I REALLY DO CARE

*As I sit on this hill after the storm
I think of my mom and it makes me all warm*

*Her caring smile and loving face
I'll care them with me from place to place*

*Just something about her, her smell, her touch
The memories I have aren't all that much*

*Just the feeling I get from her warm embrace
I'll carry them with me from place to place*

*Life is too short and it's never fair
How do I say, "I really do care!"*

Poem by Rachelle Coulter - Aged 11
