that:

- God could give you His righteousness
- God could give you His Spirit
- God could give you His mind

Verse 4: "In order that the righteousness of the Law might be fulfilled in us, who are not walking according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit." Now that's something!

Let's see how this whole operation is done. Here's how it is accomplished. Here is the way:

1 John 1:6: "If we proclaim that we have fellowship with Him... [a lot of people do] ...but we are walking in the darkness..." And many are!

They're not walking according to the commandments, because the commandment is Light, and the Spirit is Light, and Christ is Light. He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. That's the way we are to live.

IF we're walking in darkness, IF we're keeping Sunday, Christmas and Easter, and all the things of the world, you're walking in darkness! You're not walking in the Light.

"...We are lying to ourselves..." (v 6). With the Holy Spirit within you, you cannot lie to yourself very long because the Holy Spirit will convict you, and through the graciousness of God lead you to repentance.

"...we are lying to ourselves, and we are not practicing the Truth. However, if we walk in the Light, as He is in the Light, then we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ, His own Son, cleanses us from all sin" (vs 6-7).

Jesus said on the Passover night, telling His disciples, 'Now you are clean through the words that I have spoken.' And that was after they had partaken of the very first New Covenant Christian Passover.

- that's why we keep the Passover every year
- that's why we keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread every year

It cleanses us from all sin! That's why there's no condemnation through Jesus Christ.

We're going to see in just a minute, how we stand before God. How does God look at you? You're going to be surprised!

Verse 8: "If we say that we do not have sin, we are deceiving ourselves, and the Truth is not in us. If we confess our own sins..." (vs 8-9).

We have to go to God and confess our sins, not to a priest! It doesn't say to go to a priest and confess your sins, and then you are forgiven by him. And you run out and do 'hail Marys and our fathers' or whatever other kind of religious work that has been given to do. That's not of God! You confess your sins directly to God the Father through Jesus Christ.

"...He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness" (v 9).

There's no condemnation if you are cleansed from all your sins, and cleansed from all unrighteousness. How can there be condemnation? There isn't!

Verse 10: "If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His Word is not in us."

Then he gives us encouragement; 1-John 2:1: "My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. And yet, if anyone does sin... [because as we've covered with the law of sin and death we do sin] ...we have an Advocate with the Father; Jesus Christ the Righteous; and He is the propitiation for our sins... [tie in Rom. 3] ...and not for our sins only, but also for the sins of the whole world" (vs 1-2).

In order to understand how God is going to apply it to the whole world, and when he's going to apply it to the whole world, you need to keep the Feasts of God. Here's a truth:

- Passover, Unleavened Bread, and Pentecost tell you what God is doing with the Church.
- Trumpets, Atonement, Tabernacles and the Last Great Day tells you how God is going to solve the problem of the sins of the world, and when.

Keep that in mind! Very important!

How do you stand before God? I want you to grasp this. I want you to understand this. I want you to fully realize how God views you through Christ.

Ephesians 1:3: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly things with Christ."

- the Holy Spirit
- forgiveness of sin
- understanding the Word of God
- growing in the character of God
- how we grow and develop and build the very character and love of God within us

Verse 4 is a very important verse. It is translated correctly here in this new translation because there is what is called, as I have mentioned before, the middle voice verb, showing that God has done something very special and very personal in our lives!

Verse 4: "According as He has personally chosen us for Himself..." That's a tremendous thing. God did not call you to condemn you!

- God called you to forgive you
- God called you to change you
- God called you to convert you
- God called you to overcome sin
- God has called you to be in His Kingdom
- God has called you to be His very sons and daughters
- God has called you to share in His glory through Christ

There's no condemnation in that! That's the greatest thing that could ever be!

"...before the foundation of the world... [He had the plan already to go before He created the world] ...in order that we might be Holy and blameless before Him in love" (v 4).

That's how you stand before God, Holy and blameless because of Christ! He's got a plan for us.

Verse 5: "Having predestinated us for sonship to Himself through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of His own will."

God is dealing in your life according to the very good pleasure of what He has determined.

Verse 6: "To the praise of the glory of His grace, wherein He has made us objects of His grace in the Beloved Son; in Whom we have redemption through His blood, even the remission of sins..." (vs 6-7).

It all goes back to the blood of Jesus Christ, and it all goes back to our right standing with God through the sacrifice of Christ. This is tremendous, brethren! That's why there's no condemnation. That's why

- yes, we're to put sin out

- yes, we're to overcome sin.
- yes, we're to confess our sins and have forgiveness

but

- we need to grow
- we need to change
- we need to understand there is no condemnation

There's not one word of condemnation here!

"...according to the riches of His grace, which He has made to abound toward us in all wisdom and intelligence" (vs 7-8).

God wants you to know, God wants you to understand. He's given His Spirit, He's given His Word. That's fantastic. God wants you to have the joy of the Lord. He wants you to understand how He views you, and He does not condemn you. Now we're going to look at this just a little bit more here in just a minute.

Verse 9: "Having made known to us the mystery of His own will..."

- Do you understand the will of God?
- Do you understand the greatest secret that men can never grasp through everything that they do, try, work, and so forth

We've got the two robots up on Mars: Opportunity and Spirit. They're looking for water. They're looking for signs of life. Who knows what they'll find up there, but always remember this: even if they find water that does not mean there has been life, because there was not life in the water until God said, 'Let the water bring forth the fish and all the things that are in the water. So even if they find evidence of water that doesn't mean that there was life. He's got His plan; He's got His purpose.

Verse 9: "Having made known to us the mystery of His own will, according to His good pleasure, which He purposed in Himself." God is working that plan!

Let's understand something very important also how God looks at us and what He does for us. This is profound. This is something that is really absolutely marvelous. Here's what God has done for us.

Romans 5:17: "For if by the offence of one man [Adam] death reigned by the one [Adam], how much more shall those who receive the abundance of grace and the gift of righteousness..." It's a fantastic gift to be put in right standing with God!

- Have you ever in your own mind thought that you can be in right standing with God through Jesus Christ?

- That you can have imparted to you, imputed to you the very righteousness of Christ?

That's the only way that you can be Holy and without blame, because that is imputing to you the very qualities of Jesus Christ! That's why we are to have the joy and the understanding, and realize how great this salvation of God is and might receive

"...the abundance of grace and the gift of righteousness reign in life by the One Jesus Christ.) So then, even as by the one transgression condemnation came unto all men, in the same way also, by the one act of righteousness... [sacrifice and crucifixion of Christ, and His resurrection] ...shall justification of life come unto all men" (vs 17-18). Of course, that's in God's good time!

Verse 21: "So that even as sin has reigned unto death, so also might the grace of God reign through righteousness unto eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

God imputes the righteousness of Christ to you! That's what to understand. That's why the lawless grace of this world and what they do with it is absolutely wrong. Let's see what it shows we are to do.

- What are we to do with this?
- Wrap it up in a napkin and be all smug and say, 'Oh that's good, we stand before God blameless'?
- What are you to do?
- What is the obligation?
 - you put the sin out
 - you put the leaven out

but

- you've got to put the unleaven in

Rom. 12:1 shows what it is to be, that conversion is a process, and God has given this right standing before Him that we are Holy and blameless before Him in love to inspire us to want to do what it tells us here.

Romans 12:1: "I exhort you, therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, Holy and well-pleasing to God, which is your spiritual service."

- to love Him
- to grow in the fruits of the Spirit
- to overcome the works of the flesh

That is your spiritual service!

Verse 2: "Do not conform yourselves to this world... [go back into the world] ...but be transformed by the renewing of your mind..." That's the conversion that takes place!

- step-by-step
- day-by-day
- week-by-week
- month-by-month
- year-by-year

as you grow and overcome and walk in the ways of God!

“...in order that you may prove... [there’s doing] ...what is well pleasing and good, and the perfect will of God” (v 2).

Now let’s see what we are to do with this carnal mind. What do you do when you’re going along and all of a sudden there’s an evil thought that comes along. You say to yourself, ‘Where did that come from?’ Well, it could come out of the depths of your own carnal mind.

- it could come because of ‘the prince of the power of the air’
- it could come because there are evil spirits out there who want to bombard you with the missiles of evil that comes from Satan the devil and his demons
- What are you to do when that thought comes along?
- Are you to say, ‘Oh, I must not be converted’? No!

You recognize it because of the Spirit of God! You are converted, but here is what you need to do:

2-Corinthians 10:4: “For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal... [you’re not going to solve this by doing things that are motivated by the flesh] ...But mighty through God... [you are to use the weapons of God, and this is what he’s talking about here]: ...To the overthrowing of strongholds.”

That’s referring to the carnal mind, because the carnal mind is the greatest stronghold of sin! Remember, we still have the law of sin and death in us. So, when these things pop up, here’s what we are to do.

Verse 5: “Casting down vain imaginations...”

We are to take those thoughts, literally, mentally, and grab hold of them in the name of Jesus Christ and cast them down.

“...and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought into the obedience of Christ” (v 5). It’s a process!

Those things are going to happen. The Spirit of God in you is going to convict you of the sin so that you can repent and cast it down.

Verse 6: “And having a readiness to avenge all disobedience, whenever your obedience has been fulfilled.” That’s the process!

Now let’s see how we can put this into action even more. God expects us to do something. He will give us His Spirit to do it and accomplish it, which gives us the power to overcome.

That’s why during the Feast of Unleavened Bread we put in the Word of God. Not only do we eat unleavened bread:

- we put in Christ Who is unleavened, sinless.
- we put in the Word of God, which gives us conviction
- we use the Spirit of God, which gives us power
- we realize that we have Satan to overcome
- we have the world to overcome
- we have ourselves to overcome

the most important one to overcome is the self through the power and Spirit of God, because we overcome Satan by the blood of Christ. So, here’s what He expects us to do:

Colossians 3:1: “Therefore, if you have been raised together with Christ... [out of the watery grave of baptism] ...seek the things that are above, where Christ is sitting at the right hand of God.” When you go pray, understand that. Realize that Christ is right there. Christ is:

- our High Priest
- our Savior
- our Intercessor
- the One Who sends the Spirit
- the One Who petitions the Father
- He is the propitiation for our sins

all the things that have to do with Christ, and those are all yours because He gave Himself for you!

That ought to be a great humbling and overwhelming experience when you finally come to grasp and understand that when you’re praying to God.

Verse 2: “Set your affection on the things that are above, and not on the things that are on the earth. For you have died... [through the watery grave of baptism] ...and your life has been hid together with Christ in God” (vs 2-3).

Here’s a promise. Notice how he gives this promise before he tells us what we need to do, because Paul wants us inspired.

- you can never overcome by beating the flesh.
- you can never overcome sin by focusing on sin.

- you have to focus on Christ and the solution

That's why he shows the goal:

Verse 4: “When Christ, Who is our life, is manifested, then you also shall be manifested with Him in glory.

He wants you to have the goal in mind before you start working on the things you need to work on:

- to give you motivation
- to give you inspiration
- to help you to understand how great God is and what He's doing

Verse 5: “Therefore, put to death your members which are on earth...” Grab those thoughts, cast them down! Take the lusts, get rid of them through the Spirit of Christ. These are the things:

“...sexual immorality, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil desires, and covetousness, which is idolatry. Because of these things, the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience” (vs 5-6).

We don't want the wrath of God upon us, so put all of those things aside. This is the way, Paul says, that you used to live.

Verse 7: “Among whom you also once walked, when you were living in these things.” We're not to live in those!

Paul goes through put off/put on; v 8: “But now you should also put off all these things... [these are the changing from carnal attitudes and carnal ways to spiritual ways] ...wrath, indignation, malice, blasphemy, and foul language from your mouth.”

Who's he talking to? To converted Christians who have the Spirit of God, but they still have the law of sin and death in them, and they have this fight that is going on. So, Paul is telling them how to overcome this, and how they can build the character of God.

Verse 9: “Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old man together with his deeds, and have put on...” [you put off all these and now you put on the new man; tie in with Rom. 12:1-2] ...Put on the new man, who is being renewed... [it is a process, and it takes time] ...in knowledge according to the image of Him Who created him; where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, barbarian nor Scythian, slave nor free; but Christ is all things, and in all” (vs 9-11).

IF you are Christ's it doesn't matter who you were before God called you! Christ is the all important thing.

Verse 12: “Put on then, as the elect of God, Holy and beloved... [because you are Holy and blameless before Him in love; that's why you're Holy and beloved] ...Deep inner affections, kindness, humility, meekness, and long-suffering.”

That's why God has brought together the weak of the world and all the problems that we have so that we can overcome, so that we can change.

Verse 13: “Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another if anyone has a complaint against another; even as Christ forgave you, so also you should forgive. And above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfection” (vs 13-14).

That is the ultimate goal! The very love of God within us to motivate us in everything that we do—that's the bond of perfection.

Verse 15: “And let the peace of God rule in your hearts...”

- don't condemn yourself
- don't have a guilty conscience
- don't put yourself down

Come before God and Christ, confess your sins, let them be forgiven, walk in newness of life, pull all the vain imaginations down and cast them down and:

- put in the Word of God
- put in the love of God
- put in the character of God

Verse 16: “Let the Word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. And in everything... [this is the overall thing] ...—whatever you do in word or in deed—do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by Him” (vs. 16-17). That's what God wants us to do!

How we live our lives!

Ephesians 5:1: “Therefore, be imitators of God, as beloved children.”

- that's why we study the Word of God
- that's why we let God write it in our heart and mind, and our inward part

So that we can imitate God

- with His love
- with His goodness
- with His understanding

Verse 2: “And walk in love... [toward each other] ...even as Christ also loved us... [there’s no more profound love than this] ...and gave Himself for us as an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savor.”

Then he says all these other things are the works of the flesh:

Verse 3: “But fornication and all uncleanness or covetousness, do not permit it even to be named among you, as is fitting for saints.”

So, the true spiritual meaning of the Feast of Unleavened Bread is this:

- through Jesus Christ
- through renewing the New Covenant through the Passover
- through keeping the commandments of God and loving God with all your heart, mind, soul and being

There is no condemnation! You are Holy and without blame before Him in love!

CHAPTER TWENTY-FIVE

The Spiritual Battle in the Mind

First Day of Unleavened Bread

Fred R. Coulter

Greetings, everyone! Welcome to the Feast of Unleavened Bread! Here we are still going forward toward the Kingdom of God, and like it has been all down through the history of the Church, the expectation of the return of Jesus Christ is always out in the future.

How far, we don't know! But in the meantime, we are to continue to grow in grace, knowledge and understanding of the Word of God. We are to do it every Sabbath, every Holy Day, every Feast, in fact, every day of our lives, as we will see with this Feast of Unleavened Bread.

I want to show you the consistency of God as we find beginning in Exo. 23. I want you to see the pattern that God has set, and why that is so important.

Exodus 23:12: "Six days you shall do your work, and on the seventh day you shall rest, so that your ox and your donkey may rest, and the son of your handmaid, and the stranger, may be rejuvenated. And be watchful in all that I have said to you..." (vs 12-13).

Don't forget what God has said. Think of this, because the next verse with the Feast, and I want you to compare that with the holidays of the world.

"...And make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of your mouth" (v 13).

What happens when they substitute Sunday for the Sabbath? They get all the holidays of the world, and the other gods and Satan the devil! So cleverly packaged, so truly deceived that they don't even grasp it, though they know they are pagan.

Verse 14: "You shall keep a Feast unto Me three times in the year. You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread. You shall eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month of Abib, for in it you came out of Egypt. And no one shall appear before Me empty" (vs 14-15). Then it lists the other Feast days!

Exo. 34—this is after the golden calf. This is after God had to write the Ten Commandments all over again, because Moses broke the tablets when he saw what the children of Israel were doing. God had him cut two more tablets of stone, take them, and God wrote the Ten Commandments again. Notice how consistent that God is:

Exodus 34:18: "You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread. You shall eat unleavened bread seven days... [not an option] ...as I commanded you, in the time of the month Abib, for in the month Abib you came out from Egypt."

Verse 21: "You shall work six days, but on the seventh day you shall rest. In plowing time and in harvest you shall rest. And you shall observe the Feast of Weeks, of the firstfruits of wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering at the year's end. Three times in the year shall all your males appear before the Lord GOD, the God of Israel" (vs 21-23). Consistent!

Deut. 16—consistent again, because God is the same yesterday, today and forever! Remember that when anyone starts arguing about the holidays of this world, and that you don't need to keep the Feasts of God because 'we're under a New Covenant.' You can tell them that, 'yes, we're under a New Covenant so we can understand the Truth of the Bible.' Not that we can substitute the things of God with the things of Satan the devil.

Deuteronomy 16:16: "Three times in a year shall all your males appear before the LORD your God in the place which He shall choose: in the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and in the Feast of Weeks, and in the Feast of Tabernacles. And they shall not appear before the LORD empty, every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD your God, which He has given you" (vs 16-17).

So, when we take up the offering, which we will in a minute, look at:

- your blessings
- what God has done
- what God has given you
- how He has given understanding and Truth from His Word
- how He has dealt with you with His Spirit
- how God has given us the greatest and most precious promises of all

The ultimate goal of the Feast of Unleavened Bread is to become like God!

Leviticus 23:1: “And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ‘Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, “Concerning the appointed Feasts of the LORD...”” (vs 1-2).

These are appointed times, established by God in resetting the calendar on the fourth day of the re-creation week. That calendar is so accurate that you can go forward in time into perpetuity, and you can go back in time. Notice that the ministers and elders have no choice; they cannot add to and they can’t take away from.

“...which you shall proclaim to be Holy convocations, even these are My appointed Feasts. Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of rest, a Holy convocation. You shall not do any work. It is a Sabbath to the LORD in all your dwellings” (vs 2-3). Same thing: Exo. 23, Exo 34, Deut. 16!

Verse 4: “These are the appointed Feasts of the LORD, Holy convocations, which you shall proclaim in their appointed seasons. In the fourteenth day of the first month... [according to the Calculated Hebrew Calendar] ...between the two evenings... [between sunset and dark] ...is the LORD’S Passover” (vs 4-5).

We’ve already had that, the Lord’s Passover and the Night to Be Much Observed to the Lord. That’s not some sort of feast that some man invented. That’s what God says it is.

Verse 6: “And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to the LORD. You must eat unleavened bread seven days. On the first day you shall have a Holy convocation. You shall not do any servile work therein, but you shall offer a fire offering to the LORD seven days....” (vs 6-8).

Since there are no more sacrifices, we take up offerings on the Holy Days. This is the beginning of the Feast season, which started with the Passover. But now the beginning of the Feast to give us meaning and understanding as to:

- why we are here
- where we are going
- what God is doing
 - ✓ to us
 - ✓ through us
 - ✓ in us

To prepare us for the Kingdom of God!

With that in mind and remembering the blessings that God has given you, we’ll take a pause and take up an offering now.

(pause for offering)

The greatest mystery of man and all mankind in the world is:

- Why are human beings so well-intended, but so evil?
- Why do they have such great potential, and yet, it all ends in catastrophe?

That’s the whole reason for the Feast of Unleavened Bread!

Leaven during the Feast of Unleavened Bread pictures sin, human nature, evil, which is naturally in us. But the reason that it is leavened is because the action of leaven cannot be seen, but you can see the results of it. When bread is rising, with leaven in it, you can see the action of the leaven making the bread rise. But you can’t see the leaven.

Likewise, why are human beings evil? That goes back to the original sin of Adam and Eve and their disobeying the voice of God! You know what happened there; God gave His judgment against Adam, Eve and the serpent, and also gave the first prophecy of the coming of the Messiah to save man from his evil.

Let’s look at what happened to all human beings, every one of us all the way down through history. We know from the account in Gen. 3 that that sin was so grievous, so absolutely horrible right before God that the two that God created with His hands and gave into their minds a language so He could communicate with them. He gave them every opportunity in the Garden of Eden, but they turned their backs on God and followed Satan the devil.

So, the whole environment was changed. Now thistles and thorns being in the field of crops, and with sorrow and difficulty and labor and things like this. Not only that, it was passed on to all their progeny, all mankind, all men and women everywhere, every nation, makes no difference.

Romans 5:12: “Therefore, as by one man... [Adam] ...sin entered into the world...” This is human sin! It’s not talking about Satan’s sin, which occurred before the creation of Adam and Eve.

“...and by means of sin came death... [that’s what God said to them, ‘dust you are and unto dust you shall return’] ...and in this way death passed into all mankind...” (v 12).

Every man and woman has the death gene! That’s why Paul writes, ‘As in Adam we all die!’ Only through Christ shall we all be made alive, with eternal life! Adam could have stopped it when Eve said, ‘This looks good, let me pick it.’ Adam should have told her to throw it down and don’t bother with it. He should have turned around and cast the serpent out of the Garden of Eden. But he didn’t!

God judged Adam because Adam listened to the voice of his wife, which is actually the repeating of what Satan said, instead of listening to God! So, sin—or death—passed into all mankind!

“...and it is for this reason that all have sinned” (v 12). When you have a nature of death, you also have a nature of sin! Without the Holy Spirit of God, with the world going the way that it did and following the way of Cain, and coming on down to the time of the Flood.

Just like Jesus said, ‘As it was in the days of Noah before the Flood, so shall it be in the days of the coming of the Son of man.’ They were eating and drinking, and building and all of this. They didn’t know that the Flood was coming until it came upon them! Likewise, it’s going to be with the return of Christ.

I want to focus in on the conduct of people. I want you to think about the world today as I read this, and think about all the things that come along that look really, really good, but are enticements to evil.

Genesis 6:5: “The Lord saw...” God has seven spirits traveling all the time seeking those who are seeking God! He knows what’s going on everywhere at all times through that and through the power of His angels and through Satan the devil and the demons.

“...that the wickedness of man was great on the earth, and every imagination...” (v 5).

Have you ever just sat down to think and your imagination is just kind of running wild. What do you usually end up with? Something that’s not too good! Once in a great while you may have a good thought that way, but that’s rare.

“...of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually” (v 5).

- Isn’t that the way that the world is today?
- Isn’t that the way that the Christianity of the world is today?
- Isn’t that the way of the societies?
- Isn’t that the way of the governments? Yes!

That’s why God has called us so that we—through loving God and keeping His commandments, Sabbath and Holy Days—can be converted and changed so that we can rule the world with Christ! So, the stakes are high!

So bad was it that God was sorry, v 6: “And the LORD repented that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart. And the LORD said, ‘I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth, both man and beast, and the crawling thing, and the fowl of the air; for I repent that I have made them.’ But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD” (vs 6-8). We’re all here because of Noah! You need to think about that!

Let’s see what Jesus said that human nature was really like. I want to call your attention to something that we find in another account of when the rich man came to Jesus and said, ‘Good Master...’ Jesus said, ‘Why do you call Me good. There is none good but God.’

Hold on! He was God manifested in the flesh, but why did He not count Himself good? Because He had to carry the law of sin and death within Him in order to condemn sin and death in the flesh! So, He was not good as God is good as a spirit being. Let’s see what Jesus said about human nature, and this is from birth. All you have to do is read Ps. 51. It tells you that this is the natural state of human beings:

Mark 7:21: “For from within, out of the hearts of men... [and women] ...go forth evil thoughts...”—all kinds of evil thoughts!

Who is one of the great purveyors today—not the only one—that introduces children to sin and evil under the guise of fun, games and excitement? Walt Disney! Universal Studios! Television! Movies! All of these things! Look at them, they’re all filled with evil.

A lot of evil thoughts seem very good to people, because they get a benefit. Remember, Satan always gives a benefit, but that benefit is a curse from within!

“...adulteries, fornications, murders” (v 21)—the leading crimes everywhere in the world with all human beings in every nation and society!

Verse 22: “Thefts, covetousness, wickednesses, guile, licentiousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness; all these evils go forth from within, and these defile a man” (v 22-23).

That’s why Christ came, to save us from our sins. Conversion is not just so that we have better exterior behavior. There are a lot of people who have good behavior. But it is the conversion of the heart and the mind, and that’s what God wants. That we will see is the meaning of the Feast of Unleavened Bread!

1-Cor. 4 helps to understand about:

- the sin within us
- the righteousness that we need to follow
- what God wants us to do
- why leaven is pictured as a type of sin

It’s because it puffs up!

1-Corinthians 4:6: “Now these things, brethren, I have applied to Apollos and myself for your sakes; that in us you may learn not to think of men beyond what is written, so that no one among you is puffed up on behalf of one of us against the other.”

That’s what they were doing! ‘I’m of Apollos, I’m of Paul, I’m of Christ, I’m of Peter, I’m of whatever...’ That’s puffed up!

Verse 7: “For what makes you superior to others? And what do you have that you did not receive?....”

I want you to think about that statement in everything that you have. Everything you have you have received beginning with your very being, and that came from God. Everything else came from God came through other people, and God has provided that, so that we don’t get all puffed up, leavened up to exalt men! That’s the opposite of what Christ wants. They were so puffed up that they were about ready for the Kingdom of God. It doesn’t work that way!

“...But if you also received it, why are you boasting as if you did not receive it? Now you are satiated. Now you have been enriched. You have reigned without us.... [they were thinking that they were better than the apostles] ...And I would that you did reign, so that we also might reign with you. For I suppose that God has made us apostles last, as it were appointed to death; for we have become a spectacle to the world, both to angels and to men. We are fools for the sake of Christ, but you are wise in Christ...” (vs 7-10).

- Isn’t that the way it becomes?
- Isn’t that why God had to punish His Church and scatter it?
- Yes, indeed!

“...we are weak, but you are strong; you are glorious, but we are without honor” (v 10). What a thing that Paul had to fight!

Verse 11: “To the present hour we both hunger and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and wander without a home; and we labor, working with our own hands. When railed at, we bless; when persecuted, we bear it; when reviled, we entreat; for unto this day we are as the refuse and the off-scouring of the world” (vs 11-13). He had a purpose in writing that!

We will see what that is. To get to the very heart and core of human nature, and why it needs to be converted and changed. That’s what the Feast of Unleavened Bread is all about. That we do not stay with the way that we are! We have to continually:

- shed the evil

- shed the things of the flesh and learn the things of God and the things of the Spirit that are far more important than anything else!

Verse 14: “I do not write these things to make you ashamed, but as my beloved children I warn you. For you might have ten thousand tutors in Christ, but you do not have many fathers; for in Christ Jesus I did beget you through the Gospel” (vs 14-15).

That doesn’t make him a father, he’s just using an analogy!

Verse 16: “Therefore, I am exhorting you to be imitators of me.” Later we will see that Paul told the Ephesians to be imitators of God!

Verse 17: “For this cause I sent to you Timothy, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways that are in Christ, exactly as I teach everywhere in every church. Now, some of you are puffed up... [filled with vanity and great ideas of the flesh and mind] ...as though I were not coming to you; but I shall come to you shortly, if the Lord wills; and I will know not merely the words of those who are puffed up, but the power” (vs 17-19).

The power and Spirit of God is what we’re looking for; not human persuasion, not human things, but what God wants us to do!

Verse 20: “For the Kingdom of God is not in words, but in power. What do you desire?... [they were really in bad shape, so Paul was giving them an option] ...Shall I come to you with a rod... [correct you, verbally beat you up so you will repent] ...or in love and a spirit of meekness?” (vs 20-21).

Why did Paul say that? Because they were starting to make a carnal religion out of the way of God! They were allowing sin, disaster, arguments, competitiveness and quarrels against each other.

1 Cor. 5 becomes a very important chapter for the Feast of Unleavened Bread

1 Corinthians 5:1: “It is commonly reported... [and known] ...that there is sexual immorality among you, and such immorality as is not even named among the Gentiles—allowing one to have his own father’s wife”—incest with the step-mother!

Verse 2: “You are puffed up...” Same thing that we have today with this world of the alphabet perversion! There are so many genders that you have to take every letter of the 26 letters of the English alphabet and that will stand for some perversion of sex.

“...and did not grieve instead, so that he who did this deed might be taken out of your midst. For I indeed, being absent in body but present in spirit, have already judged concerning him who has so shamelessly committed this evil deed as if I were present: In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you are gathered together, and my spirit, together with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ. To deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus” (vs 2-5).

That’s the total power of correction that the Church has: disfellowshipment! You cannot have people living in gross sin while strutting around as righteous creatures!

Verse 6: “To deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. Your glorying is not good. Don’t you know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump?”

This is why we have the Sabbath every week, and we have the annual Feasts every year when they come, because sin during the Feast of Unleavened Bread is pictured as leaven! If you don’t nip the sin in the bud and get rid of it, then it leavens and leavens! Look at what happened during the days of Solomon.

Solomon was so evil with all of his wives and concubines, and false religions, incense burning and temple building for their gods, that God had to take away the ten northern tribes from him because of his evil!

If you don’t stop sin in the beginning, it will grow and become worse! That’s the whole lesson of the Feast of Unleavened Bread!

Verse 7: “Therefore, purge out the old leaven...” *The attitude of the man living in sexual immorality and having that sin within the congregation, purge it out!

“...so that you may become a new lump, even as you are unleavened....” (v 7).

Here’s a good example. They were unleavened in their homes, because we’re to get rid of the leaven in our homes. But they put up with this sexual immorality as a good thing! Why do we do all of this that we are doing, and here’s the crux of the whole matter up to this point:

“...For Christ our Passover was sacrificed for us” (v 7). His shed blood for the forgiveness of sin! His stripes for the healing of our sicknesses! God manifested in the flesh, the One Who gave the law of sin and death into Adam and Eve and passed on to all human beings.

Now He came and took it upon Himself and lived a perfect life and didn’t sin. He was crucified and His shed blood and body was the perfect sacrifice for the sin of the whole world!

But it’s not yet given to the whole world! It is now given to the firstfruits, those of us whom God has called at this time!

Verse 8: “For this reason...”—based on the very fact that Christ was our Passover, crucified on the Passover Day—the 14th day of the 1st month!

“...let us keep the Feast... [he describes it here, the Feast of Unleavened Bread] ...not with old leaven... [not with the old sins that you still have in your life] ...nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness... [all these things within your mind] ...but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and Truth.” That’s what God wants!

- His Word is Truth
- His Spirit is Truth
- Christ is the Truth, the Life and the Way
- The Word of God is the Truth

All of this must be taken in to transform our mind and our life, and to be eaten! The Word of God says, ‘Taste and see that the Lord is good.’ That means His Word!

- it will nourish us spiritually
- it will teach us mentally
- it will correct us when we sin
- it will encourage us when we’re discouraged

All of this is in the Word of God, and God has given all of this to us now! We, in this generation, have the entire Word of God.

- What are we going to do with it?
- Are we going to be like Corinthians and let sin abound in the congregation and just let it be?

or

- Are we going to love and serve God, and do what He wants?

That’s the question! The reason that we keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread is because that unleavened bread pictures sinless food!

In Gal. 5 there were quite a few things at stake, as we’ve covered in the Galatians series, but one of them was circumcision. We have covered that, but those of the Pharisaical party said, ‘It’s impossible to be saved without physical circumcision.’ That’s not true! We’re going to show that it’s impossible to be saved without spiritual circumcision of the heart!

Galatians 5:9: A little leaven leavens the whole lump. I am persuaded concerning you in the Lord that you will be otherwise minded; and he who troubles you shall bear the judgment, whoever he may be. But I, brethren, if I still proclaim circumcision, why am I yet being persecuted? Then the offense of the cross has been taken away. I would that they would even make themselves eunuchs—those who are throwing you into confusion” (vs 9-12).

- Do we have confusion today because of false doctrine within the Churches of God?
Yes!
- Why is that? Because they are not rightly dividing the Word of God and truly following in an unleavened sense!
 - ✓ changing the meaning of the Bible
 - ✓ changing the meaning of doctrine

WOE to those who do that! Doctrine is important and we have to:

- guard the Truth
- guard the doctrine
- guard the teaching
- guard our mind
- guard our lives

All of that together!

Verse 13: “For you have been called unto freedom, brethren; only do not use this freedom for an occasion to the flesh; rather, serve one another with love. For the whole Law is fulfilled in this commandment: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself’” (vs 13-14).

Notice what Paul warns if there’s leaven within the congregation, spiritual leaven, and you’re not loving the brethren as yourself, and you’re not loving the brethren as Christ has loved us, what happens?

Verse 15: “But if you bite and devour one another, watch out lest you be consumed by one another.”

How do we overcome that? We’ve all gone through this! That’s why we need the Feast of Unleavened Bread each year, so we can cleanout all the leaven that accumulates, that we have allowed because we haven’t been diligent enough to put it away regularly. Paul says, ‘Here’s the solution’:

Verse 16: Now this I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not fulfill the lust of the flesh.” Here Paul is showing that the spiritual battle is in the mind! IF you walk by the Spirit:

- loving God
- continually growing in grace and knowledge
- using the Spirit of God to lead and guide you

THEN you’re not going to fulfill the lust of the flesh!

Paul shows that it’s a spiritual battle! So, let’s understand that the Spirit of God within us is that which convicts us of sin. We’ve all got a whole lifetime of sin piled up in our mind! That has to be expunged! We will see how Paul says that is to be done.

Verse 17: “For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these things are opposed to each other, so that you cannot do those things you wish to do. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under works of law” (vs 17-18)—because God’s Spirit will lead you!

Then Paul lists all the works of the flesh! Because you find sin within, don’t get discouraged; that is God’s Spirit revealing it to you. If you did not have the Spirit of God in you, you really wouldn’t know that that was sin. There would be no way. So, don’t be discouraged because it’s God Spirit helping you to see the evil that is still within so you can repent of it and overcome it!

Romans 8:1: “Consequently, there is now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who are not walking according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.”

We will see what that means and how—through the Feast of Unleavened Bread and drinking in of Truth and righteousness and God’s way—that we

- overcome the sin
- get it out of our lives
- grow in grace and knowledge

Romans 8:1: “Consequently, there is now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus...”

That is having this battle going on between your mind and your thoughts, and bringing your thoughts into captivity to Christ! With the Spirit of God, the Spirit of God is revealing those things to you so you can repent. If you repent there is no condemnation.

“...who are not walking according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit” (v 1). If you’re walking according to the Spirit it means that:

- God is first in your life
- you want to do the things that please Him
- you obey His voice
- you keep His commandments
- you keep His Sabbath and Holy Days
- you are growing in grace and knowledge through:
 - ✓ prayer
 - ✓ study
 - ✓ living

Verse 2: “Because the law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus has delivered me from the law of sin and death.” He didn’t take it away, but He has given deliverance:

- through Christ
- through repentance
- through learning how to live righteously from the Word of God

Verse 3: “For what was impossible for the Law to do...” Let’s stop right here and understand Law!

Law tells us what to do and what not to do, but law has no power to make you do one thing or the other! But God’s Spirit has the power, that’s the key.

“...in that it was weak through the flesh, God having sent His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh” (v 3)—and that flesh was the flesh of Christ! So, it’s already been condemned.

- that’s why God is willing to forgive
- that’s why there is overcoming
- that’s why there is repentance

All of those things are important because they come through the motivation of the Spirit of God!

The reason that Christ came was for this, v 4: “In order that the righteousness of the Law might be fulfilled in us...”

The perfect spiritual nature of the Law becomes fulfilled in us through the power of God’s Spirit. But only to those who are converted.

“...who are not walking according to the flesh... [who are the unconverted] ...but according to the Spirit” (v 4). That’s:

- the love of God
- the laws of God
- the commandments of God
- the Truth of God

Verse 5: “For those who walk according to the flesh mind the things of the flesh...” They wouldn’t even be concerned with any of those thoughts, because they couldn’t know or understand:

- what is right and what is wrong
- what is true and what is not true
- what is evil and what is righteous

It’s an impossibility!

“...but those who walk according to the Spirit mind the things of the Spirit” (v 5)—that’s the things of God!

In God’s way of life, we’re to grow in grace and knowledge, have the laws and commandments written in our heart and mind so that we can walk in the Spirit, and do those things that are motivated by:

- the Spirit of God
- the love of God
- the Truth of God

That’s spiritual-mindedness!

Verse 6: “For to be carnally minded is death... [there’s no salvation] ...but to be spiritually minded is life and peace... [with God now] ...because the carnal mind is enmity against God, for it is not subject to the Law of God; neither indeed can it be. But those who are in the flesh cannot please God” (vs 6-8). It’s impossible to please God without the Spirit of God!

They may be able to do some ‘good’ things, but that has nothing to do:

- with conversion
- with overcoming
- with loving God

Verse 9: “However, you are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if the Spirit of God is indeed dwelling within you. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Him.” That’s quite a thing! This is why the Feast of Unleavened Bread:

- we get rid of the sin
- we have our mind converted
- we have our mind changed
- we are conscious of truth
- we are conscious of the love of God
- we are conscious of the things of God because we are minding the things of the Spirit of God! That’s the whole purpose of Unleavened Bread.

Let’s see how this is done; let’s see the spiritual action of God within our mind when we repent and are baptized and receive the Spirit of God. There is something that happens in our mind that is unseen and unfelt, but it happens. The Spirit of God: if we are to grow in grace and knowledge and the Spirit of God. How is this done? We will see that this is called the circumcision of the heart!

Colossians 2:6: “Therefore, as you have received Christ Jesus the Lord, be walking in Him...”—walking in the way of the Lord! Look at all the Psalms that we have covered that He will:

- direct your paths
- direct your thoughts
- guide your way

IF you're walking in Him, that will happen!

- yes, we'll have trials
- yes, we'll have difficulties
- yes, we'll have things we have to overcome

That's all part of being perfected! As long as we are in the flesh we're still in the process of being perfected.

Verse 7: "Being rooted and built up in Him, and being confirmed in the faith, exactly as you were taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving."

Think of everything that we have with the Word of God. Today we have so much, and yet, you need to understand that even if we have many, many different things, many booklets, many books, many studies, these are all necessary for us to grow in grace and knowledge.

We can't say, 'Look at all that we have, we've got it made.' Nonsense! The only time we will have it made is at the resurrection! Keep that in mind! We know that Satan is always coming around trying to knock down what Christ has built up in us. He does this through different things:

- by people
- by means
- by practices
- etc.

Verse 8: "Be on guard... [we always have to have our guard up] ...so that no one takes you captive through philosophy..."—the religion of this world!

Let me state a truth that you already know: all philosophy is logical to the human mind, but all logic of philosophy is not true to the Word of God! But all of the Word of God is spiritually logical! I'll just let you take those things and think on that!

"...and vain deceit, according to the traditions of men... [it can be an old tradition or a new tradition] ...according to the elements of the world... [the way the world thinks, believes] ...and not according to Christ."

It's logical by philosophy to have Sunday as a day of worship. But it is not Truth! and It's not according to Christ! Who declared Himself to be the Lord of the Sabbath? None other than Jesus Christ! Man was not made for the Sabbath, but the Sabbath was made for man, therefore, the Son of man is Lord of the Sabbath Day, not Sunday! But it sounds logical, but it's not true. Nor is logical according to the Word of God!

Verse 9: "For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily." Do you want to know how to become like God? It tells us here that it's through Christ!

Verse 10: "And you are complete in Him, Who is the Head of all principality and power in Whom you have also been circumcised with the circumcision not made by hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ" (vs 10-11).

This is the circumcision of the heart! How is that done?

Verse 12: "Having been buried with Him in baptism, by which you have also been raised with Him through the inner working of God, Who raised Him from the dead. For you, who were once dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, He has now made alive with Him, having forgiven all your trespasses. He has blotted out the note of debt against us with the decrees of our sins, which was contrary to us; and He has taken it away, having nailed it to the cross" (vs 12-14).

Now let's see how Paul describes it another way. This is the way that God:

- calls us out of the world
- gives us His Holy Spirit
- changes our heart and mind

It' through the circumcision of the heart! That takes away the raw carnality of the heart of flesh!

Here's where we were when God started working with us, every single one of us:

Ephesians 2:1: "Now, you were dead in trespasses and sins... [that's why Jesus said, 'Let the dead bury their dead'—they're spiritually dead] ...in which you walked in times past according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air... [Satan the devil] ...the spirit that is now working within the children of disobedience" (vs 1-2). Satan is training their minds:

- with his way
- with his thoughts
- with his religion
- with his logic
- with his rebellion against God

It all sounds so good to the carnal mind! But notice what it really is:

Verse 3: "Among whom also we all once had our conduct in the lusts of our flesh, doing the things willed by the flesh and by the mind..." A lot of good discipline of the mind:

- to do better
- to become better
- to increase
- to be more successful

- to make more money
- to be stronger
- to be thinner
- to be more beautiful

Whatever! All of those things are not of Christ! They may have a temporary benefit, but they're still all sin, because they don't lead to life!

"...and were by nature the children of wrath, even as the rest of the world" (v 4).

Then all of a sudden, one day something happened! God intervened in your life!

Verse 4: "But God, Who is rich in mercy because of His great love with which He loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, has made us alive together with Christ. (For you have been saved by grace.)"

The love and grace came with the Spirit of God and began to deal in your life, and then led you to baptism, after repenting, and the receiving of the Holy Spirit of God. God has a great plan for us!

Verse 8: "For by grace you have been saved through faith..."

- you came to repentance
- you believed in Christ
- you believed in the commandments of God
- you saw your sins
- you abhorred yourself
- you abhorred your thoughts

And you had them all buried in the watery grave of baptism! When that happened you were co-crucified with Christ! An amazing spiritual operation!

"...and this especially is not of your own selves; it is the gift of God... [here's a verse that's a little tricky]: ...not of works... [our works, our ways or the traditions of men] ...so that no one may boast. For we are His workmanship..." (vs 8-10). Christ is doing a work in each one of us! Every single one of us!

"...being created in Christ Jesus unto the good works that God ordained beforehand in order that we might walk in them" (v 10). That is the way of the Truth! Also called the way of the Lord!

- through our yielding to God
 - through prayer and study
 - through keeping the commandments of God
- which are the works He wants us to walk in
- through changing, repenting, growing and overcoming
 - through keeping the Sabbath and Feasts of God

we are developing and growing in the mind of Christ in preparation for the day of the resurrection!

That's what it's all about, and it begins with the Feast of Unleavened Bread. Quite a thing indeed! Let's see how Paul writes of this, and puts it all together for us, so that we know that:

- we have the Spirit of God
- God is working with us
- God is leading us
- God is teaching us
- God is giving us of His way

Colossians 1:9: "For this cause we also, from the day that we heard of it, do not cease to pray for you and to ask that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will... [the more we study the Word of God, the more we have the knowledge of His will] ...in all wisdom and spiritual understanding."

All of that comes from God. This is not knowledge to puff us up and make us great of ourselves. It is knowledge to make us spiritually strong in the Lord! Notice that it depends on how we're living, and the way that we live:

Verse 10: "That you may walk worthily of the Lord..." That's why we pray every day that:

- we walk worthily of the Lord
- keep His commandments
- do what is right
- repent of our sins
- grow and overcome

"...unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work and growing in the knowledge of God" (v 10). That's what God wants!

Listen! There is so much in the Word of God for us that God wants us to learn, that we have to study and re-study, and go over the Word of God over and over again. There is no way that we can glean—even with the greatest minds that could possibly be—all that God has in His Word for us!

It's a marvelous and a fantastic thing! Brethren, we all ought to be growing in knowledge and grace. I'm still learning things. Never can we say that 'I've been in the Church for so long, Satan has no interest in me.' That becomes dangerous thinking!

Verse 11: "Being strengthened with all power... [the power of God] ...according to the might of His glory, unto all endurance and long-suffering with joy."

So, there's going to be difficult times! But with joy, because we see the goal, the Kingdom of God, being sons and daughters of God, living with God forever!

Verse 12: “Giving thanks to the Father, Who has made us qualified for the share of the inheritance of the saints in the Light.”

Isn't that amazing? God the Father Himself is dealing directly in each one of our lives individually. That's something to think about. It doesn't matter who you are or where you've been or what you have done.

- it matters what God is doing with you now
- how you are growing in grace and knowledge now
- how you are overcoming now

Take that every day, day-by-day, by week, by month, by year for however long we may live in the flesh!

Notice what the Father has done. This is quite a statement here.

Verse 13: “Who has personally rescued us from the power of darkness...”—the rule of Satan the devil! Think about that! God the Father Himself has dealt in our lives individually and particularly to accomplish that.

“...and has transferred us unto the Kingdom of the Son of His love” (v 13). We're not in it, but we are under it!

Verse 14: “In Whom we have redemption through His own blood... [on a continuous basis] ...even the remission of sins... [that's an amazing thing] ...Who is the image of the invisible God, the Firstborn of all creation... [by the resurrection of the dead] ...because by Him were all things created, the things in heaven and the things on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether they be thrones, or lordships, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by Him and for Him” (vs 14-16). And we have a part in that! That's what's so important!

Verse 17: “And He is before all, and by Him all things subsist.... [Christ is in charge] ...And He is the Head of the Body, the Church... [no man; we all submit and yield to Christ] ...Who is the Beginning, the Firstborn from among the dead so that in all things He Himself might hold the preeminence” (vs 17-18).

Christ is always going to be there at the right hand of God the Father! An amazing thing, indeed!

Verse 19: “For it pleased the Father that in Him all the fullness should dwell; and having made peace through the blood of His cross... [that we can have peace with God the Father and Jesus Christ] ...by Him to reconcile all things to Himself; by Him, whether the things on the earth, or the things in heaven” (vs 19-20).

That is a great exaltation of Jesus Christ, and the fact of this supremacy of His existence!

Then Paul brings us back to reality, v 21: “For you were once alienated and enemies in your minds by wicked works; but now He has reconciled you.” Get rid of the things in the mind! Be converted! That's where conversion is, in the mind!

Verse 22: “In the body of His flesh through death, to present you... [this is why He did it, present every single one of us] ...Holy and unblamable and unimpeachable before Him; if... [there are conditions, and those conditions always exist as long as we're in the flesh] ...indeed you continue in the faith grounded and steadfast, and are not moved away from the hope of the Gospel, which you have heard, and which was proclaimed in all the creation that is under heaven... [a prophecy of it clear to the end of the age] ...of which I, Paul, became a servant” (vs 22-23).

Look at what the Apostle Paul went through and everything he did to finish off the work of God as far as the writings of his epistles. It's quite wonderful thing, because the New Testament is the only, what they call, ‘religious book’ in the world that is written in letters, or epistles.

So, consider the New Testament a personal letter from God to all of us who know the will of God! That's an amazing thing!

Then Paul says concerning the mystery of God, v 26: “Even the mystery that has been hidden from ages and from generations, but has now been revealed to His saints.” You have knowledge that's greater than any of the great minds of this world!

Think of that, little ole us! God has given us that knowledge and understanding.

Verse 27: “To whom God did will... [it was God's will to do it] ...to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.” Get out the leaven and put in the unleaven!

Let's see how we do that. If very important how all of these things come about. The more you yield to God and the more you learn of the Word of God, and the more you put sin out of your life and put in the Word of God, that's getting rid of the leaven and sin, and that's putting in the righteousness and Truth of God. That's quite a great and wonderful thing, indeed, when you think about it.

Romans 12:1: “I exhort you, therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, Holy and well-pleasing to God, which is your spiritual service”:

- of love
- of Truth
- of obedience
- of serving God

Notice this command, v 2: “Do not conform yourselves to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind in order that you may prove what is well-pleasing and good, and the perfect will of God.” That’s what we are to do all the time! Quite a fantastic and marvelous thing indeed!

Ephesians 4:21: “If indeed you have heard Him and have been taught in Him, according to the Truth in Jesus: That concerning your former conduct... [the way you lived in the world before you were called] ...you put off the old man... [put out the leaven, bring in the unleavened] which is corrupt according to deceitful lusts; and that you be renewed in the spirit of your mind, and that you put on the new man, which according to God is created in righteousness and Holiness of the Truth (vs 21-24).

That’s what God wants! The ultimate of being spiritually unleavened! How do we do this, because it’s a task we have to do all the time.

Verse 25: “Therefore, let each one put away lies and speak the truth with his neighbor, because we are members of one another. When you become angry, do not sin. Do not let the sun go down on your anger” (vs 25-26).

When that happens, before the sun goes down you repent and get rid of it! Do not go to bed and have a sleepless night of tossing and turning, because you didn’t get it resolved before you went to bed.

Verse 27: “Neither give place to the devil”—because the devil will be right there to encourage the hatred!

Verse 28: “Let the one who stole, steal no more; rather, let him labor with his hands, working at what is good, so that he may impart something to the one who has need. Do not let any corrupt communication come out of your mouth... [that’s a big one] ...but that which is good and needful for edification that it may give grace to those who hear. And do not vex... [frustrate] ...the Holy Spirit of God by which you have been sealed for the day of redemption” (vs 28-30).

How do you frustrate the Spirit of God? By not repenting when the Spirit of God reveals sin to you!

Verse 31: “Let all bitterness, and indignation, and wrath, and clamor, and evil speaking be removed from you, together with all malice... [this is how our conduct needs to be] ...and be kind and tenderhearted toward one another, forgiving one another, even as God has also in Christ forgiven you” (vs 31-32).

Ephesians 5:1: “Therefore, be imitators of God...” How are you going to do that?

- with His Spirit
- with His Word
- with it begin written in your heart and mind

“...as beloved children; and walk in love, even as Christ also loved us, and gave Himself for us as an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savor” (vs 1-2). This is what God wants us to do: put out the leaven, bring in the unleavened:

- the Truth of God
- the love of God
- the way of God
- the teachings of Christ

Everything that there is, and that’s why we keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread!

We’ve got the rest of this week to really put these things into practice, and to see how we can grow in them. Draw close to God in prayer, extra study, overcoming and yielding to God!

CHAPTER TWENTY-SIX

The Redemption of the Firstborn

First Day of Unleavened Bread

Fred R. Coulter

Greetings, brethren! Welcome to the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread!

A lot of things have been going on in the world, but now's the time for us to back off from all the things in prophecies and things that are happening in the world and concentrate on the Feasts of God. As we know, the Feasts of God give us the understanding that we need concerning His plan. I hope you all had a good Passover and Night to be Much Observed, and now we are going to focus on the Holy Days:

- the first day of Unleavened Bread
- the Sabbath in between the first and last day
- the Wave Sheaf Offering Day
- the last day of Unleavened Bread
- Pentecost

Those three Feasts pertain directly to the Church, and directly to each one of us so it's important that we understand and learn even more. This year, as we have seen in understanding the series that we did Passover and the Night Much To Be Observed, there is a lot that we can learn from the commands concerning the firstborn.

Let's begin here where we always begin; Leviticus 23:4: "These are the appointed Feasts of the LORD, Holy convocations, which you shall proclaim in their appointed seasons."

Now we also find a corresponding place in the New Testament in 2-Tim. 4 to 'preach in season and out of season' showing that the New Testament Church did keep the Holy Days according to the commandments of God.

Verse 5: "In the fourteenth day of the first month, between the two evenings is the LORD'S Passover." As we have seen, God never at any time combined two days into one.

Verse 6: "And on the fifteenth day of the same month..." He doesn't say to combine this with the 14th! There are two different days.

"...is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to the LORD. You must eat unleavened bread seven days. On the first day you shall have a Holy convocation. You shall not do any servile work therein" (vs 6-7).

God expects us, when we come before Him on the Holy Days, to bring an offering as He has blessed us. As we will see when we cover about the firstborn today—

- the sanctifying of the firstborn
- what God is doing with them
- how we fit into it
- the meaning of it for us in the Church of God today

—we are going to see how important it is that when we come before God we don't come before Him empty.

Deuteronomy 16:16: "Three times in a year shall all your males appear before the LORD your God in the place which He shall choose..."

Today wherever two or three are gathered together and Christ is in the midst of it; He's chosen to be there so that is the place. If we're able to have a fellowship group and have more than two or three, maybe have 15, 20, 30, 50, 70, whatever it may be, then that is a place where He has chosen to put His name. Also, because we are the Temple of God:

- individually, to receive the Holy Spirit
- collectively as to what God is doing in building His Church

"...in the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and in the Feast of Weeks, and in the Feast of Tabernacles. And they shall not appear before the LORD empty, every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD your God, which He has given you" (vs 16-17).

Then we also know in the New Testament that the Apostle Paul says that if we give, then God is able to give us sufficiency. So, God challenges us, as we have seen, to prove Him for His blessing!

(pause for offering)

Now let's begin in an unusual place, and let's see something that God has commanded concerning the firstborn. We've already covered much of that in Deut. 16 when we covered it on the difference between the Night Much to be Observed and on the Passover, and the difference between the Passover Offering there in Deut. 16 that it is really a peace offerings and so forth, and those are the offerings that the firstborn would bring.

Now let's see something that's important, what God says and what He did the Passover night. Here's what He tells us:

Numbers 3:11: "And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, 'And I, behold I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of all the firstborn that open the womb among the children of Israel. Therefore, the Levites shall be Mine, because all the firstborn are Mine...'" (vs 11-13).

That's important for us to understand and realize. The firstborn belong to God, and we'll see how that applies to the church a little later as we go along.

Verse 13: "...On the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I set apart to Myself all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast. They shall be Mine. I am the LORD."

This is really something. At the time that He executed His judgment against all the gods of Egypt and against all the firstborn man and beast in Egypt, then He set aside, sanctified, or hallowed them. That's what it is, it means sanctified them.

Then there has to be a response. We can look at this as:

1. 1 on the Passover, the 14th redemption for the firstborn
2. there has to be deliverance

*We will see that all the way through: first redemption and then there is deliverance!

Exodus 12:51: "And it came to pass the very same day... [the very day] ... when the LORD brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies"—which we saw and we know was the 15th day of the 1st month! It clearly tells us it was the 15th.

Exodus 13:1: "And then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 'Sanctify all the firstborn to Me... [set apart, hallow] ...whatever opens the womb among the children of Israel, of man and of beast. It is Mine.'" (v 1-2).

I just want you to stop and think about how heinous a crime that abortion is, because most of those who are aborted are the firstborn!

Verse 3: "And Moses said to the people, 'Remember this day in which you came out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage...'"

Let's understand something: He passed over their houses on the Passover Day, and on the first day of Unleavened Bread they come out of Egypt! So, on the day portion of the Passover, as we saw, they assembled at Rameses so they could leave.

"...for the LORD brought you out from this place by the strength of His hand. There shall be no leavened bread eaten. On this day... [the 15th] ...you are going out, in the month Abib" (vs 3-4). Then He talks about here concerning the commands for unleavened bread!

Verse 11: "And it shall be, when the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, as He swore to you and to your fathers, and shall give it to you, you shall set apart to the LORD all that opens the womb, and every firstborn that comes of any animal, which you have; the males shall be the LORD'S. And every firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb. And if you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck. And all the firstborn of man among your sons you shall redeem" (vs 11-13).

Now we're going to see about that. First we're going to concentrate a little bit on the firstborn, and let's see some things that we haven't understood before, or we haven't looked at, and we will see the theme of the firstborn coming right on down beginning with Abraham.

Gen. 11—we will see Abraham was the firstborn. There is the right of firstborn; the right of the inheritance of the firstborn! We haven't looked at it very often here, but Abraham was the firstborn of his father Terah.

Genesis 11:26: "And Terah lived seventy years and begat Abram, Nahor and Haran."

Abraham was firstborn. Now we're also going to see that God redeemed Abraham. So, there's a firstborn and a firstborn redemption! Let's see this where He redeemed Abraham:

- the deliverance
- the redemption
- the sanctification

That will all tie in with what we are as those of the Church of the Firstborn! This puts us in a status with God that is very important and really has profound meaning for us in our understanding and relationship with God.

Isaiah 29:22: "Therefore, thus says the LORD, who redeemed Abraham... [When did He redeem Abraham? We'll look at that in just a minute] ...concerning the house of Jacob, 'Jacob shall not now be ashamed, nor shall his face now become pale.'"

So, He shows the redemption of Jacob along with the redemption of Abraham. But when was Abraham redeemed?

Now let's come back here to Gen. 15. I know we have been there but let's see, and we'll touch on this when we get to the New Testament to see what Paul says about this also. Abraham was redeemed. Now remember this: beginning any relationship that anyone has with God you first have to be redeemed, which is the forgiveness of your sins and the application of the sacrifice of Jesus Christ to you!

Genesis 15:5—the Passover night: “And He brought him [Abraham] outside and said, ‘Look now toward the heavens and number the stars—if you are able to count them.’ And He said to him, ‘So shall your seed be.’ He believed in the LORD. And He accounted it to him for righteousness” (vs 5-6). That’s when he was redeemed!

What do we have? The sacrifice that parallels the time of the sacrifice and the crucifixion of Jesus Christ as we come down through the rest of it! But that’s when Abraham was redeemed.

Now let’s look at another one and see he was the firstborn, he was redeemed. We know that the firstborn that was counted to Sarah—because it’s all that opens the womb—was Isaac; let’s see when Isaac was redeemed. This becomes very important for us to understand. Also, we’ll go to the book of Galatians here a little later on, where it says that if you are Christ’s then you’re Abraham’s seed and heirs according to the promise, and that we in the Church are like Isaac, the children of promise!

Let’s see when Isaac was redeemed. In every case in coming before God and God dealing with us first of all He must redeem us, and that is pictured by the Passover! Then He delivers us, which is pictured by the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread. In delivering us our dedication to God begins!

Genesis 22:1: “And it came to pass after these things that God tested Abraham, and said to him, ‘Abraham!’ And he said, ‘Here I am.’ And He said, ‘Take now your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go into the land of Moriah, and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains, which I will tell you’” (vs 1-2).

God said all the firstborn were His! How did you redeem it? You redeemed it with a burnt offering’ you redeemed it with a peace offering! He also said that we were to redeem the firstborn, so here we find where Isaac was redeemed. We’re also going to see how he was redeemed. We’re also going to see that it is based upon faith and belief in spite of the circumstances that are involved. We will see how God looks upon that. Of course, understand that Isaac was the firstborn of Sarah.

Verse 3: “And Abraham rose up early in the morning and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son. And he split the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up and went to the place of which God had told him. Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place afar off. And Abraham said to his young men, ‘You stay here with the donkey, and I and the boy will go yonder and worship, and come again to you.’ And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it upon Isaac his son....” (vs 3-6).

Isaac was also a type of Christ. Isaac was the firstborn. We are going to see here in just a bit Jesus was the firstborn, also. So, there is a great significance in all of this and on the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread. Because the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, as we have seen beginning with the Night Much to be Remembered, is a celebration or a great Feast unto God for redeeming and delivering the firstborn who are dedicated to God.

- we need to think of that in relationship to our lives.
- we need to think of that in relationship to the way that God has called us

Verse 6: “And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it upon Isaac his son...” You could also say it was a type of Christ carrying His cross!

“...And he took the firepot in his hand, and a knife. And they both went together. And Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, ‘My father.’ And he said, ‘Here I am, my son.’ And he said, ‘Behold the fire and the wood. But where is the lamb for a burnt offering?’” (vs 6-7). Notice Abraham’s faith because he believed God!

Let’s understand something concerning the justification and that there are things that we need to do. Once we are redeemed, once we have been set aside by God, then there are things that we need to do! As we have seen and we know, our faith—not only believing—has to have works and has to have action.

Just like the children of Israel, when they left Egypt they had to believe God and His Word. Just like in keeping the Passover, they kept the Passover exactly the way that God commanded them, and they obeyed Him and stayed in their houses until morning! So, with belief there has got to be obedience.

James 2:17: “In the same way also, faith, if it does not have works, is dead, by itself.... [you have to do what God says] ...But someone is going to say, ‘You have faith, and I have works.’ My answer is: You prove your faith to me through your works, and I will prove my faith to you through my works” (vs 17-18).

In other words the works are the evidence of what you believe. So, if you say you have faith and you have no works, you really have no faith. But if you truly have faith you will have the righteous works because you believe and you act upon that faith. That's what the whole Feast of Unleavened Bread is all about, that we act upon the faith!

- that's why it pictures the Exodus
- that's why it shows the children of Israel leaving Egypt
- that's why they had to go on their journey to meet God on Pentecost at Mount Sinai

In much the same way when:

- we are redeemed
- we renew the covenant with the Passover
- we keep the Night Much to be Observed and the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread

We are taking action to walk in the way of God in obedience, and we are on our way to the Kingdom of God! So we have the same thing.

Verse 19: "Do you believe that God is one? You do well to believe this. Even the demons believe and tremble in fear. But are you willing to understand, O foolish man, that faith without works is dead?" (vs 19-20).

So, we're going to go back and see about Abraham here because James talks about it here.

Verse 21: "Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered up Isaac, his own son, upon the altar?" The firstborn!

- Abraham was firstborn
- Isaac was firstborn

Verse 22: "Do you not see that faith was working together with his works, and by works his faith was perfected?"

If you believe God and do what He says and have the works of faith, you are going to have more belief because it is perfected. The whole purpose of our calling is to be perfected! So, there you have it.

Verse 23: "And the Scripture was fulfilled, which says, 'Now, Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness'; and he was called a friend of God."

Notice that Abraham had to have the faith. Also, Isaac had to have a certain amount of faith. He had to accept the answer that his father gave him.

Genesis 22:8: "And Abraham said, 'My son, God will provide Himself a lamb for a burnt offering.' So, they both went on together. And they came to the place of which God had told him. And Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood in order. And he bound his son Isaac and laid him on the wood, upon the altar. And Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slay his son. And the angel of the LORD called to him from the heavens and said, 'Abraham! Abraham!' And he said, 'Here I am.' And He said, 'Do not lay your hand upon the lad, nor do anything to him, for now I know that you fear God...' (vs 8-12). This was over a period of years all of this occurred from its beginning of his calling!

Likewise with us, this ties in with the Scripture that Jesus said, 'The one who endures to the end, the same shall be saved.' So, we have to have these trials and tests upon us to see:

1. Do we love God?
2. Do we believe God?
3. Will we obey God under all circumstances?

That's what the Feast of Unleavened Bread is all about, so that every year, not only do we renew the covenant on the Passover night, not only do we keep the Night Much to Be Observed, but now on the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread every year we look to God in faith! We examine ourselves, we see what we need to do. We need to take the faith of Christ and overcome the sin that is within us, which is a type of leaven. But let's understand that all of this has to be done by the power and the Spirit of God.

Just like God had to lead the children of Israel out of Egypt; just like God sanctified all the firstborn unto God on the night that He killed all the firstborn of Egypt, man and beast. Therefore, on the 15th is to be a celebration unto God:

- for the firstborn in bringing forth their offerings,
- in bringing forth offerings of thanksgiving that they are the firstborn and redeemed
- to bring forth the offering to redeem those children that were born during the year
- the offerings to redeem the unclean animals
- to bring the firstborn of oxen, sheep, goats
- to bring those as an offering to God

So there's an awful lot of meaning on this day!

We find all of it jam-packed right here into Gen. 22 because this is when Isaac was redeemed; the firstborn, which belongs to God. That's why God said to Abraham, 'Take your firstborn, your only son, the one whom you love and you go offer him.' Why? All the firstborn belong to God! There's great meaning in that for us. We are the firstborn and we belong to God! We need to understand that.

Now let's see what God provided, v 13^[transcriber's correction]: "And Abraham lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, behind him a ram was entangled in a thicket by its horns....”

I’ve thought many times, as I’ve said before, that when they went up there if the ram would have been there they would have seen it, and they would have said, ‘Oh look, God has already provided a sacrifice, hasn’t He.’

So, God either caused it to go over there or God supernaturally created a ram specifically for a substitutionary sacrifice for Isaac. This ram then became a type of Christ as a substitutionary sacrifice, which then redeems us, just like it redeemed Isaac!

“...And Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up for a burnt offering instead of his son” (v 13).

Here’s another guarantee that we have; notice the guarantee that comes down through Abraham, and this is important for us to understand. The reason that a lot of people lose faith is because:

1. they don’t grasp the significance of their calling
2. they don’t really truly believe God in a way that they ought to

Verse 15: “And the angel of the LORD called to Abraham out of heaven the second time, and said, ‘By Myself have I sworn,’ says the LORD, ‘because you have done this thing... [faith, belief and action] ...and have not withheld your son, your only son... [who was the firstborn that God already proclaimed that was His, and the firstborn were to be redeemed] ...that in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply your seed like the stars of the heavens, and as the sand, which is upon the seashore. And your seed shall possess the gate of his enemies. And in your seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice” (vs 15-18). Let’s understand we are here because of Abraham and Jesus Christ!

Now let’s see the parallel between Isaac and his redemption and being the son of promise, and we become the children of promise. Let’s see how important that this is. So, there is a parallel for the Church. Also, just like the substitutionary sacrifice to redeem Isaac, Jesus Christ is the substitutionary sacrifice for us, and we become the spiritual firstborn of God.

Galatians 4:26: “But the Jerusalem above is free, which is the mother of us all; for it is written...” (vs 26-27)—because the mother is the Church of the Firstborn! Just like Sarah was the mother of Isaac the firstborn.

That’s why in Heb. 12 it’s called the Church of the Firstborn, so we have been set aside and sanctified by God.

Verse 27: “For it is written, ‘Rejoice, O barren who did not bear! Break forth and cry, you who were not travailing, because many more are the children of the desolate than of her who has the husband.’”

We, brethren, like Isaac are the children of promise. Our calling is so great and fantastic we are the children of promise just like Isaac was.

Galatians 3:26: “Because you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ did put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek; there is neither bond nor free; there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus... [Who was the substitutionary sacrifice for us] ...And if you are Christ’s, then you are Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise” (vs 26-29).

This is why we need to have the absolute faith in God and His Word, because:

- His Word is true
- God is righteous
- God cannot lie
- God will not lie

He showed by that very act of redeeming Isaac that shows the redemption of us through Christ!

Hebrews 6:13: “For God, after promising Abraham, swore by Himself...”

Let’s understand how sure the promises are. God swore by His existence that there would be the spiritual seed as pictured by the stars of heaven, and we’re here because of that.

Verse 14: “Saying, ‘Surely in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply you.’ Now, after he [Abraham] had patiently endured, he obtained the promise. For indeed, men swear by the greater, and confirmation by an oath puts an end to all disputes between them. In this way God, desiring more abundantly to show the heirs of the promise the unchangeable nature of His own purpose, confirmed it by an oath” (vs 14-17).

Let’s look at this unchangeableness of His purpose. His purpose also is revealed through the Sabbath and Holy Days. So, here is a verse that establishes them. Then He gives an oath and He gives this promise:

Verse 18: “So that by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie...” We need to claim that promise!

We have our sins and we have our problems, we have our trials and difficulties and things that we all go through. I do and you do, and we're in this together. That's why we need:

- the Passover
- the Feast of Unleavened Bread
- the Spirit of God

working in our lives

- to help us
- to uplift us
- to redeem us
- to rescue us

So that we can produce the fruit and character that God wants us to have!

"...we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to lay hold on the hope that has been set before us; which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both secure and steadfast, and which enters into the sanctuary within the veil; where Jesus has entered for us as a forerunner, having become a High Priest forever according to the order of Melchisedec" (vs 18-20). God is dealing with us that way!

Rom. 3—let's see the redemption that has been given to us through Christ just exactly as it was given to Isaac.

- God redeemed Abraham
- God redeemed Isaac
- God redeemed Jacob
- God redeemed Joseph
- God has redeemed us and all of those follow in parallel!

This tells us how, in the same parallel as Isaac was redeemed, we are redeemed with a substitutionary sacrifice of Christ instead of the ram.

Roman 3:23: "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; but are being justified freely by His grace..." (vs 23-24).

What we saw in Gen. 22 was an act of grace! God provided the sacrifice, freely. But it also involved the belief and faith and works of Abraham and Isaac.

"...being justified freely by His grace through the redemption..." (v 24).

We are redeemed, and that redemption is through Christ, and He being the Firstborn of God, because it says in Matt. 1:18 that He was 'the Firstborn of the virgin Mary.' Then it also says in Heb. 1 that when He brought the Firstborn into the world He [the Father] said, 'Let all the angels worship Him.' So He's the Firstborn. Now He was also the Firstborn from among the dead (Rev. 1). So, there we have the exact parallel that we need in our lives and will follow through as we come along here in Rom. 3 & 4.

"...the redemption that is in Christ Jesus" (v 24)—the substitutionary sacrifice!

What did John the Baptist say?

John 1:29: "...Behold the Lamb of God, Who takes away the sin of the world.'" And it doesn't say sins [plural] it says sin [singular] because the sin of the world goes clear back to Adam, and we, with the law of sin and death, carry that in us.

Romans 3:25: "Whom God has openly manifested to be a propitiation through faith in His blood, in order to demonstrate His righteousness..."—His justification!

Now when you have been justified then that is the first step of being sanctified, which then means you have been hallowed. When you receive the Holy Spirit you have been sanctified and hallowed! It's up to us to keep the Holy Spirit growing through prayer and study and all the things that God has shown us here. It's justification:

"...in respect to the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God..." (vs 25-26).

- God's mercy
- God's kindness
- God's loving kindness
- God's patience

"...yes, to publicly declare His righteousness... [justification for sin]...in the present time, that He might be just, and the One Who justifies the one who is of the faith of Jesus. Therefore, where is boasting? It is excluded... [because it's by grace and mercy]. ...Through what law? The law of works? By no means! Rather, it is through a law of faith" (vs 26-27). We've seen the law of faith:

- you believe
- you act upon it
- you continue in it.

That's the law of faith, and God blesses you!

Verse 28: "Consequently, we reckon that a man is justified by faith, separate from works of law."

Those works of law had to do with the rituals and the laws of Judaism, not the laws and commandments of God!

Verse 29: "Is He the God of the Jews only? Is He not also the God of the Gentiles? YES! He is also God of the Gentiles, since it is indeed one God Who will justify the circumcision by faith, and the uncircumcision through faith. Are we, then, abolishing the Law through faith? MAY IT NEVER BE! Rather, we are establishing the Law” (vs 29-31). That’s what’s important! That’s what we need to realize!

Now let’s see about Abraham in Rom. 4 He believed God and it was counted to him for righteousness. The promise was given to Abraham.

- When was that given? On the Passover night!
- When was that confirmed? The Night to be Much Observed!

Romans 4:13: “For the promise to Abraham, or to his seed, that he should be heir of the world, was not given through law; rather, it was through the righteousness of faith; because if those of the law be the heirs, then faith is made void, and the promise is made of no effect. For the Law works out wrath; because where no law is, there is no transgression. For this reason it is of faith, in order that it might be by grace... [God’s gracious gift that we believe Him] ...to the end that the promise might be certain to all the seed—not to the one who is of the law only, but also to the one who is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, (exactly as it is written: ‘I have made you a father of many nations.’) before God in Whom he believed, Who gives life to the dead, and calls the things that are not as though they are; and who against hope believed in hope...” (vs 13-18).

That’s why it’s important to understand about the life of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and their faith and their works and their shortcomings and their sins that they had to repent of to give us hope, to give us understanding the way that God wants us to have. Because you are having a problem, because you have circumstances that are greater than you can handle, turn them to God in faith and always have that hope. Always keep that hope going! That’s what Abraham did and look how long he had to have hope. God, when He first brought him out of Haran and told him to go in Canaan, he said, ‘I will bless you and make your seed great.’ It was 25 years until Isaac was born; so we have to continue with hope!

Verse 18: “And who against hope believed in hope, in order that he might become a father of many nations... [he did physically, and he will spiritually] ...according to that which was spoken, ‘So shall your seed be.’ And he, not being weak in the faith, considered not his own body, already having become dead, being about one hundred years old, nor did he consider the deadness of Sarah’s womb” (vs 18-19).

He had to have a child by promise, by miracle, which then was a type of the One Who became Jesus Christ. So he didn’t have doubt!

Verse 20: “And he did not doubt the promise of God through unbelief; rather, he was strengthened in the faith, giving glory to God.” That tells us how to have our faith strengthened by giving glory to God!

Now let’s see, how we have redemption and deliverance—which includes sanctification/justification—and also helps us as we go on our exodus leaving this world as it were and in developing the righteousness of Christ.

Now let’s come to 1-Peter 1 and let’s see how he brings all of this together in this chapter. This is really quite a tremendous chapter, and we will see how it intersperses the things of the Passover through redemption and setting aside:

- how it pictures deliverance
- how it pictures our overcoming
- how it pictures how we are to grow in grace and knowledge

All in this one single chapter!

1-Peter 1:1: “Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect strangers scattered in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia... [the Gentiles who were scattered out there] ...who have been chosen according to the predetermined knowledge of God the Father...” So, we’ve been chosen!

Being redeemed, we’ve been chosen, or chosen then redeemed.

“...according to the predetermined knowledge of God the Father, by sanctification through the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied to you” (v 2). All of this results in grace from God, peace with God and we are delivered!

Let’s see how this also works together in sanctification of the Spirit, because once we have been redeemed, delivered and sanctified, we have been sanctified by the Spirit of God, and we become part of the Church of the Firstborn! We belong to God! Like God said, ‘All the firstborn are Mine.’

Now you think on that a little bit more and that helps you understand the severity of the unpardonable sin!

1-John 3:1: “Behold! What glorious love the Father has given to us, that we should be called the children of God!...” Not yet born! We are begotten! But we are the children of God:

- selected by Him
- chosen by Him
- redeemed by Him
- delivered by Him

“...For this very reason, the world does not know us because it did not know Him. Beloved, now we are the children of God... [just like a child in the womb is growing and developing] ... and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be... [because we haven't been born again, yet; that takes place at the resurrection] ...but we know that when He is manifested, we shall be like Him, because we shall see Him exactly as He is” (vs 1-2).

That's born again at the resurrection! A very key thing concerning the hope we talked about with Abraham and the hope that we are going to talk about here in 1-Peter 1:

Verse 3: “And everyone who has this hope in him purifies himself, even as He is pure.” That's what the Feast of Unleavened Bread is all about:

- to overcome sin
- to get rid of sin
- to have our mind cleansed
- to have our heart purified

It is a process because God is creating in us His Holy and His perfect character through His Spirit! This requires our love and obedience and dedication, because we've been sanctified by God!

Here is the contrast. We are going to see this. This is why God constantly instructed the children of Israel to not go back into Egypt, because that personifies the way of the world, the way of Satan the devil. We are not to be living in sin.

Verse 4: “Everyone who practices sin is also practicing lawlessness, for sin is lawlessness.... [KJV: Sin is the transgression of the Law] ...And you know that He appeared in order that He might take away our sins; and in Him is no sin” (vs 4-5). There is the substitutionary sacrifice!

Verse 6: “Everyone who dwells in Him... [which we are by the power of God's Holy Spirit] ...does not practice sin...” That's the whole purpose of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, that leaven is a type of sin. We are to put the leaven out of our homes, we are to put sin out of our lives, and all that ties in together.

It doesn't say we don't sin, because as long as we have the law of sin and death in us as the Apostle Paul wrote (Rom. 7). We are going to be sinning, but as long as we do not sin a sin unto death, it is a forgivable sin and upon repentance we are forgiven, and the grace of God applies to us here.

“...anyone who practices sin has not seen Him... [talking about those false antichrist prophets that were coming around and saying it's ok to sin] ...nor has known Him. Little children, do not allow anyone to deceive you...” (vs 6-7).

That's another thing concerning the Feast of Unleavened Bread, because unleavened bread strips bare human nature before God and shows how in Spirit and in Truth we will not then be deceived.

“...the one who practices righteousness is righteous, even as He is righteous. The one who practices sin is of the devil because the devil has been sinning from the beginning....” (vs 7-8).

That's why Paul said, ‘Do we abolish law because of grace? God forbid! We establish law.’ It's to be written in our heart and mind, and that's the whole purpose of the Feast of Unleavened Bread because:

- the more of the Word of God we get in, the more sin we put out
- the more of the power of God's Holy Spirit we have, the more that He exposes in us the sin that is within so we can repent! All of those things work together, and that's what the spiritual purpose of the Feast of Unleavened Bread is for.

“...For this purpose the Son of God appeared that He might destroy the works of the devil” (v 8). The first place to begin destroying it is within our lives!

Now, stop and think about this in relationship to the Passover: Did He not destroy all the works of the devil in Egypt in judging Egypt with all the plagues and all the things that were there and on the Passover night judging all the gods and religious practices of Egypt? Yes, indeed! He's going to destroy every one of the works of the devil when He returns.

Verse 9: “Everyone who has been begotten by God does not practice sin, because His seed of begettal is dwelling within him, and he is not able to practice sin because he has been begotten by God.”

Now let me explain this verse thoroughly to you, which is this: You have the Holy Spirit of God, which is the begettal. You come along and as exposed by the Feast of Unleavened Bread and God's Spirit in you, you see sin in your life. You are convicted of what sin is and you repent of it. That is God working in your life so you don't practice sin. Now notice it doesn't say: You do not sin. It says you do not practice sin.

1-John 5:16—concerning sin: “If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin that is not unto death...”

In other words it is a forgivable sin as Jesus said, ‘Every sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven men. And every word spoken against the Son of man shall be forgiven. but the blaspheme of the Holy Spirit shall not be forgiven.’ Jesus there in Matt. 12 showed there are forgivable and unforgivable sins. So a sin that is not unto death is a forgivable sin. So if you are convicted in conscience of sin within and you repent of it, it is forgiven. It is a forgivable sin.

If you want to know about the unpardonable sin, go to our in-depth study: The Epistle of Paul to the Hebrews.

{note our book: Occult Holidays or God’s Holy Days—Which?}.

Verse 16: “If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin that is not unto death he shall ask... [if you see a brother sinning, pray for him] ...and He [God] ...will give him life for those who do not sin unto death” (v 16).

In other words He’ll lead them to repentance! That’s all of God’s purpose, to lead us to repentance!

“...There is a sin unto death; concerning that sin, I do not say that he should make any supplication to God” (v 16).

1-John 3:10—we don’t practice sin: “By this standard are manifest the children of God...”—who are the Church of the Firstborn:

- chosen by God
- set aside by God
- redeemed by God
- delivered by God

“...and the children of the devil. Everyone who does not practice righteousness is not of God, and neither is the one who does not love his brother” (v 10).

Here’s the whole sum of it; this is where we are headed; this is the goal of our behavior:

Verse 18: “My little children, we should not love in word, nor with our tongues; rather, we should love in deed and in Truth. And in this way we know that we are of the Truth, and shall assure our hearts before Him” (vs 18-19).

God wants us to have the confidence! Now we go back and we can apply this to the children of Israel leaving the land of Egypt. They left with a high hand. In other words they had confidence and trust in God, although it didn’t last very long, because they didn’t have the Holy Spirit of God. But here we have the Spirit of God and we are to assure our hearts before God and to know that we are right with God. That’s everything that God wants us to do is all about.

Verse 20: “That if our hearts condemn us... [because we’ve sinned; it’s a forgivable sin] ...God is greater than our hearts, and knows all things.

Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, then we have confidence toward God. And whatever we may ask we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments and practice those things that are pleasing in His sight” (vs 20-22). That’s what God wants us to do!

We are going to see all of these elements here again in 1-Peter 1 concerning what God has done.

1-Peter 1:3: “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who, according to His abundant mercy, has begotten us again unto a living hope...”

That living hope is through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, because He is the Firstborn from among many brethren, and we are the Church of the Firstborn. What we are going to look at here is the process of perfection.

Let’s see what it is that God is doing with us, and let’s see how He is doing it, and let’s see the purpose in it. Sometimes we expect things to go totally perfect in our lives every day in every way and we end up with many difficulties, challenges and problems, and maybe even get depressed over sinning and all of these things.

Well look, that’s all a part of God dealing with you so you’re going to trust in Him, and trust in Him for your deliverance, because that’s what the Feast of Unleavened Bread is all about.

Hebrews 12:22: “But you have come to Mount Zion, and to the city of the living God, heavenly Jerusalem; and to an innumerable company of angels; to the joyous festival gathering; and to the Church of the Firstborn...” (vs 22-23).

That is us, and all of the saints down through time beginning with Abel and until the return of Jesus Christ. At the resurrection when we are born again and become the literal family of the firstborn of God redeemed, delivered, resurrected, and given eternal life, that’s the goal.

“...registered in the Book of Life in heaven; and to God, the Judge of all, and to the spirits of the just who have been perfected...” (v 23).

That’s what God is doing in our lives. That’s why we go through the things that we go through: to be perfected!

Let’s see how this is. We have the living hope. We don’t trust in the flesh. We don’t trust in the physical things around us. We need them to exist as long as we are physical human beings, that is true, but we don’t look at that as a great thing. We’re thankful and grateful for all that God gives us and does for us and provides for us because we need it, that is true. But here is what we are looking to because our hope goes beyond this life.

1-Peter 1:4: “Unto an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and unfading, reserved in heaven for us.”

On the Passover night Jesus told His apostles, ‘I go to prepare a place for you, and if I go, I will come again and receive you to Myself, so that where I am you may be also.’ That is our hope: reserved, unfading, undefiled!

Verse 5: “Who are being safeguarded by the power of God through faith for salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time.”

That’s the way that God does. He sets the goal, He sets the perspective; you could say the vision, because without vision the people perish, and God has given this vision of the hope of our calling and where we are going and what we are doing, and that’s what the Feast of Unleavened Bread is all about!

- that we desire to get rid of sin
 - that we desire to overcome human nature
 - that we desire to be delivered out of the difficulties and problems that we are in
- all of those work for the character of building:*
- love
 - hope
 - faith
 - grace
 - temperance
 - longsuffering
 - mercy
 - understanding
 - ✓ all the fruits of the Holy Spirit
 - ✓ all of the character that comes from God

Verse 6: “In this you yourselves greatly rejoice... [which we ought to] ... though for the present, if it is necessary, you are in distress for a little while by various trials, in order that the proving of your faith... [just like God proved Abraham’s faith] ...which is much more precious than gold that perishes, though it is being tested by fire, may be found unto praise and honor and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ” (vs 6-7).

Now let’s look how we trust in God to redeem us and to deliver us. First we must be redeemed. That’s what God did with the children of Israel. He redeemed them.

Next we have to be delivered Let’s follow through with how Paul wrote. You know many of the things that are written in Greek have long run-on sentences that are unacceptable in English, but they work just fine in Greek.

Titus 2:11: “For the grace of God, which brings salvation for all men, has appeared.”—that’s Christ; His sacrifice, His resurrection! All of that is the grace of God and salvation.

Verse 12: “Teaching us that, having denied ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live moderately and righteously and Godly in this present world.” That’s how we are to be! That’s what unleavened bread is all about!

Verse 13: “...Looking for the blessed hope and the appearing of the glory of our Savior and great God Jesus Christ; Who gave Himself for us, so that He might redeem us from all lawlessness...” (vs 13-14).

There you have it. Just like when God redeemed Israel when He slew all the firstborn in Egypt, He redeemed Abraham, He redeemed Isaac, and here’s the purpose:

“...and might purify for Himself...” (v 14)
That’s the whole process of growing, changing, and overcoming, and the purpose of Unleavened Bread!

“...a unique people, zealous of good works.... [that’s what we should be] ...Speak these things, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Do not let anyone despise you” (vs 14-15). There is redemption!

Let’s look at some deliverance. When we get into the trials and difficulties that Peter spoke of let’s see how we are to look to God to deliver us. We all need deliverance. Sometimes there are times when we go before God—I know I do; I know you do—there are so many things pressing in upon you that the only thing you can do is like one of the Psalms there where he starts out, he says, ‘Help.’ And another one says, ‘Hear me.’ And another one is, ‘O God, I’m so overwhelmed I can hardly lift up my head.’

Sometimes you get into those things. Here is how we are to approach God, because first there is redemption and then there is deliverance. Deliverance is based upon hope and trust, and so forth.

Psalms 7:1: “O LORD my God, in You have I taken refuge; save me from all who pursue me and deliver me...” You go before God and say:

O God, I’m overwhelmed with this. Please just intervene! Deliver me, help me, open the way, open the door, give me understanding, help me to realize why I’m going through what I’m going through. Give me of Your Spirit, give me of Your Truth, deliver me from this situation!

Verse 2: “Lest he tear my soul like a lion, ripping it in pieces, and there is no one to deliver.”

Psa. 25 is quite a Psalm of deliverance, and one that we can also apply to our prayers and our thoughts and yieldedness to God asking God to deliver us.

In deliverance there is trust. You must trust in God, which is:

- active faith
- active belief
- knowing that what God has said that He's a God that cannot and will not lie
- His Word is true

Just like the man who wanted to have the demon cast out of his son and Jesus said, 'If you believe, all things are possible.' The man said, 'Lord, I believe. Help my unbelief.' So, lots of times we need to go to God in that way and we need to look to Him and just ask Him, 'Help us!' That trust and faith go hand-in-hand with redemption!

Psalm 25:1: "To You, O LORD, do I lift up my soul. O my God, I trust in You ..." (vs 1-2).

That's what we are to do, trust in God! What is the Scripture that says, 'Trust no man' Every time you trust some man you get in trouble; we've got a long history of that!

"...do not let me be ashamed, let not my enemies triumph over me. Yea, let none who wait on You be ashamed; let them be ashamed who deal treacherously without cause" (vs 2-3).

Notice what happens when we have that kind of attitude, and when we are trusting in God and looking to Him:

Verse 4: "Show me Your ways, O LORD; teach me Your paths. Lead me in Your Truth and teach me..." [this is what we need to be, teachable by God with His Spirit and in Truth] ...for You are the God of my salvation; on You do I wait all the day long" (vs 4-5).

Notice how he reminded God. When you get down and desperate and in the fiery trial that Peter was talking about in 1-Peter 1.

Verse 6: "Remember, O LORD, Your tender mercies and Your loving kindness, for they have been of old. Do not remember the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions; according to Your loving kindness remember me for Your goodness sake, O LORD. Good and upright is the LORD; therefore, He will teach sinners in the way. The meek He will guide in judgment; and the meek He will teach His way" (vs 6-9).

That's what the Exodus is all about; it is the way of God!

Verse 10: "All the paths of the LORD are mercy and Truth to those who keep His covenant and His testimonies. For Your name's sake, O LORD, pardon my iniquity, for it is great" (vs 10-11). Let's see how this is also amplified here, and how:

- we have trust
- we have deliverance
- we have yieldedness to God

Psalm 27:11: "Teach me Your way, O LORD, and lead me in a level path..." That's what we need God to do with His Spirit to teach us!

Then in every situation that we learn. Many times we get frustrated in some of the things we are going through, and in overcoming there are very difficult challenges for us, but let's have Him teach us.

"...because of my enemies. Deliver me not over to the will of my enemies... [here is a prophecy of Christ]: ...for false witnesses have risen up against me, and he that breathes out violence. I would have fainted unless I had believed that I would see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.... [projecting forward to the resurrection] ...Wait for the LORD; be of good courage, and He shall make your heart strong; yea, wait, I say, wait on the LORD" (vs 11-14) and He will deliver us! There is no question about it.

Let's see how Peter continues going on showing all of these elements that we have concerning the Feast of Unleavened Bread and growing, changing and overcoming in faith, in truth, and love, and all of those things are all combined together 1-Peter 1.

It's really very interesting when you get in and you study the Bible and you see how God inspired them to write, you see how that all the elements of the Truth of God are brought in different ways and in different manners. Here we have this concerning many of the aspects of the Feast of Unleavened Bread and the redemption of the firstborn being sanctified and set aside by God for a special and a Holy use.

1-Peter 1:7: "In order that the proving of your faith... [that's what it's all about; He's going to prove our faith] ...which is much more precious than gold that perishes, though it is being tested by fire, may be found unto praise and honor and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ; whom, not having seen, you love; in Whom, though at the present time you do not see Him, you believe..." (vs 7-8).

- we have hope
- we have belief
- we have faith

- we have love

“...and rejoice with unspeakable joy, and filled with glory; and are receiving the end of your faith—even the salvation of your lives... [it’s the salvation that we have been given] ...concerning which salvation... (vs 8-10). We’ve been redeemed, and we’ve been delivered!

Of course, we ask God every day to deliver us from our sins, deliver us from the evil one! God has intervened to do that.

“...the prophets who prophesied of the grace that would come to you have diligently searched out and intently inquired, searching into what way and what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them was indicating, testifying beforehand of the sufferings of Christ, and these glories that would follow” (vs 10-11).

Now let’s see how that’s accomplished. Let’s see, again, the deliverance. Here in this case rescuing. God has to intervene and rescue us from Satan the devil, just exactly in the same way that He had to intervene and rescue the firstborn and the children of Israel in Egypt and deliver them.

Colossians 1:10: “That you may walk worthily of the Lord, unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work and growing in the knowledge of God.”

That’s what it needs to be. Every year we keep the Passover, keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and all the Holy Days of God; that we are growing in the knowledge of God so every year we learn more.

- we are preparing for the resurrection
- we are growing in grace and knowledge
- we are growing in love, faith, hope, and trust

Verse 11: “Being strengthened with all power according to the might of His glory, unto all endurance and long-suffering with joy.”

Now let’s understand that every year there are going to be saints who are going to come to the end of their lives and die. God said there is a time to die. When you die you’re going to die of something, aren’t you? Yes, because your body being physical, and your body being corruptible, being weak is going to die of something. We need to realize that.

But let’s look at it the way that God looks at it. He says, ‘Blessed in the eyes of the Lord is the death of His saints.’ Why? Because death is actually a graduation! You graduate from this physical life and are put in the grave and you wait the resurrection! When you die there is:

- no more sin

- no more pain
- no more wretchedness

But the next thought that you will have will be the resurrection and the angels carrying you up to meet Christ on the Sea of Glass in the air with all the other saints! So let’s keep focused on that! We are enduring to the end and looking to the longsuffering of God to help us to do that!

Verse 12: “Giving thanks to the Father, Who has made us qualified for the share of the inheritance of the saints in the Light; Who has personally rescued us from the power of darkness...” (vs 12-13).

Go back and you can see that situation with the children of Israel when they were in Egypt.

- Was there not the plague of darkness?
- Does that not signify the darkness of Satan the devil? Did He not give light to the children of Israel who were living in Goshen at that time?
- Yes!

“...personally rescued us from the power of darkness...” Who controls the power of darkness? Satan the devil! We are rescued and delivered from the evil one! Just like God rescued the children of Israel and brought them out of Egypt and rescued them from the evil of that terrible and wretched society and the slavery in which they were held captive.

“...and has transferred us unto the Kingdom of the Son of His love... [we are under the authority of God the Father and Jesus Christ] ...in Whom we have redemption...” (vs 13-14). So, here we go right back to:

- the redeeming of the firstborn
- the delivery of the firstborn
- the walking in the way of God
- the exodus out of sin

“...even the remission of sins...” (v 14).

You can see how all of these things work, how all of these things come together, and how He saves us!

1-Peter 1:11: “Searching into what way and what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them was indicating, testifying beforehand of the sufferings of Christ, and these glories that would follow; to whom it was revealed that, not for themselves, but to us they were ministering these things, which now have been announced to you by those who have preached the Gospel to you by the Holy Spirit, sent from heaven—into which things the angels desire to look” (vs 11-12).

Now here is the lesson we need to do. Here is the lesson for the Feast of Unleavened Bread. Because of all of You start out with 1-Peter 1:1 and you come down here to verse 13 and he gives the summary:

Verse 13: “For this reason, be prepared in your minds... [that’s what the Feast of Unleavened Bread is all about] ...be self-controlled... [with the Spirit of God] ...and be fully hoping in the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.”

The greatest grace we have to receive yet is the resurrection, which will be when Christ returns!

Verse 14: “As obedient children... [this is what God wants us to be] ...do not conform yourselves to the former lusts, as you did in your ignorance.”

Don’t go back and live the way that you lived. If it comes back, starts to creep back, that’s just like leaven growing in your life; get rid of it! Put in the unleavenedness of Christ. That unleavenedness comes through the Spirit of God, as obedient children! Don’t go back to the way that you did in your former lust as in your ignorance. Now you are educated with the Word of God and the Spirit of God.

Verse 15: “But according as He Who has called you is Holy, you yourselves also be Holy in all your conduct; for it is written, ‘You be Holy because I am Holy’” (vs 15-16).

A perfect summation of the Feast of Unleavened Bread. We are to come from something that is leavened and unholy to something that is unleavened and Holy. Leaven during the Feast of Unleavened Bread pictures a type of sin. As we know, Paul said, ‘Let us keep the Feast. Not with the old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness.’ Notice how Paul and Peter agree. If you put 1-Cor. 5 together with 1-Peter 1, they agree!

Verse 17: “And if you call upon the Father, Who judges according to each man’s work without respect of persons, pass the time of your life’s journey in the fear of God; knowing that you were not redeemed by corruptible things, by silver or gold, from your futile way of living, inherited by tradition from your forefathers; but by the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot” (vs 17-19).

That’s why we need to do the things that we do. We have been redeemed, we have been set aside and we go forward in the way that God wants us to do.

Verse 20: “Who truly was foreknown before the foundation of the world, but was manifested in these last times for your sakes; even for you who through Him do believe in God, Who raised Him from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your faith and hope might be in God. Having purified your lives by obedience to the Truth unto unfeigned brotherly love through the Spirit, love one another fervently with a pure heart. For you have been begotten again, not from corruptible seed, but from incorruptible seed, by the living Word of God, which remains forever” (vs 20-23).

That’s the meaning of the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

- we are the Church of the Firstborn.
- we have been called, set aside and purified
- we have been delivered to have
 - ✓ faith
 - ✓ hope
 - ✓ trust
 - ✓ love

with God!

Have a good Feast of Unleavened Bread, brethren. Take these things and every day during the Feast do some extra Bible study, and ask God to help you with His Spirit to grow, to change, to overcome, and to have your life transformed through this Feast of Unleavened Bread that you become more Christ-like.

CHAPTER TWENTY-SEVEN

Christ's Resurrection and Ascension to the Father

Events leading up to and of the Wave Sheaf Offering Day

Fred R. Coulter

Greetings, brethren! Welcome to Sabbath during the Feast of Unleavened Bread! Time marches on, doesn't it? Certainly does! Quite a thing!

This is a special day, and it's noted beginning in Lev. 23; we will see the instruction for this day and what it means. We know that the harvest of God spiritually is likened to a harvest of grain. So, we have the type, the physical in the Old Testament, and we have the anti-type or the fulfillment in the New Testament.

There's a special ceremony that was to be done on the day after the Sabbath during Unleavened Bread!

Another way to put it, because of the count, the waving of the Sheaf Offering had to be waved on the first day of the week during Unleavened Bread.

Leviticus 23:9: "And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 'Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, "When you have come into the land, which I give to you, and shall reap the harvest of it..."'" (vs 9-10).

God gave them the land and they entered in the spring time. Even though the inhabitants of the land planted the crop, that did not contaminate it because when the seed is put into the ground the seed disintegrates and develops a whole new stalk with many more seeds.

Some people erroneously say that it had to be the year after that they entered into the Holy Land, which is nonsense! It was their harvest because God gave it to them, even though they didn't plant it.

"...then you shall bring the premier sheaf of the firstfruits... [a special premier sheaf] ...of your harvest to the priest. And he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD to be accepted for you. On the next day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it" (vs 10-11).

This premier sheaf is picturing the resurrected Christ ascending to heaven!

Let's look at the chart in Appendix J: The Three Days and Three Nights in the Tomb and the Resurrection After the Three Days and Three Nights (pg 1280-1 in The Holy Bible in Its Original Order,

A Faithful Version). This becomes very important. The only time that this could happen, so that it pictures the three days and three nights in the grave that Christ had to be there is when the Passover is in the middle of the week from Tuesday sunset to Wednesday sunset.

Whenever we have the Passover in the middle of the week— Wednesday, the fourth day— and God reckons time from sunset to sunset. They had the Passover, Christ was arrested at midnight, and that's a type of God not passing over Christ the Firstborn/

Sidebar: Christ was the Firstborn of Mary and also the Firstborn among the dead, and also the Firstborn of the Father. All of those apply to Christ directly.

We will see the timing that took place and we will look at the Scriptures and what happened after Jesus died on the cross. But I want you to look very carefully at this chart because the Passover Day ended at sunset and that began the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

Then you have three nights and three days in the grave. That's important. Sometimes the Passover occurs on a Friday and sometimes the Passover occurs on the Sabbath. But in those instances, when the Passover occurs then, you have more than three days and three nights between the beginning of the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread and the Sabbath during Unleavened Bread.

Only in the years when the Passover falls on Wednesday, the fourth day of the week, let's see what happens. We have the Passover from sunset to sunset, which then begins the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, a Holy Day.

Then to the next sunset, you have the sixth day of the week, Nisan 16, and the second night, because all days are counted from sunset to sunset. This day is the preparation for the weekly Sabbath.

Go back to the Passover Day and that was the preparation day for the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread. When it's finished, the next day is Friday, so we've got two whole days. Then we come from sunset Friday the Sabbath beginning at sunset and then the Sabbath Day.

As you look at the chart you have 3 nights and 3 days, and Jesus said that He would be in the tomb three days and three nights.

You can refer to this chart at anytime, and we also have it in The Christian Passover book, and The Day that Jesus the Christ Died.

So important is this that because this year, when the world has Easter Friday and then they say the resurrection is Sunday, that is a total myth! That is at lie! Not true! Besides, from Friday at sunset to Sunday morning, you do not have three full days and three full nights! It's an impossibility! That shows you how off the mark that Catholicism and Protestantism actually is!

Now we're going to see some of the things that took place on the Passover Day as Christ came to the end.

Matthew 27:46: "And about the ninth hour..."—about 3-pm!

Sidebar: The death of Christ happened in the afternoon of the Passover Day. It had to be a public and notorious thing that took place. That's why Christ was not killed at the beginning of the Passover Day when the sun went down, like the children of Israel did for the Passover.

Jesus kept that Passover and it ended the Old Testament Passover, and introduced the New Covenant Passover with the foot-washing and the bread and wine.

Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, 'Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?' That is, 'My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?'" (v 46). Prophesied in Psa. 22!

Verse 47: "And some of those who were standing there heard and said, 'This one is calling for Elijah.'" But it didn't happen!

Verse 54: "Then the centurion and those with him who had been keeping guard over Jesus, after seeing the earthquake..." When He died there was a great earthquake!

There was huge, very thick curtain covering the temple, and there were 12 sections to that, three sections of four. Each section represented one of the 12 tribes of Israel. This was knitted with linen and was very thick, probably 2-3 inches thick. When that was ripped, this signified, symbolically, that the way to God was open to the people.

Whereas before, the only one who had access to the Holy of Holies in the temple on earth was the high priest once year on the Day of Atonement. But now this symbolized that the way to God was opened to all whom God would call.

"... and the things that took place, were filled with fear, and said 'Truly this was the Son of God!'" (v 54). This was a tremendous and important thing, indeed, that we understand!

Let's see how John writes of this. This becomes important, too. Everything concerning the crucifixion of Christ becomes important. Every detail was prophesied ahead of time.

John 19:28: "After this, Jesus, knowing that all things had now been finished..."—for the crucifixion!

Remember that whenever there is a finish or an ending, there is a new beginning!

"...so that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, 'I thirst.' Now, a vessel full of vinegar was sitting there. And after filling a sponge with vinegar and putting it on a stick of hyssop, they put it up to His mouth. And so, when Jesus had received the vinegar, He said, 'It is finished.'..." (vs 28-30). Notice:

- finished
- fulfilled
- finished

How far back in time does the crucifixion go?

Revelation 13:8: "...the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world." God had this all planned!

There is nothing here in all the Scriptures that is happenstance! It is all worked out in every detail, and you know for sure that the angels were there making sure that it was all done according to the will of God.

John 19:30: "...And bowing His head, He yielded up His spirit. The Jews, therefore, so that the bodies might not remain on the cross on the Sabbath, because it was a preparation day (for that Sabbath was a High Day)..." (vs 30-31). That Sabbath was the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread!

They had the time from about three in the afternoon until the sun went down approximately six o'clock, three hours to tend to the body of Christ.

You can read in The Christian Passover and The Day Jesus the Christ Died: 28 Prophecies Fulfilled in One Day, so that there can be no room for human error. God made sure that it was all done:

- according to the prophecies
- according to His plan
- according to the timing that He desired

Verse 32: "Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first one, and the legs of the other who was crucified with Him.” There was one crucified on the right and one crucified on the left!

Verse 33: “But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs; but one of the soldiers had pierced His side with a spear...” (vs 33-34)—right up into and piercing His heart!

Why? So that every drop of blood that was sacrificed for the sin of the world would be poured out!

“...and immediately blood and water had come out. And he who saw this has testified, and his testimony is true... [that’s John; he watched the whole thing] ...and he knows that what he says is true, so that you may believe” (vs 34-35). That’s written for us!

This is a fantastic thing that God did. Everything about Jesus, everything about His life was tremendous, indeed, and done out of love, truth, power and the things prophesied ahead of time so that there would be no excuse to say that this didn’t happen.

Let’s continue on and see that from the time that He died until the time that He was in the tomb.

Verse 38: “Now, after these things, Joseph (the one from Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but having concealed it for fear of the Jews) asked Pilate that he might take Jesus’ body away; and Pilate gave him permission. Then he came and took away the body of Jesus. And Nicodemus, who had come to Jesus by night at the first, also came, bearing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds. Then they took Jesus’ body and wound it in linen cloths with the aromatics, as is the custom among the Jews to prepare for burial” (vs 38-40).

How was He buried? Remember that He was beaten, there was flesh and skin hanging down. What they were doing was they started at the feet and they would wrap this linen, generally about six inches wide, around the feet and legs, and then the body. They would put all of that flesh back in as they were going up to wrap His entire body.

The lie of the Catholics about the Shroud of Turin can never be true! That is a fantastic lie, because they were wrapped. The linen was wrapped; the shroud was just overlaid. How they made the shroud no one knows, but that’s a total fake and total idolatry!

Then when they got to the head, they had a special ‘napkin,’ as they called, it that would cover the head. This is how Jesus was buried.

Verse 41: “Now, there was a garden in the place where He was crucified, and in the garden a new tomb, in which no one had ever been laid.”

Why do they say that? Tombs were not like they are today, especially in the rocky country of Judea. So, they had caves, or tombs like caves, carved into the rocks. They had ossuaries where they would put the bones. What they did first was to take the bodies, wrap them the way that Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus did, and then they would wait for all of the flesh to disintegrate, and several years afterward they would open the tomb and take the bones and put them in an ossuary.

Jesus had to be buried in a place where no one had ever been buried.

Now then, there was a great stone that was used to cover this tomb. They had the stone all cut out and ready to go, and they had a little stop to keep it from rolling down. So, when they put Jesus’ body into the tomb, they took that stop out and rolled the big rock right over the entrance covering the tomb.

Verse 42: “Because of the preparation of the Jews... [for the first day of Unleavened Bread] ...they laid Jesus there; for the tomb was near.” That’s how Jesus was buried!

Matthew 27:60: “And placed it... [the body of Jesus] ...in his new tomb, which he had hewn in the rock; and after rolling a great stone to the door of the tomb, he went away. But sitting there opposite the sepulcher were Mary Magdalene and the other Mary” (vs 60-61).

The Jews went to Pilate, and let’s see what they did; v 62: “Now, on the next day, which followed the preparation day... [for the Feast of Unleavened Bread] ... the chief priests and the Pharisees came together to Pilate, saying, ‘Sir, we remember that that deceiver said while He was living, “After three days I will rise.” Therefore, command that the sepulcher be secured until the third day; lest His disciples come by night and steal Him away, and say to the people, “He is risen from the dead”; and the last deception shall be worse than the first.’ Then Pilate said to them, ‘You have a guard. Go, make it as secure as you know how.’ And they went and made the sepulcher secure, sealing the stone and setting the guard” (vs 62-66).

- What does it mean to seal the stone?
- What do you suppose that they did?
- How would you seal it?

You would make a little concrete and then you would put it all around the edge of where that great round stone was rolled down over the door of the tomb. It would dry, and it would make it even harder for anyone to try and open the tomb.

I’m sure that they put a lot of that concrete around there. Then they had guards standing there to make sure that the disciples would not come and steal the body of Jesus away.

Matthew 28:1: "Now, late on the Sabbath... [the weekly Sabbath] ...as the first day of the weeks was drawing near..."

- Why is that translated this way? Because this day was the first day of the count to Pentecost!
- How many weeks are there to Pentecost? Seven, plus one day!

"...Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to observe the sepulcher" (v 1). They went down to see if anything took place, because Jesus said that He was going to be resurrected!

But they had no idea of the exact timing, so they went down right as the Sabbath was ready to begin to see what took place. Nothing had happened.

Mark 16:2: "And very early on the first day of the weeks, at the rising of the sun, they were coming to the tomb; and they were asking themselves, 'Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?'" (vs 2-3). Why? Because they had prepared more spices and more anointing oils and things like this!

Now we will see the sequence of the first one there was Mary Magdalene.

John 20:1_[transcriber's correction]: "Now, on the first day of the weeks, while it was still dark... [so Mary got up before the rising of the sun] ...Mary Magdalene came early to the tomb; and she saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb." This was before the sun came up!

The other women were coming and wanted to know who would open the tomb. Here's what Mary Magdalene did:

Verse 2: "Then she ran and came to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved... [John] ...and said to them, 'They have taken away the Lord from the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him.'" She didn't know!

Verse 3: "As a result, Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. Now, the two ran together, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and came to the tomb first; and he stooped down and saw the linen cloths lying there, but he did not enter. Then Simon Peter came following him, and he went into the tomb and saw the linen cloths lying, and the napkin that had been on His head, not lying with the linen cloths but folded up in a place by itself" (vs 3-7).

Let's analyze what this is telling us. If the body had been stolen away, what would they have done? They would have taken the body with the burial cloths, the ones that were wrapped around Him!

But they looked into the tomb and saw where the body was lying and what did they see? They saw the cloths that had been wrapped around His body! We don't know for sure, but it's most probably that Jesus just rose right out of the cloths. Here they are still in their wrapped condition without the body.

Think about this, because this tells us something very important: The napkin that was on His head was folded up and put in another location! Have you ever known of a napkin to do that by itself? Any piece of cloth to do it by itself? A self-folding cloth? Of course not!

What did these two things tell you? Jesus had risen from the death and He took the napkin that was on His head, folded it up and put it in a different place!

It was the angels who had rolled away the stone. So, this was quite a thing!

Verse 8: "Then the other disciple, who had come to the tomb first, also went in and saw these things; and he believed."

That's interesting; Peter was questioning what happened! John believed that He was raised from the dead, because Jesus said that He would be!

Verse 9: "For they did not yet understand the Scripture, which decreed that He must rise from the dead. Then the disciples went away again to their home. But Mary stood outside the tomb weeping; and as she wept, she stooped down and looked into the tomb.... [looking again] ...And she saw two angels in white who were sitting, one at the head and the other at the feet where the body of Jesus had been laid" (vs 9-12).

How would you know where the head and feet were unless those were still in the wrapped configuration of Jesus' body? You wouldn't! It shows that He rose right through the cloths. Quite a fantastic thing, indeed!

What would you think if you were there and saw that? Mary was out there weeping and saw the two angels.

Verse 13: "And they said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping?' She said to them, 'Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him.'"

What did the angels tell them?

Mark 16:3: "And they were asking themselves, 'Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?' For it was a massive stone. But when they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away. And after entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right, clothed in a white robe; and they were very frightened. But he said to them, 'Do not be afraid. You are seeking Jesus the Nazarene, Who was crucified. He has risen...'" (vs 3-6).

Stop and think! He was put in right at sunset—Wednesday at sunset, beginning Thursday—and you go three days and three nights. He had to be raised at sunset on the Sabbath Day.

After being raised from the dead, Jesus was probably right inside the tomb praying and thanking God, rejoicing that all of this had been done. Everything had been complete. Everything had been finished in this phase of the plan of God, that the Lamb of God Who was with God and was God had completed the mission of being the Messiah to bring the Gospel to the disciples and prepare the way for the coming of the New Testament Church and eventually the salvation of the whole world!

Notice what else the angels said, "...He is not here. Look, there is the place where they laid Him'" (v 6)—indicating that all the cloths were still in their wrapped condition, there was no need to cut them open. A spirit being can go through anything physical. So, they said:

Verse 7: "'But go, tell His disciples and Peter that He goes before you into Galilee; there you shall see Him, as He said to you.' And they went out quickly and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had seized them; and they did not say anything to anyone because they were afraid. Now, after Jesus had risen,..."—coma!

The way the King James has it and other translations is 'after Jesus had risen early the first day of the week' NO! He was raised at sunset on the Sabbath Day, right as the first day of the week was beginning! This is the correct translation and the correct placement of the coma.

"...early the first day of the weeks He appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom He had cast out seven demons. She went and told it to those who had been with Him, who were grieving and weeping. And when they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe it. Now, after these things, He appeared in a different form to two of them as they were walking..." (vs 9-12).

John 20—Mary Magdalene was at the tomb and after saying she wanted to know where they took Him:

John 20:14: "And after saying these things, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, but did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her,

'Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?' Thinking that He was the gardener, she said to Him, 'Sir, if you have carried Him off, tell me where you have laid Him, and I will take Him away.' Jesus said to her, 'Mary.' Turning around, she said to Him, 'Rabboni'; that is to say, 'Teacher.' Jesus said to her, Do not touch Me, because I have not yet ascended to My Father. But go to My brethren and tell them that I am ascending to My Father and your Father, and My God and your God" (vs 14-17).

This was just before the time of the waving of the premier sheaf at the temple. Then Jesus ascended to the Father, which we will cover in a little bit. But this tells us something very important, that the sacrifice of God the Father for the sin of the world through Jesus Christ had to be accomplished in every way that God intended, and that all of the Scriptures would be fulfilled.

Verse 18: "Mary Magdalene came to the disciples, bringing word that she had seen the Lord, and that He had said these things to her."

Jesus ascended, and lets understand that we will see that there is no command for any meeting of any kind do celebrate the ascension of Jesus Christ to God the Father. There is no command for a special meeting because He had been raised from the dead.

Let's look at a couple of verses concerning Christ as the first resurrected, the Firstborn from the dead! The reason being is that pictures the Wave Sheaf Offering.

1-Corinthians 15:20: "But now Christ has been raised from the dead; He has become the Firstfruit of those who have fallen asleep."

Those who die in the faith are called sleeping; that's their death, because they are to be awakened at the resurrection.

Verse 21: "For since by man came death, by Man also came the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive. But each in his own order: Christ the Firstfruit... [the Premiere Sheaf of Lev. 23] ...then those who are Christ's at His coming" (vs 21-23).

No one has gone to heaven! That's a fake thing, a lie! Only Christ has been raised from the dead. No one else has been raised to eternal life!

Let's see what it says of Jesus. We know that in Matt. 18 Jesus is called the firstborn of Mary. We'll see in Colossians that He is also called the Firstborn from among the dead and of God!

Revelation 1:5: "And from Jesus Christ, the faithful Witness, the Firstborn from the dead..."

- Firstborn of Mary
- Firstborn among the dead

Guess what that tells us? That's the key to understanding what it means to be 'born again.' The resurrection is being born again. This is the way it is:

- that which is born of the flesh is flesh
- that which has been born of the spirit is spirit

Jesus also said that you cannot see the Kingdom of God unless you have been born of water and of spirit! That water is your first physical birth. You lived in a watery environment within your mother's womb. You were born of water. That's how you got out of the womb. That's when you born. To be born again is from flesh to spirit, or from death to life!

Colossians 1:14—referring to Jesus: “In Whom we have redemption through His own blood, even the remission of sins; Who is the image of the invisible God, the Firstborn of all creation” (vs 14-15).

People look at that verse and say that He was born before the creation. NO! He's the firstborn of all the creation that God is doing through the resurrection of the dead. We are created in Christ Jesus! Christ is to be formed in us, as we have read! Jesus is the Firstborn of that creation. It didn't say the Firstborn of the creation of God!

Verse 16: “Because by Him were all things created, the things in heaven and the things on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether they be thrones, or lordships, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by Him and for Him. And He is before all, and by Him all things subsist” (vs 16-17).

Brethren, we need to understand what God has called us to. What a wonderful and tremendous and powerful thing that it is that God is doing with us.

- yes, we're physical
- yes, we go through trials
- yes, as we get along in time and age, we get weak and feeble

All of these things do happen to us! It even happened to Peter. What did Jesus say to Peter when Peter said, ‘What's going to happen to John over there?’ Jesus said, ‘What is it to you if he remain until I come! When you're old, you're going to be led around by someone where you don't want to go!’ That's just the nature of the weakness of the flesh! It happens to all, and:

- we all die in Christ

- we are all raised from the dead by Christ and God the Father

That's what to keep our minds on!

Verse 18: “And He is the Head of the Body, the Church; Who is the Beginning, the Firstborn from among the dead... [that's what it means of all creation] ...so that in all things He Himself might hold the preeminence. For it pleased the Father that in Him all the fullness should dwell” (vs 18-19).

Why did Jesus do all of this?

Verse 20: “And having made peace through the blood of His cross, by Him to reconcile all things to Himself; by Him, whether the things on the earth, or the things in heaven. For you were once alienated and enemies in your minds by wicked works; but now He has reconciled you in the body of His flesh through death, to present you Holy and unblemished and unimpeachable before Him” (vs 20-22). That's why:

- God does the calling
- God grants the repentance
- God forgives the sin through Jesus Christ
- God the Father gives us of His Spirit so we can have direct connection with God the Father in heaven above

That's the whole purpose as to why Christ came:

- why He rose from the dead
- why He's the Firstborn of all this creation of God that He is creating through those whom He is calling

An amazing thing! Think of this whoever you are, wherever you are:

The God Who made everything that there is through Jesus Christ has opened the way so you can have direct access—through prayer and study—to God the Father, receive the Holy Spirit of God and then develop the character of God, which the Feast of Unleavened Bread pictures:

Putting out the sin of human nature and carnality, and putting in the righteousness of God through:

- His Holy Spirit
- His Word
- living in God's way
- prayer
- study

All of these things!

That's why we're here and that's why this Sabbath is such a very important day. What happened on the Wave Sheaf Offering Day, the day after that Sabbath? As a spirit being, Jesus can disguise Himself, so even those who knew Him, after He was resurrected they didn't understand it was Jesus until He made it possible for them to understand.

Luke 24:13: "And behold, on the same day, two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, which was about sixty furlongs from Jerusalem. And they were talking with one another about all the things that had taken place.... [everything that we have just covered] ...And it came to pass, as they were talking and reasoning, that Jesus Himself drew near and went with them; but their eyes were restrained, so that they did not know Him" (vs 13-16). Amazing thing!

Verse 17: "And He said to them, 'What are these words that you are exchanging with one another as you walk, and why are you downcast in countenance?'" They were disappointed!

Verse 18: "Then the one named Cleopas answered and said to Him, 'Are You only traveling through Jerusalem, and have not known of the things that have happened in these days?' And He said to them, 'What things?' And they said to Him, 'The things concerning Jesus the Nazarean, a Man Who was a prophet, Who was mighty in deed and word before God and all the people; and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered Him up to the judgment of death, and crucified Him. And we were hoping that He was the One Who would redeem Israel....'" (vs 18-21).

Everybody has misunderstood about the redemption of Israel and the kingdom coming to Israel. Back then they thought that Jesus was going to bring the Kingdom real soon. They were disappointed when he died. But look how much time has gone since then, and how much bigger the plan of God is. The whole great magnitude of the plan of God is multiplied thousands of times greater than what has been thought.

The reason that the officials didn't accept Jesus was because Jesus didn't come and make a political alliance with them to overthrow the Romans. So, they rejected Him!

"...But besides all these things, as of today, the third day has already passed since these things took place" (v 21). Hey, we were waiting the three days! They didn't know that He was already resurrected.

Verse 22: "And also, certain women from among us astonished us, after they went to the tomb early; for when they did not find His body, they came to us, declaring that they had indeed seen a vision of angels, who said, 'He is living.' And some of those with us went to the tomb and found it exactly as the women had said, but they did not see Him" (vs 22-24). Here He is standing right there with them!

Verse 25: "Then He said to them, 'O foolish and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! Was it not necessary for the Christ to suffer these things, and to enter into His glory?'" (vs 25-26).

Here's what He did. You would think that this would have opened their eyes when He started this:

Verse 27: "And beginning with Moses, and from all the prophets, He interpreted to them the things concerning Himself in all the Scriptures. And as they approached the village where they were going, He appeared to be going on farther. But they constrained Him, saying, 'Stay with us, for it is toward evening, and the day is declining.' And He entered in as if to stay with them" (vs 27-29).

So, He went in that they still didn't know that it was Jesus.

Verse 30: "And it came to pass, as He sat at the table with them, He took the bread and blessed it; and after breaking it, He gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they knew Him; and He disappeared from them" (vs 30-31)—POOF! He was gone!

Remember what Jesus said about someone being born from the dead: born of spirit they're like the wind; you don't know where it's coming from and you don't know where it's going! This is what happened to Jesus!

Verse 33: "And they rose up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and those with them assembled together, saying, 'In truth, the Lord has risen! And He has appeared to Simon.' Then they related the things that had happened to them on the road, and how He was known to them in the breaking of the bread" (vs 33-35).

Now then, another surprise, because a spirit being is not constrained by physical things:

Verse 36: "Now, as they were telling these things, Jesus Himself stood in their midst and said to them, 'Peace be to you.'"

Luke 24:39_[transcriber's correction]: "See My hands and My feet, that it is I. Touch Me and see for yourselves; for a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see Me having." Notice that He didn't say 'flesh and blood.'

Apparently, a spirit being can appear as a human being, but that's just the way that He appears. We can appear, as we saw before in a different form, unrecognizable.

Verse 40: "And after saying this, He showed them His hands and His feet. But while they were still disbelieving and wondering for joy, He said to them, 'Do you have anything here to eat?' Then they gave Him part of a broiled fish and a piece of honeycomb. And He took these and ate in their presence" (vs 40-43). I've found that fish and honey is really good; try it sometime!

John 20—now, here we are eight days later. We know that He was with them for forty days and forty nights doing many fantastic things, and showing the things concerning the Kingdom of God to them. Let's see what happened:

John 20:26: "Now, after eight days... [on the next Sabbath, inclusive counting] ...His disciples again were within, and Thomas with them. Jesus came after the doors were shut, and stood in the midst and said, 'Peace be to you.' Then He said to Thomas, 'Put forth your finger, and see My hands; and reach out your hand, and put it into My side; and be not unbelieving, but believing.'" (vs 26-27).

- How about for us?
- How many times may doubts come up in our mind?

or

- Are we convicted in the Truth at all times?

In every situation, regardless of what they may be!

- God is always right
- God is always true
- His promises are always good
- He will hear us
- He will help us

The time may come when we are going to become as sheep to the slaughter! We don't know exactly when and how it's going to come, but the atmosphere in the world is building up toward it.

It doesn't matter what the circumstances are out here that should affect our belief in our heart and mind. But that we should always believe! There may be some things that we don't understand, which is true. But if we seek for understanding, God will give that, also, IF we need to have it.

But don't let anything take away from the belief that Jesus is the Christ, the Savior of the world, resurrected from the dead, the Firstborn from the dead, because that is the central thing of salvation!

Now let's see what Thomas said, it's very interesting what He said, v 28: "And Thomas answered and said to Him, 'My Lord and My God.'"

Think about that for a minute! Where does this go back to? The beginning of the Gospel of John:

John 1:1: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

Verse 14: "And the Word became flesh and tabernacled among us..."

John 20:29: "Jesus said to him, 'Because you have seen Me, Thomas, you have believed; blessed are the ones who have not seen, but have believed.'"

That's amazing! That's what it has to be for us. God does not want us to have an empty belief. He wants us to have a belief based upon facts, Truth and belief! You've got to have the facts and you've got to have the Truth!

Verse 30: "Now then, Jesus did many other miracles in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book. But these have been written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing, you may have life through His name" (vs 30-31)—no other way!

Now let's look at some prophecies concerning Jesus, concerning His resurrection, concerning how these things were in the book of the Psalms.

Psa. 108 shows the attitude of Jesus while He was in the flesh. Tremendous thing! Great example for us! We have brand new booklet by James Meister: The Prophecies of Jesus in the Old Testament. That's an amazing thing, because this is what the apostles started preaching with. Remember, they did not have the New Testament.

Psalm 108:1: "O God, my heart is fixed..." Think about yours! Is it fixed in belief of God and Christ in spite of every:

- difficulty
- obstacle
- blessing
- intervention
- trial

Whatever it may be!

"...I will sing and I will give praise, even with my glory. Awake, harp and lyre; I will awake early. I will praise You, O LORD, among the people..." (vs 1-3). Isn't that what Jesus did with His ministry? Yes, of course!

"...and I will sing praises to You among the nations" (v 3). Think about what that's going to be during the Millennium!

Verse 4: "For Your mercy is great above the heavens... [the great mercy of God in everything] ...and Your Truth reaches unto the clouds."

The conviction of the Truth and knowledge of that conviction of the Truth is how you fix your heart, that there is no wavering!

Verse 5: "Be exalted, O God, above the heavens, and Your glory above all the earth, so that Your beloved... [Christ] ...may be delivered... [which He was] ...save with Your right hand, and answer me. God has spoken in His Holiness..." (vs 5-7). Quite a thing, yes, indeed! That's something!

Remember that Psa. 22 is all about the crucifixion!

Psalm 16:5: "The LORD is the portion of my inheritance and of my cup; You shall uphold my lot. The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places; yea, I have a beautiful inheritance" (vs 5-6)—looking to that resurrection!

Verse 9: "Therefore, My heart is glad, and My glory rejoices; My flesh also shall rest in safety, for You will not abandon My soul to the grave; neither will You allow Your Holy One to see corruption. You will make known to Me the path of life; in Your presence is fullness of joy. At Your right hand are pleasures forevermore" (vs 9-11)—looking for everything of the resurrection!

Psalm 17:15: "As for me, I will behold Your face in righteousness; I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with Your likeness." That applies directly to Jesus Christ and secondarily to all of us at the resurrection! That's quite a thing!

- Psa. 22 is the crucifixion
- Psa. 23 is the resurrection

Psalm 23:1: "The LORD is my Shepherd; I shall not [be in] want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters. He restores my soul... [through the resurrection] ...He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death... [which is what He did with the crucifixion] ...I will fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.... [they did] ...You prepare a table for me in the presence of my enemies.... [all coming to kill Him] ...You anoint my head with oil; my cup runs over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life... [on into eternity] ...and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD forever" (vs 1-6).

These are some of the thoughts of Jesus when He was resurrected!

We can apply Psa. 63 to David praying to God, and apply this to Jesus at the time of the resurrection. Why was Jesus able to endure everything He went through, and yet, remained faithful because He kept His mind always on God, and the Spirit of God in Him.

Psalm 63:1: "O God, You are my God, earnestly I will seek You! My soul thirsts for You. My flesh longs for You, as in a dry and thirsty land where no water is, to see Your power and Your glory as I have seen You in the sanctuary. Because Your loving kindness is better than life, my lips shall praise You" (vs 1-3).

Even while He was hanging on the cross, these may have been some of the thoughts that Jesus had. He had to have had some of the thoughts that were between Him and the Father. This may have been part of it, we don't know.

Verse 4: "Thus I will bless You as long as I live; I will lift up my hands in Your name. My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise You with joyful lips when I remember You upon my bed and meditate on You in the night watches. Because You have been my help, therefore, in the shadow of Your wings I will rejoice" (vs 4-7).

The protection of God was always hovering over Him, but He had to go through what He went through; then be resurrected from the dead!

Verse 8: "My soul follows hard after You; Your right hand upholds me." Then He talks about those who seek to destroy Him, who are going to take Him down!

A lot of these Psalms tell us so many different things that we need to know.

- Psa. 22 is the crucifixion
- Psa. 23 is when He was resurrected
- Psa. 24 is His ascension into heaven, or the first day of the Wave Sheaf Offering

Psalm 24:1: "The earth is the LORD'S, and the fullness of it, the world, and those who dwell in it, for He has founded it upon the seas and established it upon the waters. Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? Or who shall stand in His Holy place?" (vs 1-3). Christ was the first!

Verse 4: "He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who has not lifted up his soul to vanity and has not sworn deceitfully. He shall receive the blessing from the LORD and righteousness from the God of his salvation" (vs 4-5).

We can kind of picture this when Jesus is ascending into heaven, going to God the Father. Remember that through all the life that Jesus lived in the flesh, how they communicated and saw each other was not direct face-to-face. Here He's ascending into heaven—as we find in Acts 1—and here's what's happening in heaven above as He's coming up:

Verse 7: "Lift up your heads, O you gates; and be lifted up, O you everlasting doors; that the King of glory may come in... [Jesus Christ] ...Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O you gates; lift them up, you everlasting doors; that the King of glory may come in. Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, He is the King of glory. Selah" (vs 7-10).

Let's see what it may have been like when Jesus came before the Throne of God. Everything in the plan of God goes forward from the point of view of when Jesus ascended to sit at the right hand of God! Then all the things of the prophecies

- concerning salvation for the Church
- concerning the Church
- concerning Jesus
- concerning His life
- concerning His death
- concerning His resurrection

All of those things have been fulfilled!

What did Jesus see as He was ascending to the Father to be accepted as the sacrifice for the sin of the world? Isn't it interesting that this vision was given to John, the one whom Jesus loved.

Revelation 4:2: "And immediately I was in the Spirit... [let's apply this to Jesus Christ directly] ...and behold, a Throne was set in heaven, and One was sitting on the Throne.... [that's the Father] ...And He Who was sitting was in appearance like a jasper stone and a sardius stone; and a rainbow was around the Throne, like an emerald in its appearance" (vs 2-3).

What is going to be like to be a spirit being and see these things ourselves, as John saw it here, and as Jesus saw when He was returning to the Father as the First of the firstfruits, as the perfect sacrifice of God.

Verse 4: "And around the Throne were twenty-four thrones; and on the thrones I saw twenty-four elders sitting, clothed in white garments; and they had on their heads golden crowns. And proceeding from the Throne were lightnings and thunders and voices; and seven lamps of fire, which are the seven spirits of God, were burning before the Throne" (vs 4-5). What a sight that must have been!

Verse 6: "And before the Throne was a sea of glass, like crystal. And around the Throne and over the Throne were four living creatures, full of eyes before and behind; and the first living creature was like a lion, and the second living creature was like a bull, and the third living creature had the face of a man, and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle" (vs 6-7). Awesome, indeed! There's the Father sitting right under these!

Verse 8: "And each of the four living creatures had six wings respectively; and around and within they were full of eyes; and day and night they cease not saying, 'Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty, Who was, and Who is, and Who is to come.' And when the living creatures give glory and honor and thanksgiving to Him Who sits on the Throne, Who lives into the ages of eternity" (vs 8-9).

Absolutely amazing! Quite a stunning vision that John had received with this!

Verse 10: "The twenty-four elders fall down before Him Who sits on the Throne; and they worship Him Who lives into the ages of eternity, and cast their crowns before the Throne, saying, 'Worthy are You, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power because You did create all things, and for Your will they were created and exist'" (vs 10-11). The whole plan of God just rehearsed before the Throne of God!

Christ Who is now making it possible—through His death and resurrection—and on this Wave Sheaf Offering Day to fulfill the will of God.

Now, everything that's happening on earth in the plan of God comes from Jesus Christ through God the Father. That's something to realize and understand. Everything is on schedule according to God's schedule. We may know some of it, but we don't know all of it. We don't know how long it is until the end, the end that really comes, but it's coming! God the Father is going to give the word, and Christ is going to execute it!

Revelation 5:1: "And in the right hand of Him Who sits on the Throne I saw a book, written within and on the back, which had been sealed with seven seals. And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, 'Who is worthy to open the book and to loose its seals?' But no one in heaven, or on the earth, or under the earth was able to open the book, or to look inside it. And I was weeping greatly because no one was found worthy to open and to read the book, or to look into it. Then one of the elders said to me, 'Do not weep. Behold, the Lion Who is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome to open the book, and to loose its seven seals'" (vs 1-5).

Verse 6: "Then I saw, and behold, before the Throne and the four living creatures and before the elders was standing a Lamb as having been slain... [Jesus Christ] ...having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God that are sent into all the earth."

Who are the seven horns? They have to be none other than the seven churches of Rev. 2 & 3, and Christ is the Head of all of those seven churches! And being connected to Christ at the head are in one body, though they are seven.

Verse 7: "And He came and took the book out of the right hand of Him Who sits on the Throne. And when He took the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each having harps and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints" (vs 7-8).

That's interesting! It shows that our prayers come right up to God the Father! Amazing!

Verse 9: "And they sang a new song..." This is the song we are going to sing; this is enacting what's going to happen when the resurrection takes place, of all the saints, as well!

"...saying, 'Worthy are You to take the book, and to open its seals because You were slain, and did redeem us to God by Your own blood, out of every tribe and language and people and nation, and did make us unto our God kings and priests; and we shall reign on the earth'" (vs 9-10). A summary of the whole plan of God!

This is on the Ascension Day that Jesus went up to be accepted of God the Father. A tremendous thing, indeed! This is a day that is just between God the Father and Jesus Christ! The saints do not participate in this. The saints have no designated meeting to recognize this. But we know it from the Word of God, and we recognize it on the day of the Sabbath during the Feast of Unleavened Bread, because on that day toward the end of the day, He was resurrected from the dead.

Verse 11: "And I saw and I heard the voices of many angels around the Throne... [I wonder what that's going to be like?] ...and the voices of the living creatures and the elders, and thousands of thousands, saying with a loud voice, 'Worthy is the Lamb Who was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory and blessing.' And every creature that is in heaven..." (vs 11-13). Think about:

- how important the plan of God is
- how important that it is that we understand and realize it
- how important that we are to God

He's called us and given us of His Spirit, and Jesus Christ is the Head of the Church and everything comes to us from God the Father through Jesus Christ. Everything that we do back to God—in love, worship, service and everything—is all wrapped up in this.

"...and on the earth, and under the earth, and those that are on the sea, and all the things in them, I heard saying... [this is going to be such a glorious thing, that the whole creation literally cries out to God] ... 'To Him Who sits on the Throne, and to the Lamb, be blessing, and honor, and glory, and sovereignty into the ages of eternity.'" (v 13).

That is the Ascension Day! The acceptance of Christ for the sin of the whole world, that goes all the way back to Adam and Eve! Christ was slain before the foundation of the world and the Word of God has carried it out. His plan has gone forth and God has called us to be a part of it.

Brethren, let's rejoice in it during this Feast of Unleavened Bread, and thank God that we have this connection with Him and the understanding of His Word, and the glory of His majesty that we can realize in our little own lives. We come to God with thanksgiving, love and joy! Amen!

CHAPTER TWENTY-EIGHT

Wave Sheaf Offering Day

Fred R. Coulter

Greetings brethren! Welcome to the Sabbath during the Feast of Unleavened Bread!

We're going to talk about the resurrection of Christ very briefly, but we're going to focus in on the meaning of the Wave Sheaf Offering Day.

As we do with all the Holy Days—since this is during the Feast of Unleavened Bread—let's come to Lev. 23:9 where it starts talking about the Wave Sheaf Offering Day and the significance of this day as it is fulfilled through Jesus Christ. We are going to see that this is a tremendous and absolutely wonderful day that is a celebration for God the Father and Jesus Christ. That's why it's not a Holy Day for us, but it's an important part of the fulfillment of the plan of God.

Leviticus 23:9: "And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 'Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, "When you have come into the land which I give to you, and shall reap the harvest of it, then you shall bring the premier sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the priest'" (vs 9-10).

This sheaf of the firstfruits was called "...the premiere sheaf..." It was a special barley sheaf that was cut, and it was cut at the end of the Sabbath during the Feast of Unleavened Bread to be waved on the first day of the week during the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

Now let me just say something here very important that we need to understand and grasp: The Jews do not count Pentecost correctly; this is the first day, the Wave Sheaf Offering Day. They calculate it, not from the Sabbath and then the first day of the week during Unleavened Bread. They calculate it from the Holy Day. What this significantly does is it rejects the resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ as the Savior of mankind.

So, all of those who follow what the Jews are doing are following a pattern that rejects Jesus Christ, as they have not only in the Passover but also the Wave Sheaf Offering and Pentecost. Subsequently, because they reject Jesus Christ and do not accept the New Testament, they are cut off and do not have any understanding. You need to realize that that is a very important thing. We have to:

- do it the way that God says
- calculate it the way that God says

- count it the way that God says

Then put the Scriptures together to get the full meaning of what these days mean!

Now let's see what the priest was to do with the sheaf, v 11: "And he shall wave... [elevate] ...the sheaf before the LORD to be accepted for you..."

This shows the acceptance of the resurrected Jesus Christ as the perfect sacrifice for the sins of all the world, more importantly beginning with those who are the firstfruits of God, because then it goes on and connects directly to the Day of Pentecost, which is the first resurrection.

Notice when it should be done: "...On the next day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it" (v 11).

He does not say 'on the morrow after the Holy convocation,' being the Holy Day the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread. This is the weekly Sabbath, then 'on the morrow'—the morning afterward—"...the priest shall wave it." Then he gives the instruction of what to do.

Now what we are to do is look at the fulfillment of this in the New Testament. This is what becomes so important and profound in understanding

- the things of God
- the way of God
- the Word of God

The Apostle Paul tells us the meaning of this day, and it also labels Christ as the Firstfruits. This tells us a part of the fulfillment of this day on the morrow after the Sabbath during the Feast of Unleavened Bread! It's appropriate that it happens at that particular time because it falls right in line with the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

This is why Jesus was crucified on the Passover Day. God uses all the Holy Days to fulfill major, epical, historical fulfillments of prophecy that He has given! This is why unless you understand the Holy Days you cannot understand the plan of God!

- Do the Protestants accept the Holy Days? No!
- Do they understand the plan of God? No!

- Do the Catholics accept the Holy Days? No!
- Do they understand the plan of God? No!
- Do the Jews accept the Holy Days? Yes!

—with a caveat that they changed the Passover and they changed the Wave Sheaf Offering Day, and hence, they have changed Pentecost.

- Rejecting Jesus, do they understand prophecy? No!
You have to have both!
- you must have the Old Testament writings and the prophecies contained therein
- you must have the New Testament writings and the interpretation and the prophecies there

We are going to see a little later that Jesus opened the minds of the apostles to understand the prophecies concerning Him that are found in the Law, the Prophets and the Psalms. That becomes profoundly important, because what Jesus is telling us is that the New Testament interprets the Old Testament, not the other way around. We need to remember that and grasp that.

1-Corinthians 15:20: “But now Christ has been raised from the dead; He has become the Firstfruit... [this interprets Lev. 23, the premiere sheaf] ...of those who have fallen asleep”—resurrection from the dead!

That’s why that wave sheaf was a special one that was bound with a special ceremonial ribbon and then was cut. It was cut right as the Sabbath ends during the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and then it was lifted up and carried to the altar of burnt offerings and laid alongside the altar of burnt offerings. Having the firstfruit sheaf cut at that particular time signifies Christ being resurrected while He was in the tomb. But He did not ascend to the Father until the morning of the first day of the week at the time that they had the Wave Sheaf Offering. He is the First of the firstfruits!

Verse 21: “For since by man came death, by Man also came the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive. But each in his own order: Christ the Firstfruit; then, those who are Christ’s at His coming” (vs 21-23). Very important! That has to fill in with all the Holy Days. So, Christ is the Firstfruit.

Col. 1—again we have a very misunderstood verse for those who do not accept Jesus, that He was God before He became human. Read the Gospel of John, that’s all you have to do!

- Christ tells us where He came from
- Christ tells us that He was in heaven before

- Christ tells us that He prayed to the Father to give Him the glory that He had with the Father before the world existed

The only way that those who believe that Jesus was only a man can believe that if they ignore all of this. Jesus said, ‘Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words shall not pass away’ That’s why Jesus told the Jews that He wasn’t going to give them a sign. They wanted a sign. They like miracles and magical things, and they can all gather around and revel in it just like people do when there is an apparition of Mary. Oh they come weeping, kneeling, rosarying and crying—thousands come!

Christ would not, to those Jews, give them a sign! He said, ‘The only sign I’m going to give you is the sign of Jonah the prophet. As Jonah was in the belly of the great fish for three days and three nights, so shall the Son of man be in the heart of the earth three days and three nights’ and He turned and walked away.

Since Jesus said that His words are Truth, that He preached the words of the Father, He spoke nothing that the Father had not commanded Him to speak. If the Word of God is true, it will not and cannot fail and ‘heaven and earth will pass away’ before the words of Christ can pass away.

How long was He in the tomb? Three days and three nights! In A Harmony of the Gospels we have a full explanation of it there and a chart showing the three days and three nights. When the Passover is in the middle of the week we have the same sequence of days that were in the week when Jesus was crucified and resurrected. That’s why this is very important for us to understand.

Colossians 1:14: “In Whom [Christ] we have redemption through His own blood...” Remember this:

- If Christ is not raised then you are still in your sins!
- If Christ did not ascend to heaven to be accepted of God the Father on the Wave Sheaf Offering Day, you have no justification!

It’s very important to realize!

Verse 14: “In Whom we have redemption through His own blood, even the remission of sins; Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation” (vs 14-15).

This is where they get hung up. “...the firstborn of all creation” does not have to do with the physical creation of things that God has made in the universe. This has to do with all of those who are created—salvation is creation—in the image of Jesus Christ and are resurrected as Jesus was resurrected from the dead. We will see this in just a minute because it interprets itself.

Verse 16: “Because by Him were all things created...”

If He was the Firstborn of creation, how could He create all things? You only can have the explanation that I gave.

“...the things in heaven and the things on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether they be thrones, or lordships, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by Him and for Him. And He is before all, and by Him all things subsist” (vs 16-17).

That’s what it says in Heb. 1:2, that He upholds the world by the Word of His power; and that He is the express image and the brightness of the glory of the Father.

Verse 18: “And He is the Head of the body, the Church; Who is the beginning, the firstborn from among the dead...” That’s interprets v 14!

He is the Firstborn of all of those created through the resurrection of the dead!

“...so that in all things He Himself might hold the preeminence. For it pleased the Father that in Him all the fullness should dwell” (vs 18-19). That’s quite a wonderful thing talking about Jesus!

Let’s see what Jesus looks like, what Jesus said of Himself and what the message was to John.

Revelation 1:4: “John to the seven churches that are in Asia...” Of course, this is prophetic!

At that time it was prophetic and it has a fulfillment at the end-time. All three interpretations of Rev. 2 & 3 are true. {note our in-depth study: Daniel/Revelation}

“...Grace and peace be to you from Him Who is, and Who was, and Who is to come; and from the seven spirits that are before His Throne; and from Jesus Christ, the faithful Witness, the Firstborn from the dead, and the Ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him Who loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood, and has made us kings and priests to God and His Father; to Him be the glory and the sovereignty into the ages of eternity. Amen.” (vs 4-6).

That is quite an introduction and is a summary of what all you’re going to find in the book of Revelation.

Now let’s see what John saw, v 17: “And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as if dead; but He laid His right hand upon me, saying to me, ‘Do not be afraid; I am the First and the Last, even the One Who is living; for I was dead, and behold, I am alive into the ages of eternity. Amen. And I have the keys of the grave and of death’” (vs 17-18).

- without Christ there is no resurrection
- without the resurrection of Christ there is no resurrection of anyone else

That’s what Paul said!

Let’s see what Christ looks like in His glorified form, and let’s understand what a profound thing this is. I want to cover this and then we are going to look at the men in the Bible who were able to see the glory of God. John was able see the glory of Jesus Christ, and when we get to Rev. 4 & 5, he also saw the glory of the Father.

Verse 12: “And I turned to see the voice that spoke with me; and when I turned, I saw seven golden lampstands; and in the midst of the seven lampstands One like the Son of man...” (vs 12-13).

Let’s understand these lampstands are in a circle, and Christ, being the Head of the Church, is in the middle; very important to understand. This is not like the lampstand that was in the temple, otherwise Christ could not be in the middle of them.

“...clothed in a garment reaching to the feet, and girded about the chest with a golden breastplate. And His head and hair were like white wool, white as snow; and His eyes were like a flame of fire; and His feet were like fine brass, as if they glowed in a furnace; and His voice was like the sound of many waters. And in His right hand He had seven stars, and a sharp two-edged sword went out of His mouth, and His countenance was as the sun shining in its full power. And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as if dead” (vs 13-17). This is what Christ looks like in His full power and glory!

Now let’s look at those who were able to see the glory of God. We find three distinct instances recorded in the Bible:

Moses:

This is why Moses was called the preeminent or the premiere prophet and lawgiver of God, because he saw God in His glorified form. Not face-to-face, but he saw Him.

After the destroying of the golden calf and so forth, Moses is pleading with God. He was able to intervene and persuade God not to destroy all the children of Israel for their sins. Moses asked God, ‘If I could see Your glory...’ Because of the intercession of Moses, the children of Israel were spared.

Exodus 33:17: “And the LORD said to Moses, ‘I will do this thing also that you have spoken, for you have found grace in My sight, and I know you by name.’ And he [Moses] said, ‘I beseech You, show me Your glory.’ And He said, ‘I will make all My goodness pass before you, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before you. And I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will have mercy on whom I will have mercy.’ And He said... [to Moses] ...‘You cannot see My face, for no man can see Me and live” (vs 17-20).

The reason being is that flesh cannot exist in the presence of the glory of God! So therefore, Moses was only able to see a similitude of Him.

Verse 21: “And the LORD said, ‘Behold, there is a place by Me, and you shall stand upon a rock. And it will be, while My glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and will cover you with My hand while I pass by. And I will take away My hand, and you shall see My back parts. But My face shall not be seen” (vs 21-23). That happened!

So, Moses hewed two more tables of stone for God to write the Ten Commandments on. Remember, the first ones that were written on were stones that God had hewed. Then He wrote the Ten Commandments on them. When Moses came down from the mount and saw all the worshiping of the golden calf and all the rebellion and everything that was going on with the children of Israel, he threw them down and broke them. God made Moses make new ones. But also this signifies that there is a step removed from God that was caused by the people’s sin because now the two tables of stone were hewn by Moses, and he took them up and gave them to God.

Exodus 34:5: “And the LORD came down in the cloud, and stood with him there... [there was a cloud so he couldn’t see Him directly] ...and proclaimed the name of the LORD. And the LORD passed by before him and proclaimed, ‘The LORD, the LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy to the thousandth generation, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, but Who will by no means clear the guilty... [without repentance] ...visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children’s children, to the third and to the fourth generation” (vs 5-7).

That is referring to the second commandment of those who worship idols. If you worship idols you hate God. Therefore, you bring upon your progeny to the third and fourth generation the curse of your idol-worship and breaking the commandments of God!

Sidebar: What one physical thing can a man make or use—be it an idol, beads, a temple—that is greater than a broken heart and a contrite spirit, and seeking to worship God in Spirit and in Truth, and direct access to God the Father and Jesus Christ? There’s nothing greater than that!

Brethren, we need to understand that is a tremendous and wonderful blessing that God has opened up because of the death and resurrection and acceptance of Jesus Christ.

Isaiah:

Isaiah in vision was able to see this. We’re going to see a little later the similarity between what takes place here and what is shown in the vision in Isa. 6 that we find in Rev. 4 & 5. We come all the way from Moses to Isaiah.

David did see a simile of God in the Holy place when he had the Ark of the Covenant in a special tent that was in his house before the temple was built. But he didn’t see God as Moses did, and he did not see God as Isaiah did.

Isaiah 6:1: “In the year that King Uzziah died, I then saw the LORD sitting upon a Throne, high and lifted up, and His train filled the temple. Above it stood the seraphim; each one had six wings; with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. And one cried to another, and said, ‘Holy, Holy, Holy, is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of His glory.’ And the foundations of the threshold... [posts of the door (KJV)] ...shook at the voice of the one who cried...” (vs 1-4).

We will see about the foundations in relationship to Christ coming to be accepted of God the Father on the Wave Sheaf Offering Day.

“...and the house was filled with smoke. Then I said, ‘Woe is me! For I am undone; for I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts’” (vs 4-5).

Quite a fantastic thing that Isaiah experienced! When God does so, He does so to give inspiration to those who are going to speak, to those who are going to write that they will do exactly as God wants done.

- Do you think that Moses would have done anything differently than God commanded Him after talking to God on the mount, after seeing His glory?
- Do you think that Isaiah would have written lies and prophesied lies after he had seen God in vision on His Throne? I dare say absolutely not!
- Would you? Of course not!

Verse 6: “Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar. And he laid it upon my mouth and said, ‘Lo, this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away, and your sin atoned for.’ And I heard the voice of the LORD, saying, ‘Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?’....” (vs 6-8). God the Father, Jesus Christ and also the angels!

Then Isaiah said, “...‘Here am I; send me!’ And He said, ‘Go, and tell this people, “You hear indeed, but do not understand; and you see indeed, but do not perceive”” (vs 8-9).

This is what happens to the average person concerning the Word of God because they don’t want to obey it. They want to retain their sinful nature, their myths and their lies that they get from the religious teachers, which make them feel good. It appeals to their carnality, and it appeals to their deceitful nature.

Verse 10: “Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their hearts, and return, and be healed.”

Jesus quoted that in Matt. 13 and in the parallel accounts in Mark and Luke, that God blinds people who do not believe.

Isn’t that exactly what happens in the ‘religious’ world? First thing they want to do is say:

- God didn’t mean this
- God didn’t mean that
- we can’t trust the Word of God
- it was compiled by men hundreds of years later

Absolute lie! But they have that because their minds are closed, their eyes are shut and they can’t understand, and they have no door to salvation unless they repent! That’s why this day is so important.

James, Peter & John:

Now let’s come one step further. Let’s see where the disciples were given a vision of what Jesus would look like in His glorified form. This becomes very important because this gives equal or greater status to the apostles. In this case it was James, Peter and John. Not all the apostles saw this, just James, Peter, and John. God does not show Himself to people just because they desire it. He doesn’t show Himself to anyone at anytime. Pat Robertson said, ‘God spoke to me.’ No, God didn’t speak to him!

Christ did this to give them equal and greater authority than Moses, because if God showed His glory to Moses, and if God showed His glory to Isaiah, this also shows that the authority that they had came directly from God:

- not by any man
- not by boards of men
- not by rabbis
- not by priests
- not by Levites

but by Jesus Christ Who was God manifest in the flesh! He wanted to encourage them. He wanted them to know exactly what it was going to be like at the resurrection.

Matthew 17:1: “And after six days, Jesus took with Him Peter and James and his brother John, and brought them up into a high mountain by themselves. And He was transfigured before them; and His face shined as the sun, and His garments became white as the light.... [just like we saw in Rev. 1!] ...Then behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah talking with Him” (vs 1-3).

It doesn’t say they were actually there; we will see this is a vision. In vision you can see many different things. This shows the authority that He gave to Moses, the authority that He gave to Elijah, that He is going to confer to the apostles, in this case the leading apostles: Peter, James, and John.

Verse 4: “And Peter answered and said to Jesus, ‘Lord, it is good for us to be here. If You desire, let us make three tabernacles here: one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.’ While he was speaking, a bright cloud suddenly overshadowed them; and behold, a voice out of the cloud said, ‘This is My Son, the Beloved, in Whom I delight. Listen to Him!’” (vs 4-5).

A very important thing for us: If you want to understand about God the Father and Jesus Christ you have to listen to the words that they have spoken, which have been recorded here in the Bible!

- not some man
- not some priest
- not some pope
- not some evangelist

but Christ, “...Listen to Him.”

Verse 6: “And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces in extreme terror. But Jesus came and touched them, and said, ‘Arise, and do not be terrified.’ And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus alone” (vs 6-8).

What happened here was not literal, but a vision, v 9: “Now, as they were descending from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, ‘Tell the vision to no one until the Son of man has risen from the dead.’

These are the only occasions in the Bible where we find that men were able to see the glory of God.

- Moses saw it directly
- Isaiah he saw it in vision
- Peter, James, and John saw it in vision

This is what motivated them to make sure that in the writing and canonization of the New Testament that it would be the Words of God as Christ had defined it and as Christ had taught.

Now, just to emphasize that point, let's understand exactly the motivation behind writing the New Testament and why we can trust in the words of God, and why this becomes so important, and why this Wave Sheaf Offering Day becomes so profound in the meaning of the plan of God with the acceptance of Jesus Christ by God the Father on the Wave Sheaf Offering Day.

2-Peter 1:14: “Knowing that shortly the putting off of my tabernacle... [he's saying he's going to die] ...will come, even as our Lord Jesus Christ has signified to me. But I will make every effort that, after my departure, you may always have a written remembrance of these things in order to practice them for yourselves” (vs 14-15).

This thing of oral tradition is just a myth and a lie by men so they can put in their own way. God has it written down.

- He told Moses to write
- He told the prophets to write
- He told Samuel to write
- He told Hezekiah to write
- He told His apostles to write

That way, with the inspired Word of God, there isn't going to be any dispute. It's important to understand that, because what's in the Bible is how God is going to judge each one of us. Think on that for a minute. Think of the lies that come from the pulpit of men who presume to say Jesus lied; the Word of God lies. They are the liars. They are the ones who are blinded.

Verse 16: “For we did not follow cleverly concocted myths as our authority...”

What does Christendom follow today? Nothing but myths, lies, fables through the occult holidays while they reject the Holy Days and Feasts of God.

“...when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of His magnificent glory; because He received glory and honor from God the Father when the voice came to Him from the Majestic Glory, ‘This is My Son, the Beloved, in Whom I am well pleased.’ And this is the voice from heaven that we heard when we were with Him on the Holy mountain” (vs 16-18)—which we just read in Matt.

Verse 19: “We also possess the confirmed prophetic Word...”—the inspired word confirmed by Christ! You can't have anything greater than that—can you?

“...to which you do well to pay attention... [not argue with] ...as to a light shining in a dark place...” (v 19). This is the Light of God to bring you out of spiritual darkness!

“...until the day dawns... [that's the return of Christ] ...and the morning star arises in your hearts” (v 19)—when you are resurrected!

Verse 20 is going to be very important when we go through the account of the resurrection and ascension of Christ: “Knowing this first... [this is a primary thing to understand] ...that no prophecy of Scripture...”

That does not restrict it to just prophetic things, because the “...prophecy of Scripture...” means anything that was spoken under the inspiration of God or written under the inspiration of God is a prophecy.

“...originated as anyone's own private interpretation; because prophecy was not brought at any time by human will, but the Holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit” (vs 20-21).

- the Holy Spirit is directed by Jesus Christ
- the Holy Spirit is called the Spirit of Truth

We can have full confidence in the Word of God, the Truth of God and the things that we need to understand.

As it relates to this most important day—the Sabbath during the Feast of Unleavened Bread when the resurrection occurred—and the next day, the Wave Sheaf Offering Day, when Jesus Christ was accepted as the First of the firstfruits! This is why it's so absolutely marvelous that we trust the Word of God.

One other caveat here: Carnal men like to take apparent contradictions to fight Scripture against Scripture so they can cast them aside! The way God wants us to do it is to take line upon line, precept upon precept, a little here, a little there, and add it together. And lo, guess what's going to happen? The contradictions will disappear! They will be gone, because we're dealing with the Word of Truth, which is:

- the Word of God
- the God of Truth
- the Holy Spirit of Truth
- the Truth written by the apostles who were Holy men, as well as the other writings contained in the Bible from the beginning to the end; all of God!

Now we're going to look at the events that took place on the resurrection day, and then the ascension on the Wave Sheaf Offering Day.

We're going to look at John and then Luke and Mark when the women came to the tomb early the first day of the week, and we're going to understand some things concerning the resurrection of Jesus Christ. As Jesus promised He would be in the tomb exactly three days and three nights, so He was put in the tomb just as the Passover Day was ending at sunset, and that was on a Wednesday.

Then you come forward three days and three nights and it puts you on the regular weekly Sabbath. Does that sound familiar where we started out? Yes, indeed! He had to be resurrected at exactly that same time. But in order to understand what happened, we need to come to the first day of the week, and then put the events together that happened on the first day of the week so we can go back and see what happened when Jesus was resurrected. Then we will come forward to when He ascended into heaven to the Father.

John 20:1: "Now on the first day of the weeks..." That is the first day counting to Pentecost! That is on a Sunday, the first day of the week, and it was the Wave Sheaf Offering Day.

"...while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came early to the tomb..." (v 1). She came alone, then the other women came and joined her!

They probably had already decided that in the morning they were going to go and take the spices and to do more wrapping of Jesus' body. So, she started while it was still dark. But understand that, as she was walking, the sun was rising; it was getting lighter and lighter.

"...Mary Magdalene came early to the tomb; and she saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb" (v 1). Immediately she didn't know what to do; she didn't understand what was happening.

Verse 2: "Then she ran and came to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them, 'They have taken away the Lord from the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him.'"

Luke 24:1: "Now, on the first day of the weeks, they came to the tomb at early dawn, bringing the spices that they had prepared; and certain others came with them. But they found the stone rolled away from the tomb; and when they entered it, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus" (vs 1-3).

Here the other women came—Mary had come first and ran to tell Peter and John—and found exactly the same thing. How much later it was we don't know, but they didn't know that Mary had already been there.

Verse 4: "And it came to pass that while they were puzzling over this, suddenly two men... [angels] ...in shining garments stood by them. And as they bowed their faces to the ground, being filled with fear, they said to them, 'Why are you seeking the living among the dead?'" (vs 4-5).

Let's understand a very important and profound point: No one witnessed the resurrection of Jesus Christ!

- the women who came to the tomb didn't see it
- the soldiers who were guarding the tomb didn't see it

When they came early in the morning on the first day of the week—the Wave Sheaf Offering Day—He wasn't there. There's no such thing as an Easter Sunday resurrection. That is a lie, a fiction! Jesus was gone!

Verse 6, they said: "'He is not here, but has risen: remember when He spoke to you while He was yet in Galilee, saying, 'It is necessary for the Son of man to be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and to be crucified, and to arise the third day?'" Then they remembered His words; and after returning from the tomb, they related these things to the eleven and to all the rest" (vs 6-9).

So, they got there while Mary Magdalene was apparently telling them, because it says:

Verse 10: "Now, it was Mary Magdalene and Joanna and Mary, the mother of James, and the others with them, who told these things to the apostles." But, of course, they didn't believe it!

Mark 16:2: "And very early on the first day of the weeks, at the rising of the sun..."

Mary started out when it was still dark and now we have the sun rising; they were coming to the tomb. This is the parallel account of Luke 24.

Verse 3: "And they were asking themselves, 'Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?' For it was a massive stone. But when they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away. And after entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right, clothed in a white robe; and they were very frightened. But he said to them, 'Do not be afraid. You are seeking Jesus the Nazarene, Who was crucified. He has risen; He is not here. Look, there is the place where they laid Him. But go, tell His disciples and Peter that He goes before you into Galilee; there you shall see Him, as He said to you” (vs 3-7).

Now let’s see what happened next, and this will help us understand about the resurrection of Jesus, because He had to be raised from the dead exactly three days and three nights from the time He was put in the tomb. He had to be raised at the end of the Sabbath. Remember, just like as we started out when they cut that premier sheaf for the Wave Sheaf Offering, it was cut right as the weekly Sabbath had ended, or was ending. That signified Christ being raised from the dead, no longer connected to the earth as it were; no longer earthy.

Let’s see what else occurred. After Mary Magdalene came, then the other women came:

John 20:3: “As a result, Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. Now, the two ran together, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and came to the tomb first; and he stooped down and saw the linen cloths lying there, but he did not enter. Then Simon Peter came following him, and he went into the tomb and saw the linen cloths lying, And the napkin that had been on His head, not lying with the linen cloths but folded up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who had come to the tomb first, also went in and saw these things; and he believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture, which decreed that He must rise from the dead” (vs 3-9). Christ had to give them that understanding later!

Let’s analyze this for just a minute and see what this is telling us. We know that when Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus took Jesus’ body off the cross that they had a hundred pounds of spices and aloe, and they wrapped His body. It was not like a shroud. The Shroud of Turin is a lying fiction; it has nothing to do with Christ. They didn’t lay a shroud over Him. He was wrapped with the linen. They probably had strips of linen about six to nine inches wide; probably more like about six inches, and they would wrap His body, beginning with His feet, and add in the spices as they were wrapping, go right on up on up His torso all the way up, and then do His body and then do His arms, and then cover His head with a special covering that was called a napkin.

They saw the linen cloths lying. What did they see? What would be a profound witness of the resurrection of Christ but to see the wrappings of these linen cloths still in their wrapped form, but no body in it and perhaps with a little sag in the middle of the wrapped cloth showing that He wasn’t there! What would this demonstrate? This would demonstrate that:

1. no one took the body
2. if they would have taken the body they would have taken the burial wrappings with them

Wouldn’t you think? If they stole the body and didn’t want to take the wrappings with them then they would have to unwrap it or cut it off.

So, they saw the linen cloths lying there to demonstrate that as a spirit being Christ did not need to have the cloth removed to be resurrected. He just simply rose through it. To demonstrate that He was alive we have this: the linen napkin, which was on His head, was folded and put in another place!

Don’t you think if anyone was going to steal His body, would they not have taken the napkin too? Whoever the group claiming that the disciples stole the body away... The Jews still believe that lying fable to this day because they won’t take the New Testament and read what it says and look at the evidence. If you were a forensic expert today what would you have to conclude?

- that the napkin was folded up and put in another place and no one had gone into the tomb, except Jesus was put in there when He was dead
- that He was resurrected from the dead
- that He deliberately folded the napkin and put it in another place to demonstrate that He was alive

That’s quite an important thing to understand!

Now let’s look at some Psalms which bear on the resurrection of Christ. In Psa. 16 we find something very interesting.

What do you suppose that may have been the first thoughts of Jesus when He was resurrected? He’s in the tomb and He realizes that He is alive! His last thought on the cross was saying, ‘Father into Your hands I commend My spirit,’ and He died. What would He think right after He’s resurrected?

If you’ve ever been unconscious or if you’ve ever had an operation where you’ve gone under sedation, when you wake up your thoughts are entirely different. Well, we have it right here, maybe these are the words of Christ. A prophecy of the words of Christ, the very first ones that He spoke when He was raised from the dead:

Psalm 16:8: “I have set the LORD always before me. Because He is at my right hand, I shall not be moved. Therefore, My heart is glad, and My glory rejoices; My flesh also shall rest in safety, for You will not abandon My soul to the grave... [You will not leave Me in the grave] ...neither will You allow Your Holy One to see corruption” (vs 8-10).

That happened to Jesus! Probably His first thought was to praise God for:

- the tremendous and wonderful blessing of the resurrection

- that He did not see corruption
- that He didn't leave Him in the grave
- that the Word of God was true
- that the covenant that Jesus Christ and God the Father made before Jesus came to the earth in the flesh—that He would raise Him back to life when He died—was fulfilled

Verse 11: “You will make known to Me the path of life; in Your presence is fullness of joy....”

We're going to see that on the Wave Sheaf Offering Day Jesus came again into the presence of God the Father.

“...At Your right hand are pleasures forevermore” (v 11).

Psalm 23 is another one, which I think are the very words of Christ after He was resurrected and thanking and praising God. There are many, many lessons we can learn out of this, but let's think of it in the praising of God the Father by Jesus Christ after He was resurrected from the dead. Jesus did not stay in the tomb very long. Where did Jesus go?

- He was raised from the dead
- the burial clothes were there
- the napkin was folded up
- His first conscious thoughts were probably thanking God of the fulfillment of Psa. 16
- then, since He was a spirit being, He merely walked through the stone that covered the tomb
- the soldiers didn't see Him when He came out the other side because He would be in the heart of the earth three days and three nights

He could not have stayed there very long at all, got right out.

Where would He have gone? He didn't ascend until the next morning as we are going to see! Well, right near there is the Garden of Gethsemane, and in the Garden of Gethsemane was the place where Jesus always prayed. As a matter of fact, the night of the Passover—after He had the Passover with the apostles—they went there and He prayed for three hours and then was arrested. So, Jesus probably went out to His, as it were, familiar or favorite praying place in the Garden of Gethsemane, and perhaps this was His prayer:

Psalm 23:1: “The LORD is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters. He restores my soul...” (vs 1-3).

His soul and His body would not see corruption; yes, restored through the power of the resurrection.

“...He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake” (v 3)—to do the will of God!

Isn't that what Jesus said? ‘Lo, I come to do the will of the Father Who sent Me!’

Verse 4: “Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death... [He just experienced it] ...I will fear no evil...”

Did He have any fear when He went through the scourging and crucifixion? No!

“...for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table for me in the presence of my enemies...” (vs 4-5).

Quite a fantastic thing! You talk about preparing right in the presence of the enemies. The soldiers were guarding the tomb, and He walked right out. The civil government of the Romans was against Him; the religious government of the Jews was against Him; His own apostles didn't believe Him until later when He opened their minds. You talk about preparing “...a table in the presence of my enemies...”

“...You anoint my head with oil; my cup runs over.... [remember, He was anointed with oil twice before the crucifixion] ...Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD forever” (vs 5-6).

Let's see another prophecy about Jesus, and let's look at this as having to do with also His prayer of the resurrection:

Psalm 108:1 “O God, my heart is fixed; I will sing and I will give praise, even with my glory. Awake, harp and lyre; I will awake early... [a type of the resurrection] ...I will praise You, O LORD, among the people; and I will sing praises to You among the nations... [yet to happen] ...for Your mercy is great above the heavens; and Your Truth reaches unto the clouds. Be exalted, O God, above the heavens, and Your glory above all the earth, so that Your beloved may be delivered... [which He was] ...save with Your right hand, and answer me. God has spoken in His Holiness: ‘I will rejoice...’” (vs 1-7). Quite a wonderful thing that Christ experienced!

David wrote Psa. 63, and he did see a similitude of God in the small little tabernacle where he had the Ark of the Covenant that was in his house after it was retrieved from Kirjath-Jearim. Let's look at it from the point of view of the resurrected Christ and what He was thinking:

Psalm 63:1: “O God, You are my God...”

Think of Him now praying in the Garden of Gethsemane, praying all that night thanking God for resurrecting Him from the dead and waiting for the time when it was time for the fulfillment of the Wave Sheaf Offering.

“...earnestly I will seek You! My soul thirsts for You... [which it did when He was in the flesh] ...My flesh longs for You, as in a dry and thirsty land where no water is, to see Your power...” (vs 1-2).

- He knew that He was going back to God the Father
- He knew that He was going to ascend into heaven
- He knew that He was going to see the sanctuary of God again

Verse 2: “To see Your power and Your glory—as I have seen You in the sanctuary. Because Your loving kindness is better than life, my lips shall praise You” (vs 1-3). Quite a wonderful thing!

Now let’s talk about the Wave Sheaf Offering Day and the ascension of Jesus Christ:

John 20:10: “Then the disciples went away again to their home. But Mary stood outside the tomb weeping; and as she wept, she stooped down and looked into the tomb. And she saw two angels in white who were sitting, one at the head and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had been laid” (vs 11-12)—because she could see also the burial cloths!

Verse 13: “And they said to her, ‘Woman, why are you weeping?’ She said to them, ‘Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him.’ And after saying these things, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, but did not know that it was Jesus” (vs 13-14).

He was able to manifest Himself in a form that she couldn’t see Him as He was. There was a specific purpose for that.

Verse 15: “Jesus said to her, ‘Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?’ Thinking that He was the gardener, she said to Him, ‘Sir, if you have carried Him off, tell me where you have laid Him, and I will take Him away.’ Jesus said to her, ‘Mary.’ Turning around...” (vs 15-16).

She apparently turned and was crying and wasn’t looking at the man and just saying ‘Oh, if you’d just tell me where He is.’

“...Turning around, she said to Him, ‘Rabboni’; that is to say, “Teacher.” Jesus said to her, ‘Do not touch Me, because I have not yet ascended to My Father. But go to My brethren and tell them that I am ascending to My Father and your Father, and My God and your God’” (vs 16-17).

This was still in the morning. When was the Wave Sheaf Offering to be elevated for the first of the firstfruits? In the morning, somewhere right around nine o’clock in the morning! So, this fits the timeframe. Mary Magdalene went and told them; Jesus ascended into heaven; He was accepted of God the Father.

Let’s see another vision in Psa. 24, which talks about the acceptance of Christ. Then we will see the fulfillment of that. There’s quite an interesting sequence of things here with the Psalms:

- Psa. 22 is about the crucifixion of Christ
- Psa.23 is about the resurrection
- Psa. 24 is about Jesus’ ascension into heaven and being accepted

Let’s think of it this way, in Psa. 24 are some of the thoughts of Jesus as He is ascending to the Father, and He’s looking down on the earth:

Psalm 24:1: “The earth is the LORD’S, and the fullness of it, the world, and those who dwell in it.” As He’s ascending He sees the earth, He sees the land, He sees the oceans!

Verse 2: “For He [Christ] has founded it upon the seas and established it upon the waters. Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? Or who shall stand in His Holy place? He [Christ] who has clean hands and a pure heart...” (vs 2-4). This may be the angels singing as Christ is ascending!

“...who has not lifted up his soul to vanity and has not sworn deceitfully. He shall receive the blessing from the LORD and righteousness from the God of his salvation” (vs 4-5). Quite a wonderful thing! Just imagine how Christ is ascending!

Verse 7: “Lift up your heads, O you gates...” The gates where He would walk through to go to the Throne of God the Father and be accepted by God the Father as the perfect sacrifice for the sins of all the world, all mankind.

“...and be lifted up, O you everlasting doors; that the King of glory may come in” (v 7). That is Christ, the King of glory!

- the One Who conquered death
- the One Who overcame sin
- the One Who overcome the pulls of the flesh
- the One Who was crucified

And yet, in His days of His flesh He cried out in fear and trembling to the One Who was able to save Him from death—God the Father—and:

- now He’s ascending
- now He’s at the gate

- now He's walking into the presence of God the Father

Verse 8: "Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle." Hadn't He overcome everything? Yes!

- He had just overcome Satan the devil
- He had just overcome all the demons
- He had just overcome death
- He was now resurrected strong and mighty in battle, and that was in the battle for us! By the grace of God He tasted death for every one of us that He could be resurrected and ascend to God the Father to be that perfect sacrifice and our High Priest at the right hand of God the Father.

Verse 9: "Lift up your heads, O you gates; lift them up, you everlasting doors; that the King of glory may come in. Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, He is the King of glory. Selah." (vs 9-10).

Now let's see what Jesus saw when He was resurrected to come in the presence of God the Father. We know this by vision that was given to John. Let's look at it this way: This is also what Jesus saw. I want you to picture the angels singing in glory and power that Christ had overcome; that He now is going to walk into the presence of God the Father, see God the Father, and they are going to embrace each other for the very first time since Jesus left to become a human being. Now here's the setting that He saw, and we're blessed to have this given to the Apostle John.

Revelation 4:1: "After these things I looked, and behold, a door opened in heaven..."

- Didn't we just talk about the door?
- Didn't we just talk about the everlasting gates? Yes!

"...and the first voice that I heard was as if a trumpet were speaking with me, saying, 'Come up here, and I will show you the things that must take place after these things.' And immediately I was in the Spirit; and behold, a Throne was set in heaven, and One was sitting on the Throne" (vs 1-2).

This is what God the Father looks like in appearance: great, glorious and marvelous, v 3: "And He Who was sitting was in appearance like a jasper stone and a sardius stone; and a rainbow was around the Throne, like an emerald in its appearance."

Here is the Throne of God with the Father sitting in it and a great rainbow all around the Throne and the Sea of Glass that it sits on.

Verse 4: "And around the Throne were twenty-four thrones; and on the thrones I saw twenty-four elders sitting, clothed in white garments; and they had on their heads golden crowns. And proceeding from the Throne were lightnings and thunders and voices; and seven lamps of fire, which are the seven spirits of God, were burning before the Throne" (vs 4-5). Here is Jesus coming closer and closer!

Verse 6: "And before the Throne was a sea of glass, like crystal. And around the Throne and over the Throne were four living creatures, full of eyes before and behind... [this is what Isaiah saw with the Seraphim] ...and the first living creature was like a lion, and the second living creature was like a bull, and the third living creature had the face of a man, and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle. And each of the four living creatures had six wings respectively... [that's what Isaiah saw, six wings] ...and around and within they were full of eyes; and day and night they cease not saying, 'Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty...'" (vs 6-8).

It doesn't mean that they did this repeatedly without stopping. There were certain times when this occurred, because as we will see when it occurred the 24 elders bowed down and worshiped. This was at certain set times that this was done.

"...Lord God Almighty, Who was... [referring to Christ] ...and Who is, and Who is to come.' And when the living creatures give glory and honor... [so it wasn't continuously] ...and thanksgiving to Him Who sits on the Throne, Who lives into the ages of eternity, The twenty-four elders fall down before Him Who sits on the Throne; and they worship Him Who lives into the ages of eternity, and cast their crowns before the Throne, saying, 'Worthy are You, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power because You did create all things, and for Your will they were created and exist'" (vs 8-11).

Everything that there is, is by the will of God for His great plan for all of humanity. Christ is going to be the One Who is going to execute this plan all into the future. So, this Wave Sheaf Offering Day, when Christ ascended into heaven, is what He saw. This is Whom He met, and He came to God the Father and presented Himself.

There must have been some portion of blood left in Christ that He took with Him when He ascended into heaven so that the Holy place could be sanctified with His blood in heaven above, so that He would be the propitiation for our sins, and that the blood of Jesus Christ can cover the sins of all mankind, for those who repent.

Rev. 5 also tells us something else. Not only is He there with God the Father, but Christ is there to carry out the will of the Father from heaven, to complete the plan of God.

Revelation 5:1: “And in the right hand of Him Who sits on the Throne I saw a book... [the rest of the book of Revelation] ...written within and on the back, which had been sealed with seven seals.”

Now a key important thing: Nothing is going to be understood without Christ revealing it! Remember that! Whatever we understand in the Bible it’s because of what God has written through the Spirit of God. Whatever understanding that we have of the prophecies it’s because God reveals it, therefore, we must be very careful in interpreting prophecies, that we interpret them correctly according to the will of God.

Verse 2: “And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, ‘Who is worthy to open the book and to loose its seals?’ But no one in heaven, or on the earth, or under the earth was able to open the book, or to look inside it. And I was weeping greatly because no one was found worthy to open and to read the book, or to look into it. Then one of the elders said to me, ‘Do not weep. Behold, the Lion Who is of the tribe of Judah [Christ], the Root of David, has overcome to open the book, and to loose its seven seals.’ Then I saw, and behold, before the Throne and the four living creatures, and before the elders, was standing a Lamb...” (vs 2-6). We have the two aspects of Christ:

1. the Lamb as Savior
2. the warrior of Judah

David was a man of war. That’s why Christ is coming as conquering King.

Here it is the Lamb, “...as having been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God that are sent into all the earth” (v 6).

{Note messages: Spirit of God/Spirit of Man—Seven Spirits of God #s1-2}

Verse 7: “And He came and took the book out of the right hand of Him Who sits on the Throne... [of the Father] ...And when He took the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each having harps and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints” (vs 7-8). Our prayers come right up before God the Father!

Verse 9: “And they sang a new song, saying...”

This is a new song for the saints that they are going to sing this song when they are resurrected. This is what we will sing when we come before God the Father:

“...‘Worthy are You to take the book, and to open its seals because You were slain, and did redeem us to God by Your own blood... [not the elders, the saints] ...out of every tribe and language and people and nation, and did make us unto our God kings and priests; and we shall reign on the earth” (vs 9-10).

The first thing we are going to know when we are resurrected is what God has in store for us to be ruling and reigning with Christ as kings and priests.

Then he saw a great and spectacular thing. Remember, the angels were rejoicing in the gates opening and Christ walking in to come down to God the Father.

Verse 11: “And I saw and I heard the voices of many angels around the Throne...” Just picture this: here’s the Throne of God:

- twenty-four elders
- Christ standing right there at the right hand of God
- the rainbow around the Throne and a vast sea of glass

All on the sides of that a tremendous chorus of angels going all around behind the Throne, and on this side of the Throne. All around the Throne were the voices of many angels around the Throne.

“...and the voices of the living creatures and the elders, and thousands of thousands...” (v 11). Great and marvelous was this Wave Sheaf Offering Day and the ascension of Jesus Christ!

Verse 12: “Saying with a loud voice, ‘Worthy is the Lamb Who was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory and blessing.’”

Listen to The Messiah by Handel; great and fantastic is this song; this finishes off the whole Messiah—the reception of Jesus Christ at the Throne of God.

The whole creation is going to rejoice! And we are going to join Christ there at the first resurrection and we are going to be given the things that God wants to give us to rule and reign with Christ. Just as Christ came and received this great blessing, we will be resurrected and the angels will rejoice. The angels will carry us up to the Throne of God to the Sea of Glass and:

- we will sing praises to God
- we will see Jesus Christ
- we will see the 24 elders
- we will see the four living creatures
- we will see the thousands and thousands and thousands of angels

We will look back on the earth just like it was here:

Verse 13: “And every creature that is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and those that are on the sea, and all the things in them, I heard saying, ‘To Him Who sits on the Throne, and to the Lamb, be blessing, and honor, and glory, and sovereignty into the ages of eternity.’” Fantastic thing!

This is what happened on the Wave Sheaf Offering Day! The reception of Jesus Christ by God the Father as the perfect sacrifice for the sins of all mankind! The Creator had died but was resurrected back to save His creation. Later in that day He came back to the earth and appeared to the apostles and so forth. You can read of that in A Harmony of the Gospels, or in Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John.

Verse 14: “And the four living creatures said, ‘Amen.’....”

That part of the plan of God with the ascension of Jesus Christ to the Throne of God to carry on the work of the Church from then on was finished.

“...And the twenty-four elders fell down and worshiped Him Who lives into the ages of eternity” (v 14).

This is the fulfillment of the Wave Sheaf Offering Day, and this is the meaning of Rev. 4 & 5!

CHAPTER TWENTY-NINE

Wave Sheaf Offering

Christ's ascension to the Father fulfilled this service

Fred R. Coulter

I want to cover one thing that I covered in Pasadena: there are a lot of Messianic groups that keep the Feast of Firstfruits (what they call it), but it's actually Pentecost. Maybe you haven't noticed, but the commands for Pentecost contain the greatest number of verses. It begins in v 9, and it ends in v 22; that's inclusive counting, 13 verse long. Beginning with the Wave Sheaf Offering, this covers a span of right at 2,000 years.

Leviticus 23:9: "And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 'Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, "When you have come into the land which I give to you, and shall reap the harvest of it, then you shall bring the premier sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the priest'" (vs 9-10).

When they entered into the land, the barley had already been planted and was ready for harvest. You find in Joshua 5 that the manna ceased after they crossed the Jordan River and got to Gilgal and Jericho was only three miles away. They kept the Passover, and after the Wave Sheaf Offering the manna stopped. Think of that! For 40 years they had manna, so you'd get up in the morning and the wife would say, 'Honey, how would you like your manna today?' Raw? Boiled? Toasted? Roasted?

Can you imagine how great that first bite of unleavened bread must have tasted to the children of Israel? There's a Church of God that says that they didn't have that Wave Sheaf Offering and the eating of the grain until the next year, because that was a crop planted by the Gentiles and their hands were contaminated. They actually believe that! But what did God say?

"...When you have come into the land, which I give to you, and shall reap the harvest of it..." (v 10). If He gives you the land, whose harvest is it? It's yours!

When you plant a seed in the ground, what happens to it? So, any uncleanness, wouldn't you say that the dirt was unclean as far as just picking it up to eat? So, to say that the seed was unclean and therefore the harvest was unclean, 'so we'll wait to the next year.' No! that's not how it is!

"...then you shall bring the premier sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the priest" (v 10).

- Who all is involved in this ceremony?

- Where did they get the premiere sheaf, which was barley?

The barley harvest started first and then toward the middle of the barley harvest the wheat was getting ripe, so it says in another place your wheat harvest; it means both.

The way that they got this sheaf was when they had the temple they had a special place on the Mt. of Olives. There they would plant the premiere sheaf to be waved. This was to be waved on the first day of the week during Unleavened Bread, because you have to have complete weeks. It could not be waved on a Monday. The day after the Sabbath never falls on a Monday. I don't care what calendar you use, it never does.

So, they would plant the grain there and Edersheim reveals that they had a special service. They had a man at the top of the Mt. of Olives and one of the men next to the one who had the sickle who had the sickle ready to cut that premiere sheaf. The man next to him would say, 'Has the sun set?' Why? When the Sabbath ends then you can work!

He says, 'Has the sun set?' three times! Then he would cut it. Then they would take the sheaf and bind it up and lay it alongside the altar. So, in the morning they had this special ceremony. Let's look at it.

Verse 11: "And he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD to be accepted for you. On the next day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it."

There are occasions when the first day of Unleavened Bread occurs on the Sabbath. So, you have a Thursday night Passover, then the Night to be Remembered on Friday night, and then you have the regular Sabbath. The next day is when the Wave Sheaf would be offered in that case. Some people say that you have to wait until the next one.

Whenever the first day of Unleavened Bread comes on a Sabbath, the last Day of Unleavened Bread comes on a Friday. Remember that when you count it's different than adding.

They would be a week off. Many times it was said that on the day after the regular Sabbath. That's true in most cases, but if the regular Sabbath is also the Holy Day, then the day after that Sabbath is the Wave Sheaf Offering Day.

- What participation did the people have?
- What was their part?

They were all out in their fields ready to use the sickle to cut the grain! They cut the grain before it got really dry. Have you ever tried to use a sickle on hard dry stocks? Most of the time it won't cut! So the way they did it, they cut it while it was still a little green, wrapped them in sheaves and stood them up to dry in the field.

So, the only ones who would participate in this, outside of the priests, would be those ready to harvest the barley.

- Was there a special meeting?
- Was there a special celebration?
- No, the harvest began; it was work, a work day!

Verse 12: “And you shall offer that day when you wave the sheaf, a male lamb without blemish of the first year for a burnt offering to the LORD.... [all of these refer to Jesus Christ] ...And its grain offering shall be two tenth parts of fine flour mixed with oil, an offering made by fire to the LORD for a sweet savor. And the drink offering of it shall be of wine, the fourth part of a hin. And you shall eat neither bread, nor parched grain, nor green ears until the same day, until you have brought an offering to your God. It shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings” (vs 12-14).

People read that and some say, ‘We ought to observe it.’

- Is there a temple? No!
- Is there a high priest? No!

If you live up north, maybe you just planted the barley three or four weeks before, so you would have nothing to wave!

- What is the fulfillment of this? Christ!
- Who is involved? The priest, who represents Christ! The Wave Sheaf Offering represents Christ!

We will see in the New Testament that the disciples on that day weren't at any particular meeting. They weren't at the temple. If they were at the temple think about what would happen.

Verse 15: “And you shall count to you beginning with the next day after the Sabbath, beginning with the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven Sabbaths shall be complete.”

That means a whole week, each ending in a Sabbath! So it must start on the first day of the week, each week, and end on the Sabbath.

Verse 16: “Even unto the day after the seventh Sabbath you shall number fifty days. And you shall offer a new grain offering to the LORD.”

This new grain offering is entirely different. Here the people are involved, and a ceremony is involved!

Verse 17: “You shall bring out of your homes two wave loaves of two tenth parts. They shall be of fine flour....” This is for the 50th day!

Since this is the day after the Sabbath this was baked right after the sun went down on the Sabbath so that on Pentecost—because on a Holy Day you can do whatever is necessary for keeping the Holy Day—they could prepare food.

“...They shall be baked with leaven...” (v 17). We see in Matt. 13 that there's a good use of leaven.

- Why two loaves?
- Why not one?
- Why not three?
- How many Testaments do we have? Two; that's why!

We know that Matt. 13 says that ‘the Kingdom of Heaven is likened to a woman who took leaven and put it in three measures of flour until all was leavened.’

If leaven was always a type of sin all the time, then we're making a sinful offering to God. There's a good use of leaven, and that is to change the form of the dough. We're all likened to one lump in Christ. What happens when you put leavening in the dough? The bread rises! You can beat it down a couple of times and it will still rise up. But what happens when you bake it? It's permanently in its final form! What is this? This is a good use of leaven!

Can you see leaven working? No! You can see the result of leaven working! It is gas, unseen! In this case it's like the Holy Spirit. The working of the Holy Spirit in our mind to change our mind and convert us. When we're baked, that's like to unto the resurrection. It's the finished product! That's why there are two loaves, one for those in the Old Covenant, and one for those in the New Covenant.

“...they are the firstfruits to the LORD” (v 17). What is the Church called? We are the firstfruits! We are the firstborn!

Verse 18: “And you shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish of the first year... [a type of each church; we have seven churches in Rev. 2 & 3] ...and one young bull, and two rams. They shall be for a burnt offering to the LORD with their grain offering, and their drink offerings, even an offering made by fire, of sweet savor to the LORD. Then you shall sacrifice one male goat for a sin offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of peace offerings.... [that must refer to the two Testaments] ...And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits, a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs. They shall be Holy to the LORD for the priest” (vs 18-20).

Who is the Head of the Church? Christ our High Priest!

This is the keeping of Pentecost; v 21: “And you shall proclaim on the same day that it may be a Holy convocation to you. You shall do no servile work therein. It shall be a statute forever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.” That’s little different than this one here in:

Verse 14: “...It shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.”

- Why do we keep Pentecost and we don’t keep the Wave Sheaf Offering Day?
- On that day, what did the disciples do?

Passover was on a Wednesday, Thursday was the first day of Unleavened Bread, and they rested according to the commandment. Friday was a preparation day. Wednesday, Passover, was the preparation for Unleavened Bread. Friday was preparation for the weekly Sabbath.

What did they do on Friday? They went down brought spices, mixed them all up, and then rested again on the Sabbath! But a couple of the women went down just as the Sabbath was ending to look at the tomb and find out what’s going on with the tomb. Then they went back and rested.

In the morning Mary Magdalene went down leaving while it was still dark. In other words there was probably just a little light starting on the horizon in the east. She went down to the tomb and she didn’t find Jesus. She ran back and told Peter and John, so they both came running down to the tomb and John writes that he was faster than Peter. He got there first, but Peter went into the tomb first. Then John went into the tomb, and what did he see? He saw the wrapping where the body was!

What did that look like? It wasn’t cut! It had to be that Jesus was raised right through the wrapping! The wrappings were there crunching down in the middle showing that the body was gone. Then what else was the phenomena? The napkin was folded up in another place!

How many of you women have ever had a napkin fold itself? Wouldn’t that be nice if your laundry all folded itself!

Mary Magdalene came back and looked into the tomb. This time she saw two angels, one at the head and one at the foot where Jesus had been lying. She came out weeping, and Jesus automatically appeared and said, ‘Woman, why are you weeping?’ She thought He was the gardener! Mary said, ‘Where have you taken the body of Jesus so we can anoint Him?’

Jesus said, ‘Mary!’ She said, ‘Rabboni!’ She came over to hug Him and Jesus said, ‘Don’t touch Me for I have not yet ascended to My Father.’

His ascension to the Father was the fulfillment of the Wave Sheaf Offering. It was between Christ and the Father. None of the disciples participated.

They weren’t in a meeting and they weren’t at the temple. They went out to the temple and didn’t have a special service. They just returned back home, and Mary was there. Then Jesus ascended! That was at the exact time that the Wave Sheaf Offering was being waved at the temple, and He presented Himself to the Father.

Remember, that must have been quite an emotional and fantastic spiritual experience for Christ and the Father. They hadn’t been together person-to-person since He was conceived in the womb of the virgin Mary. Here He ascends to heaven and He’s got the nail marks in His hands and feet and thrust marks in His side.

Let’s see what that was like. This was quite a thing. The very fulfillment of what was prophesied in Gen. 3:15 and planned before the foundation of the world was complete. This was between Jesus Christ and God the Father alone. No other human beings were involved. So, here’s the scene when John was told to ‘come up here’:

Revelation 4:2: “And immediately I was in the Spirit; and behold, a Throne was set in heaven, and One was sitting on the Throne.... [that’s God the Father] ...And He Who was sitting was in appearance like a jasper stone and a sardius stone; and a rainbow was around the Throne, like an emerald in its appearance. And around the Throne were twenty-four thrones; and on the thrones I saw twenty-four elders sitting, clothed in white garments; and they had on their heads golden crowns” (vs 2-4).

This is the scene! Here comes Jesus up to the Sea of Glass in heaven. I imagine the 24 elders are all bowing down at that time, and the four living creatures were saying ‘Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty,’ that they were bowing down. And Jesus walked up to the Father, and I can just imagine the embrace that they had, the tears that they had, that the most difficult part of their whole plan was finished! That Jesus succeeded!

This is why we don't participate in it. It was complete fulfillment for Jesus Christ and God the Father.

Let's see what happened after that. What happened before John 20? Jesus came back... We don't know how close the Throne of God is, and we don't know how portable it is, but it has to be somewhat close to the earth, because in Rev. 11 it says that John saw the heavens open and he saw the Ark of God right near the Throne. When Jesus first came back who did He meet? The two disciples walking to Emmaus! They were all forlorn and saying, 'What happened? Jesus died! We were expecting Him to be the Messiah!'

Jesus walked up to them and said, 'What are you talking about?' So, they told Him the things concerning Jesus. It's been more than three days now since it happened and 'He said that He would be raised the third day,' and here it was actually the fourth day since He died. So, Jesus walked with them to Emmaus explaining the Scriptures to them, and said, 'You're hard-hearted and don't believe the Scriptures.'

Then they say down to eat, Jesus blessed the bread and immediately they knew it was Jesus and poof He disappeared. They came running back to the disciples, and they were all gathered together. Why?

John 20:19: "Afterwards, as evening was drawing near that day, the first day of the weeks..." This is plural because this is the first day of counting toward Pentecost!

"...and the doors were shut where the disciples had assembled for fear of the Jews..." (v 19).

- Don't you think the Jews were looking for them?
- Where did you take the body?

They were afraid that they would be killed!

"...Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them, 'Peace be to you.' And after saying this, He showed them His hands and His side. Then the disciples rejoiced because they had seen the Lord. Therefore, Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be to you. As the Father sent Me, I am also sending you.' And after saying this, He breathed on them and said, 'Receive the Holy Spirit'" (vs 19-22).

Let's see what else He did. Even though this was evening, do you think any of them could have slept that night? After seeing Him alive, can you imagine the adrenalin? the pounding of the heart? the racing of the mind? Here in this one session Jesus told them more about Himself from the Old Testament than any other time in all of His teachings.

Luke 24:41: "But while they were still disbelieving and wondering for joy, He said to them, 'Do you have anything here to eat?' Then they gave Him part of a broiled fish and a piece of honeycomb" (vs 41-42).

Fish and honey is good, I like it! Sardines and honey is good, and it leaves you with a sweeter taste in your mouth and less fishy!

Verse 43: "And He took these and ate in their presence."

I've often wondered: how does a spirit being assimilate food? Remember, at the wedding feast, we're going to eat and drink! How is that going to be?

Verse 44: "And He said to them, 'These are the words that I spoke to you when I was yet with you, that all the things which were written concerning Me in the Law of Moses and in the Prophets and in the Psalms must be fulfilled.'" Every word! Not a syllable will be left out!

There's a man who has done a study through the Psalms and all the things about Jesus. I asked him if he would like to go through the whole Old Testament and do it? He said that he would undertake the project!

What he sent me with the Psalms was incredible. Remember that the apostles preached the Gospel from the Old Testament.

- Why was that important? Because the Gospel was to be preached to the Jew first!
- What did the Jews have? The Old Testament!
- What was said of the Bereans? That they went to synagogue and searched the Scriptures whether these things were so or not!

Sidebar: As you study the book of Acts, what you will find is that all of the elders that were ordained by Paul in the churches that he raised up were Jews! Why? Because they had knowledge of the Old Testament! Very important!

You couldn't have Gentiles coming in to be elders right away, because they didn't have very much knowledge. Even if they were proselytes. That's interesting.

Verse 46: "And said to them, 'According as it is written, it was necessary for the Christ to suffer... [Psa. 22] ...and to rise from the dead... [Psa. 17, that I will awake with Your likeness] ...the third day. And in His name, repentance and remission of sins should be preached to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. For you are witnesses of these things. And behold, I send the promise of My Father upon you; but remain in the city of Jerusalem until you have been clothed with power from on high” (vs 46-49).

That happened ten days after He had ascended into heaven and hasn't returned since! That's why we keep Pentecost but we don't keep the First of the Firstfruits, because that's between Christ and God the Father in Their personal relationship!

CHAPTER THIRTY

The Covenant Between God the Father and Jesus Christ

Fred R. Coulter

This is going to be a different kind of sermon from the point of view of trying to uncover and understand even more the Word of God. We're told in Isa. 28 that the Word of God is understood 'line upon line, precept upon precept, a little here and a little there,' and that it has to be put together rightly, as Paul told Timothy: 'Rightly divide the Word of God.' Also, there are degrees of understanding. Let's take one verse in particular, John 3:16, and let's look at this for just a minute. There are degrees of understanding that people have concerning this verse

- depending upon their involvement with God
- depending upon what they've been taught in whatever church that they go to
- depending upon their personal relationship with God
- depending upon the experiences that they have gone through

John 3:16: "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, so that everyone who believes in Him may not perish, but may have everlasting life."

Some people read that and they think or say: 'We're going to heaven' or 'All you've got to do is believe.' They don't understand much more beyond that.

- How is it that God loved the world?
- How is it that He gave His only begotten Son?
- How did it come about the way that it came about?

The only way we're going to understand this is to realize that in the Word of God—since it's inspired by the mind of God—that there are certain things that come along that God reveals to give us a deeper understanding of it. Paul wrote of that.

It's not something that anybody can pick up like a book and just read it. It isn't understood that way. Yes, it can be read that way, but whether it is understood that way or not is another whole question.

There is a vast movement, not only out in the world to get rid of God and have a Christianity without God, but there is also a vast movement of lying 'men of the cloth' within what is called the church establishment of the world, and they are preaching directly against God; directly against the inspiration of the Word of God.

When you read some of the things that they have it's almost like reading the myth of the story of evolution. They have a story that they tell, and the substance of it is that those who said—in the New Testament or the Old Testament—who wrote it, they didn't write it, but their disciples told the story verbally and it was gradually formed together. Then they lay it all at the footsteps of the Roman Catholic Church, that they created the New Testament. So, this is the commonly perceived thing that's in the world!

What we show is the exact opposite: God intended the New Testament to be written; and it was written by the ones who said they wrote it; and it is the inspired Word of God; and it is the Word of God that is only understood by the Spirit of God.

1-Corinthians 2:6: "Now we speak wisdom among the spiritually mature; however, it is not the wisdom of this world, nor of the rulers of this world, who are coming to nothing."

I think Saddam Hussein is a good example of that. Did he not come to nothing?

Verse 7: "Rather, we speak the wisdom of God... [which is different; that has to be with the Word of God] ...in a mystery..."

A mystery to the world, and even a mystery to religionists who do not read the Word of God as it is the Word of God.

"...even the hidden wisdom that God foreordained before the ages unto our glory" (v 7).

What Paul is saying here is that the understanding of the plan of God and the Word of God was foreordained before the ages for the very purpose that we be born into the Kingdom of God.

That's quite a statement! This means that God is calling the weak of the world, which we all are. As he says over here in 1-Cor. 1, that we are to bring to nothing the things that are!

God has given us a high calling and a great mission according to His plan and His purpose and His will in His timing. Not that we go out and we take over the reins of government now, but when we do all those things that have infuriated you when you watch the news and watch the government speakers speak their doublespeak and all this sort of thing, and the things that are going on—guess what? Christ is going to give us the authority to straighten it all out!

Salvation is more than just people living a good life having some understanding of the Word of God. It is a fantastic and tremendous calling, which was set forth before the foundation of the world, and today we're going to see some of the deep things that Paul talks about here of the things between God the Father and Jesus Christ.

Verse 8: "Which not one of the rulers of this world has known (for if they had known...)"

It's no surprise that when you hear the rulers of the world speak they don't know anything. The Bible tells us they don't.

"(...they would not have crucified the Lord of glory); but according as it is written, 'The eye has not seen, nor the ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him'" (vs 8-9). That's a key thing that's important!

Tie in Romans 8:28: "And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose."

All things! Not one thing excluded! Even the difficult things, the problematic things, the disappointments, and yes, even death. That's the whole point and the purpose of Jesus' coming.

1-Corinthians 2:10: "But God has revealed them to us... [first to the apostles and then to the brethren] ...by His Spirit..."

That's the whole important thing concerning the calling of the Apostle Paul who was a very high mucky-muck in Judaism.

- What did he know about God? Very little!
- What did he understand, though he was one of the most righteous of Pharisees that could have been, and the son of a Pharisee?
- What did he say of all of that? I count it but dung to win Christ!
- God had to reveal it to him
- God had to reveal it to the apostles

- God has to reveal it to us by His Spirit
 - ✓ as we study His Word
 - ✓ as we hunger and thirst after righteousness
 - ✓ as we yield to God to understand

Verse 10: "But God has revealed them to us by His Spirit, for the Spirit searches all things—even the deep things of God."

Today we are going to understand, hopefully, a little bit more about one of the deep things of God.

Verse 11: "For who among men understands the things of man except by the spirit of man, which is in him? In the same way also, the things of God no one understands except by the Spirit of God."

To whom does God give His Spirit? To those who obey Him!

Verse 12: "Now we have not received the spirit of the world..."

I was given a cassette tape from the Jesus Seminar concerning the Nag Hammadi Gnostic gospel of Mary Magdalene. I tell you it was so evident that that made this verse just stand out. Here they are intelligent, studied for years and years. Dr., Dr., Dr., Ph.D., Ph.D., Ph.D.; study all these languages, know all of them, be able to read the fragments of the Nag Hammadi Library and all of that and they don't have a clue! They're all wandering out here in the mist of their super-intellectual thoughts and emotions! It was awfully hard getting through that tape, but I got through it. Nevertheless, that's the spirit of the world!

"...but the Spirit that is of God... [is what we have received] ...so that we might know..." (v 12).

God wants us to know, but He wants us to search for it! He wants us to search for it in the right way

"...so that we might know the things graciously given to us by God; which things we also speak, not in words taught by human wisdom, but in words taught by the Holy Spirit in order to communicate spiritual things by spiritual means. But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God; for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them because they are spiritually discerned" (vs 12-14).

Some of what we're going to cover today falls exactly in that category, because you go along and you study and you grow in knowledge and understanding, and all of these things come together bit-by-bit, step-by-step, week-by-week, month-by-month, year-by-year, decade-by-decade. Look around and see all of our gray heads, and yet, there is still more to learn. The way that we learn these things is because we still ask questions.

Let's see what we can learn here. I preached on this once some years ago, but what we're going to do is examine the covenant between God the Father and Jesus Christ! A lot of people claim that Jesus was under the Old Covenant. No! He was not under the Old Covenant. If He were under the Old Covenant then He would have offered sacrifices. Jesus was not under the New Covenant because the New Covenant hadn't been given. What we are going to see is that Jesus was under a special covenant between Him and God the Father! Where do we find this? Well, Paul leads up to it.

Hebrews 10:1: "For the priestly law, having only a shadow of the good things that are coming, and not the image of those things, with the same sacrifices, which they offer continually year by year, is never able to make perfect those who come to worship. Otherwise, would they not have ceased to be offered? For once those who worship had been purified, they would no longer be conscious of sin" (vs 1-2).

That's part of our repentance and coming to God and asking God to cleanse our heart, mind and conscience, and to get rid of the sin within! That's the whole goal of overcoming.

Verse 3: "On the contrary, in offering these sacrifices year by year, there is a remembrance of sins, because it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins" (vs 3-4).

Why is that even though it was for the removal of sin to justify them to the temple? It requires something greater than a human being to forgive human sin! It's also true that no animal is even equal to a human being let alone greater. That's why this was given to show that there has to be something greater than that.

Verse 5: "For this reason, when He comes into the world, He says, 'Sacrifice and offering You did not desire, but You have prepared a body for Me.'"

This is talking about Christ. We'll go back and we'll look at the Psalm concerning this and where it came from, and we will see that this is accurately quoted from the Septuagint. We'll see in the King James it's just a little bit different.

Someone sent me a study using the latest Tanakh. The Tanakh is the Hebrew publication of the Old Testament. Well, what do you suppose they've done in the latest ones? They've gone through and sanitized all of the prophecies concerning Christ to make them read slightly different. If you want to study the English translation by the Jews of the Hebrew Old Testament, what you do is go back and you get a 1908 or 1905, and you compare that with the newest Tanakh.

“...You have prepared a body for Me” (v 5)—a physical body for Christ!

We will see there were certain things that God promised in doing that. Also, this has to do with the Church, because the Church is the Body of Christ of which Christ is the Head. We can get many things out of this.

He repeats it, v 6: "You did not delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin. Then said I, 'Lo, I come (as it is written of Me in the Scroll of the Book) to do Your will, O God" (vs 6-7).

Where is 'the Scroll of the Book'? Where in the Old Testament is this scroll? Let's see where it's quoted from in Psa. 40, and we will see that this is just a quote, and then we'll ask some questions concerning 'the scroll of the book' and so forth, and see what we can come up with.

Psalm 40:6: "Sacrifice and offering You did not desire... [instead of saying 'You prepared a body for Me,' it says]: ...My ears You have opened; burnt offering and sin offering You have not required. Then I said, 'Lo, I come; in the Scroll of the Book it is written of Me... [Where can you find that? What book? What scroll?] ...I delight to do Your will, O My God; and Your Law is within My heart" (vs 6-8).

- Are there books in heaven? Yes, there are!
- What do we have? We have the Book of Life!

All those who have the Spirit of God, their name is written there. The Book of Life, by the way, includes first and second resurrection. It would have to! Consider this: God says that a sparrow doesn't fall that the Father's not aware of it! So, God is in close communication with the earth through the things that He has created. A lot of people think that God is way off someplace, but He's not way off someplace. The wicked have to be resurrected and judged. Then there has to be a book of those whose names are written in there for the resurrection of the incorrigible wicked. Now then there are other books; here is a special book:

Revelation 10:1: "Then I saw another strong angel coming down out of heaven, clothed with a cloud, and with a rainbow on his head; and his face was like the sun, and his feet were like pillars of fire; and he had in his hand a little book that was open.... [there's another book in heaven] ...And he placed his right foot on the sea, and his left foot on the earth, and cried with a loud voice, as a lion roars. And when he cried, the seven thunders uttered their voices. And when the seven thunders spoke with their voices, I was about to write. But I heard a voice from heaven say to me, ‘Seal what the seven thunders spoke, and do not write them.’” (vs 1-4).

Apparently it’s going to be so devastating that it would be such a horrible thing to write it.

Verse 5: “Then the angel whom I had seen standing on the sea and on the earth lifted up his hand to heaven, and swore by Him Who lives into the ages of eternity, Who created the heaven and the things in it, and the earth and the things in it, and the sea and the things in it, ‘There shall be no more delay.’ But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound the trumpet, the mystery of God shall also be completed, according to the Gospel that He declared to His servants the prophets. Then the voice that I heard from heaven spoke to me again, and said, ‘Go, take the little book that is open in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the earth.’ And I went to the angel, and said to him, ‘Give me the little book.’ And he said to me, ‘Take it and eat it; and it shall make your belly bitter, but in your mouth it shall be sweet as honey’” (vs 1-9). He took the book and what he was to do then was to prophecy!

Let’s see that there is what we call the ‘book of prophecy.’ The first three chapters of Rev. are the letters to the seven churches. The fourth chapter is showing the Throne of God and where everything is taking place.

Revelation 5:1, to show that there is a book there: “And in the right hand of Him Who sits on the Throne I saw a book, written within and on the back, which had been sealed with seven seals. And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, ‘Who is worthy to open the book and to loose its seals?’ But no one in heaven, or on the earth, or under the earth was able to open the book, or to look inside it” (vs 1-3).

- What do we have?
- What does this book contain? All the rest of the book of Revelation!

There were certain things that were done before the foundation of the world. God had this all planned out before He even began the process. And part of the scroll that it was written in was a special scroll.

Rev. 13 talks about the coming beast and how the world’s going to worship him and so forth. The only ones who are not going to worship him are those whose names are in the Book of Life.

Revelation 13:8: “And all who dwell on the earth will worship him, whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.”

This was planned before the foundation of the world. How did they plan it? How did they work it out? Let’s see if we can pick up some clues.

Hebrews 10:5: “...You have prepared a body for Me.... [v 7]: ...as it is written of Me in the scroll of the book...”

Since God is a covenant God, what do we have here contained in the Bible? We have the Old Covenant, we have the New Covenant, we have lesser covenants and promises and things given, and it’s written.

- Do you suppose that there was a special book written that contained the agreement of God the Father and Jesus Christ?

Between Themselves alone they wouldn’t need it written down!

- Why would They write it down?

So that’s when all of those who were resurrected enter into the Kingdom of God they can see the record of how it was planned!

Let’s look at the body. Could this have been written in the scroll of the book? “...as it is written of Me in the scroll of the book...”? So, everything to do with the ministry of Christ was written there!

Let’s just review something we already know.

- What do we know concerning God in the Old Testament? ‘In the beginning, God...’
- What is the Hebrew word? Elohim!

In studying the Bible and searching it out, the Bible reveals that there were two that were Elohim:

1. one became the Father
2. one became the Son

They had an agreement!

Psa. 2—Let’s pick it up before the body is formed and we will see what God had to do, what the One Who became the Son had to do. There had to be absolute trust, absolute belief and absolute faith in each other—God the Father and Jesus Christ—in order to do what God did.

Today in this world they break every agreement that they have. If God the Father were not righteous and a God Who loves, and if Jesus Christ were not righteous and God Who loves, then the One Who became a human being could have been snuffed out by the One Who didn’t. There was a time when the One Who became the Son gave up His power and glory as God to be begotten in the virgin Mary.

Psalm 2:7: “I will declare the decree of the LORD. He has said to Me...” This is probably written in that scroll because everything about Christ was going to be written in that scroll!

“...‘You are My Son; this day I have begotten You’” (v 7). There was a day when that happened (Luke 1).

- What did God have to do to do that?
- What did Jesus have to do; the One Who became Jesus Christ?

Let’s see what Jesus had to do in order to become a human being. This is what is so confounding to people in the world, religious people who whatever their theology is. Some of these religionists, you wonder if you can do anything to get the Truth into their heads.

The One Who became the Son had a body prepared for Him! What does prepared mean? The first thing that had to happen before the body could be prepared—and, of course, in preparing the body, Christ reduced Himself down in power and glory—it had to be made compatible with genes and chromosomes in order for that begetting in Mary to produce a human being. With the knowledge we have of science today we can understand that a little bit more.

Philippians 2:5: “Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus... [setting the example of humility and giving up] ...Who, although He existed in the form of God did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, but emptied Himself...” (vs 5-7). It means He gave up:

- His power
- His glory
- His splendor
- His rule
- His authority

and handed it all over to God the Father! I’m anxious to see if there is that book—which I’m convinced that there is—to understand what’s in it, because this was a tremendous thing for God to do.

“...and was made in the likeness of men, and took the form of a servant; and being found in the manner of man, He humbled Himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross” (vs 7-8). We’re going to see there are some other things that were promised!

When He was born, God commanded that the angels worship Him. That’s something! They did! Remember the account in the book of Luke? The shepherds were out there and all of a sudden the heavens lit up and here were a host of angels singing Glory to God in the Highest.

Hebrews 1:1—Paul writes: “God Who spoke to the fathers at different times in the past and in many ways by the prophets, has spoken to us in these last days by His Son.”

How profound is that when compared to a human being even though He became a human like we are human.

Verse 2: “Whom He has appointed heir of all things, by Whom also He made the ages.”

The very Creator Who made the heavens and the earth under the authority of God the Father was the One Who divested Himself and became a human being. You can’t have any greater authority and power than that to forgive your sins!

Verse 3: “Who, being the brightness of His glory and the exact image of His person, and upholding all things by the word of His own power...”

You think about that for a minute! The very One Who upholds the universe by the Word of His Power says that ‘If you confess your sins, I will forgive your sins!’ That’s why you need to believe that that is so. That’s why we need to have faith and love and all the attributes that God can give us.

“...when He had by Himself...” (v 3). Since He was the Creator of human beings; since He gave the judgment of ‘the law of sin and death’ to Adam and Eve and that passed on to all human beings, He alone This is why it cannot be that the One Who was Jesus Christ was just another man, because this has to save all humanity.

“...purged our sins, sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high; having been made so much greater than any of the angels, inasmuch as He has inherited a name exceedingly superior to them. For to which of the angels did He ever say, ‘You are My Son; this day I have begotten You?’ And again, ‘I will be a Father to Him, and He will be a Son to Me?’” (vs 3-5). That was part of their agreement!

Verse 6: “And again, when He brought the Firstborn into the world...” The King James says ‘begotten,’ but that’s incorrect; it’s ‘Firstborn.’ It means when He was born of the virgin Mary, remember what he was commanded to call Him? Jesus!

- What’s another name? Emmanuel!
- What does that mean? God with us!

“...He said, ‘Let all the angels of God worship Him’” (v 6).

Now then we are ready for Psa. 16; here’s part of the promise. We can pick up a few clues from some of the Psalms and some of the other Scriptures. Here is a promise of the resurrection. Since He was going to become a human being and suffer death, He had to have the promise that God would fulfill.

Psalm 16:10: “For You will not abandon My soul to the grave; neither will You allow Your Holy One to see corruption.”

You can go back to Acts 2^[transcriber’s correction] and see where Peter preached that on the Day of Pentecost concerning Christ.

Verse 11: “You will make known to Me the path of life; in Your presence is fullness of joy. At Your right hand are pleasures forevermore.” He promised that He would not let His body corrupt!

Isaiah 9:6—a very profound section of Scripture: “For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government shall be upon His shoulders; and His name shall be called Wonderful...” All of these are names and attributes of God!

Here it’s said of this little child that would be born: “...Counselor, The Mighty God...” (v 6).

As much of God as could be in the flesh, that’s what Jesus had! We’ve also seen that it’s impossible for God in His glorified form to fill a human body. Why? It would disintegrate it! That’s what God told Moses. He said, ‘You cannot see My face and live.’ Therefore, God had to divest Himself of His glory, power and honor and become a human being to become a child to be born.

“...His name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father...” (v 6).

- When is Jesus going to be the everlasting Father?
- What about God the Father?
- Does this not present a conflict?

No!

God the Father is the Father of all of those who are going to be in the first resurrection. He will not be the Father of all those who come into the Kingdom of God during the Millennium. Jesus Christ will be the Father of all of those, and the Church ruling with Christ will be the Mother of them. Henceforth then, at that time the One Whom we know as the Father is our Father but will be their Grandfather, if we could put it into human terms.

That’s when Jesus will be “...The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of His government and peace there shall be no end... [just like there’s no end to the universe] ...upon the throne of David, and over His Kingdom, to order it and to establish it with judgment and with righteousness from henceforth, even forever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this” (v 6-7).

One of the stories that keeps coming out over and over again is that Jesus was a Jew born into a Jewish family and He was taught by the rabbis, and Jesus Himself was a rabbi.

I believe that this is part of the covenant that was written in that scroll, since Jesus gave up everything to become a human being. When a baby is born—outside of just certain functions that God has programmed into the mind of a baby such as responding to love, being able to nurture, being able to have some few rudimentary movements and things like that—the brain is virtually empty of any knowledge. There is no programmed knowledge in there. They don’t come out speaking a language: ‘Oh, Hi Mom. Boy, I’m sure glad to be here. It was kind of dark and wet in there for all these nine months.’

God could not leave the mind of Jesus Christ to be taught and programmed by liars, because what the rabbis follow is based upon their traditions, which are lies against the Word of God. He was taught by the Father directly, and I think beginning at a very early age, probably almost immediately. Do newborn babies begin responding to mother and father and the environment around them? Yes, immediately!

Isa. 50 is a prophecy, as we have noted in A Harmony of the Gospels, of Jesus education. We’ll go there in just a minute in John 7.

Isaiah 50:4 “The Lord GOD has given Me the tongue of the learned...”

Isn’t that what they wanted even at age 12 when He was there at the temple and He was talking to all the teachers and priests. ‘My, where did he get all this understanding?’

- Where did He get it?
- Did Mary teach it to Him?
- Did Joseph teach it to Him? No!

Verse 4: “The Lord GOD has given Me the tongue of the learned... [it came from God; the One Who became God the Father taught His Son] ...to know to help the weary with a word... [which is a prophecy of the Gospel of the good news] ...He awakens Me morning by morning... [every morning God the Father woke up Jesus] ...He awakens my ear to hear as one being taught.”

That’s how He was taught! God didn’t leave it to sinful men to teach Jesus. He taught Him directly. We would have to conclude that that is absolutely necessary, otherwise Jesus would, as a young child, be led into sin, yes, indeed! So, it couldn’t have happened except this way.

“...He awakens Me morning by morning, He awakens My ear to hear as one being taught. The Lord GOD has opened My ear, and I was not rebellious, nor turned away backwards” (vs 4-5).

Then it jumps forward into the things that would happen at the crucifixion. And you find this in the Old Testament. That’s why the Old Testament is a ‘precept here, a line here, a bit there,’ and you put it together.

Verses 4 & 5 are about His first coming and His education. Then immediately it jumps forward to His scourging, and you find that in the Old Testament. When you understand that’s how the Old Testament is written then you’ll be able to understand it. But what is the key for understanding the Old Testament? The New Testament! That’s what Jesus said: He opened their minds to the things concerning Him out of the Law, the Prophets, and the Psalms. So, the New Testament interprets the Old Testament.

With this in mind, let’s see what was part of the covenant that Jesus had to respond to, because He had His part. His part was that when He was here as a human being He had an obligation of what He was going to say and what He was going to do, and God the Father taught Him that.

John 5:17—they came to Him because He healed a man on the Sabbath: “But Jesus answered them, ‘My Father is working until now, and I work.’”

They did not understand that there is a spiritual work always going on. The greatest work that is accomplished on the Sabbath is the spiritual work, which comes through study, prayer, God’s Spirit, fellowshiping with God the Father and Jesus Christ—all come together on the Sabbath Day. It has to be a participation spiritually with those who are teaching and those who are learning that altogether with God’s Spirit that we all learn. That’s a spiritual work. Of course, on the Sabbath the Jews couldn’t understand that.

Verse 18: “So then, on account of this saying, the Jews sought all the more to kill Him, not only because He had loosed the Sabbath...” The King James says ‘broke the Sabbath!’

As we went through the in-depth study: Refuting Sunday-Keeping, those who do not understand the Greek nor understand what the New Testament is teaching saying that He broke the Sabbath to set the example that we can keep Sunday. That’s a carnal mind trying to understand something spiritual! No! He loosed that law which said you can’t carry a sleeping bag on the Sabbath. He loosed the Sabbath.

“...but also because He had called God His own Father, making Himself equal with God.... [here’s part of what was Jesus’ responsibility]: ...Therefore, Jesus answered and said to them...” (vs 18-19).

What I want you to do is also keep in mind what the Scriptures tell us of Lucifer and Satan, who rebelled and went against God and said, ‘I will be like God,’ and ‘I will exalt my throne above the stars of heaven.’

Compare that with the attitude of what Christ had here. Of course, this had to be, because Christ has to judge Satan the devil. In order to judge Satan the devil, that’s part of the reason He came in the flesh so that He could overcome him as a human being, which is a lesser existence than God, a lesser existence than an angel!

God can overcome Satan any time. Angels fight back and forth, the good angels and the evil angels. You can read that in Dan. 9 & 10. But to overcome Satan as a human being—which Adam and Eve did not do—Christ had to do it! He had an obligation. Now keep that in mind when we read:

Verse 19: “Therefore, Jesus answered and said to them, ‘Truly, truly I say to you, the Son has no power... [‘dunamis’] ...to do anything of Himself...’ That was His agreement! He would take no power to Himself to do anything of His own!”

“...but only what He sees the Father do.... [Does that not verify Isa. 50, that He saw the Father? Yes, indeed!] ...For whatever He does, these things the Son also does in the same manner. For the Father loves the Son, and shows Him everything that He Himself is doing....” (vs 19-20).

What I want you to do is think of the tremendous spiritual relationship that Jesus Christ had with God the Father all during His life while this was going on.

It’s really something! That’s why He was given authority as the Son of man and so forth.

John 3:31 was also part of it and this also verifies it: “He Who comes from above is above all. The one who is of the earth is earthly, and speaks of the earth. He Who comes from heaven is above all.”

Isn't it interesting that people wonder where Jesus came from? Here it is; He comes from heaven!

Verse 32: “And what He has seen and heard... [that's what the Father taught Him; had to be] ...this is what He testifies; but no one receives His testimony. The one who has received His testimony has set his seal that God is true; for He Whom God has sent speaks the words of God...” (vs 32-34). That was Jesus' obligation under this covenant!

Just like when we are baptized and put into the watery grave and we enter into that covenant relationship with God, it is a covenant relationship unto death. That's why it is a burial, and we are conjoined to the death of Christ Who paid for our sins. Now then, when we come out of that watery grave we have an obligation to do, based upon the terms of the covenant.

- we are to obey God
- we are to love God
- we are to believe God
- we are to trust in Him

All of those things are our obligation!

Just like with the covenant that Christ had between Him and God the Father, He had an obligation. His obligation was to speak what God told Him to speak! Whatever the commandment was He told Him to speak, He spoke. That we understand, and then this becomes much more profound that these words are the words that God the Father has given. So, when anyone rejects Christ they reject the Father. That's why John said, ‘He who has not the Son has not the Father.’

Verse 34: “For He Whom God has sent speaks the words of God; and God gives not the Spirit by measure unto Him. The Father loves the Son and has given all things into His hand. The one who believes in the Son has everlasting life; but the one who does not obey the Son shall not see life, for the wrath of God remains on him” (vs 34-36).

Isn't it interesting that a lot of these things that we're picking up, which had to be part of that covenant that was written in the scroll of the book, we find in John 7. Let's look at just a couple of things that are important here. Let's just talk about the Feast of Tabernacles for a minute because this is what John 7 is talking about.

- Would Jesus command His brothers and mother to sin? No!
- Did He tell them to go up to the Feast? Yes, He did!

So therefore, anybody who says that keeping the Feast of Tabernacles is a sin is accusing Jesus of commanding sin! They don't think of it that way, but that's what they're doing. His brother said, ‘Go up and show yourself to the world.’

John 7:6: “Therefore, Jesus said to them, ‘My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready. The world cannot hate you; but it hates Me because I testify concerning it, that its works are evil. You go up to this Feast.... [there it is, He said go to the Feast of Tabernacles] ...I am not going up to this Feast now...” (vs 6-8).

What He wanted to happen was for them to leave and be on their way then He would come up privately, because He was going to the Feast but He had a plan in mind what He was going to do when He got there, and He couldn't do it if He went with them. What would happen? I'm sure they didn't have binoculars in those days, but I'm sure they had everybody up there looking: There's Mary, James, Joseph and so forth. ‘There they are. Where's Jesus? We don't see Him.’ He had a plan in mind, we'll see what it is.

Verse 8: “‘You go up to this Feast. I am not going up to this Feast now... [at this present minute] ...for My time has not yet been fulfilled.’ And after saying these things to them, He remained in Galilee. But after His brothers had gone up, then Jesus also went up to the Feast, not openly, but as it were in secret. As a result, the Jews were seeking Him at the Feast, and said, ‘Where is He?’ Now there was much debating about Him among the people. Some said, ‘He is a good Man.’ But others said, ‘No, but He is deceiving the people.’ However, no one spoke publicly about Him for fear of the Jews” (vs 8-13).

He was there keeping the Feast all the time but didn't show Himself till the middle of the Feast. Notice the reaction:

Verse 15: “And the Jews were amazed, saying, ‘How does this man know letters... [How does He understand the Scriptures?] ...having never been schooled?’” Let's stop here and think for a minute:

- we have the Sadducees
- we have the Pharisees
- we have the Essenes
- we have all of the rabbis
- we have the school of Hillel
- we have the school of Gamaliel

Those were the two main schools in Jerusalem!

So, if you wanted to become some mucky-muck in Judaism you had to go to one of these two schools. Don't you think, since this is the Feast of Tabernacles just before His crucifixion, all of the leading Jewish rabbis checked out with one another from the very beginning and said:

- Did he go to your school?
- Did he go to your school?
- Who taught this guy?

What do you think they would have done to the rabbi who had taught Him? Sayonara! He would have been tried and convicted. ‘How dare you teach someone to usurp our authority’—whatever you want to add to it.

Verse 16: “Jesus answered them and said, ‘My doctrine is not Mine, but His Who sent Me. If anyone desires to do His will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it is from God, or whether I speak from My own self’” (vs 16-17).

There it is, His obligation! This was part of His covenant with God the Father! So, the One Who became the Father said, ‘All right, I’ll watch over You, I’ll teach You while you grow up, and when the times comes for the beginning of Your ministry’—which we find there in Mark 1, the beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and so forth—‘then You are to teach and say only My words’; which is what He did all the way through.

John 8:28: “Then Jesus said to them, ‘When you have lifted up the Son of man, then you yourselves shall know that I AM, and that I do nothing of Myself. But as the Father taught Me, these things I speak.’.... [How many times did He say that over and over again?] ...And He Who sent Me is with Me. The Father has not left Me alone because I always do the things that please Him’” (vs 28-29).

Was keeping the Feast of Tabernacles in the manner that He kept it pleasing to God? It had to be! That was part of His obligation: always speak the words that God the Father taught Him; always do the things that please Him! This is the separate covenant that Jesus was under, and the covenant between Him and God the Father! It’s going to be very interesting when we’re resurrected and we meet the Father and we see where these books are written. I’m sure that They’re going to open them up and say—however they keep time in heaven in relationship to the earth—‘This was Our agreement.’”

John 10:14: “I am the good Shepherd, and I know those who are Mine, and am known of those who are Mine. Just as the Father knows Me, I also know the Father; and I lay down My life for the sheep” (vs 14-15). That was part of His agreement, to lay down His life!

He had to do the hardest thing than any human being could do, lay down His life into the manner that it was taken.

Verse 16: “And I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must bring those also, and they shall hear My voice; and there shall be one flock and one Shepherd. On account of this, the Father loves Me: because I lay down My life, that I may receive it back again” (vs 16-17). That’s the proper translation! He didn’t take it back. This is passive, receive.

God the Father had to give it back to Him. Remember what happened when Jesus was on the cross, one of the very last things He said? ‘Father, into Your hands I commend My Spirit,’ and He gave up the Spirit. That’s when He died, because He had to be dead. It’s not Docetism where a spirit being called Christ imposed itself into the body of a man called Jesus, and therefore, Jesus Christ did not die. The Spirit Christ went back to the Father, and the man Jesus died. That’s not what it was.

Verse 18: “No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down of Myself.... [of His own accord He did it] ...I have authority to lay it down... [that’s part of the covenant agreement that they had] ...and authority to receive it back again. This commandment I received from My Father.”

That’s quite a thing! That helps you understand the voluntary choice and will of God to do this. Think back and go back to the verse we started with, John 3:16, where it says that ‘God so loved the world.’

- think about what the Father and the Son worked out
- think of what They did
- this is a tremendous thing
- this is a tremendous covenant that They had

Let’s look at some other things concerning this. Let’s look and see and understand when He says ‘I lay My life down,’; let’s see what He knew was going to happen. He gave this prophecy Himself. Did Jesus understand exactly what was going to happen to Him? Yes, He did! This is why the sacrifice of Jesus Christ saves all who repent! This is why God alone can help people in these situations because He went through it all.

Isaiah 53:1: “Who has believed our report?... [How many people really believe God?] ...And to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed? For He shall grow up before Him as a tender plant... [that’s Christ’s childhood] ...and as a root out of a dry ground; He has no form nor comeliness that we should look upon Him, nor beauty that we should desire Him” (vs 1-2). He’s just an ordinary looking man!

Notice what kind of life He lived. You think you've got troubles, this is what God had to suffer in the flesh among His own! It says there in John 1 that 'He created the world and the world didn't know Him and He came to His own and His own didn't receive Him.'

- if you're down and out
- if you're alone
- if you think nobody likes you
- if you think no one loves you
- if you think no one cares for you
 - ✓ look up, pray to God
 - ✓ look to Jesus Christ
 - ✓ He'll help you

Verse 3: "He is despised and rejected of men; a Man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief... [this has to do when they saw Him on the cross] ...and we hid as it were our faces from Him, He was despised, and we esteemed Him not. Surely He has borne our infirmities, and carried our sorrows..." (vs 3-4).

That's why it says, 'All you who are heavy burdened, come unto Me for My yoke is easy and My burden is light' (Matt. 11). You can put all of those on Christ.

"...yet, we esteemed Him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted" (v 4).

Yeah, they came by and said—and even one of the two robbers said—'Well, if You're the Christ save Yourself and save us.' The other one said, 'You don't even know what you're talking about. We're here because we did it. We're here justly, but He not justly.' Then he said, 'Lord, remember me when You come into Your Kingdom.'

Verse 5: "But He was wounded for our transgressions... [not for anything He did] ...He was crushed for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon Him..."

In other words, in order for us to have peace with God, the penalty of our sins had to be slashed upon His back with the scourging of crucifixion to bring peace.

"...and with His stripes we ourselves are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned each one to his own way; and the LORD has laid on Him the iniquity of us all... [because He was responsible] ...He was oppressed, and He was afflicted; yet, He opened not His mouth. He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter; and as a sheep before its shearers is dumb, so He opened not His mouth. By oppression and judgment He was taken away; and with His generation who did consider that He was cut off out of the land of the living; for the transgression of My people He was stricken. And He made His grave with the wicked..." (vs 5-9).

All of this was there! All of this had to be written in the scroll that is all about Christ and the covenant that God the Father and Jesus Christ had, and then we are given some of it here and some of it there and put all together. The key thing that really got me started on this was there was no place in the Bible where that part which says 'it's written of Me in a scroll of a book,' where you can find what was written, except you get a bit here and a bit there.

Verse 9: "And He made His grave with the wicked, and with the rich in His death; although He had done no violence, nor was any deceit in His mouth. Yet, the LORD willed to crush Him..." (vs 9-10)—even though He did! That goes back to Gen. 3:15.

Even though it pleased God to do it to solve the problem of sin and His creation of human beings, it still was so gruesome that when it came down to the final three hours of Christ on the cross, it became dark, and Jesus had to do it alone! That was something! That's why they had this covenant. That's why this agreement was there.

"...and He has put Him to grief: You shall make His life an offering for sin... [then out of that]: ...He shall see His seed..." (v 10).

As it is in the 'great congregation': 'I will declare Your name unto My brethren' (Heb. 2) has got to be at the resurrection. Here is Christ, all of us are resurrected and we meet Him in the air, and He turns to God the Father and says, 'Here are the children that You have given Me.' And He's going to go right down the line and give everyone a new name.

"...He shall prolong His days, and that the purpose of the LORD might prosper in His hand. He shall see of the travail of His soul. He shall be fully satisfied... [takes care of all sin] ... By His knowledge shall My righteous Servant justify many; and He shall bear their iniquities" (vs 10-11).

Only God can do that. No human being, no animal. This had to be carefully prepared and worked out well ahead of time.

Verse 12: "Therefore, I will divide to Him a portion with the great, and He shall divide the spoil with the strong... [that's giving a reward to all of us] ...because He has poured out His soul to death; and He was counted among the transgressors; and He bore the sin of many, and made intercession for transgressors."

Maybe this will give us more understanding. It's one of these things that we come to realize after we've been converted a long time and have really studied the Word of God.

Hebrews 10:5: “For this reason, when He comes into the world, He says, ‘Sacrifice and offering You did not desire, but You have prepared a body for Me. You did not delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin. Then said I, ‘Lo, I come (as it is written of Me in the Scroll of the Book) to do Your will, O God’”” (vs 5-7).

That's something, brethren! We're part of it! Here we're living right at the end of the age and it's going to be really profound to see what God is going to do.

That is a covenant—since God is a covenant God—that God the Father and Jesus Christ made when He came to the earth!

CHAPTER THIRTY-ONE

How to Count Pentecost and Count 50

Fred R. Coulter

Greetings, brethren, we want to go through how to count Pentecost and the meaning of counting to fifty!

What we need to understand is that everything concerning the Holy Days is keyed to the Passover! The Passover is most important because it is the crucifixion of Jesus Christ, and that starts out in Gen. 3, as we have already understood and goes through to Gen. 15, Gen. 22, Exo. 12, and then on down to the time of Christ when on the Passover night He instituted the New Covenant symbols. Then on the day portion of the Passover He was crucified. Then we immediately go into the Feast of Unleavened Bread, which is connected with it, then on to:

- the Wave Sheaf Offering Day
- Pentecost
- Trumpets
- Atonement
- Tabernacles
- Last Great Day

Now, if we count the Passover as one of the Feasts of God, which it is, then we have 7 Holy Days and we have a total of 8 Feasts. Pentecost is the 4th Feast of the 8, or the middle Feast. As you will see when you get into the transcripts concerning events to take place before Pentecost, and then events to take place after Pentecost, you will see that Pentecost is the tipping point in history!

We've also understood that Satan likes to confuse everything. Satan likes to destroy the knowledge of the true Christian Passover. So, we have all of the counterfeits concerning that—we've covered a lot of that—and that does away with Unleavened Bread, substituting it with Lent and Easter!

The Wave Sheaf Offering Day is then made to be the resurrection day, which is not the resurrection day. Pentecost also is confused, not only by those who profess Christianity, but also by those who profess to know the Truth; that is being the Jews. We will see how Judaism also affected things concerning the understanding of the Holy Days of God. Because the Jews are not in the land of Palestine, they do not keep a 14th Passover, but they keep a 15th Passover. If you read The Christian Passover book, I have a chapter in there, The Passover of the Rejected and why they do it on the 15th.

Likewise, as we'll see a little later, they always have their Pentecost on a fixed day of the calendar—because they begin counting in the wrong place—with the exception of one of the five variations of when Passover occurs.

Let's see how that Pentecost pictures the receiving of the Holy Spirit. This becomes important for us to understand and how it's all tied together with Unleavened Bread, Wave Sheaf Offering Day, and all of these things.

Acts 2:1: "And when the Day of Pentecost, the fiftieth day, was being fulfilled, they were all with one accord in the same place."

So, it's not the day before, it's not the day after; it's during the 50th day that it is being fulfilled. Now then, the apostles preached; God gave them the ability to preach supernaturally in all the languages of those who were gathered there at the temple. God began it at the temple to show the sign of His authority, and that it was directly from Him!

What I want to do is show you that in order to receive the Holy Spirit, it has got to go back to the Passover and the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, and then the Wave Sheaf Offering and Jesus' acceptance for our sins as the perfect sacrifice of God in the Throne of God in heaven above.

Verse 36: "Therefore, let all the house of Israel know with full assurance that God has made this same Jesus, Whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ."

So, here we are in Pentecost going back to Passover because they fit together as a unit. As you study the things concerning the seven churches, and all of those things, which in this transcription book of the study of the Holy Days, you will have all of those things combined to show the various meanings of the 7th week and the 50th day.

Verse 37: "Now, after hearing this, they were cut to the heart; and they said to Peter and the other apostles, 'Men and brethren, what shall we do?' Then Peter said to them, 'Repent and be baptized each one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and you yourselves shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit'" (vs 37-38).

The Day of Pentecost pictures the day in which the Holy Spirit was given in power! It pictures the day that also commemorates us receiving the Holy Spirit! We will see that this 50th day—though we receive it at other times whenever we are baptized—but with the Feast of Pentecost the meaning is it has to do with our receiving of the Holy Spirit! It's connected back to the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread!

Verse 39: “For the promise is to you and to your children, and to all those who are afar off, as many as the Lord our God may call.”

Now let's look at just a couple of other things that are important for us to understand and realize. We are going to see with Rom. 5 how important that it is everything ties back to the Passover and the crucifixion of Jesus Christ!

Romans 5:6: “For even when we were without strength, at the appointed time...”

Even Paul in writing and preaching goes back to the crucifixion of Christ on the Passover Day at the appointed time, and it was not at any other time.

“...Christ died for the ungodly. For rarely will anyone die for a righteous man, although perhaps someone might have the courage even to die for a good man. But God commends His own love to us because, when we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Much more, therefore, having been justified now by His blood...” (vs 6-9). Justification is a two-step operation:

1. the sacrifice of Jesus Christ
2. His acceptance of the Wave Sheaf Offering Day, which begins the first day of the count to Pentecost

“...we shall be saved from wrath through Him. For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of His own Son, much more then, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life” (vs 9-10).

Rom. 4—concerning faith and imputation of righteousness through having your sins forgiven. Using the example of Abraham:

Romans 4:23: “But it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him; rather, it was also written for our sakes, to whom it shall be imputed—to those who believe in Him Who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead” (vs 23-24).

It's very important to understand, as we'll see on some charts later on that the year in which Jesus was crucified, the Passover fell in the middle of the week on a Wednesday, with the Passover services taking place on Tuesday night before the day portion of the Passover. The appointed time that we read in Rom. 5 is that very day. It is also backed up by what Jesus said, that He would be in the tomb three days and three nights. So, we'll have to come through to the Wave Sheaf Offering Day, and then we will look at how to count Pentecost.

Verse 25: “Who was delivered for our offenses ... [delivered to the crucifixion and death] ...and was raised for our justification.”

Paul said, ‘If Christ was not raised; you're still in your sins.’ And if you're still in your sins you have no justification!

Now let's see how this applies here concerning the blood of Christ, and concerning these things that we're covering here. Heb 10—we'll see about the sacrifice of Christ. Again, as you go through and study the Bible, and the New Testament in particular, I want you to understand that everything is keyed on the Passover, the death of Jesus Christ!

The next event is His resurrection at the end of the weekly Sabbath during the Feast of Unleavened Bread. {note charts} If you want a full explanation of when Jesus was resurrected you can read A Harmony of the Gospels that shows the three days and three nights of Jesus in the tomb, or the Appendix J—Jesus' Three Days and Three Nights of Entombment and His Resurrection—in The Holy Bible in It's Original Order, A Faithful Version. We also have it in the book The Day Jesus the Christ Died. There are plenty references to it, so you go ahead and read and study those.

Tie Heb. 10 in to Gen. 3:15 where it talks about the first prophecy of the death of Jesus Christ after the sin of Adam and Eve, showing that there had to be a penalty paid for their sins. When Jesus was crucified, here is the meaning of it:

Hebrew 10:12: “But He... [this is contrasted to the priest who offered sacrifices daily] ...after offering one sacrifice for sins forever...”—because Jesus was God manifested in the flesh!

He alone can take away the sins of the world, because He is the Creator of all mankind, and don't be fooled by any false doctrine that He was not God before He became God manifested in the flesh.

“...sat down at the right hand of God” (v 12). That took place on the Wave Sheaf Offering Day for His presentation!

He came back to the earth for 40 days and 40 nights, and He showed Himself to His apostles. Then ascended on the 40th day for the final time, and has been sitting at the right hand of God.

Verse 13: “Since that time, He is waiting until His enemies are placed as a footstool for His feet.”

That is the tipping point of history, the beginning of the return of Christ and the resurrection of the saints.

Verse 14: “For by one offering He has obtained eternal perfection for those who are sanctified”—relating back to the crucifixion!

Heb. 9:11—showing about Christ’s activity as our High Priest in heaven right now. It also goes back to His crucifixion; everything keys back to the Passover and ties together. All the Holy Days of God are connected in a plan and revealed in a step-by-step sequence of what God is doing.

Hebrews 9:11: “But Christ Himself has become High Priest of the coming good things, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made by human hands (that is, not of this present physical creation). Not by the blood of goats and calves, but by the means of His own blood, He entered once for all into the Holiest... [in the heavens above] ...having by Himself secured everlasting redemption for us. For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkled on those who are defiled, sanctifies to the purifying of the flesh, to a far greater degree, the blood of Christ, Who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without spot to God, shall purify your conscience from dead works to serve the living God” (vs 11-14).

That’s why He is Mediator of the New Covenant; so that through death, He provided the release of our transgressions for us.

Now’s let’s see again the blood of Jesus Christ. As you study through the Bible I want you to continuously keep that in mind. All of what God is doing is keyed to the Passover, and that’s why it’s so important.

Note our book: The Christian Passover—500 pages explaining the Truth about the Passover; exposing all the errors; going through step-by-step to show the magnitude of the Passover and why it is profoundly important and related to salvation, that unless you keep the Passover the way that God has said, you do not have salvation!

1-John 1:7: “However, if we walk in the Light, as He is in the Light... [the ‘if’ is always on us; the ‘if’ is never on God] ...then we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ, His own Son, cleanses us from all sin”

That’s what we need to really understand and realize. John is writing this and read how he starts out, it comes down then to the sacrifice of Christ, and the forgiveness of our sins. That’s why the Passover is so important. We take the Passover to commemorate the sacrifice of Jesus Christ and to renew the New Covenant! Then that keeps us established under the grace of God, so that through the grace of God and the confession of sins we can continually have our sins washed away even on a daily bases, through the blood of Jesus Christ!

Let’s carry this a little bit further here, and let’s see how this reflects to the Church. We see Paul preaching to the elders at Ephesus who came down to meet him in Miletus. He refers back again to the sacrifice of Christ and His blood.

Paul is talking to the elders, so this is a good verse for all the elders, ministers, and teachers to understand. No man is to put himself forward. God has to lead and guide him:

Acts 20:28: “Take heed, therefore, to yourselves and to all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to feed the Church of God, which He purchased with His own blood.”

Again, our sins are forgiven through the blood of Christ; the blood of Christ covers everything that we do on a continuous basis in establishing our relationship with God. The blood of Christ and the Body of Christ has to do with the New Covenant and renewing it. Here Christ purchased the Church with His own blood. Then Paul gives a warning:

Verse 29: “For I know this: that after my departure grievous wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock.”

- that’s what’s happened to the Church of God
- that’s what’s happened to worldly Christianity

They have given themselves over to Satan the devil and his ways, and all the counterfeit things that are there!

Verse 30: “And from among your own selves men will rise up speaking perverse things to draw away disciples after themselves.”

That’s why we find there’s so much confusion today in the things that are done in relationship to:

- the Passover
- Unleavened Bread
- the resurrection of Jesus Christ

Now let’s see about the ascension of Christ and the receiving of the Holy Spirit, because the Holy Spirit was not given until Christ sent it on the Day of Pentecost, and what that has meaning for us.

Let’s see where Paul connects this. Notice the connection from Passover, Unleavened Bread and Pentecost; that’s the pattern, and we’ll see the progression of it.

Ephesians 1:7: “In Whom we have redemption through His blood, even the remission of sins, according to the riches of His grace, which He has made to abound toward us in all wisdom and intelligence; having made known to us the mystery of His own will...” (vs 7-9).

God has brought you into His confidence to understand His will. This is just not a matter of comparative religions that you go out and say:

- I wonder what religion I could be comfortable with?
- I wonder how I feel in this church?

That has nothing to do with Truth! You’ve got to:

- have the true Jesus
- have the true Word of God
- have the understanding of the Truth of the Passover and Holy Days
- keep the commandments of God
- love Him

It’s not a matter of a place where you have a psychological rearranging of your brain to be a good person in the world. You’re qualifying for eternal life!

Verse 9: “Having made known to us the mystery of His own will, according to His good pleasure, which He purposed in Himself; that in the Divine plan for the fulfilling of the times...” (vs 9-10).

That’s what this book is all about, the Divine plan of God step-by-step-by-step. You will see—when you go through the transcriptions and listen to the messages in this book about God’s revealed will and His plan for mankind—that Pentecost is the tipping point in history! Not only does it commemorate our receiving the Holy Spirit, we will also see as you get into the meaning of Pentecost, that it commemorates and looks forward to the resurrection when Jesus returns. Now we will see that right here in Eph. 1.

“...He might bring all things together in Christ, both the things in the heavens and the things upon the earth; yes, in Him, in Whom we also have obtained an inheritance, having been predestinated according to His purpose...” (vs 10-11). Think about that for a minute:

- God Himself has personally called you
- God Himself has personally given you the begetting of the Holy Spirit
- God Himself wants to give you eternal life if you remain faithful

Notice all the responsibility that has been given to us, and the way that God has given us the understanding of these things. This is a magnificent thing indeed.

Verse 12: “That we might be to the praise of His glory...” I want you to just think about that for a minute:

- God has called you
- God has given you His Spirit
- God is creating in you the very mind of Christ
- God is going to resurrect you, as the Feast of Pentecost pictures the first resurrection

So that all those in the first resurrection will be “...to the praise of His glory...”

“...who first trusted in the Christ; in Whom you also trusted after hearing the Word of the Truth ... [the Word of Truth involves repentance, baptism and so forth] ...the Gospel of your salvation; in Whom also, after believing, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise” (vs 12-13). That’s the first meaning of the Feast of Pentecost!

Verse 14: “Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of His glory.”

- Pentecost pictures the down payment of the Holy Spirit
- Pentecost pictures the fulfillment of the redemption on Pentecost

This is really quite a thing, really something for us to understand!

Now let’s look at something else that’s important concerning counting, concerning Pentecost, and why God did it this way. Let’s come here to Luke 4, and then we will go back to the Old Testament, and we will read how to count Pentecost, we will read about the #50 and what it means. This becomes a very important section for us to understand, and again, Jesus is showing and preaching on a day that’s important to show what the gospel is all about, and what it means.

Luke 4:14: “Then Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit to Galilee... [that was after He was baptized] ...and word about Him went out into the entire country around. And He taught in their synagogues, and was glorified by all. And He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up; and according to His custom, He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath Day...” (vs 14-16).

This Sabbath was a unique Sabbath. It is called in the Greek ‘ton sabbaton,’ and it means on the day of the weeks, which has reference to Pentecost. I want you to focus in on the message that he gave from Isaiah, which is from Isa. 61

“...and stood up to read. And there was given Him the book of the prophet Isaiah; and when He had unrolled the scroll, He found the place where it was written” (vs 16-17).

We’re told to preach in season and out of season! Jesus taught in season and out of season as well, because that’s the method of how God wants us to understand things. He taught in season, and here it is on the Feast of Weeks or the Feast of Pentecost, He reads:

Verse 18: “The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me; for this reason, He has anointed Me to preach the Gospel to the poor... [that relates to 50 days] ...He has anointed Me to preach the Gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to heal those who are brokenhearted, to proclaim pardon to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to send forth in deliverance those who have been crushed to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord” (vs 18-19).

- What is the acceptable year of the Lord?
- What is it talking about?

Let’s see the only other Holy year where there is a count to 50, and it ties in with the message that was given here by Jesus on Pentecost, and it has to do with the Jubilee. What Jesus was doing here on Pentecost was preaching the Jubilee!

Leviticus 25:8: “And you shall number seven Sabbaths of years to you, seven times seven years....”—49! We’ll see 49 when we get to counting Pentecost for the Holy Day.

“...And the time of the seven Sabbaths of years shall be forty-nine years to you. Then you shall cause the trumpet of the jubilee to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month; in the Day of Atonement, the trumpet shall sound throughout all your land” (vs 8-9).

Notice what this is physically. Now we know that every 7 years there’s to be a release of debt. Here is 7 times 7 years—49—then we come to the 50th year.

Verse 10: “And you shall make the fiftieth year Holy...”

Here is a parallel counting 1 thru 50: 7 complete cycles of 7 years for 49 years. That will tie in when we count the weeks.

“...And proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants.... [all debts forgiven; everything set aside] ...It shall be a jubilee to you, and you shall return each man to his possession, and you shall return each man to his family” (v10).

When you read what’s going to happen during the Millennium, everyone is going to sit under his own fig tree, and he’s going take care of his own food, his own garden.

Verse 11: “That fiftieth year shall be a jubilee to you. You shall not sow, neither reap that which grows of itself in it, nor gather the grapes of your undressed vine in it.”

Because God said He would give you three years worth of food in the last year. That is the year 48. So you go 49 and 50, and then the 3rd year you have the food.

Verse 12: “For it is the jubilee. It shall be Holy to you. You shall eat the increase of it out of the field.” You’re not to gather; you’re not to reap it, but you can go out and eat whatever there is!

Verse 13: “In the year of this jubilee you shall return each man to his possession. And if you sell anything to your neighbor, or buy from your neighbor’s hand, you shall not oppress one another. According to the number of years after the jubilee...” (vs 13-15).

Then it’s the instructions on how to handle the land. But the point is this: #50 pictures the jubilee! So, when we come to Pentecost and counting 50, what we are actually doing is counting a mini-jubilee, and that ties in with God’s plan for the resurrection. When we first receive the earnest of the Holy Spirit, let’s see what we receive.

Let’s see how to count Pentecost, because this becomes important for us, and to have it the right way. Lev. 23:9 gives us some very important information and understanding:

- when we understand the Hebrew
- when we have the right translation
- when we understand what God is saying how to count Pentecost
- when we understand how it’s going to come about

Leviticus 23:9: “And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ‘Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, “When you have come into the land, which I give to you, and shall reap the harvest of it... [we’re the firstfruits harvest] ...then you shall bring the premier sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the priest.”’

That first of the firstfruits pictured Christ. You’re to bring it. And you can read in the Passover book all the details concerning that.

Verse 11: “And he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD to be accepted for you....”

That’s what we read that Christ did when He ascended to heaven to be accepted for us, as the one sacrifice once for all! His blood covered it. But you see now with the Wave Sheaf and the Wave Sheaf Offering Day we’re going to see must take place on the first day of the week, which is called Sunday today.

Just remember, though the names of the weeks have pagan names on them today that does not detract from the fact that seven days of the week are still the seven days of the week as God gave it in the creation.

Verse 11: “And he... [the priest] ...shall wave the sheaf before the LORD to be accepted for you. On the next day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it.”

This becomes important because the Hebrew here is ‘ha shabbat,’ which means the weekly Sabbath.

Yet, Judaism today follows the pharisaical count of counting from the first Holy Day. That’s how they end up with their Pentecost on Sivan 6. We’re going to go through, and we’re going to look at some charts and see how to count Pentecost and how this mini-jubilee fits in for Christians.

Here’s something he says—vs 12-13—what they were to do with the offering and so forth, the grain offering, the meal offering and so forth. This was to be when they came into the land, because it says:

Verse 14: “And you shall eat neither bread, nor parched grain, nor green ears until the same day, until you have brought an offering to your God. It shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.”

All during the time they were wandering in the wilderness they ate no bread from grain; they ate manna, bread from heaven.

Let’s begin to see how Pentecost is counted. It’s very important; this is a special day; this is a special thing; and there’s special meaning to Christians today concerning counting Pentecost and coming to the 50th day: Pentecost. What it pictures is a mini-jubilee within a Christian’s life!

Verse 15: “And you shall count to you beginning with the next day after the Sabbath... [‘ha shabbat’] ...beginning with the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven Sabbaths shall be complete.”

When we read it in Lev. 25 it was seven Sabbaths of years. So, we have the same thing. “...seven Sabbaths shall be complete.”

This means a complete week, beginning with day 1 through day 7. You cannot have partial weeks because then you get into completely discombobulating the instructions here, and miscounting.

Verse 16: “Even unto the day after the seventh Sabbath you shall number fifty days....”

The 50th day is always the 1st day of the week after the weekly Sabbath, the 7th Sabbath. It’s also the 1st day of the 8th week, which we will see has meaning for us as Christians in relating to the mini-jubilee.

We have other messages that go through and explain all about the grain offerings, and the two wave loaves, and everything like that.

So what we’re going to do now is show you some charts of the Calculated Hebrew Calendar and show you the four^[transcriber’s correction] different ways, or the four]different days on which Passover can occur during the year as you go through time. We’ll see there is a Passover on Monday, on Wednesday, on a Friday and on Sabbath. We’ll see all of those and see how to count with those circumstances and how the variation of Pentecost will occur on a monthly basis from the 5th of Sivan to the 10th of Sivan. So, having it fixed on the 6th on Sivan violates the way to properly count, because there would be no use in counting if it where a fixed day of the month. We’ll take a look at these charts here and go through them one-by-one.

{please refer to charts}

Chart #1—Count to Pentecost with a Monday Passover:

Everything’s keyed to the Passover. With a Monday Passover, it is observed Sunday night. Then we have the Feast of Unleavened Bread through here, and this is the weekly Sabbath during Unleavened Bread. Then is the Wave Sheaf Offering Day. We’re to count beginning with this day, which is inclusive counting, and we number the days.

Wave Sheaf Offering Day is day one. It goes down, you have seven; here’s the first week. Now, we have each day counted, and each day of the count toward Pentecost is in a circle. Now let’s come down to the next month here, Iyôr, you have Nisan then Iyôr, so here is week 2, week 3, week 4, week 5, and each day is listed; week 6—42 days—week 7=49 days.

Then Pentecost over here, which when the Passover is on a Monday, observed Sunday night, Pentecost comes out to be on the 10th of Sivan. Quite interesting, isn’t it? So, this is a sequence of how you count when you have a Monday Passover.

Chart #2—Count to Pentecost when Passover is on a Wednesday

Remember, everything is keyed to the Passover. So, Wednesday Passover, middle of the week, you observe it the night before. This is the same sequence as it was in the year that Jesus was crucified.

Come down here to the 17th, which is the weekly Sabbath during the days of Unleavened Bread, and toward the end of the Sabbath Jesus was resurrected; then ascended to the Father on the 18th, the Wave Sheaf Offering Day.

That's why you count this as day 1, always the Wave Sheaf Offering Day. Let's count through the days here and then the weeks: 1-7 and again we have the days in the circle, and then the weeks in the square. Week 1 thru week 7, which is 49 days to the morrow after the seventh Sabbath: Pentecost, the 50th day, which is on the 8th of Sivan. That's how you count it when you have a Wednesday Passover.

Chart #3—Count to Pentecost when Passover is on a Friday

Now here is the sequence of months beginning with Nisan, when you have the Passover on a Friday, and it's observed Thursday night. The Holy Day, which is the 15th, is also the weekly Sabbath; but remember it's on the day after the weekly Sabbath, which then always puts the Wave Sheaf Offering Day on the 1st day of the week; now that's important when we get to the next one with a Sabbath Passover Day.

So, the Wave Sheaf Offering Day is on the 1st day of the week, and it is day 1 and always must be counted. Then we have the 7 days to the 1st week, which ends in the Sabbath; 2nd week, which ends with the Sabbath; 3rd week ending in the Sabbath, same way with the 4th week thru the 7th week.

Then we have Pentecost here on the 50th day on the day after the 7th Sabbath, 50 days, and that is on 6th of Sivan. So you see the difference. You have the 10th of Sivan, and the 8th of Sivan, now here you have the 6th of Sivan.

Chart #4—Count to Pentecost when Passover is on a the Weekly Sabbath

Here we have some special circumstances to look at. When the Passover Day falls on the Sabbath, and presents some special difficulties, which always have caused people some problems. Now the reason that it has caused problems is because the Passover day is on the Sabbath and you then observe it Friday night.

In this case, you do not have a Sabbath during the days of Unleavened Bread, except the last Holy Day; but then if you start counting the Wave Sheaf Offering Day after the last Holy Day then you loose the whole sequence of things, and the Wave Sheaf Offering Day cannot be outside the Day's of Unleavened Bread.

So what is the solution? The solution is very simple! Since Passover is also an Unleavened Bread

Day, therefore, this becomes the Sabbath. The next day after the Sabbath then is a Holy Day, the 15th day of the 1st month. So, you have a combination here of the Holy Day and the Wave Sheaf Offering Day on the rare occurrence when you have a Sabbath Passover.

For years and years we did not have a Sabbath Passover, and we made the mistake of saying that it's day after the weekly Sabbath during the Feast of Unleavened Bread, which was incorrect.

It should be the 1st day of the week during Unleavened Bread is the day that you begin counting on, which is this day right here. Let's see how this counts: 1 thru 7 complete weeks ending with the Sabbath, which is also a Holy Day.

Now we come down: weeks 1-thru 7 and that's 49 days, 7 weeks. On the day after the Sabbath you have Pentecost. In this case it occurs then on the 5th of Sivan.

This is why we are to count Pentecost, because there will a variation all based upon when the Passover occurs.

I'm sure that those charts will help you understand how to count to Pentecost, and how to get the correct way to do it.

I want to emphasize this, for years it was said that it has to be the Sabbath during the Feast of Unleavened Bread. That is true in three out of four cases when you count Pentecost because there's the regular Sabbath during the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

However when you have it when the Passover is on Sabbath, then the first Holy Day is on the Wave Sheaf Offering Day because the only Sabbath during Unleavened Bread has got to include the Passover in that, because the Passover is an Unleavened Bread Day.

Now there are still a lot of people who say that you only have to eat unleavened bread for the Passover, and then you can have leavened bread until sundown the next day. That's not true!

Passover was an Unleavened Bread day. And just keep in mind—a very simple thing to remember:

The children of Israel ate unleavened bread for the Passover, which we do too. We eat unleavened bread! When they left their homes at sunrise there was no place for leaven to be around. They had unleavened bread; they ate it on the Passover; the Passover Day and the Passover ceremony is a day of Unleavened Bread.

It's easy to understand, as they were making their way to Rameses to assemble for the beginning of the exodus, there were no McDonald's to stop at to get an egg McMuffin, toast or biscuits. It was by practice an Unleavened Bread Day!

Therefore, when you come to the Passover being on Sabbath, then the first Holy Day, being the first day of the week, becomes the Wave Sheaf Offering Day because it is the only first day of the week during the Feast of Unleavened Bread. Now I hope that makes things a whole lot more clear for you.

Let's see the beginning of the mini-jubilee for Christians. This is when you receive the Holy Spirit.

Romans 8:1: "Consequently, there is now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who are not walking according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit; because the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus has delivered me from the law of sin and death" (vs 1-2).

That takes place when you receive the Holy Spirit, after you have repented and have been baptized. That's where we started. Repent and be baptized and receive the Holy Spirit. You have a beginning of a mini-jubilee at that particular time, and then regardless of what it was during the year when you were baptized and receive the Holy Spirit, you come full circle around the Passover and then Unleavened Bread and Wave Sheaf Offering Day, and so forth. All of that has to do with receiving the Spirit, it is the earnest of the inheritance.

So, you have been delivered from the law of sin and death. That's the beginning of the mini-jubilee for all Christians in their lives.

Verse 3: "For what was impossible for the Law to do..." The law could not overcome the law of sin and death that is within us! The only way we can be delivered by it is with God's Spirit. So, when you receive God's Spirit that's when you're able to overcome.

Let's see that the beginning of the mini-jubilee for every Christian is when they receive the Holy Spirit. Now, the mini-jubilee, just the rest of your life from the time that you're baptized until the time of your resurrection, that is the jubilee! You begin the jubilee by receiving the Holy Spirit. That's why Christ came; that why He preached that message in Luke 4. Let's see what it talks about with receiving God's Spirit, which is the begettal, the seed of the Holy Spirit.

1-John 3:9: "Everyone who has been begotten by God does not practice sin..."

You don't live your life in sin because you have been delivered from the law of sin and death inasmuch as that with the Holy Spirit and growing, overcoming and yielding to God, you're able to be delivered in a progressive way from the law of sin and death.

The full deliverance from death does not come until later at the resurrection!

"...because His seed of begettal is dwelling within him... [that's the beginning, the earnest, the down payment] ...and he is not able to practice sin because he has been begotten by God" (v 9).

Now let's see the end of the jubilee, or the symbolism for Christians concerning the 50th day, because the 50th day—just like the 50th year in the Jubilee Year—is a complete deliverance from everything! If you grow, change and overcome, and die in the faith; then the final jubilee is going to be for everyone who dies in the faith; for everyone who is still alive when the resurrection occurs is going to be that day of the resurrection, which is pictured by Pentecost, the full deliverance; the full jubilee for Christians.

Now what we need to do is come back to Eph. 1. We need to remember that #50 is a complete jubilee! Pentecost is the 50th day, a mini-jubilee as I have said for all Christians. It's fitting that this mini-jubilee, which will be the great 1st resurrection is going to be the total redemption that we have so that we are no longer flesh but spirit. Totally redeemed of Christ, and now ready as spirit being in the Kingdom of God to do the work of God.

Ephesians 1:13—speaking of Christ: "In Whom you also trusted after hearing the Word of the Truth, the Gospel of your salvation; in Whom also, after believing, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest of our inheritance..." (vs 13-14).

This is the guarantee, the down payment, and we're trusting in God because God:

- cannot lie
- will not lie
- His Word is the Truth
- the resurrection is going to occur

"...until the redemption of the purchased, possession... [for all Christians at the same time on the 50th day being the Day of Pentecost] ...to the praise of His glory" (v 14).

Now we will see what Paul said; let's see how Paul kind of gives us a little summary of this.

2-Timothy 4:6: "For I am now ready to be offered... [he knew that he was going to be martyred] ...and the time of my departure is at hand."

You can say that this is day 49 for Paul. For whatever day it is for when we die that's day 49 for us.

Verse 7: "I have fought a good fight; I have finished the course; I have kept the faith. From this time forward... [when he's dead and in the grave] ...a crown of righteousness is laid up for me, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me in that day... [the jubilee day for all Christians] ...and not to me only, but also to all who love His appearing" (vs 7-8).

When we come to the book of Hebrews that it shows the jubilee day.

Heb. 12 we've covered this in other messages that we have in this book concerning the Day of Pentecost. But let's just input it right here. This ends the mini-jubilee for all Christians and it all occurs at the same time on the 50th day, which is the day of the resurrection! You can take all of the other things that we have studied leading up to Pentecost, the meaning of Pentecost, put it all together and it shows the great meaning of the Day of Pentecost and the resurrection.

Hebrews 12:22: "But you have come to Mount Zion, and to the city of the living God, heavenly Jerusalem; and to an innumerable company of angels."

That's what it's going to be, and as we have seen, when the saints are resurrected they're brought to the Sea of Glass. You can study that in the other transcripts that we have in this book; and everyone is on the Sea of Glass and it's going to be called, as he says here in:

Verse 23: "To the joyous festival gathering..."—because it is:

- the total deliverance from the flesh
- the total deliverance from death
- the total deliverance from sin

Because as resurrected human beings, now spirit beings, you no longer have the ability to sin!

It is the complete jubilee that happens for all of those in the first resurrection on the day of Pentecost, which then brings the final jubilee for every one of us!

Verse 23: "To the joyous festival gathering; and to the Church of the Firstborn, registered in the Book of Life in heaven; and to God, the Judge of all, and to the spirits of the just who have been perfected."

That's really quite a thing—the harvest of the firstfruits—and that's why it is counted. That's why it must be on the 50th day, and the 50th day is the 1st day of the 8th week.

Now let's understand something else. There is also symbolic significance for us in the 50th day, which is the beginning of the 8th week; 8 is the number of a new beginning! The resurrection day of Pentecost, being the 50th day, and the 1st day of the 8th week is a new beginning for all eternity for all the resurrected saints! That's important to understand, the mini-jubilee as it applies to Christians! Why it has to be 50 days; and why it has to be 7 complete weeks unto the day after the 7th Sabbath.

That's why Pentecost is 50 days, and that's the meaning of the counting of 50 days. All Christians at the resurrection on Pentecost are going to share in eternal life, the 50th day beginning the 1st day of eternity, a new beginning!

CHAPTER THIRTY-TWO

The Lord Shall Fight For You

(Last Day of Unleavened Bread)

Fred R. Coulter

Greetings, brethren! This is the last day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread. We look back at all the Feasts that we've kept down through the years. We've never realized that the time would go this long. But it's going this long and the days around us are more evil than we have ever expected. We just need to, through this Feast of Unleavened Bread—as we have been doing—draw close to God.

With the last day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread we're going to go ahead and take up an offering as we've already seen on the first day of Unleavened Bread that there is an offering on the last day. We're going to go ahead and take up that offering with the same understanding that we've had before. Remember the blessings of God! Remember how God has promised to give you all sufficiency in all things!

Giving the offerings and tithes are all a part of living by every Word of God. I hope that you really appreciate the things that we've been able to do, and we will pick up after the offering is taken up.

(pause for offering)

On this last day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the very theme of this Feast is The Lord Shall Fight For You! God is the One Who is going to give the salvation. We are to see the salvation of the Lord! Let's understand what happened with the children of Israel before they were released on the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

Let's start back and look at everything that took place just in a summary, what God did to save the children of Israel, or rescue them from Egypt! Also, let's understand something very important concerning this: God raised up Pharaoh and all of the evil apparatus with it:

- to show His power
- to declare His salvation
- to rescue Israel so that His name would be glorified in all the earth

It certainly has because we have it recorded for us, and we preach it every year!

Now remember the thing that was important so that we understand the office of Moses and how God was using Moses and Aaron to defeat all the gods of Egypt. As we have seen on the Passover night, when God struck all the firstborn of the Egyptians—all the firstborn of men and beasts—that He judged all the god's of Israel! Of course, the children of Israel didn't understand that the judgment against all those gods meant... Why should they be so foolish as to go to these other gods who were not gods.

Exodus 7:1: "And the LORD said to Moses, 'See, I have made you a god to Pharaoh...'"

That's how Pharaoh would look upon him because Pharaoh could not see the true God. That was reserved for Moses. So since Pharaoh was called a god, since Pharaoh was worshipped as a god, since they worshipped all the animals and things that they did in Egypt, and worshipped the River Nile all of these plagues came upon them because of that. There are six signs and four plagues that took place.

The Six Signs:

1. rod of Aaron that turned into a serpent

The magicians were able to go ahead and counterfeit that, but the rod of Aaron was able, as a serpent, to eat up the serpents of the magicians.

2. the river in to blood

The second sign was pretty powerful. Remember the Nile was considered the river of the gods, or a god, and they worshipped the water and the worshipped the river. It gave life and all of this sort of thing. In the next sign, because Pharaoh hardened his heart, and it was a joint venture. Pharaoh hardened his heart, and God hardened his heart. God was raising him up for the purpose of the destruction of Egypt! God is the One Who can do that because He's God! What did He do? For seven days He turned the river into blood!

3. frogs

Now these were the gigantic frogs that come out of the Nile River, and they just filled the whole land. When that sign was over they just put them in heaps and it stank.

4. dust turns into fleas and lice

It just covered all the animals, covered all the human beings! The whole lesson in all of this is that no one has the power to fight against God! If God be for us, who can be against us? Let's think on that as we're going through this.

So after that, still Pharaoh hardened his heart so then we have:

5. the swarms of flies

Nice big flies going everywhere! However, #5 is the sign of grace, and in the land of Goshen where the children of Israel were there were no swarms of flies. God separated it!

6. murrain caused by the ash

Moses took some ash and threw it in the air! God caused it to go everywhere throughout all the land of Egypt and they had boils from the top of their head to the sole of their foot.[transcriber's correction]

All the animals, all the horses, camels, oxen, all human beings. Well, Pharaoh called 'uncle' on this, so he recanted a little bit. He asked Moses if he would cause it to go away. So, Moses said that he would. Then Pharaoh hardened his heart again all the way through.

The Four Plagues:

1. hail

For it to hail in Egypt is an unreal thing because that's right in the desert. It had never done this from the creation of the world, or since Egypt was a nation. There was thunder and lightening, and all of this going on at the same time they had the plague of hail.

2. locust

After that came the plague of locust, locust everywhere and ate everything that was not in a container. That wasn't good enough they still didn't repent, so there was the plague of:

3. darkness

Darkness so thick that they could feel it! It was so oppressive that the only thing that they could do was stay in bed. All the Israelites had light, but the darkness covered Egypt.

4. death of the firstborn

The fourth one is the important one. This is where God passed over the houses of the children of Israel and spared their firstborn, and executed judgment against all the gods of Egypt, and He killed all the firstborn of the Egyptian children!

After that they let the Israelites go! So, the children of Israel went out with a high hand. Of course, God did not take them the easy way. Here's a lesson that's important for us: God doesn't take us the easy way! There are some hard things for us to do. If you are:

- a 'good-time' Christian
- a 'glad-hander'
- a social creature
- and you attend church because it's just
 - ✓ nice
 - ✓ wonderful
 - ✓ comfy
 - ✓ all your friends are there know for sure you're going to have a trial that's going to come to test you to see:

- whether you love God with all your heart, mind, soul and being
- whether you really trust Him

That's the whole lesson of the last day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread!

In Exo. 14 we see the whole lesson here, and this is where God led them down instead of by the way of the Philistines going on over to the Holy Land, which would have been easy because that just follows right along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea and they would be there in a few days.

God had other plans in mind; He took them down by the way of the Red Sea and they were encamped along the Red Sea, big long line of the children of Israel. The Egyptians had second thoughts about letting them go, so they said, 'Look, we don't have any slaves; we can't do these things.' Pharaoh said, 'I know what I'll do. I'll get all my armies, I'll get all my chariots and we'll go get them and we'll bring them back.'

When the children of Israel saw that they became afraid. Well, God intervened and He put a cloud wall between the Egyptians and the children of Israel. To the Egyptians it was dark, to the children of Israel it was light. Let's see the reaction of the children of Israel, because herein is a great lesson for us. You have to trust God in the tough times as well as the good times!

Exodus 14:10: "And when Pharaoh drew near..."

We can also draw the analogy of Pharaoh and his armies as Satan and the demons, that's true. We can also look at it as the world coming after us! But what we're interested in is the reaction of the children of Israel.

"...the children of Israel lifted up their eyes. And behold, the Egyptians marched after them. And they were very afraid. And the children of Israel cried out to the LORD. And they said to Moses..." (vs 10-11).

- immediately began complaining

- immediately began accusing
- immediately displaying absolutely no faith

The reason I went over the six signs and the four plagues was to show what God had done and the power that God had used to cause the children of Israel to be extracted from the land of Egypt. You would think that they would have said, Oh, look at all that God has done for us; God took care of these Egyptians in Egypt so let's just trust Him to do it now. That's not what they did!

Verse 11: "And they said to Moses, 'Have you taken us away to die in the wilderness because there were no graves in Egypt?... [in other words there were plenty of room for graves there] ...Why have you dealt this way with us to carry us forth out of Egypt? Did we not tell you this word in Egypt, saying, 'Let us alone so that we may serve the Egyptians?'" for it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than that we should die in the wilderness'" (vs 11-12).

That's not what they said! They cried to God and said, 'O God, get us out of this slavery.' What were they doing? They were looking back and comparing what they thought was how good they had everything in Egypt! It's just like people when they first come into the Church and the first trial comes along, they say they've never experienced anything like this before they were converted. There must be something wrong. No, there is nothing wrong. That's the way it is. Here's the reason for it, and here's why we go through these things.

Verse 13: "And Moses said to the people, 'Fear not! Stand still and see the salvation of the LORD...'" That's what we need to do; we need to stand!

- stand for the Word of God
- stand for God
- stand against evil
- stand against human nature
- stand against all the forces that are against us and to realize that with the power of the Holy Spirit we can do it with the conviction of God; God will fight for us!

"...see the salvation of the LORD, which He will work for you today, for the Egyptians whom you have seen today, you shall never see them again! The LORD shall fight for you..." (vs 13-14).

I want you to understand that the Lord shall fight for you and you shall hold your peace! In other words don't complain to God.

- ask God to intervene and help you
- ask God to intervene and change the circumstances

- ask God to intervene and fight your battles for you because He has more power than you do! You've got to trust God!

God will do many great and fantastic things to fight your battles for you, but you have to place it all in God's hands! Just like it is here: "...Stand still and see the salvation of the LORD..." (v 13).

- don't complain
- don't gripe
- don't whine

Let the peace of God rule in your heart, as we covered on the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread!

Verse 15: "And the LORD said to Moses, 'Why do you cry to Me? Speak to the children of Israel that they go forward.'"

That's the whole key for the Feast of Unleavened Bread; that we go forward in spite of everything and anything that comes along!

- we know God
- we love God
- we understand His Word
- we live by it
- we go forward

You know the rest of the story of what happened there!

Verse 16: "And you—lift up your rod, and stretch out your hand over the sea..."

That night He caused a tremendous east wind to blow, and He also parted the waters a great distance, probably a place as much as ten miles wide, and then all of the children of Israel—in the morning watch just before the sun came up—crossed the Red Sea at the same time! A Divine miracle! God intervening and showing them His power!

You know what happened to the Egyptians! They came up there and they looked to the right, and they looked to the left, and they said, 'Go!' Right when he got in the middle of where the sea was going to be God had the angels start taking the wheels off their chariots and they drug heavy, the ground became mud, and then all of a sudden the waters came crashing back, and that was the end of the Egyptians just like God had said! Well now, the children of Israel were very happy, but let's look at what they said. This is really a tremendous lesson for us!

Exodus 15:1. "Then Moses and the children of Israel sang this song to the LORD, and spoke, saying, 'I will sing to the LORD, for He has triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider He has thrown into the sea. The LORD is my strength and song, and He has become my salvation. This is my God, and I will glorify Him, my father's God, and I will exalt Him. The LORD is a Man of war; Jehovah is His name" (vs 1-3). That's what we need to look at!

- IF you have a problem that needs to be overcome, take it to God
- IF you have a complaint against God, go repent and ask Him to intervene and help you
- IF you have a situation that is greater than you can handle, ask God to handle it for you

Let Him fight your battles; put it all in His hands and realize that that's the way that it has to be.

All the way down through history, as we find in the Bible, we see:

- the salvation of God
- the power of God
- the intervention of God
 - ✓ some in great and fantastic things
 - ✓ some in small and little things

Now the first great thing that happened was the Flood, and God saved all mankind through Noah because Noah walked with God and kept His commandments and he found grace. So, God had to destroy the whole world, everything there!

After that, during the days of Abraham we have the story of Lot. Lot was actually what you would call—though he was righteous—weak in the faith! He was confronted with many situations that we are being confronted with now, the on-slide of the homosexuals. Who knows, they probably had homosexual marriages in Sodom and Gomorrah, and all the people thought that that was a great thing. But if it weren't for Abraham, Lot would not have survived; but Abraham intervened and Lot survived. And you know what happened to Sodom and Gomorrah. Of course the one who had the lack of faith and didn't follow was his wife. The angel said, 'Don't look back.' That's an important lesson because Jesus said later, 'Remember Lot's wife.' So, we're not to look back; nevertheless Lot was saved!

Then we have the children of Israel and all the miracles that took place while they were going through the wilderness, and everything that God did.

- the miracle of the manna every morning
- took care of them
- blessed them
- watched over them
- the water out of the rock

But they didn't want to follow God so they rebelled!

They didn't believe God after all that so God had to punish them for their rebellion, and it took another 38-½ years of wandering in the wilderness! Everyone over 20 died, except for Caleb and Joshua. Then they went into the 'promised land' and God fought their battles for them when they did what God said! When they didn't do what God said, He didn't fight for them! They moaned and groaned and complained to God: 'Oh why can't we overcome our enemies?' Because some were stealing the gold that belonged to God! So, the whole history of going through the Bible shows how:

- God will fight for you IF you believe Him!
- God will fight for you IF you trust in Him!

Let's see a Psalm dedicated to that! David's Psalm; quite a Psalm. This shows how God intervenes to help, to fight to save on behalf of those whom He loves!

This was after one of the great deliverances of God; Psalm 18:1: "I love You, O LORD, my strength."

Our whole relationship with God is based on the love of God, as we saw on the Sabbath during this Feast. "I love You, O LORD, my strength." Are you weak? That's where you get strength from!

Verse 2: "The LORD is my Rock, and my Fortress..." Jesus said that we are to build our house upon a Rock (Matt. 7) That Rock is Christ (1 Cor. 10). He's our Rock.

"...and my Deliverer; my God, my Rock in Whom I take refuge; He is my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower" (v 2). If you're in a high tower no one can get at you! That's why he said that.

Verse 3: "I will call upon the LORD..." That's how God will intervene for you! You have to:

- love Him
- praise Him
- worship Him
- call upon Him
- trust in Him
- look to Him to be:
 - ✓ your Salvation
 - ✓ your Savior
 - ✓ the Warrior
 - ✓ the Fighter

He's going to fight your battles for you! We're going to see some more of these things as we go along.

"...Who is worthy to be praised, so shall I be saved from my enemies. The cords of death hemmed me in..." (v 3). How close was he to tragedy in the end? Right at the brink!

"...and the floods of ungodliness assailed me. The cords of the grave surrounded me; the snares of death confronted me. In my distress I called on the LORD..." (vs 4-6). We're going to have times when we have distress! Remember, David was a man after God's heart.

Verse 6: "In my distress I called on the LORD, and I cried to my God; He heard my voice out of His temple, and my cry came before Him into His ears."

Psalm 12:1—this is pretty much the situation that we find ourselves in, in the world today: "Help O LORD, for the Godly man ceases... [Where is someone who's Godly? There aren't any!] ...for the faithful disappear from among the children of men. They speak falsehood each one with his neighbor; with flattering lips and a double heart they speak" (vs 1-2). That's just the way this world is; just nothing but lies and double-speak!

Verse 3: "LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaks proud things, who have said, 'With our tongue we shall prevail; our lips are our own; who is lord over us?'" (vs 3-4).

Perfect description of this society, anything goes! If we don't like a law, we'll change it. Just like up in San Francisco, they've been marrying thousands of same sex so-called couples, in defiance against the law. But they don't think they are breaking the law. But when Judge Roy Moore defied a federal judge and his ungodly illegal order to get rid of the Ten Commandments monument, they said he ought to obey the law of the land. That's just the way that it is in the world.

Verse 5: "'For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, I will now arise,' says the LORD.... [God is going to take action sooner or later] ... 'I will set him in safety from him who puffs at him'" (vs 5-6).

Verse 8: "The wicked walk on every side when vileness is exalted among the sons of men." That is a perfect description of our political system!

Now, let's again see how we are to pray when we are in trouble. Instead of complaining to other people, accusing the ministers, accusing other brethren, go repent!

- ask God to help you!
- ask God to fight your battles

Psalm 4:1: "Answer me when I call... [He will] ...O God of my righteousness. You gave me relief when I was in distress; be gracious to me, and hear my prayer. O sons of men, how long will my glory be put to shame? How long will you love delusions... [just the way it is in the world] ...and seek after lies? Selah. But know that the LORD has set apart the Godly for Himself. The LORD will hear when I call to Him" (vs 1-3).

God will hear; we can be guaranteed of that. When people get discouraged and get distressed and get down and begin to give up, they give in to their weaknesses and sin. That's why it says:

Verse 4: "Tremble, and sin not..." So God will hear our prayers!

Psa.37—this is one to keep in mind; this is really a good Psalm. This is good counsel and advice for us, that's why it's here. You look out and you see the world and all the things that are wrong, all the sin that is going wrong, and somehow they seem to be getting along better, but they're really not.

Psalm 37:1—good advice: "Do not fret yourself... [don't be frustrated] ...because of evildoers, and do not be envious against the workers of iniquity, for they shall soon be cut down like the grass; and wither as the green herb. Trust in the LORD..." (vs 1-3).

That's where we need to put our trust. Not in other human beings, not in circumstances, not in physical things, but trust in the Lord!

"...and do good; dwell in the land and cherish faithfulness. Delight yourself in the LORD..." (vs 3-4). So, this shows that:

- you're happy
- you're joyful
- you understand that Christ has saved you
- you understand that you have the Holy Spirit of God in you
- you understand that God the Father has begotten you so that you, at the resurrection, can become a son or daughter of God

Look, you have eternal life ahead of you! That's what's important.

Verse 4: "Delight yourself in the LORD, and He shall give you the desires of your heart"—according to His will!

The greatest desire of our heart needs to be that we are going to be in the Kingdom of God. The greatest desire that we ought to have is:

- to see God, as the Psa. says
- to see God face-to-face, as Rev. says
- to be there in that resurrection

Here's how you do it:

- through prayer
- through study

- through everything that you do

Not just when you get religious and pray, as some people would look at it, but your whole life and everything you do.

Verse 5: “Commit your way unto the LORD... [everything you do] ...trust also in Him, and He will bring it to pass.” Of course, we have our parts to do:

- concerning health
- concerning healing
- concerning employment
- concerning marriage
- concerning whatever your life is involved in Verse 6: “And He shall bring forth your righteousness like the light, and your judgment like the noonday. Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for Him...” (vs 6-7)—because God’s timetable is always different than our timetable, so we have to wait patiently for Him!

“...do not fret yourself... [don’t become frustrated, worried or concerned] ...because of him who prospers in his way, because of him who carries out wicked schemes. Cease from anger, and forsake wrath; do not fret yourself, it leads only to evil” (vs 7-8)—because that’s what people do!

They’re not trusting in God in the way they ought to be. They’re not patient waiting for the Lord, so something happens and they get angry. That’s why you had the trial, so that you can get rid of your anger and see and know and understand that you have it.

Verse 27: “Depart from evil and do good, and live forevermore.” That’s what the whole Feast of Unleavened Bread is all about:

- put out the leaven, which is sin; put in the unleaven, which is righteousness
- put out the way of man; put in the way of Christ

That’s why Christ said, ‘You have to eat My flesh and drink My blood’ showing that you will live by Him, which means by every Word of God!

Verse 28: “For the LORD loves justice and does not forsake His saints...” So, if you ever think you’ve been forsaken—you haven’t, and you need to repent of that and ask God to help you to trust in Him!

“...they are preserved forever, but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off. The righteous shall inherit the earth and dwell in it forever” (vs 28-29). That means the Kingdom of God and all the earth and everything that is there!

Verse 34: “Wait on the LORD and keep His way...”

Isn’t that the message of the last day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, that we first went through in Exo. 14? Stand still and see the salvation of the Lord! Never give up on doing it!

“...and He shall exalt you to inherit the earth when...” (v 34). So, there is a timing in all of this! There is a time.

The Kingdom of God is not here, therefore we don’t fight. But when we come back with Christ we are going to fight, and we are going to be in charge of putting away all evil. They will either repent or they will be history!

“...when the wicked are cut off, you shall see it. I have seen the ruthless wicked in great power and spreading himself like a luxuriant tree in its native soil. Yet, he passed away, and lo, he was no more; and I searched for him, but he could not be found. Mark the blameless man” (vs 34-37).

IF you are in Christ, which you are, God has imputed the righteousness of Christ to you and you stand before Him Holy and blameless, before God you are perfect! You have to be perfected in attitude, be perfected in character, and it’s an ongoing project!

“...and behold the upright one, for the end of that man is peace. But the sinners shall be destroyed together; the prosperity of the wicked shall be cut off” (vs. 37-38).

The finality of that is going to be with the last part of the Last Great Day when all the wicked are cast into the Lake of Fire and there are no more wicked around.

Verse 39: “But the salvation of the righteous is from the LORD; He is their strength in the time of trouble.” That’s why we need to trust God!

We’re going to see some other things how God intervenes, because He’s really performed some great and tremendous things.

Verse 40: “And the LORD shall help them and deliver them; He shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them because they take refuge in Him.”

Do you trust in God? That’s all a part of the Feast of Unleavened Bread that:

- you get rid of the sin of doubt
- you get rid of the sin of lack of trust

But

- you trust God
- you believe God

- you walk in His way in everything that you do

2-Chron. 20—let’s see how God intervened in great and fantastic ways to save those who feared God and trusted Him, and looked to Him to fight their battles. This is the case of King Jehoshaphat. He had a great army. The children of Moab and Ammon, and the Assyrians were all coming against him to destroy him, and destroy Judah. Notice what he did:

2-Chronicles 20:3: “And Jehoshaphat feared and set himself to seek the LORD, and called for a fast throughout all Judah.”

When you have trouble and difficulty you need to fast and draw close to God, ask for His help, ask for His intervention. So, he called them all together for a prayer. Then he got the answer from one of the prophets of God. A Levite came who was one of the sons of Asaph.

Verse 15—here’s the message: “And he said, ‘Listen, all Judah, and you people of Jerusalem, and King Jehoshaphat! Thus says the LORD to you, “Do not be afraid nor dismayed because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God’s.””

That’s what we need to understand, the battle is not ours; it is God’s, so we trust in Him in faith!

Verse 17: ““You shall not need to fight in this battle. Set yourselves and stand, and see the salvation of the LORD with you... [tie in Exo. 14] ...O Judah and Jerusalem.’ Do not fear nor be dismayed. Tomorrow go out against them, for the LORD will be with you”

Verse 20—here’s what they did on the morrow: “And they rose early in the morning and went out into the wilderness of Tekoa. And as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, ‘Hear me, O Judah, and you people of Jerusalem. Believe in the LORD your God, and so you shall be established. Believe His prophets, and so you shall prosper.””

Profound and important message. We are to believe, trust, have faith, have confidence, and lay it all before God just like Jehoshaphat did here.

Verse 21: “And when he consulted with the people, he appointed singers to the LORD and praisers to praise the beauty of Holiness as they went out before the army, and to say, ‘Praise the LORD, for His steadfast love endures forever.””

Here the priests went out first before the army, and that’s the way God said they should fight their battles, and God was with them!

Verse 22: “And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushes against the children of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah. And they were beaten. “

What God did, He just turned them all against each other and they killed each other. What did they do? They went out there and they found that they were all dead! What did they do?

Verse 25: “And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away their spoil, they found among them in abundance both riches and precious jewels in great number among the dead bodies which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away. And they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it was so much.”

That was a tremendous battle! God intervened, gave them the blessing! God fought for them! If God could do it for them we know God can do it for us. Regardless of what the situation is, regardless of what the trouble may be, God is there, He will help just like this!

We’re going to look at another example here in a minute and see how God intervened to fight and to save His people.

Now let’s see another example of how God intervened for King Hezekiah. What he did when he got the notice from the Assyrians that they were coming and conquering, and that they had destroyed all the nations coming right on down the line. And they sent a letter to Hezekiah: Surrender or we’re going to do to you like we did to all these other nations and their gods.’

2 Kings 19:1: “Then it came to pass when King Hezekiah heard... [the letter read] ...he tore his clothes and covered himself with sackcloth. And he went into the house of the LORD.”

Verse 3: “And they said to him, ‘Thus says Hezekiah, “This is a day of trouble and of rebuke and contempt, for the children have come to the point of birth, and there is no strength to bring forth.””” Sometimes you feel like that! That’s what Hezekiah did; he took it before God.

Verse 14: “And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. And Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD and spread it before the LORD.”

Took his troubles right to God very first thing. He didn’t stop and ask anyone else’s advice. He went right to the Lord.

Verse 15: “And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD and said, ‘O LORD God of Israel Who dwells between the cherubim, You are God Himself, You alone of all the kingdoms of the earth; You have made the heavens and the earth. LORD, bow down Your ear and hear. O LORD, open Your eyes and see, and hear the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to reproach the living God. Truly, LORD, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands” (vs 15-17).

Verse 19: “And now, O, LORD our God, I beseech You, save us out of his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You are the LORD God, and You only.”

This is a perfect example of how we need to go to God with our problems. You go to God and you state the problems. You don’t accuse Him, but you glorify Him. You don’t complain to Him, but you show what the problem is, and you ask God to fight because you are His; you belong to Him. You are His property. He’s promised to take care of you. So that’s exactly what happened. He got the message.

Verse 34: “For I will defend this city, to save it for My own sake and for My servant David’s sake.”

Here’s what God did. Even greater miracle than what happened there with Jehoshaphat; v 35: “And it came to pass that night, the angel of the LORD went out and struck a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians. Now, when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead bodies.”

In other words, He spared the king and probably a few of his advisors, but all of his army was dead!

Verse 36: “And Sennacherib king of Assyria departed. And he went and returned and lived at Nineveh.”

Of course, as he was worshipping in the house of his god, someone came in and assassinated him.

- Did this take care of the enemy? It sure did!
- Did they have to lift the sword to fight? No, they didn’t!

They trusted in God! Perfect example of what we need to do.

Now let’s come to the New Testament and see some things here that are important for us to understand so that we can realize how then we need to look to God. Now we have to overcome self, we have to overcome the sins in us. Let’s understand what kind of determination that we need to have, and what kind of faith that we need to have. Let’s see what the Apostle Paul wrote to the Hebrews telling them what they need to do to overcome and change, and what kind of resolve that they need to have in serving God.

Now after the Apostle Paul had listed out many of the things where God fought for the children of Israel, coming on down through the faith chapter (Heb. 11), we come to:

Hebrews 12:1: “Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great throng of witnesses...”

That’s what the Old Testament is there for. These are examples that we can look to, to see:

- right and wrong
- good and evil
- God intervening and fighting our battles for us

These are the examples that we need to look to!

“...let us lay aside every weight...” (v 1). Every problem, every difficulty, set it aside! God does not want us to dwell on the problem. He wants us to dwell on Him and the solution. So, you set it aside.

“...and the sin that so easily entraps us... [repent of that; we’ve already covered how you do that; confess your sins to God] ...and let us run the race set before us with endurance” (v 1). That’s what we need to do! We have got to finish the course!

Here’s how to do it, v 2: “Having our minds fixed on Jesus, the Beginner and Finisher of our faith; Who for the joy that lay ahead of Him endured the cross, although He despised the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the Throne of God.”

That’s what we need to do. Always have our mind on Christ! Always have our mind on:

- what He did
- how He did it
- why He did it

He did it because He loved us! God the Father sent Jesus Christ because He loves the world and loves us, and we are part of the eternal plan of God!

Verse 3: “Now meditate deeply on Him Who endured such great hostility of sinners against Himself...”

That’s why we need to study the Gospels. That’s why we need to understand what Jesus did and what He went through. Here’s the reason:

“...so that you do not become weary and faint in your minds” (v 3).

There is a proverb that says that ‘if you faint in the day of your adversity, you have very little strength.’

- Who is our Strength? Christ!
- Who is our Savior? Christ!

- Who is our Redeemer? Christ!
- Who is there to fight our battles for us? Christ is!

As we have seen He also has the angels to do His work for him, too.

Verse 4 becomes very important, and in all the struggles and difficulties that we have gone through, this becomes very profound:

Verse 4: “You have not yet resisted to the point of losing blood in your struggle against sin.”

I’ve never anointed anyone for bleeding because they’ve been fighting against sin. What does this show? This shows the effort, determination and steadfastness that we need to have in serving and loving God and in overcoming! We do it by fixing our mind on Christ. Don’t get discouraged and don’t get down because God is doing this for a tremendous and wonderful purpose.

Verse 5: “And you have already forgotten the admonition that He addresses to you as to sons: ‘My son, do not despise the chastening of the Lord, nor grow weary of being reproved by Him; for whom the Lord loves He chastens, and He severely disciplines every son whom He receives” (vs 5-6).

That’s why God didn’t call us to have good perfect lives in the flesh. If you want to join a social club, go to a social club. If you want to go to where everything is smooth and nice, I don’t really think you can find any place on the face of the earth today that’s like that. No! Times are getting difficult and harder, and harder to come by. We need to realize that. God is helping us to develop the character, to have the faith and virtue and character, and eventually come to the point of having the very love of God perfected in us. That’s what God is doing. So yes, there is going to be some correction. Yes, there are going to be some things that change and come along here. Yes indeed, because that’s just the way it’s going to be.

Let’s look at some other things here, the reason for all the trials. Let’s see what Peter says about this, and why we go through these things. He also shows that a great deal of it, yes a great deal of what we go through is because we’re fighting Satan the devil, as well as:

- self
- sin
- the world

So, we’ve got a big battle out there and the way we do it is keep our minds fixed and focused on Jesus Christ, that:

- we know what’s in the Gospels

- we know what’s in the Epistles of Paul
- we know what’s in the General Epistles
- we live by every Word of God

That’s the important thing for us to realize and understand!

1-Peter 5:5: “In the same manner, you younger men be subject to the older men; and all of you be subject to one another, being clothed with humility... [that’s the whole purpose of it] ...because God sets Himself against the proud, but He gives grace to the humble. Be humbled, therefore, under the mighty hand of God so that He may exalt you in due time; casting all your cares upon Him, because He cares for you” (vs 5-7).

Here’s a great mistake a lot of people do. They get worried, they get frustrated, they get upset, and they pace back and forth and they wonder what they’re going to do. But they haven’t cast all their cares upon God! So rather than worry, fret, stew and wonder, go pray! Lay it all before God, “casting all your cares upon Him, because He cares for you.”

- He loves you
- He wants you in His Kingdom
- He wants you to succeed, grow and overcome
- He will give you the strength, the power and perform the work for you

IF you trust in Him and rely upon Him.

It’s like it said where we started: stand still and see the salvation of the Lord, and go forward! Don’t be discouraged! Don’t be down! Don’t let anything take you away from Christ!

*Here’s the reason for it; v 8: “Be sober!.... [don’t get involved with the spiritual drunkenness of this world] ...Be vigilant!....”*

That’s why we have the Feast of Unleavened Bread come along so that it reminds us every year we need to be vigilant. That means on watch! Be on guard!

“...For your adversary the devil is prowling about as a roaring lion, seeking anyone he may devour” (v 8).

Yes, we’re going to have battles against Satan, and he’s going to come after the people of God. That’s just all part of the situation the way that the reality of it truly is. Here’s how we fight him:

Verse 9: “Whom resist, steadfast in the faith... [not wavering back and forth, as James said, and be double-minded man and unstable as water] ...knowing that the same afflictions are being fulfilled among your brethren who are in the world.”

Don’t think that any trial you’re going through is some sort of strange thing that has come upon you. Everyone has them, you have them, so you take them to God. Here's a promise, and you claim this promise. When you're going through a trial:

- ask God to help you understand it
- ask God to help you learn the lesson
- ask God to help you fully comprehend what is going on so that you can take that and make it part of your life and character of the very lesson that you're going to learn!

Then claim this promise, v 10: "Now, may the God of all grace, Who has called us unto His eternal glory in Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a little while, Himself perfect you... [so God is perfecting you individually] ...establish, strengthen, and settle you." That's the purpose of the trials and the difficulties that we go through, so that we can let God fight our battles for us. Then he says:

Verse 11: "To Him be the glory and the power into the ages of eternity. Amen." That's the way we unleaven our lives in Christ:

- by Christ in us
- by growing
- by overcoming
- by looking to God to fight our battles for us

So that we can realize that we are called unto eternal glory! Keeping our minds fixed and focused on Jesus Christ.

Now let's look at some other things here which are important for us to realize. Since this talks about fighting against Satan the devil let's come to Eph. 6 and let's see what we need to do – the very spiritual preparation. Let me tell you this:

- if you're not praying
- if you're not studying
- if you're not living by every Word of God when a trial comes upon you it's going to hit you like a blockbuster

You are not going to know what to do because:

- you're weak spiritually
- you're weak mentally
- you're weak physically

All of those things go hand in hand! When they come, you're overwhelmed and you get discouraged. Here's what we need to do. We need to be strong in the power God.

Satan is out there after us like a roaring lion! He is clever and slick and has all kinds of devices to try and entrap and even deceive the very elect. So, when we have problems and difficulties to come by, do exactly like Moses told the children of Israel: 'Hold your peace, stand still, see the salvation of the Lord and go forward.' And the obvious implication is: not backward into Egypt.

Ephesians 6:10: "Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord..." That comes with:

- patient study
- prayer
- walking in every way of God
- living your life the way that God wants you to do it

That's how you're strong in the Lord!

"...and in the might of His strength.... [because He is going to fight for us] ...Put on the whole armor of God... [not only is God going to fight for us, but we have our part] ...so that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil, because we are not wrestling against flesh and blood, but against principalities and against powers, against the world rulers of the darkness of this age, against the spiritual power of wickedness in high places" (vs 10-12).

We see that more so in this age now. There's just an acceleration of evil everywhere. That is deliberate, and let's understand something; let's just be frank: We ain't seen nothing, yet, because Satan and his forces and troops are out there to destroy every vestige of Christianity that they can through any means that they can! Those are all part of the wiles of the devil, and we're fighting against those wicked spirits in high places!

Verse 13: "Therefore, take up the whole armor of God so that you may be able to resist in the evil day, and having worked out all things, to stand."

Just like Moses said, 'Stand still and see the salvation of God!'

Verse 14: "Stand, therefore, having your loins girded about with Truth... [that is the Word of God, which is true] ...and wearing the breastplate of righteousness, and having your feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of Peace. Besides all these, take up the shield of the faith, with which you will have the power to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one..." (vs 14-16)—because he's there just trying to lob them in. Missiles of lust!

As it says there in Eph. 2, he is 'the prince of the power of the air,' he is the one who comes along to tempt and to induce into sin. He is there. If there's any one thing Satan would like you to do is get discouraged and down and come to the point that you're going to give up on God because you have a trial that you're going through. Well now, you can't let that happen!

Verse 17: “And put on the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God... [it shows an active, growing, overcoming, praying, trusting in God, focusing on Christ] ...praying at all times...” (vs 17-18).

You pray every day, you pray many times during the day, just like Paul wrote, cease not praying (1-Thess. 5). Not only do you pray and put your life in God’s hands every day when the day begins, but during the day you pray and ask God:

- for help
- for wisdom
- for Truth
- for understanding
- for bringing into captivity every thought unto Christ
- for casting down vain imaginations that rise up in your mind against God

That’s how sin so easily besets us. It is a continuous daily thing that we do, praying at all times!

“...with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and in this very thing being watchful with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints...” (v 18).

Brethren, we all need the prayers of everyone. I know my prayer every day is for all the brethren:

- those who need to be healed
- those who need to fight their battles
- those who need to be raised up
- those who are distressed and brokenhearted

Christ came to heal the brokenhearted! Christ came to relieve the distressed! You turn all of that to Him!

- He is there
- He will help
- He will fight
- He has promised
 - ✓ it doesn’t depend on your goodness
 - ✓ it doesn’t depend on your righteousness

Oh, you have your part to do, but it depends on Christ because He has promised!

Those promises are sure, and those promises are true and good like we’ve already seen and Jesus Christ has promised that He will not ever, never leave us and forsake us! That’s something! So, we can have the total faith and confidence in what God wants us to do in trusting Him to fight our battles.

Now let’s see what we are operating against. Christ has saved us; reached down and saved us from our sins in this world!

Ephesians 2:1: “Now, you were dead in trespasses and sins.” That’s how we were before God! God reached down and had mercy on every one of us individually.

Verse 2: “In which you walked in times past according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now working within the children of disobedience.” This is what God has saved us from! That’s why we are not to go back into it!

Verse 3: “Among whom also we all once had our conduct in the lusts of our flesh, doing the things willed by the flesh and by the mind, and were by nature the children of wrath, even as the rest of the world. But God, Who is rich in mercy because of His great love with which He loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, has made us alive together with Christ. (For you have been saved by grace.)” (vs 3-5).

- through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ
- through the power of the Holy Spirit
- through the Word of God

Notice what we are to do here; v 8: “For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this especially is not of your own selves; it is the gift of God...”

Always remember this: you have nothing you didn’t receive! Everything we have is of God.

Verse 9: “Not of works, so that no one may boast. For we are His workmanship... [God is creating Himself in you; we are His workmanship] ...being created in Christ Jesus...” (vs 9-10)—because salvation is creation, creating in us:

- the mind of Christ
- the love of God
- the character of God
- all the fruits of the Holy Spirit of:
 - ✓ love
 - ✓ joy
 - ✓ peace
 - ✓ longsuffering
 - ✓ faith
 - ✓ gentleness
 - ✓ kindness
 - ✓ goodness
 - ✓ meekness
 - ✓ temperance

Against such there is no law! That’s what He is creating in us.

Verse 10: “For we are His workmanship, being created in Christ Jesus unto the good works that God ordained beforehand in order that we might walk in them.”

Now let's understand:

- how we are to look at these things
- how we are to look at the world
- how we are to look at ourselves
- how we are to view the circumstances in which we find ourselves and what God is going to do for us!

Romans 8:9: "However, you are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if the Spirit of God is indeed dwelling within you. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Him."

That's the important thing.. the Spirit of God! As we have seen, if you let that lax and you're not exercising it, then you have to do as Paul said, 'Stir up the Spirit of God that is in you.' That's what the Feast of Unleavened Bread is all about, to stir up the Spirit of God which is in us!

Verse 10: "But if Christ be within you, the body is indeed dead because of sin..."—because you are baptized! All your sins died with Christ and He died for you. Whenever you confess your sins, you put them in the hands of God. They are covered with the blood of Jesus Christ and His sacrifice, you see. So you're not living in sin.

"...however, the Spirit is life because of righteousness.... [Here is a great and tremendous promise] ...Now, if the Spirit of Him Who raised Jesus from the dead is dwelling within you, He Who raised Christ from the dead will also quicken your mortal bodies because of His Spirit that dwells within you. So then, brethren, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live according to the flesh... [we're not to live in the carnal way of this world] ...because if you are living according to the flesh, you shall die; but if by the Spirit you are putting to death the deeds of the body, you shall live" (vs 10-13).

Just like we saw on the first Holy Day. We are to put to death the deeds of the flesh. We are to put all of that out, and we are to put in Christ. That's what he's talking about here. Now if you do that you shall live, and that means to eternal life.

Verse 14—never forget this: "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are the sons of God."

Let's understand something very important here: the Spirit of God is not going to force you. The Spirit of God will lead you, but you have to choose to yield to God, and you have to choose to ask God to help you be led of the Spirit of God!

Verse 14: "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are the sons of God." Satan, as we have seen, wants to come in and give us

- a spirit of fear

- a spirit of doubt
- a spirit of contention
- a spirit of argument with God

Verse 15: "Now, you have not received a spirit of bondage again unto fear, but you have received the Spirit of sonship, whereby we call out, 'Abba, Father.' The Spirit itself bears witness conjointly with our own spirit, testifying that we are the children of God. Now, if we are children, we are also heirs—truly, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ..." (vs 15-17). Stop and think for a minute!

What did Christ inherit? All things! That means the universe; we are joint heirs with Christ! That means we will own part of whatever God gives us of the universe, and He says, 'Here, this is yours, but with Christ.' That is a fantastic and tremendous thing that God has called us to. I think that we can understand more and more about God and more and more about how we need to grow, change and overcome IF we keep that right in the forefront of our mind and be led of the Holy Spirit of God.

Here's a promise, a promise of suffering; "...if indeed we suffer together with Him, so that we may also be glorified together with Him" (v 17).

The Apostle Paul was called to suffer more than any other man except Jesus Christ. He did suffer! How did he look upon those sufferings? Well, he came to rejoice in them because he understood the end result.

Likewise with us, we need to rejoice in them because we understand the end result. Not be like the children of Israel at the Red Sea who complained against God and the circumstances they were in because they couldn't see the outcome. They didn't have faith in God, though He did a miraculous intervention to extract them from the land of Egypt. We're going to be glorified together but we have to suffer.

Verse 18: "For I reckon that the sufferings of the present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that shall be revealed in us."

I want you to understand these next verses here to give us some perspective.

Verse 19: "For the earnest expectation of the creation itself is awaiting the manifestation of the sons of God."

- How important are the sons of God?
- How important is God to you?

So important that Jesus Christ gave His life for you and for everyone individually, because the sacrifice of Christ is applied to each of us individually, continually, standing in the grace of God.

The whole creation is waiting! The world is waiting! Have you ever thought of it this way: the world is waiting for you and me, and all the sons of God down through history! It's waiting! It's needing us, because we are the solution in God's set time!

Verse 20: "Because the creation was subjected to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of Him who subjected it in hope... [we are part of that hope through Jesus Christ] ...in order that the creation itself might be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the freedom of the glory of the children of God. For we know that all the creation is groaning together and travailing together until now" (vs 20-22)—waiting for us!

Let's understand something that's important:

- regardless of your circumstances
- regardless of the difficulties
- regardless of your physical condition
- regardless of whether you are young or old
- regardless of whether you are rich or poor

God loves you and has a purpose for you! Everything in your life is going to work out for good!

Verse 28: "And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God... [that's why we've covered how important the love of God is] ...to those who are called according to His purpose... [and you have been] ...because those whom He did foreknow... [if you have God's Spirit in you He has foreknown you] ...He also predestinated to be conformed to the image of His own Son, that He might be the Firstborn among many brethren... [that's what our destination is, our predestination] ...Now, whom He predestinated, these He also called; and whom He called, these He also justified; and whom He justified, these He also glorified" (vs 28-30).

God is looking at the finished product in you! He's not looking at you the way that you are. He's imputed the righteousness of Christ to you so that you stand before Him blameless and Holy, in love. He is looking to you as if you are now glorified. In other words, He sees and knows what you will be at the resurrection!

- we've received a bit of the glory of God by receiving the Holy Spirit of God
- we've received a bit of the glory of God by having His Word which we can know and understand and live by! Absolutely true!

Verse 31: "What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?"

- there is no trouble
- there's no difficulty
- there is no battle
- there is nothing that can be against us

Now claim that promise through the blood and sacrifice of Jesus Christ!

Verse 32: "He Who did not spare even His own Son, but gave Him up for us all, how shall He not also grant us all things together with Him?"

'Come, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you by My Father.'

Verse 33: "Who shall bring an accusation against the elect of God?... [people can, but that has no standing before God] ...God is the One Who justifies. Who is the one that condemns?..." (vs 33-34).

Satan comes and accuses us day and night before God, but we overcome Him with the blood of Christ!

"...It is Christ Who died, but rather, Who is raised again, Who is even now at the right hand of God... [to fight our battles for us, to give us of His Spirit, to strengthen us, to help us overcome] ...and Who is also making intercession for us. What shall separate us from the love of Christ?..." (vs 34-35).

Is there anything that's going to separate you from the love of God? the love of Christ? The reason that we keep the commandments of God and the Holy Days of God, and the Feasts of God is so that we understand this: nothing can separate us from God!

"...Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?" (v 35). None of those things and we're probably going to face every one of these things in the coming years!

Verse 36: "Accordingly, it is written, 'For Your sake we are killed all the day long; we are reckoned as sheep for the slaughter.' But in all these things... [even if that happens] ...we are more than conquerors through Him Who loved us" (vs 36-37).

- this is the persuasion we need to come to
- this is the attitude that we need
- this is the whole finality of the Feast of Unleavened Bread

Verse 38: "For I am persuaded... [Are you? Are you fully persuaded] ...that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord” (vs 38-39).

That’s the meaning of today. Stand still and see the salvation of the Lord, and go forward with the power and the might and strength of God!

CHAPTER THIRTY-THREE

Nothing is Impossible for God!

(Last Day of Unleavened Bread)

Fred R. Coulter

Greetings, brethren! Welcome to the last day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread!

What a Feast this has been with everything that's been going on. It shows the Truth that a little leaven leavens the whole lump is the sum total of why we have Unleavened Bread. It is so that we can—with the Spirit of God—put in the righteousness of God through:

- His Word
- His Truth
- His Spirit
- living God's way
- trusting Him in everything

In everything!

Leviticus 23:6: “And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to the LORD. You must eat unleavened bread seven days.”

Tonight, after sundown, you can have whatever leaven you desire. It's only during the Feast of Unleavened Bread that leaven is a type of sin!

Verse 7: “On the first day you shall have a Holy convocation. You shall not do any servile work therein, but you shall offer a fire offering to the LORD seven days. In the seventh day is a Holy convocation. You shall do no servile work therein” (vs 7-8).

We also know that we are to give according to how God has blessed us, and think about how God has dealt with you in your life:

- rescuing you from sin
- bringing you out of the world
- granting you His Holy Spirit
- giving you understanding of His Word
- leading and guiding you in the way that you need to go

Think about all of those things when you're making up your offering! It all goes to the use of what God wants.

As you know, we are very careful with the funds—the tithe and offerings—that the brethren send, because it's God's money! We have to use if for every purpose for:

- preaching the Gospel
- feeding the flock
- serving the brethren
- producing to the world the things that is necessary to preach to them

We have a great many things, as you know, for your personal study. If you still have the catalog of all of our literature, go read through that catalog again and order whatever you think you need.

Living in these days when there are a lot of false prophets and false doctrines, and Satan the devil is busy and active, we need to stay close to God in everything that we do!

- God will bless us
- God will be with us
- God will pave the way for us to accomplish His will be it in your life, or the life of all the brethren everywhere!

(pause for offering)

Nothing is impossible for God, and we will see that He brings us to circumstances so that we will trust in Him, that we will have faith in God, faith in Jesus Christ!

Just to show you how important that is, and how it relates to everything that God does, come to Psa. 148, which is quite a little Psalm. This tells us how God created everything that there is. All of these things are important for us.

Notice all the praise to God, because God deserves all the praise:

Palm 148:1: “O praise the LORD! Praise the LORD from the heavens; praise Him in the heights. Praise Him, all His angels; praise Him, all His hosts. Praise Him, sun and moon; praise Him, all you stars of light. Praise Him, you heavens of heavens, and waters that are above the heavens. Let them praise the name of the LORD, for He commanded and they were created” (vs 1-5).

That's a tremendous thing! The Word of God is so powerful, so great that He can command and it will be! Think about this:

- God has called us
- God has promised us eternal life

Remember that it's impossible for God to lie! So, His Word is absolutely true. He also tells us that 'many are the afflictions of the righteous.' Why is that? Because when we have afflictions, we learn to trust in God!

We learn to look to Him! We come to various points in our lives, as we go down the pathway of life, to where there are things that happen that we can't change. We can't do anything about it except believe God and trust in Him! That's how God helps us to build character. This is why we have the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

Psalm 146:5: "Happy is he who has the God of Jacob for his help..." God will help us in all our trials, difficulties, and circumstances! That's why we have this last day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread. Nothing is impossible for God!

- God has decreed that His plan is going to be fulfilled
- God has decreed that all of those who have His Spirit and love Him and obey Him will receive eternal life at the resurrection

Regardless of the trials in the path of your life!

"...whose hope is in the LORD his God"
(v 5).

- What is our hope? The resurrection and eternal life!
- What is the fulfillment of that hope? That we will be raised without sin!

We will be changed from flesh to spirit and God has promised!

Verse 6: "...Who keeps Truth forever." That's why the Word of God is called Truth! It is spiritual and spiritually understood! It is only understood by those who love God and keep His commandments!

We saw with the Night to Be Much Observed unto the Lord, what a fantastic night that was, as they were leaving Egypt. They didn't go very far that first night, but God led them with the pillar of fire by night and the cloud by day. He also gave them great wealth, great everything, because of destroying the Egyptians, their firstborn and everything that they had. Think about this: the children of Israel, leading up to the Passover, saw the plagues of God that came, and awesome they were, indeed! Very powerful!

God's Word is true, and when He said He would do it, He did it! Then He finally had the coup de grace to let the children of Israel go, the killing of the firstborn of all the Egyptians and all of their livestock, which was a mass slaughter!

The children of Israel were spared because they were in their homes and under the blood of the Lamb. Then on the day portion, as we saw, of the Passover they came to Rameses and gathered to go, starting the Exodus! This was all organized, and they left right as the Night to Be Much Observed to the Lord was coming on! By the time the last group left the bounds of Rameses, it was already dark and God was showing that He was going to take His people and bring them to the Holy Mount to give them His laws, commandments, statutes and judgments, and that He would personally speak. The lesser ones He had Moses write down. All from God! But to get there...

One of the assumptions that the children of Israel had was that they were going to go to the 'promised land.' They thought that they would just scoot right along the Mediterranean seashore and come over to the 'promised land' and get it. But God had other things in mind, because He had to give them His laws and commandments, and He had to separate them from the children of Egypt! Here's what God did, and He took them on a little different route.

- How about your life on the path that you have been walking?
- Is it a little different than you had anticipated that it would be? Yes, indeed!
- Do you have circumstances that happen to you that you didn't know of? True!
- That you didn't expect? Without a doubt!

What God did is take the children of Israel, and instead of going on into the 'promised land' they took a turn south and came along the western shore of the Red Sea. At that point it was very narrow between the sea and the mountains. So, there was just enough room for the long column of the children of Israel to be there at the sea. Then Pharaoh, when he heard that they were going that way, said:

Oh, what have we done, we've let all of our slaves go. We don't know what to do. How are we going to have all the chores taken care of? We can't do them ourselves and our firstborn are dead, and the firstborn of the animals are dead. Look at us! We need to go down there and get them and bring them back.

Let's see what happened. Let's look at this; there's a parallel with this: Pharaoh is a type of Satan. Does Satan want to come and get us? Yes, indeed! We've already cover that!

- we need the armor of God
- we need the power of God
- we need faith in God

Our weapons are spiritual: trusting in God! The children of Israel didn't understand that. So, here comes Pharaoh:

Exodus 14:8: "And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, king of Egypt. And he pursued the children of Israel, and the children of Israel went out with a high hand. So, the Egyptians pursued them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army. And they overtook them camping by the sea, beside Pi Hahiroth, before Baal Zephon. And when Pharaoh drew near, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes. And, behold, the Egyptians marched after them" (vs 8-10).

They were completely helpless! They had no weapons, maybe a few swords, a few spears. They had nothing! But they had the greatest defense of all; they had God! Keep that in mind when you're faced with a challenge that's greater than you, more than you can handle, more than you can think about. Take it to God! This is the whole lesson for this day.

"...And they were very afraid. And the children of Israel cried out to the LORD. And they said to Moses..." (vs 10-11).

See, when something goes wrong, you impute wrong motives! 'You did this because you don't love me' or whatever.

"...Have you taken us away to die in the wilderness because there were no graves in Egypt?..." (v 11). In other words:

We're going to be buried out here in this wilderness. It would have been better if we stayed in Egypt. At least there's enough land for graves.

"...Why have you dealt this way with us to carry us forth out of Egypt?" (v 11).

Stop and think! Have you wondered why God called you? That's what they were questioning:

What is God doing? If He's going to give us the 'promised land' what is this all about?

Well, the truth is God has a different plan of bringing it about than the thoughts that they had. God had many things, yet, that He had to do.

Verse 13: "And Moses said to the people, ^[#1]Fear not!.... One of the lessons that we're to learn:

Don't fear, regardless of what happens, because God is there! God is always near, so there's no reason to fear.

^[#2]"...Stand still..." (v 13). Don't get up there and run over to the Egyptians and say, 'Keep me alive and I'll go back and be your slave.'

"...and ^[#3]see the salvation of the LORD, which He will work for you today..." (v 13). Think about that!

Salvation comes from God! Yes, through the sacrifice of Christ we have been saved from our sins. But the ultimate salvation is the resurrection, which is a command of God when the seventh trump blows.

You think about a glorious thing that that's going to be. Remember, the next Holy Day we have is Pentecost, which pictures that. We'll get to that in due time.

1. Don't Fear
2. Stand Still

Don't run off and do your own thing because you think that you have got to do it, rather than trusting in God!

3. See the Salvation of the Lord

"...Which He will work for you today..."

"...for the Egyptians whom you have seen today, ^[#4]you shall never see them again!" (v 13).

4. Shall Never See Your Sins Again

How far does God remove our sins from us when we truly repent and yield to God? As far as the east is from the west!

- sin is like the Egyptians
- sin comes from Satan the devil, who is like Pharaoh
- sin is against God

We, through the power and Spirit of God, can:

- fight against that sin
- resist that sin
- trust in God to deliver us

Verse 14: ^[#5]"The LORD shall fight for you, and you shall be still." Quit your stupid complaining!

5. God Will Fight for You

He will take care of it, and in a way sometimes you don't even know until somewhere down the road you see that God did this!

Verse 15: "And the LORD said to Moses,

‘Why do you cry to Me? Speak to the children of Israel that they go forward.’” That’s what this day pictures!

- we keep going forward
- our goal is the Kingdom of God
- our goal is eternal life
- our goal is to rule the world under Christ in the Kingdom of God

So, we must always go forward! As long as we’re in the flesh, and as long as we live in this world, we’re going to have to:

- fight against sin
- fight against Satan
- fight against society

But God is with us! It doesn’t matter what they do to us!

Verse 16: “And you—lift up your rod, and stretch out your hand over the sea...”

How is that for a weapon? A big rod in his hand and God says, ‘Hold it over the sea!’

“...and divide it. And the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea” (v 16).

Think about that! They were in an impossible situation! They couldn’t go back north, they couldn’t go to the east because the Egyptians were there and God put a spiritual wall between the Egyptians and the Israelites, and it was dark to the Egyptians but light to the children of Israel.

They couldn’t go out into the water and they couldn’t go further south, so they were in an impossible situation with the enemy right there ready to pounce!

So, God had Moses take his rod and God caused the wind to blow and opened the sea, spread it open. This was a big deal. This wasn’t a little channel like you see in most of the movies. This must have been at least ten miles wide, because the whole length of the column of the children of Israel in their marching order was a tremendously long column.

You figure a column of a million people. Maybe not ten miles, but however long it was. They were encamped in a column alongside the shore. So, when God began to divide the Red Sea... Remember, He made it dry ground that had been under the sea and was soft and mushy for how long. Nothing is impossible for God! Remember that! Nothing!

So, He opened the Red Sea, and the wind blew all that night and as morning was coming they all marched in a flanking movement into the Red Sea and across to the other side. Didn’t take them very long to get to the other side. They got to the other side and God lifted the division between the children of Israel and the Egyptians.

The Egyptians saw that they were gone, that they had gone through the Red Sea. They came to the Red Sea and looked at it and thought, ‘It’s all dry!’

Good lesson: God always traps the wicked ones in their own schemes and devices, because they know nothing of God!

Pharaoh said, ‘All right, let’s go!’ So, they all went down into the Red Sea and when they got to the middle of it, God started knocking off the wheels, turning the dry ground into mud. They said, ‘Oh, we’ve got to get out of here! Look at what the Lord is doing!’ And the water came back and they all drowned!

Talk about accomplishing an impossible thing by the power of God! That’s why we have to have faith in God in everything that we do!

- He will lead us
- He will direct us
- He will teach us
- He will help us
- we will overcome sin
- we will overcome human nature
- we will overcome Satan the devil

By the miracle of the power of the Holy Spirit of God with His Word and our living God’s way! That’s reaching the dry ground on the other side of the sea.

Then all the people were happy! Well, you know, carnal nature took hold again, and they complained. Then God brought them to Mt. Sinai and gave them the Ten commandments. Here was another one time thing in the history of the world, that that many people—over a million people, maybe 1.5 million—all the children of Israel camped around Mt. Sinai.

God made a proposition for them. Whenever God does something, it starts out with a simple statement. Just like with us: Repent and be baptized and receive the Holy Spirit! That’s how it starts out. That’s very simple.

God didn’t tell about all the things that would come upon us, and all the difficulties that we would have overcoming—did He? No! But we are to believe God, trust in Him, obey His voice, and do what He wants!

So, when they got to Mt. Sinai, God called Moses up into the mountain and He gave them the proposition. Very simple. The details come later. Isn't that how it is in our lives? Yes, indeed!

Exodus 19:3: "And Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him out of the mountain, saying, 'Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob and tell the children of Israel, "You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you unto Myself'" (vs 3-4).

To the Holy Mountain of Zion, Mt. Sinai; God dealing with all the people directly with Moses personally, face-to-face. This was a tremendous thing, indeed!

Here's the proposition, v 5: "Now, therefore, if you will obey My voice indeed..." *Look at that! Never forget those three words: obey My voice!

Everything we have in the Bible is written down and is the voice of God, so no one can say, 'God, I know you talked to them, but You haven't talked to us. What did you say to them?'

- God had Moses write it all down!
- God had the kings write it down!
- God had the priests write it down!
- God had the Prophets write it down!

So, the Old Testament was compiled and filled with 356 direct references to the coming Messiah Jesus Christ! An amazing thing, indeed! Isn't that something?

"...if you will obey My voice indeed..."—that is don't make any exceptions, don't complain, but truly obey My voice, and keep My commandments! He hadn't given them, yet. But that was coming.

"...and keep My covenant, then you shall be a special treasure to Me above all people; for all the earth is Mine. And you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a Holy nation.' These are the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel" (vs 5-6).

All of that sounded really good and wonderful, so Moses came back and told them all:

Verse 8: "And all the people answered together and said..." Listen to this! If you make a statement like this, remember, God is going to hold you to it!

"... 'All that the LORD has spoken we will do.'.... (v 8). Apply that to the New Testament! Paul writes that 'if any do not adhere to the sound words of Jesus Christ, he is ignorant and knows nothing! From such withdraw yourself!' Same thing! 'Keep My commandments!' That's what Jesus said!

- their promise was a 'promised land'
- our promise is eternal life in the Kingdom of God

So, it's so much greater!

Then God had Moses prepare all the people and get all ready. Then as it turns out, this was on the Day of Pentecost. So, here is Mt. Sinai and all the children of Israel at the base of the mountain, and God told Moses to block if off and don't let an animal come near and no man come near. If any do they shall be 'shot through with an arrow' or a dart!

Here is something that all these people experienced at the same time. An impossible thing that God would speak to the people!

This was to help them to understand how important it was that God was dealing with them, and what He was going to give them, and how they needed to live their lives. This was so they would have long lives and many children. They would receive the blessings of God. He would fight for them in their circumstances in conquering the 'promised land.' He would bless them in everything that they did.

Here is an impossible experience, a one-time experience, never happened before or after! Let's go through the Ten Commandments, and look at them, because this is how we are to live today with the Spirit of God in our mind:

- to love God with all our heart, mind, soul and being
- to love our neighbor as ourselves
- to love the brethren as Jesus loved us
- even to love our enemies

because God's plan is so great that it's going to be awesome, indeed, in the fullness of the working out of His plan! Here God comes down:

- the mountain is on fire
- the trumpets are blowing
- the wind is whirling around
- the earth is quaking
- the mighty power of God is there then it settles down and here is a great flame of fire on top of Mt. Sinai with the smoke going up and the first thing He says:

Commandment #1; Exodus 20:2: "I am the LORD your God, Who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage." I brought you out of sin and slavery! In the New Testament it's the same thing with Jesus Christ!

Verse 3: "You shall have no other gods before Me...—because that's the first thing that people like to do; add on to what God has given, have their own gods. Then the next thing they want to have is their own little idols.

So, commandment #2, v 4: “You shall not make... [look at all the idols that people have developed in the name of Christ] ...for yourselves any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in the heavens above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters under the earth. You shall not bow yourself down to them, nor serve them, for I, the LORD your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of those who hate Me” (vs 4-5).

There's a blessing for loving God; there's a curse for hating God! Never forget that!

Verse 6: “But showing mercy to thousands of those who love Me and keep My commandments.” That, brethren, is New Testament doctrine! Doesn't that sound an awful lot like John 14-16. That's an expansion of it!

This also shows that you're not to have anything between you and the love of God.

Commandment #3; v 7: “You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not hold him guiltless who takes His name in vain.”

The way that the name of God is taken in vain more than anything else is in religious services when people say that God says, when God doesn't say!

Commandment #4; the key to always have contact with God, and this is based upon Him making the Sabbath on the seventh day when he renewed the earth!

Verse 8: “Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it Holy.” One sentence! And everybody forgets it and goes to Sunday.

Verse 9: “Six days you shall labor and do all your work. But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God. In it you shall not do any work, you, nor your son, nor your daughter; your manservant, nor your maidservant, nor your livestock, nor the stranger within your gates.... [Why?] ...for in six days...” (vs 9-11).

In other words, keeping the Sabbath lets you always know that God is Creator of everything! There's no such thing as evolution.

“...the LORD made the heaven and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day. Therefore, the LORD blessed the Sabbath Day and sanctified it” (v 11).

In Lev. 23 and expansion on the Sabbath Day with the Feasts and Holy Days of God. That's how God works! He first gives a very simple proposition, then He gives the main things that need to be done, and then He gives the details of other things under it, which are called judgments, statutes and ordinances! Amazing! That's how God does everything!

Commandment #5; v 12: “Honor your father and your mother....”

Why? Because every single one of us have a perpetual scar right in the middle of our bodies, called the navel, to let us know that we came from our father and mother. Honor father and mother!

It's difficult for children to do it, and it's difficult for parents to train children, but this is necessary so that we understand that as adults life is also going to be difficult and we have to work at it.

Jesus said, ‘My Father works and I work!’ There's a lot of work that we need to do in honoring your father and mother:

“...so that your days may be long upon the land...” (v 12). Think about how many die because they don't do that!

Commandment #6; v 13: “You shall not murder.” The King James say ‘kill,’ but that's not correct!

Commandment #7; v 14: “You shall not commit adultery.”

Those two things that happen the worst, and most of it is because they dishonor father and mother!

Commandment #8; v15: “You shall not steal.”

Commandment #9; v 16: “You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.”

Commandment #10; v 17: You shall not covet your neighbor's house. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his donkey, nor anything that is your neighbor's.” Instead of all the people down there saying:

Oh what a wonderful, awesome thing that this has been. We heard the voice of God, let's all commit ourselves to always love God and keep His commandments.

Well, that's not what happened, but that's what should have happened. The carnal mind does not want to do the things of God.

Verse 18: “And all the people saw the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking. And when the people saw, they trembled and stood afar off. And they said to Moses, ‘You speak with us...’” (vs 18-19).

Isn’t that something? Always like to place someone else between you and God! That’s the way human nature is!

“...‘You speak with us and we will hear. But let not God speak with us, lest we die’” (v 19). God said that He did that to prove them!

Does God prove us with trials and difficulties? Yes, indeed! That certainly shows the things that are important. They sinned against God later:

- made a golden calf
- refused to go into the ‘promised land’
- were turned back and had to wander a total of 40 years in the wilderness before they came into the ‘promised land’

When they did come into the ‘promised land’ they were outside across the River Jordan and Jericho was on the other side and God performed another great miracle. What did He do? He made the River Jordan stop and the water backed up like a big wall, and all the children of Israel walked across over to be on the other side!

- there they kept the Passover
- there they had the Wave Sheaf Offering
- there they had the second circumcision
- there they conquered the land of God beginning with Jericho

That was an impossible thing! High walls, big and thick; so, God used the impossible method! He said:

All right, what you’re going to do is walk around the city once every day for six days. Then on the seventh day you’re going to walk around it, and when I give the word, everyone is to shout.

and all the walls fell in and they went in and took the spoil! Rahab the harlot and her family were the only ones saved because they treated the spies correctly. So, God fought their battles for them! God helped them to conquer all the land!

But after a while the people got a little tired of that, so they didn’t put all the people of the land out! So, God said:

Because you didn’t obey My voice, these are going to be a thorn in your flesh so that you will know that you have to obey the Lord God. He will fight your battles for you IF you trust in Him! But IF you don’t, I’m not going to fight for you.

You can go through all the history of the judges—there were some good judges, there were some not so good judges—and they had various battles here and there, but eventually they conquered the land in seven years. They divided the land, they all had their inheritance as God intended them to have it. They came into the land, God prospered them.

Then God raised up, eventually, David to take the place of Saul. God gave all the plans to David for the temple so David’s son Solomon could build the temple. They had at that time peace, all 12 tribes!

Solomon was king over them and they had a great dedication of the temple. You can read the tremendous prayer that Solomon gave. God put His presence, reaffirming His presence, by having a cloud of His presence enter into the temple.

Then Solomon sinned! God had to take away the ten northern tribes. There was never a righteous king of the ten northern tribes until they went off into captivity in 703-701_{B.C.}

The tribe of Judah was left, along with Benjamin. Some of the kings were very righteous. One of the kings was Hezekiah, who was a righteous king. He was one who cleansed the temple from all the idolatry and they had a great Passover and great Feast of Unleavened Bread.

Let’s see the impossible miracle that God did to save Judah and Hezekiah from the Assyrians!

It was true, the king of Assyria had come and conquered every one of the nations that is listed here. He went into Egypt and took the spoil and he had a huge army, and they were carrying the spoil back to Assyria and they camped right on the border of Judea to capture it, to take Jerusalem. They sent the commander general to speak to the children of Judah who were sitting on the wall and the officials watching it. He came to them and told them all what the king of Assyria had done, and how he got all this treasure and everything.

Now, ‘if you surrender we’ll take you off as slaves, but you will live.’ And he told them not to listen to what Hezekiah will tell you about what God will do for you.

When Hezekiah received a letter, let’s see what happened:

Isaiah 37:14: “And Hezekiah received the letter from the courier’s hand, and read it. And Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD and spread it before the LORD. And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD, saying” (vs 15-15).

Notice this prayer, because we’re going to learn a good lesson from Hezekiah out of all of this:

Verse 16: “O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, who dwells between the cherubim, You are God, You alone of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made the heavens and the earth. Bow down Your ear, O LORD, and hear; open Your eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear all the words of Sennacherib which he has sent to mock the living God. Truly, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the countries and their lands, and have cast their gods into the fire, for they were no gods, but the work of men’s hands, wood and stone; so they have destroyed them. And now, O LORD our God, save us from his hand...” (vs 16-20). Good lesson; only God can save us!

He can intervene in our lives now to save us from whatever circumstance we are in. The ultimate salvation is the resurrection from the dead! That is another impossible thing that God is going to do!

Verse 20: “And now, O LORD our God, save us from his hand so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You are the LORD, You alone.”

Verse 21: “And Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD, God of Israel, “Because you have prayed to Me against Sennacherib king of Assyria.”’”

Notice how effectual a fervent prayer is. At this time Hezekiah was a righteous man. So, he prayed to God.

Verse 22: “This is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning him [Sennacherib], ‘The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and laughed you to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. Whom have you mocked and blasphemed? And against Whom have you raised your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Even against the Holy One of Israel. By your servants you have mocked the LORD and have said, “By my many chariots I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars of it, and its choice fir trees; and I will go to its greatest height, the finest of its forests”’” (vs 22-24). That’s looking at the nations and looking at Israel!

Verse 25: “‘I have dug and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet I have dried up all the streams of Egypt.’ Have you not heard from long ago how I made it? From ancient times, even how I have formed it? Now, I have brought it to pass that you should lay waste fortified cities into ruinous heaps” (vs 25-26). That’s what the King of Assyria did!

Here they are, all out there camping. Let’s see what God did.

- you talk about God fighting for you
- you talk about God intervening to help you
- you talk about trusting God

Look! One of the greatest blessing that can happen is when you come to the point that you know that you are helpless:

- you need God
- you need His intervention
- you need His mercy
- you need His healing
- you need His love

That’s a great blessing. That’s why we have afflictions!

Here’s Hezekiah with this great army out there. What could the children of the Jews do?

Verse 33: “Therefore, thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, ‘He shall not come into this city nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a bank against it.... [to come up over the walls] ...By the way that he came, by the same way he shall return, and shall not come into this city,’ says the LORD. “For I will defend this city to save it...” (vs 33-35).

Remember what God told the children of Israel: Stand still and see the salvation of the Lord, for I will fight for you!

In each case, they got to the point that there was nothing they could do. Everything was against them, but God intervened!

Verse 35: “For I will defend this city to save it, for My own sake and for My servant David’s sake.”

Notice what God did, v 36: “Then the angel of the LORD went out and struck a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of Assyria....”

There they are, going to sleep at night, going to get up in the morning and prepare for battle and go up and take the city of Jerusalem, and take all the treasures and get everything that there is and kill as many as they can. So, God sent the angel and they all died in their sleep, except the king and his chief officers.

“...And they rose early in the morning, and behold! They were all dead corpses” (v 36).

- Can God take care an army quickly?
- Can He fight against the enemy for us efficiently?
- Does He know how to do it? Yes, He does!

Now let's see what happened to Sennacherib; v 37: "And Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. And it came to pass as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons struck him with the sword. And they escaped into the land of Ararat; and Esar-haddon his son reigned in his place" (vs 37-38). Killed by his own sons!

God knows how to fight for us! When God has fought for us, we don't need to do like the children of Israel. What happened? Three days afterward they complained to God because they didn't have any water! So, they came to Marah where there was water, and the water was bitter, and they cried, 'We're all going to die!'

What did God have Moses do? Cut down a tree and throw it into the water and it made the water sweet! They all had plenty of water. God was able to take care of it!

Now, when we come to Hezekiah, after this great miracle and this happened, what a great thing took place? God told Hezekiah to set his house in order because you're going to die!

Isaiah 38:2: "Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed to the LORD, and said, 'Remember now, O LORD, I beseech You, how I have walked before You in truth and with a whole heart, and have done that which is good in Your sight.' And Hezekiah wept with a great weeping. Then came the Word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying, 'Go and say to Hezekiah, "Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father, 'I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; behold, I will add to your days fifteen years'" (vs 2-5).

Here's the lesson: When a blessing comes from God don't get lifted up in vanity! Here's what happened. All the treasure that all the soldiers had in the Assyrian army, the children of Judah went down and brought all of the expensive things—gold, silver, copper, and all the precious stones—and put them in the treasury house of God.

The king of Babylon heard of this mighty defeat of Assyria, because this was important, because Assyria was dominating Babylon at that time. The king of Babylon was just a vassal king.

Isaiah 39:1: "At that time Merodach-Baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he had heard that he had been sick, and had recovered."

The long and the short of it is that they came and flattered Hezekiah and he got lifted up in his vanity.

Lesson: After God has fought your battle for you, and you have won, don't get lifted up in vanity and do something stupid like Hezekiah!

Hezekiah got lifted up, and they said, 'Oh what a great thing that has happened. You must be the greatest king on earth. Now you're the richest king on earth. What did they bring you?'

Hezekiah said, 'Come and see!' He took them and showed them everything, all the wealth and all of the treasure and things that God had given as spoil.

Verse 3: "Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah, and said to him, 'What did these men say? And where did they come from to you?' And Hezekiah said, 'They have come from a far country to me, from Babylon.' Then he said, 'What have they seen in your house?' And Hezekiah answered, 'All that is in my house they have seen; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them'" (vs 3-4). That was very stupid!

Don't do anything stupid after God has fought a battle for you and you win, and then you get lifted up in your own vanity.

Verse 5: "Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, 'Hear the Word of the LORD of hosts. "Behold, the days come when all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon. Nothing shall be left," says the LORD'" (vs 5-6).

That happened in the days of King Nebuchadnezzar; took it all!

Verse 7: "And of your sons which shall issue from you, which you shall beget, they shall take away; and they shall be officials in the palace of the king of Babylon." We know that was fulfilled with Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego!

Notice Hezekiah's attitude. He didn't repent! After all God did for him, and after all he repented of and prayed and asked God to spare him from the Assyrians and the armies of 180,000, and got all the treasure, everything, and then did this stupid thing! Even after God added 15 years to his life, notice his bad attitude:

Verse 8: "Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, 'Good is the Word of the LORD which you have spoken.' And he said, 'For at least there shall be peace and truth in my days.'"

That was terrible! He turned to be so selfish that he didn't even think about what's going to happen after he dies. Could have been different. Think of the things that could have been different. And guess who took his place? Manasseh! One of the most evil kings of all, for 55 years! You know the rest of the story.

Let's come to the New Testament and see what Jesus says to us. Remember that whenever God blesses you and fights a battle for you, be thankful, be humble, and don't be all lifted up and in a bad attitude. That won't work!

Jesus was explaining about marriage and what it should be, and that it's difficult for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven (Matt. 19:23-24).

Matthew 19:25: "But after hearing this, the disciples were greatly astonished and said, 'Who then is able to be saved?' But Jesus looked at them and said, 'With men this is impossible...'" (vs 25-26).

Think about that. There are many things that are impossible for men to do.

1. they can't raise the dead
2. they can't bless like God
3. they can't fight the enemies like God can
4. it doesn't matter who you are, and how much wealth you have, if you don't humble yourself, you're not going to be saved

"...but with God all things are possible" (v 26).
Think about that as you look at your life!

- look at the things that you have been doing
- look at your sins
- look at the leaven that has come into your life this past year and during the Feast of Unleavened Bread you have been getting them out asking God:

- to help you
- to strengthen you
- to make it possible for you to overcome and He will! "...With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible."

Matt. 17—here's about praying. This is what is important. This is why we need:

- the Truth
- the love
- the Spirit of God
- the conviction of God to believe what God has said, and to know that He is for us and that there is nothing that is going to hold us back from receiving eternal life! Here's what Jesus said in casting out a demon:

Matthew 17:20: "And Jesus said to them, 'Because of your unbelief...'"

When you don't have the faith, what do you need to do? You need to do like the man who pleaded with Jesus to cast the demon out of his son. He said, 'Lord, help my unbelief!' In other words, 'Lord, give me belief to overcome my unbelief.' God will do that! God wants us to believe!

"...For truly I say to you, if you have faith as a tiny mustard seed, you shall say to this mountain, 'Remove from here,' and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible to you" (v 20).

Stop and think for just a minute. What would that accomplish by moving a mountain? Well, it would move a lot of things! But what is more difficult than moving mountains? Converting the mind! Converting your thoughts is more difficult than moving a mountain! Of course, all of it has to be according to God's will.

Let's see where we are many times in our life, because we have a lot of things to overcome, a lot of things to put aside, a lot of things to be forgiven. Yes, we do because we're human beings.

After going through everything in Heb. 11—by faith... Everything that is listed of the patriarchs by faith they believed God in spite of the circumstances involved.

What did He do that was impossible? What He told Sarah. Nothing is impossible with God! Here she was 90-years-old to bear her son Isaac, as God said it would be. Abraham said it would be. He was strong in faith and He believed, and Sarah also believed. Did it happen? Yes! At the appointed time! Quite an amazing thing! That's why Sarah laughed!

'Do you think a woman 90-years-old is going to have a child and nurse a child?' The Lord said, 'Why did you laugh?' She said, 'I didn't laugh.' The Lord said to her, 'Yes, you did. At this time next year you're going to have a son.' Impossible, but it happened!

From Isaac that continue on from Abraham, and from Isaac onto Jacob, and then on down to the Christ. Did it all happen as God prophesied and said that it would? Yes! Every one of these things were by faith!

Hebrews 11:1: "Now, faith is the substance..." Spirit is a substance, and:

- we're to have the faith of Christ; that is a spiritual gift
- we're to have the love of God; that is a spiritual gift

“...of things hoped for... [if you already have it, you don’t hope for it any longer, you have it] ...and the conviction of things not seen” (v 1). That’s something we all need to have more of:

- conviction of the Truth of God
- conviction of the righteousness of God
- conviction and faith in what God has said that He is able to do

Verse 2: “For by this kind of faith the elders obtained a good report. By faith we understand that the worlds were created by the Word of God, so that the things that are seen were made from things that are invisible” (vs 2-3).

Then it goes through everyone: Abel, Enoch...

Verse 6: “Now, without faith it is impossible to please God...” It can’t be by what you think alone. But it must be according to the Word of God, the Spirit of God and His promises!

“...For it is mandatory for the one who comes to God to believe that He exists...” (v 6). And everything that He has said in the Bible.

Why don’t you do this for a Bible study: look up every place where it talks about God:

- who He is
- what He’s done
- how He’s done it
- the way He has done it
- why He has done it

That will help you with your faith! Remember:

- it’s impossible for God to lie
- it’s impossible for us to believe God unless we have faith
- we know that He exists
- we know that He is there
- we know that He has called us
- we know that Christ came
- we know that He was raised from the dead
- we know that He’s at the right hand of God
- we know that He’s our High Priest
- we know that He’s there to intercede for us

“...and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him” (v 6)—not halfhearted!

Remember, we’re living in a Laodicean age where there are so many things that people are satisfied with them, and have grown rich and they don’t know that they’re slipping away like Hezekiah did and do stupid things! That’s why Jesus says to the Laodiceans, ‘As many as I love I rebuke and chasten, therefore, repent!’ That’s what the Feast Unleavened Bread is all about for us.

Every year it comes so that we learn that it’s not going to be of ourselves; it’s going to be of God! It’s not going to how we think it’s going to be, it’s going to be the way that God says it’s going to be!

- we can believe God
- we can believe His promises
- we can trust in Him

Everything that He has said, He will do!

Heb. 12—here’s how we are to do it. We’re not to do like the children of Israel who when they came to the Red Sea, ‘Oh, how are we going to get across the Red Sea?’ They got across, God made a way! God will make a way for you, whatever your circumstances are!

Hebrews 12:1: “Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great throng of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight...”

Everything that burdens you down. Don’t let it burden you down. Come to God, pray about it, overcome it and get it out of your life.

“...and the sin that so easily entraps us... [especially in this society with so many things of Satan the devil out there everywhere and in the air] ...and let us run the race set before us with endurance” (v 1).

- not stopping
- not giving up
- not getting discouraged

But being encouraged that God is always with us! He says in the Psalms, I am with you in your troubles! He will help us out of them! The final solution is the resurrection. We all have to be faithful to the end!

Verse 2: “Having our minds fixed on Jesus...”

That’s why we have the four Gospels; go through them again, study them again. He was the Lord God of the Old Testament, and He’s coming as King of kings and Lord of lords, and we’re going to be part of that!

“...the Beginner and Finisher of our faith...” (v 2).

He began it by calling us. He’s going to finish it by helping us to overcome, change and be perfected to the end.

“...Who for the joy that lay ahead of Him endured the cross, although He despised the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the Throne of God” (v 2). Think about the contrast of that.

- crucified and nailed to the stake
- dieing an ignominious death
- raised from the dead
- ascended during Unleavened Bread to the Throne of God
- victorious over everything

That’s going to apply to us! Think about that

Verse 3: “Now meditate deeply on Him Who endured such great hostility of sinners against Himself so that you do not become weary and faint in your minds.” Don’t do that! That’s why we have the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

Verse 4: “You have not yet resisted to the point of losing blood in your struggle against sin.” Isn’t that true?

- let’s see what it is for us
- let’s see how it works

Think about everything in your life that takes place is going to happen for a purpose. All of those things are going to be so that we can:

- learn different lessons
- learn love and obedience
- understand that God is working in our lives
- realize that we cannot save ourselves, or work it out ourselves

If you’ve got trouble, don’t say you’ll pray when you have it solved! NO! You’re not going to get it solved until you pray first!

Rom. 8:28—regardless of what the difficulties are, this we need to know. This gives us the hope and assurance, and having our mind fixed on Christ.

Romans 8:28: “And we know that all things... [everything that occurs to us] ...work together for good to those who love God... [with all your heart, mind, soul and being] ...to those who are called according to His purpose... [which we have been] ...because those whom He did foreknow He also predestinated to be conformed to the image of His own Son... [greater things ahead] ...that He might be the Firstborn among many brethren” (vs 28-29).

We can hardly wait to understand more about Pentecost and the resurrection, and what a time that’s going to be!

Here’s a guarantee if you keep walking the way that God wants, keep trusting in God in the things that He has said. You believe in God and His promises, not doubting. And continue running the race you’re running with endurance.

Verse 30: “Now, whom He predestinated, these He also called; and whom He called, these He also justified; and whom He justified, these He also glorified.”

The only glory we have now is the receiving of the Holy Spirit with the promise, the earnest of the full spiritual promise that comes at the resurrection.

Verse 31: “What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us... [which He always is for us] ...who can be against us?”

- no one
- no thing
- no man
- no circumstance
- nothing that is in this life

Verse 32: “He Who did not spare even His own Son, but gave Him up for us all, how shall He not also grant us all things together with Him?” He’s going to grant it to us!

Verse 33: “Who shall bring an accusation against the elect of God? God is the One Who justifies. Who is the one that condemns? It is Christ Who died, but rather, Who is raised again, Who is even now at the right hand of God, and Who is also making intercession for us” (vs 33-34).

Think about all of this for you! Everyone of us, each and every one whom God has called! Notice that if you have this belief, this hope, this conviction:

Verse 35: “What shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?”

All of those things we may have to face. All of those thing brethren in the past faced. They took it in stride and in praise to God. Many of those who were carried off to be burned at the stake, killed and tortured by the Roman Catholic Church, against all of the churches in the Piedmonts in Northern Italy.

When they carried them off, they were singing hymns to God, forgiving those who were killing them, burning them at the stake. Think about that! If you think that you have had troubles, you need to get on your knees and thank God that you’re not going through that now, so that you can have strength and hope to face the things that you’re looking at right now. We haven’t had to face those things!

Verse 36: “Accordingly, it is written, ‘For Your sake we are killed all the day long; we are reckoned as sheep for the slaughter.’” Another martyrdom is coming again in the future!

Verse 37: “But in all these things... [everything listed here] ...we are more than conquerors through Him Who loved us”—because those things can never defeat God!

- it’s impossible to defeat God
- it’s impossible to defeat His purpose
- His Word is true
- He says that we will be raised from the dead
- He says that we will receive eternal life

That will happen!

Verse 38: “For I am persuaded... [this is the conviction and persuasion that we need to have]: that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord” (vs 38-39).

God will do the impossible! He has proved it time and time again! This is why we have the Feast of Unleavened Bread, so we can:

- trust in God
- look to His help
- look to His salvation
- believe His promises
- believe His Word

We know that we can love Him with all our heart, mind, soul and being!

This is the meaning of the last day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread!

Events Leading Up to Pentecost

CHAPTER THIRTY-FOUR

Events Leading Up to Pentecost

Fred R. Coulter

Let's begin in a rather unusual place because I will refer you to Exo. 19 & 20, which we will cover partly tomorrow concerning the first Pentecost and the giving of the Ten Commandments at Mount Sinai, and let's go all the way to Exo. 33, and let's begin there, because this, I think points, out the situation: what happens when you forget Pentecost or you forget God!

I think God will tolerate some people being confused on how to count Pentecost; at least they are attempting to keep it. I can understand the various reasons for people doing it the various ways they have done it. However, in each case in thoroughly examining it, I have found that they are missing vital elements of Scriptural understanding to handle it in the proper way! So, what we are going to do is concentrate on the events that happened after Moses went up on the mountain, and I think we are going to see some very important things.

Exodus 33:1: "And the LORD said to Moses, 'Depart, go up from here, you and the people whom you have brought up out of the land of Egypt...'"

Here is where they start this exchange—'your people, Moses,' and Moses says to God, 'Your people, God.' So they're kind of pushing the people back and forth as to who is responsible. It's just like when mother and father have a child that disobeys. The one who finds out that they've done wrong runs to the father and say, 'Your son...' and then it's the other way around, 'Your, son...' So, Moses is being told, 'Now look, these are your people...'

"...to the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, 'To your seed I will give it.' And I will send an angel before you. And I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite; to a land *that is flowing with milk and honey; for I will not go up in the midst of you..." (vs 1-3). That's a very interesting statement!

Exodus 25:8—the instruction that God was giving Moses: "And let them make Me a sanctuary so that I may dwell among them."

Exodus 33:3—now God says: "...for I will not go up in the midst of you..."

- What are we dealing with here? A lot of people are wondering:

- Where is God? Same experience!

When we go through this, I want us to relate it to the experience we are going through today. Later when we get into another section in Jeremiah, I want you to relate it to the world and the parallel course within the Church. I think we are going to see some astounding parallels.

"...for you are a stiff-necked people, lest I consume you in the way.' And the people heard these evil tidings, and they mourned, and put no ornaments on themselves" (vs 3-4).

- Remember the ornaments they received, the ornaments of gold and silver?
- What do you suppose these ornaments really were? They were the idols of the gods of Egypt!
 - ✓ or the crosses
 - ✓ or the crucifixes
 - ✓ or the Ankh cross that has the egg-shape on top

So, they took off their ornaments. What did they do with these ornaments in Exo. 32? They made a golden calf!

Verse 5: "And the LORD had said to Moses, 'Say to the children of Israel, "You are a stiff-necked people. If I will go up into the midst of you, in a moment I will consume you. And now put off your ornaments from you, that I may know what to do with you.'" And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by Mount Horeb" (vs 5-6).

- Can we think of a New Testament lesson concerning idolatry?
- What did the Apostle Paul say concerning an idol? To whom an idol is nothing, it is nothing!

These people were going back to idolatry, so strip them away. 'You can't be trusted. You see this thing and it becomes a god to you. I am God in your presence,' God was virtually saying that 'in the pillar of cloud and fire, and yet, you won't honor Me.' I'm just sort of summarizing some of the things that we are going to come across here.

Notice what Moses did; v 7: "And Moses took the tent..."

They had a little tabernacle there, before they built the big one, which is called the Tent of the Meeting, where God would meet with Moses.

“...and pitched it outside the camp and pitched it outside the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it the Tent of Meeting. And it came to pass, everyone who sought the LORD went out to the Tent of Meeting, which was outside the camp” (v 7).

Now let’s think about this: In a church and in our lives can we do actions that will cause God to exit? Yes! Maybe some people asking what’s going on in the Church today ought to ask:

- Did God leave because they forced Him out?
- Because of believing things that were idolatrous against God?
- Very possible; probably absolutely true!

Verse 8: “And it came to pass as Moses went out to the tent, all the people rose up, and each man stood at his tent door and gazed at Moses until he had gone into the tent.”

We’re getting a little bit of discipline here, aren’t we? When Moses went out the whole camp—this is on a formal occasion, obviously—had to stand up and watch Moses walk out of the camp and go to the tabernacle of the congregation. When he got there:

Verse 9: “And it came to pass as Moses went into the tent, the cloudy pillar descended and stood at the door of the tent, and the LORD spoke with Moses. And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tent door. And all the people rose up and worshiped, each man at his tent door.... [put off on the side] ...And the LORD would speak to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. And he returned again to the camp. But his servant, Joshua the son of Nun, a young man, did not depart from the tent” (vs 9-11). So he had Joshua out there guarding it!

Verse 12: “And Moses said to the LORD, ‘Behold, You say to me... [here is this argument going back and forth] ...“Bring up this people.” And You have not told me whom You will send with me....’” He said, ‘Now if you are going to leave us, how are we going to do this?’

“...Yet, You have said, “I know you by name, and you have also found grace in My sight.” Now, therefore, I pray You, if I have found grace in Your sight, make me see now Your way, that I may know You, that I may find grace in Your sight. And consider that this nation is Your people” (vs 12-13).

Some church leaders may be right when they say that certain members in their congregation are their people, because they’re taking a possession that belongs to God! No one having the Spirit of God belongs to a minister; just a little insight as we are going along here.

Verse 14: “And He said, ‘My presence shall go with you, and I will give you rest.’ And he said to Him, ‘If Your presence does not go with me, do not carry us up from here; for how shall it be known that I and Your people have found grace in Your sight? Is it not in that You go with us? So we shall be separated, I and Your people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.’ And the LORD said to Moses, ‘I will do this thing also that you have spoken, for you have found grace in My sight, and I know you by name” (vs 14-17). God said, ‘All right, now I’m going to go ahead and go back there,’

Verse 18 “And he said, ‘I beseech You, show me Your glory.’ And He said, ‘I will make all My goodness pass before you, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before you. And I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will have mercy on whom I will have mercy.’ And He said, ‘You cannot see My face, for no man can see Me and live.’ And the LORD said, ‘Behold, there is a place by Me, and you shall stand upon a rock. And it will be, while My glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and will cover you with My hand while I pass by” (vs 18-22).

Exodus 34:1: “And the LORD said to Moses, ‘Cut out two tablets of stone like the first ones. And I will write upon the tablets....’” So he did that!

Verse 4: “And he cut out two tablets of stone like the first ones. And Moses rose up early in the morning and went up to Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tablets of stone. And the LORD came down in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD” (vs 4-5).

Verse 6: “And the LORD passed by before him and proclaimed, ‘The LORD, the LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy to the thousandth generation, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, but Who will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children’s children, to the third and to the fourth generation” (vs 6-7).

Verse 8: “And Moses made haste and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshiped. And he said, ‘If now I have found grace in Your sight, O LORD, I pray You, let my LORD go among us, although it is a stiff-necked people. And pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for Your inheritance.’ And He said, ‘Behold, I make a covenant.... [God had redo the whole Old Covenant again, because they broke it with their idolatry] ...Before all your people I will do marvels such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation. And all the people in whose midst you are shall see the work of the LORD, for it is an awesome thing that I will do with you. Observe that which I command you this day...” (vs 8-11).

Then He goes and He reiterates the things that He did with the first giving of the Ten Commandments.

Verse 21: “You shall work six days, but on the seventh day you shall rest. In plowing time and in harvest you shall rest. And you shall observe the Feast of Weeks, of the firstfruits of wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering at the year’s end” (vs 21-22). Then He reiterates everything that He shows all the way down!

Verse 28: “And he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights. He neither ate bread nor drank water. And He wrote upon the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments.” So, He re-did the whole thing again!

Verse 29: “And it came to pass as Moses was going down from the mountain of Sinai, the two tablets of the testimony being in Moses’ hand as he went down from the mountain, Moses did not know that the skin of his face had become luminous through His speaking with him. And Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, and behold, the skin of his face had become luminous. And they were afraid to come near him. And Moses called to them. And Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned to him, and Moses talked with them. And afterward all the children of Israel came near. And he commanded them all that the LORD had spoken with him in Mount Sinai. And Moses finished speaking with them, and he put a veil on his face” (vs 29-33).

The question was: He didn’t eat or drink for forty days. Does that mean that when Christ was fasting that He didn’t eat or drink for forty days? It is very possible! I’ve said before maybe Christ drank water while He was fasting, but this may be a good indication that He didn’t need to.

I missed an important part back in Exo. 32, when Moses came down the first time and saw all the people were naked:

Exodus 32:26: “Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp and said, ‘Who is on the LORD’S side? Come to me.’ And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves to him. And he said to them, ‘Thus says the LORD God of Israel, “Each man put his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and kill each one his brother, and each one his companion, and each one his neighbor””

That is all of those who were involved in the nakedness of the orgy that they were involved in and worshiping the golden calf!

Verse 28: “And the sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses. And there fell of the people that day about three thousand men.”

Then he went back up on the mountain! A very interesting parallel could also be happening with the Church, too.

Let’s see something that is so very important for us to realize. Very seldom have the people of God stayed really faithful and true to God. The Israelites didn’t, the Judahites didn’t, and look what happened to Solomon. I mean, Solomon is really a great case to study of what happens when you have everything given to you and laid out on a platter for you. Even God spoke to Solomon twice, but what did he do? He made Jerusalem the center of Baal worship! That’s what he did; he built temples to every god under the sun. So, here (in Jeremiah) is where it degenerated to, just before God was ready to destroy Jerusalem.

Let’s draw the parallel in the nation with what’s happening today. It’s almost incredible. Hardly anybody in the government today can tell the truth. It is unreal. When you watch the news shows on Sunday morning, if you watch them—I’ve given up watching them because they just become nothing but political propaganda gristmill anymore—what they tell you, virtually take the opposite and know that that’s the truth.

So it is the same thing here. It’s throughout the whole society, and I think we’re also dealing with a situation that when the society, which applies to a church as well, comes to a certain point then God just gives it over to its own devices and He leaves! That doesn’t mean that God has given up, it just means that He has excused Himself from their presence because their behavior and their attitude is so idolatrous that God will not stay there. That’s why Moses had to plead with God, ‘Please come back into the camp and take these, Your people.’ So God did!

God wants to give mercy so He says, Jeremiah 5:1: “Run to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in her open places, if you can find a man...”—one single person, and that’s almost the way it is in society today! Can you find one person who will do this:

“...if there is one who does justice, who seeks the Truth... [that’s the hardest thing in the world for people to really seek] ...and I will pardon her" (v 1).

God says He was willing IF they found A man, to say: 'OK, I'll pardon all the inequity of it, and I will spare the people for one man.'

Verse 3: "O LORD, are not Your eyes on the Truth? You have stricken them, but they have not grieved; You have destroyed them, but they have refused to receive correction; they have made their faces harder than rock; they have refused to return."

- we can say that in relationship with the society
- we can say that in relationship with the Church

Verse 4: "Therefore, I said, 'Surely these are poor; they are foolish; for they do not know the way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God. I will go up for myself to the great men, and will speak to them; for they have known the way of the LORD and the judgment of their God.' But these had altogether broken the yoke and had torn off the bonds!" (vs 4-5).

I have a chart showing that every one of the leading persons in the United States Government (George W. Bush administration) to all of the appointee offices: Secretary of State, Secretary of Treasury, Secretary of Transportation, and so forth—every single one down through three layers all belong to the Council on Foreign Relations—every single one! If you know anything about them and the world conspiracy...

This is what Jeremiah experienced, he went to the wise men, he went to the leaders saying, 'Surely they ought to have God's judgment, surely they ought to know.' "...But these had altogether broken the yoke and had torn off the bonds!"

Verse 6: "Therefore, a lion out of the forest shall kill them, and a wolf of the deserts shall rob them; a leopard shall watch over their cities. Everyone who goes out from them shall be torn in pieces..."

Again, let's apply this spiritually and physically. Didn't we just have a cougar attack on a woman out jogging? I'm not saying that's a great fulfillment of this, but I'm saying: Are we entering times when those things are going to be that way? Certainly! Let's apply this people-wise:

- Are there people who are called wolves? Yes, there are, false prophets!
- What do they come to do? Seek to kill, destroy and take!

The same thing! So, we can have these parallels going all the way down. Here is the reason:

"...because their sins are many and their backslidings are multiplied" (v 6). This is so true!

When I go down to the area of Southern California and have a Bible study down there, believe me: They are all so backslidden that so many of them can hardly stand to take the Truth. It is incredible, but that's what has happened.

Verse 7: "How shall I pardon you for this? Your children have forsaken Me, and have sworn by them that are not gods" changing the Truth of God into that which is a lie!

One of the leading evangelists in Worldwide preached and said that the Worldwide Church of God never taught that there were two Elohim, never taught that Christ was the Logos, never taught any of these things.

"...have sworn by them that are not gods..."

- Is that in the society? Yes!
- Is it in the Church? Yes!

"...When I had fed them to the full, then they committed adultery, and gathered themselves by troops in a harlot's house" (v 7).

Verse 8: "'They were like lusty, well-fed stallions in the morning; every one neighing after his neighbor's wife. Shall I not punish for these things?' says the LORD. 'And shall not My soul be avenged on such a nation as this? Go up upon her walls and destroy; but do not make a full end; take away her branches, for they are not the LORD'S. For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very deceitfully against Me,' says the LORD. They have lied against the LORD and said, 'It is not He; neither shall evil come on us; nor shall we see sword nor famine...'" (vs 8-12).

That's exactly what people are saying in the world today, and people are saying in the Church today.

Verse 13: "And the prophets shall become as wind, for the word is not in them; thus it shall be done to them."

That's why we have to check out every doctrine. What does it say? Don't be carried about with every sleight of the wind of doctrine by cunning of men! Their prophets shall become wind. There it is right there, a foretelling of it in the Old Testament that Paul said was fulfilled in the New Testament.

Verse 14: "Therefore, thus says the LORD God of hosts, 'Because you have spoken this word, behold, I will make My words in your mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them.'"

Of course, they don't like it. You don't have to get all vain, and you don't have to get all uppity, you just have to speak the truth!

Verse 15: "Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from afar, O house of Israel," says the LORD. "It is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you do not know, nor understand what they say."

Isn't it interesting what religious doctrines are being brought into the Church of God, the same religious doctrines that are coming from this nation, mainly Chaldeanism.

By the way, Carl Franklin got a book where he finds the exact sayings of Stavrinides {from former WCG} that come right out of ancient Chaldean philosophy—word for word quotes that are now becoming doctrines of the church (WCG). God says He is going to visit for this, and He goes on and shows what He is going to do.

Verse 17: "And they shall eat up your harvest and your bread, your sons and your daughters they shall eat up. They shall eat up your flocks and your herds; they shall eat up your vines and your fig trees. They shall beat down your fortified cities with the sword."

All of the defenses that are put up are not going to work. It is the same way in the Church. What was the defense of the church? Don't read anybody else's literature; that defense is gone! Don't talk to anyone who is not in this church; that defense is gone! In talking to a man who called me the other day, I said, We take the opposite philosophy. We figure that you can read anything and if you can't understand the Truth, then you better get grounded in it because denying people to read something is not going to keep them from the difficulty. Now it is don't study the Bible unless a minister is there.

Verse 19: "And it will be, when they shall ask... [they come back and they talk back to God] ...'Why does the LORD our God do all these things to us?'...."

We will see when we get to Revelation here, because I am tying this into the events that lead up to the things happening in the Church in the book of Revelation: Do we have a church that talks back to God? Yes! Same thing here!

"...Then you shall answer them, 'Just as you have forsaken Me and served strange gods in your land, so you shall serve strangers in a land that is not yours.'" (v 19).

Today we are seeing strangers are coming in. You go to your local supermarket, and it's like going to a different nation.

Verse 20: "Declare this in the house of Jacob, and cry it in Judah, saying, 'Now hear this, O foolish people and without understanding; who have eyes and see not; who have ears and hear not'" (vs 20-21).

Is that not also in the Church as well as in the world? Yes!

Verse 22: "Do you not fear Me?" says the LORD. "Will you not tremble at My presence, even I Who have placed the sand for the boundary of the sea by a never-ending decree, so that it cannot pass it? And though they toss themselves, yet, they cannot prevail; though its waves roar, yet, they cannot pass over it. But this people has a revolting and a rebellious heart; they have revolted and are departed from Me. And they do not say in their heart, 'Let us now fear the LORD our God, Who gives both the former and the latter rain in its season; He reserves to us the appointed weeks of the harvest'" (vs 22-24).

That's why the second title I had was, When You Forget the Feast of Pentecost!

Verse 25: "Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withheld good things from you. For among My people are found wicked ones; they lie in wait, as one who sets snares; they set a trap, they catch men. Like a cage full of birds, so their houses are full of deceit..." (vs 25-27)—so true!

When I was reading and preparing for this message, I just could not get over the parallels that are in the society and in the Church. It is unreal!

"...therefore, they have become great and grown rich" (v 27).

Yet, there are people today who say that the gauge of a church's spirituality is how much money they have. Be careful!

Verse 28: "They have become fat, they have become sleek. Yea, they excel in evil deeds; they do not plead the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet, they prosper; and they do not defend the right of the needy. Shall I not punish for these things?" says the LORD. "Shall not My soul be avenged on such a nation as this? An astounding... [that's what it means] ...and horrible thing has happened in the land. The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and My people love to have it so, and what will you do at the end of it?" (vs 28-31)—when God calls it to account!

I was just stunned when I read that with just all the things that have been happening.

Let's see what Daniel did. Daniel was one of the ones who really repented. Daniel was one of the ones who really turned back to God.

Daniel 9:1 “In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans, in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, understood by books the number of the years, which came according to the Word of the LORD to Jeremiah the prophet, that the desolation of Jerusalem would last seventy years” (vs 1-2).

He didn’t understand what Jeremiah wrote until way toward the end of the seventy years. Then he repented.

Verse 3: “And I set my face toward the LORD God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes.... [frankly, brethren, that’s what the Church of God needs to do] ...And I prayed to the LORD my God and made my confession, and said, ‘O LORD, the great and awesome God, keeping the covenant and mercy to those who love Him, and to those who keep His commandments, we have sinned and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, and have turned aside from Your commandments and from Your ordinances. Neither have we hearkened unto Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings, our rulers, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. O LORD, righteousness belongs to You, but to us confusion of face...’” (vs 3-7).

Doesn’t that tell you what’s going on in the country and in the Church, confusion, everybody is confused. Why, because they have left God.

“...as at this day to the men of Judah and to the people of Jerusalem, and to all Israel who are near and who are afar off, through all the countries where You have driven them...” (v 7).

Isn’t the Church being scattered today? Yes it is! It parallels! It’s amazing! Stunning!

“...because they dealt treacherously with You. O Lord, confusion of face belongs to us, to our kings, to our rulers, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against You” (vs 7-8).

I tell what, there isn’t going to be any straightening out of doctrine or knowledge of Truth and doctrine until this kind of repentance and admission is made before God. It won’t happen!

Verse 10: “Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God to walk in His laws, which He set before us by His servants the prophets.” Then he goes through and says, ‘O God, all these things have happened!’

Verse 18: “O my God, incline Your ear and hear...” *That’s what we need to do for this Pentecost: have an ear to hear!

- Isn’t that something when you run the parallel there?
- God will hear us when? When we hear Him!

“...Open Your eyes and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by Your name. For we do not present our supplications before You on account of our righteousnesses, but because of Your great mercies” (v 18). That’s what needs to happen with the whole church, all the brethren everywhere!

Verse 19: “O LORD, hear; O LORD, forgive; O LORD, hearken and do. Do not delay, for Your own sake, O my God; for Your city and Your people are called by Your name.”

Then he was given the prophecy of the 70 weeks of the coming of the Messiah!

Rev. 2 & 3—we are going to see some tremendous parallels, because part of the thing we are dealing with, with the events leading up to Pentecost, are the things that are happening within the Churches of God.

Revelation 1:18—after seeing the vision of Christ, He says to John: “Even the One Who is living; for I was dead, and behold, I am alive into the ages of eternity. Amen. And I have the keys of the grave and of death.”

In other words: God is going to judge whom He is going to resurrect, when He is going to resurrect, and what resurrection it will be!

“...and of death” (v 18). He is the only One Who can give us life!

Verse 19: “Write the things that you saw... [up to this point] ...and the things that are, and the things that shall take place hereafter. The mystery of the seven stars that you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden lampstands, is this: the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches; and the seven lampstands that you saw are the seven churches” (vs 19-20). Christ said He would walk in the midst of them!

Let’s understand something as we put this together, because Rev. 2 & 3 is everything that we have pretty well understood that it is.

- yes, it is the seven churches which were literally then
- yes, it is a prophecy of God’s Church down through time

We have defined it in the past as eras. That’s not necessarily wrong, but it was not as clear-cut as people like to make it be understood that they thought it was, because we see that these are also the seven attitudes that you find at any one time within the Church. These are all the major problems that will confront the Church, etc.

Revelation 5:5: “Then one of the elders said to me, ‘Do not weep. Behold, the Lion Who is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome to open the book, and to loose its seven seals.’ Then I saw, and behold, before the Throne and the four living creatures and before the elders was standing a Lamb as having been slain... [that is Christ alone] ...having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God that are sent into all the earth” (vs 5-6). Let’s focus in on the seven horns!

- Why would the symbol of Christ, being a lamb, have seven horns?

Well, we can answer the question this way!

- What do horns in the Book of Daniel represent?

Each horn we know each horn represents a king or a kingdom. So, if you have a horn in the head of Christ, seven of them...

- Who is the Head of the Church? Christ!
- Can we conclude properly then that these seven horns represent the Churches of God through history that Christ is the head of? Yes, I think that would be a fair statement!

We can also conclude that it refers to the seven churches as we found in Rev. 2 & 3. That would also be another conclusion we can come to without stretching the Scriptures at all—because we know Christ is the Head of the Church. He dwells in the midst of the Church:

- He is the Lamb Who takes away the sins of the world
- He was the Lamb Who was slain
- He is the Lamb with the seven horns

I am sure the seven Spirits of God also apply to the seven churches... I am sure that applies to the seven angels of the seven churches, because it is both.

Now let’s just review parts on Rev. 2 & 3, I am not going to concentrate on it. We know, not definitely, but we can conclude from the things we have seen that there is every reason to believe that this has to do with:

- the history of the churches
- the seven churches
- the attitudes of the churches
- the practices of the churches
- with the major confrontation of the churches and Satan the devil

All of those you can put all together!

It is interesting as you look back in your Christian life, I think you are going to see that many of these things you have gone through and you have experienced. Now the first church:

Ephesus

Revelation 2:2: Christ said: “...‘I know your works, and your labor, and your endurance, and that you cannot bear those who are evil; and that you did test those who proclaim themselves to be apostles, but are not, and did find them liars.’”

- What is one of the biggest problems we have to do today?
- Is that not it?

I’m not talking about in someone’s personal life that they may tell a lie because they are weak, or they feel as though the truth would be too damaging in some little low-level thing here.

That could be repented of, and Christians tell lies, they shouldn’t, but Paul said, ‘Lie not one to another.’ But what have we found? When you really get to the truth of examining the doctrines that we have learned, and some of the doctrines, which were mistakes—some of them that were not true—what have we found? Everyone we held in high esteem, we found to be a liar! I could name names, but no use naming names. Any name you can think of would be it. Are we to find them liars? Yes we are, especially concerning doctrine! So, we have to do that.

Now then, they had their problem—they did a lot of work, they had a lot of patience—they lost their first love (v 4). So, they had to repent.

Verse 7: “The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the Churches. To the one who overcomes I will give the right to eat of the Tree of Life that is in the midst of the paradise of God.”

Smyrna

Verse 8: “And to the angel of the Church of the Smyrneans write...”

Here is the one you wouldn’t think would be a Church of God because:

- they are thrown in jail
- they are ridiculed
- they are put down
- they are killed
- they are slaughtered
- they are poor
- they are despised by everyone

I tell you what: The world loves a winner!

Sidebar: Here in this area we have a sports phenomena: it is the San Jose Sharks. Everyone will know what I mean. No one was interested in hockey. No one could care about hockey, and the first two years they were the dregs and the pits of the National Hockey League.

All of a sudden, they made it to the play-offs, and then they beat the number one team, and everyone now is jumping on the bandwagon, right? Yes, because people love a winner. Remember when the Oakland Athletics were doing great and winning pennants? Everyone loves a winner! But when you are down and out, no one wants you.

It was the same with Christ! Remember when He fed the 5,000? Boy, we got a winner! We're going to make Him king (John 6). They were going to come by force and make Him king, because 'we love a winner.' So, He escaped. When He was on the cross, they said, 'We'll give you one last chance to be a winner. You come down off that cross and we will believe that you're the Son of God.'

When everything is going good, everyone wants to jump on the bandwagon, but what does God have to do when you've got a bandwagon full of 'band-wagoners' and not the 'real McCoy'? He's got to shake the bandwagon, because the ones who jump on the bandwagon because they love a winner are not really 'true blue.' That's why the Church at Smyrna is such a powerful church. That's why Christ said, 'You are rich, even though you are poor. Don't fear death. I have died.'

Verse 11: "The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches..."—and all the way through, it's all the churches!

The reason I'm going through this is because the seven weeks to the harvest is the time of the harvest of the seven churches, and that pictures everything that the Church is going to do. So, He says to the Churches:

"...The one who overcomes shall not be hurt of the second death" (v 11).

Then we come to two of the most problematic churches there are.

Pergamos—right there in Satan's capital!

- Do the ways of the world affect the Church? Yes, they do!
- What's one of the biggest problems that has happened to the Church of God today? The same thing here, two of their great sins:
 - ✓ organized according to a corporate structure
 - ✓ hierarchical authority from the top down

'If the minister says it, I'm off the hook, because the Bible has assured me that he is going to stand before God and my judgment.'

Now people don't phrase it that way, but that's how they look at it. You still hear it today, 'Oh brethren, come and attend this church. If you are here you are going to receive salvation.' Not so! They had:

- the doctrines of Balaam
- ate things sacrificed to idols
- committed fornication spiritually and everything there. You can read it in our book Lord, What Should I Do? So He says that you have to overcome this (v 17).

Thyatira

Here we have all the 'women's libbers.' We have a woman prophetess Jezebel. That tells what kind of doctrines they were getting; calls herself a prophetess. They went clear into the depths of Satan, but God wanted to make everyone know something clear and sure.

Verse 23: "And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am He Who searches the reins and hearts; and I will give to each of you according to your works."

God made sure that everyone knew that everyone was responsible for taking care of it. He tells them to overcome, keep the first works.

Verse 26: "And to the one who overcomes and keeps My works unto the end, I will give authority over the nations."

Sardis

Then in history we come to the Church which is called Sardis and after all the things that you go through with these other churches, you come up to Sardis—they're dead, they have a little life and they are just about ready to collapse and have only a couple of things left, and God says, 'I'll be merciful to you. You keep those few things that you have and I will not deny you before My Father.'

Isn't that something? You think about that! Christ says that IF you do those few things and I won't deny you, which tells us that IF you don't do those things, you're denying Christ and He'll have to deny you. Didn't Jesus say, 'The one who denies me, I shall also deny'?

Philadelphia.

I think there is something most interesting about the Philadelphians: a true Philadelphian does not know who he really is because you read the parable of the goats and the sheep, and you remember what He said to the sheep? Enter into the Kingdom!

He said because when I was hungry, when I was down and out, when I was in prison, and so forth, you came and visited me. And they said, 'Lord, when did we do that?' They didn't know they had done it! He said, 'Because you have done it to the least of these, my brethren, you have also done it unto Me.'

We won't belabor the point with the Philadelphians, we've had plenty enough sermons going over that, pro and con. But He says:

Verse 13: "The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."

Laodicea:

Verse 14: "And to the angel of the Church of the Laodiceans, write: These things says the Amen, the faithful and true Witness, the Beginner of the creation of God."

Now we come to a contemporary time, which is:

- talking back to God
- not believing God
- being rich and increased with goods
- spiritually taking off their clothes because they are naked

They are literally taking off their spiritual clothes and telling God 'I'm in good shape.' We know that the white clothing or the white raiment is the righteousness of the saints.

Revelation 19:8: "And it was granted to her that she should be clothed in fine linen, pure and bright; for the fine linen is the righteousness of the saints."

They are not doing the righteousness of God. Here we have all of these churches and let's just throw into the mix of it all the problems of the Churches at Corinth:

- divisions
- following men because they are a man
- not building on the foundation of Christ
- thinking they have already got it made
- all kinds of prophecies
- all kinds of Psalms
- talking in tongues
- bowing down before idols

All of those problems!

Now then, there is going to come a time when all of this is going to come to a screeching halt, and we are all going to be brought to the reality of things that are going to happen. It is going to come as a shock! Then we are going to come to the time that we have right here when God says, 'That's it! Now is the time'! This is when Christ is given the scroll.

Revelation 5:1: "And in the right hand of Him Who sits on the Throne... [God the Father] ...I saw a book, written within and on the back, which had been sealed with seven seals. And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, 'Who is worthy to open the book and to loose its seals?' But no one in heaven, or on the earth, or under the earth was able to open the book, or to look inside it" (vs 1-3).

This is telling us that there are some things in there that no one understands, yet. We have a bare little glimpse of it, don't we?

Verse 4: "And I was weeping greatly because no one was found worthy to open and to read the book, or to look into it. Then one of the elders said to me, 'Do not weep. Behold, the Lion Who is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome to open the book, and to loose its seven seals'" (vs 4-6). And then he saw the Lamb with seven horns!

Verse 11: "And I saw and I heard the voices of many angels around the Throne, and the voices of the living creatures and the elders, and thousands of thousands, saying with a loud voice, 'Worthy is the Lamb Who was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory and blessing'" (vs 11-12).

Every man that wants to set himself up as a prophet, and one of them is ready to proclaim himself one of the two witnesses any time someone comes up with enough evidence. read this: Christ is going to do it! He alone is going to open it!

Verse 13: "And every creature that is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and those that are on the sea, and all the things in them, I heard saying, 'To Him Who sits on the Throne, and to the Lamb, be blessing, and honor, and glory, and sovereignty into the ages of eternity.' And the four living creatures said, 'Amen.' And the twenty-four elders fell down and worshiped Him Who lives into the ages of eternity" (vs 13-14).

Then the seals are opened. The first seal is the white horse. A lot of these things we know, we've gone over many times. Let me just review them. I've said in the past:

Revelation 6:2: "And I looked, and behold, there was a white horse; and the one who was sitting on it had a bow, and a crown was given to him; and he went out conquering, and to conquer."

We have always looked at that and said that's got to be the Catholic Church. It fit the Catholic Church up to a certain point. Let's think of it beyond just the Catholic Church and let's understand that the reason a horse is used is because things happen suddenly. I think the world is ready for a great common religious, spiritual, revival to bring together all religions. I think we've given enough messages in the past to show that that's the way it's going, which will include the Catholic Church and all of those, so called Christians, and also all the other religions of the world.

I still remember the ad from IBM which showed the Tower of Babel, which was crumbled down and they boasted, 'We are now able to finish what they started.'

This is going to come suddenly. This is part of the events leading up to the fulfilling of Pentecost, and they are going to do miracles! Right now there are a lot of people talking about aliens come to help us! What if they bring a new religion? Everyone says this is wonderful. We can now have peace, we can now get along, and there are miracles that are performed. Everyone likes a winner; remember that. When there comes along this great religious movement, everyone's going to be considered a winner. It's going to be a wonderful event for them. I would have to say we need to think in that term, along those lines.

Verse 3—the second seal: "And when He opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, 'Come and see.' And another horse went out that was red; and power was given to the one sitting on it to take peace from the earth, and to cause them to kill one another; and a great sword was given to him" (vs 3-4). I think that's going to happen, which we'll see where that fits in!

When the great religious leader comes on, there is also going to be the great military leader and it's going to come on. He is going to come and it will come to this point: all the world is going to worship him. He is going to receive the deadly wound that will be healed!

Revelation 13:4: "And they worshiped the dragon, who gave his authority to the beast. And they worshiped the beast, saying, 'Who is like the beast? Who has the power to make war against him?'" In other words, you can't resist his war-making powers!

Speculation: I want you to think of the UN. How many members vote? You have ten, plus five who are the permanent members. What if they add two more permanent members—Japan and Germany? Now how many do you have—seven and ten. Think on it; very possible. What if, and I have heard this suggested: The way we can have world peace is to turn over all nuclear weapons under UN control. Think on that for a minute. Who is able to make war with the beast? Now then, think what is going to happen when whoever the leader of the UN is, is killed and comes back to life or one of the seven heads. That disturbs the peace.

Then he is going to go make war and here is what's going to happen. I think the second seal and Rev. 6:5 fit exactly together, and vs 3 & 4 tie in together with Rev. 13:4-8.

Verse 5: "And a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies was given to him; and authority was given to him to continue for forty-two months.... [after the deadly wound was healed] ...And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His name, and His tabernacle, and those who dwell in heaven. And he was given power to make war against the saints, and to overcome them; and he was given authority over every tribe and language and nation. And all who dwell on the earth will worship him, whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. If anyone has an ear, let him hear" (vs 5-9). That means we need to really pay attention!

Now then, of the events leading up to Pentecost, we have the third seal a black horse, famine, shortage of food. That can come on us quickly.

- How long could you last in the event you couldn't buy any food at the grocery store or there was war or cut off?

Let's reverse the question:

- How many times a month do you go to the store? Or if that is too many:
- How many times a week do you go to the store? You might be able to calculate that!

I know there are times when I go to the store three or four times, because it's close!

- How long could you exist? Not very long!

So, you don't have to wait for any great monstrous event to take place, it's just going to happen once and that's going to be it!

Then we come to the fourth seal, which death as a result of that. I tell you, we have these super-viruses, super-bacteria, super this and that and everything else, it's going to come and when there is starvation, lack of food, lack of water, and WHAM! Throw in the mix:

- all kinds of rats
- all kinds of insects
- all kinds of insane people running around killing, taking, looting and stealing
- cannibalism

All that will be part of it! Then they are going to come after us!

The fifth seal is the martyrdom of the saints. That's going to be something! Then there is going to be an event that leads up to the fulfilling of the next to the last and the last Pentecost that is going to startle this whole earth:

Revelation 6:12: "And when He opened the sixth seal, I looked, and behold, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as the hair of sackcloth, and the moon became as blood; and the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as a fig tree casts its untimely figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind. Then the heaven departed like a scroll that is being rolled up, and every mountain and island was moved out of its place" (vs 12-14).

You're not going to watch this on NBC, CBS, ABC, or CNN, or CBNC newscasts. This is going to happen suddenly. so much so that:

Verse 15: "And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the powerful men, and every bondman, and every free man hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains... [everything is going to be in an upheaval] ...and they said to the mountains and to the rocks, 'Fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him Who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, because the great day of His wrath has come, and who has the power to stand?'" (vs 15-17). This is going to be something!

- What's going to happen when that scroll of heaven rolls back?
- What is going to be seen? They are going to see something!

They're going to know it is something coming from outer space. They may not call Him Christ. The false prophet is going to call Him antichrist.

Matt. 24—this is the event leading up to the fulfilling of the next to the last Pentecost and the last Pentecost, and I will just say right here that I believe that the sixth seal happens on the next to the last Pentecost. I think that is based on fairly sound Scriptures, as we will see.

Matthew 24:21: "For then shall there be Great Tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until this time, nor ever shall be again. And if those days were not limited, there would no flesh be saved... [living] ...but for the elect's sake those days shall be limited. Then if anyone says to you, "Behold, here is the Christ," or, "He is there," do not believe it. For there shall arise false Christs and false prophets..." (vs 21-24). Let's figure that they don't all have to be religious!

- Do we not have saviors for the economy? Yes!
- Do we not have saviors for increasing the human race genetically? Yes!

- Do we not have prophets telling us how good things are going to be? Yes!
- Do we not have religious people doing that? Yes!

Let's put it all in the whole mix. Someone mentioned to me that he thought this might be a possibility, I don't know. His opinion was that he felt that Rush Limbaugh was a secular prophet telling them the truth and telling the truth to people that you can't get to listen to from a spiritual prophet, but God is going to make sure that they hear it! I would say, that's a reasonable opinion. So we need to realize that there are going to be those, there are also going to be false prophets.

Now notice what they are going to do. So mark it, brethren, and watch, there are going to be more miracles done. They are going to allow religious programming, and I think that means within programs, religious scenes of prayers and things like that on prime time. But I tell you what, what's going to happen when there are 500 television channels? I mean if you are fed up with the garbage with just twenty-plus channels, times that by five and by five. Five times twenty is 100; times five is 500. But that is going to give opportunities! So watch, there are going to be miracles that are going to be done, great signs and wonders. Some of them can be medical signs and wonders. not only just healings, but they can be all kinds of things going on.

"...and they shall present great signs and wonders, in order to deceive, if possible, even the elect" (v 24).

I want us to grasp this. We've got to really be on the ball constantly or the deception will be so great, we could be deceived. It's going to be hard to say that these bona fide, absolutely provable, documented miracles are of Satan. The world won't believe it. Why? Because they love a winner, and this is going to be a winner.

Verse 25: "Behold, I have foretold it to you. Therefore, if they say to you, "Come and see! He is in the wilderness"; do not go forth. "Come and see! He is in the secret chambers"; do not believe it. For as the light of day..." (vs 25-27).

Let's focus in on v 27 because this ties in with Rev. 6:12.

Verse 27: "For as the light of day, which comes forth from the east and shines as far as the west..."—that is the sun! That cannot be a bolt of lightning, because lightning goes up, lightning comes down, lightning goes north and south and east and west and at all angles.

"...so also shall the coming of the Son of man be. For wherever the carcass may be, there will the eagles be gathered together” (vs 27-28).

He gives us this statement that really it’s hard to understand. The carcass, the body, the eagles are gathered that must have some reference to the Church, some reference to protection.

Verse 29: “But immediately after the Tribulation of those days...” This is the sixth seal! This happens on next to the last Pentecost, which I will prove.

“...the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken. And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven” (vs 29-30).

- What is the sign of the Son of man in heaven?
- When does it all of a sudden appear?

When the heavens are rolled back like a scroll, and they see Christ as a sun!

When they first see Him, notice it says shining from east to west. Which means that it’s going to be far enough out in space that the gravitational pull of the earth is not going to affect it. The earth will continue on its orbit and every eye is going to see it. I believe, brethren, that from the next to the last Pentecost to the last Pentecost that that is going to get closer and closer and closer to the earth.

Then on the last Pentecost, which we will cover tomorrow, when the first resurrection takes place it’s going to come down into the clouds over Jerusalem. That’s going to make a lot of excited people on earth, militarists and otherwise. So, the sign of the Son of man shall appear in heaven!

“...and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming upon the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. And He shall send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet... [Did you realize the trumpet was blown on Pentecost? We’ll cover that tomorrow!] ...and they shall gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other” (vs 30-31).

- v 30 is the next to the last Pentecost
- v 31 is the last Pentecost

Let’s cover the same thing there concerning His return:

Luke 17:22: “Then He said to the disciples, ‘The days will come when you shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and shall not see it.... [longing for the good ole’ days] ...And they shall say to you, “Look here,” or, “Look there.” Do not go, neither follow them. For as the light of day, whose light shines from one end under heaven to the other end under heaven, so also shall the Son of man be in His day” (vs 22-24).

We know that a day fulfilled in prophecy is one year. What we’re going to do is look at His day, from the next to the last Pentecost, to the last Pentecost and we will do that tomorrow on Pentecost, and put all of these events together.

CHAPTER THIRTY-FIVE

“To Walk in the Way of the Lord”

(Pentecost—Day 49)

Fred R. Coulter

And greetings, brethren. This is the Sabbath before Pentecost.

Let's come to Lev. 23 and let's see something about counting Pentecost. We're going to rehearse it just a bit, and then we will see the message that is for us out of the Word of God that culminates in this last day of the seven weeks.

Leviticus 23:9: “And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ‘Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, “When you have come into the land...”’”(vs 9-10).

So, this ceremony could not take place until they came into the land. As we know, that happened, as we find, in Josh. 5.

“...which I give to you, and shall reap the harvest of it...” (v 10). It was the harvest of the land! They didn't plant it, it wasn't their harvest; it was theirs inasmuch as that when God gave them the land they owned it.

“...then you shall bring the premier sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the priest.... [the thing that's important to understand is this]: ...And he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD to be accepted for you. On the next day after the Sabbath...” (vs 10-11).

The term Sabbath here is ‘ha shabbat,’ and it always means the weekly Sabbath. Then you were to count seven Sabbaths.

Now let's see the count in v 15: “And you shall count to you beginning with the next day after the Sabbath...”

That is the Sabbath, which falls during the days of Unleavened Bread, and then the next day puts it on the first day of the week.

“...beginning with the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven Sabbaths shall be complete” (v 15).

This is seven Sabbaths, and “...shall be complete,” meaning each week ends in a Sabbath. Now you tie that together with Deut.16 where it says that you are to count seven weeks. These are whole weeks ending in a Sabbath! Here is a thing that is important:

Verse 16: “Even unto the day after the seventh Sabbath... [that's today, the 7th Sabbath] ...you shall number fifty days...” So, if you take that and line that all up, it always comes out on a Sunday!

Let's liken the seven weeks that it took the children of Israel to come out of Egypt in order to receive the Ten Commandments from God at Mount Sinai to an extended travel that they had all through the wilderness. Remember, God provided for them. He led them by the pillar of cloud by day and the fire by night; He gave them manna and their clothes didn't even grow old, and so forth.

Deuteronomy 2:7: “For the LORD your God has blessed you in all the works of your hand....” This is what we want God to do for us:

- in our personal life
- in our families lives
- in our church life

“...He knows your walking through this great wilderness....” (v 7).

Today we live in a different kind of wilderness, a spiritual wilderness filled with all kinds of physical things.

“...The LORD your God has been with you these forty years. You have lacked nothing” (v 7).

We find in Exo. 16 when God first began to give the manna to the children of Israel, He said that He was going to do this to prove them, to test them whether they would walk in His Law or not. Now that's the same thing for us. Are we going to walk in God's way? even in spite of the world in which we are living? Let's see what God says about walking in His way:

Leviticus 26:2: “You shall keep My Sabbaths... [there again, we have plural, referring to the weekly Sabbath and Holy Days] ...and reverence My sanctuary. I am the LORD. If you walk in My statutes and keep My commandments and do them...” (vs 2-3)—all the way through!

Then He says He will bless them, give them peace, and things like this. Today we are living in a world where there is very little peace, there is nothing but trouble and difficulties. All of us in our lives, we have things that we are confronted with all the time. But let's understand that God has given us

- the way
- the Truth
- the life through Jesus Christ

Verse 11: "And I will set My tabernacle among you.... [today it's quite different because each one of us are a Temple of God] ...And My soul shall not abhor you. And I will walk among you... [we're going to see how this applies to the Church a little later] ...and will be your God, and you shall be My people. I am the LORD your God Who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt from being their bondmen. And I have broken the bonds of your yoke, and made you go upright" (vs 11-13).

That's what God has done with us spiritually. Just like the children of Israel, as we saw during the days of Unleavened Bread, were rescued from Egypt; Pharaoh was a type of Satan, and that his armies were a type of the demons, and how God rescued them, and so forth; did all the things that He did to bring them out of the land of Egypt and bring them into the 'promised land.'

Let's see the things that God warned them of. Then let's see how this applies to the Church today and how it applies to our lives, and how not only do we need to do the things that please God, but we also need to beware of the difficulties and problems that we're confronted with in the world today.

Deuteronomy 8:1: "All the commandments which I command you this day shall you be diligent to observe and to do that you may live..."

- God wants us to live
- God wants us to grow spiritually
- God wants us to live in His way

"...and multiply and go in and possess the land, which the LORD swore to your fathers. And you shall remember all the way, which the LORD your God led you these forty years in the wilderness..." (vs 1-2).

Just like we are to remember that God has called us out of the world! We are to remember that we are not to go back to spiritual Egypt. Here is what God is doing in our lives. Here is why we go through the things that we do, the same exact process that they went through, only for our spiritual good and our spiritual benefit.

He did this "...forty years in the wilderness in order to humble you, to prove you..." (v 3). Now let's just look at our lives:

- How many have been in the Church of God how long?

- ✓ some have just been baptized
- ✓ some have been in the Church of God 40 or 50 years

So we have the same thing!

- How are we walking in the world?
- Is God testing us and proving us? Yes, all the time!

"...to know what is in your heart..." (v 2). This is what God wants to know!

When we see about the seven churches a little bit later, it all has to do with the heart and how they stand before God, and what the problems of the world pressing in on the Church caused them.

"...whether you would keep His commandments or not... [also whether we would love God or not] ...And He humbled you and allowed you to hunger, and then He fed you with manna, which you did not know, neither did your fathers know it, so that He might make you know that man does not live by bread alone; but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of the LORD does man live" (vs 2-3).

Then he gave them some other instructions in showing that even their clothes didn't wax old and their shoes didn't wear out. Then he warns them beware lest they forget.

Let's come back to the New Testament. Let's see how this applies to us. Let's see how we are to walk in God's way!

2-John 4: "I rejoiced exceedingly that I have found among your children those who are walking in Truth..."

That's what God wants us to walk in: the Truth! We are sanctified by the Truth, which is the Word of God.

"...exactly as we received commandment from the Father" (v 4). Notice how this parallels with what we read back there in the Old Testament!

Verse 5: "And now I beseech you, lady... [which is the type of the Church] ...not as though I am writing a new commandment to you, but that which we have observed from the beginning, that we love one another. And this is the love of God: that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, exactly as you heard from the beginning, that you might walk in it" (vs 5-6).

Now we also know that God gives us some warnings about how we are walking and how we're living in the world. Let's see why God does this. If you think that the children of Israel had all of their problems because they didn't follow in the way that God wanted them to do, well just think about the Church of God today. We're going to talk about that a little later, so I just want you to get this in your mind.

2-Corinthians 6:14: “Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers....” That’s especially true in the sense of what the world would call Christianity!

One of the biggest errors that the Church of God has done in recent time has gone to the Christianity of this world and say, ‘What do you know about God?’ You’ve seen the results of that because they don’t really know the way of God very well. Here is what we need to watch:

“...For what do righteousness and lawlessness have in common? And what fellowship does light have with darkness? And what union does Christ have with Belial?” [the son of foolishness] ...Or what part does a believer have with an unbeliever? And what agreement is there between a Temple of God and idols?... [here’s the whole key, which is important]: ...For you are a temple of the living God...” (vs 14-16).

- that’s why our calling is special
- that’s why it is important
- that’s why we need to always follow the way of God

“...you are a temple of the living God, exactly as God said: ‘I will dwell in them and walk in them...’” (v 16). If Christ is in you, how should you walk? We’ll see about this a little bit later on!

““...and I will be their God, and they shall be My people. Therefore, come out from the midst of them and be separate,’ says the Lord, ‘and touch not the unclean, and I will receive you; and I shall be a Father to you, and you shall be My sons and daughters,’ says the Lord Almighty” (vs 16-18). This is what we want to attain to, because tomorrow pictures:

- the resurrection
- the completion of this journey and the walk that we are walking in

Now let’s see some other things that tie into this and help us understand:

- how we need to walk
- how God is dealing with us

All know we have things we need to change and overcome, and righteousness that we need to grow in, and that’s all a part of the meaning of the Feast of Unleavened Bread. But in order to fulfill the completeness of the Feast of Unleavened Bread we’ve got to get to the final goal, which is the resurrection.

Psalm 86:11: “Teach me Your way, O LORD...”

If we’re going to walk in the way of the Lord we have to examine the Word of God and know what it is and He has to teach us.

“...I will walk in Your Truth...” (v 11). See how that combines with what we have already talked about here, walking in the Truth.

“...unite my heart to fear Your name. I will praise You, O LORD my God, with all my heart...” (vs 11-12). This is what God wants from all of us:

- that we love God with all our heart
- that we walk in God’s way with all our heart
- that we believe God with all of our heart
- that we trust in God with all of our heart

“...and I will glorify Your name forevermore, for great is Your mercy toward me; and You have delivered my soul from the depths of the grave. O God, the proud have risen against me... [there are a lot of things that are coming against a lot of brethren today] ...and the company of violent men have sought after my life, and have not set You before them. But You, O LORD, are a God full of compassion, and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and Truth. Oh, turn to me...” (vs 12-16).

IF we return to God, God promises He will return to us. Remember that God has:

- called us
- chosen us
- given us His Spirit

He is walking in us! This is why we need to let the Spirit lead us—lead us in the way that we think and we live on a daily basis; not just on the Sabbath, not just when we feel ‘religious.’

“...and have mercy upon me; give Your strength to Your servant and save the son of Your handmaid” (v 16). God has helped us and comforted us!

Let’s come to another couple of Psalms here. Let’s see what happens when we’re walking in the way of the LORD; our journey to spiritual Mount Sinai.

Psalm 119:1: “Blessed... [this results in blessings] ...are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the Law of the LORD” We have the way the Lord equals:

- the way of Truth
- the way of His commandments
- the way of His laws
- the way of statutes and judgments
- the way of keeping His Sabbath
- the way of keeping His Holy Days

- the way of taking care of our body and mind

*Even the way of eating, that we eat the things are right; all of those are part of the way of the Lord!

Verse 2: “Blessed are they who keep His testimonies and who seek Him with the whole heart.” We’re going to find all the way through here that it has to do with the heart!

Verse 3: “They also do no iniquity; they walk in His ways.”

Now let’s understand this: when you have this kind of attitude toward God and you’re walking in His ways, you have no sin imputed to you! But you have the righteousness of Christ imputed to you!

Let’s see some other things about walking in the way of the Lord; walking in the way of God. Here’s what it needs to do for us:

Psalms 138:1: “I will praise You with my whole heart; before the gods I will sing praise to You. I will worship toward Your Holy Temple, and praise Your name for Your loving kindness, and for Your Truth; for You have magnified above all, Your name and Your Word” (vs 1-2). Very important to understand!

Now let’s translate this into things that we have for the New Testament:

- when we pray
- when we study
- when we come before God

we are coming right into the Holy of Holies in heaven above through the very sacrifice of Jesus Christ so that we can do these things!

Verse 6: “Though the LORD is high, yet, He has respect to the lowly; but the haughty He knows afar off. Though I walk in the midst of trouble...” (vs 6-7).

We’re going to see that the Church is always confronted with difficulties, problems and troubles because we’re living in this world, even though we know we’re not part of this world!

“...You will revive me; You shall stretch forth Your hand against the wrath of my enemies, and Your right hand shall save me. The LORD will perfect His work in me...” (vs 7-8).

That’s the whole goal that God wants us to understand; He is perfecting us!

“...Your steadfast love, O LORD, endures forever; do not forsake the work of Your own hands” (v 8).

Now let’s apply that to us. We are the workmanship of God created in Christ Jesus! Let’s always understand this: the way that we always keep the perspective we need to have is to realize how great and marvelous our calling is, and what God is:

- doing for us
- to us
- through us
- in us

and where He wants us to go! He wants us to be faithful to the end and attain to the Resurrection. So, this is a great and marvelous thing that we always need to keep in mind, and to realize this above all things.

Rev. 1—let’s see what it says about Christ, and let’s see that Christ is intimately involved in His Church. It is the focus of His whole attention at the present time. There are things that are going on in the world that He is directing, but the central focus is His Church. This helps us understand how important it is that Christ is dealing with each one of us, and how important the plan of God is. As we have seen, it’s all on the framework of the Holy Days of God, and every one of the Holy Days are all connected together and have meaning.

Revelation 1:8: “‘I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the Ending,’ says the Lord, ‘Who is, and Who was, and Who is to come—the Almighty.’”

Christ is going to return, and His return is going to be so powerful and so glorious; we will see tomorrow. It’s going to be so spectacular that our thoughts and imaginations of it are just very minuscule compared to what it is really actually going to be. Then John, who was given this vision by Jesus Christ wrote:

Verse 9: “I, John, who am also your brother and joint partaker in the tribulation and in the kingdom and endurance of Jesus Christ, was on the island that is called Patmos because of the Word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ. I was in the Spirit on the Day of the Lord; and I heard a loud voice like a trumpet behind me, saying, ‘I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, and what you see, write in a book, and send it to the churches that are in Asia...’” (vs 9-11).

So this is a written message. As we know, John canonized the whole New Testament. So, this can also refer to that as well, the whole inclusive thing. But what he writes in the book—the letters to the seven churches—have to do with:

- how God deals with His Church
- how Christ, Who is the head of the Church, is working with His Church

- how the Church, with God’s Spirit living in the world, has the difficulties and trials that they need to overcome
- how God is dealing with us

This is why we need to go back over this—especially at this time of year—because this shows that the seven churches picture the seven weeks leading up to Pentecost! It is just like the harvest of the seven weeks of the wheat harvest that takes place, the seven churches are the spiritual harvest of God! He names them here:

“...to Ephesus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamos, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea” (v 11). These seven churches picture:

1. the churches that were then
2. a prophecy of all the Churches of God down through history from the time that it was formed in 30_{A.D.} with the coming of the Holy Spirit until the return of Jesus Christ and the resurrection at Pentecost
3. the spiritual condition and attitude of the churches in general and individuals in particular
4. the churches at the end

What we really have is this:

- the seven churches that were there
- the seven church eras or stages of the church down through history
- the seven churches at the end

I think if we view things from the point of view like the Bible Sabbath Association, and look at the different publications that come out. And for us when we look at what is called The Journal, we can see different parts of messages that go to the Churches of God. It’s quite an interesting thing that that is what it is. What you see when you read The Journal is how that there are various different doctrines and teachings that also are reflected here in Rev. 2 & 3, and what we need to do about those, because some of these teachings are not in accord with the Word of God!

Verse 12: “And I turned to see the voice that spoke with me; and when I turned, I saw seven golden lampstands.”

This is just like in a circle. This is not a replica of the candle, or the lamp-holder that is found in the temple, because as we will see, the seven golden lampstands...

Verse 13: “And in the midst of the seven lampstands One like the Son of man...” Christ is in His Church!

Christ is in you and me—in all the brethren—all the brethren consist of the Church, a spiritual organization. It is not a corporate organization. Any corporate organization only has to do with conducting business in this world. He is in the midst of His Church. Then it shows His great, glorified form, how Christ is, with the countenance shining as the sun in full strength.

Verse 17: “And when I [John] saw Him, I fell at His feet as if dead; but He laid His right hand upon me, saying to me, ‘Do not be afraid...’”—this is what we need to also understand!

If there are things we need to change, we’ll change. If there are things we need to repent of, we can repent of those, because that’s the whole story of the seven churches as recorded in Rev. 2 & 3.

“...I am the First and the Last, even the One Who is living; for I was dead, and behold, I am alive into the ages of eternity. Amen. And I have the keys of the grave and of death” (vs 17-18).

Let’s understand one thing: like the Apostle Paul said very clearly, ‘If Christ is not raised, then there is no resurrection of the dead; and if there is no resurrection of the dead, we have no hope.’ But here is the message from Christ; these of the words of God: He has “...the keys of the grave and of death.”

God wants us to know; this is why it was written; v 19: “Write the things that you saw... [everything up through v 18 to this point] ...and the things that are... [the seven churches which exist, the state of the Church at that particular time] ...and the things that shall take place hereafter.”

This comes from the time of John—yes, even reaching back to the beginning of the Church in 30_{A.D.} on Pentecost—and goes clear to the return of Christ on into the Millennium, and on into New Jerusalem, and on into the first stages of the ages of eternity. This is a fantastic book, and it starts with churches.

We all get interested in news; we all like to see what’s going on in the world. We like to see if prophecies being fulfilled. Yes, they’re all being fulfilled exactly the way that God wants them fulfilled! Since God gave prophecies concerning all the major events in the world, do you not think that He would also give a prophecy of His Church? Yes! That’s what He’s done in Rev. 2 & 3.

Verse 20: “The mystery of the seven stars that you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden lampstands, is this: the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches; and the seven lampstands that you saw are the seven churches.”

Now let’s see the message to them; this is written to us. These are the sayings of Christ so that we might know what to do in any circumstances that we are confronted with in our Christian life, as individuals, in our community, as it were, in our congregations and fellowship when we get together. What we will see is that God through Christ lays out all the things that we need to be aware of and what's going to happen with His Church.

We will see there's a parallel here; we will see many, many of the things that happened to the Church as it goes down in time in history, were also the same things that happened to Israel as they walked in the wilderness for the 40 years.

Revelation 2:1: "To the angel of the Ephesian church, write..."

Let's understand that when God has it written—and God has it preserved for us today—then we better pay very deep, serious concern about it, and understand that these are the living words of God given to us. When we ask, 'What would Jesus say to His Church today?' Right here we have it; this is the message for us.

"...These things says He Who holds the seven stars in His right hand... [to do His work; that's why it's in the right hand] ...Who walks in the midst of the seven golden lampstands" (v 1).

- Christ is right there
- He is walking in us
- we are walking in His way
- we are to let the light of Christ lead us

He knows everything about us!

Verse 2: "I know your works, and your labor, and your endurance, and that you cannot bear those who are evil; and that you did test those who proclaim themselves to be apostles, but are not, and did find them liars." This is why there are so many warnings in there:

- beware of false prophets
- beware that you're not deceived
- test those
- prove all things

This is what they were doing, and this is what we have to do in everything that we do. This is how we let ourselves be led by the Spirit of God; and how also that the Word of God and the Spirit of God:

- corrects us
- encourages us
- uplifts us
- leads us in the things that we need to do
- convicts us of the shortcomings and problems that we encounter
- encourages us

Verse 3: "And that you have borne much and have endured, and for My name's sake have labored and have not grown weary... [that's the important thing to do; never grow weary] ...nevertheless... [here comes a little correction; God has correction for His Church in every sense] ...I have this against you, that you have left your first love" (vs 3-4).

This is what happens in any organization. They start out with zeal. They start out with love. They start out with dedication, and then everything gets kind of socialized as with people.

When you leave the first love, what is happening is you're letting the world come in! You're letting others come in. Even though you may be fighting off false doctrine, as it says here, that they 'tried them who were apostles and were not, and tested them,' that means you test the message. You listen to what they have to say.

I'll just mention this now, but I also am going to mention it again: one of the doctrines that is coming to test the Church today—which a lot of people are failing—is the false doctrine that Jesus did not exist as God before He came in the flesh! That He did not exist until He was begotten in the womb of the virgin Mary!

How does that come about? Mark 12—let's see what it was where it says they lost their first love! Now a lot of people refer to this as the first love that people have when they're first called and understand the Truth and understand the way of God. That is true to a certain extent. But that's not what it's talking about, because the Greek for first comes from the word 'protos,' which also means primary.

Mark 12:28—this is what we need to keep always right in the forefront of our mind: "And one of the scribes who had come up to Him, after hearing them reasoning together and perceiving that He answered them well, asked Him [Jesus], 'Which is the first commandment of all?'" The primary commandment!

What's the most important thing? Once you understand this and realize this, it will bring everything else together:

Verse 29: "Then Jesus answered him, 'The first of all the commandments is, "Hear, O Israel. Our one God is the Lord, the Lord. And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart..."'" (vs 29-30).

I want you to notice the effort that is put into it, the effort that is required! The reason that this is important is this: is because eternal life, to live forever is a tremendous and wonderful thing. View it this way: everything that we're doing right now is preparing and getting ready:

- for the event that tomorrow pictures, the resurrection
- to live eternally
- to know how to rule and reign with Christ

preparing us to complete what God has given us to do!

Love the Lord your God with all your heart, not part-time! Don't let your heart be divided, your mind be divided. It says there in James 1 that if you are divided in heart and mind, then you are double-minded and you are unstable. Maybe that will explain a lot of difficulties that people have. You judge yourself in that yourself.

"...and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength...." (v 30). So our calling is an all-out effort on our part! Then God gives His all-out effort to us!

- Did not Jesus Christ give an all out effort when He was here in the flesh?
- Did He not give His all to save His creation, and to save you individually?
- Yes, He did!

That's why we need to understand what it's talking about there in losing the first love.

"...This is the first commandment" (v 30). So, the primary love is loving God! The primary commandment is to love God.

Verse 31: "And the second is like this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these." Then Jesus also said of us that we are to love one another as Jesus loved us!

- IF you are loving God with all your heart, mind, soul and being, would you get wrapped up in doctrines and teachings of men? No!
- IF you are proving everything like they did back here in the Church at Ephesus, are you really seeking the Truth?

There's a difference between:

- seeking the Truth of God
- walking in the Truth
- being sanctified of the Truth
- living by the Truth and seeking a position! Not a position of power, but a 'religious' position, which is not connected with God! That's why we have to prove all these things.

Now this is what we are to do. And this is what God wants us to do as we are walking the walk. We'll also need to be "talking the talk" if we could put it that way, that which is right.

Revelation 2:5: "Therefore, remember from where you have fallen, and repent, and do the first works..." That's what we need to do!

I was talking to a man about the condition of the Church and how many people have fallen into this position, which is similar to Laodiceanism, but not exactly the same thing. How many people are out there kind of 'treading water.'

Have you ever tread water out in the ocean? You can tread water and you think you're keeping yourself afloat, and granted you're not sinking; but you can tread water. But there is one thing with treading water, you don't have your feet on the ground! When you're treading water and the currents are coming, it's moving you along, and it's moving you maybe in a direction that you really don't want to go, and you're not aware of it! Then all the sudden, just like a wave comes upon the land, if you're treading water, just like this, it's going to catch up with you.

He says "...repent, and do the first works..." Go back and do the things that you know that you need to do and recapture that first love! He calls them to repent, and He says:

"...for if you do not, I will come to you quickly; and I will remove your lampstand out of its place unless you repent" (v 5). Let's look at this in several different ways:

1. God corrects His own Church
2. God corrects each one of us individually and He expects us to repent! IF there is no repentance then He says He's going to remove you!

- Did God remove a Church before our very eyes? Yes, He did!
- Has God removed false brethren, false ministers, false teachers? Yes, because they did not repent!
 - they lost their first love
 - they quit loving God with all their heart, mind, soul and being
 - they got wrapped up in themselves
 - ✓ in their own doctrines
 - ✓ in their own positions
 - ✓ in their own religiosity

That's cause for removal!

But they did have one thing, they hated the works of the Nicolaitans! The Nicolaitans are those who have a rigid hierarchy and lorded over the brethren. The Nicolaitans are also those who have a false grace.

Verse 7: "The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the Churches...."

- God's Spirit is in you
- Christ directs the Spirit
- it is to lead you
- it is to bring you to repentance

That's all a part of our Christian walk, because we are in the process of being perfected step-by-step, day-by-day, week-by-week, month-by-month, year-by-year! That's why we are always

- to walk in faith
- believe in hope
- live in love

That's how we are to conduct our lives!

Even in the world today we have those who are dying for Christ. Even within the Churches of God there are those in very treacherous and evil places in the world that have suffered death because of those who follow Satan the devil.

The Church of the Smyrnans:

"...These things says the First and the Last, Who was dead but is alive. 'I know your works and tribulation and poverty (but you are rich)...'" (vs 8-9).

When you come to the Laodiceans, because they have an abundance of physical things and think they are rich, they think that they are spiritually right before God. But God looks at it the other way. Remember this: God looks at it with other eyes! So, they are rich even though they're suffering tribulation,

"...and the blasphemy of those who declare themselves to be Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan" (v 9).

A very interesting way to put it: a synagogue of Satan. Let's talk about another synagogue of Satan: radical Muslimism, they are the ones who are killing brethren. There have been some who have been associated with the Churches of God in Africa who have been killed by Muslims. This is a living part of the Church today. And yes, these brethren:

- may not have the understanding of doctrine
- may not realize all the things that we do
- may not understand the depths of the plan of God

but they believe Christ! They are willing to die for His name! They are willing to stand up and be counted! God says to them:

Verse 10: "Do not fear any of the things that you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, that you may be tried; and you shall have tribulation ten days. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you a crown of life."

Now let's look at the other situation, too. What did Jesus say at the end? The one who endures to the end, the same shall be saved!

Verse 11: "The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. The one who overcomes shall not be hurt of the second death"

What we see all the way through here with the Churches of God is the lack of true spiritual endurance and consistency. So, those who die are going to receive a crown of life! God looks at them with far greater love and favor than those who may have more Truth, those who may understand more doctrine but treat it with:

- disdain
- contempt
- familiarity

and end up treading water in their spiritual lives, and that God has to correct them!

Here with the Church at Smyrna, those who go through and suffer these things, they don't have any correction that Christ has to give them because their hearts are right with Him.

Now let's come to the next two Churches, or perhaps the most infiltrated with satanic doctrine. Satan wants to bring in satanic doctrine into the Church, because he knows IF he can get you to move away from the Truth just a little bit, just like a ship that is off one degree, it's going to miss the port at the other end. Or if you're sending a satellite up into orbit, if you are off just a little bit it's not going into orbit.

The Church of Pergamos:

Revelation 2:12: "And to the angel of the Church in Pergamos, write: 'These things says He Who has the sharp two-edged sword'"—which we find in the book of Hebrews!

That's the Word of God, sharper than any two-edged sword, and cuts asunder to the dividing of the soul and spirit and joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and the intents of the heart! Christ: called the Word of God and the Spirit of God. He wants them to understand, there is correction coming!

Verse 13: "I know your works and where you dwell, where the throne of Satan is; but you are holding fast My name, and did not deny My faith, even in the days in which Antipas was My faithful witness, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells."

Let me tell you something, when you get in the middle of where Satan is—and Satan is deceiving this whole world:

- he's got his ways of doing things
- he has a counterfeit Christianity
- he has his counterfeit way of doing things

And with all the pressures coming upon people and these things, it's awfully hard to resist those things!

Verse 14: “But I have a few things against you because you have there those who hold the teaching of Balaam...”

What is the teaching of Balaam? Let's amalgamate the religions together. Let's take the best of this, the best of that and the best of the other thing! Isn't that what the Catholic Church did, and is this not really the brethren who repented in Pergamos, then they left what later became the Catholic Church because the doctrine of Balaam is that.

“...who taught Balak to cast a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols and to commit fornication” (v 14)—both physically and spiritually, and to sacrifice unto idols!

If you want to know any one thing that the Bible teaches, it is this:

- you shall have no other gods before Me
- don't make an idol or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, that is in the earth beneath, and the water under the earth
- don't bow down yourself to them

If there's any one thing that is pounded through the whole Bible, that is it! But today people have different idols:

- they have idols of their mind
- they have idols of their doctrines
- they have idols of their way of life
- they have idols of the things about them that their hands have made

That's all part of it!

Verse 15: “Moreover, you also have those who hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I [Christ] hate.”

When it comes to doing things which God hates—and the Church is guilty of it—know that correction is going to come. Just like when the children of Israel were on their way in coming to Mount Sinai to meet God.

- Did He not have to correct them?
- Did He not have to teach them?

- Did He not have to, in a sense, punish them?
- Yes, indeed!

Verse 16: “Repent!...” That's what God wants us to do all the time! Repentance doesn't happen just at the time before you're baptized, but repentance happens daily.

- as we're overcoming sin
- as we're overcoming carnal nature
- as we overcome the things of this world
 - ✓ we need to repent
 - ✓ we need to have our mind cleansed
 - ✓ we need to have our heart purified

“...For if you do not repent, I will come to you quickly, and will make war against them with the sword of My mouth” (v 16).

- Is it not a sad situation indeed that Jesus has to fight against His own Church? Look back at what happened to ancient Israel!
- Did not God have to fight against His own people because of what they did? Yes, indeed!

So, there needs to be some repentance among the Churches of God!

There are too many people out there with their own ideas. One of the big idols that is out there today is various calendars schemes, because they do not count God worthy of understanding the universe! They have to have their own calendar schemes.

If you are caught up in some of that, I suggest to you do exactly like it says here: repent! We've got a stack of material that shows without a doubt that God gave the Calculated Hebrew Calendar so that we would all be able to keep the Feasts on the right day that He has appointed.

When we have our own calendar schemes, what do we end up doing? We appoint days that God didn't appoint! Yet, many of those who do that are staunchly for the Sabbath and the Holy Days and against Sunday. But IF you establish your own Holy Days contrary to the way that God has given it, what are you doing? It's the same thing as establishing Sunday! But God says, 'Repent!'

Church at Thyatira:

Thyatira really got carried away. As you look at the state of some of the Churches of God today you understand how that can happen. Because as we learned with the Feast of Unleavened Bread, a little leaven leavens whole lump; and if you let it grow and grow, you don't understand the magnitude of the problems and difficulties until it gets out of hand. Just look at the immigration problem in all the nations of the ten tribes of Israel today; it is out of hand! That's what happened to the Church at Thyatira, though they started out well.

Verse 18: "And to the angel of the Church in Thyatira write: 'These things says the Son of God, He Who has eyes like a flame of fire, and His feet are like fine brass. I know your works, and love, and service, and faith, and your endurance... [so they were doing well] ...and your works; and the last are more than the first... [some of them repented] ...But I have a few things against you, because you allow the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce My servants into committing fornication and eating things sacrificed to idols'" (vs 18-20).

That's exactly what happens when you have your own Passover, you have your own Unleavened Bread; just one step away from this kind of idolatry. But look what happened here: Jezebel was the daughter of the high priest of Baal, and Jezebel married Ahab who led the children of Israel into sin. It even caused problems for Elijah.

God means what He says! If you are out there with the world:

- living like the world
- being like the world
- acting like the world

then you are spiritually fornicating with the world! Now juxtaposition that with this:

- How much do you study?
- How much do you pray?
- How much do you really believe God?

Verse 21: "And I gave her time to repent of her fornication..." God gives us all space and time to repent! That's why He doesn't come down upon us until He sees what we're going to choose and do.

- He sends little warnings
- He sends thoughts in our mind
- He sends situations to bring us up short to alert us as to what is taking place!

Sometimes we react to them right away, other times we kind of let them linger. Then the problem gets more and more and finally Christ has to do what He does here. He brings us up short and helps us to understand where we have been going wrong. That's why He said:

"...but she did not repent.... [If there's not repentance, what comes next?] ...Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and those who commit adultery with her into Great Tribulation, unless they repent of their works" (vs 21-22).

Let's come back here to Psa. 86 again and understand something about God that we really need to realize. If you have things in your life that you know you need to repent of, then remember this: God is waiting for you to repent! God will receive you when you repent.

Psalm 86:1: "Bow down Your ear, O LORD, answer me, for I am poor and needy. Preserve my soul, for I am Holy... [everyone whom God calls and has the Holy Spirit is Holy] ...O You my God, save Your servant who trusts in You... [now you've got to reestablish that trust with God, and here's how you do it]: ...Be merciful to me, O LORD, for I cry unto You all day long... [get right back with God] ...Rejoice the soul of Your servant, for to You, O LORD, do I lift up my soul, for You, LORD, are good and ready to forgive..." (vs 1-5).

The problem is never with God! That's why there are no conditions on God. Where there are conditions it is if you, then God will! If you repent, then God will forgive. but that repentance has to be from the heart, and it has to be—as we covered at the first—re-establishing the true love!

Verse 5: "For You, LORD, are good and ready to forgive, and rich in mercy to all those who call upon You. Give ear, O LORD, to my prayer, and attend to the voice of my supplications. In the day of my trouble I will call upon You, for You will answer me" (vs 5-7).

That's the appeal that was made by Christ to the Church at Thyatira: Don't be taken down by any of these things! Let's equate all of these things together that we see happening in the Churches of God concerning:

- their attitude toward God
- their attitude toward doctrine
- their health: spiritually and physically
- the world that we are living in

God weighs all of those factors together. and we need to really draw close to God and realize that He is there to help us if we repent.

Revelation 2:22:"...unless they repent of their works.... [if they don't]: ...And I will kill her children with death..."

In other words, whatever you are going to do, if you don't repent and are not right with God, it is going to come to nothing.

"...and all the churches shall know that I am He Who searches the reins and hearts... [because Christ is in us all the time] ...and I will give to each of you according to your works" (vs 22-23).

How far can a person go and still recover themselves? God alone makes that decision!

Verse 24: “But to you I say, and to the rest who are in Thyatira, as many as do not have this doctrine, and who have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will not cast upon you any other burden, but hold fast what you have until I come” (vs 24-25). Then all the way through to every one of the Churches!

Verse 29: “The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.”

- Do you have an ear to hear?
- How is your walk with God?
- How are you steadfast with God?

God is going to bring you to Mount Zion in heaven above, and the day of the resurrection is going to happen!

- Christ wants you ready!
- Christ wants you prepared!

That’s what this is all about!

Church of Sardis:

Then we have the ones who are the absolute worst Church of all, that they have a name that they live, but they are dead! Notice the warning that He gives them here:

Revelation 3:2: “Be watchful, and strengthen the things that remain... [whatever little bit is remaining, strengthen it] ...which are about to die. For I have not found your works complete before God.”

Now there are spiritual works we are to do, and God wants us to do them, and they need to be complete.

Verse 3: “Therefore, remember what you have received and heard, and hold on to this, and repent. Now then, if you will not watch... [Jesus tells us to watch ourselves and watch the world] ...I will come upon you as a thief...”—because God will always visit for the sins!

This is not talking about His second return here. This is talking about Jesus dealing with each one of us.

“...and you shall by no means know what hour I will come upon you” (v 3).

Isn’t that the way it always is? When you least expect it and are least prepared! When you have come into a state of near deadness, then Christ is going to come upon you. Now, a little encouragement here:

Verse 4: “You have a few names even in Sardis who have not defiled their garments, and they shall walk with Me in white because they are worthy. The one who overcomes shall be clothed in white garments; and I will not blot out his name from the Book of Life, but I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels” (vs 4-5).

Now let’s understand something here, very important to realize: our names are written in the Book of Life and will remain there so that at the resurrection we will be raised from the dead! But let’s also understand that if we allow ourselves to get into these kinds of spiritual conditions, our names can be erased. As God told Moses, ‘I will blot out whom I will blot out’; that’s quite a warning!

Verse 6: “The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.”

Then it talks about the Philadelphians. We’ll be there in a little bit; we’ll end up with that one, but let’s come over here to:

The Church of the Laodiceans:

You’ve heard this many, many times over. Let’s go to the message to the Laodiceans that we find in the book of Colossians. This is important for us to understand and realize. Not only was this written to the Colossians, but he also gave instructions then when it was done being read to the Colossians that it was to also be read in the Church of Laodicea.

Now let’s notice the focus here, especially in Col. 2, because this also has to do with what we are confronted with today, with all of the satanic spiritism that is out there. What we need to understand is this: this world is absolutely going to go after Satan the devil and all of these teachings.

Now I was channel surfing, because there’s hardly anything to watch; and I got on the National Geographic channel. Guess what they were showing? Witchcraft, séances, appealing to demons and devils, and even using the name of Jesus with it!

That’s one of the great problems with the Laodiceans. They get involved in philosophy, and philosophy changes the nature of God, which is why there are people who are involved in this one God only in number false doctrine, and saying that Jesus was not God before He became a human being. Paul is dealing with that here:

Colossians 2:1: “Now, I want you to understand what great concern I have for you, and for those in Laodicea... [these are the inspired words of God; God has concern for all of His brethren] ...and as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love... [notice how this ties in with the message to all the Churches]: ...unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding...” (vs 1-2)—not physical goods and physical riches:

- that you know God
- that you know Jesus Christ
- that you know the Word of God
- that you know how to live your life before God the way He wants you to “...unto the knowledge of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ... [He wants us to know the great, fantastic things that He has for us] ...in Whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge” (vs 2-3).

You’re not going to gain any knowledge from the philosophies of this world. They come from men who profess themselves to be wise, but have become fools. They believe when you believe in ‘only one ‘God’ in number,’ you’re talking about a god who is the transcendent god, who has no form, no shape, no being. That’s the philosophical god of all the pagans. In Christ are hidden “...all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.”

Verse 4: “Now, this I say so that no one may deceive you by persuasive speech.”

Just because a person presents an argument, remember this: not all logic is true, but all Truth is logical!

Verse 5: “For though I am indeed absent in the flesh, yet, I am with you in spirit, rejoicing and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. Therefore... [here comes the warning] ...as you have received Christ Jesus the Lord... [as you find in the Scriptures] ...be walking in Him... [put together all these other Scriptures that we have seen here] ...being rooted and built up in Him, and being confirmed in the faith, exactly as you were taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving” (vs 5-7).

1-John 2 and let’s see be walking in Him! How does it tell us we’re to be walking in Him?

1-John 2:3: “And by this standard we know that we know Him: if we keep His commandments. The one who says, ‘I know Him’ and does not keep His commandments, is a liar, and the Truth is not in him” (vs 3-4).

Is it not then foolish for the people and ministers in the Churches of God to go to Sunday-keeping churches, whose ministers are liars, and ask: How do you understand the Scriptures? Just think on that for a minute!

Verse 5: “On the other hand, if anyone is keeping His Word, truly in this one the love of God is being perfected...”

That’s what God wants in our lives, that the love of God be perfected. That’s why we’re here. That’s why we’re doing what we’re doing, so that we can do—as we go back to the very first message that was given to the Church at Ephesus—that we don’t lose our first love, that it is being perfected. And if it is, John says:

“...By this means we know we are in Him... [we know that He is in us] ...Anyone who claims to dwell in Him is obligating himself also to walk even as He Himself walked” (vs 5-6).

Isn’t that something? That’s how we’re to do it! That’s how we’re to live God’s way. That’s why where we started out that John was pleased when he heard that they were walking in the Truth! So, what Paul is writing about here in:

Colossians 2:6: “Therefore, as you have received Christ Jesus the Lord... [the whole Bible together] ...be walking in Him; [now notice] being rooted and built up in Him... [so you have roots that go down for stability, and you are being built up—your faith and love is being perfected] ...and being confirmed in the faith, exactly as you were taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving. Be on guard so that no one takes you captive through philosophy and vain deceit, according to the traditions of men, according to the elements of the world, and not according to Christ” (vs 6-8).

Look at all of these different doctrinal proposals that come along, and what do you see? They are all designed and presented with persuasive speech! They’re all designed to lead you just a little away from Christ, and a little more, and a little more, and a little more! Satan knows that he can’t get those who have the Holy Spirit of God to reject it instantly. So, he comes along with a program step-by-step-by-step to get rid of it. That’s how he does it; that’s how he accomplishes it.

Rev. 3—a little bit more about Laodiceanism. If that’s the problem—which it is—and was it not philosophy brought by a Greek native professor, doctor of philosophy, which set the stage to take down one of the largest Churches of God in the history of the Churches of God? Yes, indeed!

Philosophy changes the nature of God, and if you believe that Jesus did not exist until He was conceived, you are changing the nature of God! What happens when you get into that state?

Revelation 3:16: “So then, because you are lukewarm, and are neither cold nor hot, I will spew you out of My mouth. For you say, ‘I am rich, and have become wealthy’...” (vs 16-17).

This is the only Church that talks back to God! None of the others do that. ‘God, how can You accuse me of this? Look all these blessings that we have.’ No!

“...and have need of nothing’; and you do not understand that you are wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked” (v 17).

How are you clothed spiritually? He says He doesn't want you to be naked! He gives us counsel. And this is what we need to do, brethren,

Verse 18: “I counsel you to buy from Me gold purified by fire so that you may be rich... [the true riches, like those in Smyrna had] ...and white garments so that you may be clothed, and the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and to anoint your eyes with eye salve, so that you may see.”

Now let's understand this. In all of this, though it is pointing out the errors and the problems and the difficulties, this is not a matter of condemnation to put people down. This is a matter of an urgent message to wake people up, from the point of view that God is dealing with us. He says:

Verse 19: “As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore, be zealous and repent.”

When we have that repentance, how are we to implement it?

The Church at Philadelphia

Philadelphia is the key model. Everyone wants to be a Philadelphian. Not everyone can. But nevertheless, when we repent of these things, whether Laodiceans, or Sardisites, or Thyatira, or Pergamos, or Ephesus—whichever attitude we are in, which ever church in the world that there is today that we are in—we can look at this as the model on how we need to behave ourselves and how we need to react to God!

Revelation 3:8: “I know your works. Behold, I have set before you an open door, and no one has the power to shut it because you have a little strength... [God is holding it open] ...and have kept My Word...”

There it is, as we read back there in the beginning in Deut. 8—which is also in Matt. 4 and Luke 4—“Man shall not live by bread alone but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God.”

“...kept My Word, and have not denied My name” (v 8).

When you bring in all of these false doctrines and things that we have covered, you're denying the name of Christ!

Verse 9: “Behold, I will make those of the synagogue of Satan...”

He's telling us here, do not worry about the world or about the conspiracies that are out there, which are all of Satan who is deceiving the world. God is going to turn the tables on them!

“...who proclaim themselves to be Jews and are not, but do lie. Behold, I will cause them to come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you” (v 9).

Think about that for a minute. That's what God is going to do to the rich and the great of this world. They're going to come and humble themselves before the feet of the resurrected children of God and acknowledge that we are of God, and that they were of Satan. Now notice, here is a blessing and a promise which Christ has given:

Verse 10: “Because you have kept the Word of My patience... [God recognizes and understands what you do] ...I also will keep you from the time of temptation, which is about to come upon the whole world to try those who dwell on the earth” A great worldwide event that is coming, which is:

- the antichrist
- the false prophet
- the mark of the beast

All of these things at the end time are coming! He is going to keep us and protect us. Exactly how He will do that, God knows! So, what we do is leave it in His hands to show us what to do. Trust in Him to watch over us.

Verse 11: “Behold, I am coming quickly; hold fast that which you have so that no one may take away your crown.”

- don't lose what you have had
- heed the warnings here
- repent of the things that are wrong
- hear, give ear to the Spirit

Verse 12: “The one who overcomes... [which we can; we're victorious in Christ] ...will I make a pillar in the temple of My God, and he shall not go out anymore; and I will write upon him the name of My God and the name of the city of My God, the New Jerusalem, which will come down out of heaven from My God; and *I will write upon him My new name. The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches” (vs 12-13).

So, brethren, in our walk with God as we are coming closer and closer to the end, as we are reaching that time when the Kingdom of God is going to come on this earth, when we're reaching the time when we're going to graduate from this physical life and enter into the grave, and await the resurrection, we need to heed the warnings and teachings of God and just ask God to be with His people:

- to forgive them
- to heal them

- to raise them up
- to help us all love God with all our heart, mind, soul and being

CHAPTER THIRTY-SIX

The Marriage of the Lamb

(Day 49)

Fred R. Coulter

Greetings, brethren! This is Day 49 the day before Pentecost. As you know,

- every year we go through the Holy Days
- every year we learn a little bit more
- every year we try and understand some other aspects of the Holy Days other aspects of God's Word in relationship to it so that we can grow in grace and knowledge and understand! Likewise with Pentecost we're going to do the same thing today, and then tomorrow.

It seems like the time has really flown since the Passover and Feast of Unleavened Bread. I hope that you've gone over the Seven Church Harvest {In-Depth Study with CD} because that goes through all of the Churches and shows the spiritual harvest of God, which we'll cover a little bit more tomorrow.

All of that is in preparation so that when we are preaching in season and out of season we're always relating everything to the way of God pointing to the Holy Days. I'm going to have some very good information for you concerning the Holy Days in the near future, which is really going to be. I think, very, very helpful in understanding so that we will be able to have:

- greater confidence in the Holy Days of God
- greater confidence in God's way
- greater confidence in what God is doing

That all adds to faith, love and hope, and then gives us a greater understanding, and that's what God wants us to have!

As we always do for the Holy Days, let's begin in Lev. 23 and continue the story and the flow of the Holy Days through the year as we are coming up to Pentecost. We know that this began with the Wave Sheaf Offering Day, because that is very significant. As a matter of fact, that is the whole key for everything coming down to Pentecost.

Leviticus 23:9: "And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 'Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, "When you have come into the land..."'" (vs 9-10).

Pentecost, with the grain harvest and everything, was not to happen until they came into the land because as long as they were in the wilderness they didn't have any grain, they had manna, and that was their food. I'm sure that Pentecost was kept because the Ten Commandments were given on Pentecost, so Pentecost was kept even though they did not have the grain. When they got into the land we'll see what happened, what they did according to God's instruction here.

"... 'When you have come into the land, which I give to you, and shall reap the harvest of it, then you shall bring the premier sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the priest. And he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD to be accepted for you. On the next day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it'" (vs 10-11).

This was the very first of the firstfruits, and that's what Christ is called. He is called the First of the firstfruits.

Now let me read to you out of The Schocken Bible: The Five Books of Moses, because he gives a little bit different description of it, which I think points more toward the resurrection than just the Wave Sheaf Offering as translated in the King James Version.

Verse 10 (SB) "Speak to the Children of Israel and say to them: When you enter the land that I am giving you, and you harvest its harvest, you are to bring the premier sheaf... [the most important] ...of your harvest to the priest. He is to elevate the sheaf before the presence of [The LORD] YHWH, for acceptance for you" (vs 10-11).

Since Christ was the Firstfruit, Christ was the Firstborn, the Premier One is... Let's see where we have a fulfillment of this in describing Christ. Also, it includes us because Christ had to be first, because as Paul said that 'if Christ be not raised then you are dead in your sins, and your faith is empty and vain.' Here in Rom. 8 we have the fulfillment now of the firstfruits and also the firstborn! So, remember that the firstfruits and the firstborn are very connected in the plan of God.

Romans 8:28: "And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose."

I've seen that through the years over and over again. Everything works to good, but we have to let it exercise us so we can understand how it is good for us, in the trials and difficulties that we go through. But when you take a long perspective of it and you take and look back through the years you see how that everything works for good.

- God designed it that way
- God is involved in our lives
- God has called us
- God has given us of His Spirit
- God is leading us, guiding us
- God is bringing us to His Kingdom

We understand everything Christ went through all worked for good!

Verse 29: “Because those whom He did foreknow... [and He has foreknown us] ...He also predestinated to be conformed to the image of His own Son, that He... [the Son] ...might be the Firstborn among many brethren.”

What we have in the harvest of the firstfruits is you have the premier sheaf, which is cut first. No other grain was to be harvested; no other things were to be eaten until that was cut. When that was cut, that is signifying being cut from the earth, meaning that it is no longer earthly bound; let’s transfer that to Christ in a figure. Then the priest elevates it. Elevating is just like a resurrection. Remember when Jesus spoke to Mary Magdalene? She came to hug Him, to hold Him, and He said:

Don’t touch Me, for I have not yet ascended to My Father. But go tell My brethren and your brethren that I ascend to My God and your God. (John 20).

So she did. Jesus immediately, right after that, ascended into heaven, was accepted of God the Father:

- as the sacrifice
- as the First of the firstborn
- as the First of the firstfruits
- as that Perfect Sacrifice to redeem all mankind

That was the start! The Wave Sheaf Offering Day is a very important and key thing!

Leviticus 23:11 (SB): “He is to elevate the sheaf before the presence of [the LORD] YHWH, for acceptance for you; on the morrow of the Sabbath... [that means on the morrow after the Sabbath] ...The priest is to elevate it.”

This is the regular weekly Sabbath during the Feast of Unleavened Bread! When Passover falls on a Friday night and the Sabbath Day is the Passover Day, then that day becomes the Sabbath of the Unleavened Bread because the Passover is also an unleavened bread day!

Therefore, the first day right after that becomes the Wave Sheaf Offering Day. This year we didn’t have that. This year we had the Passover in the middle of the week. We had the three days and three nights in the tomb, and we had the resurrection at the end of the Sabbath. Then we have Christ ascending on the Wave Sheaf Offering Day on the morrow after the Sabbath to be accepted for us, when He was accepted.

Verse 12 (FV): “And you shall offer that day when you wave the sheaf, a male lamb without blemish of the first year for a burnt offering to the LORD.... [this was also a type of Christ] ...And its grain offering shall be two tenth parts of fine flour mixed with oil, an offering made by fire to the LORD for a sweet savor. And the drink offering of it shall be of wine, the fourth part of a hin. And you shall eat neither bread, nor parched grain, nor green ears until the same day, until you have brought an offering to your God...” (vs 12-14).

Here’s what we have: After they entered into the land, and after they had the very first Wave Sheaf Offering, from that time on then they could eat the old corn and the new corn. Of course, every year coming up to that time they could always eat the old corn coming up to the time of the Wave Sheaf Offering Day but they couldn’t eat any of the new corn, or that is the new grain. They couldn’t take it and dry it and parch it like it says here.

Verse 14: “And you shall eat neither bread, nor parched grain, nor green ears until the same day, until you have brought an offering to your God. It shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.”

Let’s see how it was fulfilled when they came into the land. Now this becomes very important and this is one of those weeks where the weekly Sabbath was the Passover Day. Therefore, the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread being the first day of the week after the Passover Sabbath, became the Wave Sheaf Offering Day.

Joshua 5:10: “And the children of Israel camped in Gilgal and kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month at evening in the plains of Jericho. And they ate of the old grain of the land on the next day after the Passover, unleavened cakes and roasted new grain in the same day” (vs 10-11).

So, the morrow after the Passover was the 15th, and that was the Wave Sheaf Offering Day that year when they entered into the ‘promised land’; therefore, they could eat of the old corn, which was the harvest that they got from conquering on the east side of the Jordan.

They had stores of grain, they had the new harvest already planted and grown ready to harvest. What they did, they took a premier sheaf right from the harvest that had been planted. The priest waved it before God, elevated it, and it was accepted on the morrow after the Sabbath, and the Sabbath being the Passover Day, and that's why this took place. Notice that they also ate unleavened bread with it.

Verse 12: "And the manna stopped on the next day after they had eaten the grain of the land. And there was no more manna for the children of Israel, but they ate the fruit of the land of Canaan that year." So there it was fulfilled! There was the command that God gave, and we saw it fulfilled.

Lev. 23 (SB)—again, I'm going to read from the Schocken version of the Bible—tells us how we are to count because counting is very important. There are still some people who believe in a Monday Pentecost. Unfortunately, there's no such thing as a Monday Pentecost, has never been and can't be, especially when you understand the counting.

Leviticus 23:15 (SB): "Now you are to number for yourselves, from the morrow... [that means beginning with the morrow after the Sabbath] ...of the Sabbath..."

The reason is because you have to count that first day, because Christ was accepted on that day. He ascended to the Father, and His ascension made Him accepted as the sacrifice for our sins. So, that day must be counted.

"...from the day that you bring the elevated sheaf, seven Sabbaths-of-days, whole (weeks) are they to be; until the morrow of the seventh Sabbath you are to number—fifty days, then you are to bring-near a grain-gift of new-crops to [the LORD] YHWH. From your settlements you are to bring bread as an elevation-offering, two (loaves of) two tenth-measures of flour are they to be, leavened you are to bake them, as firstfruits to [the LORD] YHWH" (vs 15-17).

Now let's go back and analyze these two verses just a little bit more.

1. you are to number beginning with the morrow after the Sabbath
2. from the day, that means including the day, that you bring the Wave Sheaf Offering
3. you are to have seven Sabbaths
4. whole weeks are they to be

This is very easy to figure out once you understand!

You start day one, which is the Wave Sheaf Offering Day, which is on a Sunday; in 7 days you come to Sabbath. Then you count seven Sabbaths, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, that gives you 49 days. "...until the morrow of the seventh Sabbath you are to number—fifty days..."

If you went to Monday you would actually be numbering 51 days. So, this is 50 days. On the morrow of the 7th Sabbath you are to number 50 days, so that's:

5. to the morrow of the 7th Sabbath
6. number 50 days
7. you are to bring a grain offering of the new crop to the LORD

So, you've got those seven steps that you are to do.

This offering that was to come was the only meal offering, or bread offering where God required that leaven be put in it. Leaven was never in any of the other offerings. They were always unleavened. There's a reason for them being leavened and I'll let you come back tomorrow and find out what that reason is. I'll sort of leave you in suspended animation here. However, there's a distinct purpose in it.

Just understand that during the Feast of Unleavened Bread leaven is a picture of sin. On Pentecost leaven here pictures something entirely different. I used to say that it was that God accepted us even though we have the law of sin and death in us, which is a true statement. But I'll cover a little bit more of that tomorrow so we'll understand more about that.

Verse 18: "And you are to bring-near along with the bread seven sheep, wholly-sound, a year old..."

- What is the Church called? The Church is called the flock of God! Sheep are of the flock!
- Isn't it interesting that we have seven sheep?
- Are those a type of the seven churches in Revelation that we've covered already? Could very well be!

"...And one bull, a young of the herd, and rams, two, they shall be an offering-up for [the LORD] YHWH..." (v 18).

Exactly what all of these picture other than whole burnt offerings, complete dedication to God, that's what that shows.

"...With their grain-gift and their poured-offerings, a fire-offering of soothing savor to [the LORD] YHWH. And you are to perform-as-sacrifice: one hairy goat for a hattat... [atonement] ...and two sheep, a year old, for a slaughter-offering of shalom" (vs 18-19)—a peace offering! That is so you can have peace with God, sit down and eat with Him, as it were.

Verse 20: "The priest is to elevate them, together with the bread of the firstfruits as an elevation-offering before the presence of [the LORD] YHWH, together with the two sheep; they shall be a Holy-portion for [the LORD] YHWH, for the priest. And you are to make-proclamation on that same day..." (vs 20-21).

You have the 50 days, you have the same day! We don't go to the 51st day.

Tomorrow we will see, when we come to Acts 2, what it's talking about there, the very first verse talking about Pentecost means from the Greek, and I have written a booklet on it: The True Meaning of Acts 2:1, and we also have two other booklets on counting Pentecost:

1. Count to Pentecost: From the Morrow After Which Sabbath?
2. How to Count Pentecost

The Greek there has a very special construction which is called an articular present tense infinitive, meaning that when the Day of Pentecost was being fulfilled, or when the 50th day was being fulfilled, or accomplished, or being completed, not yet finished. That shows that you cannot move over to the 51st day. They didn't wait until the day after the 50th day, they did it on that day.

Now then let's look at some other things concerning Pentecost and how those fit into the meaning of it.

Now we also have a message with a chart, and it's called *From The Red Sea to Mt. Sinai*_[transcriber's correction] It took the children of Israel 7 weeks to get from Egypt to Sinai: 7 weeks less 3 days.

Exodus 19:1: "In the third month when the children of Israel had gone forth out of the land of Egypt, on the same day..."—the same day of the week!

The Passover that Israel had in Egypt was in the middle of the week, on a Wednesday. So, Tuesday night is when they ate the Passover. Tuesday night is when the firstborn were killed, the death of the firstborn. Then Wednesday morning our time they got up and they gathered all the spoil of the Egyptians and assembled at Rameses and then that Wednesday night beginning the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, The Night Much to be Observed—430 years after the promise given to Abraham—they departed from Rameses. That is the same day of the week that they came into the wilderness of Sinai!

Verse 3: "And Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him out of the mountain, saying, 'Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob and tell the children of Israel, "You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you unto Myself. Now, therefore, if you will obey My voice indeed..." (vs 3-5).

Brethren, I want to emphasize this again over and over and over again. The whole key is to obey the voice of God!

Deuteronomy 8:3: "...man does not live by bread alone; but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of the LORD does man live"

Here we have all the words that God has for us that He spoke or inspired, one of the two, and it's out of the mouth of the LORD. It's the key thing. Same thing you find with Abraham. Same thing you find with all of those who were the prophets of God. They obeyed the voice of God!

Exodus 19:5: "...and keep My covenant..." Not only do you have to obey the voice, but you have to keep the covenant! That's for us today too in the same way.

"...and keep My covenant, then you shall be a special treasure to Me above all people; for all the earth is Mine. And you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a Holy nation." These are the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel.' And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before them all these words, which the LORD commanded him. And all the people answered together and said, 'All that the LORD has spoken we will do.' And Moses returned the words of the people to the LORD" (vs 5-8).

How was Israel going to be a peculiar nation, a kingdom of priests? Let's see what they were supposed to do! Again, we have the same thing all the way through the Bible, obeying the voice of God!

Deuteronomy 4:1: "And now, O Israel, hearken to the statutes and to the judgments, which I teach you, in order to do them, so that you may live and go in and possess the land, which the LORD God of your fathers gives to you. You shall not add to the word, which I command you; neither shall you take away from it, so that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you" (vs 1-2).

Now just to make a point, and we covered this on the Seven Church Harvest #3 concerning Baalim.

Verse 3: "Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of Baal Peor..."

That's what the Moabites came in and enticed the Israelites to come and do sacrifice to their gods. That was under the instruction of Baalim to Balak to do so.

"...For the LORD your God has destroyed from among you all the men that followed Baal Peor" (v 3).

God wants you to learn. Don't go do what the others did. Don't go out and bring something from the world and bring it in and try and make it a part of God's way. The same thing applies today. We're not to do that.

Verse 4: "And you who held fast to the LORD your God are alive, every one of you, this day. Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the LORD my God commanded me, so that you should do so in the land where you go to possess it" (vs 4-5).

Now here's how they were to be a kingdom of priests and a Holy nation:

Verse 6: "And you shall keep and do them, for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes and say, 'Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.' For what nation is so great whose God is so near to them, as the LORD our God is, whenever we call upon Him? And what great nation has statutes and judgments that are so righteous as all this Law, which I set before you today?" (vs 6-8). That's why no one can improve upon God's way!

Now IF the Word of God needs to be changed God will change it! He did so in the New Covenant when Christ made all the laws more spiritually binding, raised them to a higher level of obedience than we've had in the past. We need to understand this concerning law-keeping and grace under the New Covenant:

- because we have the Laws of God written in our heart and mind through the power of God's Holy Spirit
- because we stand in the grace of God

When we keep the commandments today, we are doing so as an operation of grace, because we do it from the heart filled with the Holy Spirit. That's something you need to understand because a lot of Protestants will tell you that what you do is to keep the Law and the Law is against grace. No such thing! The Law is there to:

- show us
- teach us
- lead us
- guide us

If we sin, the Law is there to convict us of sin! When we repent through the operation of grace then we're restored to God!

Now, for the children of Israel, they were to do this for the whole world, and needless to say, they failed. But God said never the less, that's what He wanted.

Let's come back here to Exo. 19 and continue on with the rest of the account leading up to the day of Pentecost when the Ten Commandments were given. And that's something very important to really understand.

Exodus 19:10: "And the LORD said to Moses, 'Go to the people and sanctify them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their clothes. And be ready for the third day...'" (vs 10-11).

So, you have Friday, Sabbath and Sunday; Sunday is the third day. What did they do? They washed their clothes on Friday and got all prepared! They kept the Sabbath because that sanctified them, and then God came down the third day and brought the Ten Commandments.

Now let's see how that went, v 14: "And Moses went down from the mountain to the people and sanctified the people. And they washed their clothes. And he said to the people, 'Be ready for the third day. Do not approach a woman.' And it came to pass on the third day in the morning..." (vs 15-16).

We're going to see there are parallels between this and Acts 2 when we come to Acts 2 tomorrow, because it was in the morning that the events took place in Acts 2. Same way here. How would you like to wake up to this?

"...that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mountain. And the sound of the trumpet..." (v 16).

There's something to understand. The trumpet is always blown on every Holy Day. The Feast of Trumpets is a memorial of blowing of trumpets all day long! That's why it's called the Feast of Trumpets.

"...was exceedingly loud... [here it is the trumpet] ...so that all the people in the camp trembled. And Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet with God.... [what an absolutely awesome thing that must have been] ...And they stood at the base of the mountain. And Mount Sinai was smoking, all of it because the LORD came down upon it in fire. And the smoke of it went up like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked greatly" (vs 16-18).

Imagine this whole thing just all of the sound of the thunder and the lightning—recorded in Heb. 12—and the wind that was with it, and the earth quaking. If there's one thing that really puts fear into people, that's to have the ground beneath them shaking. That's exactly what was happening here.

We live in California and we know what that's like. Those of you back in the Midwest and East have tornadoes, and you know what that's like. You can get afraid of that, do it's the same thing.

Verse 19: "And when the sound of the trumpet sounded long, and became very strong, Moses spoke, and God answered him by voice. And the LORD came down upon Mount Sinai on the top of the mountain. And the LORD called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up. And the LORD said to Moses, 'Go down. Command the people, lest they break through unto the LORD to gaze, and many of them perish'" (vs 19-21).

You can't look upon the glorified form of God as a physical human being and live. That's what God told Moses when he said, 'I beseech thee, shew me thy glory.' God said, 'You cannot see My face, for there shall no man see me and live.'" God in His glory living eternally in spiritually has that power just radiating from His very body. This is what happened here. He says, "...to gaze, and many of them perish."

Verse 22: "And let the priests also, who come near to the LORD, sanctify themselves, lest the LORD break forth upon them.' And Moses said to the LORD, 'The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai, for You commanded us, saying, "Set bounds around the mountain, and sanctify it.'" And the LORD said to him, 'Away! Get you down, and only you shall come up, you and Aaron with you. But do not let the priests and the people break through to come up to the LORD, lest He break forth upon them.' And Moses went down to the people, and spoke to them" (vs 22-25).

Then God gave the Ten Commandments. You know what they are, we've gone over these many, many times. But let's understand something very important here in relationship to Pentecost and the Sabbath. God gave the Ten Commandments on the Day of Pentecost, which is a Holy Day. God pronounced that the Sabbath was to be remembered and to be kept so there is no excuse by any Sunday-keeper to claim because the New Testament Church began on Pentecost that the first day of the week is the day that God wanted to keep instead of the seventh day. Not so. IF you:

- accept Pentecost
- accept the commandments of God
- accept the Sabbath of God
- accept the words of God

God spoke all those words! It was too much for the people to bear:

Exodus 20:18: "And all the people saw the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking. And when the people saw, they trembled and stood afar off. And they said to Moses, 'You speak with us, and we will hear. But let not God speak with us, lest we die'" (vs 18-19).

What did that do? That gave them one person removed from God so they could say, 'Moses said...' instead of 'God said...' Remember that everything Moses said was what God said he was to say!

This was a carnal excuse showing that the carnal mind is not subject to the Law of God neither indeed can be; that it cannot hear the Laws of God! That's the whole lesson here with this. That's why when you go to Deut. 18 God said He would send Jesus Christ to come in the flesh to speak to them as a man rather than speak to them as God. To speak to them with words that they could hear and understand rather than speaking with such great power and force that you are so afraid that there was hardly anything you could remember. Yet, they rejected Christ! That's the way that the carnal mind is.

Let's see some things that are important concerning this. Moses went back up on the mount. God gave him all the statutes and judgments. Let's understand something that's very important: On the very day that God gave the Ten Commandments He also gave the Holy Days. Do you realize that?

Exodus 23:12: "Six days you shall do your work, and on the seventh day you shall rest, so that your ox and your donkey may rest, and the son of your handmaid, and the stranger, may be rejuvenated. And be watchful in all that I have said to you. And make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of your mouth" (vs 12-13).

This precludes anything concerning Christmas, Easter, New Years, and any of the pagan holidays that any of the nations had, and they go right back to the very same thing that we see in the world today. God said don't even mention it. That is in the way that that is something that you would do. Yet, look what happened to the Worldwide Church of God:

- totally taken down
- totally subverted
- totally back into the world they have

- forgotten the words of God
- forgotten the commandments of God
- had every lying excuse under the sun
 - ✓ to get rid of the Sabbath
 - ✓ to get rid of the Holy Days and to embrace Sunday, and Christmas, and Easter, and all of that!

Now you understand why God puts these warnings in here over and over again. Perhaps taking up as much as one third of the whole Bible to tell you to beware to don't do the things that the pagans do! Yet, some people never get it. They never get it.

Verse 14. "You shall keep a Feast unto Me three times in the year. You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread. You shall eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month of Abib, for in it you came out of Egypt. And no one shall appear before Me empty. Also, the Feast of the Harvest of the Firstfruits of your labors, which you have sown in the field. And the Feast of Ingathering, in the end of the year, when you have gathered in your labors out of the field. Three times in the year all your males shall appear before the Lord GOD" (vs 14-17).

There it is right there. On the same day that God gave the Ten Commandments with the Sabbath; He also gave the Holy Days.

IF you accept one then you have to accept all, because IF you do not accept all you are diminishing from it! When you diminish from it the natural proclivity to do is add to it. That's what the children of Israel did. That's their whole history.

Exo. 24 is where the covenant was made. Here is the marriage covenant between the Lord GOD Who became Jesus Christ for the New Testament. This is the marriage covenant between the Lord GOD and Israel that took place. The Old Covenant was a marriage covenant.

Exodus 24:1: "And He said to Moses, 'Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, and worship afar off.... [we will see why all of them came up] ...And Moses alone shall come near the LORD, but they shall not come near. Neither shall the people go up with him.' And Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD, and all the judgments. And all the people answered with one voice and said, 'All the words which the LORD has said, we will do'" (vs 1-3). When there is a marriage you ask:

For the wife: According to the covenant do you accept? Do you promise to love and obey to submit to your husband in all things as unto the LORD, whether in sickness or in health, whether in want or in wealth?

It's the same way with the man: Do you promise and covenant with God to faithfully love your wife, to cleave to her, to cherish her, to honor her, to provide for her? And he says, 'Yes I do.'

That is a marriage covenant! That's what this is. These words are the words that God said, 'that you should be Mine.'

Verse 4: "And Moses wrote all the words of the LORD..." God always has His covenants written down! That is the record! That's why we have the new Covenant written down. That is the record.

"...and rose up early in the morning, and built an altar at the base of the mountain and twelve pillars according to the twelve tribes of Israel. And he sent young men of the children of Israel who offered burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings of bullocks to the LORD" (vs 4-5).

The reason he took young men—these may have been Levites—but the Levitical priesthood was not yet consecrated. Therefore, he took the young men, and I'm sure they were Levites.

Notice what happens next, because there is no covenant that is made without blood. And without the shedding of blood there is no covenant.

Verse 6: "And Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basins, and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar. And he took the Book of the Covenant, and read in the ears of the people. And they said, 'All that the LORD has said we will do, and be obedient.' And Moses took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, and said, 'Behold the blood of the covenant, which the LORD has made with you concerning all these words'" (vs 6-8).

Notice that this covenant was made on the day after Pentecost. We will see tomorrow that is significant in relationship to the eternal covenant that God is going to make with the Church when the Church is resurrected.

Verse 9: "And Moses went up, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel. And they saw the God of Israel. And *there was under His feet as it were a paved work of a sapphire stone, and as it were the heavens in clearness" (vs 9-10). *This is called in the New Testament the Sea of Glass!

Whenever God comes down and is in a particular place, if He's there for any length of time then there is the Sea of Glass. Now this Sea of Glass was also so that the people could not see up in toward God. But the elders who were right up close could see up into it, but the people couldn't. This was to establish the fact for all the people who the 70 elders represented that they saw God and that this covenant was sure and that it was true!

Verse 11: "And upon the nobles of the children of Israel He did not lay his hands. Also they saw God, and ate and drank."

What did they have? They had a wedding feast! In this particular case, since God was dealing with carnal human beings He could not come down and eat with them directly. This wedding feast then had the:

- representatives of Israel being the 70 elders,
- representatives of the priesthood being Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu,
- representative of the high priest being Moses, who was a type of Christ

He was the One Who went to the Father. He was the One Who became Jesus Christ!

Verse 12: “And the LORD said to Moses, ‘Come up to Me in the mountain, and be there. And I will give you tablets of stone, and the law, and commandments which I have written, so that you may teach them.’ And Moses rose up, and his attendant Joshua. And Moses went up into the mountain of God. And he said to the elders, ‘You wait here for us until we come again to you. And behold, Aaron and Hur are with you. If any man has a cause, let him come to them.’ And Moses went up into the mountain, and a cloud covered the mountain. And the glory of the LORD abode upon Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days. And the seventh day He called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud” (vs 12-16).

Moses had to wait seven days. I’m sure after Nadab, Abihu, and Aaron and the 70 of elders had finished eating, they went back down to be with the rest of the children of Israel. Moses went up into the mount.

Verse 17: “And the sight of the glory of the LORD was like a consuming fire on the top of the mountain to the eyes of the children of Israel. And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and went up into the mountain. And Moses was in the mountain forty days and forty nights” (vs. 17-18).

We won’t get into much of the rest of the story that took place there lest we get away from understanding about the Day of Pentecost. I’m covering it in the Old Testament today on Day 49 so that will lead us up to the New Testament tomorrow.

Now let’s look and see that this was a marriage. Isa. 54 tells us very clearly that what happened there with the covenant that was made. It was a marriage covenant on the day after Pentecost with the blood of the covenant that was sprinkled on the people; that was sprinkled on the altar. Moses read all the words that God commanded them to do, and they said, ‘Yes we will do that.’ We find it talks about Israel being the wife of the LORD.

Isaiah 54:5: “For your Maker is your husband...”

This is not only is talking about Israel, because Israel was married to God, but in this particular case this is also a prophecy of the New Testament Church.

“...the LORD of hosts is His name; and your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel; the God of the whole earth shall He be called, for the LORD has called you as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit... [that is while they were down in Egypt] ...and a wife of youth, when you were rejected,’ says your God” (vs 5-6).

Israel refused even though they said yes, their whole action said ‘we refuse.’

- that’s why God had to divorce them
- that’s why God had to put them away.
- that’s why God had to leave them and forsake them because they left God and forsook God for other gods and broke the covenant! We need to understand that concerning the covenant with Jesus Christ, because it is His body that is broken for us. It is His blood that is shed for us, and that is the blood of the New Covenant!

Now let’s understand the children of Israel, they broke the covenant. They were punished for it. But IF we break the covenant—the covenant with Christ, the covenant unto eternal life—THEN we have nothing to look forward to but eternal death.

You either will love God and keep His commandments, accept Jesus Christ, or you will be in the Lake of Fire. Some people may even get mad at me for saying that. But let’s understand something, you either:

- follow Christ
- obey Him
- love God the Father
- keep all of His commandments

or

- you have the Lake of Fire to look forward to

Under Moses they were stoned. But when you do despite to the Spirit of grace you are cast into the Lake of Fire and you are eternally dead! There’s no resurrection from that.

Now let’s come to the New Testament. Matt. 13 is a very important chapter, because this shows that what Christ was working out from the time He came until the end of the age is likened unto a harvest! That’s why Pentecost is the harvest of the firstfruits beginning with the first one, the Wave Sheaf Offering or the Premier Sheaf was accepted of God. Christ was the first! The rest of it is what He is doing. It is a harvest! It is a planting! That’s what God is doing.

Now we need to understand these parables here:

Matthew 13:18 showing the harvest: “Therefore, hear the parable of the sower... [now the sower was Christ] ...When anyone hears the Word of the Kingdom and does not understand it, the wicked one comes and snatches away that which was sown in his heart...”

That is something we need to understand. Brethren, don't let Satan come and take that away which was sown in your heart! We have seen somewhere that has happened to, and I'm afraid that there are going to be great problems.

“...This is the one who was sown by the way. Now, the one who was sown upon the rocky places is the one who hears the Word and immediately receives it with joy; but because he has no root in himself, he does not endure; for when tribulation or persecution arises because of the Word, he is quickly offended” (vs 19-21).

We can't let that happen to us either. We've also seen that take place, haven't we? That's why all things work together for good for those who love God and are called according to His purpose!

Verse 22: “And the one who was sown...” So this is a planting! We'll see when the harvest takes place, because there's another aspect of it that we have to understand here.

“...among the thorns is the one who hears the Word, but the cares of this life and the deceitfulness of riches choke the Word, and it becomes unfruitful” (v 22).

Now then, remember the parable of the rich man who came to Christ and said, ‘Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?’ Jesus said, ‘Keep the commandments.’ The rich man asked, ‘Which?’ So, Jesus listed off all the commandments having to do with loving your neighbor. Of course, they were living in a land where:

- they were keeping the Sabbath; that was not the issue
- they were keeping the Holy Days; that was not the issue
- they had the right God; that was not the issue
- they had no idols there; that was not the issue

So that's why Jesus didn't mention the first four commandments in that account in Matt. 19!

Verse 23: “But the one who was sown on good ground...” as compared to the others!

The rich man went away very sorrowful because he had many riches. Typical example of the one where the seed is sown among the thorns and the weeds; the cares of the world, the deceitfulness of riches.

“...this is the one who hears the Word and understands, who indeed brings forth fruit and produces—one a hundredfold, another sixtyfold and another thirtyfold” (v 23).

Then He gave another parable; v 24: And He put another parable before them, saying, ‘The Kingdom of Heaven is compared to a man who was sowing good seed in his field; but while men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went away’ (vs 24-25)—and the tares and the wheat grew up together!

Verse 27: “And the servants came to the master of the house and said to him ‘Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? Then where did these tares come from?’”

We've seen the same thing, too. We've lived through that, haven't we? The enemy Satan the devil infiltrates the Church and what do we have? We have tares! We have false doctrine! Right alongside those who are producing the good!

Christ said, ‘No, don't tear them up, but you wait until the harvest.’ Pentecost is the harvest!

Verse 37: “And He answered and said to them, ‘The One Who sows the good seed is the Son of man; and the field is the world; and the good seed, these are the children of the Kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one’” (vs 37-38).

As we find in 1-John, they are the ones who are practicing lawlessness. I tell you that is something, the mystery of lawlessness or the mystery of iniquity is really an awesome thing indeed.

Verse 39: “Now, the enemy who sowed them is the devil; and the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are the angels.... [we'll see this takes place concerning the resurrection] ...Therefore, as the tares are gathered and consumed in the fire, so shall it be in the end of this age” (vs 39-40). We're going to see when this age ends.

Verse 41: “The Son of man shall send forth His angels, and they shall gather out of His Kingdom all the offenders and those who are practicing lawlessness; and they shall cast them into the furnace of fire; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the Kingdom of their Father. The one who has ears to hear, let him hear” (vs 41-43). We'll see that's very important when we come to the harvest that God has!

Now then, there are seven weeks to the harvest. This Sabbath ended the seventh week to the harvest. Then there was the 50th day offering that took place. We have seven churches, and I think that the seven churches represent, not necessarily just in time sequence, but represent in type the seven weeks to the harvest! That is the Church age and the Church harvest; they will be in the first resurrection.

There will be more in the first resurrection, which we will see, and we will cover that tomorrow because there is also the 50th day harvest, which then is the harvest of God. So, the seven churches represent the 49-day harvest!

Now let's come back to Matt. 22 because we're going to ask the question, and we will try and answer it tomorrow: Will everyone in the first resurrection be the Bride of Christ? We've thought in the past, yes that is so, but let's read the parable here in:

Matthew 22:1—there's a lot for us to learn right here: "And again Jesus answered and spoke to them in parables, saying, 'The Kingdom of Heaven is compared to a man who was a king, who made a wedding feast for his son... [now the king is God the Father, the son is Christ] ...and sent his servants... [which then began with the apostles and whoever the true servants of God are] ...to call those who had been invited to the wedding feast; but they refused to come.... [these are the guests] ...Afterwards he sent out other servants, saying 'Say to those who have been invited, 'Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and the fatted beasts are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the wedding feast'''" (vs 1-4)—there was going to be a marriage supper.

We saw there was a marriage supper with the first covenant with Moses, and Aaron, and Nadab, and Abihu, and the 70 elders of Israel. They did eat and drink. That was the marriage supper. So, here's the supper all ready to go.

Verse 5: "But they paid no attention and went away, one to his farm, and another to his business. And the rest, after seizing his servants, insulted and killed them. Now, when the king heard it, he became angry; and he sent his armies and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city. Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding feast indeed is ready... [so there's going to be a time when the wedding is going to be ready] ...but those who were invited were not worthy; therefore, go into the well-traveled highways, and invite all that you find to the wedding feast.' And after going out into the highways, those servants brought together everyone that they found, both good and evil; and the wedding feast was filled with guests" (vs 5-10).

- there is going to be God the Father, Who is the King and is going to perform the ceremony

- there's going to be Christ
- there is going to be the Bride.
- there are going to be guests

All of them will be there for this event!

Is this telling us that not everyone in the first resurrection will be part of the Bride of Christ? Perhaps it is!

Verse 11: "And when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not dressed in proper attire for the wedding feast; and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you enter here without a garment fit for the wedding feast?' But he had no answer. Then the king said to the servants, 'Bind his hands and feet, and take him away, and cast him into the outer darkness.' There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth" (vs 11-13).

In this parable it can't be shown about the resurrection because this is showing about the wedding. In other words, no one is going to get there unless they have the wedding garments! They won't get there because they'll have to be in the first resurrection. If they're not in the first resurrection then they rejected the call, and they didn't do what God wanted to do, then sure enough they will be cast out into outer darkness, and there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Verse 14: "For many are called, but few are chosen."

Let's look at the parallel account in Luke 14, and I think this is quite profound when we put the whole chapter of Luke 14 together and see the things as they took place.

Luke 14:15: "Then one of those who sat at the table with Him, after hearing these things, said to Him, 'Blessed is the one who shall eat bread in the Kingdom of God.' But He said to him, 'A certain man made a great supper, and invited many. And he sent his servants at suppertime to say to those who had been invited, "Come, for everything is now ready." But everyone with one consent began to excuse himself. The first said to him, "I have bought a field, and I need to go out to see it; I beg you to have me excused." And another said, "I have bought five pairs of oxen, and I am going to try them out; I beg you to have me excused." And another said, "I have married a wife, and because of this I am unable to come"" (vs 15-20).

All of these are good and valid excuses, aren't they? I mean, in the modern work-a-day place that we live in today. But that has nothing to do with valid excuses for obeying God. You've been given the invitation! Are you going to come? Well, we'll see!

Verse 21: “And that servant came and reported these things to his lord. Then the master of the house was angry; and he said to his servant, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor, the crippled, the lame and the blind.’ And the servant said, ‘Sir, it has been done as you commanded, and there is still room.’ Then the lord said to the servant, ‘Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, so that my house may be filled” (vs 21-23). God is going to accomplish His work!

- there is going to be the wedding
- there will be Christ
- there will be the Bride
- there will be the guests

Verse 24: “For I tell you, not one of those men who were invited shall taste of my supper.”

Notice that this ties in with the other parable where many are called but few are chosen, and here is why only few are chosen: because few repent! Few repent with this kind of attitude.

What you need to do when we read these Scriptures, you apply them to yourself and I’ll apply them to myself, because this is the qualification for the wedding invitation:

Verse 25: “And great multitudes were going with Him; and He turned and said to them, ‘If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father and mother, and wife, and children, and brothers and sisters, and, in addition, his own life also, he cannot be My disciple” (vs 25-26)—and you cannot be in the first resurrection, whether you’re called to be part of the Bride or whether you’re called to be a guest.

- Have we done that?
- Do we continue to do that?
- Have we set our minds that we are going to always do that?
 - ✓ that we will be faithful
 - ✓ that we will be loving
 - ✓ that we will be obedient to God in all circumstances
 - ✓ that we have this set before us
- that’s all a part of counting the cost
- that’s what we did when we were baptized
- that’s what we continually do as we go down through the walk that we have with God in
 - ✓ walking in the truth
 - ✓ walking in the light
 - ✓ serving God in the way that we do

Verse 27: “And whoever does not carry his cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple.” The Greek there is the very strongest: ‘un dunatai’—it is impossible to be His disciple.

If you’re not His disciple, you won’t be in the first resurrection and you won’t be in the resurrection for guests, or as the Bride either one.

Now let’s carry this a little bit further, we’ll see a parallel between Mt. Sinai and Mt. Sion in heaven above (Heb. 12), showing what is going to happen to those who will be, in what is called the Church of the Firstborn. That is us!

- we are the firstfruits
- Christ is the First of the firstfruits
- Christ is the Firstborn of the firstborn
- we are going to be part of the Church of the Firstborn

Let’s read that in Heb. 12, and notice how it starts out, how that it is Christ that we need to look to. Brethren, we need to really understand that. We don’t know what the days are going to be. We don’t know what the times are going to be. We don’t know exactly when these things are going to come, but I’ll guarantee you according to the Word of God that we are a whole lot closer to the end than when we first believed. You can guarantee that.

Here’s a whole example, Hebrews 12:1: “Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great throng of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight...” That’s what we need to do brethren!

- every care
- every problem
- every weight
- everything that is dragging us down

“...the sin that so easily entraps us...” (v 1).

- yes we’re weak in the flesh
- yes we have the law of sin and death in us
- yes these things come upon us

But they can be set aside through Christ!

“...and let us run the race set before us with endurance...” (v 1).

Today too many people have slowed down to a walk. They aren’t even trotting, and many of them are just sitting along the sidelines. They aren’t even participating in anything. They’ve just given up!

The way that you continue in this way is this, v 2. “Having our minds fixed on Jesus, the Beginner and Finisher of our faith...” We always need to look to Christ because:

- He’s the head of the Church
- He’s the One Who set us an example
- He is the One Who is our Savior

- He is the One Who is our sacrifice
- it is His blood that pays for our sins
- it is His sitting at the right hand of God

so that we are justified, that we have the grace of God given to us!

“...Who for the joy that lay ahead of Him... [look how He counted the trial that He went through] ...endured the cross, although He despised the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the Throne of God. Now meditate deeply on Him Who endured such great hostility of sinners against Himself so that you do not become weary and faint in your minds” (vs 2-3). I put a little note to myself in my Bible: and give up!

Brethren, we are not to give up! We are not to let these things slip away from us. We are not to let these things fall into disrepair because of neglect and disuse. We have to do as it says here:

Verse 4: “You have not yet resisted to the point of losing blood in your struggle against sin”—no, you haven’t! Yes, we’re going to have correction.

Verse 6: “for whom the Lord loves He chastens, and He severely disciplines every son whom He receives.” He chastens:

- so that we can be better
- so that we can grow
- so that we can bring forth more fruit

Now let’s see what all of this is going to do:

Verse 14. “Pursue peace with everyone, and Holiness, without which no one will see the Lord; looking diligently, lest anyone fall from the grace of God...” (vs 14-15).

People can fall from the grace of God. It is an absolute lie to say ‘once saved, always saved,’ that once you have been saved you have eternal security and regardless of what you do you cannot fall away. That is a blatant lie because it says right here:

“...lest anyone fall from the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and through this... [and when that happens]: ...many be defiled; lest there be any fornicator or godless person, as Esau, who for one meal sold his birthright; because you also know that afterwards, when he wished to inherit the blessing, he was rejected; and he found no room for repentance, although he sought it earnestly with tears” (vs 15-17).

Notice what Paul does here. He immediately shifts this right over into the spiritual reality of our existence in standing before Christ:

Verse 18: “For you have not come to the mount that could be touched and that burned with fire, nor to gloominess, and fearful darkness, and the whirlwind; and to the sound of the trumpet, and to the voice of the words, which those who heard, begged that the word not be spoken directly to them” (vs 18-19)—which we read in Exo. 19 & 20; we haven’t come to that mount!

Verse 20: “(For they could not endure what was being commanded: ‘And if even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned, or shot through with an arrow’; and so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, ‘I am greatly afraid and trembling’)” (vs 20-21). With this setting the tone, notice what Paul says:

Verse 22: “But you have come to Mount Sion, and to the city of the living God, heavenly Jerusalem; and to an innumerable company of angels; to the joyous festival gathering; and to the Church of the Firstborn...” (vs 22-23).

That’s where we have come to. You are part of the Church of the Firstborn. You are part of that general assembly:

“...registered in the Book of Life in heaven...” (v 23)—your name is in the Book of Life, and only you can take it out!

“...and to God, the Judge of all, and to the spirits of the just who have been perfected” (v 23). This is quite a thing, brethren:

- to be counted in this group
- to be of this part
- to be of this harvest
- to be there
- to be able to be on Mt. Sion with Christ

Verse 24: “And to Jesus, the Mediator of the New Covenant; and to sprinkling of the blood of ratification, proclaiming superior things than that of Abel.” I tell you it’s really quite a thing!

Then Paul gives a warning; v 25: “Beware that you do not refuse to hear Him Who is speaking! For if they did not escape judgment, who refused to hear the One Who was on the earth Divinely instructing them, how much more severely will we be judged, if we ourselves apostatize from Him Who speaks from heaven.”

I tell you, that’s something! The resurrection is going to be something. It is going to be a powerful thing that is going to take place.

Verse 26: “Whose voice then shook the earth, but now He has promised, saying, ‘Yet, once more I will shake not only the earth, but heaven also.’” We find back in Haggai 3, and the sea and the dry land, all of it.

So the return of Jesus Christ is going to be absolutely tremendous.

Verse 27: “Now the words ‘once more’ signify the removing of the things being shaken, as of things that were made, so that those things, which cannot be shaken may remain.” And that’s us!

Verse 28: “Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us have grace, through which we may serve God in a pleasing manner with reverence and awe; for our God is indeed a consuming fire” (vs 28-29). We are going to meet Him at the resurrection!

Now let’s answer the question here concerning the guests:

Revelation 19:1: “And after these things... [this is after the resurrection and we’ll see this is after being on the Sea of Glass] ...I heard the loud voice of a great multitude in heaven...”

They’re in heaven—the first heaven—where the Sea of Glass is, because we meet Christ in the air. That’s not in the heaven of heavens where God’s Throne is. That is in the heavens where those who are resurrected meet Christ in the air on the Sea of Glass!

“...saying, ‘Hallelujah! The salvation and the glory and the honor and the power belong to the Lord our God. For true and righteous are His judgments; for He has judged the great whore, who corrupted the earth with her fornication, and He has avenged the blood of His servants at her hand.’ And they said a second time, ‘Hallelujah! And her smoke shall ascend upward into the ages of eternity.’ And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God, Who sits on the throne, saying, ‘Amen. Hallelujah!’” (vs 1-4).

Verse 5: “And a voice came forth from the Throne, saying, ‘Praise our God, all His servants, and all who fear Him, both small and great.’ And I heard a voice like that of a great multitude, and like the sound of many waters, and the sound of mighty thunderings, saying, ‘Hallelujah! For the Lord God Almighty has reigned. Let us be glad and shout with joy; and let us give glory to Him; for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready” (vs 5-7).

Verse 8: “And it was granted to her that she should be clothed in fine linen, pure and bright; for the fine linen is the righteousness of the saints. And he said to me, ‘Write: Blessed are those who are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb’ (vs 5-9).

So all of those who are called to the marriage supper, all of those who are called to the wedding have a great and a fantastic blessing from God.

The Bride and Christ, when they are married, they will be in a special relationship forever! And we will see that tomorrow. So as Paul Harvey says, tune in for the rest of the story.

CHAPTER THIRTY-SEVEN

Phase One of the Return of Christ: The Sign of the Son of Man

(Day 49)

Fred R. Coulter

Greetings, brethren! Welcome to Day 49, the Sabbath before Pentecost! We've seen how to count Pentecost, particularly in this year when we had the Holy Day—the 1st Day of Unleavened Bread—on the weekly Sabbath.

The seven weeks of the harvest represent the seven churches in Rev. 2 & 3. The book of Revelation becomes the most important thing for us to consider with the churches and with the resurrection. When you count with the Calculated Hebrew Calendar, Pentecost is the last day! Let's see how important this is, and let's see how much is packed into the first three chapters of Revelation, and how that represents the Church, and the harvest of the Church.

Tomorrow [Pentecost] we will see that the harvest takes place with all included: those from the time of Abel on down to Christ, from Christ on down to the resurrection, all together raised in that first resurrection, which we will discuss tomorrow.

Note the audio and special effects for the book of Revelation on DVD {truthofgod.org}. The book of Revelation is so important and contains so many things that it is—without sufficient knowledge of the rest of the Bible—very difficult to understand.

- let's see what we are dealing with
- let's see why this is so important
- let's understand how God views things

What we have in Rev. is:

- God's view of the world
- God's view of the Church
- God's view of the things that are going to take place leading up to the return of Jesus Christ

We will see that the return of Jesus Christ is actually three phases^[transcriber's correction]. Today we will cover phase one.

Revelation 1:1: "The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave to Him, to show to His servants the things that are ordained to come to pass shortly; and He made it known, having sent it by His angel to His servant John who gave witness to the Word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ, and all the things he saw" (vs 1-2). I'm sure that many of them John did not understand!

Here's a blessing we can claim. This is why you cannot read and study the book of Revelation too much. But be sure that you read and study the rest of the Bible so you can plug everything in together.

Verse 3: Blessed is the one who reads, and those who hear the words of this prophecy and who keep the things that are written therein; for the time is at hand." Yes, the time right now really is at hand! We see three things here:

1. reading
2. hearing
3. keeping

That ties in with everything that God has given us in the Old Testament and the New Testament, which is:

- diligently keep His commandments, laws, precepts and so forth
- hearken, listen to and obey the Word of God
- pay particular attention to what has been written

We will see how important Rev. 2-3 actually are.

Verse 4: "John to the seven churches that are in Asia: Grace and peace be to you from Him Who is, and Who was, and Who is to come; and from the seven spirits that are before His Throne." {note our message: The Holy Spirit of God, the Seven Spirits of God}

- What are the seven Spirit's of God?
- What do they do?

Jesus is directing them!

Verse 5: "And from Jesus Christ... [these are His words, and that's very important for the Churches] ...the faithful Witness, the Firstborn from the dead, and the Ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him Who loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood."

That ties right in with the Passover and comes forward to the harvest. Counting toward Pentecost, a harvest Feast. Always remember that Trumpets is never a harvest Feast.

Verse 6: “And has made us kings and priests to God and His Father; to Him be the glory and the sovereignty into the ages of eternity. Amen. Behold, He is coming with the clouds, and every eye shall see Him... [we will see how that will work out later] ...and those who pierced Him; and all the tribes of the earth shall wail because of Him. Even so, Amen” (vs 6-7).

Verse 8 give us a perspective of how God views time, and how that God is capable of doing and thinking so many more things, especially when we consider the greatness of the universe that God has made, and the greatness of the things that He has put on the earth for us. God has given all mankind the earth to replenish, to multiply, to use the things that are here. What a wonderful blessing that is.

But unfortunately there is the adversary Satan the devil. We will see that interlaced through everything, all the way through the book of Revelation the adversary Satan the devil is fighting against God’s plan:

- against those who are brethren of Jesus Christ bringing

- confusion
- false doctrine
- false prophets

We’ll see that and how important that is!

Verse 8: “I am the Alpha and the Omega...” First and last letter of the Greek alphabet showing that He purposed that the New Testament be written in Greek, not in Hebrew.

“...the Beginning and the Ending,’ says the Lord, ‘Who is, and Who was, and Who is to come—the Almighty.” (v 8). We’re going to see something very important here: how many times Christ told John to write!

What we have here is very similar to what we have with Moses and God. God told Moses, ‘Speak to the children of Israel, saying...’ and Moses told the people what God was saying! Likewise here, Jesus is telling John to write, so John is not only a witness of these things, but he is also Jesus’ personal secretary!

There are those who will lament: Why didn’t Jesus write something so that we would know it was from Him? Well, He did! He dictated the things from John for the Churches.

Verse 10: “I was in the Spirit on the Day of the Lord...” John saw all these visions! For those who believe in Sunday, some translations have translated that as Sunday. So, Sunday-keeping is in the Bible! NO! Men have changed it to fit their traditions.

- When they do that, they cut themselves off from God!
- When they do that, they try and tell God what to do!

No man can tell God what to do! Otherwise, He is not God and is not Sovereign.

“...and I heard a loud voice like a trumpet behind me, saying, ‘I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, and what you see, write in a book, and send it to the churches that are in Asia: to Ephesus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamos, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea.’ And I turned to see the voice that spoke with me... [Where was it coming from?] ...and when I turned, I saw seven golden lampstands; and in the midst...” (vs 10-13).

It was in a circle! The reason that they’re in a circle is because of the way that the Churches are applied to that time, down through history and the end-time. Then John described them, beautiful and fantastic:

“...of the seven lampstands One like the Son of man, clothed in a garment reaching to the feet, and girded about the chest with a golden breastplate. And His head and hair were like white wool, white as snow; and His eyes were like a flame of fire; and His feet were like fine brass, as if they glowed in a furnace; and His voice was like the sound of many waters. And in His right hand He had seven stars, and a sharp two-edged sword went out of His mouth... [the Word of God (Heb. 4:12)] ...and His countenance was as the sun shining in its full power” (vs 10-16).

*God wants us to know that Christ is the Head of the Church, He is in charge of everything! Brethren, our relationship with God the Father and Jesus Christ is based upon this. Here we are given, directly, a message from Jesus Christ, not as a man, but as a living spiritual God!

Verse 17: “And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as if dead; but He laid His right hand upon me, saying to me, ‘Do not be afraid; I am the First and the Last, even the One Who is living; for I was dead, and behold, I am alive into the ages of eternity. Amen. And I have the keys of the grave and of death” (vs 17-18). No one else has any power concerning life or death spiritually, only Jesus Christ!

Verse 19: “Write...” That’s why we have the whole Bible written down; that’s why we have The Faithful Version. There are so many terrible translations out there, and they are, even now, working on a New Testament that eliminates the words: the Father and the Son—referring to God the Father and Jesus Christ, Who is God manifested in the flesh—so that they would not offend the Muslims. God could not care whether the Muslims are offended or not, because it applies to everyone!

Unless you repent, you shall likewise surely perish! God is not here to placate feelings. God is not here to play patty-cake, nicey-nicey. He is the powerful God, ruling the world, ruling the Church, upholding the universe by the word of His power! This is the One we have to deal with, and He gives us direct access to God the Father, the greatest, most wonderful thing through the power of the grace of God, to receive the Spirit of God and have direct access to Him! Never forget that!

Verse 19: “Write the things that you saw, and the things that are... [and He’s about ready to give those things] ...and the things that shall take place hereafter.... [interpretation]: ...The mystery of the seven stars that you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden lampstands, is this: the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches; and the seven lampstands that you saw are the seven churches” (vs 19-20). Quite an interpretation!

The Seven Churches:

Now let’s talk about the seven churches. What is the most important thing to God on the earth? His people! His Church! Who is the Head of the Church? Jesus Christ (Eph. 1:22-23)!

Think about this: God has given prophecies concerning nearly every major nation on earth. In fact, when He says ‘all nations’ in prophecies that is all nations! There are very few prophecies concerning the Church in the rest of the Bible outside the book of Revelation. That’s important to understand. What we have here in Rev. 2 & 3 is a threefold meaning of the seven churches. That’s why it’s written down.

1. the literal seven churches at the time that John was writing the book of Rev.
2. the churches down through history

We don’t know the exact cutoff from church to church. I’m sure there were overlaps, just like they existed all at one time as literal churches, prophetically they exist and there are overlaps without a doubt.

3. the end-time

What we find in Rev. 2 & 3 is God’s perspective of how He views the Churches. Jesus Christ is the Head of it. He has a message for everyone who is in the Church of God, and this is applicable at all times.

It’s not over here or over there, but there are predominate things that are problems in the Churches of God. If we would carefully examine

Rev. 2 & 3 we would see that those problems still exist today.

I. Church at Ephesus:

Revelation 2:1: “To the angel of the Ephesian church, write: ‘These things says He Who holds the seven stars in His right hand, Who walks in the midst of the seven golden lampstands....’”—direct from Christ!

So, Jesus did have things written. The whole book of Revelation, and as a matter of fact, the whole Bible!

Verse 2: “I know your works...” I want you to study everywhere it talks about works and see how important they are. The reason being is that you cannot have faith without works! What you believe is what you act upon. These are works of:

- faith
- the Spirit
- the Truth
- righteousness
- preaching the Gospel

He says this of every single church! As we read these things we will see that God knows everything we do. Why should that come as a surprise? Christ and God the Father are dwelling in us!

“...and your labor, and your endurance, and that you cannot bear those who are evil; and that you did test those who proclaim themselves to be apostles, but are not, and did find them liars” (v 2). We are to test whatever anyone preaches:

- Is it really the Truth of God?

or

- Is it clever lie?
- Are they the things that match up with everything else in the Bible: line upon line; precept upon precept; here a little, there a little?
- Does it cover exactly what God wants us to know?

or

- Is it pick and choose? I like this; we’ll do that! We don’t like this; we won’t do that!

That’s exactly what the false prophets do!

- What did Jesus tell us right at the first? Beware of false prophets that come to you in sheep’s clothing.
- What did He tell us right at the end? Beware of false prophets who will deceive you! (Matt. 24)

Here they tested them, and we are to test them! Brethren, I want to warn you right now today, there are false prophets within the Church of God who are teaching false doctrines and things contrary to the Truth of God and how God has set it forth! That's why we have the Word of God; to test it and to prove it.

Verse 3: "A that you have borne much and have endured, and for My name's sake have labored and have not grown weary; nevertheless, I have this against you, that you have left your first love" (vs 3-4).

What does that mean? What is the first love? The first love is the greatest commandment: to love God with all your heart, mind, soul, being and strength!

What did they start focusing on? Loving your neighbor as yourself! You can't love your neighbor as yourself unless you first love God! We are going to see that God can come upon a church at any time. We've actually seen that happen!

Verse 5: "Therefore, remember from where you have fallen, and repent..." All of the churches need to repent! Two of them are not told directly to repent, but we'll examine that when we get to it. Are we not to repent every day? Yes, we are!

"...and do the first works; for if you do not, I will come to you quickly; and I will remove your lampstand out of its place unless you repent" (v 5). We saw how that happened after John died!

- How the false prophets came in and by 200 years later what do we have? The Roman Catholic Church saying that they are Christian!
- Where do these false prophets come from? Satan the devil!
- What do they do? As Peter said, they twist and distort and do not know the Truth!

Always remember: If you have part of the Truth you also have error, because unless you have all the Truth... You can't pick and choose! That's what the false prophets did.

Verse 6: "But this you have: that you hate the works of the Nicolaitans..."—hierarchical government and a false grace!

You have a hierarchy but 'we don't need the Laws of God. If we have the Spirit of God we ought to be able to resist sin and not sin.' So, you don't need to worry about the commandments of God. At least they hated that!

Jesus said, "...which I also hate" (v 6). Think about that! You need to look and see if the ministers/elders are:

- teaching
- encouraging

- uplifting
- helping them to correct themselves
- always looking to God the Father and Jesus Christ

If they are, and not putting themselves between you and God the Father and Jesus Christ, then they are not Nicolaitans. But that has been a great sin in the Church of God!

Verse 7: "The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the Churches..."—all of them, so all of the correction throughout goes to the whole, to all the brethren!

"...To the one who overcomes... [we have to overcome] ...I will give the right to eat of the Tree of Life that is in the midst of the paradise of God" (v 7).

Remember: God loves us, and these things we are to watch for! That's why He has had it written down. There's going to come another time of persecution, just like it did here.

II. Church at Smyrna:

Verse 8: "And to the angel of the Church of the Smyrneans write: These things says the First and the Last, Who was dead but is alive. 'I know your works...'" (vs 8-9).

He says that to every one of the churches. How are we judged? By our works! Our works reflect what we think!

"...and tribulation and poverty (but you are rich)..." (v 9). If you remain faithful under duress and persecution and facing death—and you die—you are rich!

"...and the blasphemy of those who declare themselves to be Jews..." (v 9). That is they are declaring themselves to really be Christians!

Jesus said that salvation is of the Jews, and Paul said that a Jew was one who was circumcised inwardly! The circumcision is of the heart, not in the flesh; a spiritual Jew!

"...and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan" (v 9). Satan likes to get in there and lead us astray! Remember, he works by:

- incrementalism
- false prophets
- false apostles
- false teachings
- false doctrine

So, we have to be aware of all of that!

Verse 10: "Do not fear any of the things that you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, that you may be tried; and you shall have tribulation ten days. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you a crown of life."

Jesus said, 'Fear the One Who has power over life and death to cast into Gehenna! Do not fear men who can kill the body, but they can't kill the life!' We need to remember that, and we can see it already happening with the martyrs of Jesus right in today's world. You know that it's eventually going to come here. Don't fear any of that! "Be faithful unto death, and I will give you a crown of life." Throughout we will see:

- encouragement
- correction
- overcoming
- naming the major problems and difficulties that will face the Church

Verse 11: "The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. The one who overcomes shall not be hurt of the second death."

Take the opposite: The one who does not overcome will suffer the second death!

III. Church at Pergamos

Verse 12: "And to the angel of the Church in Pergamos, write..." They had a great temple and altar to Zeus, which is Satan the devil! When you live directly in Satan's world—like we do today:

- How much does that affect us?
- How much does that affect our thinking?
- How much did that affect the organization of the Church?

They were good for a while, so He gives a warning:

"...These things says He Who has the sharp two-edged sword" (v 12)—showing that God is going to judge everything by the Word of God!

It's going to cut, it's going to be true, and you cannot inculcate the practices of the false Christianity of this world into the Churches of God.

Verse 13: "I know your works and where you dwell, where the throne of Satan is; but you are holding fast My name, and did not deny My faith, even in the days in which Antipas was My faithful witness, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells."

Satan today is deceiving the whole world, so we need to be on guard!

- How much does that affect us?
- How many things do we think and believe come because we are in the world with all of these modern technological advances that bring everything:

- ✓ right into our homes?
- ✓ right into our lives?
- ✓ right into our minds?

We have great deal to overcome!

Verse 14: "But I have a few things against you because you have there those who hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols and to commit fornication." How does that translate to today?

- things sacrificed to idols
 - ✓ the Eucharist
 - ✓ the Lord's Supper
- spiritual fornication
- physical fornication
- same-sex marriage
- getting rid of things out of the Word of God to make it look like those are acceptable to God

Amazing, isn't it? Yes!

Verse 15: "Moreover, you also have those who hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate."

Why? Because it oppresses the brethren! They look to a man rather than Christ! That's why! Jesus is jealous over His Church. He does not want any of these things in His Church.

This is why, as we look at the harvest—like we find in Matt. 13—the world is the field; the seed is sown by Christ. There are many problems and difficulties that come along; yet, there are those who are the seed in the good ground who bring forth 30, 60 and 100-fold. Remember, the harvest is at the end of the age!

Verse 16: "Repent! For if you do not repent, I will come to you quickly, and will make war against them with the sword of My mouth."

He is going to come and execute the Word of God in correction, to separate, to get rid of, to scatter. We've all experienced that! The lesson is that you cannot mix the doctrines of this world— which come from Satan the devil—with the doctrines and teachings of God within the Church of God and expect God's blessing to be there!

All of these things we need to watch, because out in the world today, how many Churches of God are there? Well, pretty close to 12-1400 now! Within them you find every one of these things that we're reading here concerning the seven churches.

Verse 17: "The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who overcomes I will give the right to eat of the hidden manna; and I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written, which no one knows except the one who receives it.” There has to be repentance of these things!

Here we find not only personal sins, but also organizational sins. Christ—Who is the Head of the Church—is making sure that we all know what is the Truth and what is right, and what we need to do.

Again, we see what Christ repeats to all of the other churches, plus some of the other problems that Satan brings in. Notice how active Satan is against the Church. We find that Satan is going to make war against the Church, against the brethren. He accuses us day and night before the Throne of God, but we overcome him with the blood of Christ, the Word of our testimony—how we live—and not loving our lives unto death (Rev. 12).

Satan is there and controls the world; it all lies in the power of the ‘wicked one.’ That’s why Christ tells us to overcome!

IV. Church at Thyatira

Verse 18: “And to the angel of the Church in Thyatira write...”

When you have it written down, and you have the Bible in your hands, understand—we can draw a little analogy—it’s like receiving a legal notice from the court, which in this case is the Court of God, and Jesus is the Judge. When we receive that legal notice, we are to pay attention and obey, because if you do not obey that legal notice, then the law will be executed against you.

What is the final law that is given? The second death! We’ll see that here. Thyatira got itself in deep trouble. We will see that that is how the Protestants came about. That is what happened to the Church.

{Note DVD: Israel of the Alps produced by the Seventh Day Adventist Church}. You need to see that, because the Waldensians and those who lived in the Alps—protected from the world by God—began to compromise and take things into their own hands and not trust in God.

This is at a time in history when the Catholic Church was really becoming very powerful. We saw, starting right in the first part of Rev. 2 with false apostles, then martyrdom, then changing of doctrine and the hierarchy. Now comes the full-fledged false doctrines.

“...These things says the Son of God, He Who has eyes like a flame of fire, and His feet are like fine brass. I know your works, and love, and service, and faith, and your endurance, and your works; and the last are more than the first. But I have a few things against you, because you allow...” (vs 18-20). You are not to allow these things to happen!

There are Churches of God who allow women to preach, teach, and Paul said that a woman in the Church is not to have authority over a man.

In the world, wherever women work, they may have authority over men, but that’s not in the Church! That’s not the structure that God has set.

“...you allow the woman Jezebel...” (v 20)—the daughter of the priest of Baal, so here comes all the traditional pagan teachings being stored up and brought into the Catholic Church and it’s spilling over into the Churches of God. Thinking that if they can compromise a little bit, they can avoid persecution. But notice how severe Christ’s correction is with them:

“...who calls herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce My servants into committing fornication... [spiritual fornication] ...and eating things sacrificed to idols” (v 20)—the Eucharist and the Lord’s Supper! Doing away with the Passover!

Listen, brethren, IF you do not keep the Passover correctly, the way that it is in the Bible—and there are those today who have teachings contrary to what Jesus taught concerning the Passover—we need to ask ourselves: Since that is the renewing of the New Covenant, how do we stand before God if we change things?

One of the popular things today is having a calendar so that it is on a different day. Another popular thing is having foot-washing at the end of the Passover services, because they haven’t done enough study to understand that the King James Version is wrong when it says, ‘supper being ended.’ A completely flagrant mistranslation. So, you see how these things come about?

Verse 21: “And I gave her time to repent of her fornication, but she did not repent.” That was through the Reformation and the Council of Trent!

There was a party, believe it or not, of Catholics at the Council of Trent who said that ‘we should not have anymore traditions and doctrines that are not in the Bible, and we need to keep the Sabbath.’ But the Council of Trent extended for quite a while, and the final coup-de-gras that did them in, and the Catholic Church did not take advantage of that time to repent, was when the Protestants failed to keep the Sabbath. You can read that in Rome’s Challenge to the Protestants (Appendix N—The Holy Bible in Its Original Order).

The conclusion was that the Protestants say ‘sola scriptura’—Scriptures only—yet, they follow the Catholic doctrine of Sunday, which was a doctrine of the Roman Catholic Church and not in the Bible. Since they do that, ‘they have accepted our tradition, they have accepted our teachings’—the Catholic Church’s—and the Protestant Reformation is null and void ‘in our eyes, and we will keep our traditions and teachings.’

They did not repent! This is coming! This has happened! There was a lot of correction that God gave. One of the greatest corrections that God brought against the Roman Catholic Church was stripping her of the secular territories. Garibaldi did that in Italy. He took away all of the papal states and forced the Roman Catholic Church and the pope to only have sovereignty over the 100-plus acres where the Vatican sits today.

Let’s see what happens here; let’s see that it includes those who commit adultery with her. What is happening today? Protestants are going back to Rome, going back and committing spiritual adultery! This is living here for us today.

Let’s see what Christ has done because of those kinds of actions. Remember, today all the daughters of Babylon are coming back home, and the Churches of God need to be very careful that they do not take lightly:

- how they have to stand for the Truth
- how they have to love God and Jesus Christ under all circumstances
- how important that our works are

Verse 22: “...unless they repent of their works. And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am He Who searches the reins and hearts...” (vs 22-23). God knows everything: our heart, our mind, our thoughts!

- this is why we have the Feast days of God
- this is why we have a relationship with God with grace
 - ✓ not to take advantage of it to sin
 - ✓ not to do our own ways
 - ✓ not to compromise with the Truth of God
 - ✓ not to get comfortable and pleasant with everything around us
- “...I will kill her children with death...” If you kill them, they’re dead. But if they’re killed
- “...with death...” that has to be the second death!

“...and I will give to each of you... [every individual member] ...according to your works” (v 23).

You might go back and restudy this again and see how important this is. I think today is very important that we go through this word-by-word and see what is for us, and for the Churches of God, and what we need to do.

Brethren, we’re going to enter into the difficult times described by Jesus Christ (Matt. 24) and how it extends out into the book of Revelation, as well.

Verse 24: “But to you I say, and to the rest who are in Thyatira, as many as do not have this doctrine, and who have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will not cast upon you any other burden, but hold fast what you have until I come. And to the one who overcomes, and keeps My works unto the end...” (vs 24-26). The key: I know your works!

- Are they the works of Christ?
- Are we going to keep them to the end?
- Are we going to have the endurance that we need?

When the tough times come, all the ‘glad-hander get along, go along’ Christians are going to fall by the wayside. That’s the warning here.

“...the one who overcomes, and keeps My works unto the end...” (v 26).

How important are your works beginning here with the washing of the water by the Word?

“...I will give authority over the nations; and he shall shepherd them with an iron rod, as vessels of pottery are broken in pieces; as I have also received from My Father; and I will give him the morning star.... [spiritual life to shine like the sun] ...The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches” (vs 26-29).

It’s fitting that we read this, go through all of it and see and understand what we really need to do. There are so many, many things in the world today:

- to distract us
- to lead us astray
- to infiltrate our thoughts
- to infiltrate our mind
- to infiltrate our heart

All of those who belong to Churches of God need to constantly be testing:

- the doctrines
- the Truth
- the love
- the submission to God the Father and Jesus Christ
- loving each other as Christ has loved us

That is what we need to focus on!

But look at all these troubles that come. What happens when you get all worn out from difficult things that have come along? That happened to the Churches of God, too!

V. Church at Sardis

Revelation 3:1: “And to the angel of the Church in Sardis, write: ‘These things says He Who has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars. I know your works, and that you have a name as if you are alive, but are dead.’”

Here is just wanting to do the bare minimum. There are Churches of God like that today, especially those who do not keep the Holy Days.

Verse 2: “Be watchful, and strengthen the things that remain, which are about to die....” Unless you act upon knowledge, upon the Word of God, it’s going to die! Other things will come along and crowd it out.

“...For I have not found your works complete before God” (v 2). The only way our works are complete is if we keep the works of Jesus Christ to the end!

Verse 3: “Therefore, remember what you have received and heard, and hold on to this, and repent. Now then, if you will not watch, I will come upon you as a thief, and you shall by no means know what hour I will come upon you.”

The judgment of God can come at any time! Remember what happened to King Nebuchadnezzar? He got all lifted up and said, ‘Look at all this Babylon; this is what I have built. What a wonderful thing, I’m a great person. Look at what I have done.’

The judgment and warning that Daniel gave him came upon him. For seven years Nebuchadnezzar was out there eating grass like the animals. After the seven years were over and God gave him back his sanity, he wrote the Epistle of Nebuchadnezzar (Dan. 4).

All those in authority would do well to read that, to understand that God can come upon you quickly! That’s what He said!

Verse 4: “You have a few names even in Sardis who have not defiled their garments, and they shall walk with Me in white because they are worthy. The one who overcomes shall be clothed in white garments; and I will not blot out his name from the Book of Life...” (vs 4-5).

What do you know about that! Think on that for just a minute! That could happen; that’s going to happen to some, obviously, if they don’t repent.

“...but I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels. The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches” (vs 5-6).

- Do we hear?
- Are our minds open?
- Are our hearts open?
- Are we willing in attitude, in love and in submission to God the Father and Jesus Christ?

VI. Church at Philadelphia

Verse 7: “And to the angel of the Church in Philadelphia, write: “These things says the Holy One, the One Who is true; the One Who has the key of David, Who opens and no one shuts, and Who shuts and no one opens. I know your works...” (vs 7-8).

Here’s the message: Write! Think of all of these as a personal message from Jesus Christ to each of us as individuals and to all the Churches of God as organizations. God is judging both.

“...Behold, I have set before you an open door, and no one has the power to shut it because you have a little strength, and have kept My Word, and have not denied My name” (v 8).

The Church of Smyrna and Philadelphia, out of the seven, that are not told to repent. We’re told to overcome. So, the only way that this can come about, that you have nothing to repent of is because you’re repenting every day, and you’re living by every word of God. You are loving the Truth and studying the Word of God, filling your mind with it and keeping the commandments of God.

This is going to come, v 9: “Behold, I will make those of the synagogue of Satan... [the super elite of the world: politically, economically, religiously] ...who proclaim themselves to be Jews and are not, but do lie. Behold, I will cause them to come and worship before your feet...” They’re going to worship God in our presence! Isn’t that something?

This is what we need, this is the complete model that God wants us to follow:

- loving God
- loving the brethren
- keeping His Word
- being faithful in everything

“...and to know that I have loved you” (v 9). God loves you and Christ loves you!

That’s why these seven letters to the seven churches. It fits through all time, every individual and every church organization. Quite something!

Remember, Jesus said to His disciples that the words that He speaks are Spirit and Life. The flesh profits nothing!

Verse 10: “Because you have kept the Word of My patience...”—the works; I know your works of:

- keeping the Word of His patience
- not denying His name
- keeping His Word

“...I also will keep you from the time of temptation, which is about to come upon the whole world to try those who dwell on the earth” (v 10). That will undoubtedly be the mark of the beast! It is coming! It is coming!

Everyone is going to be use to it. We have the closest thing to it now. We have chips you can put in the right hand, or the eye-watch (iris scan) with the computer, everything right there.

Everyone who takes the mark of the beast is going to give up his or her free moral agency to Satan the devil directly! We need to think about that! It’s coming upon the whole earth.

Verse 11: “Behold, I am coming quickly; hold fast that which you have so that no one may take away your crown.” We’re living in a time when we need to watch all:

- the doctrines
- false teaching
- false prophets
- false ministers
- false brethren

Verse 12: “The one who overcomes will I make a pillar in the temple of My God, and he shall not go out anymore; and I will write upon him the name of My God, and the name of the city of My God, the New Jerusalem, which will come down out of heaven from My God; and I will write upon him My new name.” That is a wonderful and fantastic thing, brethren!

Verse 13: “The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.”

VII. Church at Laodicea

A lot has been said about the Laodiceans. It sounds like a lot of the Church today. It’s probably true that what we know as the Church of God today, the greatest majority have been Laodicean. So, write a message. As we read these things, let’s take it:

- personally to ourselves for correction
- collectively for all of the congregations of God, wherever they are Verse 14: “And to the angel of the Church of the Laodiceans, write: These things says the Amen, the faithful and true Witness, the Beginner of the creation of God. I know your works... [to all of the churches] ...that you are neither cold nor hot; I would that you be either cold or hot. So then, because you are lukewarm, and are neither cold nor hot, I will spew you out of My mouth” (vs 14-16).

Does that not sound like scattering the Church? Yes, indeed! We have so many things today that we become complacent! Never in the history of the world has it been so applicably true!

Verse 17: “For you say, ‘I am rich, and have become wealthy, and have need of nothing’... [‘Look at all the blessings of God.’ Really?] ...and you do not understand that you are wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked.” That’s a terrible condition to be in!

Yet, there are those who are that way today. But you don’t need to give up hope, because God loves you! You need to repent like He says!

Verse 18: “I counsel you to buy from Me gold purified by fire...”—through trial; Paul writes of gold, silver, precious stone; wood, hay and stubble (1-Cor. 3). The fiery trial is going to prove it! There are going to be fiery trials.

- What are you going to do?
- Are you going to yield to God?

or

- Are you going to complain?
- Are you going to run off and seek comfort and safety somewhere, through some thing?
- Are you going to avoid coming before God to repent?
- Are you going to repent just partly of what you do?

or

- Are you going to repent of everything that you are?

“...so that you may be rich; and white garments so that you may be clothed, and the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and to anoint your eyes with eye salve, so that you may see” (v 18). When you anoint your eyes with eye salve, then you need to pray the prayer of:

Psalm 119:18: “Open my eyes so that I may behold wondrous things out of Your Law”—all of the Word of God!

God loves the Laodiceans, He loves all of those of the seven churches. Today, as you look around the world, God looks at it and there are these seven churches in existence today. It’s not restricted to any one single corporate church. So, if any minister says:

If you are not in this church, you are not going to receive eternal life. If you leave this church you're going to into the Lake of Fire.

LIE!

- IF you are not in Christ and God the Father you are not in the Church!
- IF you reject the Truth and turn your back and walk away from it, you will be in the Lake of Fire!

That's what God has said! But God's Word and God's people are not restricted to one single organization on earth.

Revelation 3:19: "As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore, be zealous and repent." God loves the Laodiceans!

They have some work to do. Verse 20 shows something very, very important. You have pushed Christ out of your life so far that He has to come and knock to get back in.

Verse 20: "Behold, I stand at the door and knock. if anyone hears My voice... [through the Word of God and your conscience] ...and opens the door... [the door of your mind, because you have pushed Christ so far out] ...I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with Me."

- there is a revival for you
- there is an opportunity for you

But you have to repent!

Verse 21: "To the one who overcomes will I give authority to sit with Me in My Throne, even as I also overcame, and sat down with My Father in His Throne. The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."

Phase One of the Return of Jesus Christ

In order to understand the first phase of the return of Jesus Christ, that is keyed to the verse in Rev. 1, 'Behold, every eye shall see Him.' Let's see how this is going to work and how this is going to develop.

First of all, Jesus tells His disciples that there will be many false prophets; they'll deceive you. There will be wars and rumors of wars, famines, pestilence, earthquake in different places. Nation against nation and kingdom against kingdom.

Matthew 24:8: "Now, all these things are the beginning of sorrows."

These have come in cycles down through time, and we're seeing it come again being all magnified and fulfilled according to the Word of God.

Verse 10: "And then shall many be led into sin, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another." We're right in that time right now! That's what's happening.

Verse 11: "And many false prophets shall arise, and shall deceive many." There are more false prophets than ever before!

Remember what those at the Church of Ephesus did. They tested all the false prophets; tested their teachings whether it was of the Truth or the deception.

Verse 12: "And because lawlessness shall be multiplied..." That's what it is in the world today, everywhere!

- no one can tell the truth
- no one is honest
- no one knows right from wrong
- no one knows good from evil

Everyone thinks that his own actions are good, even that their lies and stories that they tell will serve a good purpose to make people aware of things. How ridiculous! If that's not from Satan the devil, I don't know what is.

"...the love of many shall grow cold" (v 12). Who can trust anyone? But here we are in the middle of it:

Verse 13: "But the one who endures to the end, that one shall be saved."

Today we have more means of preaching the Gospel to the world than at any time in the history of the world. It's getting more and more widespread through all of the vast technology that we have. We ourselves have:

- truthofgod.org
- churchathome.org
- afaithfulversion.org
- originalbiblestore.org
- godsyouth.org

Other Churches of God likewise have websites and things where they are reaching out and preaching. We have those people who are preaching the Gospel and warning, even out of contention, not really truly right, but having some Truth in it. We have those who are warning concerning:

- the financial problems
- the crime problems
- the government problems
- the religious problems

What is happening, because all the churches are coming together under Rome, they are accepting same-sex marriage, homosexuality, the worship of idols and things like that. It's all magnified here in the end-times.

Verse 15: "Therefore, when you see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the Holy place.'...."

That did not happen with the destruction of the temple in 70_{A.D.} that's why you have a parenthetical statement inserted there, right in the midst of what Jesus said. This was inspired to be put there by Jesus Himself when John was canonizing the New Testament:

"...(The one who reads, let him understand.)" (v 15).

They're working on the temple. They even had practice with the slaughtering of lambs for the Passover in Israel. It's going to be interesting to see how things come together. There will be a temple built. They will discover—and are already working on it now—that they don't have to put the temple where the Mosque of Omar is, where the Muslims consider that to be the holiest place. They couldn't ever build it there, and that's not where the temple actually was; it was south of there.

So, they will be able to build it right where the Spring of Gihon is. How soon that will be we don't know. But they are gradually—through The Temple Institute (templeinstitute.org)—having many things all ready to go. So, there will be a temple, because Rev. 11 tells us there will be a temple. There will be an 'abomination of desolation' because Jesus said there would be. It didn't happen in 70_{A.D.}

Verse 16: "Then let those who are in Judea flee into the mountains. Let the one who is on the housetop not come down to take anything out of his house" (vs 16-17). You have to flee immediately!

Verse 18: "And let the one who is in the field not go back to take his garments. But woe to those women who are expecting a child, and to those who are nursing infants in those days! And pray that your flight be not in the winter, nor on the Sabbath" (vs 18-20).

That shows we're to keep the Sabbath!
When that happens, this is the signal of the starting of the Great Tribulation. We will go through and see that that is the key for us to begin to understand the first phase of the return of Jesus Christ!

Verse 21: "For then shall there be great tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until this time, nor ever shall be again. And if those days were not limited..." (vs 21-22)—not the word shortened (KJV)!

False prophets come along and say, 'Jesus could return at any time and God could cut the days short.' NO! He is saying that the Tribulation is limited. What is the limit of the Tribulation? Three and a half years!

If there were not the limit "...there would no flesh be saved; but for the elect's sake those days shall be limited. Then if anyone says to you, "Behold, here is the Christ," or, "He is there," do not believe it. For there shall arise false Christs and false prophets, and they shall present great signs and wonders, in order to deceive, if possible, even the elect" (vs 22-24).

Think about that! If you do not follow the instructions of what Jesus said, of testing the false prophets, whether they are of the Truth of God or not. It's going to be hard and very difficult because there are so many different Bibles out there, so many different translations out there. That's why we have The Faithful Version.

Verse 25: "Behold, I have foretold it to you. Therefore, if they say to you, 'Come and see! He is in the wilderness'; do not go forth. 'Come and see! He is in the secret chambers'; do not believe it" (vs 25-26).

Here is the first phase of the return of Jesus Christ, v 27. We have to add in something from the book of Hosea that is very important—Hosea 5 (last part) and first part of Hosea 6. It shows that God is going to afflict Israel for two whole years. That will be lifted with the 144,000 (Rev. 7). Then there is a year and a half left before Christ and the saints come back to the earth from the Sea of Glass.

Here is how they are going to see Christ:
Right at the beginning of the third year of Tribulation, meaning there's a year and a half left:

Verse 27: "For as the light of day, which comes forth from the east and shines as far as the west, so also shall the coming of the Son of man be." Phase ONE!

All of a sudden there is going to be in the sky—and we'll see it when that happens—another sun. They will see it as the earth turns on its axis for a year and a half. It will be out there plenty far enough that after they get used to the fact that it is there, they will continue on with their wars and fighting. Then Christ explains how that's going to happen.

Verse 29: "But immediately after the tribulation of those days... [against Israel, it continues to get worse for the rest of the world (Rev. 8, 9, etc.) ...the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken. And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven; and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming upon the clouds of heaven with power and great glory" (vs 29-30).

The resurrection is not going to take place immediately. Let's see how all of this comes about. Let's understand that these things will happen just exactly as it's laid out here in the book of Revelation. Jesus opens the seals.

We will see where it brings us from the beginning of the Tribulation up through to the time when, just described by Jesus Christ, the sign of the Son of man in heaven! The world will see it and the world will know it. Even though they will see and know it, they will think this is an invasion from outer space by aliens, which will be true! Christ is an alien and all the resurrected saints will be aliens, and we will come from heaven—where the clouds are—and take over the earth.

Rev. 6—the first seal is opened and the gathering of all the religions together. After that takes place, the second seal opens and that is the beginning of the Tribulation, and it's going to last three and a half years. The first two years are going to be against Israel. The rest of the time is going to be against the rest of the world and will be far more intense and difficult than what came against Israel.

Then the third seal is opened and we have famine and death, rationing of food and so forth. Then the fourth seal is opened—death—and killed is one-fourth of the earth. Imagine one-fourth of mankind is going to die in the Tribulation and wars of men against men. Of course, there will be demons behind the scenes doing it. But not like it will be when we come to Rev. 8. Then the fifth seal is the martyrdom of the saints. We've covered that how with the Church at Smyrna. That is going to come again.

Right after that the sixth seal when the sign of the Son of man appears in the heavens like a second sun:

Revelation 6:12: "And when He opened the sixth seal, I looked, and behold, there was a great earthquake... [just like Jesus described] ...and the sun became black as the hair of sackcloth, and the moon became as blood; and the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as a fig tree casts its untimely figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind" (vs 12-13). A fantastic thing is going to take place; unbelievable!

This is when they will see the sign of the Son of man, the second sun in the sky! Something is going to happen in the heavens to cause that to be. Every eye will see this, and it will be there for a year and a half. No one is going to have any excuses!

Verse 14: "Then the heaven departed like a scroll that is being rolled up, and every mountain and island was moved out of its place. And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the powerful men, and every bondman, and every free man hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains; and they said to the mountains and to the rocks, 'Fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him Who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, because the great day of His wrath has come, and who has the power to stand?'" (vs 14-17).

The first thing He does is in Rev. 7 because this ends the Tribulation against Israel, with the saving of the 144,000, and against those who repent because of the awesome signs and sights that they see. They will have a little over a year until the resurrection. The world will have a year and a half until Christ returns with the saints.

This is the first phase of the return of Christ, and we'll pick it up tomorrow with the resurrection Pentecost and what is going to happen at that time.

Pentecost

CHAPTER THIRTY-EIGHT

The Feast of Pentecost

Fred R. Coulter

Greetings brethren! Welcome to the Feast of Pentecost. This is really quite a tremendous and wonderful day when we understand the full significance of it and what it means to us, because this is the day that all true Christians are looking for.

This day is the harvest of the firstfruits, and the firstfruits are those in the first resurrection. We're going to see that on the 50th day it tells us what they were to bring. There were special offerings that they were to bring. One has significance for the prophetic meaning of Pentecost, and the other has to do with the offerings that we are to take, because in Deut. 16 it says that when we have Pentecost—also called the Feast of Weeks—after you count out seven weeks and you're to have the Feast of Weeks, which then is the 50th day.

Leviticus 23:17 points out: “You shall bring out of your homes two wave loaves of two tenth parts. They shall be of fine flour. They shall be baked with leaven...”

It is the only offering other than a peace offering where they could bring leavened bread with the offering. The leavened bread was not ever to be burned, only unleavened bread was to be burned! The other was to be eaten.

“...they are the firstfruits to the LORD” (v 17).

So there's a significance in relating to those who are going to be in the resurrection and the Church. Then it gives the offering that they were to offer: all of the rams and the lambs, and so forth:

“...even an offering made by fire, of sweet savor to the LORD” (v 18). Then it talks about the sacrifice of the peace offering and sin offering (v 19)!

Verse 20: “And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits...” So, waving is the same thing when you come back to the first day!

What do you have on the first day of the count? You are to have the premiere sheaf that was specially cut, that is waved before the Lord! We know this symbolizes the ascension of Jesus into heaven on the first day of the count toward Pentecost to be accepted of God the Father rather as the sacrifice for the sins of the whole world.

“...wave offering before the LORD...” (v 20).

If it applies to Jesus ascending and being accepted of God the Father on the first day, then this also has to apply to those who are in the Church to be waved and accepted by God on the Day of Pentecost.

“...with the two lambs. They shall be Holy to the LORD for the priest. And you shall proclaim on the same day... [that very day, the 50th day] ...that it may be a Holy convocation to you. You shall do no servile work therein. It shall be a statute forever in all your dwellings throughout your generations” (vs 20-21).

Since this is a Holy Day, we do take up an offering and it is the firstfruits. We need to understand that God said you shall not fail to bring your firstfruits to Him! It's very, very important. And also the offering that we bring we need to understand that:

- we need to apply ourselves in the offering
- we need to plan for the offerings

We need to realize that just as we are part of the firstfruits who are going to be harvested when the resurrection occurs. Likewise, as we are planning to grow in grace and knowledge in character to be able to be raised from the dead when that time comes, then when we bring an offering to God we need to plan it; we need to prepare for it!

That's why Paul gives it in 2-Cor. 9:6—a living principle. I've seen this over and over and over again in the lives of people, not only in the world but especially in the Church.

2-Corinthians 9:6: “But this I say: the one who sows sparingly shall also reap sparingly; and the one who sows bountifully shall also reap bountifully.”

This is a living principle! It's just the way that it is. If you're a curmudgeon with God, He's going to be a curmudgeon with you. It's just that simple! Whether it be in:

- our character
- our prayers
- our growing
- our overcoming

- our studying
- our thinking
- our giving of tithes and offerings

It's all the same thing!

Verse 7: “Each one as he purposes in his heart...”—because we are to give according to the blessings that God gives us! Not only just the physical blessings, but also the spiritual blessings!

“...so let him give, but not grudgingly or by compulsion; for God loves a cheerful giver” (v 7).

In other words, instead of saying, ‘Oh, it’s a Holy Day; I know the minister is going to ask for an offering. Well, all right I’ll give it.’ NO! It’s just like everything else, you need to look forward to it and you need to perform it from the heart with a willing attitude! Here is what God is able to do, because those who are curmudgeons do not believe:

Verse 8: “For God is able to make all grace abound toward you so that in every way you may always have sufficiency in all things, and may abound unto every good work.”

That’s what we need to look at with the offerings that God wants us to bring. Keep that in mind! When it comes down to tithes and offerings we’re not dealing in our own property, we’re dealing as custodians or stewards of the property of God! He wants us to have it with:

- a right heart
- a right mind
- a right attitude

You need to trust God! He’s able to make all grace abound toward you.

Let me just say this: as we have seen and as we know, IF you do not do from the heart what God wants you to do in everything that you do, not only in giving—but since we’re talking about offerings and giving—as one man wrote, he didn’t tithe and he didn’t give offerings. He spent all of that money on things in his life—which amounted to penalties against him—because he wasn’t right with God in his heart, mind and attitude. He said, ‘I spent the tithe all the way to bankruptcy court.’ Then he learned the lesson: if you can’t get along on the 90% that God gives you, then you’re surely not going to get along on the 100% that you’re claiming. We just need to keep that in mind!

Today on the Feast of Pentecost we’re going to see the great blessing that God has in store for us as pictured by this Holy Day.

(pause for offering)

There are many things we could cover on Pentecost. Some of these things we are going to review rather than get in great detail in it, because we cover different aspects of it every year when we do.

God gave the Ten Commandments on the Day of Pentecost. The Day of Pentecost did not picture the firstfruits until after they got into the land, as far as the harvest was concerned. But it did picture the firstfruits of God in calling Israel as the first nation! It also pictures those people whom God has called beginning with Seth, and all through the righteous line that we find before the Flood, and then with Abraham after the Flood, who we know that Jesus said will be in the first resurrection.

Leviticus 23:17: “You shall bring out of your homes two wave loaves of two tenth parts. They shall be of fine flour. They shall be baked with leaven; they are the firstfruits to the LORD.” This was a special firstfruit!
